Funeral Reforms.

Mr. Editor:—I take advantage of your kindness to say a few words concerning the recommendations of the Burlington pastors for reforms in funerals.

We are aware of the fact that the bringing about of needed reforms in funeral services is a delicate and difficult undertaking. Some how or other a long established custom is an exacting matter with most of us. And this is especially true of customs in connection with funerals. But the undertaking is the more difficult because of the fact that we are not disposed to give to the subject special thought while our loved ones are living. The correctness or propriety of age-old customs in connection with death and burial is not seriously considered until a loved-one is claimed by death, then our hearts are so crushed and broken we can not think, so there is nothing for us to do but fall in line with established customs.

Realizing as we do that with the mortal remains of a loved-one lying in the home in the embrace of death is no time to talk about reforms in funerals, we are endeavoring to excite in the minds of our people some interest in the question under discussion before bereavements come.

I am of course heartily in favor of all reforms recommended by the pastors of Burlington, but in this brief article I shall mention only two: First, the tendency to make funerals EMBARRASSINGLY costly. I say EMBARRASSINGLY costly, and I speak advisedly, for it would not be difficult to find instances in which good people have been actually embarrassed in meeting the utterly unreasonable demands made upon them by custom in burying their loved-ones.

Second, the custom of remaining at the grave until it is filled. When the casket is lowered into the grave, and the Ritual service is concluded, the benediction should be pronounced and the people should retire. Certainly there can be nothing of interest in the simple filling of the grave and left to themselves the undertaker and his assistants can certainly do their work better than they can with a multitude of all ages around the grave.

Sometimes the weather is inclement, the ground damp and cold, but custom holds the people until the grave is filled, and the grave is filled, and the flowers placed upon the mound. Certainly it would be better when the casket is lowered into the grave to have a temporary cover placed over it, the flowers placed on the temporary cover, the service held, the benediction pronounced, and let the people retire.

We appeal to our people to think about this matter, and if they agree with us, let us make a united effort to bring about the desired reforms.

Respectfully,

J. A. Hornaday.

Our subject; "The Crucifixion" The Title over the Cross: "This is Jesus The King of The Jews." "This title was written in three familiar languages of the people. Greek, Latin and Hebrew. Thus Jesus was declared to be king in the languages of culture, of power, of religion. Power, culture and piety, in their noblest forms, pay homage at the feet of Jesus. Thus in the chief tongues of men was proclaimed in jest what became a living truth,—that Jesus is king; the king to whom all nations and people should yield allegiance. He is a king with many crowns.

"While the races of mankind endure Let his great example stand Colossal, seen of every land. And keep the soldier firm, the statesman pure; Till in all lands and through all human story The path of duty be the way to glory.

Meeting of Merchants Association.

At a meeting of the Merchants Association held Thursday night in the office of the Secretary a committee consisting of five of the members was appointed by the Secretary to go before the legislature when it meets at Raleigh in an effort to get the following passed. To make it a misdemeanor for receiving goods on approval which are not returned. The privilege to waive the homestead law. And other important acts which should be passed.

Mr. H. Fleishman Goes Out of Business.

Mr. H. Fleishman the popular proprietor of the Underselling Store, corner of Main and Davis Street has decided to go out of business and with this in view has inaugurated a closing out sale.

That the people are appreciating the values he is offering is shown by the throngs that visit his store daily, not from idle curiosity either, if the bundles carried away are to be evidence that they find prices as represented in his ads and circulars.

Mr. Fleishman has made many friends during his stay among us and expressions of regret are heard on all sides that he is closing out.

We join in with the rest of his many friends in wishing him all kinds of good luck in his new undertaking.

Death of Mr. J. J. Squires.

Mr. J. J. Squires died this afternoon Wednesday, about four o'clock at his home near Longs Chapel Pleasant Grove Township, after an illness of several months. He was 60 years old being the oldest of a family of seven, having four sisters and two brothers Messrs J. C. and Mack Squires of this city. He was married twice, leaves a wife and several children.

More than twenty five dollars gross was received Saturday night by the Ladies Aid Society of the Reformed Church from the oyster supper given in the Fowler Store Building.

Craven's Officials Negligent.

One of the most remarkable publications we have seen in many a day was contained in the "Democratic official organ" of Craven county, the New Bern Journal, of Sunday.

The nature of the printed matter was the report made by an expert accountant, who had been employed by the county commissioners to audit the accounts of the solicitor of that district, the county clerk, sheriff, register of deeds, and the treasurer. This report is published in full, and requires nearly six columns of space.

The article is headed, "Very Good County Findings Develop as Result of Expert Examination of Offices and Commissioners' Work." Then follows the auditors' report, the "Good Findings," consisting in the fact that the figures show that the solicitor has collected in a short while $194.92 of unlawful fees; that the sheriff has had about $3,000 more than he ought to have had; that the clerk of the court has put $765 of illegal fees in his pocket; that the register of deeds generally supposed not to have any chance of overcharging, has gotten about $400 he was not entitled to, because he gave back to the county 50 cents only of the marriage license $2 fee, putting $1.50 in his official purse, when the law says $1 shall go to the county and $1 to the register of deeds, the third dollar going into the state treasury. As to the county treasurer, the auditor says that he just out and out refused to let him look at his books. Later however, the treasurer gets repentant, and the auditor gets a look at the books and reports that no man can tell whether he is indebted to the county or not, but gives him the benefit of the doubt, and a clean bill of health.

One of the very best signs of the times is the fact that the commissioners of Craven county permitted the people and taxpayers and future grand jurors of Craven to see this report in the public print.

A bad sign is that, although the facts and figures thus published have been in the custody of the board for some time, it sat still, and never let the voters or taxpayers know the facts until the last one of the officers thus shown to have been at least woefully negligent, if not knowingly unfaithful, to their trust, had been nominated and elected to succeed themselves as worthy Democratic officials.

It would have been interesting to see if the voters, had they known the facts, have nominated these officials, or, if they had, would enough Democrats have revolted from this plan dereliction of official duty to have arisen in their mighty might and have elected men, either Republican or independent citizens, capable of giving the taxpayers a safe and economical administration of county and court affairs.

We have no disposition to bring partisan politics into the matter, but we cannot refrain from saying the truth: that such a state of affairs had been shown to exist in any county in North Carolina having Republican county officers, the chances would have been rung from Dan to Bersheba and whole sluices of pebberry juice would slosh over Joe Daniel's disturber. And, by the way, would not thousands and tens of thousands of dollars be saved the taxpayers of the state if an expert accountant would be allowed to look at all the books, not only of county offices, but of state institutions, and an honest, full fraud publication of the conditions found be published?

And, if Brother Stevens of the Journal, calls the showing made by the auditor's report an evidence of the good condition of his county, what in the name of Heaven would he call a bad condition?

Since he made no editorial comment whatever on this remarkable showing, we are led to conclude that, like the little boy the calf ran over, he will have nothing to say.—Greensboro Daily News.

New County System.

Today Durham county abolishes the fee system for the county officers and replaces it with the salary basis, and with the selection of an auditor by the county commissioners, this county has taken another progressive step in its history. For years it has been argued that every county would save money when the officers were placed upon a salary basis and several counties in this state having given this view of the matter a thorough test are convinced that it is a proper method for remunerating the officials elected by the people. From every stand point this new method seems to appeal to the voters, and if this system works as well in this county as it has in many other sections of the state, it will undoubtedly mean a saving to the people.

It also means that the recording of deed and affidavits of the clerk will be placed upon a cash business, instead of allowing men to pay again. It means that the county will be run upon a business basis, which spells success. To this end every resident of Durham county should labor.—Durham Sun.

What is Alamance County going to do about it? Should the next Legislature pass a measure putting our county officers on salaries, it could not go into effect until Dec. 1912 (two years) if this Legislature does not give us this relief then nothing can be done for four years. This is up to you Gentlemen, Taxpayers of Alamance County.

THE UNIVERSITY LETTER

From our Regular Correspondent.

The fortunes of the University in athletics have for the past few years been far below the ambitions of old alumni, who recall the '03 base ball team and the '02 and '05 football teams; but her long continued success in intercollegiate debates fulfilled the highest desires that the most loyal son might entertain for his alma mater. Her collection of victory trophies received a fine addition on Saturday, Dec. 3, in Philadelphia, when Carolina's representatives, Messrs W. F. Taylor and C. L. Williams won from the University of Pennsylvania in a unanimous decision. Carolina supported the affirmative of the question, of the Federal Government establishing a Central Bank.

This was the third debate out of a series of five that Carolina has won from the University of Pennsylvania. Out of the twenty nine debates which Carolina varsity men have won twenty two and never lost a series. Among her rivals have been: John Hopkins, George Washington, Tulane Vanderbilt, Washington and Lee, and the Universities of Georgia, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

The interclass and intersociety debates which are arranged every year between the members of the literary societies develop the raw material for the varsity teams. The latest contest of this kind was the freshman debate in the Dialectic society, which was won by Mr. J. T. Pritchett. In the preliminary contest for this debate nearly twenty men were entered.

Mr. Edgar W. Turlington of the senior class has won the Rodes Scholarship which provides for three years of study at Oxford University and travel in Europe. He was the only one of the three applicants who passed the examination. Turlington is president of the Y. M. C. A., a position which is given always to the best rounded men morally and mentally in each class. He has won the Bingham medal in debate a distinction which is awarded the man who excels in the intersociety debate held annually at commencement.

W. F. Hendricks has been elected manager of the 1911 football team.

Mr. R. G. Stockton has been elected student at large representative upon the University Council. This brings the membership of the Council up to a membership of eight.

Accidentally Killed.

Ida Johnson, colored, who lived about one mile north of town on the C. L. Isley farm accidentally shot and killed herself Monday morning. She had loaded the gun to shoot a dog in the yard and was pushing the hammer back with the point of the gun pointing towards her head when the gun was discharged shooting off the top of her head. She lived with her two sons and two daughters.

New Officers for Fair.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Alamance Fair Association held Saturday in the office of the company at the fair grounds the following new officers were elected for the ensuing year. President, Esq. W. A. Hall, Secretary, Dr. Freeman Treasurer, H. F. Moore. We congratulate the stockholders in their choice and stand ready and willing to help in the cause.

R. F. D. No. 7.

Mr. John M. Coble, the millwright from Liberty No 3, spent the latter part of last week putting in a "Scroll mill" for Sharpe & Coble, which works all right and greatly increases the "turn out" of flour. Messrs Sharpe & Coble now have an up to date mill and a large list of satisfied customers.

The old stork brought B. H. Hargis a 7 lb. girl last Saturday, Dec. 10th. Burrell was so well pleased that he got on top of the house and hollowed until he was hoarse and swung his cup until he wore it out and thinks yet that he lost it. Some of the neighbors say that he carried on so that the dogs kept up such a barking that they slept but very little Saturday night. We congratulate the little lady, for we were born, a "few winters ago, on Dec. 10th, and can vouch for its being a lucky day for the business.

Mrs. A. B. Holt gave us a basket of potatoes and a half gallon can of peeled peaches. Thanks.

Miss Ione Lutterloh, of Burlington, opened school near Mt. Hermon last week, Sidney Russell was "hauling" the new school mam Sunday evening and just as he got to the south end of the bridge at the old Dixon Mill "Dan" was in ambush and shot an arrow right through the upper part of Sidneys left lung and came very near piercing his heart. The wound is considered very serious if not fatal.

The stork has got so busy over here that, beginning the first of January 1911 we will send "Dan" over on No. 8 with headquarters at Jim McCullochs near Butter Milk Creek and we warn No. 8 that he will have to keep his eyes peeled if he expects to keep up with "Dans" movements and report his doings to the friends over here.

Quite a number of young people gathered at Mr. J. K. Isleys Saturday night and were entertained with various kinds of amusements and enjoyed drinking some of Kinseys famous locust beer.

We are glad to note that Mrs. A. R. Isley who has been confined to her bed for a week or so, is able to be out again.

Sorry to say Mrs. Edwin Holt is not much better at this writing. Mr. Haywood Isley is on the sick list.

Mr. Will Isley and family spent Saturday night and Sunday with his father Mr. W. H. Isley on No. 7.

Misses Permelia Watkins spent Sunday afternoon visiting Mrs. W. B. Sharpe.

Misses Daisy Watkins and Flossie Isley spent Sunday evening with Misses Swanna and Novella Isley.

Guess "Dan" will complete the job with Lanby Watkins and Odist Isley before he moves headquarters over on Butter milk.

Will Kimball has commenced hitching his horse to the same old post again. Ask Miss Daisy Watkins about it. Jacob Sharpe! where art thou?

Sale of Entire Stock.

Mr. W. E. Hay, who expects to give his entire time and efforts in the future to the lumber business is closing out his stock of merchandise. The sale will begin to-morrow and last until the entire stock is disposed of. He is making especially low prices which mean the goods will not last long. If you will read his ad in this issue you will be convinced that the goods cannot last long.

A dispatch from Salisbury, N. C., dated November 29th, says that Sheriff McKenzie of Rowan County has received a message from the authorities of Bluefield West Va., informing him of the captured of Ed Davis, the negro who shot street-car conductor Wiggins in Salisbury several years ago.

Police officers Kimball and Hemrick of Salem arrested Samuel Cornatzer, of Davie county, Wednesday night. He was taken in tow south of the Twin-City and in his wagon was found a barrel of "spirits." He was given a hearing for carrying concealed weapons and bound over to court in the sum of $50. The case against him for selling liquor without Government license was heard before U. S. Commissioner Beckerdite Saturday, and he was bound over to Federal Court in a $500 bond which he gave. The liquor will be confiscated and many a Xmas egg-nog in some cases and "jags" in others have been nipped in the bud.

Holiday Announcement

FREE HANDSOME Sterling Plate and Gold Bowl
HOLIDAY SPOON

The cut shows an elegant Coffee Spoon that is novel in design and sure to please.

On the front appears the open fireplace and stockings, without which no Christmas is complete. The tree loaded with good things is distinctly seen above the narrow part of the handle, on which appears in plain letters the words "Merry Christmas." In the gold bowl we see old Santa Claus with his flowing locks and his grey beard, swinging his whip threateningly over the back of his feet reindeer. Altogether it is a most pleasing picture and a proper emblem of Merry Christmas.

On the back of the handle are the glad bells which ring out the old and "ring in the new," and underneath old Father Time with his cruel scythe. "Happy New Year" completes the decoration on the back of handle.

Altogether it is a most beautiful article suitable for a holiday present for one's self or a friend. The collection of handsome spoons has assumed in many localities the proportion of a huge fad and the spoon is good enough to place beside any of them. This spoon is the most suitable Christmas gift you could make to ladies, Sunday school children, or children in the public or day schools.

Commencing Dec. 5th

We will give away free while they last (supply limited) with each purchase of $5.00, or more Only one Spoon to a customer.

Burlington is the best town in the State. No argument there.

Are you a booster man? If not you have no business in Burlington.

Everything goes but the cook stove, is the slogan at Fleishman's.

Alamance county is the first and foremost county in North Carolina.

The Dispatch is the best advertising medium in Alamance county. If you don't believe it ask Fleishman.

What are the banks doing to boost Burlington? It is their duty to do it, and besides makes better business.

The live ones advertise in the Dispatch, because it goes into more than twenty-five hundred homes every week. That's getting some, don't you think.

Santa Clause made a special trip in an airship to supply the Burlington merchants this year. If you doubt it you only have to look in the show windows. That is proof positive.

The State Dispatch was furnished the proceedings of the County Commissioners of Alamance county until a short time ago. But this has not been done now for some time. There is a reason? Ask Johnston.

For Christmas shopping you will find the largest and best assortment in Burlington. All our stores are full and overflowing with the latest novelties, and the prices are right too. Look over our advertising columns, and find the liveliest ones, then make a rush for those that strike your fancy.

You can always tell a hypocrite in politics, because he will act different while he is trying to be elected from what he does afterward. We know, because we have one in mind now. We may tell you who he is a little later, but we want to give him another chance to prove that we are mistaken.

Will the newly elected county commissioners stop all permanent improvements and stay the hand of progress, or will they be equal to the emergency and make ample provision to carry on the work. This question is being asked by a great many since the last meeting of the board of county commissioners. What will be your answer gentlemen of the board.

Why all this cry upon the part of the County Commissioners that there is no money to do anything with? Surely they are mistaken. We were told by people who would not tell a lie during the recent campaign, that the Democrats only spent about twenty thousand dollars during the first year of their administration, and twenty-nine thousand the second year. Now, the income of the County is thirty-two thousand dollars per year, making sixty-six thousand for the two years, and as the Democrats only spent fifty thousand dollars in the two years, they must have sixteen thousand dollars now in the treasury. Then why all this cry about not having any money? Were you trying to fool the tax payers during the campaign and get them to reelect you, or are you trying to fool them now, or may be you are playing a double game, and are trying to fool them both times.

A Woman's Great Idea

Is how to make herself attractive. But, without health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50 cents at Freeman Drug Co.

Much sickness is due to nervous troubles. Headache, dizziness, epilepsy and insanity are nervous troubles. Restorative Nervine

"NOW IS CHRIST RISEN" Matthew 28:1-20—December 18

THE Scriptures give very particular details respecting the death of Jesus and his burial in Joseph's new tomb, wherein none had previously been buried and respecting the sealing of the tomb and the setting of a guard lest the body should be stolen at night.

Jesus, the risen and glorious, appeared to the women in upper room in a form which they did not expect.

He appeared to the disciples in a form which they did not expect.

But it was not so at the time of our Lord's death and resurrection. It was then very necessary that every little detail should be explicitly specified.

With the majority of Christians for these many centuries we agree that Jesus was in the tomb parts of three days and nights; that he died on Friday afternoon, and that he arose from the dead early on Sunday morning.

"He Rose Again on the Third Day" With the majority of Christians for these many centuries we agree that Jesus was in the tomb parts of three days and nights; that he died on Friday afternoon, and that he arose from the dead early on Sunday morning.

The eleven Apostles were commissioned. "Go ye, disciple all nations." (Y. 19.) This did not signify, as some suppose, a command to convert the world. It meant that they should make disciples out of people of all nationalities—and not any longer, as formerly, of the Jews only.

Another account tells us that Mary, separated from the others, met Jesus alone and, mistaking him for the gardener, asked whether the corpse had been removed.

Trains leave Durham for Roxboro, South Boston and Lynchburg 7:00 a. m. daily, and 5:30 p. m. daily except Sunday.

name, lest he should feel that he was forever rejected because of having denied him!

For forty days Jesus was with his disciples and during that time he appeared some seven or eight times, according to all the different accounts.

Thus did Jesus demonstrate to his disciples the fact that he was no longer dead, but alive, and additionally, the other fact equally important, namely, that he was no longer alive as a man, but as a spirit being.

It is needless that we seek to dispute as to which was the more important event—the death of Jesus or his resurrection from the dead.

Thus Jesus explained to the two with whom he walked to Emmaus on the day of his resurrection, saying, O slow of heart to believe all that God hath spoken in the Law and in the Prophets!

Jesus in another form, as a stranger, walked two of the disciples as they went to Emmaus.

Woman's Beauty

Some women retain their beauty to an advanced age. But women, who regularly endure pain, age rapidly, for suffering leaves its lasting marks on them.

Nearly all women suffer more or less with some form of female trouble. It should not be neglected. Avoid the pain—treat yourself at home by taking Cardui, as thousands of other women have done. Begin at once and give Cardui a fair trial.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Katie Burlison, Goreville, Ill., tried Cardui and writes: "I suffered with female troubles, and was so sick I could not stand on my feet. Finally I began to take Cardui, and soon began to mend. Now I am able to do all my housework and am in much better health than I was before." Try it.
