his way, and instead of tying up ness. with the different factions, cliques and rings, remain true to the best interest of the city we shall not throw any obstacles in his way, but will render him whatever assistance it is the duty of a newspaper to render for the public good. We do not require that he renounce his political reed or past affiliatious, but simply that as Mayor of the city and of all the people, that he never allow political considerations to swerve him from the path of duty as followed by his predecessor, which rendered his administation so popular, thus making it possible to be thrice elected, once without any opposition at all, and once with no active organized efforts to defeat him.

With this record of achievement before him, there is no excuse why any young man, or old either for that matter, should not make good in the position for which he has been chosen. We take off our hat to you Mr. Mayor, and again assure you that when we can assist you in any way, thereby rendering a public service to the city of Love and flowers, command us, As long as the above conditions exist we will never falter or desert you. There is nothing more that a paper occupying the position we do from a political standpoint could do and there is nothing more that a man occupying your position could ask.

But Alderman Freeland handed them a lemon alright.

And the true lovers of the national sport got a set back.

Without "Fatty" the game address would have been a dull affair in- J. I. FOUST, President Greensbore. N. C.

WHEELER & MARTIN MANAGERS ALAMANCE TRAINERS ASSOCIATION

A County Institute for teachers will be held at GRAHAM, N. C., beginning JULY 4, 1910, and continuing two weeks. Section 4167 of the

R. F. D. No. 7.

Walter F. Jones and Miss Ledie Hunter were married last Wednesday evening at 8 p. m, by Squire Lewis H. Holt at Mr. Holts residence.

"Daddy" Moser is getting material in shape and excavating preparatory to beginning the abutment and piers for the new stell bridge across little Alamance near Lewis Holts, which will be completed as soon as possible. The road force are doing some badly needed grading from Bel-lemont. south. We are glad to see them knocking the tops off of the steep hills and dragging them to the low places.

The "widow" and myself went down in Oronge county last week to visit her people, her father W. J. Freeland being in very poor health and was very little, if any better Sunday evening when we returned home. Mr. Freeland is nearing his 85th mile post and it is not expected that he will ever regain extra good health again,

Sunday evening as we were on the train nearing Burlington our clever friend C. D. Whitesell, who was also a passenger on the same car came down the isle and we shook hands as gladly as if we had not met in a year then Cornie ask us why we didn't get the balance of those blackberries out of our whiskers and we told him we were taking a few home to the "orphans" to taste, then he sniffed around a little and remarked that he could smell that "good old country ham" on our breath yet, all of which might be true, but when we were eating it we had no thought of packing away enough to be taken for a traveling smoke house by our friend when we met them. However we claim to know a good thing when we taste it.

Guess C. D. failed to find the berry patch or the smoke house either as he had that same old smell about him.
