

FARMERS' INSTITUTE A DAYS OUTING

Elon College, N. C., July 27, [Special]—The second session of the Western Alamance and Eastern Guilford Farmers' Institute was held here on Wednesday, and was largely attended. Mr. J. S. Jeffreys, A. & M. College, delivered two addresses, one on the Killing, Dressing and Marketing of Poultry to women exclusively, and the other on Poultry Raising on the Farm, with special reference to their feeding, to a joint session of both men and women. Prof. C. L. Newman, of the same institution delivered two addresses to the men exclusively. The first was on Soil Improvement, and the second was on Rotation of Crops. Mr. T. Frank Parker, of the State Department of Agriculture, delivered a most excellent address on Commercial Fertilizers and Home Mixing, which appealed very much to the farmers and is subject to comment even yet. Miss Katherine Parker addressed the Women's Institute twice. She spoke first on Health Hints and second on Bred Making. Mrs. Sue V. Hollowell addressed the Women's Institute from the theme Care of the Infant and then before a joint session told the men some straight things in regard to opportunities for women of the farm, their wives and daughters were entitled to have and must have if farm life is to be made what it should be. Mrs. Hollowell was largely applauded by the men, who had listened to the castigations of themselves. Her address made a decided hit.

The many friends of Prof. N. F. Brannock, of the Chair of Physics and Chemistry here, will be glad to know that he is now on the road to permanent recovery, from a serious trouble which required a double operation to which he has been subjected at the St. Leo's Hospital in Greensboro. His life was despaired of at first, but his physicians assure us now that he is out of danger—in fact he is able at this time to write with his own hand. Former President Dr. E. L. Moffitt, is a pleasant visitor on the Hill, and is making arrangements to move his furniture to Asheboro, which is to be the seat of his labors and the place of his home from this time on. President Moffitt assumes control of the Asheboro Wheelbarrow and Manufacturing Co., the position in which he has had large experience and reaped a large and deserving success in former years.

ON NUMBER TWO

Those whose good fortune it was to attend our Annual Picnic on No. 2 will long remember Saturday July 29 1911.

It was an ideal July day and July weather beats all for picnics you know.

When the summer sun on that morn first peeps above the Eastern horizon and slowly crept over the Eastern hill tops not a cloud to be seen, an ideal outing day had been launched upon an eager and expectant pleasure seeking multitude.

The patrons of No 2 had been invited to assemble and bring their guest to enjoy a day of recreation and rest. Had we searched from the Mountains to the Sea we could not have found a more picturesque spot on which to spend a days outing.

On the beautiful lawn at the Murray Club House is second to no place for such an occasion. While the lawn is covered with most beautiful grass a splendid grove of stately oaks, elms and sycamores tower above it and serene the lounging pleasure seeker who has relaxed his muscles for the time from the scorching rays of a July sun.

The grassy lawn was exquisitely beautiful. The grass covered ground was a culmination of authentic pleasure.

Besides two hundred or more of the patrons of No. 2 many guest were present from Union Ridge and No. 3 and 8.

Rudy Gilliam was made Capt. of the fishing party and after a strenuous march up Stoney Creek reported that the members of the finny tribe had all gone a visiting and would not return till it rained not withstanding so many amusements about noon all concluded that they preferred to turn for the time being from the feast of the eye of looking at the beautiful surroundings and from the pleasures of ear in listening to the sweet strains of the night ten gale perched on the topmost bough of the loftiest oak.

Dinner was spread and it was a sight to behold. The finest chicken, ham, mutton, cake and pies in fact everything that the art of cooking has yet revealed and it was all prepared by the good ladies present on short notice. Really the world would be a failure without them, would it not?

After dinner the crowd enjoyed speeches by Editor Crowson Hon. E. S. W. Dameron and Mr. R. L. Holt.

A vote of thanks was unanimously extended to Mr. M. L. Holton for the use of his lawn and the many other kindnesses he so generously bestowed. All agreed that next year each one present would bring all his friends.

His Confession.

In a burst of penitence little Freddie was telling his mother what a wicked boy he had been.

"The other day, mama," he said, "I found the church door unlocked and I went inside. There wasn't anybody there and I—"

"You didn't take anything away did you son?" she asked.

"Worse than that; I—"

"Did you mutilate the hymn-books or play any tricks of that kind?"

"Oh, lots worse than that, mama," sobbed Freddie. "I went and sat down in the amen corner and said 'Darn it.'—The Housekeeper.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who went to a picnic and sat down on a custard pie?

Wanted Something Useful.

A Georgia schoolteacher having instructed a pupil to purchase a grammar, the next day received the following note from the child's mother: "I do not desire for Lula shall engage in grammar as I prefer her engage in yoseful studies and can learn her how to spoke and write properly myself. I have went through two grammars and can't say as they did me no good. I prefer her engage in German and drawing and vokal music on the piono."—Louisville Post.

A number of fishing parties are booked for this month.

Death of Good Citizen.

After a brief illness of about a week Mr. John C. Burke, one of our most prominent and influential business men was called from his labor to receive his reward early last Wednesday morning. For a number of years Mr. Burke has been engaged in the undertaking business and by his kind, polite and mannerly disposition won the high esteem and admiration of our town. He was fifty-five years old and a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. Besides his wife he leaves two sons and two daughters, Messrs. Levi and M. G. Burke and Mesdames E. C. Murray and R. O. Browning.

Attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives the funeral was conducted at three o'clock at the home by Rev. D. McIver, assisted by Revs. Fleming and Andrew.

The pall bearers were Messrs. J. M. Fix, Dr. T. S. Faucette, Willie Wilson, W. E. Sharpe, J. L. Scott, W. K. Holt, D. H. White and A. Cheek.

Miss Allie Patterson was the fortunate contestant, winning a lovely box of delicious candy.

Cream and cake was served. Those present were: Misses Elsie Cook, Allie and Willie Patterson, Lizzie and Julia Fogleman, Myra Dorsett, Mable and Arline Lea; Messrs. J. R. Hoffman, M. L. Holton, Jerry Lea, Lex Patterson, Joe Fogleman, Mr. Lynch, Mark Lassiter, Clyde Hornaday, Dr. Moser, and Vernon Isley of Whitsett.

Dry Goods Store Burned.

The Baner Dry Goods Co. suffered severe loss by fire last Thursday night. The fire was discovered about eleven o'clock. The entire stock of goods was either burned or badly damaged. The origin of the fire which is unknown seems to have caught in the rear end of the store. Had the fire not been discovered before it gained much headway on the building, serious damage might have occurred, as the building is located on Main Street in the center of town. $3,000 worth of insurance was carried.

As to what the damage will amount has not been decided, as the insurance adjusters have not arrived.

Mr. Baner came here from Durham about two months ago.

Joint Picnic.

The regular annual picnic of the patrons of R. F. D. No. 5 and the members of Long's Chapel Sunday School will be held together at Stonewall Springs, Saturday August 12th. The occasion will be a basket picnic with plenty of good things to eat and good speeches by prominent speakers.

Beattie's Lawyers Will Seek Delay

Richmond, Va., July 29.—In the case of Henry Beattie, Jr., accused by the coroner's jury of the murder of his wife, it is believed that the defense, which has however had nothing whatever to say so far of its probable line of action will seek a continuance of the case when it is called in the Chesterfield County Court August 18, and has been considering a change of venue on account of the prospective difficulty of obtaining a jury in Chesterfield and on account of local feeling. It was stated in a local paper today, too, that the insanity plea in behalf of the accused is being earnestly considered and may be the main reliance of the defense in which events some of the most noted alienists in the United States may figure in the trial.

Beulah Binford Lived in Greensboro When a Child.

Beulah Binford, "the other woman" in the Beattie case, once lived in Greensboro where her mother was a milliner. The family consisted of the mother and two daughters. While living there the mother went to attend the funeral of her husband, to whom she was secretly married. Though only girls when they lived there both of the Binford girls were considered very pretty.

Staunton, Va., Aug. 1.—In the local option election held here today the "wets" won by a majority of 102.

The town has been "dry" for the past two years and some time ago the liberal element began a vigorous campaign for a change in conditions. While no violence attended today's election, much partisan feeling was displayed. The victorious faction is celebrating tonight.

Unsuccessful Attempt.

Saturday night our good natured and clever friend Jno. R. Hoffman who is learning to be his own chauffeur accompanied by four of the fair sex of our city attempted a voyage to Friendship but not like Christopher Columbus of old in his attempt to discover America, failed, having three punctures caused by a nail in the road near Belmont. With sleeves off and coat rolled up the necessary repairs were made and the party of joy riders returned.

New Telephone Directory.

The new telephone directory just issued and now in course of delivery will be found to be more extensive than any other that Burlington has ever had, in fact it contains a complete directory of Burlington, Greensboro, High Point, Reidsville and Winston-Salem.

This extension of the directory is done in order to introduce what is known as the "Two Number" Method.

Under this method you ask the operator who answers your telephone for the number wanted in either of these cities and remain at the telephone. The operator rings the number direct and the time ordinarily required to record and pass the call is saved.

Calls under the "Two Number Method" should be made by number and the name of the town given as a prefix. For instance in calling 500 in Greensboro you should say "Greensboro 500".

When calls of this kind are made, the Telephone Company does not undertake to place you in communication with a particular person, it being assumed that you will be prepared to talk to anyone who answers the telephone. The charge for this service begins as soon as the Greensboro telephone is answered.

When it is important or necessary to speak to a particular person, the call should be given to "Long Distance" in the usual way.

In speaking of the introduction of this improved method, Manager DuRant said:

"It is believed that this method of handling calls from Burlington to Greensboro will prove a time saver and money saver to the business men in both these cities. There is a considerable volume of business and in most cases matter that can be handled with whoever answers the telephone. It is important that such calls be made by number and the directory should always be consulted. We have ample facilities and all "Two Number" calls can be promptly and efficiently handled.

Haw River Items.

Misses Ethel and Orion Simpson of Greensboro spent a few days with their uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Simpson at Haw River very pleasantly. The Baptist Sunday School gave the primary class a treat of ice cream, lemonade and cake last Saturday night on Mr. W. H. Anderson's lawn, which was quite enjoyable by the children. The show people and the merry-go-rounds left for Oxford Sunday, of which we were glad and we can't congratulate Oxford for getting them. The M.P. Church will dedicate their house of worship July 30th. Rev. W. E. Swain will preach the sermon at 11:00 o'clock A.M. Everybody invited. Dr. Swain will have something good for all. Rev. B. T. Hurley will begin a series of meetings at the M.E. Church Sunday night. Come, all and get on the old ship and start for a higher life. Miss Elizabeth Rich of Elon is spending a few days with the family of Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Best. We hope her stay will be pleasant and profitable to all. Mrs. Sapp of Lankaster, S. C. is spending some days with her daughter, Mrs. Maud Clark. Wish her a pleasant sojourn with us. Misses Gertrude and Modena Skyes of Durham is spending some days with their aunt, Mrs. G. W. P. Cates. John Loyd of Burlington was in town Sunday. Yes, we expected him to visit Trolinwood and look around. But the good attraction just beyond he would cast a wishful eye. Come again, John. We are always glad to see you. Capt. and Mrs. S. A. Vest, with Master Sam, visited her parents last Saturday at Tobaccoville. We sure hope they had a good time. The Captain knows how to get pleasure out of life and to look on the bright side of everything, and make those happy with whom he meets. The Captain is O. K. Mayor Brooks has had his buggy neatly painted and knows exactly how and when to use it, we suspect. Mrs. Dora Percoll went to the hospital last week for treatment. At this writing we learn she is doing well. We truly hope she may over come and return home to her family in good health. Alf Haywood, Jr., of Raleigh, spent a few days this week at Haw River with his parents. We are glad to have such good men visit us. The many friends of Miss Ruth Hughes, who has been confined to her room suffering with her eyes from the effect of carbolic acid by accident, is much improved and will soon be out again O. K. Miss Blanch Bradshaw is spending some days with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Morris. Miss Blanche will capture somebody's heart. One must be developing very fast to have two strings to his bow. Mrs. J. W. Simmon, who has been spending some time with relatives and friends in the West returned home Monday morning to the delight of us all. We wonder what has become of the gray horse that has been making his visits in east Haw River. We can't think he has turned his course. Tell us what the trouble is, Miss—. The many friends of J. A. Trolinger will be glad to learn that he is able to get about again. With care, he will soon be able for duty. J. W. Johnson and family visited his father Sunday. This so pleasant to visit the old home in after years and view the scene of our boy days. W. J. Allen of High Point spent some days at Haw River shaking hands with his many friends. He returned home Saturday. Mrs. Allen accompanied him home. He has not yet decided where they will make their future home. Luck to the place that gets them. The dirt was broken for a new building to be used by the Regina Hosiery Manufacturing Co., located on the north side of R. R., east of the station. The building is to be 50 by 150 feet. We expect to see it completed in the near future. The right kind of men are behind it to push it along.

[We are glad to learn that Bro. G. W. P. Cates, our Haw River Correspondent, who has been ill for the last two weeks is improved.]

Being a Good Fellow.

New York Herald. Every now and then we hear of some one dying in bitter poverty after having spent a fortune in "being a good fellow." Of such a one it is commonly said while he is alive and spending that he has a "heart like an ox and a hand always deep in his pocket;" he is spoken of—frequently within his own hearing—as a "prince among men" or "one of nature's noblemen." It seems passing strange that a man with the power to attract to himself so many warm friends should not have any willing to pay his funeral expenses. Yet such is often the case. It is a fact frequently commented on by philosophers that these peerages of care creation die with the fortunes that produce them. A real "prince among men" or "natures nobleman" loses his title when his money ceases to burn holes in his pocket, after which he should set aside a little money for his own obsequies. But those who argue from the forlorn and friendless passing of one of these "good fellows" that there are no real friends to be had in this world are wrong. Every one can make friends, and stanch ones, too, by the practice of unselfishness, but not by wasting money on the worthless in the vain hope of being considered a "good fellow," which is merely another name for a complete fool.

The best that money can buy, Melrose and Dan Valley.

ARREST A MINISTER

Knoxville, Tenn., July 29.—Dr. D. P. Tate of Danville formerly a member of the Western North Carolina Methodist conference was arrested here today on warrants sent from his former home in Virginia charging him with having secured money under false pretense passing worthless checks and other illegal financial affairs.

The accused moved from North Carolina to Danville in 1909 and as he was an ex-Methodist minister had the confidence of the people of that place. He engaged in the real estate business and took an active interest in the church work, thereby holding the confidence he had by right of his clerical robes.

About two months ago Tate left Danville and came to Knoxville. Some time after his departure from the Virginia city it was found that he had become heavily in debt, passed a number of worthless checks and furthermore had defrauded some of his supposedly best friends out of considerable amounts of cash. His former friends complained to the police department and warrants were issued for his arrest. He was discovered here to day and arrested and is being held pending the arrival of officers with requisition papers for his removal back to Danville for trial.

One Dead; Many Hurt.

Detroit, Mich., July 30.—In a collision late this afternoon between two interurban electric cars on the Ann Arbor division of the Detroit United Railways, one motorman was killed, five passengers were dangerously injured and more than a score were less seriously hurt. The collision occurred near Derrborn, about 10 miles west of the city limits. The cars, both traveling at a high rate of speed, it is said, met head-on at a switch.

A number of those hurt were brought to hospitals in Detroit. All are expected to recover. The dead motorman is Louis Hamilton. He was terribly crushed and died soon after being removed from the wreck of his car.

Don't try to get gay with an electric fan, no matter how much you feel like flirting.

The wettest place we know of is Texas.

Even to the wisest of prophets and surest of signs fail in dry weather.

Nothing dry about Texas. At the recent prohibition election the state went wet by a majority of five or six thousand.

The Greensboro Telegram has been changed from a morning to evening paper, leaving all of the morning field to the Greensboro News. Mr. J. T. Fain has purchased the interest of Mr. H. G. Braxton and is now sole owner.

The water supply of all our larger cities is serious. Only a few weeks ago Raleigh would have suffered a famine had it not rained in twenty four hours.

At present the supply at Charlotte is completely exhausted and water is being hauled into the city in tanks. If the drought continues, Greensboro will soon be in a similar condition. The dry weather at present is not hurting our city water supply, but is badly damaging the crops.

Changed.

Quite a change is going on in our busy town and what use to be called the town of love and flowers with Mayor Love as chief executive ruler and the beautiful lawns all bedecked with lovely flowers have changed, first, due to the changed opinion of the people, and second, to the continued drought. But as a substitute for the city of love and flowers we give the city of automobiles and street cars, which leads us to see that the business activities are rapidly increasing. We doubt if any town in the state the population of Burlington can head us with automobiles and certainly no town our size has more miles of car line than is being completed in ours. Hence the joy ride and the park serve our pleasure seekers.

Busy People.

How will it end and who will be victorious are questions of the quadruple Democratic senatorial fight that are puzzling the wisest.

From the Sunday Edition of the Washington Post, under the head of "In The Political Arena" we quote the following:

"There is no complaint about Senator Simmons or his service, he will be given a fight for a third term chiefly because others want to be senator." As to their wanting this is a common Democratic characteristic known by all men.

As the drama goes on and the curtains are again lifted we see Josephus Daniels besmeared the pages of the News and Observer with poke berry juice telling how Governor Kitchen failed to carry out his trust promises. Only broken promises, another democratic characteristic. While the Governor is extremely busy telling how it happened.

As we leave this busy scene and glance for a moment we see Judge Clark not sitting idle as the day lulls by or roaming on the battle fields and listening to the songs of the birds but mid the glimmering of the moon and by the light of the candle which has burned dim he is loading big guns which will be exploded at the proper time and place.

During these combustible scenes Ex-Governor Aycock is alert.

But how will it end and who will be victorious are questions to be considered.

R. F. U. No. 8.

Miss Bertha Isley who has been spending the summer on No. 8 at her old home leaves today (Monday) for Florida where she has accepted a school. We wish her a pleasant journey and a pleasant stay in Florida.

Mrs. Geo. Wakefield, Miss Lillian, and Master Thomas Wakefield of Greensboro spent Saturday, Sunday, and Monday at our house. Glad to have our Greensboro kin folks with us again.

We had the pleasure of escorting Mrs. Hayes (the woman we live with) to Mr. Brooks' No. 2 picnic on No. 2 last Saturday. To say we enjoyed the day is putting it mildly. For our life we cannot see how Brooks can live single with all those pretty girls living on No. 2. If we were the carrier on No. 2, and single, there are about three dozen of those charming girls that would have to say NO with a big N. The place was ideal for a picnic and Mr. Holton done all he could to make it pleasant for all, and he succeeded. We met lots of our good friends out there, and they are (next to No. 8 folks) the finest folks in the world. Truly it was good to be there. Thank you, Brooks, for the invitation. You must come to our No. 8 picnic and we hope to see some of the good looking No. 2 folks.

Owing to some sickness on No. 8 we have concluded to postpone our picnic till about Sept. 2. Will be cooler then, and 'taters will also be ripe.

As we are not on the road this week we will depend on our 'sub' to furnish any other news items.

Miss Emma Lewis of Greensboro is spending some time at W. A. Lewis'.

Mrs. Bettie Smith and Mrs. Clemmie Wilson of Reidsville are spending a few days with their sister Mrs. E. K. Isley.

Mr. Ira Isley, chief police of Greensboro, N. C., spent last week on No. 8 visiting relatives. T. E. Tapscott is on the sick list.

Valley Heights, Va.—Mrs. Jennie B. Kirby, in a letter from this place says: "I was sick in bed for nine months, with womanly troubles. As a tonic, for weak woman, nothing has been found, for fifty years, that would take the place of Cardui. Try a bottle today. It will surely do you good.

BURLINGTON, KNITTING MILL CENTER

[The following write-up of Burlington, Graham, Haw River and Elon College appeared in the Interurban Edition of the Charlotte Observer which was published Wednesday, July 26th.]
 Few counties have contributed more to the advancement of the cotton manufacturing industry in the South than has Alamance. The first cotton mill that produced and marketed a finished cotton goods product south of the Potomac river, where the staple is grown, was the Alamance cotton mills, established by Mr. W. M. Holt, the product being the famous "Alamance plaid." This mill is still in operation, being one of the plants of the L. Banks Holt Manufacturing Company and being one of the 30 cotton mills in Alamance county at the present time.
 Burlington, the capital of Alamance county, is a wide-awake new-old town of about 6,000 inhabitants. Here is the home of the Holt family, members of which have probably done more for the textile industry in North Carolina than any other family. Here are located several of the 30 cotton mills of the county. The town has two banks, a graded school system with three buildings, a number of stores that are steadily increasing the popularity of the place as a trading center for the people of the surrounding country, a building and loan association, adequate hotels, etc. The town owns its waterworks and sewerage plants and has good macadam streets.
 Probably the greatest industry of Burlington is that of knitting. There are seven hosiery mills in the town and the product of each one is made ready for the sales counter by a large finishing plant that was recently built by a company comprised principally of the stockholders and officers of the knitting mills here and in Durham and other cities and towns. The output of these mills is tremendous and the manufacturers of Burlington declare that they will in the near future make it the knitting center of the Southern States. Vast quantities of overalls are manufactured by the Scott-Mebane Company, which has a large mill at Burlington and a branch plant at Graham.
 An enterprise that promises much for the development of Burlington, and along with her Graham, Haw River and the other manufacturing towns in Alamance county, is the Piedmont Railway & Electric Company, which is the name of the new company, headed by Mr. J. W. Murray, has just taken over the properties of the old Southern Traction Company, these properties including the unfinished trolley line that will connect Burlington with her sister towns. This line will be a little more than eight miles in length and will traverse towns and rural sections with a population of more than 20,000. The line has been graded the entire distance and the track has been laid a part of it and it is expected that cars will be in operation over the entire line before September. Two miles of the line has been completed, 70-pound steel rails being used, and the cross-ties and trolley poles have been placed for the entire distance. The cars have already been ordered, six motor cars and six cars for trailers.
 Little more than two miles from Burlington is Graham, a manufacturing town of almost as much importance as Burlington. Graham has its mills, land and other industrial enterprises, a number of prosperous and attractive stores, banks, etc. It has waterworks and sewerage systems, a good school system and macadam streets.
 Haw River is another manufacturing town nearly three miles east of Graham and hardly six miles from Burlington. It is smaller than Burlington or Graham either, but like the other two is wide-awake and extends a hearty welcome to all newcomers. These three places might well be called the Triplet Cities of Alamance.
 Just three miles from Burlington is located the college of the Christian denomination in North Carolina. Elon College, of which Dr. W. A. Harper is president, is one of the best-known educational institutions in the State. It has a very adequate college plant, including a large dormitory that was recently completed and a new waterworks and sewerage system.
 Alamance county has long been regarded as one of the most progressive counties in this section. After Mecklenburg it was about the first county in North Carolina to begin the construction of macadam roads. The county has spent $4,000,000 in the construction of macadam roads and permanent concrete and steel bridges. These roads form a neat work to the several towns in the county and extend toward the county lines in several directions. Flanking these roads is some of the finest farming land in the world. The northern section of the county is one of the best tobacco districts in the country. In the southern section is a district of exceedingly fine grain land. Cotton, hay and other crops grow abundantly. The land lies beautifully as a general thing and the farmers are well-to-do, progressive and happy.

SCORNS PAY FOR PRAYER IN WISCONSIN SENATE

Madison, Wis., July 29.—The Rev. A. L. Tull, a retired Methodist minister, has returned the check for $3 which he was paid for delivering a prayer in the senate with a letter reading, in part, as follows:
 "I received your check for $3 for delivering a prayer in the senate. I thank you and the senate for the courtesy, but return it. Really, it seems as if the $672 paid for prayer during the session was lost money. As the legislature did such 'rotten' business on all temperance measures, it indicates that not a single prayer reached the lord for the promotion of temperance. I have been suken in debt for six weeks and needed the money worse than others of them, but not such money."

EIGHT NEGROES KILLED

Charlotte, July 27.—Bearing 912 negroes from Durham bound to Charlotte for a days outing, an excursion train on the Seaboard Air Line plunged headlong into a freight train at Hamlet, 60 miles east of here this morning, killing eight of the excursionists, injuring 60 seriously and 28 slightly.
 Four white trainmen were badly hurt. Engineer Ben Koonce, who was running the excursion engine, was mangled about the head and shoulders and injured internally; Engineer A. Taylor, of the fireman of the freight train, was badly cut; Conductor W. H. Bowen, of the excursion train, had his side crushed and several ribs broken, and Albert Gary, fireman of the freight train was badly bruised and cut.
 The cause of the wreck is unknown. The freight train was creeping into the yard at Hamlet from Wilmington and the excursion train, rounding the curve at good speed, crashed into it. The engines telescoped and six of the 11 coaches of the excursion train crumbled like pasteboard.

Had No Better Sense than Steal Uncle Sam's Wagon.

Raleigh, July 28.—Frank Williams, a negro man, is under arrest here for the larceny of the United States mail wagon, which was stolen from the union station at an early hour this morning. Williams says that he had no intention of stealing the wagon and that he merely borrowed it for the purpose of going after some blind tiger liquor. He will be allowed to justify, if he can, his act before Col. John Nichols, United States commissioner, tomorrow.

Attack Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Biters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at Freeman Drug Co.

Bridges Time and Space
 IT WAS A QUESTION of life or death and the victim's life hung by a slender thread. A difficult operation was necessary. To be successful the operation must be performed at once. The services of a specialist were required, but he was in a distant city.
 The specialist was reached over the Long Distance Bell Telephone, the case described and the operation arranged for.
 The sufferer's life was saved through the ability of the Universal Bell Telephone Service to bridge time and space.

Public Health Dept. of W. C. T. U.

Edited by Mrs. R. L. BOYD, Supt.

- 1 Consumption causes more deaths than other disease. Nearly one-third of all the people who die between twenty and forty-five die of consumption.
- 2 Consumption is caused by the poison present in the consumptive spit. The poisonous spit dries and goes into other people's lungs as dust.
- 3 A little poisonous spit, when scattered in dust is enough to effect dozens of people. People who spit on their floor at home spread the disease.
- 4 People who spit on the sidewalks, where women get it on their dresses and take the poison home.
- 5 Stop spitting except in spittoons or into gutters; you may have consumption and not know it.
- 6 If you have consumption, don't give it to others by spitting. If you have not, don't let others give it to you.
- 7 A consumptive who coughs and spits anywhere and everywhere, is a danger to the community.
- 8 He is a danger to the neighborhood, he is a danger to his family; will poison the house he lives in.
- 9 A careful consumptive, one who coughs into handkerchiefs or anything that can be boiled or burned, is perfectly safe to be about.
- 10 Be kind to the careful consumptive, as you would have others to be kind to you if you were sick.
- 11 Sunlight and fresh air kills the poison in the consumptives spit.
- 12 The poison will remain for months in dark damp and badly ventilated rooms.
- 13 Rooms that have been occupied by consumptives should be well cleaned and then disinfected.

See that you have fresh air in your homes and places of work. Sleep with your windows open. Don't be afraid of night air. Don't be afraid of cold air.

- 16 If you are beginning to feel tired and feverish all the time, go at once to your family physician.
- 17 Don't waste time and money on "consumptive cures" or patent medicines; they don't cure.
- 18 Fresh air, day and night, summer and winter. Rest, all that you can get; food, all that you can eat, plain food, buttered bread and milk.
- 19 Medicine will help, but it is not so important. Avoid alcoholic excesses.
- 20 Self indulgence and intemperance weakens the strong and kills the weak.

Stopped Those Pains.

Timberville, Miss.—Miss Gertrude Gutlin of Timberville writes: "I did not know anything could stop those womanly pains, from which I suffered for two years, until I tried Cardui. I had been troubled with various female ailments, but they were cured in a little while, thanks to Cardui." Cardui is especially adapted for use by ailing women. It relieves headache, backache, dragging feeling, irregularity, nervousness, misery and womanly weakness. It is safe. It is reliable. It does the work. Will you try it? Please do.

Ten Hour Law for Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., July 27.—The Farver-Tippins bill limiting to ten hours a day the time of work in cotton and woolen mills was passed by the house today. The vote was 128 to 40. Under the present law the maximum number of hours a week is 66, but an employer may work his operatives 12 or 14 hours for five days and give a part holiday on Saturday.

Caught In a Rain.

Douglasville, Tex.—"Five years ago I was caught in the rain at the wrong time," writes Edna Rutherford, of Douglasville, "and from that time, was taken with dumb chills and fevers, and suffered more than I can tell. I tried everything that I thought would help, and had four doctors, but got no relief. I took Cardui, the woman's tonic. Now, I feel better than in many months." Cardui does one thing and does it well. That's the secret of its 50 years of success. Try Cardui.

Hookworm Dispensaries A Great Success.

The remarkable success of the dispensaries established this month in the counties of Sampson, Columbus, Robeson, and Halifax for the free examination and treatment of hookworm disease has surprised even the most ardent advocates of the dispensary method for carrying on hookworm campaign. The four District Directors of the campaign treated twelve hundred and eighty-five cases last week and the prospects are that the number will be two thousand for this week. At the dispensary in Columbus County 412 people were treated for hookworm disease in one day.

Those counties having the dispensaries are so highly pleased that they are already asking that the dispensaries remain in the counties for a longer period than was at first agreed to. Several counties adjoining those in which dispensaries are located have already offered the financial aid which is necessary to make possible the dispensary work.

Those counties asking for a dispensary proceed in the following manner: The physicians of the county endorse the plan for carrying on the work for a period of from four to six weeks as do also the county board of health and the county board education. These endorsements are then presented to the county commissioners with a request that they appropriate such part of $50.00 a week as may be found necessary to defray the expense of advertising the work, paying for the medicines and paying the traveling expenses of the laboratory man, provision for which can be secured in no other way. The work is accomplishing results highly satisfactory to the county commissioners. Senator J. A. Brown, who was influential in having the hospital located in Columbus County, writes as follows: "I sincerely hope you can arrange within the next few months to locate at this point again for a much longer period. By this time the beneficial results will be known to our people and I believe a second trip will result in a complete eradication of hookworm disease in this territory."

Terrible Picture of Suffering

Clinton, Ky.—Mrs. M. C. McElroy, in a letter from Clinton, writes: "For six years, I was a sufferer from female troubles. I could not eat, and could not stand on my feet, without suffering great pain. I had lost hope. After using Cardui a week, I began to improve. Now I feel better than in six years." Fifty years of success in actual practice, is positive proof, furnished by those who have used it, that Cardui can always be relied on for relieving female weakness and disease. Try Cardui, today, now!

Ensign Young Found.

Concord, July 27.—Ensign Robert S. Young, Jr., whose mysterious disappearance from the torpedo boat destroyer Perkins at the Brooklyn navy yard July 12 created throughout the country, is now in Broadoaks Sanatorium, Morganton, where he was taken by his father, Dr. R. S. Young, Tuesday night from New York, where he was located. The first news that his son had been found reached him while he was in Atlanta with Mrs. Young, where he had gone after making a futile search in New York that lasted over a week. The message came to him from Mr. Fred Williams, who holds a position at the New York office of the Cannon Manufacturing Company of Concord and who formerly lived here, stating that Ensign Young showed up at the office there Wednesday, July 20, and wanted to see Mr. John Leslie, a native of Concord and manager of the Cannon offices in New York. Mr. Leslie was out of the office at the time, but Ensign Young was recognized by Mr. Williams, who knew him well when he lived in Concord.

Spit, Quit, Fit.

Hines, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Eula Mae Bradley says: "I used to spit up all I ate. I was tired and sleepy all the time. My head ached, and I could hardly drag around. Since taking Cardui, this has entirely quit, and now I feel quite fit." Mrs. Bradley suffered from nervous indigestion. Cardui builds up the nervous system, and strengthens the womanly constitution. That's why Cardui helped Mrs. Bradley and why it will help you. Try it.

From a Late Snapshot

To see all of his regular Patients and such new Cases, as may wish to consult him, Dr. Packard enjoys a wide reputation, among the profession and the Public of North Carolina, where for more than 25 years he has devoted his entire time to the Study, Treatment and Cure of Chronic Diseases. The Doctor has had wonderful success in his chosen work, that of curing chronic sufferers, Men, Women and Children. The Patients he has restored to Health after they had given up all hope of being cured are numbered by the Thousands. He is a kind, generous, democratic gentleman to meet, of high scholarly attainments, and dignified personality. Coupled with a Brotherly interest, in all who seek his advice. He does not take a Patient for Treatment unless he can foresee a Cure of the Case. The most commendable feature of his work, and one that appeals to the ordinary sick person, is the fact of his charges being so reasonable and moderate as to make it within the reach of even the very poor. At no time do the charges amount to more than $7.00 a month or about $1.50 a week. He gives his own medicines, and there are no extra charges. It takes him never more than from four to six Months to Cure a Case under Treatment. All Cases, even those who have been given up as incurable or hopeless, have been cured and restored to perfect health by this Brilliant Physician and the wonderful methods he employs.

If you want to meet him and have him examine you, go to see him, and talk the matter over with him. It will cost you nothing if he does not put you under treatment. If he takes your case, it will cost you a very small sum to get well!

A RARE OPPORTUNITY

You say you would own your home if you had a chance and that you could make monthly payments? Well to meet these conditions we are going to see if you will do anything and for just two weeks from the date of this issue, we will offer the following property at a low price and allow you to pay 1 per cent cash and the balance 1 per cent per month until paid, that is a house and lot that you can buy from us for $1000.00 you can pay us $10.00 down and balance of $10.00 per month, with interest on deferred payments until paid.

What Does This Mean.

If you are paying $6.00 per month rental for your house now by adding to this $4.00 more you can get you a home of your own, or if the property is less your payments are less. Is this fair? Would you take any chance, or could you ask for a better proposition?

Paint Lick Sick Lady

Paint Lick, Ky.—Mrs. Mary Freeman, of this place, says: "Before I commenced to take Cardui, I suffered so much from womanly trouble, I was so weak that I was down on my back nearly all the time. Cardui has done me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life." You need not be afraid to take Cardui. It is no new experiment. Composed of gentle-acting, herb ingredients, it has been found to safely relieve headache, backache and similar female troubles. Try it for your troubles.

One of Peary's North Pole dogs attacked a little girl the other day and hurt her badly. Wouldn't catch one of poor old Doc Cook's dogs anything like that.

A party of our people headed by our townsman John R. Hoffman, started for Friendship Saturday night in the new machine recently purchased by the Central Loan & Trust Co., but when they had gone as far as Bellemont the machine refused to go any further. As this is the home of Mr. 7's "Dan" we don't know but what he may have had a hand in stopping the machine. Oakdale Bets.

A very sad death occurred in our vicinity July 22th. "Tommy Linberry," as he was familiarly known, went to his father's home to see them thresh wheat and while there thought he would feed the machine a little. So while feeding it, it is supposed he became unconscious, came very near falling and was caught by same. He was carried to the house, but never regained consciousness, and died in about 24 hours.—How sad, a young man of 33 years, in the prime of life. What a warning to all to be prepared to die. Tommy was highly respected by all who knew him. His father can say of him, we doubt that, any other father can say, that in all the 33 years he never gave him a cross word. He has been night watchman at Kimesville cotton mill for three years. He performed his work well, and was highly esteemed by his employer so much that they put a costly bouquet of flowers on his grave. He leaves a father and many friends behind; his mother and sister gone on before. His remains were laid to rest at Mt. Pleasant, July 23rd, beside his sister and mother. Funeral service was conducted by pastor. A very large congregation gathered to pay last respects.

On the same day quite a large crowd gathered at Rock Creek where the remains of Oliver Holt were laid to rest, age 74 years. Funeral service conducted his pastor, Rev. Pike. Mr. Holt had lived all his life near here. He leaves a devoted wife, two sons and daughters and many friends.

Also on the same day the little two-year-old son of Lacy Huffman who got hurt 22nd by a runaway, was buried at Low's church. Pastor conducting funeral. They all have our sympathy.

Wheat threshing is about over. Some good crops made. Wheat about on average. Corn, unless rain soon, will not make half crop. Cotton very short and late. The health of the community is very good.

on Front Street next to
W. E. Hay

The big sale of sample pianos left from the exhibit is going on in earnest. Six pianos were sold to happy homes and eight are left to be sold yet. It will take only a few days to clean these out, so if you care to come in and see for yourself we invite you to do so as soon as possible. Never in the history of this county has there been such a display of fine pianos, all built by the time honored house of Kimball. Remember these are all new sample pianos and they must be placed in the best homes in order to sell other pianos by showing them from time to time. They are going at just what it cost to make them at the mill with the freight, stool, scarf and drayage added to the bill all out where you can see it for your self. This means a saving of $175 to $200 to you if you get busy and come before it is too late. We can make the terms to suit you just the same as any dealer.

It is the object of the factory to show these fourteen styles to advertise them. This we have been doing for the past week, then we must leave them here, as stated above, after which we have left one each of the fourteen styles, each a living talking booster for us the next time to come. We don't expect to do this but one time, so come now before it is too late and be a booster. You will regret it if you don't come now.

Open every day and night till 9:30.

Manager.
