Parents and the Teacher.

Oralbee.

The average parent is quick to resemble what may seem to be undue authority by a school teacher over a child; quick to maintain that the school has no right to usurp the functions of the home. But one the other hand, too many parents unconsciously leave for the school to do precisely what they hold it shall not do, what they claim to be the exclusive province of the home. In other words, many parents of easygoing dispositions neglect their duties in training their children and leave them to be performed by the teacher, if they are performed at all. Such neglect of course, throws burdens upon the teacher which moral and civil laws never intended she should bear. It is wrong to understand the situation and take advantage of it.

The old adage of "spare the rod and spoil the child" is not so popular today as it used to be because moral suasion seems to have the upper hand just now as the proper system of child culture. But nevertheless, the old idea cannot safely be entirely relegated, and here again arises a gross injustice where parents are too lenient or indifferent and leave their work to be done by the teachers.

Low Prices for Meats.

Milwaukee-Wisconsin.

Patrick Budahy has demonstrated the capacity to tell far in advance the direction which will be taken by the prices of provisions. He predicted the late upward movement at a time when others were of opinion that prices had risen as high as they could and would either recede or remain at a standstill. Now that he says they will go lower it is safe to accept his judgement on the subject as correct, especially in view of the circumstance that it is accompanied by the reason on which he bases it.

The factor upon which Mr. Cudahy depends for lower prices of beef and pork in this country is the low prices of wheat and corn. Last year grain prices were soaring. It did not pay farmers to keep their stock, for the stock would "eat its head off". Sheep and hogs and cattle were sold because it did not pay so well to keep and fatten them as to sell them and also sell the high priced grain which they would have consumed if kept on the farms.

Now that, for the time being Russian wheat has taken the place of American wheat in the markets of Western Europe there is a reduction of grain prices in the American market, which will make it more profitable to the American farmer to convert much of his surplus grain into meat and sell it in that form than to dispose of it directly.

Messrs. Jno. R. Hoffman and Jno. M. Cook spent Friday at Greensboro on business.

THE UNIVERSITY LETTER

From our Regular Correspondent.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 6, 1910.—The Alamance County Club in meeting, assembled last Friday night, furthered its historic feature, by the reading of a paper, "Honor to Honor is Due," by Mr. I. C. Moser. Mr. Moser told how we, of historic Alamance tend to teach our children that great deeds of historic note happen yonder and afar, but slight the importance of the great things of note in history which our ancestors wrought. "Only one monument," said he, stands to commemorate our honored dead, who gave their all at Alamance. Wheat, corn and weeds grow above the spot, "Where sleep our Ancestral Heroes." "Theirs he concluded, is true honor, and to them we should turn our minds more frequently.

The club laid plans for a banquet at an early date, and adjourned after a pleasant hour.

During the past week Dr. Battle made a series of talks in the Chapel, on the revival of the University after the War. Dr. Battle knows and perhaps loves the University better than any man in the State. It was under his guidance that this revival of the University took place after the suspension caused by the Civil War. He has written the history of the University, the last volume of which will appear at an early date. Today in his old age, Emeritus Professor of History, his figure is a welcome sight upon the campus, which he has known for so long a time, and the large number of students who habitually take their Sunday afternoon walk in Battle's Park, have a pleasant feeling for the owner of these beautiful grounds.

Rev. R. W. Hogue, pastor of the Episcopal Church in Chapel Hill, made a talk in the Y. M. C. A. building, Tuesday night on "The Coward." He knew of five sorts of cowards, and warned his student audience against it in each of these phases. The first and most inexcusable form of cowardice is that caused by temporary failure. Another and scarcely less despicable sort of coward is the man who is so completely the subject of public opinion that he lacks the courage to take a dare. Three other kinds of cowardice which he pictured with striking illustrations, were lack of self control, inability to conquer pride or prejudice, and intellectual cowardice.

The Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society held the first regular meeting of the year in the Chemistry Hall, Tuesday night. President Venable, who before he became president, was head of the department of Chemistry, read a paper on the formation of the meteor crater in Arizona. Dr. Bell, the new professor of physical chemistry, presented a geometric method of determining the composition of solid materials, inseparable in any other way. During the discussion which ensued Dr. Herty, Dean of the Scientific School remarked that in one case he had worked two years on the problem of the composition of a compound which by the use of this principle would have been quickly shown not to have been in existence.

The football game Thursday between the teams of the Freshman and Senior classes was a hard fought contest which resulted in 3-0, victory for the first year men. The superior training of the Freshmen showed itself in the second half when they completely outplay the Seniors. The score came in the last three minutes of play, when Captain Worth of the Freshmen kicked a dropkick from the twenty yard line.

An inmate of the poorhouse at Trieste Austria, died the other day at the age of 70. An investigation of the effects of this supposed pauper, an Albanian called Sterio revealed the fact that he owned over $250,000 in investments and bank deposits. He had made a fortune in Egypt before the British occupation and added to it by living at public expense.

The Contest Closes.

On next Tuesday Nov. 15th at 12 M. The STATE DISPATCH will close one of the most popular voting Contests ever held in Alamance County, at which time the various valuable prizes will be awarded.

Those who are in the CONTEST should put forth every effort during the closing days, as the prizes are all valuable and well worth striving for.

Taft and the Canal.

Washington Post.

In his forthcoming visit to Panama, President Taft no doubt will gather evidence to support his recommendation to Congress for a sufficient appropriation to fortify the canal. It has already been announced that the President like all others who have the welfare of the nation at heart, is in favor of fortifications in going to Panama Mr. Taft is taking the most practical method of being prepared for the fight he will have on his hands when the matter come before Congress.

There will be plenty of opposition to the proposal for fortifications on the ground that the treaties with other countries preclude such action. There is no treaty, however, which prevents the United States to protect the canal as it is to build it.

There are a number of other important matters in connection with the canal that demand a decision from the President. One of these is the question of charges to be made against ships using the canal. Mr. Taft naturally, is anxious to have these charges arranged on an equitable basis. Low enough to be attractive and high enough to pay the interest on the money that has been expended.

Future of Motor Cars.

Philadelphia Record.

No other industry has grown so rapidly in the United States in the past ten years as the motor car industry. The capital invested has increased from $6,200,000 to $450,000,000. The number of persons employed in making the automobiles and in accessory occupations has increased from 2,000 to 278,000. Thus far motor cars have been mainly made for touring and pleasure purpose. They have been a luxury of the well-to-do rather than a convenience and advantage for the mass. As capacity of production increases and supply has measurably overtaken demand the motor car makers are beginning to turn their attention to a wider development of their business.

The great field for motors in the future will be as carriers of freight. There is vast waste in all forms of initial transportation, which way be largely saved by motor trucking. Motors will be made to run between the farms and the rails, carrying twice the load at twice the speed of wagons pulled by horses. Motors will bridge and shorten and facilitate all present distance between the shop and the customer. They will make rural free delivery of mails rural fast delivery of both mails and parcels. They will furnish cheap competition for dear expresses.

A Wife's Rights.

Chicago Tribune.

Less than a century ago Mr. Justice Buller handed down his learned decision that the common law empowered a husband to administer reasonable correction to his wife with a stick not thicker than his thumb. In these humane or feminized days all physical correction of a wife by her husband is held unreasonable. If he lay his hand upon her twice often it is cause for divorce in most states. If he maul her he may be sent to the bridewell.

We have departed so far from the common law theory that husband and wife are one as to allow her to sue in her own behalf in her own name. But a wife in the District of Columbia has discovered that there is an exception to the emancipation act. She can prosecute her husband criminally for an assault, but she cannot bring a civil suit for damages. This wife had brooded over seven beatings for two years and then asked for damages.

Albert F. Avery of Lynn Mass who is 64 years old and a cripple has made a patchwork quilt containing 24,000 pieces three quarters of an inch square. This is the second quilt of the kind he has made and he is now at work on a third one.

A CALL TO GIVE THANKS

President Taft Issues The Formal Annual Proclamation—Year of Great Prosperity.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The vigorous growth and progress of the country is reflected by the records of population and harvests and the general conditions of international peace are things for which thanksgiving is especially due for the year 1910, according to the annual Thanksgiving Day proclamation issued by President Taft today. The proclamation is as follows:

"This year of 1910 is drawing to a close. The records of population and harvests, which are the index of progress, show vigorous national growth and the health and prosperous well-being of our communities throughout this land and in our possessions beyond the seas. These blessings have not descended upon us in restricted measures, but overflow and abound. They are the blessings and bounty of God.

We continue to be at peace with the rest of the world. In all essential matters our relations with other people are harmonious, with an ever growing reality of friendliness and depth of recognition of mutual dependencies. It is especially to be noted that during the past year great progress has been achieved in the cause of arbitration and the peaceful settlement of international disputes.

"Now, therefore, I William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America, in accordance with the wise custom of the Civil Magistrate since the first settlements in this land and with the rule established from the foundation of this government, do appoint Thursday, November 24, 1910, as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, enjoining the people upon that day to meet in their churches for the praise of Almighty God and to return thanks to Him for all His goodness and loving kindness.

"In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this fifth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-fifth.

(Seal)
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT,
By the President:
ALVEY A. ADEE,
Acting Secretary of State.

Reply to No. 8.

Editor of The State Dispatch:

Sir:—Please print the following as we have noticed in your columns of the State Dispatch about the mob of carpenters at J. W. Summers, we wish to say that there are two experienced hunters Lutterloah and Hayden of long life but we will say we have caught several nice opossums and had a good dinner after, but we know we don't have to hunt to get something to eat as Mr. Summers has something. Two hundred nice chickens to feed his boarders on, but as the writer of this mob says we have caught Gorge L. Simpsons cat, and Mr. Simpson says some one has lied it will be remembered this story that has been written was by one who is not faithful to his God. But the mob of carpenters want to say we did tree an opossum up a fine tree and didn't want to cut it but thought of a good climber Mr. Jno Long and sent to the house after him as it was cold we lay down to wait till day and all went to sleep and let the opossum get away but John Long kept the fire burning while we slept and when day broke the opossum was gone, but the man on R. F. D. No. 8 came to Mr. Summers the other morning with an excuse to warm but we think it was to breakfast as he came out with a toothpick in his mouth.

One of the Mob.

Cobles Alright.

Cobles township alone stood the storm, Oh, Cobles, Cobles, thou only art safe and sane.

Attacking Roosevelt.

The attacks upon Mr. Roosevelt have never been more bitter than during the past few weeks. Yet these attacks are not truthful in the statements they make, nor do they seem to be sincere. The newspaper men of New York who have had a part in it act as if they were personally ashamed to have the honorable profession of journalism thus cheapened and degraded. Mr. Roosevelt has not made any assaults upon the courts; and his criticism of certain decisions have been mild and gentle compared with the criticisms that other judges and leading lawyers have themselves made upon these same decisions. Nor has Mr. Roosevelt proposed any innovations under the term "the new nationalism" that in the slightest degree could disturb the constitutional between nation and States. Mr. Roosevelt has spent his life working in a hard, practical school of political reform. He has tried to make the Civil Service better, and to improve administrative conditions. He has tried to get corruption and graft out of our political life. He has never had time to indulge in Utopian dreams, and his mind does not work in that fashion. As we have remarked before, Mr. Roosevelt's mind is not nearly as radical a mind as Mr. Taft's. The attempt, therefore, to make it out that Mr. Roosevelt has embraced some wild doctrine of centralization that would reduce the States to nonentities, is so cheap and so silly that it must make an honest man disgusted with the dishonesty of those who are making such assertions. Mr. Roosevelt has had his period as President; and it is to be hoped that he has before him a long period of usefulness as a citizen and a leader. We have plenty of men in this country, in both parties, who could be trusted to rise to the responsibilities of the Presidency if they were to be tested in that way. The Democrats have several such men in training, and the Republicans will have to look very sharply to their conduct as a party if they expect to win in the great contest of 1912.—From "The Progress of the World," in the American Review of Reviews for November.

Abolishing the Spoils System.

Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Just the other day the announcement was made that President Taft would ask Congress to place second and third-class postmasters under civil service. Now it is added that he will also propose that customs and internal revenue collectors be likewise removed from politics. The project improves. The plan should go still further, to include first-class postmasters and federal marshals.

The snatching of second and third-class postmasters from the hands of the politician would be an attack they would resist if they dared. The further extension of the plan as suggested would deal the spoils system its death blow. The time is ripe for just this action.

The federal service has too many years been used for the promotion of political careers. There is scarcely a city that has not seen the evil effects of a system that Congress and the President should have abolished a generation ago. Now, at a time when voters are aligning themselves upon new questions, when political differences are being merged and new ones developed, it would be a favorable time for the government to take a step that enlightened public sentiment would heartily approve.

A Corroboration
Of Interest to Burlington Readers.
 For months Burlington citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills by residents of this locality.
 Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement?
 No stronger proof of merit can be had than cures that have stood the test in time.
 The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Burlington reader.
 George Ledford, 200 W. Market St. Greensboro, N. C., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills some months ago with the most satisfactory results and at that time gave a public statement, recommending them. I am now glad to confirm all I then said concerning this remedy, as I have had but little trouble from my kidneys since using it. Whenever I feel in need of a kidney remedy, I at once take a few doses of a kidney remedy, I at once take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and they never fail to give the desired results."

A Christmas Present That Means Something.
 There is one especially good thing about a Christmas present of The Youth's Companion. It shows that the giver thought enough of you to give you something worth while.

There is one present, however, which does just that—The Youth's Companion.
 If you want to know whether it is appropriate or welcome, just visit the home of some Companion subscriber on Companion day.
 Do not choose any Christmas present until you have examined The Companion. We will send you free sample copies and the beautiful Prospectus for 1911, telling something of how The Companion has recently been enlarged and improved.

It is rumored that Capt. J. M. During the month of October R. H. Milton, the city building inspector, issued permits for the erection of ten new buildings in the city limits at an aggregate cost of $19,000. The monthly report of St. Leo's hospital for October shows that during the month eighty-two patients were received and sixty four discharged. Nineteen of the number were charity patients. Saturday night two citizens from the county drove in and leaving their buggy in front of the gain restaurant, ate supper there. When they came out again they gave utterance to a cry of despair and said that their two gallon jug of corn whiskey had disappeared. Somebody had "lifted" it early in the evening, right on Main street, in the heart of town where the electric lights were the brightest. It took nerve but the trick was turned. The police think they know about where it went. It is held to be a crime of exceeding heinousness, much more terrible than in the old days when distilleries were lodged thickly in this country. Miss Adeline Keith, a student at Meredith College was burned quite severely on Sunday afternoon while in her room in the college dormitory. She is the daughter of B. F. Keith, collector of the port at Wilmington. The Market House Committee of Raleigh has selected as a site for the new market house a location at the corner and Morgan and Blount streets. It is proposed to erect two modern buildings on this site, one for a meat and fish market and the other for vegetables. The site and entrances cost $40,000. Lee County Times.

While riding on a log wagon last week Ruby, the little 8 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Yarboro, was thrown from the wagon, the wheel crushing her leg. Drs. Shephard and Monroe were summoned at once and we are glad to note that she is getting along nicely. Sanford Express.

We are ready to make a wager that there is not a town in North Carolina the size of Sanford where more boys from 8 to 15 years are seen on the streets at night. We know it to be a fact that some of these boys some times return to their homes after the night is half gone. Who is to blame? The parents, of course. They should not be surprised if in the years to come they see their boys suffering the penalty for crimes committed against the State. Eikh Times.

Clarence Newman son of Mr. and Mrs. George Newman while feeding the rag machine at the Elkin Woolen Mills got two of his fingers on his right hand caught in the machine and as a result the third finger had to be amputated at the third joint, and the fourth or little finger, was badly lacerated but the bones of the finger were not injured. The accident happened first Saturday afternoon. The boy was taken to Dr. Wellborn's office where the wounds were attended to. Mt. Airy Leader.

On last Monday morning between midnight and daybreak, Mr. J. O. Fulk, of White Plains, had the misfortune to lose his store and corn mill by fire. The fire was discovered about 2 o'clock and the entire village turned out but too late to save the mill, store and stock of goods. The building is supposed to have been set on fire as there was no fire around the place on Sunday. Mr. Fulk carried quite a stock goods and the mill was a small affair operated by a gasoline engine but the entire loss is covered with insurance. Eikh Times.

Doing A Good Work. Springfield, N. C., October 30 (Special).—The Illinois State Fair for 1916 which has just closed had on display, an excellent arrangement and interesting variety of fine exhibits of agricultural and horticultural products from Southern territory tributary to the lines of the Southern Railway, the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, and the Georgia Southern and Florida Railway. Representatives of these railways were in attendance, interviewing interested callers and distributing information personally and through special literature. Thousands of people visited the booth during the fair. A good opportunity was given them to learn, without incurring the expense and time of preliminary tours of investigation through the South, the character and extent of its resources, and the opportunities there awaiting farmers who are considering new locations and who desire authentic information concerning general conditions in the Southeast. This exhibit like the others the Southern Railway system has made this year, developed much interest among the visitors, justifying the policy of the company in giving practical demonstration to the people in the North of what may be and is grown in the South, and the progress being made in agricultural development. The representatives in charge of the exhibit, report that large numbers of farmers are considering a removal to the Southeast.

It is Colby's Next Move.

Kansas City Journal. The other day Secretary Coburn got a letter from H. R. Colby, of Waterloo, Iowa, editor of Kimball's Dairy Farmers. Colby has just made a trip through Kansas, and sought to have a little "good" natured fun with the Kansas secretary, for the two are great friends. So he wrote: "It is so dry in Kansas that the fishes are sticking their heads down into the bottom of the streams in the hope of finding some moisture, and the people are pulling them up like radishes. When they try that kind of joke on Secretary Coburn they get another chance to move, as Coburn's reply will testify. The story is in part true, except as to the pulling up the fish like radishes. As a matter of fact, the fish stick up out of the ground five or six feet. Between the semiweekly showers the sun cures them in such a way that they make fense posts that are

GENERAL OFFICES
 NEW YORK AND CHICAGO
 BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES

Wednesday, November 9, 1910.

Licked to a frazzle by George.

Not Butler and Booze. But boodle and booze did the work.

After all we have such to be thankful for, it could have been larger.

The Butler and bond campaign has been fought and won, what will be the next battle cry.

It's in order now for those defeated candidates to explain how it all happened, and why they were defeated.

Alamance county is Democratic, probably from 200 to 300, we are unable to furnish complete returns in this issue, but will do so next week.

They may talk and write about Theodore Roosevelt being down and out if so and so is elected, but T. R. does not belong to the down and out class.

The most logical crossing of the Southern yards, is the extension of Main street to connect with Tarpley street. This will have to be done some time. Just as well begin now.

A moneyless and lickerness campaign, in the good old county of Alamance means a officerless campaign, what do the good people of this county say to this state of affairs.

The little flurry that occurred in this city last Saturday, when the city attempted to open up a street across the Southern yards, will blow over and the city will win in the end, as it should.

We must admit that we were not prepared for the result, the majority is much larger than we expected, however we are not dismayed, the responsibility at least, upon other shoulders.

The Railroad Company has enjoined the city for opening the crossing Worth to Tarpley street, it is now up to the city to show its authority what will the outcome be, play your hand well gentlemen, you have a fine opportunity to show your grit.

The election is over, and the result is known, but we have no apology to make for anything we have previously said or printed. We have told only half the truth and if it was to do over, we would make the same statements, only stronger, time will show that we have not mistated the facts or sought to mislead the people, there are however some other publications in the county that cannot say much.

Let every one lay aside what feeling of enmity—if any exists—brought about by the agitation of politics in the town and county, and let us all labor and pull together for the advancement of our community along industrial lines. No matter who rules the country, it will be hard to check the progress being made in this section of this grand old Commonwealth, which is directly attributed to a high protective tariff. For our part we believe it best to continue the Republican principles of protection, but if a majority of the people desire to return to the days of a low tariff and low prices, all well and good we can stand it if they can.

It would seem from the returns that the tax payers of this county do not want the salary system free text books or any other reforms, they seem perfectly satisfied with promises and bond issues and other performances of Democratic politicians, there is another bond issue in sight to pay the running expenses of the county, and then the tax payers will be happy, but the chances are that the tax payers will not be allowed to vote upon it, but that it will be authorized by the legislature, however this makes no difference just so it is a Democratic measure.

Fooled Them Again.

Democracythou hast succeeded in fooling the voters of the state and Alamance county especially again, by base and false misrepresentations, but the scales will fall from their eyes, when they are hit across the head with another bond issue to pay the running expenses of the county, how much longer will the people turn their backs, and refuse to listen to facts.

Let The People Know.

We ask our neighbor The Burlington News to give the name of the party who sold the county voucher in the year 1908 for 75 cents on the dollar and also give the name of the purchaser. You have made this statement in the heat of the campaign just closed it is now up to you to prove it, and we call upon you to do it. If you have the proof let it come and if you were lying for political effect we want the people to know it, refusal to name your men will be an admission that it is not true.

Some Fair Election Officials.

The election law is an abominable disgrace to the decent men of the state, and is badly abused by a great many who are sworn to do their duty, but there are some in this election who were fair and gentlemanly, to such we extend our thanks and appreciation. But to those who violated their oaths and abused their authority, well you are just such mean cusses that we, we nor the better element of your party have no respect for, and we shall have more to say in this respect in the future.

Let us Know the Facts.

The election is over, but there was something connected with it, that should be investigated, especially in regard to the abuse of power and authority of certain registrars in this county, we will appreciate any information that the voters of the various precincts can give us in regard to the conduct of the registrars, this is a matter that should receive the attention of the honest voters of both parties, write us all the facts in your possession and put them in such shape that we can use them in any way we may see fit.

Death of Little Boy.

William Maxwell the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fogleman died at their residence on Hoke Street Thursday, after an illness of a week with meningitis. Little William was a bright boy and his place in the home and among his little friends is vacant. Their many friends who hold Mr. and Mrs. Fogleman in high esteem extend their deepest sympathy during these sad hours of grief. Funeral services were conducted Friday at the Lutheran Church by Revs. C. B. Cox and M. V. Stickle. Burial at Pine Hill Cemetery.

It is Colby's Next Move.

The other day Secretary Colburn got a letter from H. R. Colby, of Waterloo, Iowa, editor of Kimball's Dairy Farmers. Colby has just made a trip through Kansas, and sought to have a little good natured fun with the Kansas secretary, for the two are great friends. So he wrote:

"It is so dry in Kansas that the fishes are sticking their heads down into the bottom of the streams in the hope of finding some moisture, and the people are pulling them up like radishes. When they try that kind of joke on Secretary Colburn they get another chance to move, as Colburn's reply will testify.

"The story is in part true, except as to the pulling up the fish like radishes. As a matter of fact, the fish stick up out of the ground five or six feet. Between the semiweekly showers the sun cures them in such a way that they make fence posts that are more durable than cement, and for this purpose they are very popular. Except that it is often necessary in reducing their size to halves or quarter them, which on account of their hardness, requires specially tempered and hardened saws similar to those used for sawing granite, their abundance would make them less expensive than the poorest cottonwood."

W. J. Thompson is spending this week at Goldsboro on business.

Our farmer friends all over the county can blame themselves if things do not pan out alright, do not be deceived by the cry of our opponents that they cant do any harm, because the administration is Republican, remember the law making body of congress is strongly democratic that a republican president can do nothing unless authorized by congress.

Death of W. M. Loy.

Mr. William M. Loy an old confederate soldier of east Burlington died Thursday at his home after an illness of about a week. Mr. Loy was seventy years old and leaves a wife and several children. Funeral services conducted Friday at the M. P. Church by Rev. J. D. Williams, burial at Pine Hill Cemetery.

Prices Already Falling.

Prices of stocks and cotton declines sharply today as a result of the election yesterday, and the end is not in sight, suppose this had been a presidential year, and the democrats had elected the President, what would have happened, its an old saw that you reap what you sow.

Major J. W. Buck, 90 years old rushed into the street at Portland Me. Thursday afternoon and stopped a pair of runaway horses hitched to a jagger. His own weight was not enough to hold the animals back, but another man soon came to his assistance and the combined efforts of both brought the horse to a stop.

Death of Good Citizen.

His many friends and relatives were suddenly shocked this Wednesday morning when the sad news was received of the death of Mr. Thos. F. McVey of Snow Camp, who was taken seriously ill at his home Monday night with an attack of acute indigestion. Although every remedy known to physicians was applied, the grim, monster death could not be stayed. Mr. McVey was one of Alamance counties most highly respected and esteemed citizens, not only in the community in which he resided but was loved by all who knew him.

His strong personality of friendship was very remarkable and to once gain his acquaintance ment his friendship. As a business man and christian gentleman his life stands as a land mark of nobleness. At the time of his death he was Secretary and Treasurer of the Dixon Mfg. Co. Only a year ago his wife and life long companion preceded him to the glory land. He was fifty years of age and leaves one sister Miss Carolina McVey and eight children two of whom are married. Funeral and burial will be conducted Thursday at eleven o'clock at Cane Creek Church.

The State Dispatch joins his many friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved family during the loss of this good citizen.

Tuesday Election Day.

The election passed off quietly Tuesday. The vote polled in North and South Burlington Townships was not a complete vote of the registration by any means, considering the beautiful weather. A great deal of enthusiasm was injected at the polls but no unfriendly feeling. Each side worked hard to win victory and keep the candidates from defeat. Although we are unprepared to give the official count this week, the Democrats won by a majority of from two to three hundred. The majority of Cook on the Democratic tick will probably be ahead of the average majority but the other candidates are about the same.

A Good Position.

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Memphis, Tenn., or Columbia, South Carolina.

Rally Day at Reformed Church. For the first time during the history of the Sunday School Rally Day was observed Sunday at the Reformed Church. Large attendance was present and a good exercise program. Special music had been arranged for the occasion. Each of the teachers were called upon to give a brief history of their class which was interesting. J. R. Hoffman teacher of class No. 8 made a well pointed address upon the subject of "Opportunity." The pastor made a very interesting talk on the subject of "What I have written I have written." Illustrated with pencils the different classes of people with whom we come in contact.

News has just reached us that two young men in Oliver's Township has been refused registration because they could not read and write to the satisfaction of the Registrar. The boys are Thicker and Mercury.

Six Thousand Boy Farmers.

The success of the boys has exceeded that of older farmers. In the boys in one county in Mississippi averaged 74 bushels per acre to the acre, while the farmers of the county employing the methods averaged less than 40 bushels. The result in special cases is almost beyond belief.

Wit Lundy, the son of a farmer in ordinary circumstances in Marlboro County, S. C. in 1910 made on his acre 152 1-2 bushels of corn at a cost of 31 cents a bushel. His was the best crop in the county and he won the county State prizes with a special prize of a trip to Washington, D. C. by Dr. Knapp. His corn was sold partly for seed at $2 a bushel. The sale of his crop and prizes brought him $500, and he is now in college.

These four boys come to Washington on their prize trip and are presented by Secretary of Agriculture with the first certificates of merit ever given youthful farmers by the Department of Agriculture. Next year the Secretary will give certificates to 6000 boys raising 75 bushels of corn on one acre at a cost not to exceed 30 cents a bushel.

The immediate effect of all this is tremendous and the ultimate good resultant no man can estimate. Forty-six thousand boys are now receiving training in scientific farming under Dr. Knapp's methods, and the number is increasing rapidly. The result that has long flowed to the backwoods farm will yield a crop undreamed of in all its history. By that time it is doubtful whether there will be a thing in the United States but a poor backwoods farm, for Dr. Knapp's idea is becoming a fact wherever it is understood. From "Making Good Farmers Out of Poor Ones," by Wendell Phillips, in the American Review of Reviews, November.
