REPUBLICANS PAY YOUR POLL TAX FOR THE YEAR NINETEEN HUNDRED AND NINE ON OR BEFORE MAY THE FIRST OR YOU WILL BE DISFRANCHISED

The Contest is Growing in Popularity Every Day

The nominations will positively close June 1st, and unless your favorite has been nominated by that date, she cannot secure the grand prize. After the nominations close we will then announce when the contest will close. But remember, unless your favorite is nominated by June 1st, you will not have the pleasure of seeing her win the prize.

The piano is a beauty, all who have seen it say it is one of the prettiest they ever saw. There is no time lost in getting into the contest, get your friends busy and then get busy yourself, don't say it is too late. It will only take 23 yearly subscriptions to catch up with the highest contestant, you can get that many in a short time. All it takes is hustle and a few friends to hustle for you.

Your school, church, or fraternal order can enter now and by a little work secure the grand prize. Tell your neighbors, and get them to tell their neighbors, and let the women talk about it all day and the men all night. You may never have the chance to help some friend get such a nice present again. Look at the list of presents, they are all worth working for. No paper in the State ever offered such valuable and costly prizes. Are you going to let the other fellow get ahead of you. Get into the fight. Get busy. Get votes and the votes will get the piano. Remember the nominations close June the 1st. Nominate your friend, school, church, or fraternal order now. Don't put it off, now is the time. Sociable Saturday Night.

Saturday night from seven to eleven at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Hoffman, on West Front street, quite a number of friends were delightfully entertained. Games were played, delicious refreshments were served and music rendered by the musician of the occasion. The following who will remember the occasion very pleasantly were present: Misses Bessie and Blanche Thompson, Lillian and Vellna Shoffner, Mary White and Eunice McAdams, Jessie McBane, Lelia Patterson, Bertha, Florence and Emma Hoffman, Messrs. Joseph Thompson, Benjamin and Arthur Hoffman and J. E. Foust.

Suicide at Altamahaw.

Chas. Brann, a weaver at Altamahaw shot himself about nine o'clock last night at his home. Trouble over the death of his wife last week is supposed to have been the cause. After borrowing a shot gun from one of his neighbors he and two other men were at his home, when he sent one of the gentlemen after a bucket on the other side of the house, while gone he shot himself through the heart dying immediately.

On yesterday he told one of his neighbors where he wanted to be buried, also paid to the Secretary of the Jr. O. U. A. M., his dues. Brann was about 22 years of age and moved to Altamahaw two years ago from Rockingham county and prior to the death of his wife showed no signs of trouble.

Oakdale Notes.

Alfred Spoon, proprietor of Nursery, attended court at Graham selling trees, made good sales. Today (Monday) he goes to Asheboro on the same errand. The Patterson Township Sunday school convention will meet at Mt. Zion Baptist church next Sunday, the 27th. Everybody invited. They hope to have some good speaking and singing. The farmers are taking the advantage of the nice weather to plow.

News is a little scarce this week, we have not as much time to hunt up news as our friend over on Rock Creek No. 2 has to be nosing around on some one's territory.

We were very sorry this morning to hear of the death of our old friend, Mr. "Minter" Hornaday, as he was always called here. He was raised and spent most, if not all his school days at Oakdale. He was a good neighbor—always accommodating any and all he could. The family have the sympathy of all.

B. B. Holt, of Graham, is sawing the framing for the new church at Mt. Zion.

Burlington Township Sunday S. Convention.

Burlington Township Sunday School Convention held its semi-annual Convention at the Christian church Sunday Evening at 7:30. Rev. A. G. Dixon pastor of the M. P. church at High Point was present delivering a very appropriate address on the subject "The Sunday School work and how to cultivate it. E. S. W. Dameron, spoke in a masterly manner on "The Laymens Relation to the Sunday School." While Rev. Andrew showed clearly the pastors relation to the Sunday School. Rev. Fleming in a few befitting words introduced the visiting speaker. New officers elected as follows: E. S. W. Dameron, president, Lea A. Fowler and R. G. Rogers re-elected vice-president and secretary and treasurer.

These Sunday School conventions are of untold assistance to Sunday School workers. All are looking forward eagerly to the meeting of the county convention at Cross Roads April 2nd and 3rd.

Announcement

Arrangements have been made for a series of evangelistic services to be held in Front Street Methodist church. Special prayer services will be held each night this week. Beginning with the Sunday services, two services will be held each day for ten days. Rev. J. H. Frizelle, of the North Carolina Conference, of the M. E. church, South, and at present pastor of St. John's church in Goldsboro, N. C., is to assist in the meetings, and will reach Burlington next Monday evening in time to preach at the evening service. We most cordially invite the pastors of the other churches in the city, and their congregations, as far as possible, to unite with us in these services. We also extend a cordial invitation to the public generally to attend the services. Respectfully,

J. A. Hornaday, Pastor.

Messrs W. E. King and E. T. Hornes spent Sunday near Vincent visiting the mother of Mr. King.

MR. S. M. HORNADAY, ONE OF OUR FOREMOST CITIZENS PASSES AWAY

A feeling of intense sadness was brought to the minds of our citizens Sunday evening when it was learned that Mr. S. M. Hornaday, who had been critically ill for about two weeks with pneumonia at his home on Broad Street, was dying. He passed away at 9:30 Sunday night surrounded by his family and many friends.

Mr. Hornaday was born and spent the early part of his life in the Rock Creek neighborhood. In early manhood he was married to Miss Annie L. Albright, daughter of the late J. P. Albright, who died several years ago. About four years ago he was united in marriage the second time to Mrs. Emma Bain Pough, of Greensboro, who with four children by his first marriage survive him. The children are: Carl L. Hornaday, L. Bascom Hornaday, Miss Annie Dare Hornaday, of this city, and Clyde Hornaday, who is a student at Oak Ridge Institute. He is also survived by two brothers, Messrs. R. G. Hornaday, a prominent farmer, whose home is just West of this city, and O. N. Hornaday, of the Rock Creek section.

Mr. Hornaday, was a man of large business interests, being a member of the Board of Education of the City of Burlington, the Graded School closing Tuesday as a token of respect, was a member of the Board of Directors of the Alamance Loan & Trust Company, one of the largest banks in the county, also a member of the Board of Directors of the Alamance Insurance & Real Estate Company, Vice-president of The State Dispatch Publishing Company, proprietor of the Dixie Roller Mill, a member of the Knights of Pythians and last but not least a devout, consecrated Christian gentleman, a member of the Methodist Protestant Church.

The funeral was conducted at the home at one o'clock yesterday by Rev. J. D. Williams, his pastor, assisted by Rev. R. M. Andrews, of Henderson, the burial taking place at Pine Hill Cemetery. The large number and beautiful floral designs which covered his grave signify the high esteem in which he was held by his many friends.

We join the many friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved loved ones.

Death of Miss Julia Hurdle.

Sunday evening, March the 13, at half past two o'clock the death angel visited the home of Mr. J. M. Teer, of near Stainback, N. C., and claimed for its victim a. at Julia Hurdle, an aged blind lady, 72 years of age. Our hearts was saddened to hear of this death, but we are sure she has gone to her reward. She will be missed in that and our home. A precious one from us has gone but not forgotten. We must humbly bow to the will of Him who deals gently and mercifully with His children.

We extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy in this hour of darkness. She was sick but a short while with pneumonia in both sides. All was done for her that kind friends and loving hands could do, but all in vain. The Lord knew best. Monday at half past two a large crowd followed her to the Foville grave, where they laid her to rest and await her call.

Wrote by her cousin,

Mrs. W. M. KING, Burlington, N. C.

Big Time Easter Monday.

The Oneida Band of Graham promises everybody who will go with them to the Silver Springs, on Bass Mountains, Easter Monday the best time they ever enjoyed. Carriages and wagons have been provided to take all the ladies free of charge who will furnish small lunch. Gentlemen pay fifty cents and take as many girls as he wishes.

Leave Graham about 8 o'clock with plenty of music by the Band and a large crowd. Just think of getting in the country and having a big picnic, plenty to eat, and to hear good speeches at the Springs. Everybody join and have a big time once in your life.

A Card of Thanks.

We, the undersigned, wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends for their kind hospitality and generous help in the sickness and death of our uncle, Eli Isley.

Mrs. AND MRS. J. C. SHEPPARD.

A PROCLAMATION

By the President of the United States of America.

Whereas by the Act of Congress approved July 2, 1909, the Thirteenth Decennial Census of the United States is to be taken, beginning on the fifteenth day of April, nineteen hundred and ten; and

Whereas a correct enumeration of the population every ten years is required by the Constitution of the United States for the purpose of determining the representation of the several States in the House of Representatives; and

Whereas it is of the utmost importance to the interests of all the people of the United States that this census should be a complete and accurate report of the population and resources of the country;

Now, therefore, I, WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT, President of the United States of America, do hereby declare and make known that, under the act aforesaid, it is the duty of every person to answer all questions on the census schedules applying to him and the family to which he belongs, and to the farm occupied by him or his family, and that any adult refusing to do so is subject to penalty.

The sole purpose of the census is to secure general statistical information regarding the population and resources of the country, and replies are required from individuals only in order to permit the compilation of such general statistics. The census has nothing to do with taxation, with army or jury service, with the compulsion of school attendance, with the regulation of immigration, or with the enforcement of any national, state, or local law or ordinance, nor can any other person be harmed in any way by furnishing the information required. There need be no fear that any disclosure will be made regarding any individual person or his affairs. For the due protection of the rights and interests of the persons furnishing information every employee of the Census Bureau is prohibited, under heavy penalty, from disclosing any information which may thus come to his knowledge.

I therefore earnestly urge upon all persons to answer promptly, completely, and accurately all inquiries addressed to them by the enumerators or other employees of the Census Bureau, and thereby to contribute their share toward making this great and necessary public undertaking a success.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this fifteenth day of March, A. D., one thousand nine hundred and (SEAL) ten, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-fourth.

W. M. H. TAFT.

By the President: P. C. KNOX, Secretary of State.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy extended to us during the sickness and after the death of the wife and mother. May God in his infinite wisdom amply reward each one, as it is not in our power so to do, as each one deserves.

T. JACKSON ISLEY AND FAMILY.

Card of Thanks.

I take this method to thank all my neighbors and friends and especially the Daughters of Liberty, for their kindness during the sickness and death of my wife, and I pray God that his richest blessings may rest upon them all, their kindness will always be remembered by me.

S. R. Walker who lives in the southeast section of the city, had his store house destroyed by fire last Friday night. There were some $2,000 worth of goods stored in the house at the time and all was a total loss as Mr. Walker carried no insurance.

The fire was making fearful head way before the fire department received the alarm, and the distance to the scene of the fire, as the distance from the water mains rendered the department incapable of giving the needed immediate assistance. It is a great loss to Mr. Walker, and he has the sympathy of our entire community.

Still In The Dark.

Here is a story of the handwriting of Joaquin Miller, the "Poet of the Sierras," who has the reputation of being the worst penman in America since the days of Horace Greeley.

He was invited by the secretary of a well-known club to take part in some festive celebration. His answer covered four pages, but no one could decipher it.

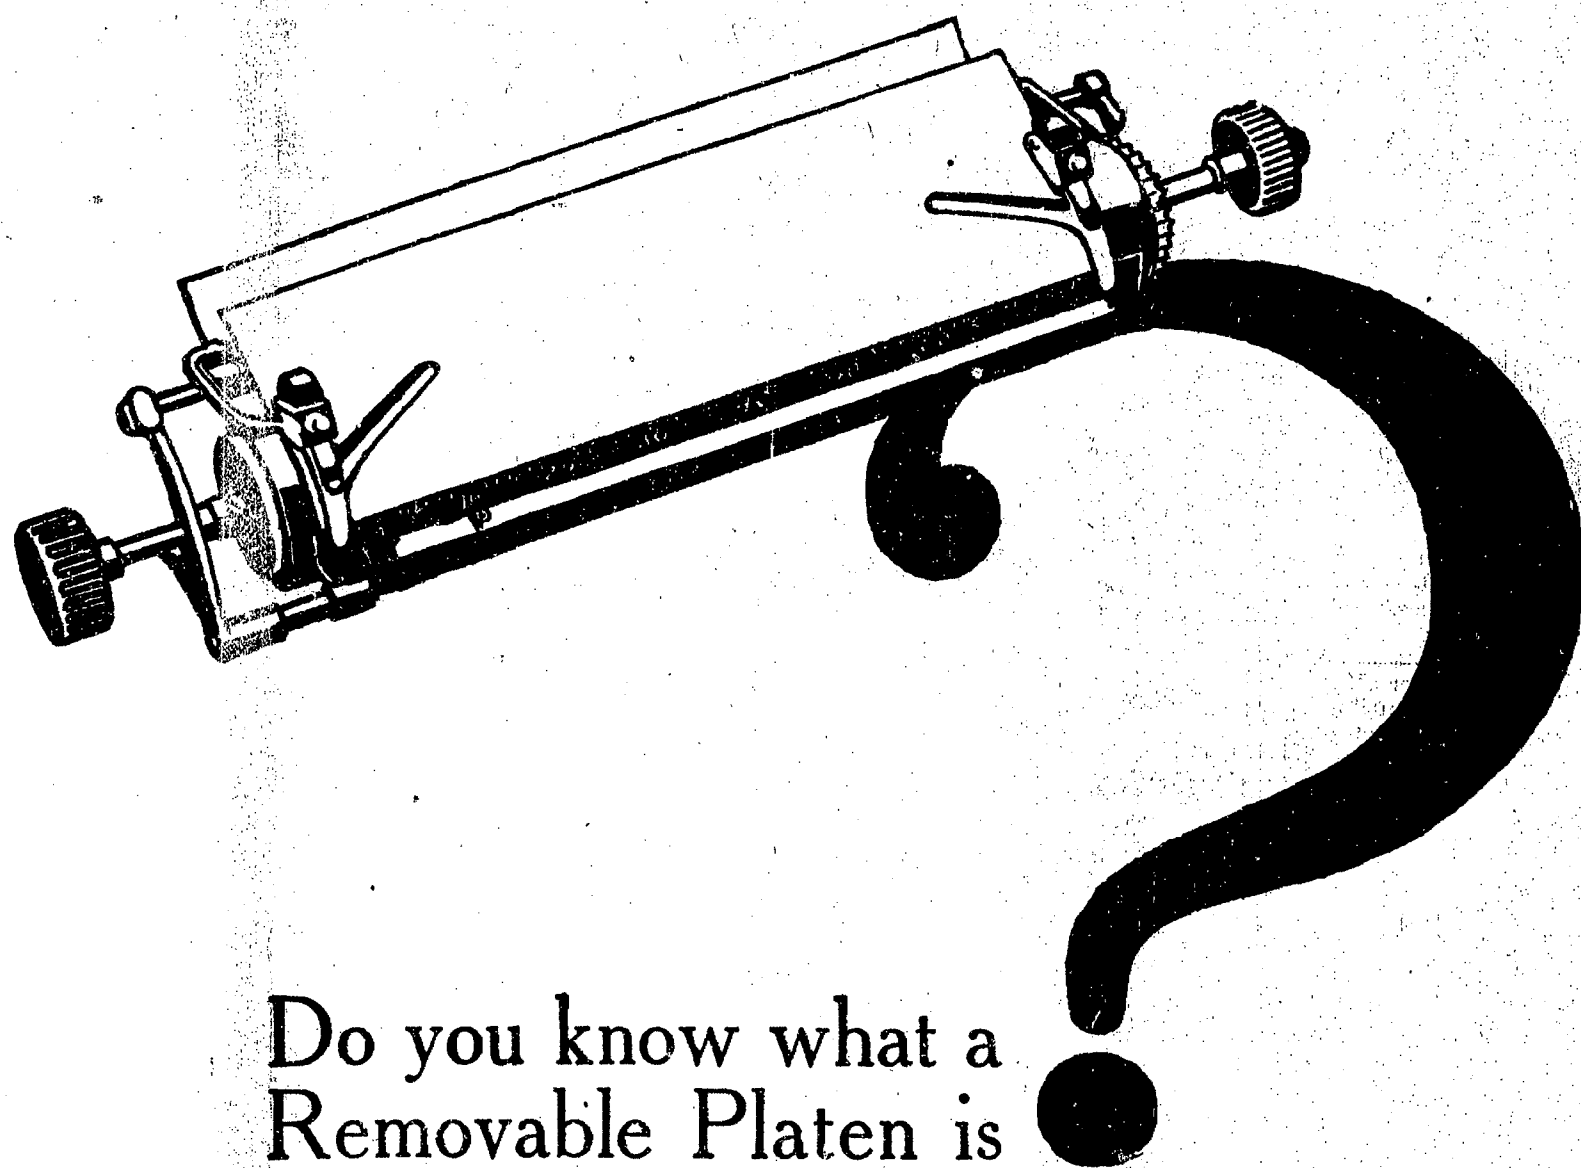

There was nothing for it but to write again to Mr. Miller, regretting that it could not be determined whether his communication was an acceptance or a refusal, and, adding, "If you will be present on the date mentioned will you kindly make a cross on the bottom of this letter? If it will be impossible for you to appear, will you kindly draw a circle?" By return of post the letter came back with a sign appended according to request.

But it was absolutely impossible for anyone to say whether it was meant to be a cross or a circle. —Tid-Bits.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. If Guilford county keeps up her present reputation, it will cause
"Smithtown" to blush with shame.

In all probability a blockade distillery was at the bottom of that bloody affair in Guilford county last week.

We have heard Democratic politicians make claims before Josephus Daniels become the chief prognosticator in North Carolina.

Have you paid your poll tax?
Better do this at once, if you wish to participate in the bond election in May and the general election in November.

This is the year that the Democrats will sweep everything in sight, at least they will claim it will be next time.

If you expect to vote in the approaching bond election and the general election this year, pay your poll tax. Attend to this now, after May 1st, it will be too late.

We note from an exchange that a man has been bound over to court in Raleigh for selling liquor, not by the state or city authorities. It was by a United States Commissioner.

Now is the time for all Republicans to pay their poll tax for the year 1909, and unless you do so on or before May 1st, of this year you cannot vote, attend to this now. I can't put it off.

The Yanceyville Sentinel has been leased by its owner Mr. T.
J. Henderson of Websters Weekly Reidsville, to Mr. A. J. Massey, a young man of much promise who will conduct it in the future.

With all the efforts put forth to try to discredit the meeting held at Henderson a few weeks ago, it will not down. The Democratic leaders would try to make it appear that it was a joke, but they know better.

The sheriff of Surry county is no doubt doing his duty, as he sees it, in enforcing the prohibition law, but he stands no more chance of being re-elected than a Republican does in Halifax. So it need cut no ice with sheriff
Haynes, he is done for anyway.

The Raleigh Evening times announces that after April 1st, it will not carry whiskey advertisements. This is commendable, but we do not understand why it should have ever polluted its columns with such rot. For our part, we do not want them, have never solicited them, nor never will. We have from time to time assailed the prohibition law, and the manner in which it was being enforced and shall continue to do so. We believe in temperance, not only along the lines of drinking intoxicating liquors, but in all things.

Unless you pay your poll tax on or before May the first, this year, you will be disfranchised.
See that your tax receipt says for the year 1909. Pay now, don't put it off. The Democrats would like nothing better than to know that you had failed to pay and was disfranchised.

In the death of Mr. S. M.
Hornaday the city loses one of its best business men, the home a kind indulgent husband and father, the church a valiant and consecrated member, the community a highly esteemed citizen and THE STATE DISPATCH one of its efficient officers and loyal friends.

The people of Southern Guilford county have hardly recovered from the shock of that horrible tragedy, when Simpson Coble was killed by his brother-in-law, before another equally as brutal and horrifying is committed.
That section of the country is getting quite a reputation for lawlessness.

The past week two prominent physicians of Guilford county, one from the city of Greensboro and the other from the country, were indicted in the city court at Greensboro for the promiscuous issuing of prescriptions for whiskey. But they fell down. The enforcement of the prohibition law is a problem that is yet far from being solved.

It will aid us materially if our readers will patronize our advertisers. We do business with the best merchants in the city and they are alert to your wants.
Look over THE DISPATCH advertising columns and when convenient make it a point to buy your supplies from our patrons. By so doing you help us and help the merchant who wants and appreciates your patronage.

More Temperance Needed.

Prohibition does prohibit the lawful manufacture and sale of whiskey in North Carolina, but not the drinking of the fiery fluid from other states. More temperance and less prohibition would greatly improve matters.
—Littleton News-Reporter.

A great many people thought, or at least acted as though they thought, it would stop the illegal traffic, but such is not the case, as the reports from our Superior and Municipal courts conclusively show.

Spring Items.

Spring Graded School closed on the 11th with quite an interesting program owing to the inclement weather the congregation was not very large.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Andrew are all smiles. Twin babies at their home. One boy and one girl, 8 and 9 lbs each. The little brats were crying the other night when Mr. Andrew raised up to attend to them and he declared that he heard another one out in the woods crying. He thought that Dr. R. A. Death at Snow Camp.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. P. P. Thompson died last Friday afternoon March 18th aged 34 years, and was buried at Cane Creek the 20th, the funeral being conducted by Rev. Miles Reece. She was a kind christian mother and no matter how gloomy the day appeared at times, she never became discouraged but fought the battle prayerfully and in everything gave thanks. She will be greatly missed by many friends and especially in her home where she leaves a husband and nine children, the oldest being fourteen years old and the youngest about six weeks old. She also leaves a father and mother, William and Cleopatra Williams, two brothers, T. M. and F. R. Williams of Snow Camp, three sisters, Mrs. George Cole, and Mrs. Rufus King of near Ashboro and Mrs. Alfonso Howorth of Florida.

Sleep, oh beloved, sleep and take thy rest;
Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour's breast;
We love thee well, but Jesus loves thee best.
Sleep on! Sleep on! Sleep on!

"Coughing in Church and Public Places."

Nearly every public place you go, where there is a gathering of people, you will find a great many of them continually coughing. This is very annoying to them and we are sure that they would not do it if they could help it. Now if you will take a little Mother's Joy just before going to these places and rub a little up each nostril and take one or two deep breaths, your head will be as clear as a crystal and your throat and lungs as clear microbes as J. P. Morgan's million dollar diamonds.

ELON COLLEGE NOTES.

Special to The Dispatch.
 Crowded out last week.
 Elon College, March 10.—Mrs. J. B. D. Rhodes, Harrisonburg, Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Moffitt, this week. Mrs. P. H. Fleming, Burlington, sister of Mrs. Rhodes, also visited at the Moffitt home this week.
 The Business Board of the State Christian Endeavor Convention met in High Point last Saturday and arranged a program for the approaching State Convention which is to meet in that city April 22 to 24 inclusive. The theme of this convention, as adopted, is to be "My Lord and I," and the song is No. 69, in the New Christian Endeavor Song Book, called "Jubilant Praise." It is hoped that all the Societies in the State, which there is several hundred, will become so familiar with this hymn before the convention that they will be able to sing it with great zeal and impressiveness. At this convention will be present Dr. Chas. H. Hubbell, Adriance, Mich., and Dr. G. W. Haddaway, Baltimore, Md., two of the very best specialists in Christian Endeavor Work in this country. They will make several addresses each during the convention and will, in addition, conduct Open Parliaments on Christian Endeavor Methods. The Quiet Hour Service of the convention will be conducted by Prof. W. P. Lawrence, Elon College; Rev. C. Brown Cox, Burlington; Rev. E. E. Crosland, Winston-Salem; Rev. G. E. Stoney, Winston-Salem; Rev. S. W. Taylor, Littleton; Dr. A. S. Caldwell, High Point, and Rev. Shuford Peeler, Greensboro. Addresses on Christian Endeavor Methods and Principles and Ideals, will be made by Dr. N. L. Anderson, Winston-Salem; Miss Clara Cox, High Point; Rev. R. M. Andrews, Henderson; Dr. J. C. Leonard, Lexington; Rev. S. S. Myrick, Greensboro; Rev. R. E. Steele, Spencer and Rev. Howard Rondthaler, Winston-Salem. A model Christian Endeavor prayer meeting for the young people will be conducted on Sunday morning by Mr. E. H. Stockton, Winston-Salem, and for the children by Mrs. W. C. Jones, High Point. The convention sermon will be preached by the Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., Editor of the Christian Sun, Elon College. In addition to this there will be two-minute reports from the representatives of the various denominations of the Union, and addresses and reports from the State officers, who are as follows: President, W. A. Harper, Elon College; Secretary, Miss Charlotte Webb, Winston-Salem; Treasurer and Superintendent of the Press Department, Miss Mamie Bays, Charlotte; and Junior Superintendent, Mrs. A. G. Dixon, High Point.
 The convention will meet with the Methodist Protestant church of High Point, of which Rev. A. G. Dixon is pastor. Free entertainment will be furnished all speakers and accredited delegates, and the railroads will be asked to give the usual reduction in rates. The outlook is, that "High Point, 1910," will be a record making convention for Christian Endeavor in North Carolina.
 President Moffitt has sufficiently recovered from the grippe to be at his office most of the day during the past week. He is still weak and not yet physically able to resume active field work in connection with raising the proposed endowment, about $15,000.00 of which he has already raised. He is very much encouraged over the outlook.

Honor Roll.
 The following is the roll of honor of the Burlington Graded Schools for the month ending March 4th, 1910.

Elon College Defeats Greensboro High School 5 to 2.

Crowded out last week.
 Elon College, March 14.—The Greensboro High School was defeated in a game with the Elon College team this afternoon by a score of 5 to 2. The game was interesting but lacked snap on account of the extremely disagreeable weather. The Greensboro boys played very well, the locals proved too strong for them. Battery for Greensboro Coffin and Bell. Battery for Elon Ballance, Hearne and Hobbs.
 Hendricks played well for Greensboro, while Ballance, Piersons and Hill did good work for Elon.

Temperance Lecture.
 Crowded out last week.
 Miss Elizabeth Moore president of the W. C. T. U. of N. C. gave three strong lectures at the Baptist church Sunday evening at the Reformed church Sunday night and Graded School Monday morning. Miss Moore plainly showed Sunday night how the mother and young woman could if resolved, put away the use of strong drink by compelling her friends and associates to stand on the same lever that they stand. Miss Moore is a live wire and is doing perhaps more than any other woman in the state for the cause of prohibition. A W. C. T. U. was organized Sunday evening at the Baptist church with Rev. Mrs. Morgan president and Mrs. Dr. Morrow Secretary.

Railroad Courtesy.

The announcement that Union Pacific is going to establish a school in which it will teach its employees the art of courtesy to the traveling public is of interest as showing the growing belief among modern railroad men that it is to their interest to have the good will of the public. The day of the public-damned railroad man is over. It is a fact that some of the old-timers find it difficult to realize, but it is a fact, nevertheless. The public refuses to be damned these days. It has come to recognize that it has certain rights which even corporations, and among them railroads, must recognize. And as the years roll by it becomes more insistent that those rights shall be observed. An editorial writer in one of the railroad publications a short time ago said it was his belief that most of the feeling of the public against railroads was due to the treatment received at the hands of railroad employes with whom it came in contact, and that if these men were taught good manners, polite attention and all that, much of this feeling would disappear. Perhaps it is this belief that actuates railroad officials in demanding nowadays that their employes shall be courteous in the treatment of patrons.

Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, la grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. Church Could Take Lesson From Political Parties

Mr. Editor: Will you please give me a little more space in your valuable columns on last week's subject, as the more I think about it the more interesting it becomes. John 10-16 Christ, looking forward to the establishment of His church, says to the Jews, "And other sheep I have which are not of their fold, them also I must bring and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold and one Shepherd." Paul, also speaking on the same subject, takes Corinthians to task and says, "And I brethren, 1 Cor. 3, verse 1, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ, for ye are yet carnal, for whereas, there is among you envyings and strife and divisions are ye not carnal and work as men, verse 3." "For while one saith I am of Paul, I am of Apolis, are ye not carnal? Who then is Paul and who is Apolis but ministers, by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man, verse 4 and 5. Again 1 Cor. 1, 10 Paul seeming to lament the condition they had fallen into says now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ that ye shall speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment, for it hath been declared unto one of you brethren by them which are of the household, that there are contentions among you. Now this I say that everyone of you saith, I am of Paul and I of Apolis and I of Cephas and I of Christ. Is Christ divided, was Paul crucified for you, or were you baptised into the name of Paul? Here the apostle says that he thanks God that he baptised only two of them. Crispus gains also the Household of Sephanas, and he knew not whether he baptised any others, and I guess his reasons for doing so lest he says any should say he baptised in his own name, a plausible one, verses 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16. (reason why he restrained from baptising any more we will speak of later on.) Now suppose the apostle were here to day, find the professed followers of our Saviour divided here in the United States into at least one hundred and fifty different parties claiming as many different names and holding to and teaching as many different doctrines, would he not say as he did to the Corinthian brethren, ye are carnal and walk as men, and if carnal, are they not sinful and are they not living up to the command to speak and teach the same thing, (doctrine) brethren has not the apostle laid the true foundation which no other can lay which is Jesus Christ. Why does He warn us as to how we build upon it lest we shall be the looser when Christ was baptised by John in the river Jordan, and he, John, seeing the spirit lighting on Christ, and the voice from Heaven acknowledging him as the beloved son of God in whom I am well pleased, and again when Peter, James and John was with Christ on the mount, when the voice from Jehova came from Heaven, saying this is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased, (adding) hear ye him—that is take heed what he command them, again Christ rose from the dead and about separate himself from His disciples, he spake unto them and said, "All power is given unto me in Heaven and in earth go ye therefore and teach all nations baptising them in name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe whatsoever I command you and lo I am with you always even to the end of the world, (time) Mat. 28, verse 18 to 20. Now we should search diligently and find out just what Christ commanded them to teach and what they (the nations) were commanded to obey or do in order to the pardon of sins and be the followers of Christ and his disciples and how they were to live as his followers should live to be one in him and be in fellowship with him (Christ) and with one another. (To be continued.)

He Liked it All.

Johnnie, aged five, liked to go to his grandpa's to dinner. One day one of his aunts said to him: "Johnnie, I think the only reason why you like to eat here is because of the dessert you are sure to get." "Oh, no," said Johnnie, "I like the dinner too."—THE DELINEATOR for April.

A Complete Combination.

William A. Stead the editor of the English Review of Reviews, tells the story of an Irishman who applied to one of his friends for a position as coachman. "You know Pat, if I engage you I shall expect you to do things by combination. For instance, if I tell you to bring the carriage round at a given time I shall expect the horses with it and driving gloves, etc. "Yes, sorr," said Pat. "He was duly engaged and gave satisfaction. One day his master came to him, telling him to look sharp and go for a doctor, as his mistress was ill. Pat was gone for a long time, and on his master grumbling at him for his delay, he said: 'Sure, they're all here, sorr.' "All here?" said the master. "What do you mean?" "What's that got to do with it?" said the master. "Well," said Pat, 'I've got the doctor, the parson and the undertaker.'—Judge.

The Twentieth Century Minstrels at Mebane.

Arrived late for publication last week. Saturday night, March 12th, we had the 20th Century Minstrels, which really means the Bingham School boys, under the direction of Capt. Chas. R. C. Campbell, director of music at Bingham School, was the greatest musical treat that the good people of this and surrounding towns have ever had the pleasure of enjoying. The Minstrel was a complete surprise to the audience, as they had no idea that the boys would come so near the professional style. From the time the curtain went up until the close the audience was in an uproar of laughter and good cheer. Major Robson, as interlocutor, was there with the military. The Clio consisted of a claug dancing and monologues, by Messrs. Joe Long and Carl Moore leading. Last of all, came the musical act by Captains Murgans and Campbell, these gentlemen played on every imaginable or conceivable instrument known and a great many more that were not known. Things certainly flew when they got busy. Music sailed out tin cans, nail pullers, brooms, umbrellas, ocarinas flower pots, Cliding trombones, Cornets, Baritone, Accordions Flutes, Piccoes, Cello box fiddle and the Classa-phone and many others too numerous to mention. The Opera House was packed and everybody went away more than pleased. We congratulate Capt. Campbell in having given us the best show of the season. Theater parties were in great number, one of which, as from Durham, a party of eight.

Congress, however, should exercise moderate discretion in seeing that it does not start so many investigations that they will get in each other's way.

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified. FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

FIRE SINURANCE RATES Too High

But the rates are based on the losses. The total cost of fires in the United States in 1908, excluding that of forest fires and marine losses (in themselves extensive), amounted to the enormous sum of over $456,485,000, a tax on the American people exceeding the total value of all the gold, silver, copper and petroleum produced in the United States that year.

The estimated cost of new buildings erected in the entire country for the same year was $1,000,000,000. Thus it will be seen that nearly one-half of the value of all the new buildings constructed within one year are destroyed by fire.

Rates cannot be lower as long as this awful waste continues, but you that read this can help to reduce this waste, by seeing at least every six months that your flues and chimneys are safe, that matches are kept in metal safes, that no oily rags are allowed to remain in the house, that attics are from rubbish, that no ashes are piled beside the house or left in wooden vessels, and above all realize what a dangerous enemy you have should it once get started.

Out of the millions of dollars that will go up in smoke in 1910 your home, furniture barn, store, mill or shop may be one to contribute to this ash heap.
