

TAFT CALLS CONGRESS IN EXTRA SESSION

Washington, D. C. March 4.—President Taft this afternoon issued a call for an extra session of Congress.

The proclamation is as follows: "Whereas by the special message dated January 26, 1911, there was transmitted to the Senate and House of Representatives an agreement between the Department of State and the Canadian government in regard to reciprocal tariff legislation together with an earnest recommendation that the necessary legislation be promptly adopted; and,

"Whereas a bill to carry into effect said agreement has passed the House of Representatives and has failed to reach a vote in the Senate; and,

"Whereas the agreement stipulates not only that the President of the United States will communicate to Congress the conclusion now reached, and recommends the adoption of such legislation as may be necessary on the part of the United States to give effect to the proposed arrangement, but also that the governments of the two countries will use their utmost efforts to bring about such changes by concurrent legislation at Washington and at Ottawa."

"Now, therefore, I, William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power invested in me by the constitution, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the convenance of both Houses of Congress of the United States at their respective chambers in the City of Washington on the Fourth of April, 1911 at 12 o'clock noon, to the end that they may consider and determine whether the congress shall, by the necessary legislation, make operative the agreement.

"All persons entitled to act as members of the Sixty-second Congress are required to take notice of this proclamation.

"Given under my hand and the seal of the United States at Washington, the Fourth day of March, A. D., 1911, and of the Independence of the United States the 135th.

By the President: (Signed) "WILLIAM H. TAFT.
(Signed) "P. C. KNOX,
Secretary of State."

RICHMOND PRINTER COMMITTS SUICIDE.

Richmond, Va., March 5.—Edmund Steptoe, a linotype operator for The Evening Journal here aged 32, and married but without children, went to the operating room of his paper today turned on the gas which runs his machine placed the gas tube in his mouth and died as a result of the inhalation. He worked as usual yesterday, and one of his fellow workmen found him dead at his machine today. No cause for his suicide can be imagined. He left no explanation.

OLD COLORED MAN KILLED BY SEABOARD

Durham, N. C., March 6.—An aged colored man was killed on the Tar river bridge Saturday afternoon by a Seaboard passenger train. The old man was walking on the bridge when the engine overtook him. He was struck a violent blow and thrown into the river by the engine.

The old man seemed to be enfeebled and could make little headway toward getting out of the way of the train. He was almost across the bridge when the engine struck him, but on account of his feebleness could not quite reach safety.

The dead man was picked up by the train crew and left in charge of the section foreman.

Milwaukee soon is to have a convention of coronors. This does not mean that it is a dead town.

ROADS TO SUBMIT AND MAKE NO FIGHT

Washington, March 2.—Complete submission by railroads to the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the great rate cases within the next seven days was predicted by Commissioner Lane today. Lane declared it would never be necessary for the commission to issue a formal order in the case.

"There are no possible grounds on which a logical appeal can be based, and this fact is known to the railroads," said Mr. Lane.

"Representative Eastern and Western roads have already given informal notice that they will comply with the decisions, and there is no doubt in my mind that all the others will follow suit. It is a good thing for all parties, too. An attempt to appeal would only cause a lot of trouble for the commission, and a lot more trouble for the railroads—and nothing would be gained."

A HEN STORY, BUT IT SOUNDS FISHY

Tarrytown, N. Y., March 2.—John Grohan, of Glenville, believes he owns the most intelligent hen in New York State. The hen, which is a white leghorn, is a pet, and Grohan, who is employed in Tarrytown, has to take the trolly every morning. The hen follows him to the tracks and when he steps aboard the hen turns around and goes home.

This morning Grohan overslept and was in such a hurry that he forgot about the hen until he boarded the car. He heard a flapping of wings behind him, and turning, saw the hen flying up from the ground. It lighted on his shoulder, and as it did a coin fell to the ground. It was a nickel. In his hurry Grohan had dropped the coin and the hen picked it up and ran after him.

HAD STOLEN MONEY IN A "RAT" ON HER HEAD

Bristol, Va., March 2.—When Dora Trobaugh, a Bristol woman, was arrested at Johnson City, Tenn., after fleeing from here, following a complaint entered by a farmer that she had robbed him of $105 in gold, a search revealed $65 of the gold concealed in a "rat" on her head. She admitted she had the man's money, and returned it to him to avoid prosecution.

A $300,000 FIRE IN NASHVILLE SUNDAY

Nashville, Tenn., March 5.—Fire starting in the rear of the six story building at 317 and 319 Third Avenue, north, occupied by J. H. Fall Hardware Company, this morning shortly before 7 o'clock, resulted in the almost complete destruction of the entire northern half of the business block, extending along the west side of Third Avenue from Union to Deaderick streets. The loss, the greater part of which is covered by insurance is estimated at $300,000.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

New Merchant Arrived.

Mr. T. J. Mazen of Baltimore, who will open a new and stylish line of goods in the old Fleishman stand, arrived last Thursday. Mr. Mazen tells us his goods were bought to be shipped March first and will be coming in at all times during the month. It is his aim to be ready for his opening by the first of April. He is a very clever gentleman. We are very glad to have him join our merchants.

Massachusetts may raise a few dollars by a bachelor tax; but think of the enormous amount it could get by a tax on old maids!

POPULAR TRAINMAN IN A SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Greensboro Daily News.
Surgeons at St. Leo's hospital early yesterday morning amputated the left limb of W. T. Smith of Graham, the young flagman who was injured in the freight yards of High Point late Thursday night. The excision was made midway between the hip and knee joint, after a thorough diagnosis which showed that, owing to the bones of the foot and leg being so badly crushed, it was impossible to save the limb.

The injured man was a flagman on one of the trough freights between Spencer and Selma, and was at work, with the rest of the train crew, shifting cars in the yard at High Point when the accident occurred, which caused the loss of the limb.

The injured man was brought to this city on No. 12 and carried immediately to St. Leo's hospital. His sufferings were intense, and, according to the surgeon who attended him, the young man came very near death on account of the severe shock. At a late hour last night, however, it was stated over the telephone from the hospital, that he was resting well and would recover.

Mr. Smith is the son of James Smith, of Graham, and has a wife and one child. He is very popular among the railroad men and many have been to the hospital to see him.

ORDER 100,000 BIBLES

New York, March 2.—One hundred thousand bibles have been ordered for general distribution by the Gideons, as the members of the Christian Travelers Association of America, style themselves. The order is said to be the largest ever placed, and it forms part of a national plan to place a bible in every hotel bedroom in the country.

W. E. Henderson, national secretary of the Gideons, said here today that he has been promised one-fourth of the order for San Francisco and the Pacific Coast. It is planned that the 25,000 bibles, the largest number ever shipped at one time, shall reach San Francisco in time for the triennial convention of the International Sunday School Association, which will be held in the latter part of June.

For every bible there will be a member of the adult bible classes of San Francisco to march through the streets in parade, a Gideon's bible in his hand and at the end of the parade each marcher will build his bible into a gigantic pyramid to be crected on the platform of the convention auditorium, there to stand as an object lesson while the convention is in session.

DISORDERLY NEGRO SHOT TO DEATH BY A MOB

Marianna, Fla. March 5.—Calvin Baker, a negro who came here from Georgia recently was shot to death by a mob at Cypress a small town near here last night. Baker had threatened to shoot up the town, is said, and attempted to shoot the town marshal when that officer went to place him under arrest, on a charge of disorderly conduct. Later he was arrested by a posse and placed in the lockup. Some time in the night a mob battered down the door of the jail and poured a fusillade of shots into Baker's body.

The Street Car track was placed on the market from the Court House door at Graham Saturday and was bid off by J. W. Murray at the figures $26030.00. The confirmation of the sale will come before Judge Daniels who is holding court at Graham this week. Nothing further can be done until it is confirmed. The selling price of the line when before sold was $10,000.

Mrs. W. H. Fogleman is the guest of her sons Messrs. John and Lea of Oxford.

DANVILLE' CHIEF POLICE AN ESCAPED MURDERER

Danville, Va., March 3.—Edgar Stripling, who for five years has been chief of police of Danville, under the name of R. E. Morris, was arrested here yesterday afternoon as an escaped murderer from the Atlanta, Ga., prison. In 1897 he was tried for murder, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. He escaped pending a motion for a new trial.

Stripling held a cool nerve and promptly confessed when the requisition papers were read to him. He was taken back tonight. Since his escape Stripling's wife has joined him. They have ten children.

The return journey to Atlanta in custody of two officers was begun at midnight. The scene as Morris bid farewell to his wife and children and hundreds of friends was pathetic, even more than one could imagine without witnessing the incident. It was a scene such as few people are ever called upon to witness, and Morris passed through it as he has the 15 years since he renounced the name of Stripling—fearlessly and without emotion. Previously, at his home, when he was allowed to spend two hours with his family, he wept copiously. It was an unpleasant duty was the only statement of officers who formed the guard for this family gathering of grief would make.

Stripling came here from what could be learned last night, about 10 years ago. He worked for the Southern railway as night watchman for a time. He made friends and held them and his private life was without a blemish, apparently. Five years ago the city went dry. Morris had been serving as patrolman. The eyes of the law and order league immediately fell upon him and with this support he was made chief. His official conduct was such that he has twice since been re-elected.

PRISONER SEVERELY BURNED IN HENDERSON CITY PRISON

Henderson, March 5.—Quite a bit of excitement was created in the early hours of last night, when it was learned that the town lock-up was on fire. Only one person occupied the building and he gave the alarm by terrific yells. Had it not been for the promptness of the fire department, the flames would have proved fatal to the prisoner. When the firemen broke down the door with an axe, they found the building in full blaze and the occupant about exhausted from the effects of dense smoke. He received several severe burns on his hand.

STRIPLING IS LANDED IN JAIL AT COLUMBUS

Columbus, Ga., March 4.—Edgar Stripling, former police chief of Danville, Va., arrested for killing W. V. Cornett at Hamilton, Ga., fourteen years ago, was brought here this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff G. N. Williams, of Harris County, Ga., and placed in jail to await the disposition of his case. He has a life sentence hanging over him but many persons in Georgia favor a pardon in view of his apparent good record since he escaped from the authorities in 1897.

Mrs. Sarah Cheek wife of Mr. Joe Cheek died in her home at the May place between Burlington and Glen Raven March 3rd, 1911 aged a little more than 42 years. Before her death Mrs. Cheek gave every evidence of being ready to go. She leaves a husband and 5 children and 4 sisters. Her funeral was conducted in Bethel M. E. Church Mar. 4 at 1 p. m. by Rev. J. D. Andrew.

FORMER CAROLINIAN KILLED IN NORFOLK

Norfolk, Va., March 3.—Walter B. Gwyn, formerly a prominent citizen of Asheville, N. C., but who has resided here since 1906, was killed in an elevator accident in the Dickson building while on his way to his office. Mr. Gwyn was about to step from the elevator when it fell caught his leg and struck him upon the head, the sharp hood covering of the car terribly cutting and mangling the side of his face.

Guy Bell, the colored elevator boy, and the only eye witness to the affair, was later arrested upon a technical charge of murder.

Mr. Gwyn, who married Miss Cunningham, of the prominent North Carolina family by that name, was formerly wealthy and was a large investor at Asheville. He was formerly secretary of the Norfolk and Southern Railway Company prior to its receivership.

PASSENGER JUMPED FROM MOVING TRAIN

Asheville, N. C., March 3.—Ed Lavendar, a passenger on train No. 21, yesterday afternoon and holding a ticket from Marion to Greensboro, leaped from the rear end of the train about 200 yards before it reached the passenger landing at Greenlee. The cause of the rash deed is unknown, but it is supposed that he became excited and losing control of himself, temporarily, took the leap. He fell upon the tracks and was badly bruised. His arm was broken above the elbow and his scalp lacerated. He was taken to Old Fort and attended by the company physician, Dr. McInish. He was employed at a saw mill and is a married man, having two children. He is expected to recover.

FIRE HAS BEEN BURNING IN ONE HOME 80 YEARS

Mr. J. C. Wrenn tells the Roxboro Courier of a remarkable family. Their name is McKees, living in Orange county, near Little River church, and, by the way, among the very best people to be found, who, he says, has had the same fire in the fire place for more than 80 years, and possibly longer than that. The old fork on which the pots were hung in the olden times is still hanging in the fire place and is known to have been in use for more than 110 years. They own a mule, which is doing good work, that is known to be 47 years old. They are not much on style or fashion, but just to be in line a score or more years ago they bought a box of matches, and the box is still full.

These good people buy nothing which can be made at home or raised on the farm, and are setting this generation a good example. —Winston Daily Sentinel.

GAYNOR AND GREEN SENT BACK TO FEDERAL PRISON

Atlanta, Ga., March 7.—Denied the privilege of taking the pauper's oath and swearing off the fine of $575,000 imposed by the government in connection with prison sentences, Benjamin D. Green and John F. Gaynor today were sent back to the federal prison to await further action in their cases. The hearing was postponed until March 21, when the government representatives expect to show that Green and Gaynor have considerable property under cover and are not entitled to the privilege of the pauper's oath.

Alexander Ackerman, special assistant to the attorney general, representing the government, declared today at the hearing before United States Commissioner Colquitt that Green and Gaynor were convicted of embezzling more than $575,000 from the government in connection with harbor improvement work at Savannah.

MAIL SACK VINDICATES REV. C. E. BURDETTE

Package Containing $3,500 Disappeared While Mr. Burdette Was an Illinois Postal Clerk.

A Peoria, Ill., dispatch says that Rev. Charles Edwin Burdette, brother of "Bob" Burdette, the humorist, has been vindicated after thirty years of any blame in connection with the disappearance of $3,500 from a registered letter package sent out by the Peoria Post Office, of which he was registry clerk.

The $3,500 disappeared in 1881, after it was put in a registered letter by the late John Comstock. The evidence was against young Burdette, and after the first investigation, Comstock demanded that Gen. D. Magee, postmaster at Peoria who died last year, immediately discharge the registry clerk.

Comstock carried the matter to Washington and an inspector came from Chicago. He recommended that Burdette be discharged, but the postmaster refused to do so, and Burdette held his position. Burdette was working to get money to study for the ministry.

A few years after the Comstock money was missed, Burdette left the Post Office and went to Brown University, and then to Newton Academy. When he was ordained minister he was assigned as a missionary in Assam India. He now has a pastorate at Springfield, Mass.

Into the repair shop at San Francisco a few days ago a battered mail sack was sent to be patched. It was a veteran, and to repair it meant practically a new sack. The first man to inspect the pouch decided it needed a new bottom, and with a knife he ripped the bottom. Above it he saw a big manila envelope, caught by the corners which served practically as a false bottom. He opened it and found it to contain the two Comstock letters and the missing $3,500, which had been wandering about the country for thirty years.

When the finding of the money was reported to the Peoria Post Office friends telegraphed to Mr. Burdette that the cloud hanging over him for so long had been dispelled.

"Keep Gittin"

The preaching of perseverance—or any other practical duty—is often more forcible in the language of an ignorant man than that of a learned man. Here is a little sermon in colored English, but full of common sense for that class of people who feel that Dame Nature insulted them when she refused to allow them to be born rich. Even the hen has to scratch for the worm, but these people expect the worm to crawl within reach and ask for the privilege of being eaten.
"My friends," said Plato Johnson, in one of his oratorical moods, "the world am so constertuted dat while dar am just 'bout 'nuff fur every-body who is willing to work, dar ain't a morsel left fur de man who sits under de trees an' spects de apples to fall into his mouf. Now, I's studied apples all my days, an' I neber knew one dat wouldn't hang onto de limb until it was shook down—dat is, ob course, a sound sensible apple."
"Don't stan' round de corner of de street wid a mild expectation dat de man who libs dar is going to come out on de cold sidewalk an' ask you to be his son-in-law."
"I've seen many a mam loafing 'roun' Forty-second Street Depot as though he felt sure dat if he stayed dar long 'nuff Mr. Vanderbilt would come out and hand him a cheque for one million dollars, and say, 'young man, take this small pile and be happy.'"
"No, de better way am to git your eye fixed on somethin' an' den keep movin,' keep movin.' De whole philosophy of life is in de little words, 'Keep Gittin, and after awhile you are sho' to find yourself somewhere.'"

The Teeth.

By J. S. FROST, D. D. S.

The Cause of Irregular Teeth.

The foundation for irregular teeth is laid before the child reaches his teens. At this age in a child's life the parents are responsible for his or her future welfare. To those who know the importance of the proper care of the baby teeth, it seems almost impossible that people who are refined and highly educated in other matters are often oblivious to the fact if they do not provide their children with tooth brushes an alkaline powder, paste or liquid dentifrice, which may be procured at any drug store, and demand that they be used each night before retiring, that their teeth will decay, and ache, and often have to be extracted before the succeeding permanent ones are due to appear. That the baby teeth are extracted prematurely the space which they occupied will not only quit growing, but will continually contract. That if this space contracts the permanent teeth which are larger than the first set, will not have room to come in the space where the other teeth were. On the other hand, if one of the temporary teeth are left in to long it will cause the succeeding permanent ones to come to one side which cause an unsightly disfigurement. The first teeth should be as carefully guarded against decay as the permanent ones, lest they give trouble and have to be prematurely extracted.

Remember, the permanent teeth are developing in the gums, and at the proper time they are coming down. If they cannot come down as they should they will wedge, lap, come side-ways, and look horrible, from the fact that the parents have not aided nature in maintaining the proper space that was intended for them.

We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Road Building.

Philadelphia Record.

As cities grow the making of highways to adjust and facilitate intercourse between center and circumference becomes an increasingly difficult and costly problem. Suburban growth always first accommodates itself to the smaller suburban need, without due reference to larger needs and exigencies when the suburb becomes a component part of the metropolis. The present complicated situation in Philadelphia arising from the necessity for new arrangement of the means of transit between the older settled city and its newer outlying edges, is in nowise uncommon or phenomenal. As roads are always built for today instead of tomorrow, the processes of readjustment are costly.

The city of London finds it vital activities seriously crippled by past neglect to keep open proper avenues of access to exterior London. The Board of Trade has been wrestling with the problem and as a result recommends the making of new trunk roads leading out of London and joining up the suburbs, to the length of 100 miles, with improvement of already existing roads for 25 miles. Owing to the vast increase of suburban land values the enormous cost of such an undertaking will probably prevent its adoption.

Letter from Mr. Stout.

Danville, Ind. Feb. 28 1911. To The State Dispatch.—As I am a native of North Carolina of which I am proud and a reader of the Dispatch. It was in the state of North Carolina where I spent my boyhood days but for the last forty-two years I have been absent from the state still I have a warm place in my heart for the people and my birthplace. Last August I made a trip down there to see my relatives and friends my stay was short, I saw a great many of my relatives and school mates but there were others that I would have been much pleased to have seen but my time was limited and I failed to see them. On taking my departure I promised some of my friends to write to them and take this means to let them hear from me. Were I to attempt to write each one separately I am sure some one would be left.

Some time ago in the columns of the Dispatch I saw an account of the death of Mr. Thos. McVey I saw him when a small boy and knew the McVey family well. I see in my last paper an account of the death of Mr. Thomas Russell which was quite a shock to me as I had not learned that he was sick until I saw an account of his death. I extend my sympathy to the family and friends and share my part of the sorrow.

Now we come back to our mother state North Carolina. Snow Camp Alamance County where my younger days were spent. I failed to find a great many people who were there when I first left, but those that I did see gave me a very hearty welcome to which I extend thanks.

I have been in almost every state in the Union from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Lakes to the Gulf and have had almost all Nationalities to deal with, but I will say that the people of North Carolina rank with the best for sociability.

The State Dispatch is a welcome visitor at my home I enjoy reading the news from the different correspondents. I am sure it affords me pleasure to hear from my old school mates and friends. In the years from 1862-64 there were but few buildings south of the Railroad and no business outside of the car shops. Now we find quite a village and lots of business and it seemed like each and every one was rushing his part of the business. I will say our winter here has been comparatively nice for this country we have had some cold weather but not as cold as some winters. The weather-man promised us twenty snows this winter and I think we have had most of them, while our snow fall has been small none over six inches deep, it is snowing now and the outlook is for a big one. We have had plenty of rain and mud to contend with.

J. P. Stout.

Brother Stout says he would be glad to hear from his friends.

"A Milwaukee woman disappeared rather than marry a man with only $13." Served him right. Why did he not raise another dollar or spend a nickel of the $13? He ought to have known that some women are very superstitious.

One thing against an extra session is that it would conflict with baseball.

Train Robbers Convicted.

George Anderson, alias "Old Bill" Miner, Geo. Handford and J. E. Hunter, accused of members of the gang which held up the United States fast mail, a Southern Railway train near White Sulphur Springs, Ga., February 18, were convicted at a special term of the Hall County Superior Court held Friday Mar. 3rd, and sentenced to prison, Anderson for twenty years, and Handford and Hunter for fifteen years. Each of the prisoners arose and thanked the Judge for not imposing heavier sentences. Anderson entered a plea of not guilty at the beginning of the trial, but the other two turned states evidence against him stating that the five organized a club while in the state of Pennsylvania, and that Anderson was the leader. Two of the gang have not been captured. Anderson is wanted in Victoria, B. C. to serve the remainder of a penitentiary sentence for train robbery. The officers were only five days from the date of the act until three of the robbers were caught.

Robert Garrison of High Point spent Sunday in town the guest of friends. Mr. Garrison has many friends here. He was formerly salesman for B. Goodman.

Just Half in Bed.

Clyde, Ky.—Mrs. I. A. Decker, writes from Clyde, "I recommend Cardui, the woman's tonic, to any woman in need of a remedy. For five years, I was unable to do my work. Half my time was spent in bed. At times, I could not stand. At last I tried Cardui. Now I am well and happy, and can do my own work." THIS PAPER REPRESENTS FOREIGN ADVERTISING BY THE

GENERAL OFFICES
NEW YORK AND CHICAGO
BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES

Wednesday, March 8, 1911.

Wouldn't it be great if the country could have a rest from Congress from March until December.

The world is getting better. There were only two arrests last year of presidents for looting banks, under their charge.

A Democrat was one of the most fervent and furious defenders of an accused Republican Senator. This reciprocity business seems to be spreading.

Col. Bryan, we hear, has spent a good deal of his time this winter supervising the planting of his citrus orchard in Texas. Is not citrus something like a lemon.

The editor of the Gleaner did not like it much because the Dispatch saw cause to take a shot at his target, after he had invited it. Keep your cap down if you don't want it perforated.

The good roads movement appears to be taking right hold of the people throughout the State. Well, let the good work go on. There is nothing that adds more to the convenience of a community than good roads.

One of the fifteen cent magazines that are most vigorously protesting against paying more postage on their advertising sections comes out for March so buried in advertising that you can't find the reading matter.

The people of the State can now breathe a sigh of relief. The Legislature has finished its work and gone home. If they did anything real bad we do not know it, and what little good they did will not starve the natives.

Matthews township Chatham county, in which is located the thriving village of Siler City, is advocating a bond election for the improvement of the public works of the township. A good idea if the money is judiciously expended.

It is to be hoped that the grand jury now in session for Alamance county, will find the institutions of the county in better shape than a like body found things in Guilford county last week. We would reproduce the report, but it is too lengthy.

Another Alamance county man lands a good fat piece of pie. Hon. J. Elmer Long, of Graham, has been appointed to the position of private secretary to Congressman Stedman, and will assume his duties about April 1st. We are glad the position was given to an Alamance man.

Wrong as Usual.

The Gleaner in last weeks issue says that The Dispatch has turned its guns from salaries and leveled them at the editor of the Gleaner, and then, as if he thought he was getting even with some body takes a fling at some post master in Alamance county, who he says is editor of The Dispatch. We have no idea who he has in mind. The editor of The Dispatch, and one who wrote the offending article, is not an office holder, either as post master or county official, and no post master saw the article or was even consulted about it, and knew nothing about it until it appeared in print. There is only one editor in chief of The Dispatch, and his name appears upon the editorial page of this paper every week.

There are several post masters who are stockholders in The Dispatch and therefore it would be hard to tell just who the Gleaner had in mind. However, we have made some inquiries and find that Mr. Finley L. Williamson, and William W. Brown, chairmen of the county Democratic and Republican Executive Committee respectively, knowing the ability and political sagacity of our townsman and Post master, Mr. J. Zeb. Waller, and desiring his advice and experiend in arriving at a fair and just table of salaries for the various county officers, sought his aid in the matter, we presume this is what the editor of the Gleaner has reference to when he says: "Did not its editor post master take a hand in naming the compensation for the county officers, and helped to put them down from two-thirds to one-third for what he receives for peeping into his post office."

Now if the editor of the Gleaner blames Mr. Waller for not receiving any more as editor Clerk of the Superior Court, then that is a matter between them, and we shall not attempt to defend him. We have never heard any one, either Democrat or Republican accuse Zeb of not being able to take care of and defend himself. But this we do know, and is known of all men of all parties, that when the Democrats tackle some good roads, prohibition or bond proposition, that is not very popular with the people, and they are anxious to have it carried, they invariably seek Zeb's help, and he has never failed to turn the trick. So if he has now turned the trick against the county officers by having them placed upon a salary basis, lower than they think is their due, our Democratic brethren should take their medicine, and feel grateful that they are no lower, for many there be that think now the salaries were fixed to high.

The salary basis will not affect the present set of officers, and we are of the opinion that the voters and tax payers will not suffer any inconvenience in finding good men to fill the offices.

As to our guns being leveled at the editor of the Gleaner, perish the thought. We were not aware that the Gleaner had an editor, as we have never seen an editorial in its columns since its appearance as one of our exchanges. Don't take it to heart neighbor, has not the salary for your office been fixed at a greater amount than you have been receiving? If not then you have only your Democratic friends to blame, for they said you did not get that much, and further, that a competent Clerk of the Court could not be secured for the amount you now receive, thereby leaving the impression that you were not competent. Take a fall out with them, you have no just cause of complaint against us.

At Court.

A number of minor cases have been disposed of during the first two days of court. The case against Lea Watson, the negro who stole Mr. Homewood's horse, was tried and Watson sentenced for five years. The negro boy Jim Brown who broke into Isley's store was given two years.

McEane's Sunday night. Ira Lewis and sister Sallie visited at W. M. Lewis's Sunday. Green Graded School closed Saturday, with a spelling contest and other games of interest, between the former and Spring Graded School. Spring won in the spelling contest. Crayton and family visited at Will Ivey's Sunday.

Don't Worry, Live Long.

The worry fatalities are not collected and tabulated by the health boards along with the deaths from tuberculosis, pneumonia and other maladies, and it is a pity that they are not. Worry undoubtedly runs into a good many ills that are given other names, and it is quite generally difficult to trace a fatal disorder back to the worrying state of mind in which it originated. Experienced physicians are in agreement in the conclusion that worry is the greatest of all producers of a receptive attitude for serious ills.

People who don't worry live longer—much longer upon the average—than people who do worry. In New York last week Mrs. Bella Goldberg died, after having been on earth 107 years. Her life-long motto was "Don't worry," and she practiced what she preached—she never worried. At the age of 102 her lower extremities were paralyzed, but that didn't worry her. Up to the very moment of her death she maintained a bright and active mental attitude.

Don't preach to yourself the pessimistic doctrine that we are what we are—that is, that we are what heredity and circumstances have made us. Men by taking thought may not be able to increase their own stature, but by taking thought he can immensely influence his own mental attitude. By determinedly saying to himself, "I won't worry; I will be cheerful," he can gradually and surely banish the worry habit and establish the habit of cheerfulness. Try it. Keep on trying it. Stop worrying.—Baltimore American.

Not as Bad as Reported.

Editor The State Dispatch: The accounts that have been sent out to the Daily papers concerning our financial troubles are somewhat inaccurate and calculated to do us injustice. Our personal liabilities are largely overstated and the assets of the Trolinwood Mfg. Co., largely understated.

Our personal unsecured liabilities are less than six thousand combined. Our trouble was brought about by accommodation endorsement. A large majority of our liabilities is of this nature and a greater part of this will be paid dollar for dollar independent of our endorsement. Still in filing our schedules in bankruptcy we had to list all liabilities both actual and contingent.

We hope you will publish this as we have surrendered everything we had and do not want to be put in a false light before the public.

B. S. ROBERTSON, JNO. A. TROLINWOOD

Difficult Scriptures on Hell. A little Book selling at only ten cents, postpaid, is having a very wide circulation—running up into the millions. It contains some very startling information respecting the meaning of the word Hell. It claims to demonstrate, both from the Hebrew and the Greek of our Bible, that Hell is NOT a place of eternal torment, but merely another name for the TOMB, the GRAVE, THE STATE OF DEATH. It affects to show that man was not redeemed from a far-off place of eternal torture, but quotes the Scriptures proving that he was REDEEMED from the GRAVE at the cost of his Redeemer's LIFE and that the Scriptural Hope, both for the Church and the World, is a resurrection hope based upon the death and resurrection of Jesus. The book is certainly worth the reading. The information it furnishes is certainly valuable, far beyond its trifling cost. Order it at once from the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y.
