The City Water.

We learn that a recent analysis of the city water, shows a slight pollution, this should not cause any alarm, but should cause the city authorities to get busy and ascertain the cause. There is perhaps more than one cause for this pollution, and when any cause is believed to be responsible it should be removed. In the first place we think the city authorities should take the matter in hand and have all hog pens in that section of the city removed and compel the citizens with the stated distance of the well and reservoir to connect with the sewerage system, thus abolishing the dry closets, by this means a step will be taken towards the keeping of the city water pure and for the improvement of the health conditions as well. In all probability the trouble is not caused by the evils above mentioned, but they exist in that locality and all will admit that they are not conducive to good health. However something has got to be done, and when an evil is known to exist it is a very good idea to remove it.

Two Administrative Changes at Elon College—New Preceptress and Housekeeper.

Elon College, N. C., Aug. 13.—Mrs. Maria L. Pretlow, who has served as College preceptress, having charge of the young ladies in the new West Dormitory, for the past two years resigned her position on account of failing health. The College is very fortunate in the services of Mrs. Rosa J. Machen to fill this responsible position. Mrs. Machen now lives at Mobjack, Mathews county, Virginia, but she is a North Carolinian by birth, a native of Warren county, and the daughter of Colonel Haskins. She is eminently qualified by temperament, experience and training for this responsible position. Mrs. Machen is not a stranger at Elon, for last year she was the Housekeeper in this same dormitory.

The making of Mrs. Machen College Preceptress left the position of Housekeeper open. This place has been filled by the election of Mrs. Florine Peace, Creedmoor, N. C., to the position. Mrs. Peace is the daughter of Rev. M. L. Winston, a minister of the Christian church and prominently connected throughout the State. She has filled the position before and well, resigning to take up similar work elsewhere. Her return to Elon is a source of congratulation to the institution's friends and patrons.

Miss Linda Barnes, of the Music Faculty, is very sick at Virginia, Va., where she is visiting. Mr. J. Beale Johnson, of Raleigh, is here looking after the interests of the deep well project of which he is the Committee Chairman.

Miss Holt Entertains.

Miss Birdie Holt delightfully entertained a number of her friends last Thursday evening between the hours of 8:30 and 11 p. m. at her country home "Elm Side." The lawn and porches were decorated with Japanese lanterns. Music and games were played until the guests were invited out on the lawn where refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Lillie Turner, Madge Thompson, Miriam Quakenbush, Clara Stewart, Lillie Shately, Mamie Holt, Messrs. Romeo Holt, Hilary Rauhut, Date Jones, Tom Stafford, Wade Thompson, Earl Hatch, Ernest Evans and Fred Holt.

Each one present expressed themselves as thoroughly enjoying the evening.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION A SIGNIFICANT GATHERING

The greatest convention ever held by the Republicans of North Carolina, convened in Greensboro last Wednesday, August 10. So large was the attendance that every accommodation of the city was taxed to its utmost capacity, and the personnel, a finer body of citizenship could not have been found anywhere. It seems that every one of the 1126 delegates had the one purpose "Victory over the Democracy in 1910" as his aim. The harmony which prevailed throughout all the proceeding showed the best of judgment. There was not the least sign of strife during the entire program and today under the leadership of Hon. John Motley Morehead, the Republican party stands united and ready to fight.

It was 12:30 o'clock when Judge Adams, chairman of the State committee, called the convention to order. The spacious theatre was packed long before the hour set. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. K. McLarty, of Greensboro, the vast audience standing, and keeping remarkably quiet. The prayer was exceedingly appropriate.

At the conclusion of this Chairman Addressed the convention. He came, he said, to place back in the hands of the party the commission entrusted to him four years ago. He was anxious to place the chairmanship in the hands of some one—a patriot first and a partisan next. He read from his Asheville speech, urging two strong political parties as the best means of securing the best government to the people. He plead for his State and urged patriotism. He had attended every convention since his majority and recounted the trials and tribulations of the party in those days; they were loyal then and they are loyal yet. He wanted the Democrats to understand that the Republican party was as patriotic as it. He prayed for the day when the Southland should take its place in the councils of nation. He recounted the history of the party under and just previous to his administration, giving election figures from year to year, showing that by peaceful methods within the party there had been a great increase in the State. He said the Democratic party in this State is torn all to pieces; that in the Sixth district there are two candidates and possibly three. In concluding he made the declaration, "Work as hard to elect your ticket as you have to get delegates to this convention and we will wipe the Democrats off the face of the earth."

The secretary then called the roll of counties and contests were reported from Carteret, Clay, Cumberland, Durham, Vance, Wake and Wayne. The committee appointed to act on these contested counties was as follows: I. M. Meekins, First district; J. M. Mewborne, Second district; Thos. E. Owens, Third district; J. E. Mathews, Fourth district; R. J. Petree, Fifth district; D. R. Johnson, Sixth district; J. P. Ramsey, Seventh district; A. H. Price, Eighth district; J. D. Albright, Ninth district; W. E. Logan, Tenth district. The convention at 1:15 o'clock, on motion of I. M. Meekins, adjourned for an hour and a half to meet again in the Auditorium.

At this place, when the convention reassembled ample room was at hand, and while waiting for the credentials committee to report Hon. Thos. Settle, District Attorney Holton, Col. Lusk, Col. W. R. Henry and others entertained the gathering with short talks. It was after 4 o'clock when the committee reported. This settled, the permanent chairmanship was taken up.

Thomas Settle was placed in nomination for permanent chairman of the convention by Col. Harry Skinner, Hon. C. A. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, seconding the nomination. Ex-Judge Hamilton G. Ewart, of Henderson county was placed in nomination by J. J. Britt, of Asheville. The vote by counties showed Settle had been elected by a majority of 359, the vote standing: Settle 737, Ewart 378. Mr. Settle's election was made unanimous, and T. J. Harkins was chosen Secretary.

After a very brief speech of appreciation, Chairman Settle announced that the next business was the election of a chairman of the State Executive Committee, and without further ceremony Frank Linney, son of the famous "Bull of the Brushies," mounted the stage and in a speech of fifteen minutes placed Mr. Morehead in nomination. District Attorney Herbert F. Seawell spoke for ten minutes in placing E. Carl Duncan, of Raleigh, before the convention. Major J. E. Alexander, of Winston-Salem, was placed before the convention by A. T. Grant, of Davie county. Morehead's nomination was seconded by Henry C. Dockery, of Richmond county, who declared that the proudest moment of his life was now when he had the privilege of seconding Mr. Morehead's nomination. Hon. Jake Newell, of Mecklenburg county added a second for Mr. Morehead. Mr. Duncan's nomination was seconded by Col. V. S. Lusk, of Buncombe county.

At this juncture of the proceedings Mr. J. J. Britt, of Asheville, announced that he withdrew the name of E. Carl Duncan from the race and requested all of Mr. Duncan's friends to vote for Major Alexander, but Mr. H. O. Sapp, of Forsyth county withdrew the name of Major Alexander, and the election of Mr. Morehead was made acclamation. Mr. Morehead then made a speech in which he stated that to attain victory this Fall he must have the support, by works, of every Republican voter in the state; that, if successful, the honor of it all would not be his any more than to any other Republican.

At the night session the convention got down to business. T. T. Hicks, R. M. Douglas and W. P. Bynum were placed in nomination for Chief Justice, and on the second ballot Mr. Hicks was nominated, Judge Bynum having withdrawn. Then R. M. Douglas and E. W. Timberlake, were nominated for Associate Justices by acclamation, but Judge Douglas withdrew and Col. Harry Skinner was named in his place.

The following were elected as the State Executive Committee, representing the Congressional districts in the order named: I. M. Meekins, D. W. Patrick, Geo. Butler, J. J. Jenkins, B. S. Robertson, S. A. Edmunds, Frank W. Hayes, C. H. Cowles, C. E. Green and F. A. Fanning. The ten members at large will be named by State Chairman Morehead.

NOTICE.

The Burlington Merchants Association has prepared a folder, printed in colors and setting forth a few facts, in regard to Burlington and Alamance County, its advantages as a farming community, as a manufacturing opportunity and a place for ideal homes and town life. These folders can be dropped in the ordinary commercial envelope and have been prepared for the purpose of distribution to the thickly settled cities and states of the West, North and Northeast. They can be had by calling at the Secretary's office, which is No. 4, Second Floor of the First National Bank Building. In fact the Association urges that every business man, every workingman, every farmer and every other person, who is interested in the up building and extension of our industrial activities in Alamance County, to call and get as many of these folders as he or she can conveniently use. They cost you nothing, and may be worth hundreds and thousands of dollars to our town or county.

Hard Times, "Nit."

Upon August the 9th, there steamed out of this city an excursion train bound for Norfolk, Va. The fare for the round trip was $3.50, spending two whole days and one night in Norfolk. One hundred and ninety-nine persons from Burlington bought tickets at a cost of about $700.00, there were as many more taken on at Graham and Haw River, to say nothing of those from Gibsonville, Mebane, Hillsboro and on down the line. At the same time there steamed out from Greensboro two more excursion trains still heavier loaded than the one which passed here, these two trains went by way of Danville, and it is estimated that in all, over two thousand and one hundred passengers were aboard these three trains. Each individual spent at least $15.00 a piece for the entire round trip, some much more, making a grand total of thirty-one thousand five hundred dollars. What a stupendous sum to be wasted, or still worse, actually thrown away, right here too, in the midst of the most severe panic the country has ever witnessed.

Is it not awful to think about such reckless expenditure by those who were pleasure bent. It must have sent cold shivers down the backs of the Democratic demagogue and so-called politicians. Suppose these splendidly equipped excursion trains had been steamed out of Greensboro and Burlington during the time the Democratic party had the reins of the National government in charge, with a round trip fare of ten cents and the promise of free soup upon arrival at Norfolk, how many tickets do you suppose would have been sold? Not more than fifty for the three trains, and yet our Democratic friends tell us that we are in the midst of the most awful starvation times that ever confronted the country. Will our esteemed Democratic contemporaries kindly combat these statements with facts and figures to back them up. Will they point out a single excursion train going to Norfolk, Asheville or any other place, naming the fare for round trip and number of passengers carried, during President Cleveland's last administration. If you can't do it, then won't you for the sake of decency, stop your howling and admit that it has all been done for buncombe, in order to fool the average voter and stop the growth of the Republican party. Now let's hear from you, and remember that an honest confession is good for the soul, even if it will look bad for the Democratic party.

A Mother's Gratitude.

Many a Mother in Burlington Will Appreciate the Following.

Many a strong man and many a health woman has much for which to thank mother. The care taken during their childhood brought them past the danger point and made them healthy men and women. Children are generally bothered at some period with incontinence of urine, and inability to retain it as oftentimes called a habit. It is not the children's fault—the difficulty lies with the kidneys, and can be readily righted if taken in the proper way.

Mrs. H. S. Patterson, 211 Humphery St., Greensboro, N. C., says: "I am giving Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement in the hope that other sufferers from kidney complaint will be led to try this remedy. My son suffered for several years from weak kidneys. I finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills for him and am glad to say that they proved of benefit in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

The Work of Prof. Curtiss Appreciated.

Hertford, N. C., July 30.—Mr. Frank H. Curtiss, of Burlington, N. C., and Mrs. Kate Hayes Fleming, of Oxford, N. C., conducted the institute for the teachers of Perquimans county, July 18th to 29th, 1910.

It gives me pleasure to state that this was the best institute I ever attended, because it gave more practical work that the teachers could carry home and into their schools, than any institute I have ever attended.

The gentlemanly and dignified bearing of Mr. Curtiss won the respect and confidence of all, while his zeal was shared by the teachers.

His work was clear, methodical and concise, yet he covered the subjects taught as thoroughly as could be done in the time at his command.

A live interest in the work was kept up until the close of the institute.

THE COLLEGE BULLETIN

Opening Number—Valuable Educational Publication.

The Vacation Number of the Elon College Bulletin appeared in July. The Opening Number has just made its appearance. It is a thirty page publication handsomely printed, and illustrated with cuts of the College College buildings and Campus Scenes.

This bulletin discusses the reason for going to College, whether such education pays, how any one may have it if he will, under what environment it may best be had. It sets forth the cost of such education at Elon, which we find to be very reasonable, from $112 to $187 for ten months. There is also an article on College Patriotism, which it will repay anyone to read.

There are a few copies of this interesting and valuable publication yet left in the Dean's office. Those who would like to have a copy would do well to direct a post card to Dean W. A. Harper, Elon College, N. C., mentioning this paper, in which an advertisement of this institution will be found.

Miss Florence and Arthur Hoffman spent last week in the country the guest of relatives and friends.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CURENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

Recently the News had something to say about a sermon in which I was represented as scoring the moving picture and vaudeville shows of Burlington. I do not deny that I had some plain things to say about these shows, but it is hardly exact to say that I "scored" them. I did what is to every thinking mind more effectual than scoring. I stated facts—facts evident and conclusive.

I write because the editorial comment may be misleading. It says either too much or too little, according as one construes the meaning of "scoring" or "going after" the shows. Some reader would say the preacher is a crank for denouncing innocent amusement. Others would think he wishes merely to say something sensational. I ask the reader, as I asked my hearers, to form each his own conclusion in the light of the following facts.

I spoke of moving picture shows in general. Why discuss them at all? Why advertise the business by preaching on it? Such questions many are disposed to ask. The questions imply a general ignorance of the gigantic proportions assumed all at once by the moving picture business. It is a new business. It has grown up almost in a night. So sudden and so marvelous has been its development that few people ever suspect what a large place moving pictures have in world affairs. The Literary Digest of July 30th, contained the statement that "within almost a single round of seasons the picture show has become an immense enterprise, a world-wide amusement, a universal influence," and that, in spite of world-wide criticism and denunciation, "it has forged ahead into international popularity" and that "in this country alone probably two and a quarter millions of people visit these shows daily." Burlington illustrates the world wide interest in this business. No other enterprise has so conspicuous and persistent advertising. Nothing else in our city is exerting a more potent influence on the rising generation. Since the Reno prize fight, and the vigorous protest raised all over the world against moving pictures of that incident, says the Literary Digest, moving pictures have been "easily the most discussed of any form of popular amusement." The press and the pulpit over all the earth today are taking serious notice of this business.

Now what I shall proceed to say will be mainly from recent editorials in reputable journals. These quotations are worthy to carry greater weight than anything I can say. I am frank to concede that there are good things even on the vaudeville stage. Much more cheerfully do I concede that a large per cent of the moving pictures given in almost every show are instructive and wholesome. But I deplore the admixture of the evil kind. More and more the press is inclining to the following conclusions as to these shows.

1. They are injurious physically. Here are statements from editorials that recently appeared in journals of high rank: "Taking them altogether we are beginning to believe that moving picture shows are injurious. Children who habitually attend them are said by their teachers to be dull, sleepy and nervous at school; and oculists say that the moving pictures are a terrific strain upon the eyes." "Physicians, too, warn us that many of the places where such shows are given are distinctly unsanitary, threatening tuberculosis from the presence of dirt, spectrum and bacteria."

I have just read a letter from a relative in a Southern city. He said: "I attended moving picture shows until I learned that physicians regarded them as one of the most frequent causes of trouble with the eyes." He added: "I am told that Germany has forbidden moving pictures as being injurious to the eyes." I do not know that the last statement is true.

2. These shows are injurious mentally. Of course many pictures are instructive, and therefore helpful to the mind in so far as they are instructive. But there is also the other side. See actually what is sensational, exciting, or what is merely "filling away" both the religious capacity to enjoy much while. One who goes regularly to see moving pictures, the vaudeville will be able to listen to a sermon or attend a thoughtful reading of the effects of the pictures and vaudeville shows, says: "There is much that is coarse and degrading in the talk of the vaudeville stage. There is cheap wit which the boys are fond of imitating, and which dulls the capacity for real humor. Children lose their interest in simple and healthful forms of amusement. They are constantly craving the sensational. It is just because this social influence of the cheap show is destroying in many boys and girls their capacity for future efficiency as men and women that the problem has become serious." The thoughtful parent will notice that the boy that goes regularly to the moving picture show loses gradually his interest in his books, the Sunday school lesson, or the sermon. It is partly because the show is forming in him the habit of looking for light fun and entertainment. Thinking becomes a burden.

3. These shows are hurtful morally. I will grant that much in them teaches a good moral lesson. But more and more they are tending to the opposite result. The Western Christian Advocate, of Cincinnati, some months ago, declared on the testimony of the superintendent of the probation officers connected with the juvenile court of Cincinnati that "juvenile delinquency has increased alarmingly in that city—50 per cent he would estimate—since the multiplication of the cheap moving picture shows." That paper goes on to say: "We lately saw a series of pictures to which the proprietor directed our specific attention as being particularly high class. But they showed abandoned women, apartments in a house of ill repute, gamblers at their games, the suicide of a prostitute, the hold-up of highwaymen, and so on. And all of this the exhibitor claimed was teaching a high moral lesson! Through this means boys and girls become familiarized with every form of vice and violence. Juvenile criminals have repeatedly confessed that they received their first suggestions of robbery, house-breaking, safe-cracking, etc. from what they had seen on the screens."

"Not only are these pictures themselves depraving, but for innocent boys and girls to be drawn into the associations likely to be found in such places, and to be out on the streets during the night hours, is not conducive to their best moral development. There are all sorts of danger and temptations in that direction."

Again, Mr. E. H. Chandler in the Journal of Education says: "With rare exception the ordinary program of moving picture shows includes some representation of burglary or thieving, some suggestion of the flirtations of husband or wife, and something grotesque, with preferences for representations of satanic magic. The public instinct for representations of what is criminal is very strong, and will be catered to by commercial managers." In proof of the last statement we need only to note that since the recent disgraceful prize fight, the municipal authorities in almost every country in the world have found it necessary to prohibit the showing of pictures of the fight. Depraved taste everywhere clamors for such pictures and the moving picture men everywhere cater more or less to the depraved taste. The most competent critics everywhere are agreed that no moving picture show does business long without presenting pictures that are not fit for the eye.

I forbear to mention the indelicate—nay, often profane and vulgar—language, and the coarse and indecent exposure of the person which is an acknowledged feature of the vaudeville stage.

4. These shows are ruinous religiously. I shall touch this but lightly in a secular newspaper. I speak with the full knowledge that some churches in all their branches of work, make valuable use of moving pictures. I know the moving picture business is not necessarily hurtful. It could be made one of the world's greatest blessings. But it is significant that, new as the business is, almost everywhere the religious press and the pulpit are beginning to deplore the manifest result of frequent attendance upon moving picture shows. In addition to all other bad results, it is being noticed that regular attendants at the shows become indifferent attendants at the church services. The young people acquire an unhealthy desire for light and sensational entertainment, and as a result the church services become dull to them. The church ceases to hold them. One may see shows occasionally and not be hurt, but the tendency is dangerous. It should be noted that I have not expressed mildly the position which the more serious journals of the country, both secular and religious, incline more and more widely to adopt. It is to be regretted that one of the greatest means of entertainment and education ever known to the world—the moving picture show—seems destined to be converted into an agency of evil. Some towns have seen fit, through the W. C. T. U. or the mother's meeting, to establish a censorship of these shows, and to protest against the introduction of any objectionable pictures or other features. A judicious censorship seems desirable.

Again it is clear that I have done no "scoring" of local shows. I have stated general facts, and that largely in the form of quotations from leading editorials. I have done so with the belief that moving pictures have come to stay; that they are destined to exert a yet greater influence nationally and locally, and that it is a matter of immense importance that public sentiment regarding the business shall be wholesome.

The New State Chairman.

The election of Hon. John Morehead as Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of North Carolina was no surprise to any one who had kept tabs on the trend of events in the political history of the State. The Republican party in North Carolina is growing by leaps and bounds and there was strong demand among the rank and file of the party for a young and aggressive leader—a leader who would not be handicapped by former bickerings in the party ranks. The ideal for this leadership was found in the person of the brilliant young Congressman from this district, who in the last election overcame a normal Democratic majority 5,000 and was triumphantly elected.

The Republicans from the mountains to the seashore saw in the Hon. John M. Morehead a political Moses, who will lead them out of the wilderness. How he will succeed depends in a great measure to the loyalty in which he is supported by the Republican hosts throughout the State. If every Republican in North Carolina will do his duty as well as we feel confident the Chairman will do his, there will be no question except the size of the majority. Let every Republican do his full duty and victory is assured.

There were those who did not think Mr. Morehead the man for the place, but not sufficient in numbers to overcome the demand for this young leader. Let these fall in line—which we feel sure they will do—and help roll up a majority in North Carolina that will startle the natives.

The Result in Tennessee.

The State of Tennessee and the whole country is to be congratulated upon the result of the election recently held in that State for Judges of the Supreme Court. While the result cannot be called a Republican victory, it to a great extent blazes the way and makes Republican success possible and more easy of achievement in the future. While the ticket elected was an independent one and was supported alike by the independent and better class of Democrats and Republicans, against the Democratic machine candidates, it has greatly clarified the political atmosphere in the State of Tennessee and entirely crushed one of the most corrupt rings known to political history.

The machine in Tennessee had reached the point of laying its mailed hand upon the courts and halting the administration of justice. It will be recalled by those of our readers who have kept posted on the political events of the country, that Governor Patterson and former Senator Carmack, of Tennessee became involved in a bitter wrangle as to which should control the Democratic machine, which culminated in the killing of Carmack by Duncan B. Cooper, a Patterson adherent, who was tried and sentenced to 20 years in the states prison for the crime. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court of the State and the decision of the lower court affirmed, whereupon Governor Patterson promptly pardoned Cooper.

This so affronted three of the Judges of the Supreme Court that they at once declared themselves independent candidates for reelection against the nominees of the machine, and with the aid of the Republicans were triumphantly elected. As stated in the outset, now that this corrupt machine has been crushed, we may expect cleaner politics in the State of Tennessee and perhaps the control of the State Government by the Republicans at no great distant day.

When a political party becomes so drunken with power as it has in Tennessee, and some other southern States, which we could name, corruption is sure to become rampant and run riot, while the interest of the people suffer. However it so happens that once in a while there is a rising of the people, when the machine is crushed and its promoters and beneficiaries relegated to the rear. The dominant party in North Carolina should profit by the experience of the dominant party in Tennessee, and deal fairly with the people, or it will be consigned to the shades of oblivion.

The Neglect of the South,

The fact that Congress has provided an additional $30,000,000 for irrigation in the west and that Burlington is still out in the cold so far as concerns a government building for handling and distributing the mail, naturally calls up the question why the South should not share in the proceeds of the sale of the public lands equally with the west in the matter of appropriations. We are not complaining of the west, nor do we begrudge to her a full share in the fund derived from the sale of the public domain. At the same time we beg leave to remind our law makers that the public lands and the money derived from the sale thereof is the fund of the common country just as much as any piece of gold in treasury.

The fact that all, or nearly all of the public land lies west of the Mississippi river does not give that section of country any stronger claim upon the same than the section lying east of the Mississippi. The main cause of this neglect of the South in the matter of appropriations is to be found in the fact the representation in Congress from the South devote more time and attention to political questions than to those that pertain to the improvement and up-building of the sections which they represent.

When ever a question of public policy arises in Congress that has the faintest appearance of building up the country in the west, politics are at once eliminated from the question and relegated to the rear and a solid front is presented in favor of the scheme. With the members from the south, there is no such unity of action. The party whip is cracked and party regularity has to be preserved at the expense of the south. We promised in our new year salutatory to labor in and out of season for the erection of a government building at Burlington and to this end we shall devote much time and our best energies until the object has been accomplished.

Places of less note and less importance than Burlington have secured government buildings, so let us have less politics and more energy, more progress and more agitation of the subject until a substantial postoffice building rears its head to the blue vaults of heaven in Burlington.

We learn from a reliable source that several of our young men who attend the post office and especially the stamp window regularly have not been seen this week. Miss Swannie Patterson is the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Patterson on R. No. 1.

Picnic on R. F. D. No. 8.

One of the most delightful social events ever witnessed in the good old county of Alamance was the picnic given by R. F. D. No. 8 at Isley's Grove on last Saturday, August 6th. From 10 o'clock in the forenoon until one o'clock in the afternoon the crowd gathered from every direction, and the number present has been conservatively estimated at five hundred. In addition to the residents of No. 8, there were numerous invited guests present from neighboring routes and from Burlington, to share the generous hospitality of the people of that section and Mr. J. M. Hayes, the courteous and obliging carrier who made the occasion the splendid success that it was.

His list of speakers could not have been beaten in the county. In the forenoon the crowd was first most delightfully entertained by the sparkling wit and entrancing eloquence of Mr. John M. Cook, familiarly known as the "Inimitable Cook", who is equal to the demands of any occasion, religious, social, business political or what not. Next came the Rev. P. H. Fleming of Burlington, our beloved County Superintendent of Public Instruction, whose wide culture, genuine piety, kind and sympathetic heart, easy address and graceful style of speech make him the pride of every citizen who loves genuine worth and consecrated Christian manhood. Last before dinner, but by no means least, came the extemporaneous speech of the Rev. A. F. Iseley, who captured his audience completely.

At the close of his speech came the dinner—a dinner never to be forgotten by those who shared it, in truth, a dinner "fit for a king." The long table fairly groaned under its heavy weight of choicest victuals, from well seasoned country ham to the most palatable fruits and delectable pickles, and so proved beyond doubt that No. 8 is the home, not alone of the prettiest girls, but of the best cooks in Alamance county. The tremendous concourse of people, although they ate most heartily, left at least half of this dinner to be gathered up at the close.

After this sumptuous dinner, the crowd was treated to the soothing strains of most exquisite music, and then Mr. J. Zeb. Waller, commonly known as "The Postmaster General of Alamance county," was called upon for a speech. He responded in his usual happy vein, much to the delight, instruction and amusement of his audience. Lastly, E. S. W. Dameron of Burlington was called to the stand, and after a few felicitations, by request, recited his famous negro sermon, which was well received and greatly applauded.

Then followed the music again and the vast crowd lingered in leisurely conversation as to business, politics, picnics, courtship, etcetra, until the interesting base ball game between the No. 8 boys and Glencoe was pulled off.

Finally, mention should be made of the excellent work of J. M. Hayes, who spared no time or pains to make the occasion the splendid success that it was. The idea of the picnic is original with him. He invited the crowd, treated them to refreshments at his own expense, and showed the hand of a master in the management of the affair throughout. He is a suave, debonair, courteous gentleman, always kind and obliging and cordial to the residents of his route and never refuses them a favor that is within his power to confer. They have responded to this kindness beautifully and the relation between him and them is almost ideal. They have never registered a kick or lodging a complained against him. He loves his work and the kindness and courtesy shown him by his friends are most richly deserved. Here's to No. 8—long life and happiness and another picnic.

A VISITOR.

Saved From Awful Pain.

No. 8, "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 115 lbs in spite of many remedies and the best doctors. It invigorates all vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion creates appetite. To strengthen and build up pale, thin, weak children or rundown people it has no equal. Follow this advice.

Quaker Oats is the best of all foods; it is also the cheapest. When such men as Prof. Fisher of Yale University and Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D.-F.R.S. of London spend the best parts of their lives in studying the great question of the nourishing and strengthening qualities of different foods, it is certain that their advice is absolutely safe to follow.
Professor Fisher found in his experiments for testing the strength and endurance of athletes that the meat eaters were exhausted long before the men who were fed on such food as Quaker Oats. The powers of endurance of the non-meat eaters were about eight times those of the meat eaters.
Sir James Crichton Browne says—eat more oatmeal, eat plenty of it and eat it frequently.
Packed in regular size packages, and hermetically sealed tins for hot climates.

THE POTATO SWINDLE

Barrels In New York Run Twenty
to Fifty Pounds.

None of the innovations start-under the Gaynor administration —to call them "reforms" would be to cheapen and to discredit them—comes so closely home to the business and the domestic life of the city as the crusade against short-weight and short-measure, and up to date it is a highly successful movement, too. In its latest phrase, a notice to dealers that the "short barrel" in the potato, vegetable, and fruit trade will no longer be tolerated, it is of more significance and moment than any of the previous one—for practically every barrel of potatoes sold in this town is a "short barrel," and inasmuch as the commission houses handle anywhere from 20 to 25 thousand barrels of the tubers every day, the enforced change means something very much like a revolution in the largest potato market in the United States. The state law provides—and, strange to say, it was enacted at the instance of the commission men themselves —that a barrel of potatoes "shall represent a quality equal to 100 quarts of grain or dry measure," the dimensions of the heads and staves are specified in inches, as well as the barrel shall be made straight, it must contain the same number of cubic inches as the standard barrel provided for;
and when potatoes are sold by the pound the quantity constituing a barrel shall be 174 pounds.
The penalty for violation of the statute is $5 "for every barrel put up or made to be used" that does not conform to the specification—it need not be actually sold to constitute lawbreaking. The "shortage" has ranged from 20 to 50 pounds for every barrel of potatoes handled in this market
—or around 350 tons per day—and had there been any effort in the past to enforce the law, the revenue from fines would have been something enormous, for a time at least. As it is, Commissioner Driscoll orders that a date be agreed upon for beginning the use of the standard barrels, and after that no "short barrel" of potatoes shall be sold in the city of New York. This means the manufacturer of hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions, of standard potato barrels within the next few months—and it will be a boon to coopers. Quite naturally, when the grower or shipper of potatoes has to put 174 pounds into a barrel or bag instead of 150 or 125 pounds, the price of potatoes sold by the barrel or bag will advance; the change ought not to affect the retail price, however—but nobody ought to feel sure that it won't.
The only strictly fair way to sell vegetables at retail is by the pound; but the consumer must go on, of course, buying more "intersices" than potatoes or onions or turnips or tomatoes
when he buys them by the quart.

daughter Miss Iola and Stuart

Bonnie Moore of Saxapahaw were

NOTICE

1909 Delinquent Tax Payers.

Again I beg to remind those who have not paid their taxes for 1909, that this matter is too important to be treated with such indifference. You must admit that I have been lenient. I have tried to manage so that you might have the privilege of settling at your convenience. But I cannot wait always. My settlement is right at hand. These taxes must be paid. It is right, and I want a full settlement now.

Respectfully,
R. N. COOK,
Sheriff.
