LOOK FOR STRIKE AT THE BALDWIN PLANT

Philadelphia, Pa., June 1.—Unless some common grounds of agreement is reached between the labor union and the officers of the Baldwin Locomotive works at a meeting this afternoon, a strike which will involve the shutting down of the entire plant will probably be called at midnight. The union's committee will demand the reinstatement of 1,200 employees, who were laid off a few days ago, or at least show its fair intent toward the union men by taking back those who were men of long standing in the company's ranks. So serious has the situation become that ten national heads of labor organizations represented by the workers are in the city today ready to take charge of the situation in case the demands of the men are refused. If a strike is called 14,000 enrolled union men in this and the Eddystone plant will lay down their tools. The workers are confident that if a strike is called these plants cannot be reopened with any considerable force until an agreement satisfactory to the union is reached.

JUMPED FROM MOVING TRAIN, FOOT MASHED

Greensboro, June 4.—J. M. Morgan, of Salisbury, suffered a painful, although not serious accident yesterday at noon while alighting from a rapidly moving excursion train en route from Concord to Danville. The special train was scheduled to make stops only 50 miles beyond Concord, but Mr. Morgan boarded the train at Salisbury with the expectation that he would be able to land as it passed through this city. The excursion made only a slight decrease in speed as it went through the city, and Mr. Morgan, stepping off just past the depot, slipped under the wheels of the car. The left foot was badly mashed, several of the toes being cut off, and it may be necessary to amputate a portion of the foot. The injured man was carried to St. Leo's hospital, where he was reported to be resting as well as could be expected a late hour last night.

Narrow Escape.

Manly Williamson, second son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Williamson had a narrow escape Friday evening when he fell through the place where the elevator is raised and lowered at the Williamson Wholesale house. Several bad bruises were received on the head. Dr. Taylor was called and the wounds dressed.

Sunday was memorial day at Providence Cemetery near Graham Depot. Annually many relatives who have loved ones buried there meet at their friends and pay a tribute of respect to their dead by placing beautiful floral designs on their graves. Quite a number of people from this town attend each year.

EX-SECRETARY DICKINSON PAYS TRIBUTE TO TAFT

Nashville, Tenn., June 2.—J. M. Dickinson, ex-secretary of war, in an address at a reception tendered him and Mrs. Dickinson yesterday afternoon by the board of trade, said that perfect harmony existed between the President, members of the cabinet and himself, despite rumors to the contrary. He spoke in the most commendatory manner regarding President Taft, saying his patriotism extended throughout the entire country, that he had appointed a southern man and a Democrat in his cabinet, despite the fact that the southern states had voted against him to a unit. He also cited as the president's attitude toward the southern states the appointment of Justice Lurton, a Democrat and a Confederate soldier, to the supreme bench, and in appointing a Chief Justice the President had elevated a Louisianan and ex-Confederate soldier. Mr. Dickinson also said that the president, in appointing federal judges, had in numerous instances appointed Democrats as they had appeared the best man for the position, and had never appointed a negro to a position in the south which would offend southern instincts. Mr. Dickinson added that it was not true that he had resigned because he expected greater political honors.

STATION AGENT FOUND MURDERED IN HIS OFFICE

Cumberland, Md., June 2.—Henry O. Lewis, agent of the Georgia Creek and Cumberland Railway was found dead in the waiting room at the station at Locust this afternoon with a bullet wound in his head. He had evidently been murdered but the motive is not clear. Two bullet holes were found in the door of the waiting room and a revolver lay on the floor with two chambers empty. Three balls of the same calibre were found and there were pools of blood in the waiting room. The holes in the door looked as if the bullets had been fired diagonally from the front door of the waiting room. The furniture was upset, even the office stove being turned upside down. No one heard the shots, although there are several houses near the station. No clue to the mystery has been discovered yet.

Bitten by Dog.

Ruth the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Teague while out playing Friday evening in the front yard was badly bitten about the face by the large shepard dog of Mr. Bob Spoon. The child was playing with the dog and put its arms around the dogs neck. The head of the dog was sent to Raleigh Saturday morning to be examined. But no signs of hydrophobia were found.

"What will Tennessee do with its Dickinson?" Might make him a contributing editor. There is a whole heap the public would like to know about the war department.

ROANOKE MAYOR FOUND GUILTY ON ALL COUNTS

Roanoke, Va., June 1.—After being out one hour and fifteen minutes the jury in the case of Mayor Joel H. Cutchin returned a verdict at 12:55 finding the defendant guilty on all four charges in the rule charging malfeasance and misfeasance in office. Mayor Cutchin heard the verdict with composure. There was no demonstration when the verdict was returned. The trial lasted sixteen days and the record in the case embraces twelve hundred typewritten pages.

Following the conviction of Mayor Cutchin, this afternoon Judge Mullen granted a stay of judgment for eighty-five days in which time he will apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of supercedas.

Pending this he will continue to hold office. Should it be granted he will hold on until the case is disposed of. In the event of the refusal of the writ President Seifert of the Board of Aldermen will fill the unexpired term up to September 1, 1912.

The contempt charges preferred against the mayor during the proceedings, when he is alleged to have called a witness a liar, were dropped, although the court ruled that he considered him guilty.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY MACHINISTS GET INCREASE IN PAY

Salisbury June 1.—The differences between the Southern Railway and the machinists, boiler-makers and blacksmiths in all shops of the Southern Railway system were settled tonight on a flat basis of 38 cents an hour, to be effective from April 1, 1911.

The proposition to settle on this basis was put to a vote of all the unions by wire tonight and the result was a majority of 1,000 for settlement.

The flat rate of 38 cents an hour is an increase of 2 1/2 cents an hour for the men employed at the Spencer shops, while at some other shops on the road it is a greater increase. The employees at the Spencer shops have been receiving higher wages heretofore than their fellow workmen at other points. Now however, all will be paid alike.

At the meeting of the Spencer union tonight the sentiment was in favor of a settlement.

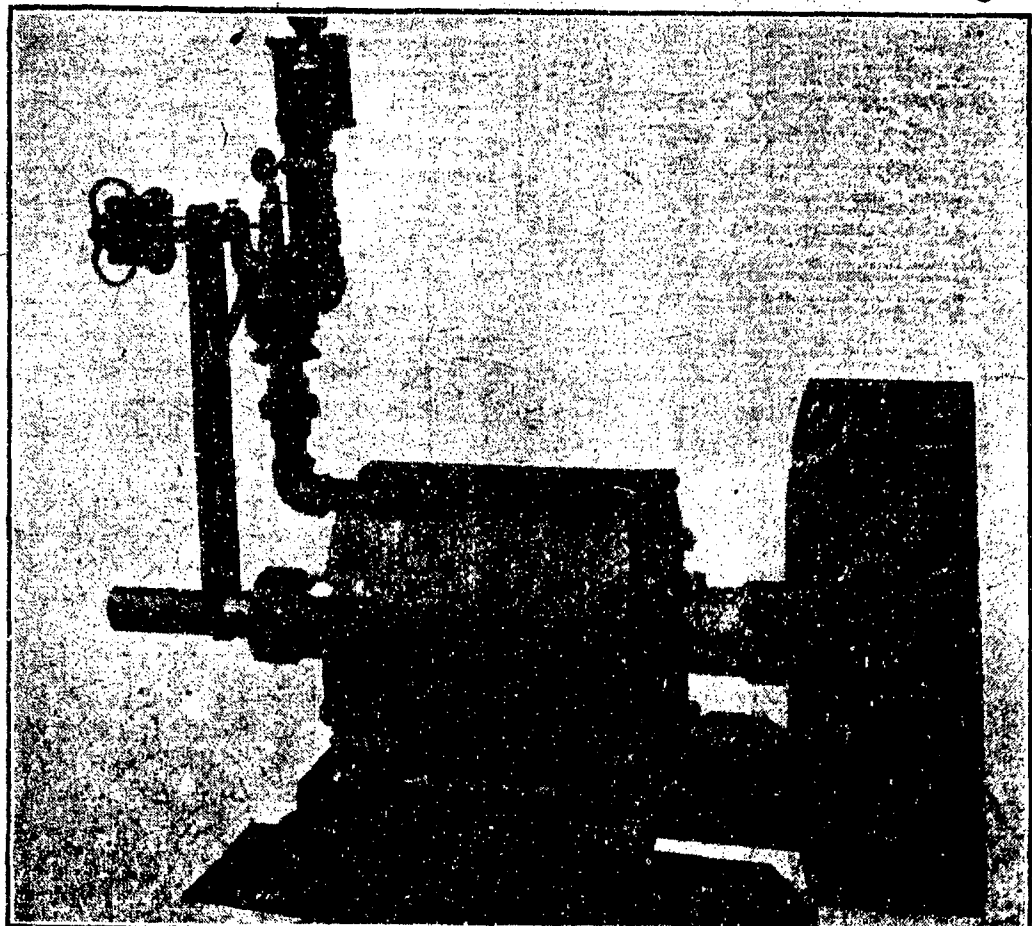

Married.

Mr. L. G. Lloyd and Miss Mary McCauley of Mebane were married last week at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCauley. Prof. O. M. Stroud their old school teacher performing the ceremony. After the ceremony they left for Washington and Baltimore. Upon their return they will reside at Asheboro. Mr. Lloyd is the brother of Mrs. C. Grady Cates.

Mr. Claud V. Fonville has returned from the University of North Carolina and is spending a few days with his parents. Mr. Fonville graduated this year, receiving the degree of Master of Art.

THE HOLT ROTARY ENGINE WILL

The Holt Engine Co., First National Bank Building, Burlington, N. C. has introduced a newly invented and patented rotary engine, which has been successfully operated and tested in the Aurora Cotton Mills at Burlington and the Agricultural and Mechanical College at Raleigh, N. C. Two illustrations of the engine are presented herewith, and it will be seen that what is practically a turbine engine has been placed under the control of cut off and expansion valve. The engine shown is of eight horse-power.

THE HOLT ROTARY ENGINE

er, one illustration showing the engine in operation and the other showing the engine with steam admission end removed, one of the valves removed and placed at base, and the other valve in active relation to the rotor. The inventor is Lafayette Holt, a practical engineer and mechanic of Burlington, and he is manager of the Holt Engine Co., of which John M. Cook is president and John R. Hoffman secretary.

The inventor claims us the two most valuable features of the engine, the patent automatic valve and the adjustable disk rotor. The shape and construction of the valve is such that while under pressure the valves are maintained in operative relation to the abutment of rotor, and the valve is balanced and has a minimum of frictional contact with the moving surface, so that the valve will act with only one pound of steam above atmospheric pressure. He states that both the activity and durability of the fectly free from vibration, steam is taken from opposite centers at identical times, and no foundation is needed further than that necessary to hold the engine in place.

The cylinder is jacked with exhaust steam to reduce condensation. The engine is dust and grit proof, no adjustments are necessary, and the parts may be separated, overhauled and put together by an inexperienced hand.

It is especially adapted to the driving of electric generators, circulating pumps, fans, elevators, farm and traction machinery, and in all agricultural and rural work where power is needed and no skilled help is available. All moving parts are oiled from one sight-feed lubricator.

The action of the steam is as follows: The high pressure or admission end of the cylinder has two abutments on opposite sides of the rotor. The steam, entering each of the two valves shown, acts on these abutments, causing a rotary motion in the rotor. By following this motion it will be seen that the abutments successively close and open exhaust ports at opposite sides of rotor housing, and alternately admit and cut off steam at the valve. The exhaust ports are directly connected to receiver in multiple engine, or to air if simple. The action is repeated continuously to any number of revolution desired, or as limited by the steam pressure and load.

Tests made by Prony brake, steam condensed, with eight-horse-power engine gave at 400 revolutions per minute with 100 pounds steam pressure 10-horse-power, with consumption of 33 pounds steam per horse-power; at 300 revolutions per minute and 100 pounds pressure per square inch the test gave 7.95 horse power with consumption of 40 pounds steam per horse power. [This engine can be seen in actual service any Thursday afternoon by making arrangements with Mr. Lafayette Holt.] We notice that all the farmers who are opposed to reciprocity ride in automobiles.

WILKINSON ROANOKE RIVER FOR POWER

Weldon, N. C., June 1.—Several experts are here to begin the development of the Roanoke river water powers recently purchased by Frank J. Gould. The improvements are expected to furnish 25,000 horse-power for transmission across North Carolina to Petersburg and Norfolk, and to operate the southernmost link in the proposed Gould electric system from Norfolk to Baltimore by way of Richmond and Washington.

This development is one of the projects arising from the merger of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Traction Company with the Virginia Railway and Power Company of Richmond, following the acquisition by Frank J. Gould of the controlling interest in the Norfolk enterprise.

The officers of the consolidated properties will meet here June 21 to take final steps looking to the actual formal merger on July 1.

GROOM GETS SIXTY DAYS ON THE ROADS

Harrisonburg, Va., June 2.—Sixty days on the state convict road force is the penalty that Robert Smallwood must pay for swearing that his 13-year-old bride, Miss Christina Hagerdon, was over 21 years of age. Tomorrow a guard from the penitentiary will take Smallwood to the force, while his youthful wife languishes for his return.

Oswell Johnson, who accompanied Smallwood and Miss Hagerdon the other day when they secured the license, and who took a chance of making the same false statement, will also do 60 days with the convicts.

The youthful bride collapsed when she saw the officer arrest her husband; and later, when she was informed that her marriage would be nullified by her extreme youthfulness, she went into hysterics. She has since learned, however, that her wedding will stand, and that the 60 days is the only thing between her and complete happiness. She is waiting.

DUKE AND OTHERS MAY FACE CRIMINAL CHARGES

New York, June 1.—James B. Duke, active head of the so called "tobacco trust," will be one of the chief defendants in the event that the government should bring criminal action against the men named in the complaint in the recent suit against the combine. The department of Justice is now considering the question of bringing criminal suits against leading men in the American Tobacco Company. Among the others named in the government's suit decided in the United States Supreme Court were Thomas F. Ryan, the New York financier, and P. A. B. Widener, the Philadelphia multi-millionaire. Attorney General Wickersham will be the official who will decide as to whether or not criminal actions will be begun.

The Burlington Grocery Co. the only car lot buyers of grain, flour meal and feedstuff, have secured their side track at last, and it runs right up along side their warehouse, this is a much needed convenience, and places them in position to handle their line of goods as cheaply as any house in the south, we understand that they have had more business than they could well handle, but this last improvement will enable them to handle all the business that comes to them, we are glad to know that they are succeeding so well, it is a business that fills a long felt want. Burlington is full of live progressive wholesale and retail dealers as can be attested by their many satisfied customers, when you are in market for merchandise either wholesale or retail, Come To Burlington.

Railroad Service Law.

Philadelphia Inquirer.
 It is a matter for general congratulation that what is known as the "hours of service law for railroad employes" has been upheld. This law, which was enacted by Congress four years ago, provides that no trainman shall be required or allowed to remain on duty for longer than 16 consecutive hours, and also fixes the time within which any telegraph operator may be steadily employed. Its constitutionality was challenged on the ground that it applied to interstate commerce, over which the power of Congress does not extend, but the court unanimously declined to admit the pertinence of this objection, and the railroads will consequently be required to comply with the mandate of the law.
 They showed little sense and did themselves no credit in attempting to evade it. Certainly, in view of the nature of his duties and of how important it is to the public that they should be efficiently discharged, 16 hours at a stretch is as much as should be required from any man whose activities relate to the actual running of the cars, and it is surprising that the railroads should ever have undertaken to challenge such a reasonable proposition.
 The enactment of the law limiting the hours of service was prompted by the occurrence of an accident attended with much loss of life in the vicinity of Washington, which was shown to have been due to the exhaustion of an employe from overwork.

Health and the Resorts.

Omaha Bee.
 It is generally conceded that the chief reason why health resorts are beneficial to health is that people who go to them follow a certain prescribed code of rules calculated to restore them and them in good physical condition. If they would observe the same system of living at their homes they probably would not have to go to resorts. As a rule the resorts are in the same latitude and altitude as their resident places and differ in no material respect except that their managers have reduced to a science the method of daily living and are able to get people to adopt their methods.
 This is saying nothing against the resorts, nor that they are not needful and helpful places. They are, because people will not do without them. A busy man for instance so long as he stays at home, where he is thrown in daily contact with his business is going to pursue the same old routine each day and if he is suffering from nervous disorder, of course he is not likely to make much improvement. He has to be removed from his work before he will do what is necessary to build him up. The resort is the city of refuge to him. He goes there, follows out a certain routine for a few days or weeks and returns all sound and ready for another tug at business.
 The average salary of a "vacant pastorate" in New York is said to be $500. That's why it's a vacant pastorate.

Encouraging Increased Cotton Acreage.

Atlanta, Ga., June 3.—One of the reasons which have been given by President Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, for advocating the adoption by the farmers of the South of methods that will tend to increase the average production of cotton per acre is that it is of the highest importance that the South should preserve the great economic advantage which it enjoys by reason of having a substantial monopoly of the production of the cotton supply of the world. If this advantage is to be preserved, foreign manufacturers must not be driven to encourage cotton growing in other countries by the failure of American planters to produce an adequate supply. Thus far, efforts to increase cotton production outside of the United States have not met with great success, but there are possibilities in that direction in Africa, Southern Asia Australia. That cotton production might successfully be carried on in some parts of Australia is indicated by the following extract from a report from United States Vice-Consul General Henry D. Baker, at Auckland, New Zealand:
 "Cotton growing, as an adjunct to farming in suitable districts in Queensland, especially near the town of Ipswich, appears to be making some progress, and to be profitable, yielding $45 to $85 per acre, seed, and $75 to $100 per acre, ginned, for upland cotton, and more for sea island. A bonus is given to the grower by the Commonwealth Government to the extent of 10 per cent on the invoice value. The Queensland Department of Agriculture is making strong efforts to induce farmers to plant larger areas, particularly in the drier areas, where grain crops are uncertain.
 "The only cotton mills in Australia are situated at Ipswich-Queensland. They were constructed some 14 years ago, but little work was done until 1906, when 57,120 pounds of raw cotton were put through. This was increased to 85,000 pounds in 1908. The mills were then purchased by a Sydney firm, which made some much needed improvements, and who have kept them working ever since."

On the evening of the 12th of May, our High School Principal, Mr. Yoder gave a reception to the pupils of the High School Dept. and those of our students who will enter that Dept. next year. About thirty were present. After a time of informal social pleasure, a guessing game, "The Island We Visit," was introduced. This was thought by some to be quite a severe test in geography, but proved easy enough when the answers were finally worked out. Ice cream and cake were served in abundance. Ideal May weather, bright moon-light, and happy young life, combined to make the occasion pass very pleasantly.

The closing exercises of Sylvan High School were held Saturday May 20th. The school-room was more than filled with relatives and friends of the graduating class. Orations were delivered as follows:

Domestic Science in the Public Schools—Lucy Dixon.

The Value of Good Roads—Sidney Boggs.

North Carolina, a Progressive State—Emma Hobson.

The Essentials of a Home—Roxie Teague.

The Way of the Reformer—Lyndon Stuart.

The Call of the 20th Century, to the Young Woman—Blanche Teague.

Higher Education for Women—Annie McVey.

Our Prohibitory Law—Thos. Carter.

These orations showed careful and practical thought, and were much enjoyed by the audience.

The literary address was given by Rev. Joseph H. Peele of Guilford College. His subject was, "The Essentials of a Strong Community."

These he defined as individual ownership of land, intelligence, and co-operation, and developed each thought in an interesting and convincing way.

The Principal then presented the certificates to the class completing the High School course, announcing first honor in scholarship, won by Annie McVey, and second honor by Blanche Teague.

Prizes were next delivered. The Jas M. Dixon Attendance Prize of $10.00 for best attendance in second year class, was divided between Lyndon Stuart and Sidney Boggs, each having been present every day.

The Thos. F. McVey Memorial Attendance Prize of $5.00 for second best attendance in second year class was won by Annie McVey.

The Dixon Prize of $5.00 for best attendance of first year pupils was won by William Hinshaw, and the McVey Prize of $2.50 for second best attendance in first year class, by Lurgity Carter.

Our County Supt. Mr. Fleming was called upon and responded briefly but encouragingly. The program closed with some tender and appropriate remarks by the Principal.

The work of the High School Department the past year under the care of Mr. Fred R. Yoder of Catawba County has been quite satisfactory. It has been considerably strengthened and is in excellent shape for even better results another year.

A Sage Child's Suggestion.

Philadelphia Record.

There's a certain minister whose duties sometimes call him out of the city. He has always arranged for some one of his parishioners to keep company with his wife and little daughter during these absences. Recently, however, he was called away so suddenly that he had no opportunity of providing a guardian.

The wife was very brave during the early evening, but after dark had fallen her courage began to fail. She stayed up with her little girl till there was no excuse for staying any longer and then took her up stairs to bed.

"New, go to bed, dearie," she said. "Don't be afraid, God will protect you."

"Yes, mother," answered the little girl, "that'll be all right to-night; but the next time let's make better arrangements."

To Whom It May Concern.

This is to notify all who have loved ones buried in Pine Hill Cemetery, and who have contracts with the Keeper to care for their plots that the year has expired, and the amounts you were to pay are now due and some past due. Kindly call and arrange the same.

Respectfully,
J. A. Huffines.

METHODIST PROTESTANTS WILL BUILD ORPHANAGE

Greensboro, May 26.—J. M. Millikan has returned from High Point where, on Thursday he attended a meeting of the board of directors of the Methodist Protestant church orphanage, the meeting being held with a number of ladies of the church who are working in the behalf of the orphanage. A committee of three, consisting of O. R. Cox, J. M. Millikan and Captain A. M. Rankin, was appointed to decide on a permanent location.

This orphanage is the first upheld by the Methodist Protestant church in the United States. Eighteen children are now in charge and the prospects of more and the care of these makes necessary the erection of a building sufficiently large to take care of them. An offer has been received from Denton, and the committee will go there next Monday to hold a meeting for further consideration of the project.

A Strange Story

Argyle, Mich.—Mrs. Wm. H. Carson, in a letter from Argyle, says: "I was almost wild with pain in my head, and other severe pains from womanly troubles. After using Cardui, I obtained great relief. Further use of Cardui raised me from my bed of agony. Cardui saved my life, when nothing else would help me." Whether seriously sick, or simply ailing, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It relieves pain, regulates irregularities, builds weak, nervous women back to health. Ask your druggist about it.

The Speed Mania.

Charleston News and Courier.

Since Phaeton tried to drive the chariot of the sun and darkened the skins of the Ethiopians, the human race has paid its annual toll of death to the mania for speed. Daedalus and Icarus and Darius Green and a host of others did their share. The three-banked galleys of the Romans, their chariot races and their morals alike paid tribute to this human characteristic.

We hardly know which is the more dangerous, the automobile race or the aeroplane. Both are typical and both reap their harvest of death with startling regularity. The disaster at Indianapolis failed to startle because it was anticipated. People take it for granted that death will follow speed trials. And yet we speak of these things as accidents. How can that be an accident which we all feel certain will happen? Rather it is an accident when automobile races are held without the accompanying tribute of human life.

We suppose that the mania will continue. It is hard to eradicate it from the human heart. Just as it is hard to eradicate the passion for gambling, which has been a distinguishing feature of the Teuton since first he appeared in history. At the same time, it is altogether wise that the state should take some means to control these speed contests and to insist on the most careful precautions.

Mrs. Cook Tells Truth

Dexter, Ky.—In a signed statement, Mrs. Cook tells the truth about how Cardui brought back her health and strength. She says, "I could not get any relief, until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic. I suffered more or less for 10 years, and was so weak and nervous I could hardly do my house work. Now I am in better health than ever before, am regular as clock work, do not suffer at all, and gain strength every day." Thousands of women have been helped back to health by Cardui. Try it.

The readers of The State Dispatch will be interested in a splendid proposition being made by the Observer Company, Charlotte, N. C. Just at this time the Daily and Sunday Observer—seven days in the week—will be sent until October 15th, 1911 to all new subscribers for $2.00. This is a considerable reduction from the regular price and is made for the purpose of introducing this paper to new readers. The only rule is that cash must accompany all orders. Send name and address and check for $2.00 to the Observer Company, Charlotte, N. C., and let this splendid paper be sent to you until October 15th.

Must Pay the Price.

Springfield Republican.

War, domestic or foreign, is mighty expensive business from the financial side, not to mention the loss of human life involved. Already our State Department is being informed of large claims to be made by our citizens resident in Mexico for property destroyed because of the insurrecto movement. One of the first acts of President De La Barra was to send notes to the representatives of aggrieved nations, stating that a court of claims would be immediately established for the consideration of demands against Mexico for damages and indemnity arising from the killing of foreigners and the destruction of foreign property. This information was conveyed to the embassies of the United States, Great Britain, Germany, Spain and China. Representations for recovery may be made through regular diplomatic channels, and it is promised that all speed will be used to bring the claims before the special court as soon as compatible with present conditions.

Here is only one of Mexico's woes. The general disturbance of the country has interfered so seriously with farming operations that the outlook for the season's crops is very bad. As business rests so much upon the product of the earth, the outlook for anything like normal business conditions in Mexico is disheartening. With the best of good fortune, not yet or for a long time to come can peaceful conditions be expected to prevail throughout that troubled country, and it is not unlikely that the new government will find itself compelled to take extraordinary measures before the year is out to feed the poor folks.

A Very Important Notice.

All Presidents of all the Township S. S. Associations are requested to arrange a TIME AND PLACE for their annual township meeting and report the same either to the President or Secretary of the County Association to the end that speakers may be arranged for all of the township meetings.

PLEASE ATTEND TO THIS WITHIN THE NEXT TEN DAYS.

MUSHROOM CORNS

Most Painful of All Foot Afflictions. How to Cure Them.

The Mushroom corn is so called from its pitted cone top, resembling a tiny mushroom. It burrows deep into the toe and gets more inflamed than other corns. For the quick relief and cure of these and all corns and callouses the following is the most effective remedy known to science:

Dissolve 2 table-spoonsful of Calcedide compound in a basin of hot water. Soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently massaging the sore parts. (Less time will not give desired results.) All soreness instantly disappears and the corn or callous can be easily peeled off. It may be necessary to repeat this for a number of nights for a complete cure but if adhered to it will surely succeed. A little olive oil rubbed on the part is very beneficial. This Calcedide is a very remarkable preparation for all foot ailments and is no longer confined to doctors' use. Any druggist has it in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. A twenty-five cent package is usually sufficient to put the worst feet in fine condition. Bad smelling feet and tender feet need only a few treatments, likewise with inflamed bunions. This item will be welcomed by persons who have tried ineffectual powders and tablets.

Entered as second-class matter May 20, 1908, at the post office at Burlington, N. C., North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3 1879.

Wednesday, June 7, 1911.

Now that they have done it? What are you going to do about it?

Politics does not make strange bed fellows as often as it makes liars.

They said they would be damned if they did. But we'll be damned if they didn't.

Either the Mayor of Roanoke, Va., is a great old sinner, or he has been greatly sinned against.

There may be some excuse for deceiving your friends, but a man ought to at least be honest with himself.

It all seemed to have been fixed before hand. No doubt the victors are now shaking hands with themselves.

It took the government nineteen years to find out what the people knew all the time, about the tobacco trust.

The city Aldermen marched up the hill, as regards the pool room and shooting gallery, and then marched down again.

It may be that Asheville has prohibition now, but it has not been in force long enough to tell whether it has hurt or not.

Senator Simmons has on many occasions voted on the trust's side of important questions. Will he do so in the pending reciprocity pact with Canada. We will see?

Dr. Faucett would be a good man to send to Congress, because he seems to be able to land his men alright. Well, doctor we admire your efforts, but darn your judgment.

What puzzles us, is why a man on a fast moving train bound for Danville, should want to get off at Greensboro at the peril of his life. Perhaps he knew Greensboro and was not going to take any chances.

They really meant to have a change, but remember this is a business board, not well versed in the ways of politics and they did not know just how to do it. Give them a chance, they may do better next time.

When a city Alderman meets you on the streets and volunteers the information that he is in favor of a change, and that he is going to vote for one, take it with a grain of allowance. It is made subject to change.

It is said that some of the board of Aldermen promised the ministers of the city that they would not vote to license pool rooms etc. But at this time the owners had not agreed to close at half past nine. Some people are easily satisfied, especially when they are in a hole and want to get out.

This is a business board and they go about things in a business way. Hereafter the pool room and shooting gallery must close at half past nine, so that the boys can get out and do some devilment before bed time.

It is said that if the reciprocity treaty with Canada is defeated, that it can be charged to the paper and lumber trust's. We are awaiting with interest to see how a certain Senator from North Carolina votes on the proposition.

Prohibition has not hurt Asheville, are the head lines to an article in a contemporary upon the situation there. We know of people who doubt if they have ever had prohibition there, judging from what has transpired there in the last month or two.

Are There Any More Walker's?

The Walker family seem to be a lucky set. Three brothers are now upon the city pay roll, Dr. L. A. Walker health officer, C. A. Walker, Clerk to the water and light commission and B. M. Walker, fire inspector. Are there any more to add to the pay roll?

Some Dottings of the Re-Union.

By G. W. P. Cates.

On Thursday morning the last breakfast was served at the camp in addition to that, every departing soldier was given a lunch to carry away to use while on his way home. The surprise and delight of the Vets at this unexpected courtesy was unbounded. An average of five thousand was fed each meal, at some meals as many as eight thousand were taken care of, a great many put up with their friends in the city. The task of feeding so many people was one to stagger most men, but Mr. Bateman ably assisted by Mr. E. A. Perkins steward, had no difficulty in handling so great an undertaking. So skillfully were they in managing the task that no complaint was heard. To feed the vast multitudes every day wholesale quantities of provisions were necessarily used, according to Mr. Perkins: 1,600 loaves of bread, 8,000 pounds of steak, 3,000 pounds of roast beef, 110 cases of eggs and 1,700 pounds of coffee formed the basis of the menu for breakfast, dinner and supper. These vast quantities of food were supplemented with such lighter provisions as 350 bushels of Irish potatoes, 125 gallons of sugar corn, 125 gallons of stringed beans, 128 gallons of canned peaches, 128 gallons of canned apples, 128 gallons of apricots, 600 pounds of navy beans, 400 pounds of rice, 300 barrels of tapioca and many kinds of fruits including 90 boxes of oranges, the foregoing is sufficient proof that the Veterans were given the best the market could afford, there was plenty at each meal, and served with neatness. Eighty five waiters were employed to serve the old vets, 27 cooks with ten assistants, twenty dish-washers kept everything clean. Mr. Bateman and Mr. Pickett did their best to use the proper proportions for each big feast. One of the great sights of the re-union was to see the thousands of veterans dining in their mess hall. Their youth and high spirits came back to them and to say that they enjoyed every minute of their stay at Camp Shaver is but to express their, or our own assertions, we was among them. There was an information bureau a post office and several relief stations for the comfort and convenience of the veterans, the tents were spacious, the cots and bedding new clean and comfortable and everything was provided that any reasonable man might want. There was no discord in the camp at any time and very little sickness among the thousands quartered at the park. Considering all these things it is no wonder the vets leave Camp Shaver with deep regret. Many of us will never attend another reunion, if we do it is not likely we will ever be so pleasantly situated. There is no telling how many times Dixie was played by the fourteen bands in the parade but it might have been played two thousand times and then there would have been cheer after cheer. Dixie was the foundation of all several times, two bands could be heard playing it at the same time. No other air had the power to arouse the people to such enthusiasm. The ladies of the city have in mind to dethrone the bar rooms and they are slipping, the temperance workers are gaining ground and the saloons must go. All hail to the good ladies. Mrs. J. W. Crawford is one of the best temperance workers that it was our lot to meet. Time would fail us to tell it all, so we will close by saying that Lloyd Crawford of the thriving town of Wynn, of about 3,500 people accompanied us to Memphis on our way home, he being acquainted there showed us around and we found Memphis a thriving city, and we saw some of the best farming land we ever saw, yet we love the Old Tar Heel State.

Farmers Union Rally and Picnic.

On May 30th the day and Snow Camp the place, there was held under the Auspices of Snow Camp Local Union one of the most complete and successful meetings of the kind ever held. The weather conditions were fine the extreme dry weather had about put the farmers out of a job and at an early hour the people began pouring into the historic village in every conceivable form, on foot, in wagons, buggies, horseback automobiles, and by ten o'clock the place presented the appearance of a regular 4th of July celebration with its numerous stands for refreshments and etc. and to show that the immense crowd was in the right humor for enjoying the day the owners of the various stands reported one hundred dollars worth of refreshments sold.

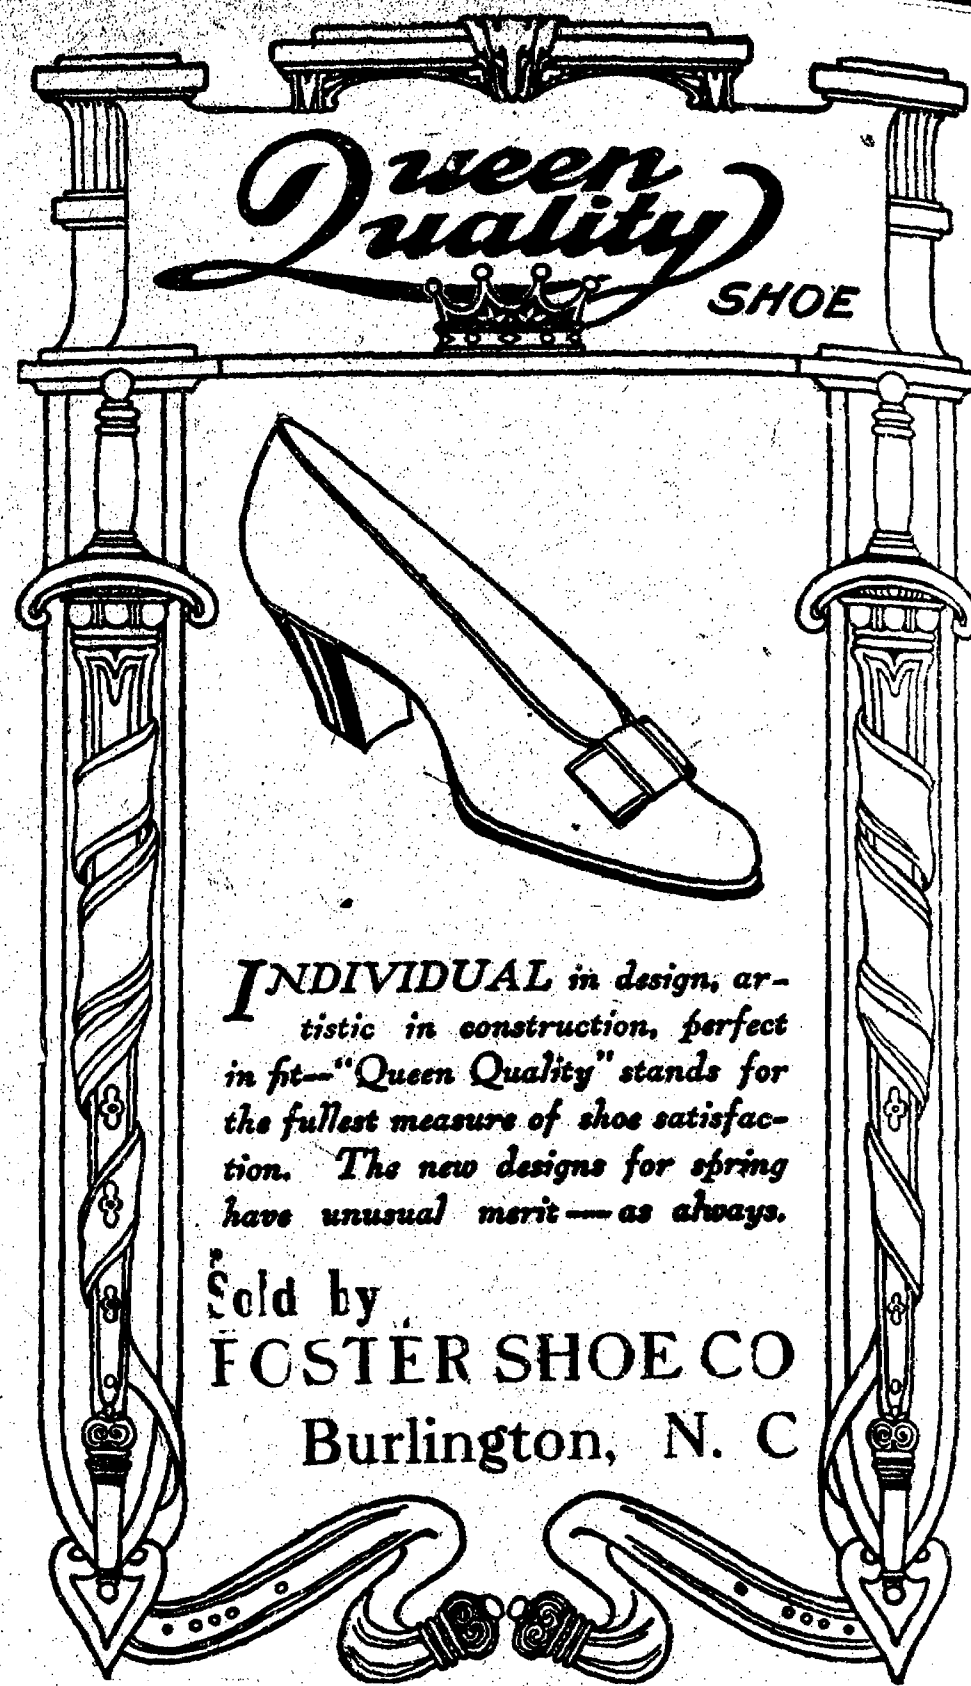

At 11 o'clock under the branches of a large tree whose shade was supplemented by a very large tent the great throng of people began to assemble while the beautiful strains of music from the string band from the Kimesville section led by the veteran player Mr. Joe Swing assisted by Capt. Curtis, Messrs Clapp and Seba Murray and Mr. Clapps son as banjoist, unquestionably the best ever heard in South Alamance, putting the people in the very best of humor and ready to take in the speech which was to follow.

The President of our local Mr. J. H. Roach called the meeting to order. The address of welcome delivered by J. C. Griffin, who in a few well chosen remarks on behalf of the Union and the good people of the community who so kindly assisted, warmly welcomed the members of the various lodges represented and every body else. The response for the visiting lodges was made by Esq. W. A. Tinnin of Friendship local after which the main speaker Mr. J. M. Kester of Kings Mountain was introduced and for nearly an hour held the immense crowd almost spell bound with his matchless eloquence.

He chose for his subject North Carolina her progress, and problems, and while the speakers who were expected to be with us failed to get there, it was the unanimous verdict of that large and enthusiastic audience that young Mr. Kester had made one of the best addresses ever heard in our section. I shall make no attempt to repeat any part of his speech but it was simply grand.

After the speaking the good women began to prepare the table one hundred feet long and when all was in readiness the sight presented, beggars description. A photograph of the table and crowd was taken and can be had by applying to the Secretary at Snow Camp. After dinner was over a good part of the evening was taken up with music by the band, social conversation and a good game of base ball between Cane Creek and Saxanahaw teams resulting in a score of 4 to 3 in favor of Saxanahaw the very best order prevailed throughout the entire exercises and it was sundown before the last picknickers left for home all voting it a day of entertainment and pleasure well spent.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent:
Washington, D. C., June 2.—The United States is close to that postal Utopia, a one-cent sealed letter rate. For the first time in thirty years the post-office department is not only self-supporting, but is bringing a large revenue to the government. When we remember that only two years ago there was a deficit of more than seventeen millions of dollars and that there is now a surplus of three millions, involving a change of twenty millions, we can have some appreciation of what Postmaster General Hitchcock has accomplished. He can do much more if Congress will but second his efforts, and by the establishment of a parcels post 99 per cent of the people of the United States will be benefited and the federal government will turn what has heretofore been a losing business into one of great national profit. At the present time there is besides the three million dollars turned back to the Treasury, a full million in the national postoffice and unless the expenses during this month should prove extraordinary, the surplus will be still greater for the fiscal year. Let it not be forgotten that the present administration inherited a deficit of more than $17,500,000 dollars, the largest in the history of the postal service. This deficit was soon changed after Postmaster General Hitchcock took charge. In the past it always has been the custom for the government to set aside at least ten millions to meet the deficit of the general postoffice, but Mr. Hitchcock found that he would not have to use any part of the amount and sent it back to the Treasury. An accounting plan was adopted about a year ago, which insures the prompt deposit in the Treasury of postal funds not required for disbursement at postoffices, and to this reform in the financial system of the postoffice department the present much desired condition is in part indebted.
To be able to send a sealed letter for one cent will mean something to almost every man, woman and child in the country. To large business organizations which spend thousands of dollars yearly for postage stamps, it will mean a great saving, but it is not at all improbable that the government will make more through the one-cent postage and its effect in largely increasing correspondence than under the old system. Now, let us have the parcels post. Of course, there will be a swarm of lobbyists opposing it, headed by the Express companies and the railway companies and all who have stock in them, but 99 per cent of the people of the United States, while they may not know it or foresee it, will be greatly benefited by the parcels post.
There has been no little interest in an apparent fight within the Democratic House majority, concerning the tariff on wool in the new bill which Mr. Underwood is expected to present early next week. Mr. Bryan has been in Washington and has tried to influence the Ways and Means Committee in favor of free wool. Mr. Underwood holds that a small tariff on wool is necessary for revenue. The contention was waxing warm and Mr. Bryan has been criticized for his interference. Mr. Underwood pointing out that when Bryan was in Congress he voted for the Wilson bill, which levied a tax on wool. It is expected that the Democratic caucus will approve the Underwood measure and that Mr. Bryan will as usual be defeated.
The Attorney General stated yesterday that the Department of Justice in its efforts to control all unlawful combinations in interstate trade, would bring criminal charges under the Sherman law against responsible persons. The Attorney General gave this information in his testimony before the House Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice. He then declared that as a result of the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases decisions, juries will now be disposed to convict and judges to impose sentences under the penal provisions of the law. Representative Beall of Texas had asked the Attorney General why there had been so few criminal convictions under the Sherman anti-trust law. He answered that in the past juries had shown a reluctance to convict and the courts to impose prison sentences. He attributed this to the uncertainty as to the import of the law, now made clear by the Supreme Court decisions.

The Teeth.

By J. S. FROST, D. D. S.
In giving expression to the countenance, no organ or set of organs has greater effect. No man can give the impression of strength or power whose teeth are frail and uncared for. His words are unheeded and his authority weakened as soon as he exhibits a weak and diseased set of teeth. Nothing so quickly rivets attention and causes such a feeling of repulsion as uncared for teeth in a woman. Many beautiful women convey a shock and arouse a sense of pity instead of admiration when they open their mouths. Anything which will heighten the effect of these organs becomes of the first consequence to people of refined society.

Important Meeting.

The Annual Session of The Woman's Missionary Union of Orange Presbytery will be held in the Presbyterian Church of Burlington, June 6-9. John Sharp Williams is growing deaf, and makes an ear trumpet of his hand during the debates. His voice, which used to make the House stir up is now so low-pitched that the senators who want to hear what he's saying have to shout at him to speak louder.

HELLO MR. FARMER

We are agents for the Milwaukee Binder and we have called on you for your order for Binder, Mower, Hay Rake or such things as you may need in the coming harvest. Well Mr. Dealer you may enter my order for the Milwaukee Binder my neighbor has one he has been using for two years and I find it is the simplest machine on the market. And by far the highest machine I ever saw in the field.
Well what we have to say about the Milwaukee machine is what we know from experience. We do not try to mislead the people telling them we are General Agents and that our machines are like other machines. No we claim to have a machine in a class to itself. We have proved that in two years time. Sold more than the others all put together. The people in this county are intelligent and they are no longer being led by misrepresentation.
We are Local Agents for the Milwaukee Binder at Burlington, N. C. and we do not have the General Agent of N. C. with us. And we want to inform the public that no one in Burlington has the personal help of the General Agent. This is a false alarm. Neither does the other people have a machine like ours. We are proud our competitors have acknowledged our machine the best machine on the market. We are glad to know they are such nice fellows.
Only sold forty-six last year every body well pleased and we feel sure every one will sell one for this year.
Nothing to do but call phone 72 and we will be glad to give you all the information you may need along this line. We pay the cash for the goods and we have the labor to do the work and will be a pleasure to have you drop in and see to your own satisfaction that we have the goods that will not pull your stock to death in the harvest field. You have plenty time now to get in line and get the goods of honor and high quality. Don't be deceived by hot air and gass bags they will not push the binder in the harvest field. Come along and get the goods that has proved all we claimed and a great deal more. You will be welcome at all times in the Milwaukee Headquarters in Burlington. We want to see you and talk the matter over.

Your friends.

From a Sanitary Standpoint, to what extent am I my brother's keeper?

By Dr. W. G. Stafford.

After Cain murdered Abel, when God Almighty inquired of him, "Where is thy brother Abel?"

Cain's evasive reply was, "Am I my brother's keeper?" This smart repartee was not sufficient to procure for him an acquittal; and he was told that "Thy brother's blood crieth to me from the ground."

From the sequel and by inference we know that Cain, as the elder and stronger should have been his brother's keeper, and that we are our brother's keeper, whether we accept the charge or not, and must answer to our Maker for the manner in which we guard the deposit.

Not less deadly than the instrument with which Abel was slain are the many agencies which produce disease and death. Many of these are preventable, some by combined and others by individual effort. Hence we are held, individually and collectively our brother's keeper. Whether against the infection of the typhoid germs or the worse germs of the social evil, we are called upon to protect our own flesh and blood from such contamination. But how is this to be accomplished?

First, by instruction as regards the danger and second, by prompt application of the arm of the law in cases where instruction is disregarded. As regards instruction, we must first clean up around our own doors, as evidence of the good faith that is in us. Let us adopt the sanitary privy where we have not sanitary water-closets. Let us utterly abolish the offensive and unsightly pig sties that taint the life-giving air we breathe. Let us see that the dirty papers and decayed leaves and other trash are all gathered up and burnt.

Let us instruct our youth of both sexes in the value of personal purity, of regular habits, of exercise, of employment in some useful avocation, of cheerfulness of fortitude in suffering, and of moderation in all things.

As regards the application of laws of the city and of the country, let us see to it that all infractions of our sanitary laws are promptly called to the attention of the proper health officer, who is empowered alike, to instruct and enforce. Let no one say, "Well, this does not so much concern me, and I'll not be meddling; I'll let the health officer find out if he can. I am not my brother's keeper." If you do then your example will be followed by many, others, and your inaction will be quoted to alay the popular conscience when others really feel the call to a better way of living.

We are glad to note that our County Commissioners have employed a high-toned, well-trained professionally capable, health officer for all his time, on a salary basis, so as to give him the largest opportunities for the exercise of his privileges and powers. All honor to the men who dared to take this step forward, whose example has already done good in other counties and will yet do vastly more. This health officer, is at once a teacher and an executor of righteousness. Let us hold up his hands.

Blind, Dizzy Spells

Wilmington, N. C.—Mrs. Cora L. Ritter, writes from this place: "I used to have blind dizzy spells and weak cold spells went all over me. Different doctors could not tell me what was wrong. After taking Cardui, I am all right and in better health than for 10 years." Cardui is a remedy for woman which has been used by women for nearly a lifetime. It prevents the unnecessary pains of female troubles, such as headache, backache, dizziness, dragging down feelings, etc. Try it.

Lightning Sets Fire to Oil Tank.

New Orleans, June 2.—The plant of the Record Oil Refining Company, 12 miles from New Orleans, was partially destroyed by fire this afternoon when a bolt of lightning struck a tank of crude oil. Two tanks containing approximately 1,000,000 gallons of oil and a warehouse were destroyed. The damage is estimated at $150,000.

Aldrich's Currency Scheme.

You may be surprised to hear it, but in a few months' time a new political issue is very likely to be looming on the horizon that will dwarf all other issues now in sight. It will arise from the attempt to create a new financial institution in this country to be known as the Reserve Association of America. Its enemies will not call it that. They will call it "the Money Trust of America." Ex-Senator Aldrich is its architect. The National Monetary Commission will probably be its sponsor. The American Bankers' Association has already practically decided to endorse it. The National Board of Trade is decidedly favorable to it. The opposition to it has hardly as yet begun; but the lines on which it will develop have already been made clear, and they are lines that have never failed to arouse and inflame the passions of the American people. Our history is full of instances. The contest between Hamilton and Jefferson was one of them. The desperate conflict between Andrew Jackson and the United States Bank was another. The strife over the resumption of specie payments was a third. The free-silver controversy was a fourth. The next one is now in the incubator. It will be hatched December 4th if the incubator works according to the program.

The plan has as yet been submitted only in outline. The Monetary Commission, which has been in existence one and one-half years, has not yet acted on the plan; but when its chairman, Mr. Aldrich, presented it a few weeks ago, it is said that "a somewhat unexpected unanimity of opinion" prevailed in its favor, even the Democratic members, from whom opposition was expected, manifesting "cordial approval." To bring the subject into general discussion a series of public hearings has been planned for various parts of the country. The Commission is expected to make its long-deferred report at the opening of the regular sessions of Congress next December; but just to make sure, Senator Cummins is pushing a bill calling for the report December 4th and providing for the discharge of the committee, which is costing $100,000 a year, at that date. The plan as developed so far is pronounced by A. Platt Andrews, first assistant secretary of the treasury, "the most profound and comprehensive attempt at constructive legislation which the country has witnessed since the days of Hamilton." But Lesley M. Shaw, ex-secretary of the treasury, declares that such an institution as the plan provides for, whatever its name, "puts the business of the United States of America absolutely and irretrievably in the hands of Wall Street." —Current Literature (June).

A Charming Woman

is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But it's hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons shown in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a goldsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c at Freeman Drug Co.

Chicago Tribune. "Force the children to take back seats at the moving picture show," is the advice of an English authority, who says that no child should be allowed to sit nearer than thirty feet away from the curtain. "Children as a rule like to crowd down to the front of the show and the parents sees no cause for objection. But parents are marking the ill effects of the flickering shadow picture ignorant of the fact that the nearer the child is to the front the worse the effect upon the immature eye. As many parents accompany their children to these shows let them force the children to take back seats, thirty or forty feet back if possible. It would be even better idea if the management of these shows would prescribe a line beyond which the child would not be allowed to sit. For a nation of defective eye may be expected if something isn't done along this line of reform.

From a Late Snapshot

To see all of his regular Patients and such Cases, as may wish to consult him. Dr. Packard enjoys a wide reputation, among the profession and the Public of North Carolina, where for more than 25 years he has devoted his entire time to the study, Treatment and Cure of Chronic Diseases. The Doctor has had wonderful success in his chosen work, that of curing chronic sufferers, Men, Women and Children. The Patients he has restored to health after they had given up all hope of being Cured are numbered by the Thousands. He is a kind, generous, democratic gentleman to meet, of high scholarly attainments, and dignified personality. Coupled with a Brotherly interest, in all who seek his advice. He does not take a Patient for Treatment unless he can foresee a Cure of the Case. The most commendable feature of his work, and one that appeals to the ordinary sick person, is the fact of his charges being so reasonable and moderate as to make it within the reach of even the very poor. At no time do the charges amount to more than $7.00 a month or about $1.50 a week. He gives his own medicines, and there are no extra Charges. It takes him never more than from four to six Months to Cure a Case under Treatment. All Cases, even those who have been given up as incurable or hopeless, have been Cured and restored to perfect health by this Brilliant Physician and the wonderful methods he employs. If you want to meet him and have him examine you, go to see him, and talk the matter over with him. It will cost you nothing if he does not put you under treatment. If he takes your case, it will cost you a very small sum to get well.

Admires Pastor Russell's Book.

Atlanta Constitution.—Bill Arp, the "Southern Philosopher," wrote the following review of "The Divine Plan of the Ages" some time before he died: "It is impossible to read this book without loving the writer and pondering his wonderful solution of the great mysteries that have troubled us all our lives. There is hardly a family to be found that has not lost some loved one who died outside the church—outside the plan of salvation, and, if Calvinism be true, outside of all hope and inside of eternal torment and despair. We smother our feelings and turn away from the horrible picture. We dare not deny the faith of our fathers, and yet can it be possible that the good mother and the wandering child are forever separated?—forever and forever?"

"I believe it is the rigidity of these teachings that makes atheists and infidels and skeptics—makes Christians unhappy and brings their gray hairs down in sorrow to the grave—a lost child, a lost soul! . . .

"This wonderful book makes no assertions that are not well sustained by the Scriptures. It is built up stone by stone, and upon every stone is the text, and it becomes a pyramid of God's love, and mercy, and wisdom.

"There is nothing in the Bible that the author denies or doubts, but there are many texts that he throws a flood of light upon that seems to remove from them the dark and gloomy meaning. I see that editors of leading journals and many orthodox ministers of different denominations have endorsed it and have confessed to this new and comforting light that has dawned upon the interpretation of God's Book. Then let every man read and ponder and take comfort, for we are all prisoners of hope. This is an age of advanced thought, and more thinking is done than ever before—men dare to think now. Light—more light—is the watchword."

MR. FARMER, EVERYWHERE, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—
The time has come for you to begin to think how you are going to harvest your grain. We are still selling the McCormick Machinery, the oldest and most reliable machine built today. This machine is built on the heaviest main frame made of angle steel. This material has the greatest torsional strength of steel this prevents machines from ever getting out of line. It also has the highest bull-wheel which guarantees the lightest draft of any machine on the market. All machine men, when penned down and have to tell the truth, they admit that the McCormick machine is far superior to any other machine built today. Why be fooled by these pedlars who are peddling our County trying to sell you something that they know is not equal to the McCormick. We haven't the time to do this and if you are thinking of buying a binder the next time you are in town, come in and let us talk the matter over with you. No man in Alamance County, who has bought a McCormick Binder has ever been dissatisfied, can any other Agent in Alamance County say this. we say no.

Yours for business.

Decay of Truth.
Ohio State Journal.
The Lord Chief Justice of England says the love of truth among his countrymen is dying out, and a writer in the Daily Express indoeses the statement strongly. He says:

"People have grown so accustomed to telling white lies in minor affairs that almost unconsciously they have extended the plan to every department of life. Priests, politicians and publicists, all move in an atmosphere so impregnated with lies that they are not able to recognize the truth when they meet it."

One of the saddest things about this growing disposition to lie is the increase of perjury. Swearing to a thing doesn't seem to have much difference. If a man will lie he will likely swear to it. The courts should get on to that. We base the idea of justice between man and man upon truth, and then assume we get the truth when we know we don't. This propensity to lie, which the Lord Chief Justice declares to exist, is shattering the temple of justice from turret to foundation stone. And what is to be done about it? We will have to change the whole system or have 10 indictments for perjury where we now have one.
