Party Platform.

The following resolution was introduced and adopted at the Republican County Convention at Graham Saturday Sept. 17th, 1910. Read it, it means something to the people of Alamance County:

The Republican party of Alamance county in convention assembled do hereby resolve.

1st. We are in thorough accord with the National and State platforms of our party and we hereby proclaim our unflinching allegiance thereto.

2nd. We believe our people are entitled to an economic administration of the government in all its grades and its every department, and taking the county as a unit, we demand that our county officers be placed upon a salary basis and that all fees and emoluments now pertaining to said offices be turned into and made a part of the school funds of the county.

3rd. Believing that the safety of our government and our prosperity as a nation depend upon the education of the masses, we emphasize our loyalty to that portion of our state platform declaring for the furnishing, free of charge and under proper regulations, all necessary text books for every child in the public schools of the State.

4th. In the event of the failure, by the legislature, to pass a state-wide law, providing for the purchase of text books for the public schools, we demand the enactment of a law, applying to Alamance county, that will permit and require the savings accruing to the county by reason of the purchase of text books for the public schools, we demand the enactment of a law, applying to Alamance county, that will permit and require the savings accruing to the county by reason of the payment of salaries to our officials to be applied to the purchase of books for the children in our own public schools.

Bryan the Bolter.

It would be a neglect of duty utterly beyond excuse to fail to record each particular interesting act and attitude of Mr. William Jennings Bryan. The latest of these is his repudiation of his party's nominee for governor of Nebraska. Mr. Bryan deplores his defection from the party's policies and persons. His lament is keyed to a jeremiad note that nevertheless seeks to be cheerful, for Mr. Bryan insists that he is consistent with his position in the past and his attitude in the future upon the subject of chief concern in the local politics of native state. The question at issue is not the important point, it is the fact that Mr. Bryan, the repeated champion of his party in the presidential contests and the great unflinching, should find it necessary to sidestep the candidate for Governor in his own state, and publicly and with due humanity confess that he has abandoned regularity even by so much.

Bryan the Bolter is a new aspect of the many-sided man. He has frequently bolted within the party, but he has never bolted outside it.

THE UNIVERSITY LETTER

From our Regular Correspondent.

Mr. Bun Fearrington, known in Burlington's business and social realms, now a student at Carolina received a painful wound Thursday when he accidentally shot himself in the leg while playing with a supposedly unloaded gun. The ball flattened against the bone. Located by an x-ray photo, the ball was extracted and Bun is resting easily.

The different classes of the University have elected their presidents and the University Council, the student organ of self-government, will soon inaugurate itself for the years work.

The student body of the University is probably more nearly absolutely self-governing than that of any other institution in the country. The University Council has legal existence delegated it by the Board of Trustees last Commencement. Student self-government began here with the literary societies in olden times when membership was compulsory and the laws governing the society men reached the entire body of students. The literary societies lost their grip on the college with the removal of the membership requirement and the faculty had to make up the work of ruling the boys. Gradually the Democratic spirit in North Carolina manifested itself in the evolution of student self-government in Chapel Hill. The chief instrument in this development was the Honor System. The sentiment of the college first took unto itself the right to deal with cheating on examination. The students forced a man to leave first for cheating and gradually added other offenses to the list with which it dealt on its own authority. By last spring the student council were expelling men found guilty of the charge of gambling: hazing, cheating, drinking. A complication arose when a man expelled by the council was reinstated by the faculty. A committee of the students asked the Trustee for official recognition of the council. This the Trustees gave, and the student body of the University of North Carolina is now a self-governing democracy, just as real and just as sound as any community government in the state.

The officers of the Council this year are Archie Dees, president of the senior class, ex-officio chairman; G. W. Thompson, representative from the senior class; A. B. Folger, president of the junior class; R. W. Scott, president of the sophomore class; C. B. Ruffin, representative of the law class; F. J. Huneicut, president of the second year pharmacy class; and G. A. Wheeler, president of the second year medical class.

The Alamance County Club is closely and vitally organized this year. At a recent meeting I. C. Moser was elected Pres. J. G. Walker Vice Pres. E. V. Patterson Secy. and Treas. and J. W. Lashley Jr. corresponding Secy. Nineteen boys are now at Carolina from the county of Alamance. Their names, their class, and their section is given here to acquaint the different portions of the county with Alamance representatives at the State University. I. C. Moser, '11, southern; W. L. Cooper, '11, Graham; R. W. Isley, '13, southern; J. W. Lashley Jr. Grad. Burlington; V. A. Perrett, '13, southern; E. V. Patterson, '11, southern; J. G. Walker, '11, Graham; J. F. Lynch, '13, Burlington; B. E. Isley, '12, Burlington; Bun Fearrington, pre-med, Burlington; C. C. Fonville, Grad. Burlington; Roy Johnson, '14, Haw River; W. E. Bason, pre-med, Swepsonville; L. R. Cooper, '14, Graham; Ira Ward, law, Swepsonville; Morrow, '14 Mebane; three Holmes boys, '14 Mebane.

Tobacco Market.

This week goes down in history as a record breaker for tobacco sales. Both warehouses are kept busy each day. Farmers are realizing the excellent sales which they are making and are readily getting rid of the leaf. There is no room to doubt but what the Burlington market will far exceed its sales last year.

Republican Speaking.

Hon. Marion Butler will address the people of Alamance County in the Court House at Graham, Tuesday night October 18th. Everybody invited.

President Finley on Good Roads.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 6.—President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, delivered an address here to-day before the Southern Appalachian Good Roads Congress in which he made an earnest plea for the construction of an improved system of highways throughout the Southeastern States, stressing the importance of wagon roads as a feature of transportation. He declared that it is the farmer who is most vitally interested in the improvement of the country roads but that all are interested in the welfare of the farmer and in making conditions in the country so attractive as to turn the drift of population back from the cities to the farms.

Road conservation was advocated by Mr. Finley in the line of having improvements made on those roads radiating from market and shipping points, which are naturally of the great service to the farming population. The employment of competent road engineers by each county was recommended, as was the issuing of bonds to pay the first cost of expensive road improvement.

As illustrating the importance of good roads to the farmer Mr. Finley gave facts showing the relative cost of transportation over good and bad wagon roads and over highways, as follows:

Wagon road transportation is now the least economically efficient form of transportation that we have. Figures compiled by the Office of Public Roads show that the cost of carrying one ton one mile on the country roads of the United States, good and bad, average from 19 cents to 27 cents while for the bad roads along the average is probably something over 30 cents per ton per mile.

As Hon. L. W. Page, Director of the United States Office of Public Roads has said: "It is costing us about thirty-five times as much to haul our products over the wagon roads as it is to haul the same tonnage on the railroad." How it effects the marketing of specific crops may be illustrated by stating some figures compiled by the Office of Public Roads based on the crop year 1905 and 1906. These figures show that the average length of haul of the wheat crop of that year over the wagon roads was 9.4 miles, and that the average cost per ton per mile was 10 cents. The average length of the corn crop of that year was 7.4 miles, and the average cost per ton per mile was 10 cents. The average length of the cotton crop of that year was 11.8 miles and the average cost per ton per mile was 27 cents. It is estimated that the average cost per ton per mile of hauling each of these three crops to a market town or shipping station over good hard roads would have been 10 cents and that good roads would have meant a saving of $10,256,953 in the cost of marketing the wheat crop of that year; $12,709,278 in the cost of marketing the corn crop of that year, and $5,076,188 in the cost of marketing the cotton crop of that year.

Medical Experiments on Convicts.

New York World.

A nifty ethical question is raised by the efforts of Indian health officers to secure a pardon for any life prisoner consenting to be made the subject of experiments to prove whether or not human beings are liable to infection from the milk or flesh of tuberculous cows. Can a crime against society be punishable by life imprisonment if condoned by a service to the public health? And can society justifiably expose even a criminal not doomed to extermination to the risk of death in the interest of medical science?

Apart from ethical considerations the point of interest is the offer of a bribe for a service which in an ideal state of civilization should be voluntarily performed without hope of ulterior reward. Some day there may be exist a peace soldiery enlisted for service of the kind and ready at any time to furnish volunteers to establish a medical theory for the public benefit.

There is as much glory in a war against crime and disease as in one for conquest, and there is a higher courage in risking death for the advancement of science than in military valor. No doubt the material for such exists. Dr. Wiley's poison squad showed the drift, and a real service of this nature was performed by United States soldiers in the war on yellow fever. In the more or less remote future it should not be necessary to bribe convict with a pardon to undergo infection for the benefit of humanity.

Excellent Meeting Closed.

The meeting at the Front Street Methodist Church which has been in progress for the past ten days closed Thursday night. Rev. Beaman preached some most excellent sermons and had a large crowd present each night. He left Friday for Pellham to spend a week assisting in a meeting, from there he will go to Roxboro. The meeting was full of the spirit which was evidenced by the fact that fifteen people were converted.

FORCED TO BORROW FROM A COTTON MILL

The Board of Commissioners for Alamance county, at their regular meeting the first Monday in October made an order to borrow five thousand dollars from the Virginia Cotton Mills, of Swepsonville, Alamance county North Carolina. This is one of the mills that the Democrats say have been ruined by the High Protective tariff. And yet under this high Republican Protective tariff, this cotton mill is able to lend a bankrupt county treasury under Democratic county and State government the sum of five thousand dollars, at the low rate of six per cent interest. What does our esteemed neighbor, The Burlington News say about this? Your readers would be delighted to hear your opinion about it. Your Board of Commissioners have managed county matters so badly the past two years that they have got to have five or ten thousand dollars more right away to meet pressing obligations. We know of some more mills that have been ruined according to your theory by this high Republican Protective tariff that could lend your Democratic Board the money if they choose to do so. Would you like to know what mills they are? We will tell you if you ask it. And perhaps you had better find out, because we doubt if any of the banks in the county will lend your board any more, and you have got to have it, havn't you dear neighbor. Tell us about it in your next issue please.

CUT HIS OWN THROAT

Wm. A. Sharpe, After Period of Ill Health, Takes His Life.

(Greensboro News, Oct. 8th.)

The entire city was shocked yesterday morning when it was known that William A. Sharpe had committed suicide at his home, 328 Gorrell street, between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock. He had been in poor health for several weeks and the family had been warned by their physician to watch him.

Yesterday morning, however, he in some way unknown to his wife, who had been closely watching him, secured a razor, and on the pretext of taking a bath, went alone to the bathroom, where, removing his outer clothing, he sat down in the bathtub and, with the razor, cut his throat. The jugular vein was severed and death resulted in a few minutes.

The deceased was about 62 years old and had resided in the city for the past 20 years. He drove the United States mail wagon for eight years, after which time and up to within a few weeks ago he sold oil from a private wagon.

Mr. Sharpe's affairs were all in good shape, the felicity of his home was perfect, and no other cause than temporary insanity or despondency can be attributed to his having taken his own life.

The funeral services will be conducted Sunday, and the burial will take place at Alamance church in the morning at 11 o'clock.

Death of Baby.

Their many friends sympathize with Col. and Mrs. Eugene Holt in the death of their darling baby, by girl which was called from earth to heaven Monday morning by the kind creator who saw proper to allow its life to be the flower of the home for only a few weeks. The little form was laid to rest in the Episcopal Cemetery Monday evening at five o'clock, funeral services were at the home by Rev. E. L. Ogilby. A large number of floral designs were attributed as tokens of love.

Mr. Cates Replies to the City Fathers

Burlington, Oct. 7th, 1910.

Mr. Jas. P. Montgomery, Sec'y and Treas. City of Burlington.

Dear Sir:—Your letter enclosing a copy of certain resolutions passed by your Board of Aldermen of the City of Burlington, September 28th, 1910, relative to said Board rescinding, repealing, and declaring null and void a certain contract which said Board entered into with me, has been received and contents carefully noted.

I submit that such resolutions are surprisingly strange for that you are declaring null and void a contract written and prepared by your attorney, about which I had nothing to do in its writing save and except signing my name, thereby agreeing to abide by its terms. Your attorney wrote my proposition in letters, words, and terms to meet your approval and you accepted said proposition in your own written words. You gave me a copy of said contract and under its terms, with other things, I am given unlimited time with which to deposit check and to sell the bonds. Although you gave me this unlimited time, I did not take advantage of your kindness but deposited check with the Alamance Loan and Trust Company and immediately found two purchasers for bonds.

Then it was that the newspapers and some of the citizens, who had fought the bond issue from the beginning, began to criticize you for your action. And then it was that you held another meeting and limited my time to deposit check to ten days. Accordingly, I tendered your Honorable Mayor within three days, in the presence of witnesses, a certified check of ONE THOUSAND ($1,000.00) DOLLARS and he refused to accept same. Further, you refused to give me a certified copy of the proceedings in the Bond Issue, thereby crippling me in furnishing the information desired by the parties to whom I have agreed to sell the bonds.

I have lived up to the contract in every particular and in good faith. You know the contract for it is a matter of record. I have a copy of said contract signed by your Mayor and your Secretary, pro-tem, together with a letter from your City Attorney, Mr. Carroll, recommending the transaction in highest terms.

I shall therefore exercise my best ability to save myself harmless in this matter. I shall also depend upon you and your Board, individually and in the capacity of Aldermen for the City of Burlington, to carry out this contract to the letter. To do otherwise, would be child's play.

Respectfully,
J. W. CATES

Home Endorsement

Hundreds of Burlington Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Burlington people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Burlington reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in faraway places. Read the following:

Mrs. Sarah Andrews Webster Ave., Burlington, N. C., says: "I am always willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, knowing from my own experience that they are a reliable kidney remedy. I suffered a great deal from pains through the small of my back and had such severe headaches and dizzy spells that I could hardly get about. I finally decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the Freeman Drug Co. As the result of their use I am now in better health than for years."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Of course, the Democrats have to blame it all on the Tariff, and if they are intending to make this the issue in the next campaign they will find the Republicans perfectly ready and willing to meet them on that line. For some years they have deemed it prudent to make their appeal to the people on other grounds. If they now propose to combat the protective principle and to resume advocating a Tariff for revenue only, all right.

Mrs. B. Goodman is spending a two weeks visit with friends and relatives at Haw River. Mr. Goodman spent Sunday at Haw River.

Yanceyville Sentinel.

There was a serious shooting scrape indulged in by two colored people on Will Smith's farm Saturday night when Will Richmond shot Will Stephens through the head causing instant death. They claim that they were fooling, with a pistol when it was accidentally discharged. Richmond was given a preliminary hearing Sunday and was lodged in jail Monday in default of $1000.00 bond. If an accident how long before America will learn fire arms are not playthings?

Sanford Express.

The Sanford Cotton Mill is now operated by power furnished by its own steam plant. The water in the Cape Fear river is too low on account of the dry weather for power to be furnished by the Buckhorn plant. A large plant is being built at Raleigh by the Carolina Light and Power Company and as soon as it is completed the cotton mill here will again be operated by electric power. The Raleigh plant will furnish power when the water is too low for the plant at Buckhorn to be operated.

Selkville Review.

Southbound local passenger train No. 7 ran over and instantly killed a young white man, W. D. Hughes, of Danville, Thursday afternoon between Benaja and Brown Summit. He was lying across the track and the wheels passed over both legs at the ankle cutting off the feet. The skull was fractured but the face was disfigured. Mr. Rich who lives in South Ashboro has a stalk of corn that measures 8 ft. 6 inches from the ground to the ear, and the entire length of the stalk is about 14 feet. Who will next break the record in the corn growing regions?

A. S. Allen, who has been running a grocery store in what is known as the old brick shop at the Wemnonah Cotton Mills, was given a preliminary hearing before the mayorlast on the charge of selling whiskey. Some joint in this section of town has been dealing out the tiger product in large quantities and the officers hope that they have at last located it. There was sufficient evidence against Allen to bind him over to court and he will answer to judge and jury at the next term of court.

The books are now open? Have you registered?

Republicans register so that you can vote in the November election.

The county campaign opens at Hornadays Store, Pattersons
township Thursday the 13th.
Rather an unlucky date for the Democrats.

It is said that the beer saloon
in the Fair Grounds did a land
office business during the fair.
The fair association knew what would draw the crowd.

It is said that some of our present county officials promised that if elected at the last election, they would not be candidates again.
Have they kept the promise.

There will be a joint canvass between the Republicans and Democrats in this county. Come out and learn the truth about the financial condition of Alamance county.

Mr. Elmer Long the second candidate of the Democratic party for the Legislature is a son of Hon. Jacob A. Long, a prominent attorney of Graham, and is a chip off the old block.

Will some of the Democratic politicians tell the voters and tax payers the exact indebtedness of Alamance county at this time.
It was just nine thousand dollars
when the Democrats came into power two years ago. Is it more than this now, or less, which.

The open indebtedness of Alamance county, not including the various bond issues, is between twenty-four and thirty thousand dollars. It was just nine thousand dollars two years ago. Of course we know that the money has been honestly spent, but where did it go? The tax payers would like to know.

We presume that one of the principal qualifications of W. P.
Wood, of Randolph county for State Auditor, was his ability to deprive an old Confederate soldier from drawing his pension,
which he was justly entitled to,
simply because he would not vote
the Democratic ticket.

Alamance county owes twenty-four thousand dollars borrowed money, which the board of county commissioners have borrowed within the past two years and they have got to borrow five or ten thousand more to take care of the county vouchers which have already been issued, or is due and should be issued. How is this Mr. Tax payer for Democratic good government? What do you think of it Mr. Voter? It will be up to you the eighth day
of next month.

Our esteemed contemporary
The Burlington News changed
the extra sheet last week which has been running about Butler, Bonds and Booze and had instead a sheet on defunct Republican Prosperity. If he had made it read: "Defunct Democratic County Administration," he would have hit the nail square upon the head. However, we believe the News is justified in using anything to distract attention from the Democratic record, even to using Butler, bonds and booze.

This is one year that the Democrats could insert their old familiar plank in their platform,
with some degree meaning. "We view with alarm" the rapidly growing Republican party. And might be added. We verily believe they will carry the State and wrest from us the last hope of ever holding office again. Notwithstanding the fact that we have done everything we knew how to do and more besides. We have cried negro until we were hoarse, but it did no good. We cried Butler, Boodle, Booze and Bonds until we are ashamed of ourselves, and yet the people refuse to listen to us, or be scared
at our cry like they used to be.
Verily it is time to "View with alarm."

A Nice Young Man Gone Wrong.

A nice young man in the person of Mr. J. Elmer Long has gone wrong by entering Democratic politics. It's a great pity that a nice young man with great promise before him, should take the fatal step of entering politics especially Democratic politics of the latter day kind. Mr. Long is too nice a young man to have to espouse the cause of Democracy in this year of grace, when they have no issue, no argument, no
platform save negro, villification,
abuse, Butler, booze and bonds.
But since Mr. Long has shut his eyes to his future, and entered politics of the Democratic crazy-quilt kind, let us hope that he depart from the tactics of his brethren and conduct a clean clear-cut campaign, telling his hearers what his party has done and what they propose to do, if again entrusted to power. If he will do this there may be some hope for him. But if he listens to the siren song of the Democratic ring master, he will wish that he had never been born, or that ten thousand bricks from an eighteen story building would fall upon him. Surprise us young friend, surprise us!

Trading Makes the Difference.

Once upon a time a gentleman
by the name of Mr. C. D. Thompson was serving as Register of Deeds for this county, he had made a good clever and accommodating official, but he had held the position for three terms, or six years. There was another aspirant for Mr. Thompsons office who claimed that Democracy was opposed to life tenure of office, and that three terms or six years was long enough for any one man to hold office. This view was concurred in by the Democratic party of the county. Mr

Thompson was defeated for re-nomination and Mr. C. D. Johnson the present incumbent was nominated and has held the office
ever since, which is three terms
or six years.

This year there were several gentlemen remembering the precedent established six years ago,
had held the office long enough,
and aspired to the nomination,
but the present incumbent and his friends said hold on, it's true
we used the three term argument against Mr. Thompson to perfection, but that was to get him out,
now we have changed our opinion, and Mr. Johnson must be nominated for the fourth term,
and the steam roller was forthwith used against all other candidates for the position of Register of Deeds, and the present incumbent was renominated for the fourth term, or eight years.

Turning one man out who had held the office long enough, and renominating another man because he had not held the office
long enough, although he has served as long as the first one,
points to one moral, and only one.
If you expect to hold office under the Democratic party, you must be a trader and the bigger the trader the longer you can hold.
The Democratic party cares nothing for the straight Simon pure article, what they want is a man
that can win, buy trade or swap,
any old way just so their man
gets the office.

Music as a Medicine.

According to men of high medical authority, it has been decided and agreed that many of the ailments of mankind pack up their grips and leave when subjected to the strains of sweet music. Melancholia is dreadfully afraid of a lively air and most disorders of the "every day" sort take to their heels as "tigers before Teddy" when the melody of a cheering song is heard.

Then banish the doctors and "away" with medicines, for the words and music of the jolly, good song--"Dear Old East Side" is to go free as a feature of next Sunday's New York World. This is the song that has helped draw crowds to Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre, New York, where Gus Edward's "Song Review" is in full swing.

To be sure of getting this rejuvenating song order next Sunday's World from your newsdealers in advance.

Copies of Sunday World can be secured by applying at the DISPATCH OFFICE.

Sunday drunks in the police courts are familiar headlines in some of the leading dailies in the larger cities of the State. There appears to be a wanton neglect of duty on the part of some one, in not destroying the source of supply.

A Good Position.

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Memphis, Tenn., or Columbia, South Carolina.

OUR CAMPAIGN LETTER

Special to the Dispatch.
 Crowded out last week.

New York, Oct. 1.—So far the only campaign argument advanced by the Democratic party is "Try us, we can't do any harm."

Meaning of course that a Democratic House of Representatives with a Republican Senate and President would result in no new legislation whatever, either constructive or destructive. The plausibility of the argument, however, is overcome by a weighing of facts, a consideration of past experience, of an honest deduction of what might and probably would happen.

A Democratic House could do harm—would do harm almost incalculable. In the first place we must consider the fact that all constructive legislation under the present administration would cease. The Democrats would play politics and jockey for a position in 1912. There would be a prevention of further redemption of Republican pledges so well inaugurated by the present Congress. Not all could be accomplished at a single session, and the coming short session will be fully occupied with the necessary appropriation bills.

So we must look to the 62nd Congress for a completion of the program promised in the last National Platform and in the recommendations of the President. With a Republican House there would be no doubt of the passage of many progressive and beneficial measures. With a Democratic House there would be no possibility of a single constructive Act.

Then again much continuing legislation might be nullified by a Democratic House seeking to discredit the Government. For instance, as ex-President Roosevelt has so tersely put it: "The construction of the Panama Canal is now an assured fact; but most certainly it is unwise to intrust the carrying out of so momentous a policy to those who have endeavored to defeat the whole undertaking."

There are conservation measures which really mark only the beginning of great projects, and the Democratic party which has solidly opposed these measures cannot be trusted to carry them forward and give us anything beneficial in their place.

So injury that cannot be estimated would surely accompany a Democratic House of Representatives because of the check to Republican legislation. But serious as is this view of the situation, of far greater importance is the legislation that will actually be attempted—that is the bills which will pass the House which cannot become laws because of a Republican Senate and President. We need only consider one of such bills, namely a Democratic Tariff Act. It will not be an attempt to improve the present law, it will be a straight-out complete revision looking to revenue only. The fact that such a bill cannot for two years become a law will not prevent consternation from taking possession of every industrial centre and business community in the land. Anxiety and be found in every bank, every counting house every factory and store from ocean to ocean. Purchases will cease and production will be wide spread. All will be seriously affected—the farmer next after the factory workers, then the railroads. All will be marking time and will wait to see what 1912 will bring.

The Democrats are hopeful of victory and are promising, or we might better say, threatening to do all kinds of things, but they are not to be trusted—we can take the word of one of their own Senators for this. In 1890 they obtained a majority in the House of Representatives, and this is what Senator Gore said in 1896 of the result:

"The trouble with the Democratic party is it is a party of statesmen without statesmanship, patriot without patriotism, heroes without heroism. Their policy begets farmers without farming, laborers without labor, freemen without freedom.

"The Fifty-second Congress had a Democratic majority of 148 and if it redeemed a single pledge, observed a single promise, kept a single command, or discharged a single obligation made to the people of the United States I will quit the stump and retire from the canvass.

"The Fifty-second Congress was elected on retrenchment and economy, the free coinage of silver and the repeal of the McKinley law. In the matter of economy that Congress exceeded the Republican $1,000,000,000 Congress by $40,000,000." It will be well then for the voters to stop and think, to consider well what it means to himself his neighbor, his city, his state and his country to have a Democratic House. It means idleness to some, a reduction of wages to others, a cessation of dividends, a business without profits and a production at both factory and farm without price. We have gone through it before, we shall have to endure it again if we make the same mistake we made in 1890 and 1892.

Both the serious panics since the Republican party was formed resulted directly and entirely from the election of a Democratic majority in Congress. That is history.

A Low Tariff Means Low Wages.

Leslie's Weekly.

As the tariff goes up or down, so wages move up or down. Frank A. Munsey, whose Washington paper, the Times, has been looked upon as staunch advocate of tariff revision, gave an interview at Salzburg, Germany, to the New York Herald that affords little comfort to the insurgents. "If the tariff be reduced," says the logical Mr. Munsey, "we cannot maintain the high wage rates now in force. You can't have both. A lowering of the tariff would invite an influx of foreign goods produced by cheap labor, and wages in our country would have to go down with the tariff as a matter of business expediency or business existence." It is for the American workman to choose which he will have—adequate protection with high wages or insufficient protection with low wages and a low standard of living.

The minority report of the Senate Committee on Wages and Prices, whose superficial and partisan conclusions have now been made public, takes the ground that if the protective tariff be removed and prices allowed to sink, the question of wages may be trusted to take care of itself. Comparing free-trade Great Britain with various protectionist countries of Europe, the report has the imprudence to say, "The general testimony is that the rate of wages for all mechanical trades is substantially higher in Great Britain than in those protectionist countries, while the prices of necessities are lower, leaving the Englishmen a wider margin to live upon." The report cites a table published in Whitaker's Almanac to show that, in the sixty years during which Great Britain has had free trade, wages have increased 81.7 per cent. and prices only three per cent. If these figures be correct, then wages sixty years ago were fearfully low and out of all proportion with prices. Representative Hamilton, of Michigan, furnishes a table which, as printed in the Congressional Record, tells a totally different tale. The table represents a comparison of wages for an eight-hour day in the United States and Great Britain. The wage of general laborers in the United States is $1.36 as against 80 cents in Great Britain. The average daily wage for bricklayers, stonecutters, stone masons, carpenters, painters, plumbers and machinists in the United States is $3.14 as against $1.50 in Great Britain.

Thus Mr. Munsey's point is sustained that a tariff reduction means a wage reduction. Free trade Great Britain, in common with all other countries, feels the burden of advanced prices. American workmen are not foolish enough to desire to exchange their present high wages for the low scale of free-trade England, involving, as it would, a lower standard of living. As President Harrison aptly remarked in defending the protective tariff, "The cheap coat means the cheap man."

Let Republicans stop taking counsel of their Democratic opponents. Let them cease echoing the noisy and discordant defamations of Republican leaders by the Democratic press. Let them take counsel together as Republicans and take account of the splendid traditions and achievements of their great party. How long since has it been safe for a great army to be guided by the information and advice furnished by the enemy? In President Taft the Republican party has as wise and safe a leader as in him the country has a great-hearted, high-minded, public-spirited President. The declarations of the Connecticut Republican platform in praise of the President should be repeated in substance in every Republican platform yet to be adopted.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

CIRCUS AT GREENSBORO

Ringling Bros. World's Greatest Show to Be There on Monday October 24th.

The Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Show will, on Monday October 24th, give two performances in Greensboro, afternoon and evening. This will be the only opportunity this year of seeing the best circus entertainments. This show that amazed New York City with its European array of acrobats, and its extensive new menagerie. Its parade the longest and most superb spectacle that ever passed through the streets of any city in the South. On April 3, 1883, the Ringling Brothers gave their first performance in their home town, Bradenton, Wis., on the public square. They made their own show and their own ring property. The audience sat on planks hauled from a lumber yard. They had but one horse. From that little one-ring affair to their present stupendous organization is the history of the Ringling Bros. It is like a fairy tale. They began with nothing. They now own the greatest amusement enterprise in all history.

The reason of their success is a secret. It is a peculiar combination of the right kind of talent and a policy of uprightness in dealing with the public. Even during its early days it was a good show. It was small, but it was an earnest endeavor. Without capital the fine young men struggled against the bitterest opposition. They won the confidence of the public and have always kept it because they have always deserved it. A very few years after that first performance their rivals began to sit up and take serious notice when mention of the Ringling Brothers was made. They realized they had opposing force to compete with and had come to stay. In a few years more the Ringling Show was the first place among the tent shows of America. There is no one else it will always stay. It has become the leader in the art of entertainment.

Among the many European shows offered this year are the German horses from the Circus at Berlin, Scheveningen and Frankfurt. Albert Schuman, a trainer of horses, is the most successful man in history. He has made ten millions of dollars selling the animals he has trained. Tourists travel many miles to see his show. He has fifteen animals in his act. He enters the arena concealed in beer barrels piled on an immense brewery wagon. They are discovered by the audience until they kick the heads of the barrels and jump into the arena. They begin their act by pulling the bungs from kegs, and a beer-like fluid from the kegs and drinking it from big glasses. They roll each other around in barrels. They waltz in time to music. They skip the kegs and smoke pipes. From the beginning to the end of their act they remain standing on their feet.

Another great act is presented by the Saxon trio of the world's strongest men. Two of them support the pillars of a bridge over which passes an automobile with passengers. Still other novel and great acts are presented by the Lovch family of acrobats, from Germany, — the great Alexis family of aerialists, Robledo, the Spanish wizard of the wire, the Dutton family of riders, and the greatest company of clowns in the world. The new parade is a marvel of beauty. The new menagerie is a complete collection of animals.

Good Work of the Taft Administration.

Meanwhile, the administration is doing a great number of excellent things in a business like way. It has been taking the census rapidly and accurately, without scandal and without taint of politics or spoils. It has managed to turn the board of tariff advisors into a real tariff commission and is already laying the foundations for a proper future tariff revision. It has named a highly qualified commission to report upon the best way to regulate the issue of railroad stocks and bonds. It has inaugurated the new Bureau of Mines in a way to save many lives and protect the public welfare. It proposes to find out means to stop the waste of public money by bringing business methods into expenditure, somewhat along the lines laid down for New York City by the Bureau of Municipal Research. In every way it is improving the administration of the Philippines and our other outlying dependencies. It is steadily and rapidly pushing the work at Panama without making any fuss about it. It is carrying on noteworthy inquiries as to the justice and significance of proposed advance in railroad rates, and is helping to elucidate the most difficult problems in railroad economics and the control of interstate commerce. It is pushing forward the enforcement of the Sherman Anti-Trust law with an almost startling energy, and seemingly without fear or favor. It is promoting in various ways the cause of international peace and good will. It is doing an almost incalculable service to American morals by enforcing the tariff law and breaking up smuggling at the New York Custom House and other ports of entry. Whether the tariff regulations as respects returning travelers are wise or unwise, they are the law of the land and ought to be observed. This administration, for the first time in many decades, through Collector Loeb and other officials, is enforcing the law and showing itself no respecter of persons. This is not a trivial matter, but a thing of great importance. — From "The Progress of the World," in the American Review of Reviews for October.

Inquest on the Maine.

New York Tribune. In respect to the raising of the Maine and the attendant scrutiny of the hull and reinvestigation of the explosion which destroyed that ship, there are those who urge that the Spanish government should be permitted and invited to have official and expert observers present to participate in the work. There are also those who hold that the United States should do the work itself, alone and privately, as it conducted the former inquest into the great disaster.

We hope to see the former counsel prevail. It might, of course, be held that Spain and all the world ought to take the word of this country concerning the results of the investigation. It may with at least equal force and pertinence be urged that this country should not hesitate but rather should desire to let Spain and all the world see everything which is revealed in the raising of that hulk from the bottom of Havana Harbor.

One of three things will certainly happen: The explosion will be found to have been external, or it will be found to have been internal, or it will be found impossible to determine positively whether it was external or internal. If the first should be the case, the former judgment of our investigators would stand indisputably confirmed, a result which, we believe, is generally expected. If the second should be the case, Spain and Cuba, or Spaniards and Cubans, would be relieved of an odious suspicion. In the third case, we remain in the state of uncertainty which now prevails in not a few minds.

Exports crossed the billion-dollar mark for the eight month ending with August, 1910.
