Party Platform.

The following resolution was introduced and adopted at the Republican County Convention at Graham Saturday Sept. 17th, 1910. Read it, it means something to the people of Alamance County:

The Republican party of Alamance county in convention assembled do hereby resolve.

1st. We are in thorough accord with the National and State platforms of our party and we hereby proclaim our unflinching allegiance thereto.

2nd. We believe our people are entitled to an economic administration of the government in all its grades and its every department, and taking the county as a unit, we demand that our county officers be placed upon a salary basis and that all fees and emoluments now pertaining to said offices be turned into and made a part of the school funds of the county.

3rd. Believing that the safety of our government and our prosperity as a nation, depend upon the education of the masses, we emphasize our loyalty to that portion of our state platform declaring for the furnishing, free of charge and under proper regulations, all necessary text books for every child in the public schools of the State.

4th. In the event of the failure, by the legislature, to pass a state-wide law, providing for the purchase of text books for the public schools, we demand the enactment of a law, applying to Alamance county, that will permit and require the savings accruing to the county by reason of the payment of salaries to our officials to be applied to the purchase of books for the children in our own public schools.

Hung Up in a Mud Hole.

Messrs. O. F. Crowson, John M. Cook, Grady Cates and J. M. Bates got hung up in a mud hole the other day out near Mr. John F. Cobles. They were the guests of Mr. J. M. Cates in his automobile, and were going out to hear the Democratic spell-binders tell the dear people how the Democrats had given them good roads and all other good things, but they hung up and had to get out in the mud and pull her out. The mud was so deep that some of them had to take off their shoes, because it was nearly knee deep, at least over the ankles.

We presume that you will not hear much through editor Crowson's paper for sometime to come about the good roads, the neighbors say that it had not rained in six days either. It takes just such lessons as this to learn some of our city friends just what the good old farmer, who feeds us all, has to go through with every day in the year. For our part we are for the farmer first last and all the time. We wish for him all the good things that seem to be coming his way, and we are for improving his roads too, no matter what the cost.

A LIE OUT OF THE WHOLE CLOTH

The Democratic ring leaders are unable to meet the issues in this campaign, and, besides, are very fearful that their record of incompetency and broken promises will be exposed to the voters of the state. This has caused the bosses to send word down the line to every Democratic speaker and newspaper, from one end of the state to the other, to raise the hysterical cry of:—"BUTLER AND BONDS."

They are trying to frighten the good people of the state (who are in favor of paying honest debts) by charging that Republican success would mean the collection of over $20,000,000.00 of fraudulent CARPET-BAG BONDS. This is a LIE OUT OF THE WHOLE CLOTH, and every one of the Democratic leaders know it. But they are frightened because the people are deserting their false leadership and lining up with the party of progress and prosperity, and they are desperate at the idea of losing power and office. A few decent Democratic newspapers and self-respecting speakers however have refused to be a party to such infamous methods.

The incompetency of the Democratic party in this state, and its record of non-enforcement of the law, of deserted principles and broken promises, including the HYPOCRISY and TREACHERY of the Kitchen ADMINISTRATION especially as to the PROMISED "Anti Trust Law with TEETH," to say nothing of the pitiable record of the national Democratic party of negation and folly, is the constant NIGHTMARE of the DEMOCRATIC BOSSES. They want to divert attention from their record and fool the voters, but they underestimate the intelligence of the PEOPLE. All the VOTER wants to know is the FACTS, and then he will THINK and ACT for himself.

Death of Mrs. Ingle.

Our town was shocked to learn last Saturday morning of the death of Mrs. Mary Ann Ingle who was paralyzed Friday evening about four o'clock living only a few hours. Previous to the stroke of paralysis she had been in her usual health. She was sixty seven years old and a consecrated christian woman. A devout member of the Christian Church and a patient sympathetic mother. Funeral services were conducted Monday morning at the home by her pastor Rev. P. H. Fleming assisted by Rev. J. D. Williams, interment at Pine Hill Cemetery. She leaves to mourn their loss three sons and four daughters, Messrs. T. A. Jno. V. and W. P. Ingle and Mrs. Jarrett of Winston Salem, Mrs. J. W. Shue of Macon, Ga. Mrs. L. C. Fogleman and Miss Queen Ingle of this city. We extend sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Death of Dr. John C. Clapp.

Dr. John C. Clapp one of Guilford Counties illustrious citizens and a man who stood high in the dental profession died Monday night at his home at Whitsett, at the age of seventy three years. He was the last member to be called of a family of nine, his brother Dr. Jacob C. Clapp President of Catawba College for a number of years having died only a few months ago. He is survived by a life long companion and two children, Mrs. Robert Buck and Ernest Clapp both of Greensboro and the last Clerk of the Supreme Court of Guilford County.

Funeral services at the home today by his pastor Rev. J. D. Andrew, Burial at Green Hill Cemetery Greensboro.

We are glad to report a new class this week, the Snow Camp Baraca. With a most excellent teacher, Mr. T. F. McVey. We are expecting great things from Snow Camp.

All the classes did well Sunday. It is worthy of mention that the Presbyterians led in average collection while the Baptist led in attendance.

Our lesson Sunday: The Last Judgement. We found that there are only two ways to go. One to "everlasting punishment" the other to "eternal life."

Some one has said:

"We shape ourselves the joy or fear Of which the coming life is made, And fill our future atmosphere With sunshine or with shade. The tissue of the life to be We weave in colors all our own, And in the field of destiny We reap what we have sown." Men keep everlastingly after the men.

Resolutions in Memory of Mr. D. Frank Lambe

Adopted by the Methodist Protestant Sunday School, Burlington, N. C.

Whereas GOD in his infinite wisdom hath called from earth to the abode of the blest one of our beloved members, Mr. D. Frank Lambe.

Therefore be it resolved:

First:

That while we mourn one lost to us we meekly bow in submission to him who does for his children only what is best.

Second:

That while his bodily presence has gone from us, a rich heritage is left us in the sacred memory of his life, whose strength of character endeared him to all who knew him.

Third:

That this Sunday School tenders to his dear ones their sincere sympathy, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent his loved ones, a copy be recorded in the minutes of this Sunday School, and acopy sent to our Church Record and the city papers for publication.

L. W. HOLT R. F. WILLIAMS M. A. COBLE Committee.

There will be a "Harvest Home Service" in Low's Church next Saturday 22nd. Sermon at 11 a.m. after sermon an offering for Home Mission. Dinner will be served on the ground after dinner the evening will be spent in social enjoyment. Every body invited to come and bring a basket.

THE COUNTY TREASURY VOUCHERS AT DISCOUNT

For the first time since the formation of Alamance county, the county vouchers drawn upon the treasurer of the county are going at a discount. What does the tax payers of the county think of this? Not only are the vouchers going at a discount, BUT THE COUNTY TREASURY IS EMPTY, AND THE COUNTY CANNOT BORROW A DOLLAR TO MEET THE PRESSING OBLIGATIONS. There are now outstanding several thousand dollars worth of county vouchers that cannot be realized upon, except at a heavy discount. The county owes now twenty-one thousand dollars for borrowed money as follows:

Alamance Highway Commission,	$10,000.00
E. Long,	$1,000.00
Dr. J. H. Brooks	$2,000.00
Bank of Alamance	$3,000.00
Virginia Cotton Mills	$5,000.00
Total amount borrowed	$21,000.00

There has been no sinking fund set aside to take care of the maturing bonds, this will take several thousand dollars. This together with the outstanding vouchers will largely increase the indebtedness. Just where it will all end no one knows. Is it not time that the tax payers whose property is at stake in this matter were giving these conditions some thought and attention? No one who has any regard for the truth will deny these statements, and no one can truthfully deny them. They are cold blooded facts. The tax payers of this good old county two years ago, turned the Republican party out of power in this county because they borrowed $9,000 at this season of the year to meet the running expenses of the county. What will they do to the party that has borrowed $21,000 and then owes several thousand more. It is getting time to act. What will your verdict be.

R. F. D. No. 8.

W. A. Paschall and wife visited relatives in Greensboro last week and also took in the big Central Carolina fair.

We had the pleasure of attending the tobacco sales at the warehouses in our city last Wednesday. They had a big break and everybody got satisfactory prices, those warehouse men certainly work to get prices for tobacco. We enjoyed the sale very much.

We attended the Greensboro Fair last Thursday, as did a lot of Burlington folks. The Fair was "all to the good." The one thing we saw that we thought should have been left out was the Near Beer saloon. Just why the Fair Association will allow that in a prohibition state is one thing we can't understand, and when it gets so we can't have a fair without Near beer why then is the time to quit trying.

Mrs. C. E. Tapscott who went to Greensboro Hospital for treatment has returned and is getting along nicely.

Miss Ida Simpson has accepted a position as public school teacher at Belmont Mills on No. 7. We wish her much success. Miss Ida is a clever young lady and deserves to succeed.

Aint this Owing Some.

Alamance County owes fifty thousand dollars for bonds that was issued to pay the debts of the county piled upon it by the Democratic party, and two hundred thousand dollars for the Highway improvement bonds, then twenty one thousand dollars borrowed money, several thousand dollars outstanding county vouchers, and an empty treasurer, isn't that owing some.

The Index system for Alamance county that the candidate for register of deeds on the Democratic ticket talks so much about, and which does not benefit the farmer and average tax payer, but is a boon to the Lawyers, cost the tax payers in the county nearly twenty five hundred dollars, why not put in some system that will benefit the farmer.

SOME PERTINENT QUESTIONS

President Taft Calls for a Bill of Particulars,

"Our Democratic friends are saying that if the Democratic party comes into power it would reduce the expense of this government $3000,000,000," says the President. "Do they mean that the Democrats would abolish the pension list? Do they mean that they would give up the navy and disband the army? Do they mean that they would abandon Porto Rico and the Philippines? Let us have a little specification. What are such statements worth unless the gentlemen who make them give us the details of the expenditures that they criticize and expect to avoid if they are let into power and become themselves the national government.

Butler at Graham.

Hon. Marion Butler spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience in the county court house last night, that he made a good speech goes without saying, those who were fortunate to hear him, went away feeling and believing that he is a badly abused and villified man, those who had a chance to hear him, and refused to do so, is now stopped from continuing their abuse and criticism of him. He made his connection with the bend matter clear and convincing he said unequivocally that he was opposed to the collection of the carpet bag bonds, that he had no connection with them, and that he would not have anything to do with them, that he was a loyal North Carolinian, and as much in favor of protecting its good name and credit as any Democrat in the state, his speech was a complete answer to all the charges against him, and after hearing him no fair minded man will believe otherwise, there were people present from all over the county, and his defense of himself brought to him old political friends whose influence will be felt upon the eighth day of November.

How Come.

Tuesday when the candidate met at McCrays store, Faucette township to discuss the issues and announce their candidacy. The young and pleasing speaker upon the Democratic ticket for the lower house, did not even mention Marion Butler and his connection with the bond issue. Who told him not to do this at this particular appointment, this township is a hot bed of Butlers friends, did this have anything to do with it, we would be glad to have some one enlighten us upon this subject. What does our neighbor the News say about this. Is the speech of our young friend changed to suit certain sections and fit local conditions.

We are daily receiving compliments in regard to the News contained in the Dispatch, a subscriber said to us the other day, I hesitated about taking your paper, but I could not do without it now, I get information from it that I never see in the other county papers, and then too it is reliable. We appreciate these sentiments, and while we are running a political paper, yet we will not misrepresent the other party, or any individual to boost our own side, we believe in being fair and we propose to live up to it. If this kind of paper appeals to your sense of fairness bring or send us your subscription.

Mr. J. C. Shepard was not well enough to go to the meeting of the Synod of the Reformed Church in Pennsylvania and because of this Rev. J. D. Andrew also gave up this trip. There will therefore be preaching at the Reformed Church here both in the forenoon and evening next Sunday. You are invited.

The dedicatory services of the new Lutheran church will be conducted Sunday morning and night. A number of prominent speakers have been invited and will be present. The public is most cordially invited to attend. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Coble spent Sunday in the country the guest of his mother and her parents.

Orange County Observer.

Mr. Nathaniel Bain, son of the late Mr. James M. Bain of Orange county was shot and killed while out hunting near Astoria Oregon on Sunday Oct. 2 1910 by a life long friend, Mr. Clark W. Longhery. Mr. Bain was the eldest boy of seven children. His remains were expected at Efland, Tuesday Oct. 11 and the funeral and interment were to be take place at Lebanon Church Wednesday afternoon Oct. 12 at 4 o'clock Rev. H. S. Bradshaw conducting the services.

Lexington Dispatch.

Davidson county can not be beat when it comes to agricultural products of any and all kinds. Last week Mr. Henderson Leonard, of Lexington was exhibiting a sweet potato that came from his patch that measured eighteen inches around one way and twenty four inches the other. The potato weighed exactly five pounds. This potato was produced right here in Lexington township and with out any special fertilization or other preparation.

Elkin Times.

Heavy rains prevailed through out this section last Friday night Saturday and Saturday night. Saturday there was a steady down pour all day. The land was thoroughly wet for the first time in more than a month. As a result of the rain which lasted more than 24 hours with little cessation the streams were considerable swollen.

Siler City Grit.

Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Bailly and child are spending a few days here visiting friends. Mr. Bailly had charge of the M. E. circuit here three years ago, and he and his wife are held in affectionate remembrance by our people. He now has charge of the Louisburg station.

Quite a good deal of fertilizer is being hauled from this place every day now and it will require a good yield of wheat and oats to check these bills. Here is an earnestly hoping that the yield next spring will be a bounteous one, for every one us are dependent, more or less upon that class of our citizenship.

Mt. Airy Leader.

W. E. Merritt of this city among other qualifications is the champion farmer of this section as a pumpkin show on exhibition at his store clearly demonstrates. This particular pumpkin weighs 142 pounds, measured 76 1-2 inches in circumference and was produced from the seed raised by Mrs. C. R. Bunker of Haystack, in a corn field without either fertilizer or extra cultivation. On the same vine from one seed there are six more of this vegetable weighing from 80 to 120 pounds. This breaks the world's record as the largest pumpkin ever recorded was exhibited at the Winston-Salem fair two years ago which measured 65 inches but weighed 128 pounds.

Raleigh Caucasian.

The report of the chief of police shows that in September there were 153 arrest made principally for drunkenness.

For the nine months ending September 30th, there have been issued in Wake County 436 licenses for marriage. These were about evenly divided between the white and the colored.

Union Republican

On the night of October 5th, the store of F. L. Vogler & Co. on Centerville Street Southside, was burglarized an entrance being made by prizing through the blinds of a front window. The combination of the safe was either known or solved by the robbers and opened. There was taken from the safe $250 in $10 and $20 notes and $10 in change. A pet squirrel put some 25 tele phone out of commission in this city, Saturday night on the circuit leading out from Church and First Sts. The little animal gnawed the lead off a cable and the water from the rain ran in the wires, thus cutting off connection. It was an occurrence which will hardly happen again in a life time.

Sanford Express

Mr. T. N. Woody secretary and treasurer of High Falls Mfg. Co. was in town Wednesday on business. Mr. Woody says his mill shut down during the dull summer season but is now operating on full time. Mr. Woody is the Republican candidate for the Legislature from Moore and Lee counties.

Hickory Democrat.

John A. Robison and aged 70 and Debbie B. Benfield 45, of Hickory were married in Newton Friday. When the groom paid his $3 for the license he had but 15 cents left, not enough to take a honeymoon trip with even as far back as home. The court house bunch, however raised the needed chink.

North Wilkesboro Hustler.

Mr. A. B. Fewell of Rockhill S. C. was at the Blumont Hotel Monday night on his way to Mr. Bledsoe's in Ashe county where last June he purchased about 400 head of cattle. He was going over to have the herd driven to Taylorsville from which point they will be shipped to Rockhill to be fed on cotton seed meal at the mills there.

The Call Of The Blood

for purification, finds voice in pimples, boils sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin,—all signs of liver trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills make rich red blood; give clear skin rosy cheeks, fine complexion, health. Try them. 25c at Freeman Drug Company.

The Low Cost of Proper Living.

Fully one third of a man's earnings are consumed at the table. This is not because such expenditure is necessary, but because the majority of people have little knowledge of food values, and buy impractically and improvidently. As an example: during the course of some investigations pursued in one of the poorer districts of Chicago, it was found that a woman whose husband was unemployed, and whose family was living on a few cents a day, bought lettuce, an article of absolutely no food value, and one that is classed among the table luxuries. Higher up in the social scale we find the housekeeper buying fish, upon which there is often a waste of seventy per cent., (in head, tail, skin and bones.) expensive cuts of meat when cheaper ones are more nutritious and so forth. We must accustom ourselves to the thought that the value of a food is not its market price, but the amount of heat and energy it gives out in the process of digestion. For while eating should be a highly enjoyable pastime, fundamentally we eat to live, and the function, if we may so term it, of all food, is to give out sufficient heat to recharge, to energize as it were, the tissues of the body, which are constantly undergoing of breaking down and building up. — November DESIGNER.

Worse Than Bullets.

Bullets have often caused less suffering to the soldiers than the eczema L. W. Harriman, Burlington Me., got in the army, and suffered with, forty years. "But Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me when all else failed," he writes. Greatest healer for Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Burns, Cut. Wounds, Bruises and Piles. 25c at Freeman Drug Co.

"Kate" the "First Citizen of Oklahoma.

"When the politicians of the now sovereign state of Oklahoma want something done that is really worth the effort," says the Woman's Home Companion for October, "they always make a trip to Guthrie, the capital city and present themselves at a little office on the top floor of the Senate building. There they shake hands with a graced little dark haired young woman, on whose door is the legend "Commissioner of Charities." This is Miss Kate Barnard, familiarly known as "Kate," she is to Oklahoma what Jane Adams is to Chicago, its First Citizen. The politicians see "Kate" first, and the governor and the other state official afterward. Through her little office there pours a sturdy stream of people all day long, people whom she has met or people who want to meet her.

"Kate, is, and has been for several years, one of the controlling spirits of Oklahoma. This Nebraska girl of Southern parentage begin her interest in Oklahoma by winning against three hundred and fifty competitors the position of manager in charge of the exhibit made by Oklahoma (then a territory) at the St. Louis Fair. Then she started a charity organization with the object of finding employment for the stranded people on the newly opened lands and the newly-built cities of the territory. She soon became almost the patron saint of the human driftwood of the city slums. These mortal derelicts all obeyed her implicitly on election day. "Where are you going boys?" she would ask a group of toughs in tow of a saloon keeper. Then she would remind these human wrecks that she had sent Jack's little daughter to school, had nursed bill's wife through typhoid fever and had found a suit of clothes for Jim's boy. Further, she would tell these out cast that they must vote against the saloon candidate and for the decent man who was a friend of hers. Then, while the saloon-keeper looked on helplessly, the boys would follow "Kate" to the ballot-box. When the State Department of Charities was established, she received a majority of fifty-six thousand votes for the position of Commissioner. She is now (so runs the rapturous comment of one Oklahoma editor) the incarnate spirit of the new state.

The Demon of The Air.

is the germ of LaGrippe, that breathed in, brings suffering to thousands. Its after effects are weakness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Freeman Drug Company.

Praising a Man to Death.

New York Globe. Dr. Woodrow Wilson is a man of parts, well educated, active minded and aggressive. He is a distinct acquisition to the field staff of the Democratic party, and should have a wholesome effect on New Jersey Republicanism as well. His possibilities for good, however, are seriously menaced by the efforts the Democratic organs to defy him. The long famine of intellect and statesmanship from which that party has suffered may offer some excuse, at least some explanation, for the absurd newspaper claquers who are unconsciously bedeviling his future. When he says a good thing—and he is a suspiciously good phrase maker—the Evening Post and the World hail him as another Lincoln. When he hits the nail squarely on the head, the "best manner of Thomas B. Reid" is called to mind. A happy comparison is "wit illuminating fact." His countenance has "the arresting quality of a Hogarthian picture refined of the dress of its coarseness." "People's eyes follow him." He is a new and remarkable defender of the faith."

If the Republicans shall be obliged to turn the country over to the Democrats in the next Congress it is certain that there will be considerable more of it than was turned back by the Democrats the last time they were in power.

ASTHMA-CATARRH CURED.

Expert Medical Scientists Announce Startling Result Obtained by Senpene

New York: - Thousands are taking advantage of the generous offer made by The Woodworth Co., Dept. O 1191 Broadway, New York City, requesting an experimental package of Senpene, the great discovery for Asthma, Hay Fever Bronchitis, and Catarrh, which is mailed free of charge to all who write for it, it is curing thousands of the most stubborn cases. It makes no difference how long you have been suffering or how severe the climatic conditions are where you live, Senpene will cure you. If you have experimented and have failed to find a cure do not be discouraged but send for a trial of this wonderful truly meritorious remedy which is a scientific compound discovered by a Professor of Viena University, and is being recommended by thousands.

The best argument for the Republican party cause in the coming campaign will be the contrast between Republican deeds and the utter improbability that the Democrats would accomplish anything if they were given control of the lower House of Congress. Stagnation in public business would be the natural result. The real promise of progress is in the Republican party—a fact as clear to Theodore Roosevelt as it is to William H. Taft. It is as former Paesident Roosevelt says, a record of achievement for which the Republican party ask approval this year. It is a record of promises fulfilled, of good things done.

New Ridgeway Magazine.

The Ridgeway Company, publishers of Everybody's this month enter the field with a second magazine. Its name, Adventure, is a good index of its contents, for from first to last it is devoted to stories of action and adventure of all kinds, in all kinds of places and among all kinds of people. All those who like stories with back-bones and red-blood in them and like them told by people who know how will probably take up ADVENTURE with a good deal of interest.

Mortgage Sale.

Under and by virtue of a mortgage executed the 4th day of October 1909 by P. H. Holt and wife, Mamie Holt, to John M. Coble and recorded in the Office of Register of Deeds of Alamance county in Book of Mortgage Deeds No. 46 and page 248, I will offer for sale at public to the highest bidder at the court house door in Graham, N. C. on Monday November 14th 1910 the following described property:

Cuts Our Acquaintance.

Our neighbor, The Burlington News, cuts our acquaintance so to speak, and says that we are so abusive that the News cannot, and will not discuss issues with us. Well now truly we are sorry about this brother. But whether you discuss with us or not, we propose to discuss you, and your political methods that appear from week to week in the News, sometimes as extra supplement and sometimes as editorials.

The trouble with you brother, is that for years and years, the Republican party had no organ to stand up for it. During all this time, you published whatever pleased your political fancy, or was demanded by the politicians. And no matter what the nature of the stuff, no matter whether true or untrue, the articles were never answered, and you have become to think that you can print anything suggested, dreamed, hatched up, or wholly made up for political purposes, and that we must not open our mouth or dare to defend ourselves or our party. As to our personal abuse of you, we have this to say. Personally you are a pretty good fellow, as the term goes. But politically, well, there is no use to attempt to express it. There is no language that we are familiar with that will do the subject justice.

Now for instance, in your issue of October 5th, you had an editorial headed: "Why it affects you." And in this editorial you say that upon every $10 suit of clothes that the wearer buys, he pays a tariff tax of $6. And in your issue of Oct. 12th, you run an extra sheet, entitled: "Republican prosperity a fake." In this article you re-iterate some of the arguments contained in your editorial of the 5th, and among the number you say that upon every suit of clothes the wearer buys he pays a tariff tax of $5. Now if you are printing the truth, or was even trying to print the truth, why did you not make the tariff the same in both articles, or did your conscience hurt you from the week before when you said the tariff was $6, and you was trying to get nearer the truth by cutting down some. Both statements were gross errors or falsehoods and you knew it when you published it. Has it come to pass that your party has betrayed the people so long and so often, that you have to print such things in order to scare them into a continuation of supporting the party, if so, let some one else do the lying for them a while and perhaps in this way you can get in better standing with the Republican newspaper fraternity and the better element in your own party, who blush with shame every time they read a political article in your paper, and having some regard for your future welfare, long for the campaign to end, that you may get somewhere in the neighborhood of normal again.

Now again, in this article you state that upon every dress that a mans wife buys that costs $4, she pays a tax of $2. Now you know this is untrue, because upon a four dollar, the goods are made in this country, and there is no tariff upon it. You do not state what a single woman pays upon her four dollar dress. We presume that you reasoned that if she was single there was no vote to influence and you didn't give a darn what she had to pay. Now that is gratitude. You had better try to scare her a little the next time, because you do not know how soon she may have a husband, and then you will want his vote. Don't You think it would be a good idea to scare her a little too next time, and in this way kill two birds with one stone.

In this same article headed: "Republican prosperity a fake," you state that in 1893 that the greatest number of commercial failures occurred amounting to the appalling sum of $346,779,889. Now this article is probably true. But don't you know who was President of these United States during the year 1893? Have you never heard of the panic of '93? Why dear brother your own dear Cleveland was President, and nearly everything busted including the National Democratic party. Now how come you made that slip up, had you forgotten it, or in your desperation to fool the people you just struck in the dark and made this mistake. You state in this same article that the rich are growing richer and poor growing poorer. And yet you are opposed to putting the county officers upon a salary basis and taking the money saved by this method and applying it toward buying these children free text books. Where is your sympathy for these poor people that you do not show it by advocating these reform measures that will aid the very people that you say are growing poorer? Or was you just trying to scare them into voting the Democratic ticket again.

Now brother be candid, and if you really mean that henceforth we are no more, so far as you are concerned, wont you please say something, or better still, do something that will show these people who are growing poorer all the time that you are their friend and that you stand ready and willing to help them. We await your answer to us, or if not to us, to these people who are growing poorer, while the rich grow richer. What will your answer be.

The County Canvass.

The county canvass between the Democrats and Republicans is progressing nicely. They opened up last Thursday at Hornaday's store, Friday they were at John F. Cobles, Saturday at Elon College Monday at Mortons store and the Hub the same night, Tuesday at McCrays, or E. Longs store and today at Graham, the speaking to be at night. The campaign is being conducted upon a fairly high plane. The speech of Mr. Long, the Democratic candidate for the Legislature is made up of abuse of Marion Butler and the Republican party generally, yet we are not complaining, because we would not have him change his tactics, unless we are very much mistaken he is making votes for the Republican ticket. Mr. Hornaday, the Republican candidate for the Legislature is doing fine and is holding up his end to the satisfaction of the party, while he is not a speaker, yet his talks are well delivered and are convincing. The crowds are small and no enthusiasm is apparent upon either side. Just what the result will be at this stage of the campaign, no one seems able to hazard a guess. But the Republicans are well pleased and confident of victory.

Hon. William H. Carroll.

Our townsman Hon. W. H. Carroll made one of his old time speeches down at Hillsboro, in Orange county a few days ago, and whooped 'em up in the good old fashioned Democratic way. We have an extract from his speech that we may publish later on, should occasion demand, suffice it to say for the present that it was a red hot number, the kind that can be delivered only by our friend William Houston. There are quite a number of people in this good old county of Alamance that would be delighted to hear this gifted orator, and just why he should slip down in our sister county and let off this overflow of arousements and deny us home folks of the pleasure of hearing him, we are unable to understand. Extend the treat to your home folks first neighbor, and then extend to other parts if you wish. But we want it understood that we don't like to be cheated in this style, and right here near the election at that. We shall scan the bill boards for your appointments in your home county in the near future.

While the Democratic candidate for the Legislature is a pleasant and versatile speaker, yet his argument is a sore disappointment to his friends, and unless he mends his licks there is nothing left but for his father to go his rescue. The canvass is nearly half over and he has made no headway so far, except to solidify what little discontent existed in the Republican ranks. His argument needs bolstering up badly. Who will come to his rescue.

It is rumored that Hon. Jacob A. Long, a prominent and astute attorney of Graham, and also the father of Mr. Elmer Long, the Democratic candidate for the lower house, will enter the campaign within the next few days in behalf of his sons candidacy. Mr. Long is a forceful speaker and would ad interest to what is now a lagging campaign.

Putting the county officers upon a salary basis, and expending the amount saved in helping to buy the school children free text books is a winning proposition and is worrying our Democratic friends no little. Better get on this platform before the cyclone passes, it is coming sure for all those who oppose this just measure.

The indications are that Joseph Daniels is wasting his pokeberry juice and crocodile tears. The State is going Republican and Josephus is helping the cause wonderfully.

And Elmer was a part of the Russell administration. Well that's news to us.

MANY WILL SEE CIRCUS.

Hundreds from This City and Surrounding Country to Visit Ringling Shows

Ringling Brothers Circus is the magnet that will attract hundreds of visitors from this city and surrounding country to Greensboro on October 25th, 1910. The railroads are offering special inducements in the way of cheap rates. The program the Ringlings are offering this year is nothing less than wonderful. It is given by 375 artists. Over 200 of them are Europeans, making their first tour of America. There are no less than 100 big acts. Novelties will be presented by the telephoning elephants; the wonderful Shuman horses, from Albert Shuman's German circus—the Lorch family of acrobats; the Aathur Saxon trio of strong men; Robledo, the Spanish wire dancer; the Manell-Marnitz family of upside-down bellringers; the Alexis family of aerialists; the Dutton Co., of equestrians; the aerial Clarkonians, and the fifty funniest clowns in the world.

The chief attraction of the menagerie is Darwin, the missing link. He looks more like a human being than some men. Darwin lives in his own house. It has windows, doors, pictures on the wall, electric lights and a hot-water heater. He dines at a table with a complete table equipment. He wears the clothes of a man. He carries a watch and is fond of a soothing pipe. He is a friendly chap and likes to shake hands with visitors. Another attractive member of the menagerie is Jennie an elephant that has just passed her 214th birthday. When George Washington was still president of the United States, she was brought from the wilds of India to become an attraction in the Zoological Gardens at London, England. She was then 100 yrs. old. She is still in her prime, for elephants have been known to live 500 years. More than likely Jennie will live to eat peanuts from the hands of children whose great grandparents are yet unborn.

The Afternoon parade is far the best street spectacle the Ringling Brothers have ever had. It was built in the foreign workshops of the show near Liverpool last winter at a cost of more than $1,000,000. It was made from designs executed by the best artist of Italy and France. In it will be seen 1,250 people from all parts of the world, 650 horses and more than half the elephants in America. It will be three miles long. It leaves the show grounds at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

Its the best medicine made for the throat and lungs." Conservation in The South.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8. (Special). In view of the general interest through the South in question of conservation and especially on account of the assembling of the Southern Conservation Congress in this city today, the opinion of President W. W. Finley of the Southern Railway Co., on this subject as expressed in an address on "The Interest of the Railways of the South in Conservation," delivered at the Second National Conservation Congress held in St. Paul, Minn., September 7, will doubtless be read with unusual interest.

Laying down the broad principle that the interest of the railway of the South and those of the people of the South in conservation are identical, Mr. Finley defined the type of conservation most needed in the South as "not the narrow idea of the withdrawal from the present use of some part of these resources, but the wise use of these resources." Taking soil conservation as one of the most vital questions before the Southern people today, Mr. Finley gave figures from experiments conducted by the American and foreign governments, showing that where proper methods are used productivity of soil increases with its use, and in this connection Mr. Finley urged more attention on the part of the people of the South to crop rotation proper fertilization, and live stock raising as the surest means to accomplish this much desired result.

Recognizing that forest and stream conservation are interdependent, Mr. Finley said that too much should not be expected of the national government, and suggested the advisability of changes in the tax laws by state legislature looking to a tax system that would differentiate between timber lands so managed as to insure the perpetuation of a great natural resource and those so managed as to hasten its exhaustion.

"As respects timber and all other resources," said Mr. Finley, "I am convinced that the type of conservation that should be adopted in the South is not the withdrawal of these resources from use, but the elimination of waste as far as possible, and their wise use as the basis of a diversified industrial development that will carry them through all the processes of manufacture and prepare them for the final consumer."

IT IS TIME FOR MEN TO CHANGE

Women, No Longer Content to be Dolls or Housekeepers, Demand Spiritual Evolution.

Two souls never had a single thought. Two hearts never beat as one for sixty minutes since the world began, says Erman J. Ridway in THE DELINEATOR for November. And unless men learn to live larger lives, less and less will their souls think the thoughts of women's souls; less and less will there be rhythm in their heart-beats with women's heart-beats; for woman is coming to her own, and man must change. When I say man must change, I do not mean it as a treat. I do not mean that woman by force or by the ballot is going to upset things, ride over things in a rule-or-ruin frenzy. I do not mean that she is to set herself upon a pedestal or take herself too seriously. I do not mean that she is going to become masculine or force men to become feminine. Quite the contrary.

Women in this age are going to be equipped to look out for their own food and clothing and shelter. I mean so to equip my daughters. Other men have the same thought. I mean to leave my girls, if I am taken away and what I leave them is taken away so equipped that they will not have to marry for food, clothing and shelter. I mean to leave them equipped so that if they make a mistake and marry a brute instead of a man they can send him on his way. Do you see what that means? Fathers are doing it everywhere. Women are not going to be housekeepers nor dolls nor mistresses, but mates, and that means man must change. When woman live with men because they want to, and not because they have to, marriage will average very much better in beauty and happiness than it does now.

And men will be men, which many of them are not now, and woman will be woman, which—shame on men!—many of them are not permitted to be now. And it is all coming about naturally, without a social cataclysm, and fathers are quite as much concerned as mothers.

Making State Constitutions.

Both New Mexico and Arizona are working their new constitutions. In one Democrats control; in the other Republicans. It is the territories first step in accepting the congressional offer of statehood. Upon the nature of the work now in process of accomplishment much in the future life of these new states may depend.

The Oklahoma constitution has been held up to general criticism and some ridicule because its farmers attempted to cover too much ground. They treated many subjects that ordinarily are left for legislative action. The Oklahoma constitution has probably received more condemnation than it deserved. But it may be at last used to point a warning. President Taft recommended to the people of territories that they limit their constitutions to a treatment of fundamental principals. Col. Roosevelt added the suggestion that they be made easily amendable. Only the finished products will show how these recommendations have been made.

Death Rates of Cities.

Baltimore American.
In the bulletin just issued from the Census Bureau tabulating the average death ratios of principal American cities, the variation of the rate as between different cities is so great as to warrant the belief that statistics have not been gathered upon a uniform system, or that there is a decided defectiveness in the death reports of some cities. There is no understandable reason why the death rate in Baltimore should range higher than in New York or Boston; and as a matter of fact, it probably does not range higher. The mortality tables kept by insurance companies show that more people die of tuberculosis than from any other malady, and this most fatal of diseases is less prevalent in Baltimore than in either New York or Boston. And there is no one disease, not even typhoid fever that has a peculiarly high average prevalence in Baltimore.

The death average of every city is largely affected by the deaths of infants under one year old. But there is no conceivable reason why this particular ratio should be larger in Baltimore than in any other city. It is quite understandable however, that there may be in some centers a defectiveness in obtaining or recording the reports of infantile mortality. A great many infants die before they are a day old, and where the regulations are not strict many such cases would naturally fail to get in the records. It is also quite apparent that where the population of a city is overstated the death ratio will in consequence average low and where understated the death average will correspondingly range high. The director of the census himself refers to this cause of some of the high and low mortality ranged. Thus in the census of 1900 the population of St. Joseph Mo. was padded to the extent of 40,000, which made the death rate in 1908 apparently only 8.3 to the 1,000, or less than half the death rate in Baltimore.

Open-air Treatment.

Newark News.
Time was when doctors used to bleed weak and emaciated patients, and thus make them weaker and more emaciated: In those same "good old days" consumptives were kept in close, unventilated places one slowly put to death by misdirected kindness.

And in that same era schoolchildren who lacked muscles and strength and were less vigorous and healthy than their fellows were coddled at home, and in school were kept near the hot stoves and away from every draft of fresh air. They breathed the vitiated atmosphere of the ordinary schoolroom which had been breathed over and again by all the other scholars in the same room. Every avenue to good health was closed against them, and most of them died. What a change has taken place in the past few years. Doctors rarely if ever bleed patients now. Consumptives are turned out of doors, away from heaters and stoves and registers and puny schoolchildren are now taught in tents in warm weather and in cold with no fires to burn the oxygen out of the air, and no other walls than those of thin protect them from drafts.

Free Wool Again?

The last time the Democrats were in power in the United States they carried out their Free Trade threat and put wool on the free list. The sheep industry of America was destroyed, wool sold for ten cents a pound and farmers took what they could get for their sheep. A dollar a head was the top price. And yet no man, woman or child got a yard of woolen cloth or a suit of woolen clothes a penny cheaper. The effect of free wool was destruction, that's all. The farmers of Missouri, and every other sheep-raising State, lost millions of dollars and nobody received any benefit. One of the Democrats who helped bring about that disaster of fifteen years ago was Champ Clark, of Missouri, the present leader of his party, and he now declares that he learned nothing from the awful lesson of free wool. On the 21st day of last May, while he was making a speech in the House of Representatives, assailing the Republican policy of Protection and announcing to the country what he and his party would do if again intrusted with power. Mr. Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio interrupted him as follows: "Then, if I understand the gentleman, he is in favor of no duty on any article of wool or its products."

Mr. Clark replied: "I think it would be a blessing to the American people if it was wiped out on that schedule." When he made that remark his colleagues in the House of Representatives, the men who will write a tariff law if given the chance to do so, greeted it with great applause.

What do the farmers think of it? In the year 1893 to 1897, when we had free wool, there was no applause on the Democratic side or anything else. There was only distress and suffering.

Mrs. Maxwell Johnson, Tampa, Fla., writes: "Cardui cured me after doctors and everything else had failed. I had been suffering with numb spells ever since I was 16 years old. One day I decided to take Cardui. I have now taken 5 bottles and I can say that it has cured me. I advise all suffering women to give Cardui a long and fair trial."

∴ RURAL CARRIER ITEMS ∴

R. F. D. No. 7.

To-day, Oct. 17th was the day we set to quit fishing pennies out of mail boxes to pay postage unless they were properly arranged so we could handle them conveniently. We caught several of our patrons rapping not with standing that we warned them all three weeks ago that we expected to abide from now on by the ruling of the Post Office department in regard to pennies and loose coins in mail boxes.

There are three easy ways to use coins for postage. Hand the money to your carrier personally put it in a tin cup or other receptacle, in your box or put it in an envelope in the rack in the mail box.

Most mail boxes have a tin box arranged to hold letters and loose coins and if yours has not you had better get a half-pint cup and put in your box and always put the money in it and if your box has no rack to hold the letters you had better put your letters on top of the tin cup so the carrier can handle them easily. Please remember this and abide by it and there will be no trouble at all.

Mr. E. B. Meachem will move to Graham before long and a Mr. Thompson will succeed him as manager of the Holt farm near Bellemont. We are sorry to lose Ed from No. 7 but hope he will like his new place all right.

Mr. S. A. Sharpe and several young ladies from Graham attended the Greensboro Fair last week and all had a very pleasant and interesting time.

Some "old maids" who reside on No. 7 went possum hunting Saturday night and got lost. Then to make "good matters better" they heard a terrible racket that came very near scaring them into "hysterics". It is said they had a most exciting time trying to get away.

Graham Isley, Abe Graves and Will Isley also went hunting Saturday night and they only caught one possum so small they could not afford to divide it into three parts and neither one would agree to let the other one have it so they decided to build a fire and cook and eat it right there under the tree where they caught it. That crowd must have hunted about all night and had got hungry or fresh meat was scarce at home one.

"Dan" scored another victory Saturday night at Bellemont when he persuaded Pete Steel and Miss Zora Clapp to "jump the broom".

Rev. J. A. Burgess tied the official knot. We congratulate them and wish them much happiness. Dan has his eye on another couple or two over there and we may be able to tell more about it before long.

Master Garrison Isley is visiting his grandfather J. W. H. Isley. Mr. J. R. Randolph is no better today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. H. Isley and daughter Virgie visited on No. 1 Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Permella Watkins is staying with Mrs. J. A. Burgess this week.

Mr. Paul Isley spent Saturday night and Sunday at home.

Our patrons are busy now sowing Wheat and gathering corn. Mr. John A. Diggins was a pleasant visitor over at Rock Creek Friday and Saturday taking in the picnic at Friendship. Mr. O. E. Culler was at home the latter part of last week to attend the picnic.

There will be all day services at Rock Creek Church next Sunday in connection with the Sunday School Convention to be held there that day.

R. F. D. No. 1.

The County candidates spoke at J. F. Coble's Friday, all present enjoyed the occasion. Also a crowd of our Burlington people headed by J. M. Cook enjoyed hunting someone to pull their automobile out of that bad mud hole at Stinking Quarter creek.

The Fair Friendship was a perfect success, nearly four hundred present and enjoyed the day to the fullest extent. The exhibits were good and quite a neat little sum was turned in for the school fund.

Mrs. J. Zeb Waller and Miss Hortense Rimmer of the city took in the fair and spent Saturday night and Sunday at G. W. Patterson's.

Ernest Cheek left several days ago for Stainback where he has a position.

G. W. Patterson handed us a blackberry brier Tuesday from a patch on Stinking creek that contained well developed ripe berries. Quite a curiosity to see ripe berries after frost.

The Friendship Fair.

The Friendship Fair which was held at Friendship High School last Saturday was something new in that community and in fact the first of the kind ever held in this section of the state.

The idea originated in the mind of Prof. J. A. Hornaday who was principal of the Friendship school during the past year, and this idea backed by the progressive citizens of that community made the fair not only possible but a grand success. The fair was carried out on a similar plan of the State and County fairs, and the exhibits which were many consisting of farm and kitchen products were better than we often see at a county fair. The racing and amusements of the day were good and in fact the fair as a whole was a decided success. It gives enthusiasm and new ideas to the farmers each one desiring to see who can excel. It is the intention of the fair Directors to repeat the fair each year.

Misses Blanche Thompson and Mary White McAdams who spent the past week with their parents returned Sunday to Greensboro.
