The New States.

There was no surprise in any quarter when, last month, Congress voted to promote Arizona and New Mexico to the rank of statehood. A dozen years ago they were at the point of admission by virtue of an omnibus bill that would also have admitted Oklahoma and the Indian Territory as two States. A hard fight led by Senator Beveridge in his capacity as chairman of the Committee on Territories, gave us the present State of Oklahoma, with suitable population and boundaries. Arizona and New Mexico ought to have been united and brought in as one State with a proviso that after fifty years the State might be divided into two if it had population and wealth equal to twice the average of the rest of the States in the Union. In nothing else have our political parties more perniciously obstructed statesmanship than in the shaping and admission of new States. Under the bill as passed it will be some time before State can be adopted, and four new Senators can be seated at Washington. Meanwhile, this chapter of our history being closed, we must all unite in wishing Arizona and New Mexico a great and honorable future. Let us also hope that their four U. S. Senators may prove to be men of sound character, even though of limited public experience. —From "The Progress of the World," in the American Review of Reviews

Great Advertising Scheme.

Roanoke, Va., August 20th. — Every section along the Norfolk & Western, city, town, or prominent locality, can be advertised in pictures and letters to the thousands of people who visit the Ohio Valley in Cincinnati, August 24. F. H. LaBaume, Agricultural & Industrial Agent of the N. & W. Railway, is very anxious to receive pictures and descriptive matter from one end to the other. These, he will send to Cincinnati and have thrown on a big screen the descriptive matter worked up into entertaining lectures, telling the advantages of each locality along the road. For business men and investors, generally, this is one of the best advertising schemes ever offered to localities along the Ohio Valley Exposition, ever offered to localities along the line bringing many Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio, to the attention of the Norfolk & Western. This railroad is doing a big business in its section along its line, to bring more people to build up the cities and towns, and offers chances for exploiting the industries and the sections interested sufficiently to send the matter asked for. F. H. LaBaume is in Roanoke where he will receive children of each of her mother Mrs. W. R. Tate.

Mrs. C. Wagoner and children of Roanoke are the guest of her mother Mrs. W. R. Tate.

Can't Be Separated

Some Burlington People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney troubles are twin brothers. You can't separate them. And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidneys. If the kidneys are strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be vigorous.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, and health kidneys. C. B. Ellis, Davis S. Burlington, N. C., says: "I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills as a reliable remedy for kidney complaint. I suffered from severe pains through the small of my back and irregular passages of the kidney secretions caused me much annoyance. I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the Freeman Drug Co., after their use the pain in my back soon disappeared. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for my present good health."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

THE STATE PLATFORM

Republican Document That is Patriotic From Start to Finish.

The full text of platform adopted by the Republican State Convention at Greensboro, N. C., August 10, is as follows:

We, Republicans of North Carolina, in convention assembled, do hereby adopt the following statement of our beliefs and purposes concerning both national and state affairs:

We pledge our continued loyalty to William Howard Taft, President of the United States, and leader of our party. We heartily congratulate both him and the Republican majorities in the Sixty-first Congress on the extraordinary number of wise measures which, in accordance with the premises of our national convention, have already been enacted into law.

Our history hardly affords another instance in which the party in power has so promptly made good so many of its promises to the people.

We renew our allegiance to the Republican policy of protection. The southern states, and North Carolina in particular, have profited by that policy in the past, and have every reason to expect increased benefits from it in the future.

We heartily approve the plan of a tariff commission, which, by investigating carefully the conditions and the cost of production of protected articles in this country and abroad, aims not merely to put that policy on a scientific basis, but to enable all men to judge for themselves of its fairness and justice.

Firmly believing, as we do, that it is the policy for this country, and that no country will adhere to it, we hold that it is plainly to the south's interest, and to North Carolina's interest to send to Washington representatives and senators of the party that supports it.

We hold that the south is shamed by the glaring inconsistency of Democratic senators and representatives who, while posing as bitter opponents of this policy in their speeches and their party platforms, nevertheless show by their votes that they believe in it; who seek to secure its benefits for their constituents not by the manly avowal of their real convictions, but by secret intrigues and bargains.

Out of the great number of wise and progressive acts which stand to the credit of the administration and this Congress, we especially commend their treatment of the difficult subject of interstate commerce, and we heartily endorse the policy embodied in that legislation, to-wit: regulation of commerce carriers by a commission of experts, subject to appeals to a court so organized that it will become a court of experts.

We call attention to the contrast between this firm and definite and sound policy and the utter failure of the opposition to agree upon any policy whatever in this field.

We commend also the vigorous measures already taken to conserve our national resources for all the people.

We also cite, as another example of the efficiency of the Republican party, the admirable work of the national monetary commission in preparing the way for the much needed reform of our system of currency and banking, to the end that the irresponsible control of credit by powerful and selfish private interests shall be stopped and that adequate provision shall be made to safeguard the business of the country against financial panics.

We commend the work of that commission to business men, and them to contrast the Republican attitude on this issue with that of the Democratic party, which while loudly crying against existing evils, offers no plan of its own for reform, but contents itself with opposing, like the proverbial dog in the manger, every specific suggestion that is made.

On all the great national issues our party has proved its competence to manage the government by adopting policies which all men can understand. Our opponents, by their failure to agree upon any clear program of action, have proved their unreadiness and unfitness for the trust. They are not even agreed on the tariff issue, on which they have chosen to make their campaign. Some are for moderate protection, some are free traders, some are protectionists in disguise, some are for free raw materials.

In the affairs of this great country in their hands would be placed from the tried to the untried from experience to blind government, from order to chaos. We favor the reclamation of swamp lands in the south by drainage as arid and semi-arid lands in the west have been reclaimed by irrigation.

Turning to the affairs of our own state, we have no need to juggle with words in order to conceal a lack of convictions, or to make use of fatuous platitudes, after the fashion of our opponents. On what may be called the permanent issues, we need hardly do more than repeat the plain language of our own platform of two years ago, on which we won so great an increase of support from the people.

We repeat our declaration in favor of the most liberal policy concerning education that the state's resources will permit. Our children must all have the opportunity to obtain a good public school education. Our institutions of the higher learning must all be mentioned, and we favor giving them such support that they may put within reach of our young men of talent and industry the highest attainable training, both general and technical. A great state can make no better investment of its means than for the training of its youth of both sexes and of all classes. There is no right place for ignorance in modern civilization. We favor the policy of the state furnishing, free of charge and under proper regulations, to every child in the public schools all necessary text books.

We favor an equally liberal policy with our institutions of charity and with our Confederate veterans.

We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earners, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end. We believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

We believe in good roads, and favor the good roads policy, both as an economic necessity and as one of the chief means to make country life—the life of most of our people—more attractive. We hold that the best employment for the state convicts is on the public highways.

We again call for the establishment of reformatories for youthful criminals of both sexes, and juvenile courts for our cities. These are reforms clearly demanded by the best sentiment everywhere, and in which North Carolina must not lag behind.

We denounce the extravagance of the Democratic party in the management of the finances of the state whereby they have increased the bonded indebtedness of the state and caused a constant depreciation in market value of our state bonds.

We demand a fair election law, which shall permit every voter to cast his ballot voluntarily, prevent dictation and bribery, and make for a free expression of the people's will. The failure of the party in power to pass such a law is inexcusable. Every advocate of pure politics is in favor of it. None but partisan and unworthy motives are arrayed against it, and we demand effective legislation that will insure punishment of all election officers who act corruptly in the discharge of their duties.

In the matter of the State's policy with common carriers and other great corporations, we take issue squarely with the declaration of our opponents which, if it means anything, means that all great combinations of capital are to be destroyed outright. We hold, on the contrary, that much of the work of modern society will continue to be done, by great corporations. What needed in the state as in the nation is not wanton destruction or ignorant intermeddling, but careful and expert and just regulation. We repeat, therefore, the pledge of our last platform—the pledge to ourselves against two kinds of injustice, the injustice which permits great corporations and other combinations of wealth to prey upon the poor, and the injustice which sacrifices property and deranges business in order that cheap demagogues may get or keep office. We reaffirm our allegiance to the time honored principle of local self-government and we denounce the successive betrayals of that principle by our opponents, who long vaunted themselves its champions.

We demand that our judiciary, and particularly our higher courts, shall be kept above the atmosphere of partisan politics, and that the judicial ermine shall never be conferred as a reward for mere political service. The sole test of fitness for judicial honors and duties should be professional eminence and ability and exalted character.

Believing, as we do, that in state and nation alike the policies for which our party stands are right and wise, we invite all patriotic citizens, whatever their party affiliations in the past, to join with us in supporting them. We believe that in the south particularly it is of first importance that our party shall continue to grow. It is universally conceded that the southern states, by their blind allegiance to one party, have for years deprived themselves of the power and influence in the nation, which our forefathers once possessed and vigorously exercised, and which we ought to have today.

Whatever reasons may in the past have justified southern people in that course, they do not exist today North Carolina; and North Carolinians are breaking from the control of outworn issues and prejudices? We welcome all such citizens to our ranks, and to the end that we may be worthy of their alliance and confidence we make this declaration of independence. The Republican party of North Carolina, a party made up of men who love the south and love North Carolina, a party which in the election of two years ago cast 114,000 votes for its platform, electing three representatives in Congress and carrying five congressional districts for electoral vote, utterly and emphatically repudiates that notion of its character and function which would make of it a mere machine for distributing federal offices and electing delegates to national conventions. We proclaim ourselves a true party and no machine. We need no dictation, and will submit to no dictation. We ask of our national leaders and managers the same treatment they would accord to a Republican organization of the same strength in any northern state. We invite our fellow Republicans of other southern states to join with us in this stand; and to our fellow citizens of North Carolina, to our fellow southerners everywhere, we again declare our conviction that a republican vote cast in the south today is not merely a vote for Republican policies and candidates, but a vote for freedom. It is a vote for the slavery of prejudice, for from the slavery to conditions and issues that are past. It is a vote for the right of all southerners to follow their individual convictions concerning public affairs. It is a vote for the right of all southerners to follow their individual convictions concerning public affairs. It is a vote for the right of the south to a full share in the control of both the great political parties and in the guidance of the destinies of the American republic.

We favor an equally liberal policy with our institutions of charity and with our Confederate veterans.

We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage-earners, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end. We believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—each necessary to the other—that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will, so far as possible, create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

Entered as second-class matter May 20, 1908, at the post office at Burlington, North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3 1879.

Wednesday, August 24, 1910.

When you cannot control all men for your political schemes, apply the unit rule its always effective.

The Republicans made some changes in the party plan of organization at the recent State convention which sounds the death knell to the unit rule, to which we say amen.

The Halifax county anti ring ticket did not even black the board in the primary last week. When that Halifax county ring is not out of business, there will be something doing sure enough.

What has become of the Chamber of Commerce that was to have been reorganized some time ago. Some body should get busy it's a crying need and the interests of the city suffer for the want of it.

The announcement that Ex-Governor Glenn will canvass this district in the interest of Major Smedman causes no alarm in the Republican camp, in fact it is what we want. It will strengthen the chances for another Republican victory this fall.

The Democratic papers through out the State "view with alarm" the straight-forward and business like platform adopted by the Republican State convention at Greensboro. It will be found on another page of this paper and it is worthy of a careful perusal.

The indications are that the entire Republican ticket will be elected in Rockingham county this fall. The Democratic party are all split to pieces over their candidates, while the Republicans have nominated a good strong ticket, and are united. From this distance the prospect of victory is indeed rosy tinted.

We note from one of our exchanges that Mr. William A. Erwin the cotton mill king of North Carolina, if not the whole United States, made a most beautiful and interesting address at Duke, N. C., the other day, and it should be said to his credit that he did not refer to hard times, panics and soup houses, but he talked something that interested the people and they come for miles around to hear him. Mr. Erwin is very popular through that section and no man can command a better or larger audience. Mr. Erwin was formerly a Burlington business man, and was greatly missed when he left here and located at West Durham. Had he remained here and been as successful as in his new field, Burlington would have been as large as Greensboro today. Mr. Erwin is a broad minded, public spirited man, and a valuable addition to any community who may be so fortunate to get him. The Dispatch would be willing to forgo his hard times, panic and soup house argument, if he would return to make this his future home.

The Advantage of Position.

The Dispatch did not take sides in the chairmanship contest within the party ranks. We feel therefore, that we are in a position to view matters calmly and judiciously as the after result. We do not mean to say by this that we did not have our rathers, or that we were simply waiting to see which way the cat would jump, and then jump upon the band wagon. This is not THE DISPATCH'S way of doing things. When we take a position we will try to maintain it all hazards, always proving a good loser or a magnanimous victor, if a winner.

We do not see any serious disaster lurking in the future as a result of Mr. Moreheads election as State chairman, neither would this have been the result if Mr. Duncan had been chosen, the one hundred and fifteen thousand Republicans who voted the ticket in the last election, did so from principle and from choice, there is no reason to believe that they will do otherwise in this year of grace. Mr. Duncan and his friends will be as loyal to the organization now as if Mr. Duncan had been winner, they are not the men to sulk or quit. They have been and are now the backbone of the party, therefore there will be no disruption of a serious nature.

The thing for the victors to do now, is to assume a broad and liberal policy towards the losers, and all will be well. None of us relish the losing side, but all can't win. But after you have won be content with that and do not try to rub it in. Remember that we are the minority party as viewed from the returns from the last election, but if we will act in a spirit of fairness towards those who differed from us as regards the proper man for the chairmanship, we will become the majority party at the next election. Then let us all bemean ourselves so that we may attain that most desirable end.

The Dispatch proposes to maintain the same attitude as heretofore, as long as our very existence is not threatened by those who are intolerent and ill advised, but when it becomes necessary to fight for existence we will do so with all the ability at our command, nor will we spare not those who for ulterior or selfish motives seek our destruction and demise. We have so far been able to maintain and promulgate a policy that has won the respect and admiration of those who differed with us politically and otherwise, until today we enjoy the largest subscription list of independent readers of any weekly newspaper in the State. It shall be our constant aim and endeavor to maintain and preserve this standard, but always advocating the principles and policies of the Republican party as we understand them, hoping always to merit your patronage and good will.

Where Are We At.

"Where are we at," is a good old Southern expression that is being very much used today by the railroads everywhere. Because of the great increase in the cost of all expenses to the railroad and the fact that the Government and the shippers are trying to perfect the railroads, making a very necessary small increase in the freight rate. With the cost of labor, supplies, equipment and material of all kinds, as well as taxes, and other expenses increasing rapidly on the railroads, something must be done or the railroads will be forced out of business. The great fact is too often ignored by some, that in order to exist, railroads must make a living wage as well as the laborer and shipper. Therefore, to injure the railroads—the arteries of commerce—you paralyze business and have a panic.

So long as the railroads are allowed to earn a just and fair return on their investment, trade goes along smoothly and we have what is called "prosperity and good times." Just as soon, however, as legislative bodies, State or Nation, begin to work on railroads, we find the investor withdrawing his capital embarrassing the railroads and the result is stagnation, dullness, the working man idle—panic. People are asking too, why should not the Government in the public interest, regulate the labor side of railroads and not allow the employes to threaten or strike at will. This is a matter that is commending itself to everyone, that if the Government will regulate the railroads in every other department, it should also regulate the labor as well.

Retribution.

Some months ago THE DISPATCH had a controversy with our esteemed contemporary and neighbor, The Burlington News, regarding the condition of the county finances under Republican and Democratic rule, and the editor of the Gleaner was a well wisher of the News and said that it hoped that the news would lay The Dispatch in the shade. The editor of the Gleaner happens to be the Clerk of the Superior Court and is a candidate for re-nomination, his strongest opponent is Hon. A. M. Garwood. The News is a well wisher of Mr. Garwood, saying he is a strong man, and serves notice upon the editor of the Gleaner that Mr. Garwood will be heard from. That's retribution. The Dispatch is not a well wisher of either in the clerkship contest and hopes that which ever receives the nomination will get defeated. That's politics.

We Stand by Our Former Declarations.

Occasionally we note in some of our Democratic exchanges attempts to deny the existence of a trade in the nomination a candidate for Judge in the Eleventh Judicial district to succeed Judge Pell. Well, it may be possible that there was no trade made or attempted, but in the light of the facts before us, it looks suspicious when men like Buxton, Folger and Pell, men of State-wide reputation were stood aside for a man who was not generally known in his own county, and who has been practicing law less than five years. These same papers, or those of that calibre, scoffed at the idea of the existence of the Fifth district combine a few years ago, but the organization has so domineered politics in the district and State that no one doubts its existence today, but like the rest of the rings and political organizations has met its Waterloo. In the Fifth district Democratic convention it got a set back that will last it for a while, but it was a battle royal and no mistake. Now in view of these facts we shall not retract from any former declarations in regard to the trade.

The Paramount Issue of the Democracy.

From its first organization to the present time the Democratic party has been noted entering each re-occurring presidential campaign with a paramount issue. The party has also formed the habit of moving in the political field in a circle, with the tariff as a starting point in the way of an issue. After swinging around its circle for a decade or so with various measures as the paramount issue, with none approved by the people, it arrives at the starting point in its orbit, the tariff.

This old and many times discarded issue is then revamped and declared the paramount issue of the National campaign. As a result of the habit of moving in a circle and the policy of changing paramount issues, the country has witnessed the presentation of free silver, imperialism, and government guarantee of bank deposits as paramount issues, within the last two decades. The indications now are that the Democratic party will return to its first love, the starting point in its circle—The tariff, for a paramount issue in the next presidential campaign. The Republicans will gladly accept the issue and willingly go before the people with a protective tariff as its slogan. Democratic leaders and spell binders may harangue the people as much as they choose on the steel and woolen goods manufacturers trust, which they claim is the out-growth of a protective tariff. But what cares the farmer if he has to pay a little higher for the implements made from steel, which he uses on his farm, when he is selling the products of his farm at a higher price than ever before. The same with the skilled workman, what cares he if he has to pay a little higher for food stuff, when he is receiving higher wages than at any other period in his life. Then take the common laborer who is finding constant employment at good wages, what cares he if he has to pay a little higher for his daily needs.

Next in turn comes the manufacturers and trades people, these were never more prosperous than at present. The transportation lines of the country are being taxed to their utmost capacity to move the freight incident to the great business activity prevailing in every section of the country. It is from this great industrial army that votes come on the day of election to pass upon the merits of the two parties. And when this great army is prospering, busy, happy and contented there is but little, or no doubt that the judgment will be awarded to the party that has brought about such good and prosperous conditions.

A Good Word for the Frivolous.

"Our besetting sin is to be too serious and set too high a value sobriety," says Margaret E. Sangster in the WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION for August. "I hold a brief for pure fun. Laughter is wholesome; mirth does more good than medicine. Not merely when we are on a holiday, but in mid-current of the daily round we are the better for an interlude of amusement. The person who was born without a sense of humor is greatly to be pited. No situation is intolerable if one can see the fun in it. When I hear or see condemnation of a girl's gaiety, I am forced to the conviction that the grave censor never had a girlhood worth the name or else was born under a baleful star. Immoderate giggling belongs to a transient phase and should not be reproved when children are in their early teens; rather it should be rejoiced in, and their elders look back in tender wistfulness on their own days of such thoughtless delight. Be as frivolous as you please, dear maiden and matron, in the summer days and be assured that in its place frivolity is the sunshine that dances on the wave. Some of the most portentous people one meets, people solemn and severe, and given to frowning, fools underneath their masks. Some of the lightesthearted, gayest and winsome in their capacity for seeing fun and making it are among the great and wise. If one has no native sense of humor, one should endeavor by every legitimate means to acquire it. An evening spent at a play which from the first act to the last scintillates with jest and irresistibly provokes mirth is a boon to tired folk; so, too, is an hour with a novel in which the serious underlying purpose is illuminated by flashes of fun on a summer day or a winter afternoon."

Saved From Awful Peril.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, Ohio, R. R. No. 3, "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 115 lbs in spite of many remedies and the best doctors. And that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New-Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 160 lbs and can work hard. It also cured my four children of croup." Infallible for Coughs and Colds, its most certain remedy for LaGrippe Asthma, desperate lung trouble and all bronchial affections, 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Freeman Drug Co.

ELON'S NEXT YEAR'S COACH

Hearne to Manage the Team—Wilson's Big Twirler Accepts Position as Athletic Director.

Arrangements have been made perfected by which Bunn Hearne who had such effective work here last year in the box for Elon, and who has made a great name for himself in the Eastern Carolina League this summer with the Wilson champions, is to coach the College Team and act as Athletic Director for next year. Mr. Hearne was popular here last year as a student and pitcher and will be most heartily welcomed in this new capacity. He is eminently qualified by temperament, training, and experience for this responsible position.

Manager J. J. Ingle, of the ball team for next year, is busy arranging his schedule for the ensuing year. Next year bids fair to be Elon's Red-letter one in the field of athletic of all kinds.

Our readers will find advertisement of this institution in our advertising columns. Write for information to Dean W. A. Harper, Elon College, N. C., always mentioning this paper.

President Helps Orphans.

Hundreds of orphans have been helped by the President of the Industrial and Orphan's Home at Macon Ga., who writes: "We have used Electric Bitters in this Institution for nine years. It has proved a most excellent medicine for stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. We regard it as one of the best family medicines on earth." It invigorates all vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion creates appetite. To strengthen and build up pale, thin, weak children or rundown people it has no equal. Best for female complaints. Only 50c. at Freeman Drug Co.

Mrs. Holman Entertains.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was on Thursday evening Aug. 11th. When Mrs. R. F. Holman entertained at her elegant county home "Oak-hill" in honor of Mr. Holman on the occasion of his birthday. The drawing room and dining hall were artistically decorated for the occasion.

On the varander tempting refreshments were served, following a series of music.

The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were so fortunate as to attend about 40 in all.

Mr. Holman received quite a number of presents among them was a beautiful shaving stand the gift of Mrs. Holman and others too numerous to mention which tested his popularity.

Mrs. Holman was assisted in receiving the guests by Miss Mary Grey Thompson Mrs. J. E. Boggs and Miss Tillie Thompson, presided over the ices.

With Mrs. Holman as hostess, who is widely known for her charming entertaining the hour for departure came all too soon.

N. C. Garrison, a prosperous farmer of R. F. D. No. 2, was in town Saturday the guest of his son-in-law, W. A. Mebane. Mr. Garrison had the misfortune of cutting his leg last January and has been unable to do any work since. We are glad to see him improving.

Follow this advice.

Quaker Oats is the best of all foods; it is also the cheapest. When such men as Prof. Fisher of Yale University and Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D.-F.R.S. of London spend the best parts of their lives in studying the great question of the nourishing and strengthening qualities of different foods, it is certain that their advice is absolutely safe to follow.

Professor Fisher found in his experiments for testing the strength and endurance of athletes that the meat eaters were exhausted long before the men who were fed on such food as Quaker Oats. The powers of endurance of the non-meat eaters were about eight times those of the meat eaters.

Sir James Crichton Browne says—eat more oatmeal, eat plenty of it and eat it frequently. 5c

To the Sunday-school Workers of Alamance County.

The annual convention of our County Association will be held at Spring Quaker church, near Saxapahaw, on the 27th day of August. The program is now being made and will be published soon. Let every school in the county be represented at this convention. At a meeting of the executive committee a few days ago Prof. John Cobb resigned as secretary and treasurer, and Mr. John H. Vernon, of Burlington, was elected to fill the place. All moneys for the County and State work should be sent to him.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDIES

ISRAEL'S KING REJECTED.

Matthew 21:1-17—August 28.

"Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the Highest!"

ALTHOUGH God foreknew and the prophets foretold that the Jewish nation would reject Jesus and not receive him as their King, nevertheless, everything was done as though the results were not foreknown and foretold. The prophecies were fulfilled. Today's study illustrates this. Jesus offered himself to Israel as their Messianic King, just five days before his crucifixion, and on the exact day upon which, as the Lamb of God, he should have been received by them, in order that they might have been "passed over" and, as a nation, become the antitypical Levites from amongst whom would have been selected the antitypical priests. Their failure to receive Jesus at the appointed time did not at all interfere with the Divine arrangements, for all of the Jews found worthy to be of the spiritual Levites and spiritual Priests were selected, although the nation was rejected. The remainder of those spiritual, antitypical Priests and Levites God has been gathering from amongst the Gentiles ever since. By and by, all these, of whom Jesus is the Chief Priest, will be glorified on the spirit plane. Then will begin the great Messianic work for Israel, and through Israel for all the nations of the world. Thus in due time Israel's expectations will be realized on a grander scale than they ever dreamed of. Abraham, Isaac and all the prophets shall be made princes or rulers in all the earth. Israel Restored to Divine favor shall "obtain mercy" of God through the glorified Church, and shall become the channel of God's favor for pouring out upon mankind riches of grace.

The Sabbath day prior to his crucifixion was spent by the Great Teacher at the home of Lazarus and Martha and Mary. His fame had spread by reason of the miracle performed upon Lazarus. A feast was given in his honor on Sabbath night after sundown. It was then that Mary anointed him with the precious perfume which Jesus said was an anointing for his burial. The fragrance of this perfume has come down to us through the ages. The next morning, to fulfill the Scriptures, Jesus sent for the ass and its little colt to be brought. The ass was probably a white one, for it is reputed to have been the custom of the kings of Israel to ride upon white asses. The multitude who had come to see Jesus, and Lazarus whom he had brought from the tomb, filled with admiration, hailed Jesus with shouts, as "The Son of David!" The Great King! The Messianic! Certain scribes and Pharisees called attention to this and suggested that Jesus rebuke them. His answer was that, had the people refused to acclaim him, the stones would have cried out; because it had been prophesied centuries before, "Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, thy King cometh unto thee. He is meek and having salvation; lowly, and sitting upon an ass, with its colt, the foal of an ass." The little procession headed for Jerusalem, the multitude shouting and strewing their clothing and palm branches for the ass to tread upon, as marks of honor to the great King whom they imperfectly, indistinctly recognized—not realizing the still greater glory and honor of his later revealing in the end of this Age, when "every knee shall bow and every tongue confess to him."

Four months ago—on April 24th, we passed over the historic road from Bethlehem to Jerusalem, thinking the while of the great incident of this lesson. The road sweeps around the side of the Mount of Olives on a reasonable grade until suddenly a turn of the road and the sharp declivity of the Valley of Hinnom (Gehenna) brings Jerusalem into full view in a moment. Time and again we walked over part of the road and noted where the Master halted the little procession and wept over the City, saying, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings [for safety], and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till [that day when] ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."—(Matt. 23:37-39.)

Our heart went out in sympathy for the Jewish people. We recalled how they have been nationally "left desolate" for eighteen centuries, and have been persecuted, even, alas, by those who have named the name of Christ! We specially rejoiced to think that "the time of Jacob's trouble" will soon be over—that the time when they will enter into the New Covenant relationship with God will soon be at hand. (Jer. 31:31; Rom. 11:27.) We rejoiced to think that soon Immanuel in the glory of his Kingdom will be revealed, and that all flesh shall behold the glory of that Kingdom. Then the Lord will pour upon Israel the spirit of prayer and of supplication and they shall look upon him whom they pierced. (Zech. 12:10.) We rejoice to think that "that day" when they shall say, "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord," is nigh at hand. But, we reflect, correspondingly, the time of special favor to spiritual Israel must be drawing to a close.

That spot where Jesus stopped to prophesy Israel's future was the same one over which, a little later, the army of Titus marched to the destruction of Jerusalem, and, amidst famine, finally accomplished the destruction of the city, taking, according to records, ninety-seven thousand prisoners. One million, one hundred thousand, were said to have perished through famine and war. The ground around the City of Jerusalem the Romans planted thick with crosses, on which Jews were crucified until there was room for no more, says history.

The Great Teacher's entry into Jerusalem caused considerable commotion. He went directly to the Temple and ordered from it the money-changers and dove-sellers who had no right within its hallowed precincts. Thus was fulfilled the prophecy, "The zeal of thine house has consumed me." The poor, the blind, the lame, again had his ministries. Again the chief religionists of the time were vexed and considered him an intruder upon their arrangements and were displeased with the multitude's shouting his praises as the Messiah, the Son of David. They rebuked the Teacher, who answered, Scripturally, "Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise."—Matt. 21:16; Psalms 8:2.

There is to be an eclipse of the moon in November. It is predicted that there will also be some political eclipses about that time.
