

SEVERE STORM WORKS HAVOC AT DANVILLE

Danville, Va., June 18.—A cyclonic wind, rain and electrical storm swept over this city this afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock inflicting damage estimated at $100,000 to $250,000, chiefly in the unroofing and flooding of cotton mills, tobacco factories storage plants, destruction of trees and shrubbery, chimneys, awnings, porches, telegraph and telephone and electric transmission poles and wires. The trolley service of the city was suspended and will be tied up for twenty-four hours. The entire telephone service of the city is out of commission and the city is isolated.

The heaviest damage to buildings was in the business section. The storm came suddenly from west northwest. Main street, noted for its heavy shade of old oaks, elms and maples, some of them of gigantic dimensions, was a scene of desolation. The broad residence thoroughfares were blocked at many points by prostrated trees, the telephone and trolley wires and poles. Hundreds of the oldest and largest shade trees, the pride of the city, were delinked, torn and uprooted, and filled lawns and streets with wreckage. This heavy shade, however, saved the best residence section by the resistance they offered to the storm.

The White mill of the Riverside Cotton Mill Company, was unroofed and the automatic sprinklers set going, flooding the building and inflicting heavy loss of stock and machinery.

The tobacco factory of John E. Hughes & Co., was unroofed and the stock badly damaged. The factory of E. K. Jones & Co., leaf tobacco, was unroofed and heavy damage done to the stock.

The Danville Wagon Company's plant on Craighead street was unroofed and partly wrecked. A brick tower on Acree's tobacco warehouse was hurled into the street.

One of the factories of Dibrell Bros., leaf tobacco, was partially unroofed, as was the plant of the Imperial Tobacco Company.

The plant of the Riverside Overalls Company and Millian Medicine Company on Floyd and Higg streets were unroofed and many smaller buildings in various sections were similarly damaged.

DEACON CLEARS THE CHURCH WITH HIS GUN

Savannah, Ga., June 18.—A mad scramble for windows and doors interrupted the sitting of a jury of elders at the Clifton Baptist church, 5 miles from here today, when Deacon Joseph Smalls, Jr., who was on trial for card playing, drew a revolver and covered the jury and audience while he forced them to listen to his defending argument.

The hearing was moving along smoothly but applause shook the building every time a point was made against the defendant. Just before the jury began the consideration of their verdict, Smalls arose and said he was determined to give his side of the case. When he drew his revolver, he quickly cleared the house of all except the scared conference members. Flourishing his pistol, he waxed eloquent and before he knew it, two of his hearers jumped behind him and pinioned his arms, while others came to disarm him. At this point, Smalls' mother entered the church armed with a butcher knife and promised to make more trouble, but she soon was quieted. Police were called from Savannah and Smalls was taken to the station. The elders continued their session and Smalls was deposed as deacon.

FAREWELL GREETING MAY PROVE FATAL TO BRAKEMAN

Philadelphia, Pa., June 17.—A farewell greeting to a girl friend nearly cost the life of Thomas Hoffman, of Wilmington, Del., a Pennsylvania railroad brakeman, when he fell from a train at Frankford Junction today. With three ribs and left shoulder broken Hoffman lies in a serious condition at the Frankford hospital.

The brakeman was "making up" a long freight train when Dorothy Benner, of Frankford, whom, it is said, he is soon to marry, appeared on the station platform.

"Good by, Tommy," she called as the train swept by. Hoffman looked back and waved his hand, as he did so the train gave a sudden lunge forward and he was hurled to the ground. The girl was the first to reach him. He was unconscious. The brakemen in the caboose heard her cry and went to her assistance. At the hospital it was stated that Hoffman may also be internally injured.

Prof. Robertson Endorsed.

Burlington, N. C., June 19. State Dispatch:

Several weeks ago I noticed an article by Mr. Hoffman placing Prof. Robertson before the people as a man suitable for the superintendency of our county schools. Upon hearing that Dr. Fleming will not be a candidate for the place this year, I would like to say a word endorsing Prof. Robertson. I was in college with him and I know him, I suppose, as well as anybody around here does, for in college a man shows what he is.

While in college Prof. Robertson was a good steady student. He was not the book-worm we sometimes hear about, but he was a young man who had the time to take advantage of the various sides of college life. He was not one of those who thought that college life was only to get and recite lessons, but he was a student who, beside getting and reciting lessons, took an active part in the Y. M. C. A., the Literary society, and other things, thus preparing himself for a responsible place.

Pro. Robertson has proved himself to be an excellent teacher, a man of pluck and push, and a Christian gentleman, and hence, I think, would prove himself happily chosen as Superintendent of our County Schools.

BANK CASHIER SHORT TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Rocky Mount, June 15.—Luther V. Hart, cashier of the State Bank of Tarboro, shot a bullet into his brain late yesterday, and E. R. Hussey, assistant cashier, was arrested following the discovery of an alleged shortage of more than $50,000 in the accounts of the institution, where they were employed. State Bank Examiner J. K. Doughton is in charge of what assets remain and the bank has been closed. Both Hart and Hussey are members of prominent families, and the affair has created a tremendous sensation throughout this section.

The State Bank of Tarboro is capitalized at $25,000. It was reported to have $20,000 surplus and $6,000 undivided profits. Deposits amount to more than $200,000. The institution was considered one of the soundest in this section of the State.

Business was being conducted as usual yesterday morning when the State examiner, Mr. Doughton, appeared on one of his regular visits. An hour later it is said, Mr. Doughton made some alarming discoveries, and at once wired C. V. Brown, his assistant to hurry to Tarboro.

Cashier Hart left for home at his regular luncheon hour. On the way he met a business acquaintance and made an engagement for the afternoon. On his arrival at home he greeted the members of his family as usual, and went to his room. Shortly afterward the members of the household were startled by the report of a revolver. They rushed to Hart's room and found him unconscious and dying. He breathed his last at 4 o'clock without regaining his senses. The bullet fired into the right temple passed through his head. His wife was the first in the room after he shot himself.

Shortly after the suicide Hussey was arrested on a charge of embezzlement. He was subsequently released on $15,000 bail, the sheriff of Edgecombe county furnishing the bond. Both Hart and Hussey are alleged to have been concerned in the reported misappropriation.

Hart was thirty-five years old. He is related to several of the most prominent families in Eastern North Carolina. Besides his wife, two sons survive.

PRISONERS BURNED TO DEATH IN THEIR CELL

Philadelphia, June 16.—As the result of a fire in the cell they occupied in the Eastern penitentiary, in this city, James Dougherty died today from inhaling flames, and James Crowley is in the prison hospital so badly burned that he is not expected to live.

At the penitentiary it was said that on Wednesday night the guards were aroused by cries coming from the cell occupied by the men, and when the small apartment was opened it was found full of flame and smoke. The two men lay unconscious.

Good conduct prisoners at the penitentiary are permitted to smoke, and it is believed the bed clothing became ignited from a match or spark from a pipe.

New Machine and Engine Shops.

A deal has been closed by The Holt Engine Co., of this city and J. Thompson & Son, Machinists of Haw River in which their shops have been purchased and will be moved to this city, provided the Holt Engine Co., are able to sell the $20,000 worth of stock now being solicited.

All additional machinery will be added necessary for the building of the Holt Engine, automobile repairing and the doing of a general repair machine shop business.

Mr. Thompson is a first class machinist and the Holt Engine Co. is fortunate in securing his service.

Children's Day will be observed at the Reformed Church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

AVALON COTTON MILL DESTROYED BY FIRE

Greensboro, June 15.—Fire early tonight destroyed the Avalon cotton mill at Mayodan, Rockingham county, entailing a loss of probably $250,000 or more. The fire originated in the machinery room, but no one knows just how it started, or how it was caused. The blaze was discovered about 7 or 8 o'clock and it had already made too much progress to be handled by the inadequate fire fighting facilities. A large crowd of operatives of the mills gathered about and witnessed the fire fiend, powerless to stay its ravages. The mill was burned to the ground and is practically a total loss.

The Avalon mill was built about twelve years ago and had been a most successful enterprise. The company was incorporated at $209,000, but the property was worth more than that at the time of the fire. It produced cotton yarns and was about 25,000 spindles capacity. W. C. Ruffin is secretary, treasurer and manager of the company and F. H. Fries of Winston-Salem is president. The mill employed nearly 400 people.

TWO MEN FALL 25 FEET FROM ROOF SCAFFOLD

Fayetteville, June 17.—Two slaters fell from the roof of the Atlantic Coast Line depot this afternoon, a distance of twenty-five feet. The scaffold gave way. One of the men, F. T. Harris, was very badly hurt, the scaffold falling on him and the slate cutting a terrible gash across his face.

H. A. Tolson, the other man, was only slightly hurt, as he jumped and landed on his hands and knees. Dr. J. V. McGoughan, was quickly on the scene and conveyed the wounded man to the hospital where he was found to be badly bruised and injured.

BANDITS USE CHLOROFORM TO ROB SLEEPING ITALIANS

Erie, Pa., June 16.—Six armed bandits at 2 o'clock this morning visited the camp of laborers employed on the Bessemer road, near Erie, and, after chloroforming 20 or more of the men, escaped with over $2,000, which represented the lifetime savings of many of the workmen. Two posses are tonight scouring the country in search of the bandits.

There are about 50 of the laborers living at the camp, many of them being foreigners. Yesterday was their pay day. Many of the workmen, after receiving their pay, left for their homes in Erie and Pittsburgh, leaving behind at the camp about 24 of their fellow workmen.

About 2 o'clock this morning six men, their faces concealed by masks and carrying revolvers, quietly entered the camp. The first man they robbed happened to be awake. When he tried to give an alarm he was struck over the head with the butt end of a pistol and rendered unconscious. The thieves went from shanty to shanty, pouring chloroform on the pillows of the men's beds. Then the bandits took their time in rifling their trunks and clothing of all they possessed. The police say that the bandits escaped with about $2,205. There is no clue for the police to work on.

EDITOR TRADE JOURNAL PASSES AT ASHEVILLE

Asheville, June 15.—Delegates to the annual convention of the North Carolina Retail Furniture Dealers Association were shocked this afternoon, when announcement was made just before adjournment was made that death had claimed Wilbur Jones, of High Point, editor of the Southern Furniture Journal.

Mr. Jones was here attending the sessions. He was in good health yesterday and went for a drive over the Biltmore estate. This morning he went for a stroll and when near the Mission hospital he collapsed. He was taken into the hospital and complained of a pain in his side.

He died shortly after noon. The remains will be shipped to High Point tomorrow afternoon accompanied by a committee from the association.

MONEY IN HAND FOR CLEVELAND MONUMENT

Newark, N. J., June 15.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees of the Cleveland Monument association held here today it was announced that the actual work of constructing the memorial tower at Princeton to commemorate the love and deeds of Grover Cleveland would be underway within a few weeks. Former United States Senator John F. Dryden, chairman of the committee, stated that all the money was in hand, complete plans and specifications are prepared and that the contract would soon be awarded.

TOUGHS SLAY MAN ON STREET OF NEW YORK

New York, June 16.—For years cheerful old William Bley, who played the French horn in Hammerstein's Theatre orchestra and was one of the best liked musicians of this city, staded the Paddy's market gang, a bunch of non-working young thugs who hung along Thirty-eighth street, between Eighth and Ninth avenues, to growler money. Each morning as he wended his way home he would produce the needed coins to fill the big pail with the beer the crowd wanted. Yesterday, however, one of the gang struck on old friend of Bley's, and he swore he was through with the crowd. So when he was asked for "the price" today he warmly denounced the gang.

Despite his many kindnesses one of the crowd a powerful young bully felled the old man with a fearful blow on the jaw and another kicked him on the head as he fell. Bley was dead when the police arrived, and detectives are now seeking his assailants.

EXPLOSION ON THE MAINE WROUGHT TERRIBLE HAVOC

Havana, June 16.—Despite the fact that the partial exposure to view of the wreck of the battleship Maine shows the hull to be in much worse damaged condition than supposed, Major Ferguson, of the engineering force, announced today that this would hardly make it necessary to change plans for the removal of the wreck.

A depth of more than ten feet was reached today in the work of pumping water from the cofferdam. Every recession of the water shows more terribly the effects of the explosion, although nothing has yet been found to indicate conclusively the nature of the explosion. The searchers expect to enter the officers' quarters in the after superstructure tomorrow.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scoggins was buried at Pine Hill Cemetery Friday.

FIND COAT AND HAT ON BANK OF CREEK

Richmond, Va., June 15.—What appears to be irrefutable evidence of suicide was found here this morning by Private Detective Gee of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad. While walking along the banks of the Shockoe Creek, Detective Gee came upon a neatly folded coat with a hat placed carefully on top of it.

The man had taken pains to conceal his identity, the name of the maker being removed from both hat and coat and the pockets of the coat emptied of everything save an application blank for a position on the Norfolk and Western Railroad. The blank had not been filled out, however, and this single clue furnishes little upon which to establish the man's identity. Captain Barfoot, to whom a report of the finding of the coat and hat was at once made, has started a rigid examination of all the circumstances for further evidence. In the absence of any note or message the police are endeavoring to find the makers or sellers of the discovered garments.

MAN KILLED AT KINGS MOUNTAIN IDENTIFIED

Kings Mountain, June 15.—The remains of the unknown man who was found dead on the Southern Railway track near here Sunday and buried here Monday by the railroad, were dug up today and identified as those of Mr. John Sellars of Spartanburg, S. C. Mr. Sellars followed the trade of painter and blacksmith. The remains were in such condition that the identification was hard to establish, but, by the clothes that he had on and a key that was found on him, the identity was made positive. The remains will be shipped to Spartanburg this afternoon for burial. Mr. Sellars left Spartanburg sometime Saturday night, but it is not known on what train. Exactly how his death occurred will probably never be known.

My Opinion.

It is only a short time before the County Board of Education of Alamance County meets for the election or appointment of a County Superintendent of Schools, and having been engaged in teaching and being deeply interested in the education of the children of Alamance County, I desire to express my opinion of Prof. J. B. Robertson who is a candidate for that responsible position.

I believe there is no man in Alamance County who is better qualified and who will, if elected, make a better man for the position than Prof. J. B. Robertson, being personally acquainted with him I know he is a man of sterling qualities, a man who is a graduate of the State University and a man who has been active as a teacher, having devoted all, or a greater part of his time in the noble work ever since his graduation. He is a man who has worked hard and knows the needs of the common people, and no man deserves more honor than he.

He is destined to become one of the great educators of North Carolina. And let me say in conclusion to the County Board of Education that I believe that I voice the sentiments of all fair minded Committees, Teachers, and Patrons in Patterson and Coble Townships and a majority of all of Alamance County when I say that we want Prof. J. B. Robertson for County Superintendent of Schools in Alamance County.

Very Respectfully,
S. J. Buckner.

The Teeth.

By J. S. Frost, D. D. S.

Teeth Lost from Neglect.

Modern dentistry is a fact—faith is unnecessary. People are not antagonistic to the good it can do them, but believe implicitly in it. Therefore, upon this rock we stand: Teeth can be saved, and people know it. Then, why don't we live up to our belief? Ah, there's the rub! If the people know dentistry can save, why don't they accept its blessings?
 The millions of teeth that are premature, lost every year, and the consequent impaired vitality of our nation is not entirely due to a lack of personal interest in our own welfare. Everyone who knows the value of a tooth is sorry to lose one. Few people would part with their teeth for one hundred dollars each so long as they had never caused any pain.
 Neglect or procrastination is the great trouble with our people.
 This article is meant for the reader, not some one else. Did you ever notice a small dark place in your front tooth or eat something that caused a moment's pain in one of your jaw teeth? If so, you decided then and there that sometime later you would get that tooth filled. Did you continue to put it off from time to time until the tooth decayed so far beneath the gum margin or the nerve became so diseased, that when you were driven to the dentist with an aching tooth you found to your great dismay that you had put it off too long. The tooth which several months before, you valued so highly was so wrongfully neglected that in the end it ached and caused you much more pain than you would have experienced if the tooth had been filled at the proper time.
 Your teeth are guards protecting your health and life. They are on trial by the many forces that cause decay. You are both their Judge and Jury. Will you save them, or let them be lost?

How To Poison Flies.

The people of West Raleigh held a meeting last week to organize a Fight-the-Flies Club. They have studied the danger to health in these pests and had the privilege of hearing an address by Dr. R. L. Smith, Entomologist of the North Carolina State Experiment Station, who has given study and practical tests to the subject of the breeding of flies and also to the best way to poison flies. His address has borne fruit. In one place in West Raleigh, by the use of formaldehyde as suggested by Dr. Smith one and a half quarts of dead flies were picked up in a place where the flies were particularly bad.

The following statement was made by Dr. Smith: There is only one real good method of lessening the number of house-flies, and that is to do away with the breeding places, or prevent flies from breeding as they would without hindrance. Many things have been tried to kill house-fly maggots in manure. Chloride of lime fairly successful when used in large quantities, but is impracticable to follow this method under ordinary conditions. The best thing, therefore, is to have the stable manure hauled out and spread in the field at least once a week. In this way the maggots are killed and practically none have time to mature and those that mature in the field do not often return to the houses. There are several successful fly poisons that can be bought in any community, and we have learned quite recently that formaldehyde is one of the best and cheapest poisons that can be used. This costs about fifty cents a pint and one tablespoonful in a cup full, one-half milk and one-half water is all that is necessary and should be exposed in shallow plates. It is well to put a piece of bread in the plate. This poison is most successful if used in places where flies are very numerous, such as milk rooms, back porches where refuse is often placed, or around the kitchens. When attempting to poison flies, it is best to use the poisons outside of the building as well as inside. Flies can often be poisoned by the hundreds on porches where they are waiting to enter whenever the door is opened.

We will never succeed in greatly lessening the house-fly nuisance by simply poisoning or trapping the flies, but whenever people become interested enough to prevent flies breeding they will find that a little additional work toward killing off the flies by the use of poisons, sticky fly papers, traps, etc., will be well worth the trouble.

A Model Town.

Baldwin, Kansas, the home of Baker University, the big Methodist school of the West, is in a class all by itself. There is no other town in the State like it, says a Kansas paper.

Religion forms the warp and woof not only of the college and its attaches and students, but of the business interests as well. Talk with the Baldwin banker, barber, druggist or liveryman for five minutes and he will say something about the religious spirit that pervades the townsite. And he speaks of it in a friendly way, too. He seems to take great pride in it. The spirit of the people is so entirely different from that of other towns that it is very noticeable as well as refreshing.

A stranger is soon impressed with the seeming eccentricities of the town. For instance, the hotel will not keep cigars in stock for its customers. The proprietor doesn't believe in smoking. One druggist keeps cigars, the only ones in town.

Methodists own and run Baldwin, the Presbyterians have a slight toehold in one of the suburbs and the Catholics have a church with a dozen or so members over near the railroad. But it is hard sledding for both anti-Methodist institutions. Some years ago a Topeka Presbyterian opened a bank there, but he sold out later. He said that Baldwin was no place for a Presbyterian to try to do business in.

Perhaps more superannuated preachers live in Baldwin than in any other city of its size in the world. They flock there to spend their last days, as the spirit of the town just suits them. It is also a great place for retired farmers with religious tendencies. Parents move there from all sections of the country in order to get the effect of the spirit upon their children during the period character forming.

A person can walk the streets for six months and haunt every public place, even the livery stable, without hearing an oath uttered. Crime is a thing almost unknown in the town. Most people never lock their doors at night. A bootlegger can find no customers there. Once upon a time the town was scandalized when it learned that some of the college boys were drinking sweet cider.

Bread is the staff of life, to have it good, buy Melrose and Dan Valley.

SPRING BRINGS SORE FEET HERE IS A POSITIVE CURE

With the advent of warm weather comes foot troubles to thousands of people. The increased temperature and heaviness of the atmosphere causes swelling and excess perspiration. This brings on a series of foot troubles. The treatment given below will be welcomed with joy by an army of sufferers. It acts like magic. "Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocide compound in a basin of hot water; soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently massaging the sore parts. Less time will not give the desired results.) Repeat this each night until the cure is permanent." All sores and callouses can be peeled right off. Bunions are reduced to normal and the inflammation drawn out. Sweaty and smelly feet, tender and swollen feet need but a few treatments. This Calocide is a remarkable drug. Formerly used only by doctors but any druggist now has it in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. A twenty-five cent package is claimed to cure the worst feet.

H—ll's broke loose in Georgia again—this time in a church. Sometimes more of that article can be raised in a church than in most any other place.

The announcement is made that Prof. Frank H. Curtiss will leave Burlington in the near future. He goes to Reidsville to take charge of the Seminary in that city, which is one of the best equipped boarding schools in the State, and the securing of Prof. Curtiss at its head insures for the institution an educator and disciplinarian of which any community might well be proud of. He is among the foremost educators of the State and is well equipped for any position in any institution of learning in North Carolina. We regret to see Prof. Curtiss leave Burlington, but wish him unbounded success in his new field of labor. Reidsville is to be congratulated.

The Holt Engine Company.

Last week the officers of the Holt Engine Company began a canvass for $25,000.00 of stock for the Holt Engine Co. The stock that these gentlemen are offering is guaranteed stock, stock that you cannot lose under any circumstances the par value of your stock. All that is possible to lose is six per cent interest on your money, this guarantee made through the Cashier of the First National Bank, with whom a certain per cent of the cash capital stock is paid in to the trustee for the purpose of redeeming this stock in the event of the failure of the company. The dividends on this stock are preferred to the amount of five per cent, and in the event that this company makes as much as twenty five per cent or any amount over five per cent, the guaranteed stock shares in the same class with the common stock. This should be a very satisfactory investment to every person in our county, seeking a small and safe investment, as well as to large investors. The subscriptions are taken upon the condition that $20,000.00 of bond subscriptions be secured, and if not, the subscriptions are not binding upon the subscriber.

These gentlemen have assured us that they have outside parties that will take $75,000.00 worth of guaranteed stock, provided that they can raise $25,000.00 in Alamance county. If this can be done it assures for us a large, up-to-date, modern machine shop. Something that will be a money-making institution, regardless of whether the Holt Engine is a success or failure. These gentlemen are very anxious to demonstrate to all interested parties, the merits of the Holt Rotary Engine and we believe that a large number of our men who are depending upon the public for their support in business, could well afford to take a few shares of stock in this concern and thus enable them to locate in Burlington. If this requirement is not met they will be forced to seek other locations, because they showed us this morning several letters, offering them gifts in money and free factory sites to locate in other sections of this state and of the Central West. They are now negotiating to our knowledge for the North Carolina Railroad Shops at this place, in which to locate their plant. They will give employment to a number of master mechanics, who will be good wage earners, therefore, giving employment to a class of people that have never had employment in our town before. Thus, not conflicting with present labor conditions in any way.

We feel and believe that if the people of Burlington and Alamance county, will not retain this industry when they have it offered to them, it is useless for the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants of our town to ask for outsiders to locate in our midst. If they will not retain what you already have, it is useless to make further effort in any way, and these gentlemen are offering you to our own knowledge securities that are absolutely safe, and we should be very glad that if every party that is interested would call upon these gentlemen at the First National Bank Building and have all the terms and conditions of their stock contract fully explained, so that no statement that we make will mislead in any way. We are confident that this is the opportune time for the securing of a large machine shop and modern foundry that will give employment to a large number of high class employes thus increasing the pay roll of our little town.

The Great Convention of Laymen At Burlington.

Burlington and Alamance County are to be congratulated upon the Laymen's Convention to be held in Burlington June 30th to July 2nd, 1911.

The Convention will be conducted by a Local Executive Committee, and the first session will be on Friday evening, June 30th, at 7:30 o'clock, and one feature of this session will be a supper provided by the ladies of the City, and it is earnestly hoped that all delegates will be present at this first session. A nominal fee of 35 cents will be charged for each plate. At this session short addresses will be made by these visiting speakers and others. The Convention will be held in the new Presbyterian Church. The Finance Committee has already provided the necessary funds to defray the expenses of the Convention.

It is sincerely hoped that every Church in the County will avail itself of this opportunity and send at least two delegates to the Convention. Entertainment will be provided for without charge by the Executive Committee. Every delegate is urged to forward his name to Mr. Vitus Holt, Burlington, N. C., Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, so that this Committee may make the necessary arrangements for his entertainment in advance.

Queen Quality SHOE

TODAY waded shoes are the most popular. Yet the ordinary waded shoe lacks flexibility, the sole is stiff, hard, unyielding. "Queen Quality" waded shoes are different, they all have "Wonder Worker Process" Flexible soles, making them as flexible and elastic as a Turn Shoe.

They are as comfortable as an old shoe from the first moment worn.

Death of Miss Moser.

Ella Eugenia Moser died in the home of her mother on Dixie St. June 17, 1911, aged 22 yrs. 10 mo. and 28 days. Ella was a bright young lady with many friends, and it seemed that a long life was before her. But that dread disease consumption seized her and in the bloom of young womanhood she was carried away. In early life she united with Lows Evangelical Lutheran Church and died triumphant in faith. She leaves a mother, one sister and two brothers. Her funeral was conducted in the home at 2 p. m. June 19, by Rev. J. D. Andrew and her body was laid to rest in Pine Hill Cemetery.

Memorial Service—A Tribute to Mrs. C. Brown Cox.

At this service there will also be special music. The public is cordially invited to these services.

A Laudable Undertaking.

We learn that Reverend John Benner Gibble, Rector of St. Athanasius' Parish, has secured the services of Mr. E. Seton Blyth, a Professional Choir Trainer and Pipe Organist of Scotland. Mr. Blyth has had 18 years of experience in his profession, and received his musical education in London, England, where he was a pupil of Dr. Frank Sawyer, Organist and Choir Master, Assistant at Westminster Abbey. He has already commenced to train several boys to sing in a vested choir which the Rector hopes to have in the New Granite church which will be consecrated in the early Fall. Any bright boy from 8 to 12 years of age can be taught to sing. And we are glad to know that Rector Gibble has placed such a fine opportunity before this community. Choir Training will be given to any boy of the ages mentioned, and to any young man from 16 years and over, and young woman from 16 years and over who will sing in the church choir. At a very early date a fine Pipe Organ will be installed, and we congratulate our Brethren of the Episcopal Church upon their progress and success.

J. R. Hoffman, Secretary of the North Carolina Retail Merchant's Association left Monday night for Hendersonville where he will spend a few days attending the annual meeting.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., June 16.—There is a widespread idea that Washington is a depopulated city during the summer. Its normal population is over three hundred thousand, and it is probable that the summer population of 1911, owing to the fact that Congress is in session, is not less than this number. Washington has become a great center for conventions, whether religious, industrial, social or what not. They come here in great numbers and there is of course no city on this side of the globe where visitors can see as much or enjoy themselves as well as at the capital. The railroads bring large numbers of excursionists to the city in the summer—people who are on their way to the seashore and who are glad to avail themselves of an opportunity to see the national capital at a minimum expense. Fully 75 per cent of the resident population remain here through the summer months and those who take it for granted that Washington is dull at this season are mistaken. Ambassador Bryce of England said in a recent address that Washington enjoys the distinction of being the most beautiful city in the world through its multitude of public buildings, its wide shaded streets and in its symmetry of plan. "The most beautiful capital of its kind the world has ever seen," is, I believe, the exact language used by the ambassador. The words "of its kind" are of course limiting. The ambassador is a cosmopolitan as well as a diplomat, and he no doubt weighs his words and is careful in his statements. There are of course many other cities, not only in Europe and Asia, but also in America that go far beyond Washington in population and some of them far excel Washington in wealth and in architectural effects, but with Ambassador Bryce's limitation, "the most beautiful capital of its kind," his statement will perhaps defy criticism. The cities of the world with regard to population and in the order of their bigness are London, New York, Paris, Tokyo, Chicago, Vienna, Berlin, St. Petersburg, Philadelphia and Moscow. It will be seen that three of the largest as well as the next to the largest are in the United States, and it is predicted that within thirty years New York will be the largest city in the world. It is, however, bumptious to boast of big cities, and the excess of city population is believed by many to be symptomatic of national disease or degeneracy. The most thrifty and best-governed nations in the world are those which have a larger rural than urban population.

Our age is one of bewildering change and progress. Distance has been diminished in so many ways and is in process of still further annihilations by inventions of yesterday, that it is impossible to tell what tomorrow may bring forth. At the capital of the United States, the densely built streets on each side of Pennsylvania Avenue which were a few years ago the centers of fashion, have long since been abandoned by the well-to-do and a large part of the wealthier population of Washington is living from three to ten miles distant from the Capitol. But the time and labor required to reach the White House, the Capitol, or any of the marble department buildings is less now than it was twenty years ago. Automobiles and electric cars have taken the place of horse-drawn vehicles. It is not unusual to see coal, brick, lumber and other heavy articles moving along the wide asphalt streets of the capital under electric or gasoline propulsion. The few fine horse-drawn equipages of other times have an antiquated appearance, and will no doubt soon be obsolete.

There is but little of interest going on in the legislative and executive departments of the government. The Democratic majority in the House of Representatives is held well in hand by Mr. Underwood, through whom caucus rule is supreme. It is thought that the Senate will sooner or later pass the Canadian reciprocity bill in the same shape that it came from the House. It is earnestly opposed by some Senators who are endeavoring to make records for themselves with their constituents with a view to prolonged senatorial tenure, but it is believed that a very decided majority of the people of the United States are in favor of the measure and that it will finally become a law.

ECZEMA CURED

Pimples Disappear and Complexion Cleared Over-night.

New York:—Thousands are taking advantage of the generous offer made by the Woodworth Co. 1161 Broadway, New York City requesting an experimental package of Lemola, the new skin discovery, which is mailed free of charge to all who write for it. It alone is sufficient to clear the complexion over-night and rid the face of pimples in a few hours. On the first application of Lemola the itching will stop. It has cured thousands afflicted with Eczema, Teeters, Rash, Itching and Crusting of skin scalps of infants, children and adults. It is good for the preservation and purification of the skin, scalp, hair and hands for the prevention of the clogging of the pores the usual cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness and also the treatment of burns, scalds, wounds, sores, chapping as well as the toilette and nursery.

The Orphans Class.

This Singing Class from the Oxford Orphanage has started on its second tour. The demand for the splendid entertainment which these children give has grown so much that it has become necessary to have the tour of the State divided into three trips instead of two, as has been the case for some years past. This enables them to take two resting spells instead of one which makes the work much easier on them.

The first trip, which was confined to the north-eastern and piedmont section of the State was a most successful one, and the children's entertainment received most flattering compliments at every point visited. In fact we are informed that the invitations which come in, begging for a visit of the children, are so numerous as to make it, at times, not a little embarrassing to the management to know how to accept all of them. This is so much the case that after every effort is made by the management to show their appreciation of these invitations, some places have to be left out.

This is a noble cause and worthy of the help of all good people, but we feel sure that all who attend these concerts will get value received for all they pay to hear them.

A Dreadful Wound

from a knife, gun, tin can, rusty nail, fireworks, or of any other nature, demands prompt treatment with Bucklen's Arnica Salve to prevent blood poison or gangrene. It's the quickest, surest healer for all such wounds as also for Burns, Boils, Sores, Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Chapped Hands, Corns or Fills. 25c at Freeman Drug Co.

Atlantic Coast Inventors.

The following patents were just issued to Atlantic Coast inventors, reported by D. Swift & Co. Patent Lawyers, Washington, D. C., who will furnish copies of any patent for ten cents apiece to any of our readers.

Va. Wallace P. Kennedy, Richmond, Weighing attachment for refrigerators; W. S. Mosby, Newport News, Packing board for trunks.
N. C. Lewis M. Oden, Raleigh Scraper.
S. C. Peter H. Beheha, Latta, Sign.

Texas Woman Near Death.

Wills Point, Tex.—In a letter from Wills Point, Mrs. Victoria Stallings says: "I was afflicted with womanly trouble, had a dreadful cough, and suffered awful pains. I certainly would have died, if I had not been relieved by taking Cardui. Now I am stronger and in better health than I ever was in my life. I can't say half enough for this great medicine." Do you need relief? Cardui will help you. Try it for your womanly troubles. Its age is its guarantee. It cures.

To Whom it May Concern.

This is to notify all who have loved ones buried in Pine Hill Cemetery, and who have contracts with the Keeper to care for their plots that the year has expired, and the amounts you were to pay are now due and some past due. Kindly call and arrange the same.

Respectfully,
J. A. Ruffines.

HELLO MR. FARMER

We are agents for the Milwaukee Binder and we have called on you for your order for Binder, Mower, Hay Rake or such things as you may need in the coming harvest. Well Mr. Dealer you may enter my order for the Milwaukee Binder my neighbor has one he has been using for two years and I find it is the simplest machine on the market. And by far the lightest machine I ever saw in the field.

Well what we have to say about the Milwaukee machine is what we know from experience. We do not try to mislead the people telling them we are General Agents and that our machines are like other machines. No we claim to have a machine in a class to itself. We have proved that in two years time. Sold more than the others all put together. The people in this county are intelligent and they are no longer being led by misrepresentation.

We are Local Agents for the Milwaukee Binder at Burlington, N. C. and we do not have the General Agent of N. C. with us. And we want to inform the public that no one in Burlington has the personal help of the General Agent. This is a false alarm. Neither does the other people have a machine like ours. We are proud our competitors have acknowledged our machine the best machine on the market. We are glad to know they are such nice fellows.

Only sold forty-six last year every body well pleased and we feel sure every one will sell one for us this year.

Nothing to do but call phone 72 and we will be glad to give you all the information you may need along this line. We pay the cash for the goods and we have the labor to do the work and will be a pleasure to have you drop in and see to your own satisfaction that we have the goods that will not pull your stock to death in the harvest field. You have plenty time now to get in line and get the goods of honor and high quality. Don't be deceived by hot air and gass bags they will not push the binder in the harvest field. Come along and get the goods that has proved all we claimed and a great deal more. You will be welcome at all times in the Milwaukee Headquarters in Burlington. We want to see you and talk the matter over.

Your friends.

Commander, Laurence...
Gentlemen.

I esteem it an honor to participate for a little while in these interesting exercises.

It is a beautiful custom inaugurated by the daughters of the Confederacy at the close of a struggle that rocked a hemisphere that set apart one day on the season
of flowers to pay humble tribute
to their beloved and heroic dead.
And let it be to the everlasting honor and glory of the South that she is the only nation in history that having suffered defeat in war perpetuates in bronze and marble the name and form of her heroic dead, and annually her people, whatever their vocation,
pause from their labor and come with beautiful flowers to the little mounds that hides their sacred dust.

To those who participated in or who witnessed that terrific struggle these memorial occasions possess peculiar significance. For the while at least we live in the past. Memory is busy leading us here and there through her twi-lighted realms. With noiseless step she comes and takes us back over the rolling years to buried hopes and unfiled anticipations to the time when as boys
just cleverly in our teens, light-hearted and happy we buckeled
on our armor and stepped forth in the contest with for dramatic display, for expenditure of blood and treasure and keenest suffering stands without a parallel among civilized nations. She calls from out the dust of death's long silent years comrades whose bones
are bleached upon the hill tops
and in the valleys of these native Southland, and those too, who since have crossed the dark flowing river, and today we think they stand about us in feeling,
in memory and in sustiment.

She bids us thro realms dark and bloody and our fields strewn with the dead bodies and mangled forms of our companions. She vividly recalls the varied experiences incident to that mighty struggle, the lonely picket clad in his thread worn jacket without our coat and often without a blanket exposed to the bitterest storm of rain and snow, keeping vilent vigil on the army in the still watches of night, the tolesome marches over mountains and through streams often marked by bloody footprints, with half rations of bread, and sometimes the little ear of hard corn as our daily ration and frequently days without food, catching a little sleep here and there often sleeping on the frozen ground with a thread worn blanket for his covering if happened
to have one.

The London Times, the organ
of public opinion in Europe said:
If the renown of brilliant courage stern devotion to a cause and military achievements almost without a parallel can compensate for the toil privation of the hour
when the country men of Lee and Jackson may be consoled amidst their sufferings. From all parts of Europe, from their enemies as well as their friends,
from those who condemn their acts as well as those who sympathize with them come the tribute of admiration. The history made by the confederate soldiers will flash down the tide of time a history of glory.

Whenever this young soldier
who endured without a murmur
for four bloody years suffering and hardship unparalleled with annals of war. Whose heroic achievements have made his name a household word the world over. Who fought not for any hope of reward, save the reward that might come to him in the acquirement of a principal which he held dearer than life. Whose fame will live as long as the bright orbs in the dome of the sky shall keep watch our sacred dust. It is sufficient to say he was cradled in the lap
of the most splendid in civilization that ever had existence on the earth, a product of the South, the civilization that kindled the fires of the revolution that established this government on a sound and solid foundation, that wrote its constitution and Bill of Rights and gave to the country
its most profound interpreter.
Thus born and reared in an atmosphere with such a civilization created his sublimeness and is not surprising. But he failed.
He could not help it. God had decreed otherwise, and his reckless heroic courage and the genius of his generals could not prevail against the decrees of the Almighty.

On the bloody plains of Char-celorsville, in the darkness of night, in the density of the forest, and by the hands of his own friends a master of man was removed from the earth, thus making appomattox possible. God of his activities but not before the world had been filled with his fame. And the waters of the historic rivers on whose crimson tides his life blood ebbed

away will go on murmuring plans of the tragic fate and mingling forever with the name of that genius of geniuses the immortal Jackson.

But whatever may be said of the ever brilliant record of the confederate soldiers in the final analysis the tribute of all admiration must be laid at the feet of the women of the South. It was they who furnished the inspiration that made the confederate soldiers invincible. They stood between the plow handles in the day and by the loom at night.
They dug up dirt floors in meat
houses to make salt for their own use and that of the army. When troops in the field went hungry,
they had but a crust. No language can portray the magnificence of that womanhood exhibited at every crisis in the history of that struggle. It was as glorious in defeat as it was in victory. Its unconquerable spirit rose superior to all disaster. But of all the exhibitions of love and fidelity
that exhibited in the great hospitals has no parallel in humane suffering. The same sweet women in whose once dimpled
cheeks sorrow and bereavement
have plowed great furrows are here ministering angles as fragile as flowers and as beautiful in their holiness. They risk life, moving all to succor and comfort.
Heaving here and there some scrape the lint and prepare the bandages, others wash and dress
the wounds and bath the fevered brow and whisper words of comfort.

Some day there will be erected a monument chiseled out of marble as pure and as beautiful as the womanhood it represents to commemorate their beautiful
deeds and glorious achievements.
But whatever it shall be or not they are forever enshrined in the hearts of the true and the brave everywhere.

"Have you heard of those women,
long nurtured in ease
And free of life's cares as the
birds in the trees,
Who, with spirits aflame, when
the war tocsin
pealed
Over valleys and hills, went to toil in the field?"
And through heat and through cold, with grim fortitude
wrought
In the midst of their slaves, while the patriots fought?

Through the day at the plow, in the night at the wheel--
What age and what cause ever boasted such zeal?
What hearts were so brave and
what hands were so fair
As embroidered those flags, in the silence of prayer,
That were destined to dazzle the eyes of the world
E'er they sank without blemish,
shot-riddled and furled?
What perils they braved, and
what hardships they bore!
How they struggled and stunted
and fought from the door
The gaunt wolf of hunger that howled evermore!
Yet gave the last morsel of bread
from the store
To the famishing army, weak,
haggard and white,
That, shivering, slept in the trenches at night.

Or, tender as angels of mercy,
they sped
To the scenes of war's carnage,
yet blazing and red,
And succored the wounded, as mothers would do
For their own, whether clad in
the gray or the blue,
And shrouded the fallen and
mournfully read,
In the absence of priest, the sad
rites of the dead.
Thus, they passed through tose barrowing years that have frown,
What tears and what heart-aches
may never be known-- Brave women! God bless them
and give to them length
Of years, with full measure of joys and of strength!
As they gave to the South in the day that she strove
Their loyal devotion, their faith
and their love!"

[The above is the speech delivered by Mr. D. S. Kilby on memorial day at Pine Hill Cem-
tery.—Ed.]

This part of the moral vineyard was visited with a fine rain the evening of June 11th. very much needed and appreciated. Harvest will begin in earnest this week. Oats very heavy, some already cut. Wheat and rye good, considering the dry and hot weather, corn is doing well. Farmers have been mowing, plowing, &c. with a vim as one man puts it for he had nothing to bother him. Rev. W. H. H. Lawhorn of Carthage preached for Rev. R. R. Gordon at Mt Zion to a large congregation 2nd Sunday. He was remembered by many of the older people as he preached here during the Session of the Sandy Creek Association in 1873. There will be an all-day Laymen's mission meeting at Mt. Z on the 2nd Sunday in July. Everybody invited to attend. Mr. Albert Smith has purchased him a new reaper. He says it does fine work. Mr. Floyd Spoon and Mr. Trolinger of Burlington visited the former's family Sunday, and attended church at Mt. Zion.

A large crowd attended the Ice Cream Supper at Robert L. Loys Saturday night and enjoyed them selves fine. They say Bob eat so much of the cream that he was real sick Sunday.

Jacob Sharpe was there also and did not get home until Monday. Don't know whether Jacob got too sick to travel or whether he went after the supper was over. There was another Ice Cream supper the same night at E. L. Riche's and a large crowd attended it so Jacob might have gone there and took on another load of cream which would account for his not getting home on time.

Haw River and Bellemont crossed bats again Saturday and up to the 7th ending the River boys had the lead but in the eight ending the Bellemont team made 3 runs with no outs when a decision of the umpire gave some dissatis faction so the Haw River team and their pitcher being very tired they decided not to play any more so the game went to Bellemont by default. Score 9 to 0.

We desire to call attention to the advertisement of the State Normal and Industrial College which appears in this issue. Every year shows a steady growth in this institution devoted to the higher education of the women of North Carolina. The College last year had a total enrollment of 909 students. Nine-tenths of all the graduates of this institution have taught or are now teaching in the schools of North Carolina.

The dormitories are furnished by the State and board is provided at actual cost. Two hundred appointments with free tuition, apportioned among the several counties according to school population, will be awarded to applicants about the middle of July.
