He Thought He Stopped the Paper.

An aquaintance met Horace Greeley one day, and said: "Mr. Greeley, I,ve stopped your paper."

"Have you?' said the editor; "well that's too bad," and he went his way.

The next morning Mr. Greeley met his subscriber again, and said: "I thought you had stopped the Tribune."

"So I did."

"Then there must be some mistake'" said Mr. Greeley, "for I just came from the office and the presses were running, the clerks were as busy as ever, the compositors were going on the same as yesterday and the day before."

"Oh!' ejaculated the subscriber. "I didn't mean that I had stopped the paper; I stopped only my copy of it, because I didn't like your editorials."

"Pshaw!" retorted Mr. Greeley, "it wasn't worth taking up my time to tell me such a trifle as that. My dear sir, if you expect to control the utterance of the Tribune by the purchase of one copy a day, or if you think to find any newspaper worth reading that will never express convictions at right angles with your own, you are doomed to disappointment."—Exchange.

Burglars Thursday Night.

Jim Brown a colored boy about seventeen years old was placed in jail Friday to await trial at court for breaking into the store of Jos. A. Isley Bro. & Co, also the grocery store of Mr. D. H. Riggans. Thursday night about one o'clock, Uncle Jimmie Zachary night policeman who was on his usual beat heard an unusual noise in the direction of Riggans grocery store and upon arriving saw a man run from the store, at whose body he proceeded to fire but failed to hit. After arousing parties who sleep near by he entered the store and found under the counter the colored boy Jim Brown with a large revolver in his hand. The boy was captured and on trial next morning admitted that he and his partner whose name he gave as George, and whom he claimed to be another negro a few years older than himself, had first entered the store of Jos. A. Isley & Bro. Co. gaining entrance through a window in the rear of the dry goods department, and after trying to open the safe by sawing off the combination lock and battering it all to pieces found that this attempt was a ftilure entered the store of Mr. Riggans where they were found. A large bundle of clothes and hats was carried from the store of Mr. Isley and about $2.50 in cash which had been left in the cash drawer. The clothes were found next morning in the lot back of the store. Only a small amount of change was missed from the store of Mr. Riggans. According to the story related by the boy Jim Brown he and George came here the day before from Spencer or Salisbury as he swore both places.

Little could be learned as to who his partner George was or where he had gone. We suppose George is living in the tall timbers.

Culberson--Allen.

Mr. Robert H. Culberson and Miss Ora Allen were quietly married at the home of the brides father Daniel B. Allen near Snow Camp on Wednesday afternoon November 23. The marriage was simple and beautiful. Promply at the hour for the ceremony 2-30 p. m. Miss Grettie Stuart threw open the door and led the way into the parlor which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, followed by the attendants Mr. Harrison Thompson with Miss Elsie Allen, Mr. Tillet Culberson with Miss Bessie Whitt, Mr. Passmore Stevens with Miss Minnie Culberson. As the bride and groom took their places under a beautiful arch of Ivey and Ever greens the relatives and guest rose and stood during the brief and impressive ceremony which was preformed by J. C. Griffin Esq. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the grooms mother near Siler City.

Their many friends extend to them all good wishes for a useful and happy life.

Year of Prosperity.

The delay of the frost will bring 400,000,000 bushels more of corn to the fields than was estimated four weeks ago, and there will be 22.000,000 bushels more of wheat than was expected a few weeks ago. It is not certain that the corn crop for the year will be a little over 3,000,000,000 bushels. The cotton crop is somewhat short, but will very likely bring as much money as the more bountiful harvest of other years. It is estimated that at the present prices the value of the agricultural probuctions of the country for the year will not be under $95,000,000,000. Of this amount $2.000,000,000 represents the profits to farmers which is within $350.000,000 of the net value of the production of all the mines during the present year. Within the last ten years the farmers have cleared off $6,000,000,000 of mortgages from their property The holdings of the farmers are $3,500,000,000 greater than the capitalization of all the steam and electric railroads and all the manufactories of the country.

Mr. Wes Isley of Bear Creek is spending a few days in town the guest of his sons.

Death of Mrs. Hart.

Unexpectedly last Wednesday morning the death angle entered the home of our beloved Editor and claimed as its reward his wife and life long companion, who for the past year or more has been in lingering health, and during the past summer spent two or more months with her parents in Virginia with a view of improving her health.

Mrs. Nannie Bet Hart was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hayden of Patrick County Va., was married to Mr, Hart eighteen years ago, to this union was born three sons Gorrell, Bynum and Hayden, the oldest seventeen and the youngest twelve. Besides a devoted husband and three motherless children Mrs. Hart leaves a father and mother, one sister Mrs. Peter Barrow of North Danville, Va. and three brothers, Messrs. Ben Hayden an engineer who lives at Danville, Abraham Hayden of Texas, and Jno. M. Hayden of this city. She was forty-three years old and a patient, painstaking, christian wife and mother, whose place in the home will be missed. Oh so Sadly.

The remains were carried to Stuart, Va., the home of her parents, on the early train Thursday morning. Interment in the family burying ground- near there.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE STATE DISPATCH.—We wish to say through the columns of your paper that we regret very much to lose our dear friend, Dr. W. S. Long, who has recently moved from our midst to labor in other fields.

The first notice I had of him was at old Cane Creek Factory in the extreme south part of Alamance County. He was then a school boy from Graham, and at that time delivered an address at a school exhibition. I was then a young man, and have been interested in his labors ever since.

To my mind, Dr. Long has done more for the cause of Christianity and education in Alamance County than any other man. I have been greatly helped by his gospel messages, and doubtless many others could testify to the same. We pray that many years may yet be added to his useful life.

EDW TEAGUE.
Burlington, N. C.

Mrs. Leath of Union Ridge spent last week the guest of Mrs. Martha Leath.

Birthday Dinner.

At the home of S. F. Spoon Oakdale Alamance Co. N. C, the children of B. Michael Spoon kindly remembered him in word and deed on the 27th of Nov. 1910 on his 72nd birthday.

He was invited to spend the day with his daughter Mrs. S. F. Spoon and when he came he found his son R. M. from Greensboro and daughter. Fannie from Graham and his Pastor Rev. U. R. Strickley and wife present. At 1 o'clock Father Spoon, his Pastor and wife and his son and two daughters were invited to the dinning room where a table groaning beneath its load of the good things to satisfy the natural hunger of the body, and when all had feasted to their satisfaction we retired to the nice warm room where some time was spent in pleasant conversation, after all had partook of what had been so bountifully prerared being twenty-eight in number, there still remained enough for as many more, then a few choice selections of music led by S. F. Spoon with his daughter Effie presiding at the organ, then selections of Scripture read and prayer by the Pastor.

Then was Father Spoon remembered by his children in gifts, the first a gift by his son in a few well chosen words of the great love he had for him that prompted his act, he was followed by his sisters and grand children all giving him presents useful and comfortable, which was answered by Father Spoon with a heart filled that could only express itself in tears, after the gifts bestowed the Pastor in a few words congratulated Father Spoon of the love shown and many years he had been granted him and as a standard bearer of his in the church being one of his Elders, thus a pleasant and we trust a profitable day spent, we cannot give too much honor for those who cared for us in childhood.

None were more exercised than Bro. S. F. Spoon in seeing that every one was comfortable, all I am sure will ever remember the very welcome reception and bountiful entertainments.

The following members constituting children and grand children were present.

His son R. M. Spoon of Greensboro and his children Ralph, May and Lake, Fannie his daughter of Graham, his daughter Maggie wife of S. F. Spoon of Oakdale children Lee, Effie, Floyd, Fred, Eugene, Carl. Valley and Oppie.

One Present.

R. F. D. No. 7.

We carriers certainly earned our salary today (Monday) and it looks now like we will earn it some more, as it is still raining to night.

Mrs. Cora Stockard and son, Cramer, spent Sunday visiting at Esq. Lewis Holt's.

Mr. Geo. W. Spoon and family moved from Bellemont to Hillsboro last week.

Mr. Euel A. Noah moved from Graham No. 1 last week to his handsome new home on No. 7 a mile this side of Bellemont.

Glad to have him back on No.7 again

Mr. Pinkney Capps has purchased the Capps farm just this side of Bellemont and is covering the house and building some additions to it before moving in.

Mr. H. M. Neese who purchased a part of L. Banks Holt farm just this side of the Alamance bridge, is getting lumber on the ground and preparing to build a nice house. We expect "Mack" will be "habnobing" with Dan Cupid before long if he is not already doing so.

Mr. H. D. Graves moved from No. 9 to No. 7. and is occupying Macks house now and helping Mack haul his lumber for his new house.

Prof. Cary Branson came home Saturday from No 8, where he is teaching school on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Branson at Bellemont. "Dan" took charge of the Prof and lured him back to the old stamping ground.

Mr. H. Monroe Holt has enlarged his kitchen and dining room and built a new back porch which improves the looks of his place right much. Rations must be plentiful at Monroes.

We had the pleasure of entertaining Esq. W. A. Tinnin carrier No. 2 from Rock Creek last night. The Esq. was on his way to Greensboro to serve as Juror in the federal court for a week or two.

Sunday morning while the snow was on the ground we went to feed "Paul and Silas" (our fine chickens) and discovered rabbit tracks all around the roost box and soon found the rabbit seated under some weeds about ten feet away. Of course we could not tolorate any thing like that, a common rabbit daring to enter our chicken lot and aspiring to live on an equality with our prize winning fowels, so we hastened back to the house and reported to the "widow and orphans" and we all decided that, in view of the fact that Esq. Tinnin was coming that day and it being almost a "Gopper" case at our house, it was a case of helping the Ox out of the ditch, so we got a stick and with the widow and orphans to guard against any possible escape, returned and executed that rabbit with neatness and dispatch.

The "orphans" want it to snow every day or two now. We were honored by a visit Sunday evening from J. C. Griffin carrier No 1 from Snow Camp and N. E. Workman, one of his patrons, also W. H. Hall carries No 9 from the city. The widow thought they might be aiming to spend the night here so she suggested that perhaps there were lots of rabbit tracks down about the meadow. See.

A new Episcopal Rector.

Rev. John Benners Gibble of Windsor, N. C. has accepted a call to the parish of St. Athanasius Episcopal Church which has been without a rector since the resignation of Rev E. L. Ogilby Oct. first.

Mr. Gibble, who will enter upon his duties about February first, is a native of this state, as is also Mrs. Gibble. He has been wonderfully successful with his work in all of his former parishes, namely, Wilmington, N. C., Denninson, Texas, Butte, Montana and Windsor, N. C. his present charge. He possesses an unusually strong personality and is a forceful preacher and untiring worker. Burlington may be congratulated upon his acquisition. The new Episcopal church now nearing completion will be ready for worship about May first and will be consecrated about that date.

DOCTOR COOK HAS CONFESSED.

Frankly Admits Does Not Know Whether or Not Reached Pole.

New York, Nov. 30.—Frederick A. Cook has confessed. This announcement made tobay by Benjamin Hampton, editor of the magazine that paid $50,000 for Commander Peary's story of his trip to the north pole. In his "own story", the first installment which will appear in the January number of Hamptons. Cook frankly admits he does not know whether he reached the north pole or not.

In the opening article, dealing particularly with the gsychology of his adventure, Dr. Cook declares, "Did I get to the north pole, prehaps I made a mistake in thinking I did. Prehaps I did not make a mistake. After mature thought I confess I don't know absolutely whether I reached the pole or not. This may come as an amaizing statement but I am willing to startle the world if by doing so I can get an opportunity to present my case. By my case I mean not my case as to a geographical discovery, but my case as a man. Much as the attainment of the north pole once meant to me, sympathy, and confidence of my fellow-men mean more. I shall tell every thing and I leave the decision with you. If after reading my story you can say Cook is sincere and honest, and half crazed by months of isolation and hunger, he believed that he reached the Pole, he is not a faber, then I shall be satisfied."

Dr. Cook declares it to be impossible for any man to demonstrate that he has been to the pole. He characterized the far north as a "region of insanity, where one cannot believe the evidence gathered by one's own eye."

Cook declares that all the time he has been away he made no attempt at concealment nor wore disguise. He will return to the United States December 22. His sole desire in writing the story is to make people of the United States realize just what he went through during the years of arctic searching and make them see what a process of thinking, or lack of thinking, was that led him to the things which conveyed to the average mind most of the suspicion against him.

Trinity College Glee Club

The Trinity College Glee Club gave a musical at the Graded School Auditorum Saturday night which was indeed a treat to those who were so fortunate as to attend. The entertainment consisted of vocal and instrumental music. Had it not been for another social event in town that night the attendance doubtless would have been much larger.

A Card of Thanks.

We take this method of expressing our heart-felt thanks to our neighbors and friends for the many acts of kindness and the expressions of sympathy bestowed upon us in the death of our dear wife and mother. May God in his bounteous mercy amply reward each one of you for these tokens of respect.

Cupid played his part in the realms of gaiety last week by seeing how many surprise marriages he could encourage in our midst. Keep the Kidneys Well

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Burlington People Know How to Save It.

Many Burlington people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

M. C. Foster, Graham, N. C., says: "I am glad to give Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement. I suffered from almost constant pains across the small of my back and I had but little ambition or energy. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended that I procured a box and begun using them. I am glad to say that I was benefited in every way."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO.

Funny Ministrel.

Friday and Saturday nights at the Grotto was the scene of one of the funniest plays we have had the opportunity of witnessing for some time, when the Stonewall Jackson kids corked up to perfection entertained a large audience for two hours. Special mention might be made of the "Pink Tea Party" and gay costumes of part of the characters.

The duetts rendered by Misses Barnes and Pitt of Elon College were splendid. Also the recitation of Miss Posey.

Mrs. L. C. Carter who had the play in charge deserves credit for managing it so wisely and well.

A contemplated change in the Trinity campus, made larger by about fifty acres, is the subject of a discussion which is still in the air with R. H. Wright and B. N. Duke, the principal parties to it.

Back to the Soil.

A definite effort to check the drift of American population to crowded cities will perhaps be inaugurated through the conference of governors now being held at Frankfort and Louisville, Ky. A committee from New York city has addressed such an appeal to the governors, pointing out that this desirable movement must be undertaken in large measure by the individual states.

A weightier problem does not exist in this country. A decade ago there were in the United States only one hundred and sixty cities of a population of two hundred and fifty thousand or more. This year, however, that number is almost doubled, making a total urban population of about twenty-eight millions. This means that within the past years the American cities have grown almost three and a half times as rapidly as the country communities.

Such congestion sows and reaps an inevitable harvest of poverty, suffering, disease and death and, what is perhaps most deplorable, of servitude as well. If the majority of Americans are to be really independent citizens, there must come a turning back to the soil. The difference between the man who holds a job in a great city and the one who owns a farm is the difference between economic freedom and economic slavery. The nation itself cannot continue virile and progressive if its people are continually living from hand to mouth.

Most of this unfortunate congestion exists in the east. In the south there is an abundance of land, yet to be turned to productiveness. When this is settled, foodstuffs will be cheaper, our death rate will be lower; we shall have healthier children, happier men and women, and in every sense a more robust and hopeful nation.—Atlanta Journal

Ain't it Awful, Mabel?

On my way home from a little trip the other day I heard something that's too good to keep. Two girls got on the train, and each one of them had voice enough for six women, and they kept up such a chatter that they attracted the attention of everybody in the car.

One said: "I just simply can't do anything with my hair after I have washed it."

"Neither can I," replied the other.

It seemed that both of the dear things had recently shampooed their hair, and they talked and talked about shampoos until everyone in the car was actually bored.

A gentleman in the rear rose to leave the car. On the way out he stumbled over Mabel's foot.

"Oh, I beg your pardon," he said, tipping his hat, "but, don't you know, I washed my feet last night, and I just simply can't do anything with my feet after I have washed them."

Pain in Heart

"For two years I had pain in my heart, back and left side. Could not draw a deep breath or lie on left side, and any little exertion would cause palpitation. For many years Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has been very successful in the treatment of heart troubles, because of its tonic effect upon the heart nerves and muscles. Touched a Tender Spot.

In our issue of November 30th we had a short editorial which stated that with everything the farmer had to sell was going down, and everything he had to buy going up, that verily the farmer who voted democratic, in the last election got what he voted for. Our neighbor The Mebane Leader took us to task in its issue of December 1st, and accuses us of clouding the issues. Now we have no quarrel with brother Foy who edites the Leader, but admire him for getting out so good paper advocating the doctrines that he advocates but it seems that we touched a tender spot in the Colonels make up. We were aware that brother Foy was at heart a free trader to the manner born and we know we spoke of high prices and be-littled these short sighted farmers who turned their ayes away from the land of piece plenty and prosperity and voted the Democratic ticket that would invoke the wrath of brother Foy's virule pen. But we didn't think for a moment that with his farsighted knowledge of affairs and conditions that he would call for a bill of particulars. Hear him. He says be specific, which means point out the things that are going up, and point out things that are going down. Well when we are called, we always show our hand, and in politics as well as business we do allow ourselves to be caught bluffing, the things going up are coffee, plant bed cloth shoes, wire and wire nails, and here are the things going down. Chickens, rabbits, beef, pork, cotton, wheat and corn, will brother Foy be kind enough to reciprocate and tell us what the farmers are interested in coming down, be specific, what can come down that will not effect his own product. The farmers are interested in what is coming down and what is going up. They are the producers and therefore are more benefitted when prices are going up than when they are coming down.

Stockholders Meeting.

The Stockholders of the State Dispatch Publishing Company, met in the editorial room of the paper, Tuesday evening at 2:30 and transacted the usual routine business, owing to the illness of the editor the financial condition of the paper was not gone into, but a new set of directors was elected and various matters pertaining to the papers future welfare were discussed. The meeting adjourned to a future day when the financial condition will be considered and a full report made through the columns of The Dispatch for the benefit of all stockholders, we will say for the benefit of the public generally that the paper is in a most satisfactory condition and enjoying a large and healthy subscription list. The stockholders as well as the management of the paper appreciate the loyal support accorded it since its first appearance The paper goes into more than twenty-five hundred homes each week, this is something that few local weekly papers can truthfully boast of, it would be well for the advertising public to note this statement. The people who take The Dispatch do so because of its worth as a news disseminater and not because they feel that they are bound to support the party organ, a paper of this character is read and relied upon, hence its value as an advertising medium.

The home of Mrs. William Blanchard of R. F. D. 3 was destroyed by fire Saturday night. While the family was at supper the fire caught in a room upstairs, which was occupied by the lady who teaches the Blanchard School. Little furniture was saved. Only a small insurance was carried.

"A Massachusetts man has inherited a farm, with the provision that he is to forfeit it if he gets drunk." Considering the aridity of the average Massachusetts farm, he will probably decide to forfeit.

A Good Position.

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. THE PRINCE OF LIFE CRUCIFIED

Matthew 27:33-50—December 11

"He was wounded for our transgressions; he was bruised for our iniquities."—Isa. 53:5.

THE trial of Jesus really took place shortly after His arrest, but, on account of the Law requiring a death sentence to be passed in daylight, a morning meeting of the Sanhedrin was appointed, which, in a perfunctory manner, confirmed the high priest's decision of the night before, that Jesus had blasphemed the Creator when he claimed that he had come into the world in accord with the Creator's long-promised plan that he should redeem Israel and the world from the death sentence, that in God's due time he might establish the Messianic Kingdom for the blessing of Israel and all the families of the earth.

The matter was rushed through lest the gathered multitudes, who had shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David," when Jesus rode upon the ass five days before, should undertake again to proclaim him king. No execution could take place during the Passover week. And if Jesus were held a prisoner they knew not what might happen to him or to them. They had, therefore, but a few hours in which to carry out the plan which they believed would rid their country of a man whom they considered a deceiver and one likely to get them into trouble with the Government at Rome.

Pilate refusing to sentence Jesus unjustly, and arranging for him to go before Herod for trial

The Sanhedrin had authority to judge the people along the lines of their religion, but was prohibited from executing the death penalty. Hence it was necessary, after the condemnation of the Sanhedrin, to take the case before Pilate, the Roman Governor. Realizing that Pilate would not recognize blasphemy as a cause for death, the charge against Jesus, before Pilate, was a totally different one, namely, that Jesus was a seditionist and raiser of disturbance; that he claimed to be a king and that his freedom was inimical to the interests of the Roman Empire. The foolishness and the hypocrisy of such a charge were too transparent to need assertion. Pilate perceived that for envy they were delivering him—because he and his teachings were having more influence with the common people than could be exercised by the chief priests and scribes. Pilate relieved himself of responsibility by declaring that since the home of Jesus was in Galilee, King Herod, the Governor of Galilee, should have the jurisdiction of the case, which he was glad to get rid of.

Jesus Before King Herod

This was an unexpected difficulty, but Herod's palace was not far distant. He was glad of the opportunity to see Jesus, of whose miracles he had heard much. As he looked at the Master's noble features and beheld in him purity and gentle dignity, it must have seemed ridiculous that such a person should be arraigned as a seditionist and a man dangerous to the interests of the peace of the country. After a few taunting words and jests, the palace guards took a hand with the one whom their master treated flippantly. They put upon him a purple robe and a crown of thorns and mocked at his unkingly appearance. Then Herod declined to act in the case and sent the prisoner back to Pilate, perhaps feeling that he had had a sufficiency of trouble in connection with the beheading of John the Baptist a year or so before. The matter was a joke between Herod and Pilate—dealing with the case of a man claimed to be so dangerous that he must die thus, when he manifestly was so pure and innocent that the weakest would be safe with him.

Pilate's Perplexity Increased

Pilate was disappointed when Jesus was brought back to his court. The case was an unpleasant one to settle. The prisoner manifestly was innocent of any crime, yet his accusers were the most prominent men in the nation and city over which he had charge. Their good will must be preserved, if possible, and they were evidently bent on the murder of their innocent captive under the form of legality. What a pity it is that religion has been so often misrepresented by her votaries in every age of the world! A lesson which we all should learn is to search the motives and intentions of our own hearts, that we be not led into the error of the wicked—into violating the rights of others and thus fighting against God.

Pilate heard the accusations, realized that there was no truth in them, and then gave his decision: I find no fault in Jesus, but, seeing that such a commotion has been created, I consider it necessary in the interests of peace to satisfy the unrighteous demands of the clamoring multitude. I will therefore have the prisoner whipped, although I acknowledge he is not deserving of punishment. The whipping will be in his own interest, as well as in the interests of the peace of the city, for by satisfying the clamor of the multitude the life of Jesus will be spared. As political decisions go, this was a very fair decree. Magistrates recognize that absolute justice is not always possible in dealing with imperfect conditions.

But the rulers would not be satisfied with anything short of Jesus' death. The rabble was exhorted to shout, Crucify him! Crucify him! It seemed impossible for Pilate to appreciate that such a frenzy could be aroused against so innocent a person. So he inquired, What evil hath he done? But the answer was, Crucify him! Alas, how human passion can ignore every principle of righteousness! To add to Pilate's perplexity, his wife now sent him word, Have nothing to do with this just person, for I have had a horrible dream which connects itself with him.

As a last resort Pilate caused Jesus to be brought to a prominent place where the multitude could all see him and then he cried out to them, "Behold the Man!" See the character of the man you are willing to crucify. Note that he has most kingly features, such as none of your race possess—nor others. Would you crucify the very best sample of your race? Consider; be reasonable. Behold the Man! It has for years been a custom with you that the Government at this season release a prisoner. So, then, consider that Jesus has been condemned and that your conception of justice has been satisfied and that now I release him to you. But the multitude cried out so much the more, Crucify him! Release unto us Barabbas (a robber and dangerous character).

Thou Art Not Caesar's Friend

The Jewish leaders were shrewd. They knew that treason to Rome was one of the most serious offenses and in the fact that Jesus had spoken of himself as a king they had the lever wherewith to compel his crucifixion. They used it, assuring Pilate that if he let the prisoner go they would report him to the Emperor. Pilate knew that he would have difficulty in explaining such a case and that the Roman Government would agree with the decision of Caiaphas that one man should die rather than have any commotion in their dominion. Thus compelled, Pilate finally acceded and wrote the papers of execution, but before doing so he took a pitcher of water and in the sight of the people washed his hands, saying, "I am guiltless of the blood of this just person."

The execution proceeded. The soldiers already had two thieves to crucify and merely added another cross and the procession started for Golgotha, a hillside near where the face of the rock much resembles a skull—Golgotha signifying the place of a skull. It is just to the north of the city, outside the wall. New buildings and a wall recently erected hinder visitors at the present time from getting the skull effect as formerly. The crime of each culprit was, by Law, inscribed over his head. Above the Master's head was his crime—"Jesus, King of the Jews."

Satan and his deluded dupes evidently thought that they had finally disposed of Jesus. The priests and elders mocked his declaration that he was the Son of God and demanded that, if he were such, he should demonstrate it by leaving the cross. They realized not the truth, that it was necessary for him to die for man's sin, in order that, by and by, he might have rightful authority, in his glorious Kingdom,

BEHOLD THE MAN! Pilate is much perplexed but yields to the desires of the people.

On the way to Calvary, where the "Prince of Life" experienced the end of his sacrificial death to restore all mankind to full perfection and life under the terms of the New Covenant, of which he will be the Mediator. (Jer. 31:31.) At the sixth hour, noon, darkness settled down for three hours and then Jesus died, crying, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" In order that he might fully experience the weight of Divine Justice which belonged to the sinner, it was necessary that the Father should hide himself from him, as though he had been the sinner. This temporary separation from the Father was evidently the severest blow in all of the Master's experience.

R. F. D. No. 1.

Milton Loy who belongs to the United States Navy is at home on a furlough for a few days.

Mrs. J. A. Loy is still at Elon College nursing her son who has been quite sick, but is improving now.

This writer went over to Mortons Saturday expecting to join a crowd from Hillsboro in a big bird hunt, but as they failed to show up, G. L. Simpson accompanied us in a little five hour hunt during which time we succeeded in cutting down about forty birds and every molly-hare that showed itself.

Wonder if Burton Shoffner has gone back home yet it was a fine boy.

After being in the country Saturday and getting home late Saturday night we expected to take a little extra nap Sunday morning, but behold about sun up we were disturbed by one of the most frightful noises that we have heard for years, therefore we hurridly got up and prepared ourself for an investigation, but hardly had we got to the door 'till we were satisfied because out there in the old field was our neighbor J. M. Workman wife and five or six of his children just going it through the snow after an old "molly hare" we then started an investigation why they should be carrying on so on Sunday, but that was soon explained when 'Harry' told us that Esq. W. A. Tinnin of Rock Creek was expected to take dinner with them. They finally got the rabbit and we suppose were able to fix Esq. a nice bowl of soup that day for his dinner.

THE KEY OF KNOWLEDGE.

Things You Ought to Know—Especially Why God Has Permitted Evil.

Every Christian Bible Student SHOULD KNOW the satisfactory proofs that the Bible is a Divine Revelation—reasonable and trustworthy—revealing a Plan which is systematic, full of Justice, Wisdom and Love.

The Key of Knowledge of the Scriptures, long lost (Luke 11:52), is found, and gives God's faithful people access to the "Hidden Mystery". (Col. 1:26.)

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the Lord Jesus and his faithful are to be not only Priests but Kings.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that this Kingdom is to come and God's will be done at the Second Advent.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that God's Plan is to select and save the Church in the Gospel Age, and to use this Church in blessing the world during the Mediatorial reign on earth.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that a "Ransom for all" implies an opportunity for Restitution to all.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the Day of Judgment is 1,000 years long—the world's Trial Day.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the Spiritual and Human natures are separate and distinct.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the "Narrow Way" of self-sacrifice will cease with this age.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the "Highway of Righteousness" without suffering will be open to all of the redeemed race during the Messianic reign on earth.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the Kingdoms of This World are but for an ordained period and must then give place to the "Kingdom of Heaven"—"Thy Kingdom Come." Especially YOU OUGHT TO KNOW why God has permitted evil for six thousand years, and the relationship of God's people to this reign of sin and death and to the results.

These subjects and many others of deep interest to all of God's people are discussed fully and in language easy of comprehension in "THE DIVINE PLAN OF THE AGES."

Holiday Announcement

FREE HANDSOME HOLIDAY SPOON Sterling, Plate and Gold Bowl

Commencing Dec. 5th

We will give away free while they last (supply limited) with each purchase of $5.00, or more Only one Spoon to a customer.

The cut shows an elegant Coffee Spoon that is novel in design and sure to please. On the front appears the open fireplace and a stocking, without which no Christmas is complete. The tree loaded with good things is distinctly seen above the narrow part of the handle, on which appears in plain letters the words "Merry Christmas." In the gold bowl we see old Santa Claus with his flowing locks and his grey beard, swinging his whip threateningly over the back of his fleet reindeer. Altogether it is a most pleasing picture and a proper emblem of Merry Christmas.

On the back of the handle are the glad bells which "ring out the old and "ring in the new," and underneath old Father Time with his cruel scythe, "Happy New Year" completes the decoration on the back of handle.

Altogether it is a most beautiful article suitable for a holiday present for one's self or a friend. The collection of handsome spoons has assumed in many localities the proportion of a huge fad and this spoon is good enough to place beside any of them.

This spoon is the most suitable Christmas gift you could make to ladies, Sunday school children, or children in the public or day schools.
