THE LIQUOR LID IS ON TIGHT IN ASHEVILLE

Asheville, May 18.—It is probable that Asheville is one of the driest towns in this dry state of North Carolina. It is said that as a result of the activity of the police department and the seizure of great quantities of wine, liquors and beer, the supply—rather than the demand—has been reduced to a minimum. It is understood that the price of even a small drink has risen rapidly within the past 24 hours and that there have been many hurry orders sent to liquor houses in the states where the manufacture and sale of intoxicants is permitted.

The police have not only been active in locating and seizing "wet goods" in Asheville, but they have also, under the direction of Colonel Lusk of the Law Enforcement league, kept a close watch on the Asheville station, Biltmore and Craggy. Colonel Lusk remarked this morning in Municipal court that he understood there was a quantity of liquor in Asheville freight depot. It is probable that the stuff will remain there, too, since it is doubtful if the consignee will attempt to take it out, fearing apprehension and capture while en route from the depot to some hiding place.

BIG VERDICT AWARDED IN BLEWITT FALLS LITIGATION

Washington, May 18.—Today in the United States Circuit court Judge Connor directed a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $22,500 in the case of the Knickerbocker Trust Company, of New York, against William E. Worth, this being the balance due for subscription to stock in the Rockingham Power Company.

The defendants alleged fraud in connection with the transaction, but the court held that no fraud had been shown. Mr. Worth has a suit in the state court against the Knickerbocker Trust Company. The defendant gave notice of appeal.

This suit grew out of the entanglement of financial matters in connection with the development of Blewitt Falls on the Yadkin river.

SOUTHERN TRAIN NO 44 KILLS A CONCORD BOY

Concord, May 22.—John Garver, the 14-year-old son of Mr. J. L. Garver, who lives on Mr. Robert Phifer's farm, a short distance from Concord, was killed by passenger train No. 44 yesterday morning about 7 o'clock. Young Garver and several companions were walking down the railroad track and when near the overhead bridge a few miles from the city, train No. 45 dashed down the track. The boys made a rush for the other track on which was approaching train No. 44, but on account of the excitement in getting out of the way of No. 45 they failed to see it. All the boys succeeded in clearing the track except Garver, who was struck and hurled several feet. His neck and right arm and shoulder were broken and his body horribly mangled, death resulting instantly.

Miss Hazel Albright the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Albright who has been in school at Elizabeth College, Charlotte, was one of the graduates this year. She has returned home and is spending her vacation with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hoge of Asheville arrived first of the week to be the guest of their friends Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Durant. We regret to learn that since arriving Mr. Hoge has been quite unwell.

E. L. Boland spent Sunday at Greensboro the guest of friends.

MAN AND WOMAN BURNED TO A CRISP UNDER AUTO

Dover, N. J., May 19.—Slowly burned to death as they were pinned beneath the large automobile which had turned turtle as they were rounding a curve at Chester, N. J., was the fate of Edward D. Middlekauff, a broker of Plainfield, and his companion, Miss Elsie Walpole, of Scotch Plains, N. J., late last night.

Middlekauff and Miss Walpole had been on an automobile trip through eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey. As they were nearing the Chester Crossroads, Middlekauff turned out to avoid some obstruction in front of the home of E. C. Searles, and the wheels of his car struck a boulder, causing the car to turn turtle. Miss Walpole was evidently rendered unconscious, but Middlekauff was conscious when the gasoline tank exploded and slowly roasted him to death. His cries could be heard for blocks.

Mr. Searles, who witnessed the accident, summoned aid and attempted to raise the overturned car, but in vain. It was not until a team with block and tackle could be procured that the car was raised. By that time both victims had been burned to a crisp.

WILL TAKE UP WAGE QUESTION LATER ON

Washington, May 18.—"The smoothest turndown ever handed out," was the way firemen of the Southern Railway today described the rejection of their demand for a 27.8 per cent increase in wages. The men were told by President Finley that their demands were refused solely because the road was not making money enough to grant them, but that things might be different "in the fall."

"The demands of the men were for an increase amounting to approximately $400,000 per annum," said Finley. "Being convinced that there was nothing in general business conditions to justify an increase in expenses, I frankly so stated to the committee. I explained that I did not desire to assume any arbitrary stand, and would be willing to take the question up again in the autumn of this year."

NEGROES STOP WORKSHIP TO FIGHT BATTLE

Spartanburg, S. C., May 22.—Rocky Zion church, colored, near Newberry, S. C., was the scene of a bloody pistol battle which raged for a few minutes late Sunday evening in which one negro was killed and four or five others were more or less seriously wounded.

The shooting was the result of a quarrel which started in the church when Henry Baxter walked into the meeting with his hat on. One of the negroes took offense at this seeming lack of respect on Henry's part. When the difficulty arose an adjournment was had to the grounds outside, where a number of pistols were put in action, between forty and fifty shots being fired. Henry Baxter, who had failed to uncover when he went into the meeting, was killed.

The readers of The State Dispatch will be interested in a splendid proposition being made by the Observer Company, Charlotte, N. C. Just at this time the Daily and Sunday Observer—seven days in the week—will be sent until October 15th, 1911 to all new subscribers for $2.00. This is a considerable reduction from the regular price and is made for the purpose of introducing this paper to new readers. The only rule is that cash must accompany all orders. Send name and address and check for $2.00 to the Observer Company, Charlotte, N. C., and let this splendid paper be sent to you until October 15th.

IRON WORKER MAKES SENSATIONAL CHARGES

Pittsburg, Pa., May 18.—James Elliott, a structural iron worker of this city, appeared before labor leaders here tonight and made an alleged confession in which he charged officers of the National Erectors Association and detectives employed by it with the wrecking of buildings throughout the country constructed by non-union labor.

The alleged confession was made to Wm. Kelly, president of the Iron City Trades Council; A. L. Collins, secretary of the Structural Iron Workers Union, and H. W. Legleiter, vice-president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and was sworn to before a notary. The labor leaders, then turned Elliott over to the police, who are holding him for further investigation.

The affidavit was not given out, but in his statement to police Elliott said he made the confession because he was not paid for information he furnished the Erectors Association and for which he was promised $1,000.

LOSES LIFE IN BURNING STOREHOUSE NEAR OXFORD

Oxford, May 19.—The five story mill and adjoining storehouse of W. D. Kimball, eight miles from here was destroyed by fire during last night and the miller, L. T. Kelley, perished in the flames. Kimball and his three daughters, all of whom slept above the store, barely escaped with their lives by leaping from the windows, and all were more or less seriously injured. One of them sustained injuries which will cripple her for life. Kelley leaves a widow and child. The fire, which was of unknown origin, started in the storehouse and quickly communicated to the mill, destroying both. The loss is $40,000.

CHARGED WITH ARSON. ARRESTED IN VIRGINIA

Granite Falls, N. C., May 18.—Several days ago this place was visited by Post Office Inspector Leonard. Postmaster Starnes was called up over long distance 'phone by Inspector Leonard, who informed him that Robert Glassbrooks, a young man whose home is near here, had been arrested at Chase City, Va., charged with the crime of burning the postoffice building here and would be carried to Lenoir for imprisonment. The young man is now in the keeping of Caldwell county's jail.

WEALTHY FARMER SHOT BY NEIGHBOR AT SPRAY

Spray, May 22.—A serious shooting affair has just been reported as occurring about three miles from Spray. D. M. Vernon, a wealthy farmer of this county and at one time postmaster of Leaksville and a political leader in the Republican party, being shot three times in the hip and legs by a man named Murphy. It seems that Vernon recently shot a dog belonging to Murphy which was trespassing on his place and this seems to be the cause of the trouble. Mr. Vernon was in Spray about 12 o'clock today and was on his way home when shot. A posse has been sent to arrest Murphy.

"Miss Sue Mebane of Mebane, accompanied by her friend Miss Mable Griffith spent from Saturday to Monday the guest of friends in town.

Messrs. Hendrix and Mimms who have been closing out the stock of Cooper Dry Goods Co., will move what they have not sold to Reidsville Monday. Mrs. Ada Patterson will continue with them.

MORE DOUBLE TRACKING ON SOUTHERN RAILROAD

Washington, May 21.—In pursuance of President Finley's recent announcement that it will be the policy of the Southern Railway Company to continue double-tracking its main line at points where the traffic is heaviest and traffic on the Charlotte division having reached such density as to justify the provision of some additional double-track on that division, the board of directors has authorized the construction of 32 miles of second track between Atlanta and Gainesville, Ga.

It is proposed to continue the use of the existing track from Armour, 6 miles north of Atlanta, to Crosskeys, a distance of 5 miles, as a single-track gauntlet. Double-track will be constructed from Crosskeys to Duluth, a distance of 15 miles. From Duluth to Sumanee, 5 miles, the existing track will be operated as a single-track gauntlet, and 17 miles of double-track will be built from Sumanee to Oakwood.

The effect of this improvement will be practically the equivalent of 46 miles of double-track from Atlanta north, and will greatly facilitate the movement of trains over that important part of the system.

Work on the double-track is to be begun without delay.

DEATH CLAIMS ADLAI HOLT DIXON AT A & M COLLEGE

The Raleigh Evening Times of Saturday gave the following account of the death of a young student at the A. & M. College at Raleigh, whose home was in Alamance county, and who was well known to a large number of our readers.

Mr. Adlai Holt Dixon, a first year student in the agricultural work course of the A. & M. College, was found dead in his bed by his room mate and friend, Mr. J. W. Bason, this morning at 6 o'clock, the young man having expired during the night from heart failure. He probably was asleep when the end came, for he did not arouse his sleeping companion.

Dr. Henry McKee Tucker, the college physician, was at once notified of the sad tragedy and pronounced death as the result of heart disease. Mr. Dixon entered college last fall from Haw River, Alamance county. He was a most excellent young man, was proficient in his studies and was popular among his fellows. He was working his way through college; one week he would work on the farm and the next devote to his studies. His room mate, Mr. J. W. Bason, from the same section, was horrified when he awoke this morning and found his class-mate dead.

The college authorities reported the death to Coroner Chas. A. Separk, who went out this morning and viewed the body. There was not of course the slightest evidence of foul play, the young man's body and face being in perfect repose. Coroner Separk was satisfied with the report of the physician, but inspected the body from a sense of duty.

Mr. R. W. Scott, a member of the board of Agriculture from Alamance county, was interested in the young man and secured him entrance at the college. Mr. Scott is assisting in looking after the details of shipping the body home. Mr. Dixon was 17 1/2 years old and was the son of Mr. H. A. Dixon of the Haw River section.

Mr. Bason and a committee of student will accompany the remains to Haw River this afternoon. The burial will take place tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Sanders and Miss Roxie Riddle of Spray, N. C. were visiting Mr. R. E. Riddle and family last week. Miss Riddle was on her way to Rocky Mount as a delegate to the Episcopal convention.

Mr. M. W. Hunter of Oxford, a Railway Mail Clerk, visited his friend Mr. R. E. Riddle last Thursday.

HIS AEROPLANE TURNED TURTLE, HAS CLOSE CALL

Bristol, Tenn., May 18.—Aviator Fred Eells sustained painful injuries and had a narrow escape from instant death at the Bristol aviation meet this afternoon when his machine turned turtle two hundred and fifty feet in the air. Eells had left the aviation grounds and flown about half a mile when a control wire in some manner came loose and he was unable to manage the aeroplane. In an instant it had turned over and was plunging toward the ground, landing in a plowed field. He shifted his position during the downward dash otherwise he would have been caught under the big engine and killed. He made a beautiful flight, however. His machine is a total loss.

S. C. Doran, the Washington aviator with his affoxco flyer, a new biplane, did not leave the ground today. His $8,000 machine, owned by Edmund L. Fox, of Washington, is set up at the aviation grounds. Two other machines will arrive tomorrow and in view of this the aviation meet has been postponed until Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Manager John S. Berger went east tonight for two more machines to be used in connection with the others for the meet to be held in this and other cities already billed.

NEGRO ADMITS TO KILLING NEWSPAPER MAN

New York, May 18.—John Cain, the big negro who ran amuck with a knife and a revolver last night on upper West side, killing two men, and wounding eight, admitted to the police today that he is the man who killed Richard Ball, a newspaper man on Broadway eleven years ago. Ball's slayer said he killed him for stepping on his toes. Cain went wild last night when a white passenger on an elevated train platform objected to his smoking. Cain said he was sentenced to fourteen years in Sing Sing for killing Ball and was released a few weeks ago, his term being shortened for good behavior. The two dying from Cain's slashes were John Hall and Saxon Surrell. Cain during his wild escapade was shot through his lungs, but will probably recover.

LAST THURSDAY IN APRIL FOR INAUGURATION DAY

Washington, May 18.—A revised draft of the proposed constitutional amendment, changing the date of the presidential inauguration to the last Thursday in April, providing for the convening of Congress the second Tuesday of each January, and eliminating the biennial short session of that body, was presented to the House today by Chairman Henry of the Committee on Rules. The new resolution is the result of prolonged conferences to reach a satisfactory solution of the inauguration problem.

The Henry resolution, besides extending the terms of the president and vice-president from March 4 to the last Thursday in April, and making their terms begin and end on that date in the future, changes the sessions of Congress so that the newly elected Congress will convene in January immediately after election, instead of the following December. Congress thereafter would sit in long session each year, the inauguration of a president taking place without the breaking of the session. It also empowers Congress to designate a successor to the President-elect between the time when the vote is officially canvassed in February, and the time of inauguration, if both the President and vice-president should die during that period.

By this time, we suppose the railroad habit has become so fixed with Mr. Bryan that he can't sleep at night unless he is on a Pullman car.

NEAR-BEER GETS RES-PITE UNTIL JULY FIRST

Raleigh, May 19.—Near-beer licenses may be issued for the month of June, Attorney General Bickett having made a ruling to this effect today. The matter was brought to his attention by Sheriff Sears, of Wake county. The state and county licenses expire May 31, but the federal licenses do not expire until July 1, when the act outlawing near-beer and similar beverages will go into effect. The various towns and cities will probably follow the advice of the attorney general and pro rate the licenses for the month of June. Wake county and the city of Raleigh will extend the licenses.

The following letter is being sent out from State Treasurer Lacy's office:

"By the advice of the attorney general, I have decided to rule that the sheriffs will issue near-beer licenses for the month of June and collect for only one month. I do this on account of the conflict in the law, but it must not be understood, except when the law conflicts, that I will agree to ever pro rate a license.

COL. R. M. STALEY DIES SUDDENLY IN CHARLOTTE

Charlotte, May 20.—Col R. M. Staley, sergeant-at-arms of the state senate for many years and one of the state's best known citizens, dropped dead of apoplexy on the street here tonight, en route from a late train to his hotel. He was a resident of Wilkesboro and a man of means, acquired in the furniture manufacturing business. Colonel Staley served the Confederacy in the civil struggle and won his title by courage on the battlefield. He was a man of unusual physical stature and strength. Colonel Staley is survived by a widow, two daughters and a son. The daughters, Misses Frankie and Mabel, reside in Richmond, Virginia. He was 65 years old and never required the services of a physician in his long and active life.

CHILD KNOCKED DOWN BY RUNAWAY HORSE

Goldsboro, N. C., May 18.—A serious accident occurred this afternoon, which may prove fatal, the victim being the little girl of Mr. and Mrs. McKeel. W. B. Hobbs was driving in the northern part of the city, when his horse became unruly and ran away, throwing him from the vehicle and running over the little girl, who was on the street with her nurse. She was seriously injured about the head, and it is thought the wounds will prove fatal. Mr. Hobbs escaped with a few light bruises.

WASN'T MUDDY WATER

Muskogee, Okla., May 21.—Clarence Henderson, book-keeper in a bank in Beggs, Okla., is dead and Edward Bright, son of a real estate man of the same place, will die as the result of mistaking a quart can of nitroglycerin for muddy water.

The young men were hunting today when they discovered the can of explosive under a boulder. They placed it on top of the rock and one of them fired into it from a small caliber rifle. Henderson was so badly mangled by the resulting explosion that he died within an hour. Bright's body was cut in more than a hundred places by particles of the can and of the rock on which it stood.

He crawled to a farm house a mile and a half away and told of the accident. There is no hope for his recovery.

The accident occurred in the oil fields and the nitroglycerin had been hidden by well shooters when they quit work last night.

Fraudulent Life Insurance.

Durham Sun.

(ADVERTISEMENT)

For the past year every term of civil court in Durham has been the scene of some charge against the Life Insurance Company of Virginia. Saturday an aged citizen of this county came to Durham and claimed that he, like many others, had been fleeced out of money by this insurance company, stating that for ten years he had paid the premiums on the policies of his wife and himself, and today the insurance company offers $6 for surrendering both policies.

In the case of Wilson against the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, from Durham county, the supreme court of North Carolina stated in handing down its decision "the plaintiff testified that the representation was made to him that if he paid the premiums for ten years the defendant, at the expiration of that time, would repay them with four per cent interest; that he believed the representation to be true, and was induced thereby to take the policy; that he was uneducated and unlettered; could read with great difficulty; that he did not know that the representations were false until the end of the time when the superintendent of defendant, upon his demand for payment in accordance with the representations, told him they were false, and the defendant tendered him $3.76 in full settlement; that he refused to accept this and brought this suit. This policy was so worded as to leave room for doubt and uncertainty as to what or how much the plaintiff would receive at the end of the insurance period, and what the agent said in explanation of it was calculated to mislead an ignorant man. The wife of this aged gentleman could not read the policies, and it is no serious reflection upon her intelligence to surmise that if she could have done so she would not have been very much wiser. The meaning of the policy being so vague and uncertain, it could not be doubted that the plaintiff would have refused it had it been stated to him that at the end of ten years he would receive the sum of $3.76 as its full cash value; and the defendant must have known that if the true meaning, as it now contends it to be, had been stated, it could not sell such a policy to the class of ignorant and inexperienced people it solicited. In fact no one would have bought it, whether educated and experienced or unlettered and ignorant." And yet the dockets of the civil courts of this state have been replete with such cases as the above, and this company is permitted to continue business in North Carolina. Knowing that many of the policyholders are unable to fight these cases, this company has taken every advantage of both educated and uneducated citizens of this state, refusing to pay the amount represented by their agents and carrying each case to the supreme court, where in many instances the insurance company lost.

The insurance commissioner of North Carolina should demand a thorough investigation of this company at once, and if the facts are as stated prohibit them from doing further business in North Carolina.

Saved Her Own Life.

Tecumseh, Okla.—"I believe," says Mrs. Eliza Epperson of this place, "that if it hadn't been for Cardui, I would have been dead today. Before I began using Cardui, I suffered from pains in the head, shoulders, back, side, ribs, and the lower part of my body. Cardui helped me more than anything, and I am now in better health, since taking it, than for four years." Nobody can deny that the best tonic for a woman to take, is a tonic for women—Cardui. Please try it.

Chicago is now advocating air baths. They are less trouble and require so much time as the old-fashioned Saturday night air.

Helpless as a Baby.

Valley Heights, Va.—Mrs. Jennie B. Kirby, in a letter from this place says: "I was sick in bed for nine months, with womanly troubles. I was so weak and helpless, at times, I couldn't raise my head off the pillow. I commenced to take Cardui, and now I can work all day." As a tonic for weak woman, nothing has been found, for fifty years, that would take the place of Cardui. Try a bottle today. It will surely do you good.

Tuberculosis Fighters Want New Health Committee.

A protest is registered in a statement given out by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis against the existing conditions in Congress which required measures concerning public health to be referred to a committee on commerce. At the same time, a plea was made for a new Committee on Public Health in the House of Representatives, similar to the one now existing in the Senate.

The National Association in its statement supports the Committee of One Hundred on National Health in its assertion that under the present division of committees, owing to the large number of measures before the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, public health matters do not receive the attention they deserve. The statement says that hogs, cows, and steel rails receive much more attention than that most vital all matters, public health and the prevention of disease. At the present time, the anti-tuberculosis workers declare, no committee in the House has any direct responsibility for health legislation. It is therefore suggested that a new committee be formed, similar to the one in the Senate.

The National Association is appealing to its 510 affiliated associations in all parts of the United States to support the movement for the formation of such a committee in the House.

Her Life a Burden.

Ratcliff, Tex.—In a letter from Ratcliff, Mrs. Mattie Campbell says, "My health was very bad: I suffered untold misery every month, and at times, I wished for life was a burden to me. I tried Cardui, and it helped me right away. Cardui has stopped my suffering, made life worth living, and filled my home with joy and happiness." If you suffer as Mrs. Campbell did, Cardui will certainly help you, as it did her. Why not try it?

Women's Rights on Railroads.

Cleveland Leader.
To travel the greater part of a day in a railroad coach, no matter how luxuriously it may be furnished, is a strain on almost anybody. In the course of a few hours, nervous and muscular discomfort often reaches such a stage that to many the journey becomes a mild form of torture. For the man there is some relief. He can go to the smoking compartment and there sprawl at his ease under the solace of tobacco and unrestrained talk. But what about his wife? He has left her in one of the seats he found too uncomfortable, to bear up under the strain alone. What would she not give for an hour in a cozy apartment, exclusively for women, where she could lounge and chat and have a cup of tea?

And now, strange as it may seem, some of the railway officials who have apparently been devoting the greater part of their time to devising means for making travel more attractive to men, are asking themselves this same question. And, obviously, to ask it was to answer it. It is the Burlington road that has taken the initiative. Two new cars, designed entirely for the use of women are soon to be put in operation between Chicago and St. Paul. They contain easy chairs, coaches, "cozy corners," books, magazines and even a buffet, with an electric grill, where the woman passenger, if she wishes, can prepare special dishes for herself and her friends.

A Good Night's Rest.

Cleveland Leader.
Rev. Daniel Isaacs once alighted at an inn to stay the night. On asking for a bed he was told he could not have one, as there was to be a ball that evening and all the beds were engaged. "At what time does the ball break up?" asked Mr. Isaacs. "About 3 in the morning, sir." "Well, then, can I have a bed until that time?" "Yes, certainly; but if the bed is asked for you will have to remove."

About 3 o'clock he was awakened by loud knocking. "What do you want?" he asked. "How many of you are in there?" inquired a voice. "There's me, and Daniel and Mr. Isaacs and an old Methodist preacher," was the reply. "Then there's plenty of you." And the speaker passed on, leaving Mr. Isaacs to enjoy his bed.

Protests Against Reciprocity.

Philadelphia Press.

All reports from Washington indicate that nobody has taken very seriously the protests against the Canadian reciprocity agreement to which the Senate Finance Committee has been patiently listening during the last 10 days. The effort to browbeat President Taft with the threat that ratification of the pact would cost him dear in votes failed dismally. That argument lacked the bucolic flavor; it smacked redolently of the peanut brand of politics and accomplished nothing more than to involve its proponents in conspicuous confusion and chagrin.

Similarly, the picture of economic and political desolation which former Governor Bachelder, of New Hampshire, threw upon the White House wall failed to move the President's stony heart, and the haughty exclusiveness of the North Dakota delegation which refused to pay any respect at all to so flippant a foe of the only friend of the consumer and of the republic likewise, left the President imperturbable.

Disappointment, perhaps, but certainly impressed by the failure of the opponents of the Canadian reciprocity agreement to confute the President's arguments in its favor, the finance committee is about to report the Underwood bill back to the Senate, identically, according to all accounts, in the form in which it passed the House.

No slavery To Work.

Deskins, Va.—Mrs. Mary A. Vandyke, in a letter from Deskins, says: "I had serious female troubles, lasting 40 days at a time. I was so weak I could hardly walk, so I tried Cardui. Soon I was better. Now I am well." If you suffer from any form of womanly pain or weakness, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui will lift you out the misery and weariness, caused by womanly weakness, and help you to see the bright side of life. Try it. Your druggist sells it.

A Romance of War Times.

Cincinnati Enquirer.
Shellman Heights, the most famous colonial mansion in Georgia, which was saved by Gen. W. T. Sherman when he was marching through Georgia, because he loved its mistress when he was a cadet, burned the other day. Mrs. William Shellman mistress of the mansion, was Miss Cecilia Stovall before marriage, and as a girl spent her summers at West Point. She was rarely beautiful, and W. T. Sherman and J. W. Hooker, who were cadets at the time, fell in love with her and tried to marry her, but she rejected them for a Southern man.

During the war General Sherman and General Hooker led their troops through this section of Georgia. Upon approaching Shellman Heights the soldiers of General Sherman started to ransack the mansion, whereupon a negro servant asked: "Oh, Lord! What's Miss Cecilia gwine ter do now?" General Sherman asked the negro for the rest of the name of his mistress, and he replied: "Miss Cecilia Stovall Shellman." "Why, she's my old sweetheart!" exclaimed the General, and he ordered the soldiers to replace what they had taken, and placed a guard about the home. General Hooker passed later, and upon ascertaining who the mistress was issued similar orders.

After the war Mrs. Shellman received many letters from Sherman and Hooker.

Young Aviator Killed.

A. V. Hardle, an amateur aviator, was killed at Domingues Field, Los Angeles, Cal. last week while trying out an aeroplane. He had made several successful flights.

Hardle was about 30 years old and had a biplane built at the aviation camp and made his first flight on the day before his death. Against the advice of his instructors, Hardle went up again and when at a height of about 100 feet lost control of the machine and plunged to the ground. His body was badly mangled.

Wednesday, May 24, 1911.

What has become of the Chamber of Commerce? Did it die a burning.

We are told that only the Republicans scramble for pie. The present condition of affairs in the Democratic household in North Carolina belie this charge.

From present indications our Democratic friends will show their neighbors in Virginia and South Carolina how to scramble for a piece of pie, when it is in sight.

It must be that the millennium is near at hand. Josephus Daniels has forsaken the "Peerless" one, and is advocating a new Moses to lead the herd out of the wilderness. Who would have thought it!

Ex-Governor Aycock says in the announcement of his candidacy for the United States Senate that he is not going to spend any money in the fight. It is evident from this assertion, that the ex-Governor does not expect to land the job.

It would be interesting to know who ex-Governor Aycock hopes to defeat. Unless he turns loose some "dough" he need not expect the boys to rally to his standard. But those who do will weaken the chances of some one. Who is it?

It is up to our Chamber of Commerce to get busy and do what ever it can to encourage the building of the railroad from Greensboro via Burlington, Roxboro, Oxford to Henderson. It will mean much for our future development.

In Virginia the next legislature will have to elect two United States Senators, and there are only four candidates in the race. In North Carolina the legislature will elect one Senator, and there are four candidates in the field at this stage of the game.

Now that the Steel Bridge plant is practically assured let us have another industry or two, aside from the textile. They are alright, but they do not meet the demands for all classes of labor, which is the prime factor in the development of any community.

In the race for the Senatorship it appears to an outsider to be Governor Kitchin against the field. Two years ago he "licked" the whole bunch that is now in the race against him. Can he do it now? Well, you know what happened at Charlotte two years ago.

That there will be a scramble royal, the like of which North Carolina has never witnessed, for Senator Simmons' seat in the United States Senate, in the approaching campaign is up to this time an assured fact. To date there are four candidates. In the race, with a number like preacher Bob Glenn to hear from. Those in the race now are Senator Simmons, Governor Kitchin, ex-Governor Aycock and Chief Justice Walter Clark.

It is gratifying to learn that the outlook is encouraging for the re-opening of the Old Railroad Shop buildings in this city as a Steel Bridge and Structural plant. This is one of the enterprises we need and the credit for this, if consummated, is due to the untiring efforts of our genial townsman, Mr. R. W. Curtis.

There is no such thing as the office seeking the man when it comes to selecting a United States Senator from North Carolina. The Democrats are in the fight up to their eyes, nearly two years before the contest comes off. Yet we are told that the Democrats never scramble for pie. What a spectacle.

Now that Alamance county has a health officer, with a good fat salary attached, ($2,000 per annum). We would suggest that he give us a little of his time. There are places in this town that need the attention of some one, whether it is the county health officer or the city authorities we do not know, neither do we care. What we want is work—something that will help our health and comfort.

The Dispatch continues to grow, and its popularity is attested by its ever increasing subscription list. We appreciate the support accorded us and will ever strive to measure up to the expectations of a critical reading public. Our columns are clean and our pages readable. If you want the best family newspaper, subscribe for the Dispatch. If you have anything for sale advertise in its columns. Both will obtain results.

Our Streets Should Be Sprinkled.

The dust the past few days has been terrible and has done untold damage to the fine line of merchandise carried by our large retail stores. There is no reason why our streets should not be sprinkled as often as needed. There are enough men upon the pay-roll of the city, doing nothing, or practically nothing, save draw their breath and salary, to sprinkle the streets. These people in order to justify their do-nothing policy set up the plea that there is no water, this may be true as regards the city water, but there is plenty in the railroad tank. We have not always had city water works, but our streets have been sprinkled here for years. Where did the water come from the? This should engage the attention of our business men as well as the city fathers. Let us get our heads together and make arrangements to have our streets sprinkled. What does our neighbor, the News say.

What Will They Do.

It seems rather hard for our board of Aldermen to make a choice as regards the proper person for Chief of Police. Quite a number of good men, in fact some of the very best have been suggested to them, or have made application, but all have been labeled N. G. Some of these candidates were Republicans and their records were so clean and spotless that all that could be said against them was that they had not resided here a thousand years.

This board of Aldermen were elected, with one or two exceptions, upon the citizens ticket, where politics were eschewed, and they should not allow themselves to be influenced by political considerations. The politics of an applicant for any position before the board should not be taken into consideration, in fact those charged with the selection for these offices should not even inquire what their politics are, but the qualification should be character and fitness for the position. It looked at one time that this would be the policy of this board, but some partisan or partisans upon the board, elected no doubt by both Democrats and Republicans, have been successful in staying the election, for what purpose is not now disclosed.

Gentlemen, measure up to the expectation of those who elected you, and when you finally select a man, let him be one who is well qualified to fill the position and dont ask his politics, but, besure of his character and fitness, this done you have discharged your duty regardless of whether you have pleased us all or not. This is not intended as a criticism, but as a gentle reminder to those members of the board who are broad and liberal enough to do their duty as they see it, without outside or inside dictations or influence. The law abiding, god fearing conservative citizenship are looking to you for results. They are asking for bread, will you give them a stone, or worse still A Dummy.

Oakdale Dots.

There has been a large crop of cotton and corn planted. The farmers are very busy harrowing corn. There appears to be a good stand of both. There has not been enough rain to pack the ground.

Things are needing rain very bad, especially small grain. Several of our young people attended Whitsett commencement the 22nd, and report a good dry hot time.

We read with pleasure what Mr. J. R. Hoffman had to say about our Supt. of Public Instruction. We heartily endorse every word, while we have no word of censure to make against our present man. He has made us a good one. We understand he does not stand for re-election. We have known Mr. Robertson all his life and consider him well qualified for the position. Mr. Lee Spohn and brother have the colored school house near Liberty enclosed and nearly finished.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. A. G. Amick (Esq.) is very feeble, and is still unable to go to the Hospital. We hope for him a speedy recovery. Mr. Amick is a good man highly respected by all who know him.

Democrats who slipped in from sheep raising states, are not certain that reform should go so far as to attack the high tariff on wool.

The United States Senate continues its policy of masterly inactivity.

Mr. Editor:

Fleming our present man I think everybody likes. A man that is strictly honest with everybody and a Christian gentleman. As I understand Mr. Fleming does not expect to be a candidate for reelection, and as I am personally acquainted with Prof. J. B. Robertson and know him all his life as a man well thought of everywhere, especially in Coble's Township, his birth place which speaks well for any one.

I wish to heartily endorse what Mr. John R. Hoffman says in regard to Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Very sincerely,

Friendship Commencement.

The annual Commencement exercises of Friendship High School, eight miles south of Burlington, occurred last Friday, May 19th.

At ten o'clock in the morning the Commencement began with exercises by the Primary Department. These lasted an hour and proved to be very enjoyable, the little people showing remarkable training. At eleven the High School undergraduates gave their recitations and declamations.

These were well selected and well delivered and were a source of much pleasure. At two o'clock in the afternoon the graduates held their exercises and they were up to the usual high standard of this school. They consisted of recitations and declamations, each one being rendered in a most delightful and eloquent way. The class this year consisted of Roy McRae Homewood and Oscar Ernest Culler and Clea Patterson; Mary Alma Graves and Maude Lee Culler, all remarkable bright boys and girls. At three o'clock the commencement address was delivered by Dr. Daniel Albright Long, of Graham, N. C., one of the State's foremost divines and thinkers. His subject was "The Progress of the Human Race", and for an hour he held the audience spellbound by his matchless delivery, his interesting contrast of the past with the present, and his rare humor and personal reminiscences.

The entire program was interspersed with choruses and quartettes.

At eight o'clock in the evening the annual concert was given under the auspices of the Womans Betterment Association. This consisted of musical numbers and two delightful plays, rendered by the students. A neat sum was realized from the admission, and this was used to pay on the handsome piano purchased for the school by this Association with the cooperation of the entire student body.

The marshals were: Roy McRae Homewood, chief; Oscar Ernest Culler, William Lee Kinney, Charles Benjamin Coble and Hazel Patterson; Maude Lee Culler, Myrtle Mozelle Moser, Clea Patterson and Alma Graves.

The school this year has done splendid work, and is a credit to the section, county and State. The principal, Prof. June A. Hornaday, a native of this County, has been untiring in his efforts to make the school one of the very best in the State. The assistants, Mrs. Fannie Reitzel and Miss Florine Robertson, have heartily cooperated in the efforts put forth.

At the Graded School.

Dr. Laird of the First Presbyterian Church, Danville, Va., was present Sunday morning and night and delivered two fine sermons. It was thought best to change from the Graded School Auditorium to the Presbyterian Church, as would conveniently accommodate more people.

On Monday night the Seniors gave their reception which was very much enjoyed by the many invited guest. The six Seniors, Misses Mary Walton, Gladys Page and Ruby Ross, Messrs. Hugh and Chris Isley and Robt. Long, deserve special credit for arranging so nice an entertainment for this special occasion. The refreshments for the occasion consisting of punch etc., were very much enjoyed.

On Tuesday night a musical reception was given under the management of the music teacher Miss McDowell. Tonight will be class night when the diplomas will be awarded the graduates and the exercises will be given by the class. Tomorrow night the regular literary address will be delivered by Governor W. W. Kitchin.

RAILROADS MUST PROVIDE SEATS FOR PASSENGERS

Suffolk, Va., May 18.—According to a verdict in Nansemond Circuit Court late this afternoon a railway passenger doesn't have to pay unless he be given a seat. Frank Wilkerson Jones declined to surrender a ticket to the Norfolk and Western because he had to ride standing. Jones was arrested and at a trial was acquitted. He asked for $5,000 and was awarded $1,500 by the jury. Judge R. H. Rawles and J. U. Burges were counsel for Jones, while the railroad was represented by Congressman Holland and George S. Bernard. The defense claimed that Jones could have gotten a seat if he had tried. But the evidence was conflicting. The railroad gave notice of appeal.

President Finley and the Firemen.

Washington, D. C., May 18.—Mr. Finley, President of the Southern Railway Company today gave out the following statement:

A difference having arisen between the Southern Railway Company and the firemen employed by it, I deem it proper as President of the Company to make the following explanation:

The representatives of the firemen sometime since took up with the Vice President and General Manager of the Company, Mr. Coapman, the question of their relations with the Company including the question of wages and the question of rules under which they should work. As most usual in such cases, before any consideration was given to the question of rules the question of wages was first taken up and considered. The demands of the men were for an increase in wages approximately twenty-seven and eight tenths percent over the wages of last year involving an increase amounting to approximately four hundred thousand dollars per annum. The Vice President and General Manager not feeling that conditions were appropriate for considering an increase, declined it, and thereupon as is usual, an appeal was taken by the committee representing the men to me as President of the Company. When the appeal was presented to me, only the question of the demand for an increase in wages was considered, no question as to the rules being in any way involved or passed upon, it being stated by me to the Committee that the question must first be considered by the Operating Offices of the Company. Being convinced in respect to the demand for increased wages that there was nothing in general business conditions or in respect to the earnings of the Company or the immediate outlook for traffic to justify an increase in expenses, I frankly so stated to the Committee, explaining in some detail the surrounding conditions. I asked them to consider what reasonable basis there was for such a demand at this time and pointed out the fact that they had received from us as much as forty-six percent increase in wages since nineteen hundred, including a substantial increase a year ago based last year upon the contention that there had been a substantial increase in the cost of living, whereas, since then the cost of living has not increased, but on the contrary has declined, that the scale of wages paid by us was fully up to and even in excess of the scale of wages being paid by our principal competitors, and in view of the existing business conditions, and of the fact that the earnings of the company were showing a tendency to decline, and in view of the uncertainty as to the earnings during summer months, I could not now consent to an increase of wages. I explained further that I did not desire to assume any arbitrary stand and would accordingly be willing to take the question up with them again in the Autumn of this year when we would have further light in respect to earnings and business conditions after the summer months and would then consider it with them with an open mind and on the merits of the situation as then existing. If they were unwilling to accept this suggestion I offered them an alternative to mediate or arbitrate the question with them.

I trust very sincerely that our men will see the justice and equity of the position of the Company and will realize that the management is controlled by the purpose of being entirely fair to them and to their representatives for a full and just consideration in conference of all questions of difference that may arise.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, Never. Its foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous, and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only. 50c at Freeman Drug Co.

Seven Cows Burned.

Charlotte, N. C., May 22.—Seven cows and a horse were consumed in a fire which destroyed a barn belonging to Mr. P. M. Brown of this city on his place 5 miles southwest of here Saturday night. The reflection from the blaze was here that night, but it could not be definitely located. A Mr. King occupies the place as tenant. It is believed by those living on the place that the barn was fired by a tramp. A few hours previously a knight of the road had applied for permission to spend the night in the barn, but consent was refused. The occurrence of the fire shortly afterwards is regarded either as an unusual coincidence or as a result closely related to the first circumstance. The burning of the helpless animals is regrettable. The cows were part of a dairy operated there.

HELLO MR. FARMER

We are agents for the Milwaukee Binder and we have called on you for your order for Binder, Mower, Hay Rake or such things as you may need in the coming harvest. Well Mr. Dealer you may enter my order for the Milwaukee Binder my neighbor has one he has been using for two years and I find tis the simplest machine on the market. And by far the highest machine I ever saw in the field. Well what we have to say about the Milwaukee machine is what we know from experience. We do not try to mislead the people telling them we are General Agents and that our machines are like other machines. No we claim to have a machine in a class to itself. We have proved that in two years time. Sold more than the others all put together. The people in this county are intelligent and they are no longer being led by misrepresentation.

We are Local Agents for the Milwaukee Binder at Burlington, N. C. and we do not have the General Agent of N. C. with us. And we want to inform the public that no one in Burlington has the personal help of the General Agent. This is a false alarm. Neither does the other people have a machine like ours. We are proud our competitors have acknowledged our machine the best machine on the market. We are glad to know they are such nice fellows.

Only sold forty-six last year every body well pleased and we feel sure every one will sell one for us this year.

Nothing to do but call phone 72 and we will be glad to give you all the information you may need along this line. We pay the cash for the goods and we have the labor to do the work and will be a pleasure to have you drop in and see to your own satisfaction that we have the goods that will not pull your stock to death in the harvest field. You have plenty time now to get in line and get the goods of honor and high quality. Dont be deceived by hot air and gass bags they will not push the binder in the harvest field. Come along and get the goods that has proved all we claimed and a great deal more. You will be welcome at all times in the Milwaukee Headquarters in Burlington. We want to see you and talk the matter over.

Your friends.

Fast Trains and Safety.

Chicago Record-Herald. There is timeliness as well as value in the declaration of Chief Warren S. Stone, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, that "the United States as a nation has gone stark, raving mad on the question of speed." The recent fatal railroad accidents emphasize this charge and show the peril that exists despite many excellent improvements made by our leading lines in the last few years. Not all railroad accidents, of course, are due to a craze for speed, but it is evident from the remarks of Chief Stone that the evil of which he complains has indirect as well as direct results inimical to public safety. "The speed craze requires young men who are willing to take chances," he told his fellow-engineers. "If they pull through on schedule time, it is all right; if they don't, they must make room for the men who will." Some of the fastest trains in the country are the freest from accidents, but this is because, being few and conspicuous, every possible precaution is thrown around their operation. It is the fast running of less carefully guarded trains to which Chief Stone's remarks apply with greatest force. Recklessness is an American characteristic bred of pioneer conditions. But those conditions no longer exist, and the public and railroad managers should be satisfied with less speed if it means the proper safeguarding of human lives.

It Startled The World.

When the astounding claims were first made for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, but forty years of wonderful cures have proved them true, and everywhere it is now known as the best salve on earth for Burns, Boils, Scalds, Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Swellings, Eczema, Chapped hands, Fever Sores and Piles. Only 25c at Freeman Drug Co.

A Wrong Interpretation.

As the train left a certain station the following sign was displayed in the buffet car: "No intoxicating liquors will be served while the train is passing through North Dakota." They had been rolling through that interminable state a long time when the Women's Christian Temperance Union delegate from the East came into the car for her dinner. Casting her eye out of the window upon a somewhat changed landscape, she remarked to the waiter: "Are we still in North Dakota?" "No, ma'am," answered George alertly, with a hospitable grin. "What'll you drink, ma'am?"—Housekeeper.

Rule of Reason.

New York World. It was the rule of reason that brought the railroads under the Anti-trust Act, for they were not specifically mentioned therein. It was the rule of reason that separated manufacturing from commerce. It is the rule of reason which now dissolves the once sovereign Standard Oil Company as a criminal corporation and opens the way for the personal prosecution of its officers. There is nothing in the rule of reason to encourage our great lawbreakers or to prolong their vicious activities a single day. In its operation honest men will find security from alarms and indictments, while dishonest men will see in it the certainty of punishment. The court has written nothing into the law and it has taken nothing from the law. By modifying a superfluous expression of its own it has made the act stronger for its true purpose when zealously enforced, and it has given the country assurance of justice and progress in its industry.

We heretofore hail the rule of reason, supported by the revived common law, as the country's best deliverance from the rule of unreason to which monopolies and trusts have long subjected us. A rule of reason that is strong enough to stop John D. Rockefeller and his associates is one which the plain people of the United States have no reason to fear.

One cause for charges being referred against Mrs. Graves, teacher in the Milldale, Conn., school is said to be that she is English and orders her gowns from New York. The specification says she wears "to smart clothes," and the school board is investigating. She is said to be the first teacher there who ever had New York clothes. One of her dresses is of hobble skirt design.

The following statement taken from the Bulletin of the North Carolina Board of Health, proves the people of Taylorsville to be wide awake on the subject of Public Health. The step they have taken to prohibit the open unsanitary privy, is worthy of consideration by our towns people.

TAYLORSVILLE GOES FORWARD.

Taylorsville, the county-seat of Alexander County, enjoys the healthful environment of the mountains of Western North Carolina. Notwithstanding these natural healthful surroundings, the town has suffered for a number of years with an undue proportion of typhoid fever.

But typhoid fever is a preventable disease, and the people of Taylorsville are aware of this vital fact; they are also more interested in their municipal health than in what a few short-sighted individuals erroneously recognize as civic pride—an effort to ignore municipal diseases. The alubrious environs, coupled with a citizenship not afraid to recognize preventable disease, and with full confidence in themselves to eradicate it, places this mountain town on an easy road to a health resort. At a recent meeting of the board of ordinance prohibiting the open unsanitary privy was enacted, and the editor does not hesitate to predict that Taylorsville will soon unarm the dangerous housefly. How few realize his danger! As was demonstrated in our last war, five times more dangerous than an opposing army! Dangerous, too only because our filth furnishes him with his death-disseminating poison.

Taylorsville is acting the role of leader. Leadership in civic or social organizations is as rare a quality as it is among men. Many live to serve yesterday but few to rule to-morrow. precedent is king of the ninety and nine; the slaves of custom, with retrospective visions fastened upon the ideals of dead time, falter, stumble, zigzag along; then a man, no counterfit, but the real image of God, with mind attune to the eternal evolutionary purpose, and conscious of its own autonomy, fixes his vision on the loadstar of progress and handles each question on its own merits, at first they call him a radical in politics, a crank in science, unorthodox in religion; but their children recognize him as a leader, fall into line and the march of civilization goes on.

Let other boards of aldermen seriously weigh their responsibility for the health and life of their constituency and likewise lead the way to sanitary reform. Believing in the principle of helping those who help themselves, the State Board of Health will see that Taylorsville has the full support of the State authorities in making herself a health resort and a living demonstration of the practicability of public-health work. Now, let's have ten municipalities during the next eighteen months for demonstration health work. Who next?

Man Thinks He Is A Monkey.

New York, May 18.—Imagining himself to be a monkey, Joseph Blewett kept three policemen climbing over branches of the tree in front of Miss Helen Gould's home at Fifth avenue and Forty-seventh street today in an effort to dislodge him. Blewett is in Bellevue now to have his sanity tested. For a half hour he furnished more amusement than Fifth avenue has had in some time. He had read he said in the Sunday papers of monkeys being retrained into the homes of the Fifth avenue millionaires, and decided he would try to be a monkey.

A large tree adorns Fifth avenue in front of Miss Gould's house, and Blewett stopped in front of it, kicked off his shoes and started up, chattering like a monkey in the zoo, and his antics attracted a big crowd.

One limb of the tree reaches out and over the porch of Miss Gould's home, and Blewett climbed out toward the house. Some one had telephoned for the police and the reserves were sent. One policeman started up after Blewett. He was joined by another, but could not dislodge Blewett. The third policeman climbed the tree, and the three managed to get Blewett to the sidewalk.

Farm Life Most Perilous.

New York Times. The experience of several large manufacturing plants in the preservation of industrial accidents and results of research that has been carried on in Germany for the last 25 years have been set forth for the benefit of the members of the National Association of Manufacturers.

It has been brought out by the Germany statistics that agriculture suffers far more from accidents than any other occupation. Of the total number of mishaps resulting in temporary disability 45 per cent, occur in agriculture, 9 each in iron and steel trades, and in building operations, and 8 1-2 per cent, in mining. It is explained that it is natural that the agricultural laborer should be especially subject to accident, for he has to handle teams, machinery, and explosives, and is too much a jack-of-all-trades to be skilled in any one. Modern methods also increase the risk of the occupation, for Canadian records show that the percentage of deaths increased steadily from 11 per cent, in 1904 to 20 per cent, in 1909, while in mining there had been much fluctuation but apparently no permanent increase.

The large number of accidents on Saturdays is generally explained by the fatigue of the week telling on the men, but it is noted also that the Monday accidents are about as numerous. This gives rise to the suggestion that the day of rest sometimes is not too wisely spent.

Admires Pastor Russell's Book.

Atlanta Constitution.—Bill Arp, the "Southern Philosopher," wrote the following review of "The Divine Plan of the Ages" some time before he died: "It is impossible to read this book without loving the writer and pondering his wonderful solution of the great mysteries that have troubled us all our lives. There is hardly a family to be found that has not lost some loved one who died outside the church—outside the plan of salvation, and, if Calvinism be true, outside of all hope and inside of eternal torment and despair. We smother our feelings and turn away from the horrible picture. We dare not deny the faith of our fathers, and yet can it be possible that the good mother and the wandering child are forever separated?—forever and forever?"

"I believe it is the rigidity of these teachings that makes atheists and infidels and skeptics—makes Christians unhappy and brings their gray hairs down in sorrow to the grave—a lost child, a lost soul!"

"This wonderful book makes no assertions that are not well sustained by the Scriptures. It is built up stone by stone, and upon every stone is the text, and it becomes a pyramid of God's love, and mercy, and wisdom. There is nothing in the Bible that the author denies or doubts, but there are many texts that he throws a flood of light upon that seems to remove from them the dark and gloomy meaning. I see that editors of leading journals and many orthodox ministers of different denominations have endorsed it and have confessed to this new and comforting light that has dawned upon the interpretation of God's Book. Then let every man read and ponder and take comfort, for we are all prisoners of hope. This is an age of advanced thought, and more thinking is done than ever before—men dare to think now. Light—more light—is the watchword."

Hot, hotter, hottest, analyses the weather these days.

Delightful perfume of the white clover bloom greets us each day as we drive on our way but down in our heart is an unfulfilled wish to stop at the creek and catch a few fish. Are we ever satisfied enough, with our lot to quit desiring better things, things we haven't got? We'll no we want a thousand sweet potato plants and would like for some of our good patrons who have them to let me know about it. That's not all we want either but we are not making public proclamations about some of them.

Belmont and Carolina crossed bats at Belmont Saturday evening score 15 to 3 in favor of Belmont. If Carolina will accept a word of advice from us we can aid them to make a better showing next time. "Beer" is a poor hand to "bat balls" so we advise an equal division of it next time, then things will be partially evened up any way. Some of the innocent by standers say that the crowd of "rooters" that came over with the team was the toughest that ever struck that village and it required considerable diplomacy to keep the two sides from getting into a general mix-up. If they had got into it right we can just imagine seeing the ground littered with teeth, eye balls, hair, blood cores and fallen foes.

THE GOLDEN AGE AT HAND.

Scriptural Evidences That Are Astonishing—No One Can Afford to Be Without the Knowledge.

We do our friends a valuable service when we call their attention to the valuable book entitled, "THE TIME IS AT HAND," in which are given many Scriptural evidences to prove where we are on the stream of time.

"Men's hearts are falling them for fear" and many of the leading thinkers are proposing remedies to better conditions. The Scriptures assure us that man's extremity will be God's opportunity, and this book holds out an anchor to those who fear the wave of unrest now spreading over the world.

The honest heart confesses that it is at a loss for an explanation of transpiring events. While we refer to this as the BRAIN AGE and the Age of ENLIGHTENMENT, nevertheless many realize that we are fast approaching a crisis which is wrapped in darkness owing to the present worldwide social, religious and political unrest.

As though by instinct the whole creation, while it groans and travails in pain together, waits for, longs for and hopes for the DAY, calling it the "GOLDEN AGE"; yet men grope blindly because not aware of the great Jehovah's gracious purposes. And to his wondering creatures, looking at the length and breadth, the height and depth of the love of God, surpassing all expectation. He explains: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord; for as the heavens are higher than the earth so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." Isa. 55:8, 9.

Operation Thought Inevitable.

Ferris, Tex.—In a letter from this place, Mary Kilman, says: "I was confined to my bed for three months, with womanly troubles, and during this time suffered untold agony. The doctor said an operation was inevitable. I tried Cardui. Now I am well, and able to do a great part of my work." Thousands of ladies have testified to the benefit obtained from Cardui, the woman's tonic. It prevents unnecessary womanly pains and builds up womanly strength. It is a true tonic. Try it. It will help you.

Mrs. S. L. Dixon went to Whitsett Saturday to attend the commencement and visit relatives.

MR. FARMER, EVERYWHERE, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—

The time has come for you to begin to think how you are going to harvest your grain. We are still selling the McCormick Machinery, the oldest and most reliable machine built today. This machine is built on the heaviest main frame made of angle steel. This material has the greatest torsional strength of steel this prevents machines from ever getting out of line. It also has the highest bull-wheel which guarantees the lightest draft of any machine on the market. All machine men, when penned down and have to tell the truth, they admit that the McCormick machine is far superior to any other machine built today. Why be fooled by these pedlars who are peddling our County trying to sell you something that they know is not equal to the McCormick. We haven't the time to do this and if you are thinking of buying a binder the next time you are in town, come in and let us talk the matter over with you. No man in Alamance County, who has bought a McCormick Binder has ever been dissatisfied, can any other Agent in Alamance County say this. we say no.

Yours for business.
HOLT & MAY

Wilkins-May

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wilkins gave a reception to about forty of their friends on last Friday night, the occasion being the return of their prodigal son. Sam is a genial good fellow and has a host of friends who are always delighted to see him. He is a Railroad man and has usually come to see mama and papa once about every two years, but this was the first time he ever came back married. Somehow he managed to fool a very sweet Union County girl, Miss Alma May. I believe I will buy his receipt now since he doesn't need it again he will sell it cheap. We extend congratulations to the hapdsome groom for his good fortune in winning this beautiful bride.

Mr. Wilkins and his bride arrived from Wingate, N. C. the home of the parents of the bride on the 6:29 train Thursday afternoon and were driven to the home of the groom where the fatted calf was found slain.

The reception on Friday evening lasted from seven to eleven. Refreshments were served and all voted the occasion a most enjoyable one. Miss Mamie Wilkins assisted by Miss Lillian Aldridge delightfully received and entertained the guests.

Games were indulged in and an observation contest ended the amusements of the evening. Miss Lillian Aldridge won first prize and John Paschal the booby.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins will spend several days with relatives and friends after which they will go to Macon, Ga.

W. J. Brooks.

Whitsett Commencement.

According to their usual custom and knowing the great in store a number of our Burlington and Alamance county friends attended the annual commencement at Whitsett Institute the past week and Monday. Dr. Poteat of Wake Forest College delivered the sermon Sunday morning, and also the Y. M. C. A. sermon Sunday afternoon. On Monday the regular literary address was delivered by Governor W. W. Kitchin. After the address the diplomas were awarded to the forty literary graduates. In the afternoon the usual orators contest was pulled off, in which the eight contestants proved their previous training and put forth their best in oratory to not be out matched by their fellow contestant. The medal was awarded to H. D. Pegg of Guilford County, who spoke upon the subject, "International Arbitration." The contest was decided by Rev. Mr. Carrack, Mr. Jacob Wagoner and our clever young townsman Mr. John Lasley. In the evening the alumni address was delivered by Mr. Hammer of High Point, after which a delightful banquet was given.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Zeb Waller, Misses Swannie Patterson, Hortense Rimmer and Flossie Loy attended the closing exercises of the Friendship High School.
