For Selfish Pecuniary Gains.

Representative Boutelle, of Chicago states that the Payne bill has raised prices has its origin in three causes—ignorance, political prejudice and pecuniary self-interest. He gives these examples of self interest:

A few weeks ago some lumber dealers met in a western city and said they regretfully must raise the price of common boards on account of the Payne tariff. Think of it! They must raise the price from 50 cents to $1 a thousand on account of the tariff, when the same law reduced the tariff on common boards 75 cents a thousand, and these men meet in convention and attempt to deceive and bunco and hoodwink the people. It was the same way in reference to hides. Hides were put on the free list, but all kinds of shoes have gone up on the wholesale market, and not a single reduction is given in „Dun's Review". Then the woolen dealers got together and said they must raise the price of wool on account of the Payne tariff but there is not in the Payne act one change made in the wool or woolen schedule except two minor ones, and both of these were reductions. These instances sound like tricks that were attempted under the McKinley bill in the same way, and show how men who have pecuniary self-interest at stake are going to attempt to discredit the Payne tariff law for selfish, pecuniary gain.

"Kicked by the Elephant."

"Among Lincoln's circus stories," said a Cincinnati veteran, "was one about a Delaware tough.

"A circus, Lincoln's story ran, visited Newcastle, and the town tough turned out the afternoon of its arrival to see what sort of a circus it was.

"A canvassman, making his usual round, shouting, 'Off the guys!' came suddenly on the town tough who was leaning against the canvass tent wall in the sun, smoking a cornob.

"Ye wasn't talkin' to me, sez ye, stranger?" said the tough, hunching up his shoulders very suddenly.

"Oh, no, said the canvassman, frightened by the tough's size. 'I only just wanted to warn you, sez that it's a little dangerous to lean against the tent way, as the elephant might kick you, sir.'

"The Tough snorted with contempt.

"Dret yer elephant," he sez, 'I'll clean out the hull of the canvassman an' all, if ye give me a lick of yer lip.'

"The canvassman slunk off humbly, and a few minutes later went

J. W. Clendenin of Elon College spent Friday night at Glenwood Farm with Esq. Loy.

Last Friday evening the young men of Friendship school tried their powers of oratory in a contest to decide who should represent them at Guilford College the 30th. Rev. Burgess acted as judge and rendered his decision in favor of Henry Murray.

Miss Zettie Williams spent Saturday night and Sunday with J. F. Isley. Also Miss Sadie Williams spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Keck of No. 9.

E. A. Coble and Myrtle Moser attended church at Lowe's Sunday.

Mrs. Reitzel and Miss Ella Andrews spent one night last week with Andy Isley.

Geo. Coble of No. 9 spent one night last week with Prof. Hornaday.

J. S. L. Patterson and Miss Novia Robertson visited Miss Lois Reitzel Sunday evening.

H. M. Coble is right sick at this writing.

J. S. Isley is building him a new house.

Our friend J. J. Isley gave us about a gallon of that corn that he made more than eighty bushels to the acre with last year. We are going to plant half an acre guess we will make more than forty bushels on it.

Miss Carrie Evans spent Saturday night with Mrs. T. H. Keck, also her sport spent part of the night at the same place. Guess Kirk thought it was a big part as he was sitting out in the rain waiting for him.

Mrs. Polley Isley is right sick at the present.

Rev. G. T. Williams of Winston preached a splendid sermon at Alamance last Friday night.

Misses Swannie and Novella Isley of No. 7, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Polley Isley their grandmother at Alamance.

Miss Vellie Brown who has been staying with her sister Mrs. A. C. Ward returned to her home near Ramseur Monday. Miss Vellie is a clever young lady and will be greatly missed on No. 1.

Saturday night April 16th our friend Floyd Nicholson went to see his girl at Bellemont, and of course he wore his little fancy slippers, after he got there as we all remember, there was an awful rain so when Floyd got ready to go home he thought of his slippers and the mud and water, decided it would never do to walk home through the mud as it would ruin those slippers, though he soon decided he could carry the slippers in his pocket but what was he to wear, as it had been nearly two score years since he had went bare footed he was afraid to try that, so we guess his girl came to his assistance and furnished him with a pair of shoes, now whether those were the old man's or not we can't tell, but we understand that Floyd was offering a liberal price to any one who would carry them home.

inside and told the boss. The boss, who weighed over 200 and stood six feet in his socks, chuckled and took up one of the enormous mallets used to drive in tent pegs.

"Show me where he's leaning," was all he said.

"The canvassman led the boss to the place where the tough's form made a long, oval dent in the tent wall. The boss, chuckling again, fixed his eye on that spot, just below the tough's coat-tails, where the dent was deepest, and swinging the mallet twice round his head, he struck with his might.

"There was a dull thud, a cry of pain and fear, and the tough leaped 10 feet, then made off down the road as fast as he could run.

"What's the matter, Peleg?" the inhabitants shouted as he tore through the town.

"Been kicked by the elephant," he replied."—Detroit Free Press.

MUST PAY POLL TAX BY MAY 2

Ruling On Question By Attorney General.

Attorney-General T. W. Bickett was yesterday asked by Sheriff Sears, of Wake county, for an opinion on whether or not a party who paid his poll tax this year on Monday, May 2nd, would be entitled to vote in the next general election.

Attorney-General Bickett advised that the Constitution provides that in order to be entitled to vote the citizen must pay his poll tax on or before the first day of May of the year in which he proposes to vote, but the first day of May this year comes on Sunday and Section 2339 of the Revisal provides that where the day or the last day for doing an act required or permitted by law to be done falls on Sunday the act may be done on the next succeeding secular or business day.

This provision of the Revisal was in force at the time the clause in the Constitution referred to was adopted, and the Attorney-General held that the requirement in the Constitution should be construed with reference to this section of the Revisal.

"There is no conflict," he said, "between the Constitution and the Revisal, but the two can be construed together, and effect be given to both. Furthermore every doubt is to be resolved in favor of the right to vote, and I am satisfied that the courts would hold that the man who pays his poll tax on Monday, May 2nd, would not be disfranchised."

The Attorney-General added, however, which expressly stated was unofficial that it would be wise for all good Democrats to pay up not later than Saturday, April 30th, and let the Republicans take the chances.

What does this mean? Is it a scheme to fool enough Republicans to make victory sure for the Democrats, or is it possible that this Democratic Attorney-General does not know any better? Republicans pay your poll taxes by April 30th. The law says that in order to be a qualified elector you must pay your poll tax on or before May the first for the previous year in which you offer to vote. Would a tax receipt, then, be legal dated May 2nd? It might be for a Democrat before Democratic election officials, but not for Republicans before the same kind officials. Republicans, be on your guard, do not get caught by any such deception.

Dameron and Long.

A new law firm has been formed in our county, consisting of Mr. Dolph Long and E. S. W. Dameron. Mr. Long is to have an office in Graham, and Mr. Dameron will retain his office in Burlington.

Since completing his law course at the University of North Carolina, Mr. Long has been counsel for the Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company with his office at El Reno, Oklahoma. He is a native of this county, a graduate of Elon College, and one of the brightest young men Alamance can boast of in her long list of strong young men. See their card else where in this paper.

Even if London society is to "spend $15,000,000 in entertaining Mr. Roosevelt," we should like to wager that it will get its money's worth.

It is quite likely that the moving picture man's excuse for following so closely on the heels of the colonel is that there's no telling what moment he may take a notion to charge another San Juan Hill?

Remember the Census man to treat him politely.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special to the Dispatch.

Raleigh, April 23rd.—Politics is now the general subject of conversation in Raleigh; and it's politics of the warm brand. In the last election the Republicans reduced the Democratic majority in Wake County from 2,600 to an average of about 1,159; but the Democrats are evidently not satisfied with this reduction, and they are now busy helping the Republicans in the coming fight by splitting up among themselves and rushing into a big fight for self destruction.

Trouble has been brewing ever since Josephus Daniels was unable to secure in his precinct the election of Falc. Arrendell as member of the Wake County Democratic Executive Committee. This showed the Arstead Jones organization that Mr. Daniels could not even control his own precinct. Then Mr. Daniels and his News & Observer rushed into the Good Government campaign in Raleigh Municipal politics, and aided by the mysterious destruction of the city of Raleigh's police record and James H. Pou's "Bag of Meal" speech, scored a partial recovery of political influence. But at the recent meeting of the Wake County Democratic Executive Committee, Mr. Daniels demands, as published in the News & Observer, for the holding of two primaries were turned down, notwithstanding Sosiah William Bailey plead Mr. Daniels' cause before the committee. Then, to the surprise of every one, Mr. Bailey and some forty other admirers of Mr. Daniels, called a Mass Meeting of Democrats to assemble in Raleigh on Saturday April 30th. The advocates of this mass meeting movement have been called insurgents and bolters, because they refused to abide by the majority rule of their party organization. But Mr. Bailey has denied that he and his fellow supporters of Mr. Daniels are bolters; and has issued an address to the people charging the Armstead Jones Machine with fraud and use of money in primaries demanding that the county officers be put on salary and the fee system abandoned, and a number of other things. It seems that Mr. Bailey has read the 1908 platform of the Wake County Republicans with great care and drawn his "reforms" accordingly.

Mr. Bailey's call for the mass meeting says that Men and Measures are to be considered and the candidates and reforms advocated by the meeting will be endorsed by the primary vote.

It is apparent that the real fight is for the control of the Wake County Democratic party. The Armstead machine is an avowedly wet institution; it is said that the machine influence will be given to the support of Hon. J. C. Clifford, of Harnett county, for Judge of the Sixth Judicial District, and that the fight on Mr. Daniels will be carried on until he is deposed as member of the State Democratic Executive Committee and National Committee man. Mr. Daniels, the orthodox exponent of Democratic principles and policies, is a shouting prohibitionist, supports his brother, Hon. Frank Daniels, of Wayne County, for the Judgeship, and is determined to re-establish himself as party boss and dictator.

The position of Road Superintendent made vacant by the death of Capt Will Allen, has not been filled by the Board of County Commissioners. There are applicants for the place in every Township in the county. The indications are that the Armstead Jones machine is using these applicants and their influence as additional spokes in the wheel to turn the county into their hands again. With complete organization the machine is in good fighting trim. A tremendous crowd will attend the Meeting on the 30th and the big "lid lifting contest" will begin.

All this cheers the Republicans, who are interested onlookers. No matter which faction wins out in the mass meeting, nothing but gain will result for the Republicans.

Vote For Sidewalks.

A vote for the bond issue means a vote for sidewalks. This is the only opportunity the citizens of Burlington have ever had, or will have within the next twenty years to get good sidewalks without materially increasing the rate of taxation. Of course if the bonds carry, the rate of taxation will be increased, but not in proportion to what they will be, if the measure is defeated, for if defeated the taxes will have to be raised double or nearly so. This being the case, what is the best thing to do? This is the question every voter should ask himself, and the answer is bound to be, vote for bonds.

If you favor good sidewalks pay no attention to those who say you will never get them, for just as sure as the bond issue carries, that is how sure you will get sidewalks. I have been laboring now for two years to get the city officials to construct good sidewalks and to improve the streets, but for the lack of funds they have been unable to make much headway. But now the matter has been taken out of the hands of the city officials and placed with citizens who will be true to their trust, and will see that you get one hundred cents worth for every dollar they spend. If you have confidence in them vote for the bond issue, it is a duty you owe your mother, your wife and your sisters.

I feel perfectly secure of my position as regards this bond election, and what it means for the future development of the city of Burlington. I care nothing for the criticism and abuse heaped upon me by some of those who oppose the measure. But am willing for time to vindicate my position, knowing full well that it will do so. I say again, that a vote for bonds means a vote for sidewalks. If you have registered and paid your poll tax you are entitled to vote. How will you cast it?

In political elections the Republicans vote from principle and the Democrats from prejudice. There are no politics in this election. Republicans exercise that same broad and liberal spirit as in other elections, and let the Democrats vote as they please.

Yours for better sidewalks,
J. ZEB. WALLER.

A Square Deal To Every Citizen.

WHEREAS, there seems to be a desire on the part of the citizens of the city, before voting upon the proposed bond issue, to have some assurance from this committee as to the amount derived from said bond issue that will be expended by this committee for the building of side-walks:

Now, THEREFORE, this is to certify that we, the undersigned, recognizing the fact that the building of side-walks is a matter of paramount importance to the city do hereby publish and declare that, should the proposed bond issue be authorized by the coming election, it is our purpose and intention to provide adequate side walks as far as possible, upon such streets as will afford the most convenience to the greatest number of people, before considering further excavations and macadamizing of streets; bearing in mind the necessity of making connections with the macadam roads leading into the city. We also approve the order of the Board of Aldermen apportioning the money derived from said bonds equally among the four wards of the City and will respect the same.

ANOTHER SENSATION

Wilmington Taxpayers Not Satisfied With Law Enforcement.

Wilmington, April 18.—The publication in the Morning Star yesterday morning of a communication from the "better law enforcement," appointed at a recent meeting of citizens, together with a list of the holders of the United States government liquor licenses, has created a sensation, equal to, if not greater, than the sensational affidavit of M. L. Marion a few days ago. The list shows that there are 102 holders of government liquor licenses in Wilmington and include a number of wellknown grocery firms. Committee is composed of J. O. Carr, chairman, C. C. Covington, J. H. Watters, W. H. Sprunt and D. J. Fergus. Two of the most striking paragraphs in the communication are: We represent a class of citizens who do not believe that the community gets value received for the high taxes we pay, either in the enforcement of the law or in the benefits supplied at the public expenses. If it is a fact these men or any considerable part of them (referring to holders of government licenses) are selling liquors in Wilmington, it is sufficient to put the public on notice as to whether the thousands of dollars spent annually in maintaining a police department is properly spent or recklessly wasted.

[Now wouldn't this jar you? Coming as it does, from the good county of New Hanover, where everything is dominated by Democratic good-government. The fact alone that there are nearly twice as many licenses issued there as was during wide-open saloons is evidence sufficient that the Democratic officials are derelict in their duty, and merits the condemnation all lovers of right and justice.]

The beautiful gold watch on exhibition in Stewarts show window will be given away in our voting contest.

ners of a people are the final test of their capacity to control their destinies. A very old authority has something to say in favor of the one who can control his temper. The brusqueness and the rudeness of Americans are due to the spirit of competition that controls their action. The national habit of reserve with regard to one's plans and projects, save as making them known map definitely advance them, finds its counterpart in relation to the habitual reserve of Americans toward strangers.

It matters not who the person may be, what his credit his position, his courtesy, if he appears to be outside the range of the interest of the American individual person is apt to react him with scant politeness. The viewpoint for this conduct is that the only thing of any use is the thing that may be made useful. Manners are all very well, according to the American standard, if they will help to land some proposition, if they will advance some ambition or further some serviceable end, but manners for the sake of good taste and propriety, for the purpose of enhancing the amenities of life—such things seem to be outside the range of the presentday Anglo-Saxon, for the Englishman is borish where the American is brusque.

It is entirely possible to maintain one's proper distance, to dispatch the timekiller, to do any of the necessary things in regard to protection for oneself from the intrusion without resorting to brusqueness. President Taft used the term manners in the widest sense, and in this view the fault is intrinsic and needs the polishing that comes with time. The Americans are progressing in good form and good deportment, and after a few generations will evolve the type of individual the President would like to see as the real Americans.

Does Not Stimulate

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. It is not a strong drink. No reaction after you stop using it. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic and alternative. We wish you would ask your doctor about this. He knows. Trust him. Do as he says. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

What are Ayer's Pills? Liver Pills. How long have they been sold? Nearly sixty years. Do doctors recommend them? Ask your own doctor and find out.

Does This Hit You?

Charlotte Observer.

Why is it that in every town there are some fellows who will work hard to scratch the wheels of progress, while they would find the labor much less burdensome were they to join the bigger crowd which is behind the wagon pushing forward? The obstructionists, kickers and tears-down really work harder in their way than the builders up whom they are constantly opposing. They have the short end of the lever and, consequently, cannot match strength with the force at the other end. The only thing they do is to delay progress—and to receive the well-merited impatience of the men who are always doing things and consequently building up their towns.

One Weak Spot.

Most Burlington People Have A Weak Part and Too Often It's The Back.

Everyone has a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up day and night. Tells you the kidneys need help. For backache is really kidney-ache. A kidney cure is what you need. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Cure backache and urinary ills. Good proof in the following statement. John A. Allen, farmer, 406 E. Lee st., Greensboro N. C., says: I am very grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for all they have done for me. I am now in good health and it is owing to the use of this medicine. For years I was troubled by pains across the small of my back and through my kidneys and reading of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box. I gave them a trial and from the results obtained, highly recommend them."

Let Our People Try This.

The reason why some towns grow is because there are men of push and energy in them who are not afraid to spend their money. They erect substantial building organize stock companies establish factories work for public improvement and use every means in their power to induce men to settle in their city. Wherever they go they tell of the possibilities and advantages of their town, they write about them in every letter, they send circulars and newspapers to all whom they can get to visit the town, and when any stranger stops they treat him so well he comes again whenever he has the opportunity. It is enterprise and all pulling together that makes a progressive, wide-awake and growing town. Don't let this fact escape your memory.—Sanford Express.

A Valuable Booklet.

Roanoke, Va., April 8, 1910.—Special. Bob Seeds, the popular Chataqua and farmers institute lecturer, has caught the farmers with his entertaining talk on "How God Made the Soil Fertile" and Mr. LaBaume, of the Norfolk & Western, who is a great admirer of "Our Bob," as he is familiarly known all over the country, has secured a limited number of printed booklets containing this lecture for distribution to those who can appreciate and profit by its teachings.

Fifteen years ago Mr. Seed gave up a good business in Tyrone, Pa., in order to move out into the country and get the benefit of outdoor life, sunshine and health. He bought an old worn-out abandoned farm, which had been deserted eleven years because no one would live on it, and he was called a fool by his best friends by doing so. Now Bob is just an unusually intelligent and observing, patient, industrious and persistent good average American citizen, who knew what he wanted and had the common sense and courage to go after it with the aid of the faculties above mentioned. In less than five years time he was taking over $50.00 per acre off this same old worthless farm and he did it all with the aid of lime, manure and clover all made on the farm and mixed with the brain the Lord gave him. He tells all about it in the book, which is well illustrated throughout and reads just like a story. A copy can be had by addressing Mr. LaBaume at Roanoke and sending five cents for postage. The regular price is twenty five cents and thousand of copies have been sold at that price.

True Way To Prevent Railway Accidents.

Scientific American.

It is well understood among railroad officials that most fruitful cause of railroad accidents in this country is to be found in the lax sense of discipline among the employees. Presumptive proof of this is found in fact that, although our leading railroads have been equipped with a block signal system and other safety appliances which are generally equal and in some cases superior to those on European railroads, the number of accidents in proportion to the number of people carried continues to be larger in this country. We therefore note with much satisfaction that the Chicago and Northwestern Railway has taken a step in the right direction by appointing an official whose chief duties will be to make a study of railway accident, and by a system of education and strict enforcement of discipline, endeavor to eliminate the most fruitful cause of injuries to passengers and damages to freight. Opportunity was recently taken of the reorganization of the company's claim department, to relieve the claim agent of much of the detail of his work, and allow him to make a careful study of the causes of all accidents in the handling of passengers and freight. It will be his duty to bring about a more thorough cooperation and a higher state of discipline among the various employees, upon whose fulfillment of their duties the safe operation of the trains immediately depends. The scheme is a most excellent one, and we believe that its results will be so satisfactory as to lead to similar arrangements on at least the more important railroads of the country.

Mr. Gaynor's presidential boom seems to rest on the theory that a man who can hold down inipuity in New York city, even temporarily, is competent to grapple with the affairs of a hemisphere.

Damage Done.

There came near being a fire at Mrs. C. S. Hunter's Tuesday night. Miss Claire Turner had been out of her room for more than an hour. A few minutes before ten she returned to her room to retire and found it full of smoke. Her bed was on fire. With rare presence of mind she gathered up the bed clothing and threw them out of doors. For a moment there was quite a commotion about the house, as an alarm had been turned in.

Wednesday, April 27, 1910.

Good morning! Have you paid your poll tax?

Jim Hill can say bigger things about the wheat crop than anybody else. Jim hauls that crop, you know.

Only three more days in which to pay your poll tax. Unless you pay by April 30th, you will be disfranchised. Pay now, do it today.

You can have no voice in the affairs of this government, unless you qualify yourself to vote by paying your poll tax. Have you paid yours?

A little row among Republicans is always productive of a big jollification among Democrats, and then they get up a still bigger row, as Mr. Taft says.

There is at this time a battle royal going on between the boosters and the knockers. We will await the final outcome before expressing an opinion.

If the increase in the receipts of fines and costs of the city courts of Raleigh is not caused by the increase of crime, pray tell us to what source it can be attributed.

There are many who would have you believe that we are ruined if the bond issue fails, and others who would have you believe the other way. But after all, the most of us will be doing business at the same old stand.

Saturday April 30th, is the last day to pay poll tax in order to qualify yourself to vote. Be not deceived, but pay now. Do not wait until May 2nd, or you will be disfranchised if you are a Republican. The recent ruling of the Attorney General is for belated Democrats.

The poll tax in this county is only two dollars. If you owe other tax and are unable to pay all, pay the sheriff or tax collector two dollars and see that he makes the proper entry upon his books, and this will entitle you to vote. There is no man who enjoys good health but what can raise this amount.

We are glad that here in Alamance county the men who hold elections are, as a rule, gentlemen. Men who will not stoop to such suggestions as that made by the Attorney General of the State. Some times our election officials will render biased opinions in order to help their party, but the tendency is toward absolute fairness. The Republican position is, unless we can win the elections fairly we do not want the offices. The Democrats should feel the same way, and we feel sure a majority of them do. No man should be willing to injure his neighbor and blacken his own character for party advantage. The best man in all parties should frown upon such practices.

Another evidence of Democratic good government in Alamance county was the allowing of the escape of seven convicts from the chain gang one night last week. It seems that between the Governors pardoning power and the officials allowing wholesale escapes, that it is good government with a big "G"

A Two Faced Decision.

The Attorney General of the State of North Carolina, who is a Democrat, renders a two-faced decision in regard to the payment of poll tax. He says that in as much as May the first falls on Sunday this year, that poll tax paid on Monday May the second would be legal. But advises all good Democrats to pay theirs by Saturday April 30th, and if the Republicans don't get theirs paid until May 2nd, to let them take the chances.

Now this is a pretty decision for the Attorney General of the State of North Carolina to make. If the payment upon May 2nd, would be legal, why does he insist that all good Democrats should pay theirs by April 30th, and that all bad Democrats and Republicans can pay May 2nd, and take chances. If this would be legal why are there any chances involved. This learned attorney should know that the law says that in order to qualify yourself to vote you must pay your poll tax on or before the first day of May for the previous year in which you offer to vote. Then how can a tax receipt dated May 2nd be legal, or was it a hint to all Democratic sheriffs to date receipts for belated Democrats who fail to pay April 30th, on that date, and Republicans who fail to pay until May 2nd, to be dated the date paid, and let them take chances. We trust that here in Alamance county we have a sheriff who will not stoop to such crookedness.

It seems to us that the great State of North Carolina should have an able and learned Attorney General, one who would construe the law for both Democrat and Republican alike. No party should boast of all the intelligence morality and refinement who has an official who will openly and defiantly make a two faced decision as in this case. It would seem that all this means, that if the Republicans beat the Democrats paying poll tax, and get theirs paid by April 30th, then the sheriffs are instructed to allow the Democrats until May the second, but if the Democrats all pay by April 30th, and the Republicans wait until May 2nd, then the Republicans must take the chances of the opinion being legal. Great is Democratic chicanery. Great is Democratic good government.

Conditions in Virginia.

The following lines are taken from a Virginia contemporary and they show conclusively the condition of affairs politically in our sister state. The Democratic party is between the devil and the deep blue sea, they'll be damned if they do, and are sure to be damned if they don't. The Anti Saloon League is a power in that state and if they enter the political arena, you will see the down fall of the machine and boss ridden Democracy of Virginia. Our contemporary says:

"The Anti Saloon League, disgusted with the way in which the last Legislature dealt with their measures, announce that they are now going into politics on their own hook, and will proceed to elect the next legislature without regard to former political association. The trouble with the League heretofore has been that, while its leaders have professed that there was no politics in the League, they have always played into the hands of the Democratic party of this State, and to that extent deserve the snubbing they have recently received from that party. They have tried to carry the cause of both the League and Democracy on the same platform, and the legs of the two parties are so unequal that no one could expect them to stand together.

The Republican Gains.

The Republican party in North Carolina has every reason to enter the coming campaign with hope and courage. It is being charged by Democrats, in the hope of steaming the tide that has turned in favor of the Republican party, that there are certain leaders in the Republican party who do not want the party to succeed at the polls. We do not believe there is a Republican in the State of North Carolina about whom such a statement can be truthfully made. We believe such a solid front will be presented the enemy in the coming campaign as will brand all such assertions as false.

Hon. James H. Pou, the well-known lawyer of Raleigh, a brother of Congressman Pou, and an ex-chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee has a broad mind and liberal view. He certainly can have no "axe to grind," or purpose to achieve, in speaking a word from which his political opponents could draw any sort of hope or comfort; but he is courageous and hold enough to state a fact. In a recent interview with a newspaper in another State, speaking of North Carolina, among other things, Mr. Pou said: "The Republican party has been gaining strength in every election in our State for the past ten years, or since the passage of the suffrage law limiting the franchise. The gain, of course, has been among the white voters. Colonel Bryan beat President Taft in North Carolina by only 21,000 votes. Nearly 46 per cent of the white electors are Republicans, and many of our young men have aligned themselves with that party, there being no longer any odium attached to membership therein or any efforts at ostracism."

That is the case, plainly and neatly stated. And this growth is an earnest of what the Republican party may well and reasonably hope to achieve in the future. The steady growth of past ten years can easily be doubled in proportion during the next ten years. There has never been a time when the tendency of young men, and established business men, toward the Republican party has been as great as at the present time, for the belief that future business success depends upon the constructive and progressive policies advocated by the Republican party, has become firmly established.

It is the time, of all times, for united and aggressive warfare on the part of the Republicans of North Carolina. Man the guns at every point, and train them for effective work on the common enemy. —Greensboro Daily News.

A Missouri exchange threatened last week to publish the name of the young man seen with his sweetheart's head on his shoulder if he didn't come along with a dollar on subscription. Twenty-seven young fellows slipped in and paid a dollar. The editor has a letter from two or three others saying they will hand him a dollar the first time they are in town.

A beautiful game of basket-ball was played Thursday evening at the Graded School, between members of the Sophomore class and a team from Graham. All twelve of the young ladies played good ball, but the home team outmatched the visitors by a score of 11 to 18.

H. F. Bass who was taken to Stokes Sanitarium at Salisbury last week and operated on Saturday for appendicitis, rested well last night and is thought to be slightly improved.

W. F. Pogleman who has held a position in the freight depot here for several years, has accepted a similar position at Alta Vista, Va. He is succeeded by John Woods, of Graham.

Our townsman and friend C. D. Whitsell who won the diploma at the Central Carolina Fair at Greensboro last October for the best exhibit of home made shoes received the diploma Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. Hayden of Stuart, Va., spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Hart, last week. She returned to her home Saturday morning. Mrs. Hart has been right sick, but is thought to be improving slowly.

We call your attention to the change of ad of the Holt-Cates Co. in this issue. Note that the coupon there in is worth one dollar if cut out and presented at their store, providing the conditions named are complied with.

Dakdale Notes.

Owing to so much rain the farmers are very much behind planting their crops. Some corn up but for a lack of sunshine is not doing well.

Another enterprise has sprung up in our midst a poultry farm by Jim Spoon, who has some very fine birds. Something over one hundred already hatched out.

Dolph Kimrey has quit the tooth pick business with Mr. Alired and gone to sawing chair timber or rounds for The Liberty Chair Factory.

F. L. Spoon says he has the first swarm of bees this season the 12th and one the 24th also had ripe strawberries the 12th but has none to sell. Only if he could have enough for himself, he is like the fellow was by his girl, "He sho does love them."

Messrs. A. T. S. L. and M. C. Spoon have strawberries for sale have been making a few shipments.

With a few exceptions the health of the community is fine.

Clay Keitzel is still confined to his bed.

It takes a rich man to draw a check, a pretty girl to draw attention, a horse to draw a cart, a porus plaster to draw the skin, a taper to draw a cork, a free lunch to draw a crowd and a well displayed advertisement in this paper to draw trade.

News Over the State

Governor Kitchin has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of Sylvester Parham, wanted in Pender county for killing Preston Johnson on the 23rd. of last February.

Munroe Holcomb, a 14-year-old white boy, is under arrest at Elkin for placing an obstruction on the railroad at the 83-mile post Monday of last week, just before the passenger train going west was due.

Judge Guion, of the Superior Court, has tendered to Governor Kitchin his resignation to take effect April 30th. This means more trouble for the Governor—there'll be so many fellows after the job.

Governor Kitchin has issued pardons to Ben Morris, of Buncombe, eleven months for forcible trespass; will Bascon, of Guilford, obtaining money under false pretense, and Tim Walden, of Wake, five years for highway robbery.

In the Democratic primary at Fayetteville last week for mayor of Fayetteville J. D. McNeill was nominated over V. C. Bullard, present mayor, McNeill receiving four hundred and one votes, Bullard three hundred and eighty-one.

Adjutant General Armfield last Thursday disbanded the Wilmington Division Naval Reserves. The order is effective immediately. Failure to pass inspection and general state of inefficiency are the assigned causes of disbandment.

Manuel Patterson, tried last week in the superior court at Wadesboro charged with attempting criminal assault on two young women in Anson county three years ago, was found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for 15 years.

Mrs. Alpheus Dixon died in Durham last week from result of eating canned kraut. Ptomaine poisoning developed immediately and she died in great agony. She was the daughter of a liveryman of that city and leaves a daughter only three months old.

President Taft last week informed a delegation of business men from Asheboro, N. C., that he would not withdraw the nomination of James M. Burrows as postmaster at that place. Charges have been made against Mr. Burrows by democratic politicians.

Ernest Houck, aged 20 years, was killed by No. 36, the east-bound Southern train, at Newton, April 16th. He was standing on the freight siding and had stepped off the siding to the passenger main line when the train struck him, killing him instantly.

Col. Paul Barringer Means, for many years a leading citizen and politician of Cabarrus county, whose home was at Concord, died at St. Peter's Hospital Charlotte last week following critical illness of several weeks. He was born April, 1845. He was a member of the State Senate last session.

A report from Caswell county, is that John D. Richmond, a young farmer of that county has been convicted at Yanceyville of murder of his brother, Will Richmond, and given eighteen years imprisonment. The crime occurred a few weeks ago, the fatal quarrel growing out of a trivial matter.

A sensation was caused near Pelham, Va., a few days ago when the four-year-old child of Charles Patterson was almost buried alive. The body was at church in a casket when a flush on her face caused examination and the body was found to be warm. The child died the next day, however.

Henry Moore, the Morganton negro, who shot and killed Henry Hawkins, in a dispute over a quarter while gambling at Lexington sometime ago, was sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary last week by Judge Jones. Washington Martin, colored, who killed Jim Miller, also colored, at Denton, was given eighteen years.

As the revenue officers of the Asheville office were returning from a raid on the illicit still in Rutherford county last week, moonshiners fired on them from ambush, one of the bullets passing through the sleeve of a colored driver and another wounding one of the horses. The officers returned the fire and soon put the assailants to flight, but were unable to capture any of them. Two were reported to have been identified, however, and their arrest is expected to follow.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Crowded out last week.
Washington, April 16.—When President Taft at the recent banquet of the League of Republican State Clubs said, "His is not exactly the time for speaking except in the two Houses of legislature. This is the time for doing and voting and passing the measures for which the party is pledged—this is the time for doing things," the sentiment was cheered by every one present, and most heartily endorsed. The President continued: "After Congress has adjourned we can then form our lines of attack, and then we can furnish the weapons with which we are going into the next contest."

This is the spirit which now pervades the entire Republican side of the House of Representatives and most of the Republican side of the idea of work instead of words the Republicans of the entire country should act in harmony from now until the adjournment of Congress, and then if the record as made has been the fulfillment of Republican pledges and in support of the policies of the administration—then there is no reason why the united Republican party cannot go before the country and expect success next November.

The President made another idea very clear in his speech; that is, that nobody is reading any body out of the Republican party. Said the President: "We want them all within the ranks. They have the opportunity to establish their claim to Republicanism by that which they shall do as legislators in both Houses in helping to enact the legislation to which the party is pledged. By their fruits ye shall know them—and those men who, in good faith stand to the legislation that we seek in order to redeem the honor and pledges of the party have a right to stand with the party as Republicans."

At this same banquet Senator Lodge echoed the sentiments that had been uttered by the President declaring that the two great policy of the Republican party were protection to American industries and labor and the regulation and supervision of the great combination of capital.

Congressman Longworth, of Ohio, in one of the best speeches made recently by any one in or out of Congress, said: "I am a Taft man—not on the surface, but through and through. I am not willing to use his name as a lock for my support of other men or of other interests. I am not willing to praise him in public and work against him in private. I am with him not a part of the way, but the whole way, and am sincere when I say that the success of his administration is of more importance to me than the success of my own individual campaign."

Representative J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia, predicted the continued success of the Republican party, giving it as his opinion that the wage worker of the country, whether he be on the farm or in the factory, would not want to aid in bringing into power a party whose chief aim would be to close the mills and reduce wages and employment to the level of what prevailed under the Wilson-Gorman tariff.

John C. Capers, of South Carolina, spoke on the advance of Southern Republicanism, and told of the hopes that the business men, particularly of the South, had in the South had in the gain of certain States and certain Congressional districts that would soon join the Republican column.

While the President and other leaders of the party were talking straight from the shoulder in Washington, Attorney General Wickersham was making a speech on similar lines in Chicago, and giving it as his opinion that while the President had been criticised in some quarters, yet eventually the people of the country will rally around him and find that their confidence in him has not been mistaken. Speaking of the President's program, he said:

"I am firmly persuaded that these measures will not fail, and that despite the efforts of individuals to magnify their own particular importance at the expense of party loyalty and party honor, the Republican majority in Congress will make good the party pledges and give to the country the benefit of that legislation the party has promised and which the President has so clearly and so forcefully outlined."

It is evident that the dissensions and upheavals in the Republican party will result in ultimate good. It is well to have the differences threshed out early in the year in order that the way may be made clear for harmony and united action later. From now on the Republicans will be united in the one effort to enact needed laws and in the fulfillment of party pledges. Then when the record has been made the support of the people can be asked, and the appeal will be a successful one.

Got on the Train to Ride.

During the early hours of Sunday morning a long and lank native boarded Frisco train No. 104 for his first ride on the cars, his destination being Kansas City. He was decidedly nervous, but was determined not to show it, and attempted to cultivate an air of familiarity with his surroundings. He sought a position in the middle of the chair car, placed his grip on the floor and braced himself against the side of one of plush chairs.

"Won't you have a seat, sir?" asked the porter.
"Nope," the young man answered. "Dad cuts m' hair an' I shave m'self."

Women Suffer

much needless pain when they delay using Cardui for their female troubles. Cardui has been found to relieve headache, backache, pain in the side and dizziness arising from deranged organs. It does more than relieve,—if used persistently,—many have written to say that it cured them.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Maxwell Johnson, Tampa, Fla., writes: "Cardui cured me after doctors and everything else had failed. I had been suffering with numb spells ever since I was 16 years old. One day I decided to take Cardui. I have now taken 5 bottles and I can say that it has cured me. I advise all suffering women to give Cardui a long and fair trial."

Mrs. Johnson suffered years. Have you? Do you wish to? But why suffer at all? Take Cardui. Give it a fair trial.

They Couldn't Drink It.

Two Kentucky colonels were showing an Englishman what a wonderful country the South is. When the Briton had traveled from Baltimore to New Orleans and from the Atlantic to the Mississippi, he said: "Yes, the South is a fine country, but you have no industries here."

"No industries," retorted Colonel Smith, with indignation. "Why, suh, Colonel Robinson in Kentucky has a dairy where he produces a million pounds of butter and a million pounds of cheese a month."

"Impossible!" said the Englishman. Colonel Smith turned to his fellow for corroboration.

"I don't know how much butter and cheese Colonel Robinson produces a month," said the second Kentuckian, "but I do know that he has 12 sawmills and he turns them all with buttermilk."

What about supplying the winter an aeroplane or a dirigible this season so that he can overlook the whole game from a safe point and get away with his decisions if the crowd becomes belligerent.

Forced To Leave Home.

No Sensible Person Gets the "Big Head."

The "big head" is a popular way of expressing a common and very frequent ailment, says an exchange. It arises from various sources but the real foundation is lack of sense. A little money develops in some people; a few good clothes gives it to others; a little office where a chance is given to exercise a little authority, is often the cause of it, while others get it having a little better job than their associates. The truth is no sensible person gets the "big head."

Pains or Cramps

"I carry Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills with me all the time, and for aches and pains there is nothing equals them. I have used them for rheumatic pains, headache, and pains in side and back, and in every case they give perfect satisfaction."

HENRY COURLEN, Boonton, N. J.

Elon College No. 1.

We had a heavy hail storm last Saturday night, some of the hail lasted until Sunday morning.
Misses Florence Coble and Bessie Huffines visited at D. J. Tickles and Henry Baldwins last Wednesday.
Mrs. Kate Lewey visited her brother P. N. Coble Monday.
Miss Genie Patton visited at Jacob Tickles Tuesday.
Berlie and Donnie Low attended church over the river Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cook visited their daughter Mrs. D. L. Patton Sunday.
Miss Mamilee Patton and little brother Dexter visited... D. Cook Sunday.
G. R. Summers has his phone line into Gibsonville.
Bud Hunter is going to have a 'phone put in in the near future.
Miss Emma Huffines of Gibsonville No. 1 spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Mollie Baldwin of Elon College No. 1, we were glad to have Miss Emma with us, come again.
Miss Lydia Low failed to have her birthday supper Saturday the 23 on account of the heavy hail storm.
Miss Kate Geringer of near Gibsonville had her phone burnt out by lightning Saturday.
Little Mary Baldwin and sister Lissie visited at Yancey Low's Sunday.
Miss Mollie Baldwin and little sister Ruth visited at J. D. Cook's Sunday.
The memorial service will be at Shallow Ford church the second Sunday in May.
Mrs. J. D. Cook and Mrs.

Henry Baldwin were at the Hubb (to-day) Tuesday shopping.
Earnie Cook visited at Henry Baldwins Sunday evening.

John H. Loy is repainting his house which adds much to the appearance.
J. J. Williams and wife are in Greensboro on business.
Mrs. C. W. Summers had a quilting yesterday and served a sumptuous dinner to a number of her friends. We stopped but didn't have time to quilt any.
Miss Willie Summers was in Burlington Monday shopping.
The carrier enjoyed taking dinner with F. R. Shepherd and family last Thursday. Fried chicken, Strawberries and cream are rare for rural carriers.

R. F. D. No. 7.

Wheat is beginning to head.
March has been at the bat for some days.
J. T. Braxton, of Saxapahaw No. 1, was a recent visitor at L. W. Holts.
Mrs. J. B. Thompson, Mrs. J. M. Fix and children, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Thompson and daughter, Miss Madge, all of Burlington and McBride Holt of Graham were pleasant visitors at L. W. Holts Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Moser desire to thank their friends and neighbors for the kindness shown them during the long sickness and death of their only child, which occurred Tuesday of last week. He was laid to rest in Rock Creek cemetery last Wednesday.

Miss Mary Petty of Belmont and Miss Coy Williams of Graham were out driving Sunday evening.
The match game of Base-ball between Belmont and Mt. Hermon Saturday was won by Mt. Hermon. The score being 14 to 17. Belmont lost the game through errors in the field.
We hear that "Dan" had more fun on that bay ride we told about last week than we knew of at the time we wrote. After Dan pulled out the wagon tire and called up that big rain he pulled off Ode Isleys slippers so (we suppose) Odes feet would get a good washing. "Dan" seems to be over doing things over there any way for he has gotten two young men very deeply interested in one young lady and she is not so very deeply interested in but one of the young men and last Thursday night after singing at the church was over the young man she is not deeply interested in desired to escort her home but was refused that pleasure and since then she has been singing cheerful "Odes" while we suppose he is "Blanched" with fear expecting the favored one to win the prize and we guess he had better look "Sharp" or he will lose.
We investigated that rail pen No. 8, spoke of last week and found that it was occupied. Yes No. 8, we confess that there are some dwarf swine on No. 7, as well as at other places on the map. We made some inquiries of the proprietor and we assure you that there are extenuating circumstances in this case and the proprietor is absolved from blame. The pig was born on the wrong time of the moon and also under an unlucky star as is clearly proven by the fact that it has been seriously crippled not less than three different times during its checked career of 13 months. The proprietor has hid his soap grease jar since No. 8 went over there hunting for some material to work his scheme to get a rabbit dog and is fixing to move the rail pen and its occupant for fear of the accident happening to his pig. The proprietor says if No. 8 had been seriously crippled three time in 13 months he would not be able to grunt but the pig can.

We are glad to note that Miss Lula Rich's health is improving since her return from St. Leo's Hospital.
Wont some one please tell that little "Dan Cupid" fellow not to ring those wedding bells too loud or he will scare Will Rich out of the notion and then Miss Carrie would feel "left".
