COTTON MILL PROMOTER ENDS LIFE WITH A GUN

Lynchburg, Va., April 13.—A. C. Hutchinson, president and treasurer of the Alta Vista Cotton Mills, in course of erection at Alta Vista, twenty-five miles south of this city, yesterday shot himself through the right temple, the bullet passing through his head. He died instantly. Persons who heard the shot rushed to Hutcherson's office. They found the body upon the floor, blood flowing from the wound. Near by in a pool of blood was the revolver from which the shot had been fired. The coroner's jury failed to find a motive for the act, but brought in a verdict of suicide. The funds of the Alta Vista Company were exhausted last winter and construction work ceased in December. It is understood, however, that Hutchinson had sold sufficient stock to carry the work to completion, and that work was to have been resumed shortly. Hutchinson formerly lived in Charlotte, N. C., and the body was last night sent to that city for burial.

FORMER ALAMANCE MAN DIES IN WEST DURHAM

At one o'clock this morning he passed away at his home in West Durham Mr. L. T. Rippey, a well-known Confederate veteran. Mr. Rippey had been ill for more than a year with Bright's disease. He was aged 64 years. He was a native of Alamance county, coming here five years ago. Surviving is his wife and four children, Mrs. J. A. Perry, of North Lowell; Mrs. W. C. Warren, of Durham; Mr. L. Otto Rippey, of this city, and Mr. D. O. Rippey. There is also one brother surviving, Mr. G. L. Rippey, of Alamance county. The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his late home on Yearby avenue in West Durham. Interment will be made at Maplewood cemetery. The military boys are in Raleigh for a few days this week.

ENLISTED MEN TO GET PAY FOR BEING READY

Raleigh, April 13.—Adjutant General R. L. Leinster, of the North Carolina National guard, is just back from Washington, where he attended joint session of the executive committee of the National Guard association and the adjutant generals of the states for the consideration of a variety of matters pertaining to the guard, and is enthusiastic over the spirit of co-operation that is evident between the officials of the guard in the states and the war department. He believes that very soon now there will be enacted the law providing part pay for the enlisted men of the guard to some what compensate them for their "readiness service." This pay will, he thinks, bring with it the requirement that when war breaks out every enlisted man in the guard at the time will be obligated to serve two years from that time without regard for the time of his enlisted service in the guard. General Leinster approves this change in the law on the ground that the government is entitled to this protection in retention of men trained for the service at the expense of the government.

HUMAN FLESH BEING SOLD IN THE FAMINE DISTRICT

Seattle, Wash., April 14.—Human flesh is being sold in Manchuria, where the plague continues to abate, according to advices brought here today by the Japanese steamship Kamakura, which departed from Yokohama on March 28. Kumatao Hishara, in charge of the crematorium in Kudzuibui, was arrested March 23, charged with selling human flesh. According to the Kokumin and other Tokio papers, a search resulted in finding a large quantity of human flesh either toasted or salted and ten human tongues preserved in pots. Lawless continues in Manchuria. Six Japanese were killed recently on the Chinese Eastern railway. While a party of Russian soldiers were proceeding along the border near Harbin they were fired at by 200 Chinese troops. The Russians fled.

TENNESSEE MAN AT HIS OWN FUNERAL

Bristol, Tenn., April 13.—In the midst of a solemn burial service, when members of the family were seeing lowered into the grave what they believed to be the body of their husband and father, James Swecker, the man supposed to be dead suddenly appeared upon the scene to the utter amazement of the funeral party. This happened Wednesday in the village of Timber Ridge, near Greenville, Tenn. Swecker is a veteran of the Civil War, and a somewhat eccentric character. Last fall he announced himself as a candidate for Congress in the First Tennessee district, canvassing every county. He disappeared from his home a few days ago. The body of a man answering Swecker's description was found by Southern Railway employes. Death resulted either from murder or from being struck by a train. In a pocket of the dead man were found papers containing the name of Swecker, and this, together with marked resemblances led to a positive identification. The coffin was raised from the grave and further examination leads to the conclusion that the body is that of a man named Melengore, who recently disappeared from his home at Morristown, Tenn.

PRESIDENT MAY APPOINT ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC JUDGE

Washington, April 13.—President Taft is seriously considering the appointment of another Democrat to the United States district bench to succeed William H. Brawley of South Carolina, who has indicated his intention to retire. Several Democrats have been mentioned to the President for this judgeship and today he talked with former Governor Martin F. Ansel of South Carolina and Representative Aiken of that State about the appointment. The President has disregarded party lines in his selection of judges and it is believed that he may do so in this case although he is under stood not to have decided definitely upon a successor to Judge Brawley.

SHOOTING AT CHAPEL HILL PROVES FATAL

Chapel Hill, April 11.—Henry Jones, who was shot by Ernest Ray last Thursday afternoon during an affray, died last night at his home at Venable, near Chapel Hill. The coroner's inquest, held this afternoon, found that Jones came to his death at the hands of Ernest Ray. Ray was carried to the county jail at Hillsboro last night.

JONES'S SLAYER IS RELEASED ON BAIL

Durham, N. C., April 13.—Before Judge Daniels this morning at Roxboro, habeas corpus proceedings secured the release of Ernest Ray, charged with the killing of Henry Jones, last week at Chapel Hill. The coroner's evidence was submitted to the Judge and from this he made up his mind. All the evidence showed aggression upon the part of Jones and there is testimony that he had a weapon, though did not display it. Solicitor Gattis called for $10,000 bond, and Ray's attorneys wanted $5,000. The judge split the difference.

JUDGE BOYD ORDERS RELEASE OF A S. C. NEGRO

Greensboro, April 13.—Judge Boyd today ordered the sheriff of Forsyth county to release from custody John Crockett, the negro who was arrested in Winston-Salem on March 23 for an offense alleged to have been committed at Lancaster, S. C. Judge Boyd found that the South Carolina proceeding was one to enforce a debt and under the rules relating to interstate extradition the defendant could not be carried to South Carolina to stand trial. The matter came before Judge Boyd on a habeas corpus proceeding instituted by defendant's attorney, ex-Judge E. B. Jones.

MIDDLE WEST VISITED BY DESTRUCTIVE TORNADO

Kansas City, Mo., April 13.—Twenty-four persons are known to be dead and several are reported missing today as a result of a tornado which swept over western Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma yesterday. Reports are coming in hourly of damage done in cities and in the country and it is estimated that the total loss to property will exceed $1,000,000. In Big Heart, Oklahoma, eight persons were killed. Four perished at Meeker, Okla. Three were killed at Hiawatha, Kansas. Two were killed at Chicotah, Oklahoma; two at Lawrence, Kansas, and two in Powhatan. In Whiting, Kansas, Manville, Kansas, and Germantown, Kansas, one person was killed. More than 100 persons were injured and nearly all telephone and telegraph lines in the territory are down. Another tornado was reported from Lawrence, Kansas, before the wires went down. The wind wrecked houses and barns and tore a strip nearly 100 yards wide through some portions of its course.

ANOTHER BATCH OF STATE MILITIA OFFICERS TO FRONT

Washington, April 14.—True to its promise of permitting as many as possible of the militia officers to play at the game of war now in progress at San Antonio, Texas, and San Diego, Cal., the war department today designated the number of officers from each state who will compose the second detail of militiamen with the regulars for instruction purposes. These national guard officers will go to the southern camps on April 25 for a stay of two weeks, relieving the first detail sent southward early in the month. Two hundred and one militia officers will go to San Antonio and 35 to San Diego, collected from the various states and territories. Southern states will be represented at San Antonio as follows: Alabama, 6; Arkansas, 3; Florida, 3; Georgia, 5; Kentucky, 4; Louisiana, 4; Mississippi, 3; North Carolina, 5; Oklahoma, 2; South Carolina, 3; Tennessee, 3; Texas, 6; Virginia, 4; and West Virginia, 2.

WHITE FURNITURE COMPANY COMPLETES BIG CONTRACT

Mebane, N. C., April 15.—There was shipped today the last of Ninety four cars of solid mahogany furniture for the War Department from The White Furniture Company. This furniture went to every State in the United States and Hawaii, Porto Rico, and Philippines, to the Homes of the Army Officers and was all solid Mahogany throughout and of high class. The Government Inspector, Capt. C. L. Johnson who has been detailed on this job since July, left tonight for Philadelphia.

Col. Baker Deputy Quartermaster General of the United States Army and in charge of the Philadelphia Depot has advised the shippers that he has not received a single complaint of any kind whatever and your correspondent has been advised that this is the only furniture contract of which this could be truly said. Such an accomplishment by Southern capital and Southern labor should show to the world that the South can make good furniture along with the best in the world.

When one considers the magnitude of such a contract and of so high a grade of furniture; that some of the cars of rough lumber cost as much as $3,850.00; that the contract was completed on the date agreed without the rejection of a single piece and without a single complaint though subjected to rigid inspection at destination as well; he can appreciate the efficiency of such a great Southern Establishment.

Rev. Dr. Hulten Talks plainly—
Pastor of the First Baptist Church Lectures on "The Election Aftermath—Tells of Experiences of His Own at a Polling Place.

Charlotte Observer

A congregation which taxed the capacity of the commodious building crowded the First Baptist church last night to hear the pastor, Rev. Dr. Herman H. Hulten deliver a sermon-lecture on "The Election Aftermath." They expected a message "hot from the anvil" and they were not disappointed. Speaking from personal observation the preacher declared that the polls at Tuesday's municipal election was steeped in dirty slush, and that it was not different from others in the past. He denounced with feeling the men who "fired the hearts of others with liquor" and used money "for the purpose of prostituting manhood and perverting the ballot," and had somewhat to say to "the political demagogue who inflames the hearts of men by arraigning class against class."

The address was delivered in the speaker's most compelling and dramatic style and was heard with interest.

"Ever since the announcement that I would speak tonight on the subject," said Dr. Hulten in beginning, "there has been not a little comment, both pro and con, but I feel sure that after I have finished this address on this somewhat politico-social subject you will agree that I have not departed from my rightful sphere. And hence if there are any of those present who would abridge my liberty, or in other words, shut my mouth, it is evident that you do not apprehend the full sphere of a minister's influence. I shall not permit this church or any church to place me in a separate class from other men. I am a citizen as you are a citizen. I am a man as you are a man, enjoying the possession of the ballot just as you do and I have a right to whatever you have a right to. Why, then, all this twaddling talk about minister's seeming intrusion into public affairs, if he only seeking to apply moral standards to the conduct of our political institutions.

"We are all one great brotherhood," he continued, "affected by the same influences, dominated by the same passions, and God has seen fit to endow us with the same faculties and we are obedient to the same laws. Hence our religion is justly as truly social in its character as it is spiritual. And you, brother, have no right to draw your skirts about you and remain in aloofness from the things of public life because there may be something about them which is repugnant to your nature. You must make your life a great contribution to every-thing with which it comes in contact and enlarge the waves of your influence until they encompass the men, women and children of your city. Whatever I shall say tonight—and I hope to speak hot from the anvil—it is not to be construed as an espousal of the cause of any man and is not to be taken as a cause of offense by any one. I have not yet had the far lost sight of the dignity of the pulpit as to use it for indulgence in personalities. My lecture tonight is not a man's performance. It is a message from God."

Dr. Hulten stated the importance of the election to office of a man of integrity from the standpoint of the business interests of the city. If the mayor and Aldermen are dishonest and the courts are subject to bribery, then there is no protection whatever of any interest. So you have no right to say, as a merchant said the speaker the other day, he took part in an election because of its low features, "even the polls are submerged in slush, and if ever the polls were submerged in slush, dirty slush, the polls of your city were in the election."

"What kind of man is your chief of police? What kind of man is your recorder?" demanded Dr. Hulten. "See to it that there is no estrangement between your recorder and your chief of police. For, mark you, your recorder, cannot pass judgment and mete out punishment offenders, unless the police apprehend him and bring him to court. And what incentive is there for the chief of police to apprehend the violator of the law, if the recorder is going to release him on a minimum punishment. And what kind of man is your city solicitor? That is an important consideration."

"The educational life of your city demands the election of men of integrity. Did you ever stop to think how many thousands of children there are in our public schools? Did you ever stop to calculate how great an influence is exerted on this mighty mass of coming men and women by virtues or the vices of the men you elect to office. Their intelligence and their virtues will exactly correspond. Instead, therefore, of legislating the Bible out of the public schools, let's drive it further in.

"Our domestic life demands the election of men of high character to fill our offices in a city like Charlotte (pause) where prohibition prevails—with a tremendous interrogation point after the last statement; in a city like Charlotte—where drug stores retail whiskey unmolested, where social clubs are confessedly organized to take the place of the open saloons where any old soak can get prescription for liquor for the measly sum of fifty cents and where any old sot can get drunk, knowing that he will not be punished more severely than by a fine of $5 and costs, and if he has any influence or social standing, he can escape on the payment merely of the costs, a little bit more than $4.

"Our church life demands it. The church ought not to be called on to grapple with these evils with which the evil law ought to contend.

"Now, by the logic of regular sequent I come to the highest expression of American citizenship—B-A-L-L-O-T. Men, I want to flaunt that in your faces. Men, I want to grip your conscience with that. Men, I want to smite you head and heart, as with the stroke of a mighty pile driver, B-A-L-L-O-T."

Dr. Hulten explained how in this form of government it has been arranged that the will of the people shall be expressed by the ballot and that expression shall take form in an administration clothed with sovereignty and surrounded by dignity. The ballot is the starting point. No other part of the government can so ill afford to be corrupt. The courts may be corrupt, and have been, the Legislatures may be corrupt, and they have been, but the power of the people's ballot has eventually corrected those evils. But when you strike at the ballot itself, you have a case of heart disease on hand. Here is where the mighty propulsive power of our government is propagated. No other part of our government is so vital and yet so full of death when tampered with.

"But, you ask me, 'What has all this to do with our recent municipal election?' I have a sign of vain regret and answer, 'It has much to do.' Last Tuesday in Charlotte was a day of excessive debauch, made so by election money and election whiskey, confessedly used for the purpose of prostituting manhood and perverting the ballot, and our fair city is suffering today for the stain put upon her name."

After reading comments from a newspaper whose reliability he complimented, Dr. Hulten said, "But it is not necessary for me to turn to it, if you please. If I can believe my own eyes, I have a few remarks to make."

The stillness of the congregation assumed an increased intensity, if possible. The preacher continued:

"Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock I had occasion to pass through one of the polling places. I was not on my way to vote, because I was out of the city when registration was in progress. I was on my way to visit a man who is ill with typhoid fever. As I approached, I saw about it a motley crowd. By whose authority, or by whose permission, are profane and drunken men allowed to congregate in front of the polling places of this city."

At this point the speaker digressed for a moment to quote a conversation with a deacon of his church who told him of his strenuous though good-natured clash of effort with a man of the rival persuasion in endeavoring to convert to his own side a voter, whom he boasted of having landed. "I voted my man," the speaker declared that the deacon had violated the fundamental principle of that man's manhood when he took him by the arm and told him for whom he should cast his vote. "And when any man attempts in like manner to inform me for whom and for what I shall cast my ballot, I tell you you have flung an insult into my face. My ballot is the expression of my mind-life. My ballot is the expression of my heart-life. My ballot is the expression of my soul-life, and being such, it is a sacred thing to me."

The deacon had violated the principle of his own manhood when he spent two hours "in the midst of that motley crowd of drunken sots." He told of a one brave minister who went to the place to vote, but so rank was the profanity and so rank the drunkenness that he turned around, walked out and did not vote at all.

"But I walked on into the crowd. I saw a man standing there. And when I saw him reel I could feel my heartstrings snap. Men, it was a member of my congregation. With these hands I had baptized him. I had knelt by the side of his wife and prayed for him and I had kept him straight for months, but when the election came, some of you men poured red-hot liquor into him, debauched him and broke the heart of his wife."

"I've given you the religion. Now for the law," said the speaker. He had read the North Carolina statute providing that any person who sees or gives another liquor within five miles of a polling place within twelve hours of an election, municipal, State, or national, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.

"Is there any man here who will say that whiskey was not used for such purposes? If not, then I say that the grand jury ought to begin to grind.

"I went a little further and a half-intoxicated man stopped me. 'Hello, there, doctah,' he exclaimed. 'Who yer goin' a vote for? I think you ought to vote for my man. He's the pore man's friend. The time's comin' when the rich man must keep his feet off the poor man's neck.' He never named his man and for the life of me I don't know which one he was for. My understanding is that both candidates are amply able to keep the wolf from the door. But what of that man's spirit and words? That is approaching socialism. That is incipient anarchy. Where did he get that conception? Did he conceive it in his own heart? Did he evolve the idea from his own brain? I tell you no, a thousand times no. He went to some ward meeting and heard a political demagogue utter it. And that speaker, who ought to have known better and who ought to have done better, fired the heart of that man with incipient anarchy! How many of you made ward speeches like that? And, in whose word I have confidence tells me that he went to one one night and every speech he heard was after that fashion. My word for it, when you have arrayed the masses against the classes you will be face to face with a frightful condition. Milwaukee is just paying the penalty for that sort of thing today."

"I saw two men, strangers to me, talking and overheard one say, 'It's only 4 o'clock. I got $5 for mine. Don't be in a hurry, you can get $10 for yours.'"

The minister read the law making the selling or the buying of a vote a misdemeanor.

"Were any votes sold at the recent election? You answer, 'Yes.' Then the grand jury ought to grind. Any man who bought a vote by a drink of whiskey or with $5 or $10 has got the traitor in his soul and has driven a dagger into the heart of democracy."

With regard to the distribution of the "slush fund" Dr. Hulten said that a campaign manager would get a ward politician and pay him $50 for his time and services, and that crooked ward politician would go out and fire the hearts of men with whiskey.

"Then you go to the man who is responsible for the campaign and ask him about it and he throws up his hands in holy horror and says, 'I don't know anything about it.' If he does not know, then he ought to know. Suppose you try this method. Let some one go to him and suggest 'Will you make an affidavit that so far as you know neither money nor whiskey was used to purchase votes?' Is there a man who believes they would do it? And if they don't, then the grand jury ought to begin to grind.

"It's time to stop so much talk about disfranchising the negroes and disfranchise somebody else, the men who buy and sell votes. Between the two, I'd take the negro every time. I'm not one-half so much afraid of the floating vote—the ignorant vote you call it down here—as I am of the crafty, designing men who control the floating vote by whiskey or money and who combine in every city and every State in the Union to secure legislation favorable to their interests. You who are before me have not sold your votes, but some of you have done what is infinitely worse. You have bought the votes of others."

The speaker recognized the necessity of campaign funds to meet the expenses of keeping the issues before the voters, but a distinct line of demarcation must be drawn between legitimate and illegitimate expenses. "Unless it is drawn, then our institutions, private and public, must fall, honeycombed with inanity."

Dr. Hulten deplored the indifference of good men to the preservation of the sanctity of the ballot. He considers that the greatest menace. He sounded a call for a reform which should recognize nothing as impossible. A coterie of good men could sweep everything before them. It has long been needed. The past election was not exceptional. A more liberal infusion of the spirit of the Bible is the only solution for political corruption, and social dissatisfaction.

The speaker closed by making a wider appeal. "Last Tuesday you went to the ballot box and registered your choice in municipal election. The time is coming when you must solve a question for eternity. When you cast your ballot of life, for whom it will be? For God's sake, man, I caution you to stop and think on behalf of your soul, blood-bought, judgment-bound, and eternal."

The congregation sang, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," and was dismissed.

Wednesday, April 19, 1911.

Don't fail to attend your ward meeting Thursday night, see notice on front page of this paper.

Have you registered? The books will close Saturday April 29th, at noon. Unless you get your name upon the books before then you will be disfranchised.

Register and pay your poll tax. However, if you have not paid your poll tax, this will not hinder you from registering, but will keep you from voting. Remember this and be ready.

If you fail to attend your ward meeting Thursday night, you can have no just cause to complain if the men nominated are not to your liking. Go out and see that the proper men are placed in nomination.

Attend your ward meeting and lend aid and counsel for the wise guidance of the same, this is a duty that you owe your neighbor as well as yourself. April 20th, is the date, see front page of this paper for the place.

All the ward meetings will be held Thursday night for the purpose of nominating candidates for Aldermen for the coming municipal election. Are you going to attend, see notice for place of meeting upon front page of this paper.

We have not a word of censure for those who have administered the affairs of state for the city the past two years, they may have done what they believed to be right, but we do not believe that they themselves are satisfied. Now what we all should want to do is to guard against like occurrences, and to prevent bad matters from getting any worse. Thursday night will mark the turning point in the future prosperity of this town. Take a hand before it is too late.

Have You Paid Your City Taxes.

If not then ask the tax collector how much you owe, whether you are prepared to pay it or not. It may help you to decide what your duty is in the coming municipal election. Not only has the tax rate been increased the past year, but unless some remedy is found the rate will have to be raised again. This being so, what are you going to do Mr. taxpayer? Give your answer Thursday night at your ward meeting, for the place see front page of this paper.

Those Who Should Not Attend.

Those who should not attend ward meetings next Thursday are those who are satisfied with present conditions, and who do not need a change. But at everything is as it should be, and who do not want any changes if they are any too many. Those who are not high enough, who do not care whether those who are holding office are re-elected or not, who do not even care whether we have any officers any longer, and who have no interest whatever in the town. If there are any of this class here they have no need to attend the ward meetings and we presume will not be there.

Be Not Deceived

We believe that it is the purpose of certain would be leaders of the Democratic party who have personal ambitions to serve to put a straight ticket in the field, provided they can hoodwink the better element of the party into believing that this is the only thing to do. From a political standpoint, the Dispatch would welcome a move of this kind, but for the good of the town, we trust that we are mistaken in our views. Nothing would be so injurious to our future growth and prosperity than a bitter municipal campaign. Look at the capitol of the state, (Raleigh), is this not enough to disgust any decent man, shall the same thing happen here? We say God forbid.

No Politics in It.

The best men of all parties say there should be no politics in the coming municipal election, and if they stand by this declaration, there will be none. Let the men who have stood by Burlington in her darkest hours get together in mass convention and say who shall administer the affairs of this city for the next two years. And when they have named them, let those who have personal ambition to satisfy get together and name an opposition ticket, but let them be manly enough to tell the citizens of Burlington what their object is. Let it not be done in the name of some political party in order that the real purpose may not be exposed. It will be well for the tax payers of this good old town to keep their eyes open for the next two weeks, and when they are told that the only thing to do is to run a straight party ticket, either Democratic or Republican, look your man straight in the eye, and ask him what for. Unless he has been above reproach and suspicion in the past, an gives you a better excuse than most of them have to offer, turn a deaf ear to him, and say there has already been too much of this sort of thing in the name of my party and I cannot consent to it any longer. This is the only effectual way to bring about better conditions, and remedy the mistakes made in the past. They will be to see you, have your answer ready.

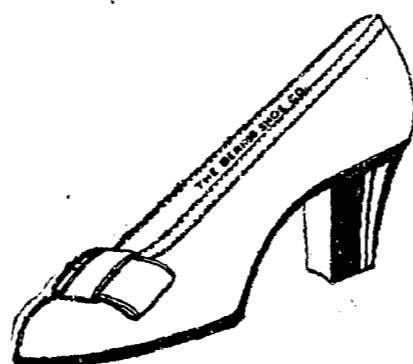

Stand By Your Friends.

If you are a friend to the present administration, you should go to the ward meetings Thursday night and say a good word in their behalf. If you believe they have done the best they could, go to the meeting and be manly enough to say so. They cannot be renominated even should they desire it, unless their friends help them. And even if they do not desire a re-election and you believe that it is to the best interest of the town to re-elect them, come out to the primary and place them in nomination. Many a man who would have made a good officer has failed of nomination because his friends did not stand up to him at the right moment. Do not let this happen to your candidate, be right there to place his name in nomination and do all you can for him. There is nothing like standing by your friends.

Don't Be Deceived.

Don't be deceived by the cry of the personally interested, or the grafter, that the Republicans want to run this town. But go out to the ward meeting Thursday night and help run it yourself, then you will have no fears that some one else is trying to run it. Not only go yourself, but take your neighbor with you, manage your affairs for the next both are interested in who shall two years.

Queen Quality SHOE

"Queen Quality" shoes are famous. Not the fame that perishes, but the sort that endures and grows stronger from year to year. Founded upon the rock of integrity, each season their makers builded stronger and stronger. Past successes were forgotten; what was considered good last year was bettered this, and hardly was it pronounced "best" before still further improvements were planned.

Quality, Style and Comfort have been the watchwords paramount, and how well they have been met is testified by the enormous demand. They are worn in every clime—under Alaska's midnight sun and on Africa's burning sands. Their wearers are numbered by millions—where there's civilization you will find them. "The sun never sets on Queen Quality Shoes."

Today it is the best known and by universal acclaim the most popular woman's shoe in the world.

Our initial Spring showing of these World Famous Shoes is now in progress. Will you not favor them with your inspection? You will be very welcome.

A Good Ticket.

Mr. Editor:— You said some time ago that your columns were open for the discussion of the city's welfare, and I always believe in taking people at their word until I find that they do not mean it. Now I have no desire to dictate a ticket for either the Democrats or Republicans to support, but being one of those people who do not believe that politics ought to be allowed to figure in our town affairs especially for the next two years, I will suggest a ticket for our citizens to be thinking about. I got some of these suggestions from your competitor, the News, but I believe you broad and liberal enough not to allow this prejudice you or your readers against them. There may be men in Burlington who will make better Aldermen than these, but I must confess that I cannot call them to mind.

First Ward: W. E. Sharpe and D. E. Sellars.

Second Ward: Lynn B. Williamson and John G. King.

Third Ward: Ernest H. Murray and James P. Albright.

Fourth Ward: W. K. Holt and J. M. Fix.

You will notice that this is a mixed ticket, but a majority are Democrats, this should please our side of the house, and should not be objectionable to your side, because they are men of business training and qualifications, then too they are broad and liberal enough to treat all parties fairly and do what they believe to be to the best interest of the town. I have no desire to thrust this ticket upon those who differ with me, but believe that if they were given a unanimous nomination that they could not well refuse to serve. I suggest that we call a mass convention and try it any way.

Very truly yours,

A Straight Democrat.
But not one of the fool kind.
[This is a strong assertion, and we did not know that there were any of this brand in town, but we presume that this party knows what he is talking about.—Ed.]

Come "Back Home" to Begin Again
 Roanoke, Va., April 11.—Last fall Mr. Jacob Robinson, who owned a fine farm near Florence, Va., and who says he was doing well, sold his farm, stock, household goods, etc., and emigrated to the state of Washington, to get rich quick in those widely advertised and much boosted farming lands in that section. He located at Bellingham, on the west side of the state, bought some upland, with timber on it, because it was cheaper than the valley land, and proceeded to make a home. It cost him $150,000 an acre to clear the land. Shortly after his arrival he saw that he was in for it and began his preparations to leave. The residents there told him he was going too soon; to stay and unload on some easterner, who would, in time, come and buy. Mr. Robinson knew of a number who had been waiting for a long time to catch a sucker and were impoverished by the wait, concluded he would get out while he had some money left.

So last week they arrived here and Mr. Robinson is looking for a farm. He says, that he knew when he had enough. He says that it is a first rate country to go for one's health, but to go there and live as a farmer would be sheer folly. Fruit grows in abundance but it is specked and unfit for market. He further says it does not pay to grow timothy hay that brings $12 a ton on $300 an acre land. The price of eggs there is high, but the hens don't lay.

Mr. Robinson's experience cost he says, about $3,000, and he is back in old Virginia to make back what he lost to the land sharks of the glorious state of Washington.

This experience is a true one and should give an impetus to the "Back Home" movement now working in the South. Those who left their homes in the Southern state should come back to see how the country has improved and how easy it is to make a living on the farms that were once red clay, worn out washed hills. Come on Back, boys, come "back home."

Kicked By A Mad Horse.

Samuel Birch, of Beetown, Wis., had a most narrow escape from losing his leg, as no doctor could heal the frightful sore that developed, but at last Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it completely. Mortgage Sale.

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage deed executed on the 24th day of March 1910, by W. C. Lineberry and wife, Dora Lineberry, to the Guilford Lumber Co., and recorded in the public registry of Alamance county, in Book 48, of mortgage deeds, pages 110, 111, 112 and 113, inclusive, the said Guilford Lumber Co., will offer for sale at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House door in Graham, Alamance county, North Carolina at 11 a. m., Saturday, April 29th, 1911, the following described tract of land, lying and being in Alamance county North Carolina Burlington Township, in the city of Burlington, and described and defined as follows, to wit:

A certain tract or parcel of land in Burlington Township Alamance county, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of S. R. Shepherd, J. H. Loy, J. H. Neese and others, bounded as follows, viz:

Beginning at S. R. Shepherd's corner on Webb Avenue, thence running S. E. direction with said Webb Avenue 66 feet to an iron bolt, thence N. E. direction with J. N. Neese's line, 150 feet, to a stake at J. H. and O. C. Loy's corner, thence N. W. direction with said J. H. Loy's line 66 feet to C. R. Shepherd's and J. H. Loy's corner, thence S. W. direction 150 feet with S. R. Shepherd's line to the beginning and known as the lot of J. A. Neese bought of G. A. Nicholson.

This property will be sold to satisfy the payment of the debt for the security of which said mortgage deed was executed by the said W. C. Lineberry and wife Dora Lineberry, Burlington Township, Alamance county. This the 27th day of March 1911. The Guilford Lumber Co. Mortgagee. John R. Hoffman Attorney.

From a Late Snapshot

To see all of his regular Patients and such new Cases, as may wish to consult him. Dr. Packard enjoys a state wide reputation, among the profession and the Public of North Carolina, where for more than 25 years he has devoted his entire time to the Study, Treatment and Cure of Chronic Diseases. The Doctor has had wonderful success in his chosen work, that of curing chronic sufferers, Men, Women and Children. The Patients he has restored to Health after they had given up all hope of being Cured are numbered by the Thousands. He is a kind, generous, democratic gentleman to meet, of high scholarly attainments, and dignified personality. Coupled with a Brotherly interest, in all who seek his advice. He does not take a Patient for Treatment unless he can foresee a Cure of the Case. The most commendable feature of his work, and one that appeals to the ordinary sick person, is the fact of his charges being so reasonable and moderate as to make it within the reach of even the very poor. At no time do the charges amount to more than $7.00 a month or about $1.50 a week. He gives his own medicines, and there are no extra Charges. It takes him never more than from four to six Months to Cure a Case under Treatment. All Cases, even those who have been given up as Incurable or Hopeless, have been Cured and restored to perfect health by this Brilliant Physician and the wonderful methods he employs.

If you want to meet him and have him examine you, go to see him, and talk the matter over with him. It will cost you nothing if he does not put you under treatment. If he takes your case, it will cost you a very small sum to get well.

EIGHTEEN YEARS

18 Years in buggy & harness business with ample capital to discount all bills buying in car lots should enable dealer to get lowest prices. While my competitors were talking dull times and no money Saturday my sales were more than $500.00 (names and addresses of customers if wanted). If I had $65 and $75 store rents to pay out I would have to sell buggies and harness high like they are doing. My plan is to do the largest business on least expense. Unloaded another car Columbia "A" grade wheel buggies Saturday. Saving my customers $7.50 to $10 on buggy, $15 on carriages. Big stock Mowers-Rakes-Harrows-Plows Cultivators. More harness, collars saddles bridles than in all the stores in town. Best $1 Bridle in town. Clover and Lawn grass, Hickory King and Batts seed Corn. Hurry up boys and get the buggies out before Easter.
