

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES

Items of General Interest Clipped From our Exchanges.

A double wedding of Siler City took place Sunday morning. The couples and several friends went out to Squire G. W. Womble with his usual skill. The happy couples were John R. and Miss Dora Roberts, and Johnson and Miss Rose Pickens. To them we extend our congratulations and best wishes for a long life of wedded bliss.

Col. L. Banks Holt, Lawrence Eugene Holt of Graham and F. L. Mebane last week.

Misses Katie and Helen McManis who have been attending the Greensboro Female College returned to Durham today enroute to attend the closing exercises of the Durham Conservatory of music. They will be with Mrs. R. H. Tyson when they spend in Mebane.

Officers Henry, Harkins, Haynes and Holland made a raid up Lewis Fork section Friday and secured an illicit distilling plant. The officers arrived at the plant and found it had been moved but they found about seven hundred gallons of mash and a large quantity of mash. Officers are inclined to believe it was manufactured before they started the operation of the plant.

High Calceustas.

W. J. Riggsbee an esteemed citizen of Chatham county, passed away Saturday afternoon at his home at Riggsbee. He was 75 years of age and had been a consistent member of the Baptist church. He was the father of Miss Cara Riggsbee who holds the position of stenographer for Census Supervisor W. Pearson, in this city.

Late Friday afternoon at Richardson's slaughter house, just on the outskirts of the city, Red Jones, colored emptied a barrel of red-shot from a single barrel breech-loader into the face and chest of one Jim Pitman, also colored. Pitman was at once taken to the hospital, and although severely wounded it is thought he will recover. Jones threw his gun away and made good his escape.

Barney Reporter.

While playing at the sawmill Messrs Lewis and Co. one day last week near Flat Shoal, Rudy Andrew, a boy 13 years of age, suddenly caught in the carriage and narrowly escaped being killed. Only the prompt stopping of the machine saved his life. He was badly bruised up about the chest and thigh, but no bones were broken, and he will soon be entirely recovered.

Last Saturday night in nearly every section of the county playfully gardens suffered most potatoes, tomatoes, beans, etc., being entirely killed in some sections. Large fields of corn were completely obliterated. It is feared that the wheat crop has injured to some extent. The hardest hit part of the county heard from its valleys up and down Snow Creek, and along some parts of an River.

Reidsville Review.

Rev. W. L. Hutchins of Concord and Miss Perce Wilmoth of Booneville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilmoth, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride in Booneville. They left on the evening train for Washington City where they go to attend the World's Sunday School Convention.

Rural Route No. 1, from Elkin has been amended. Morning and evening service will now be given in the eastern section of the route. The service in the morning in the western section will have a service. The entire route will be 31 1-4 miles. The amended route will be effective the 1st, and will serve about 30 miles that have not up to this time had rural mail service.

The News-Reporter.

W. D. Bohand of Burlington is in this week. He is on his way to Philadelphia to attend the Mill Men's Association. He will go to New York before returning to his home.

McLean undertaker, came up from Maxton last week and removed from Miltonboro the body of the late John M. Curtis, who has been dead 13 years to be laid by the side of his wife in Maxton.

E. C. Phillips, who lived near Holly Springs, eight miles from Asheboro, on the Buffalo road, died at St Leo's Hospital, Greensboro, May 14th, after suffering from a serious affection of the heart for two weeks. His wife daughter and two sons were at the bedside when he died. The remains were sent to Ramseur and the funeral services were conducted at Union Grove church S. F. Phillips, of the Asheboro Wheelbarrow Company, is a surviving son.

Lexington Dispatch.

Sunday afternoon a Salisbury street car hit a horse and buggy belonging to Thurman Koontz of Davidson county, and the horse was so injured that it had to be killed. Mr. Koontz himself was thrown out of the buggy and slightly bruised. It seems that the horse became frightened and wheeled, throwing the outfit directly in front of the moving car. The company said that it would do the right thing in settling the damage. The horse was a valuable animal.

Last Wednesday morning at an early hour George W. Palmer arose to view Halley's comet and on going from the house stumbled on the steps falling in such a way that he broke his right leg at the ankle and also at the hip. He is 76 years old and naturally a broken bone at such age is a grave matter.

However the old gentleman is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. Mr. Palmer makes his home with his son-in-law, R. A. Spaug, at Linwood. Dr. Vestal of Lexington, was summoned Wednesday morning to attend the injured man. His friends will be rejoiced to hear good news from his bedside.

Mt. Airy Leader.

J. H. Thomas an employee of the Mantal and Table Company, of this city, met with a painful accident last Saturday, while operating a machine, at that plant. A set screw, which was revolving rapidly, struck his arm tearing the flesh away and causing considerable pain. While unable to work, the accident is not serious.

Alleghany county is to have a new court house which will, not only be modern in every respect but meet the requirements for years to come. Messrs. W. A. Douglas and Son, of this city, will do the brick work and a force of hands will leave here for that purpose, next Friday. The building will be of brick with stone trimmings and will cost, when completed about twenty thousand dollars. The structure will contain fire proof vaults and all modern improvements and our mountain neighbors are to be congratulated.

Sanford Express.

Another mile of track has been added to the six miles of the Bonlee and Western Railway already in operation. A force of fifty men in grading toward Boaz, five miles west of Wells. This will make the road eleven miles long.

Rev. J. C. Humble, who recently gave up his work as pastor of the Leesburg circuit, in Caswell county, has moved his family to this place, where he will engage in the real estate and insurance business. They now occupy a cottage on Chisholm street.

Reidsville Review.

The Methodist Protestant congregation is raising funds to erect a handsome church edifice in Reidsville. The citizens of Reidsville and surrounding sections are subscribing liberally to the building fund. G. S. Kernodle heads the list with a contribution of $500.

T. F. Perkins, of Lawsonville, was here Saturday showing a guinea egg on which the dial of a clock face was plainly imprinted. The dial showed the twelve figures, but they were incised in Chinese language so we could not read them. The egg was the third one that a young guinea belonging to Mr. Perkins had laid. Henderson Gold Leaf.

Visiting relatives in Burlington Mrs. L. C. Rowland was taken sick and had to return home Thursday. This was regretted as she expected to attend the Woman's Missionary conference at Roxboro, where she was to read a paper on mission work, and also represent the Methodist Episcopal church as delegate. She sent her paper, however, which was read much complimented.

Do Not Scatter Your Fire.

Omaha Bee.

The clergy is still asking the question, "Why do not more men attend church?" One minister who sent out several hundred letters of inquiry to as many men read the answers, core them up and from the whole formed the concrete conclusion, "Because they do not want to."

This conclusion presupposes the present to be an irreligious age, a view which ministers as a whole are not content to take. They are showing a disposition at last to turn the searchlight of inquiry inward, and this gives some encouragement for a solution of their problem. At a recent gathering of ministers in Omaha a prominent attorney, active in church affairs, delivered a toast, "The Pew's View of the Pulpit," in which he took the position that too many ministers scatter their fire and do not concentrate enough, and also that as a consequence they frequently go into their pulpits unprepared.

Complete preparation, coupled with a deep conviction and backed by an irrefragable character will go a long way toward insuring the preacher a respectful hearing. It is strange, too, that ministers do not see that if each pastor concentrated his energy on the work of his own church he would soon remove the occasion for diverting his activities. Infusion of this generating force into the membership of each church would soon arouse them all into a live, working community, each member doing his part.

Elon College No. 1.

We are having some hot days. Quite a number of people from this route attended the commencement at Whitsett Monday. Miss Mary Sutton was a caller on this route recently. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chrisman visited Daniel Christmans last week. Miss Mollie Cable was a caller at Henry Baldwins last Saturday. Rev. C. J. Sox, of Gibsonville, was a caller on this route last Thursday, we were glad to have him with us. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutton visited at Mrs. Kate Lewveys Sunday afternoon. Messrs. Arley and Vitres Huffins, Zeb Patton, and Earlie Baldwin. Misses Minnie, Dennie and Pearl Westmoreland Mollie Baldwin and Mrs. Kate Westmoreland were visitors at Boston Cables last Sunday. Will Cable and Monford Ger-ringer were out driving Sunday afternoon. Guess Ernie Cook had a nice time Sunday, his best girl was visiting near Elon College. Ask Miss Jennie Patton where she was Sunday when that young man called. He must send her word next time he calls. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baldwin and daughter Ruth, visited at M. R. Cooks. Sunday. Miss Clara Summers has been on the sick list. We wonder who that first girl was that rode in that new rubber tired buggy of J. P.'s. We think the wedding bells will soon ring on No. 1. There has been some corn plowed the second time in this section.

Hartshorn No. 1 Items

Quite a number attended singing and preaching at Lowe's church Sunday. Singing conducted by Mr. Fentris of Pleasant Garden, preaching by the pastor. We are requested by our friend F. L. Spoon to say to Rock Creek No. 2, that he is not like the man who bought a riding plow and could not use it. He is using it and says if he has any corn he will not have any to sell to loafers or newspaper reporters. So I guess if we get any we will have to raise it, or buy from some one else. Quite a number of our young people are attending Whitsett commencement today (Monday). The prospects for a good wheat crop is promising, if nothing happens to it. Corn is looking well considering the cool nights. One of our neighbors reports 12 swarms of bees this year and says it is not a good year for bees either. He has saved 9 of them, good for him. If we can find when he has some honey for the public, we will go and fill our sides. There must be something in the Milwaukee Binder Mower and Rake the way they are selling. See Coble-Bradshaw Company.

R. F. B. No. 7.

If there is any virtue showers and sunshine toward making vegetation grow our farmers ought to feel happy these days, for their crops are hustling. We noticed one of our patrons, Mr. George Moser, came to hear the Evangelist preach at the tent last Sunday, and from the way the "sap" flowed from George's eyes we judge the service did him much good. The Evangelist's pathetic climaxes brought the "sap" to lots of other eyes besides George's. Miss Maude Isley is feeling lots better and more cheerful this week than she did last. Her Sunday's trip with Jacob Sharpe revived her spirits right much, for last week she was so dejected and her lip hung so low that some one suggested that she get a mouth harp holder to keep her lip up. We could not account for dejection until the county paper came, when we saw No. 7 items that Miss Flossie had entertained Joe Rich on Sunday and we suppose that to be the cause, as she carried Joe's flowers every day last week, so we hope "Dan" has gotten things smoothed out once more. Landy Watkins and Miss Flossie Isley visited at Belmont Sunday. Belmont's second nine played Elder Mount last Saturday, and the score was 17 to 11 in favor of Elder Mount. Belmont's big nine will play them next Saturday, when the score is expected to change some. Miss Alice Kime, of Burlington, is visiting at C. O. Smith's this week. A. C. Isley has painted his house, which improves its looks very much. There two Jersey calves at J. P. Isley's in Curry's corner test patch and the owner will please come and get them. We have bought a "Pam-worth" pig, full brother to the one I saw in that rail pen on 7 and the same stock that Squire John Dixon raised last year. The one we have is now 9 weeks old and we expect to beat Squire Dixon if it continues seasonable enough this summer to make the grass and weeds grow so we can have plenty for the pig to eat. We expect to force it along as much as possible and if nothing happens to us or the pig we will give his weight when we kill him. As to those chickens with their feathers turned toward their heads that J. S. saw at our house we will say we do not breed or keep that kind and as No. 1 lives right across the street from us it might have been some of his "Mongrels" trespassing on us in search of something to eat. We breed the thoroughbred kind, and sold one rooster, "Kate," last week for ten dollars and 3 hens to the same party for twelve dollars, twenty-two dollars for the lot. Frizzles? No sir, Buff Wyandottes. Miss Nellie Gregory of Virginia, who has been going to school at Graham, visited Misses Abby and Stella Nicholson Saturday and Sunday.

R. F. B. No. 8.

Our friend and painter J. P. King has just put the finishing touches on the Baptist parsonage. Jim is a good painter. Geo. L. Thomas another one of No. 8 painter is still painting in Durham. He spent Sunday and Monday at home on No. 8. We regret to note that N. Somers wife is right sick and hope she will soon recover. Another old landmark No. 8 has passed away old aunt Polly Faucette wife of Ellis Faucette died last Wednesday night. Aunt Polly was a clever colored friend. We note with sorrow the death of our old friend John Taylor of Altamahaw. He hauled for Lewis and Thompson store. We met him nearly every day. He always had a pleasant word and smile for us. We will surely miss him. May he rest in peace. Wonder what Ernest Ross is so "blue" about these days. Can any one tell us. Everybody is so busy on No. 8 now there is no news. J. W. Story has started work on his new house. R. Ed McCauley is "ham-
