BEAUTIFUL PIPE ORGAN INSTALLED

The Estey Organ Co., of Brattleboro, Vt. has just completed the installation of a fine pipe organ for the Episcopal Church of this city. It has a comprehensive and liberal scheme and is in every way suitable for the church a general interior appearance and acoustic properties. It is a two manual and pedal organ with 15 speaking stops, 792 pipes in the great, swell and pedal organ, 61 notes embracing the compass from C. C. to C 4. The pedal, 30 note compass, C. C. C. to F., absolutely correct in tonal grouping, the action, tubular pneumatic, with Haskell's patent key stop or register action, instead of stop knobs; the scale of all pipes is in accordance with the best and most recent standards, and the voicing is of the highest order of excellence, with the proper volumes throughout.

The handsome granite church building will be formally presented to the Parish by a family of the Church, on November the Fifth, 1911, and will then be presented to the Diocese and consecrated by The Rt. Reverend Joseph Blount Cheshire, D. D. Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina.

The organ has been given by the other members of the Church and costs complete and installed $2800.00.

Arrested on Suspicion.

Ernest King and Dock Bass were arrested Sunday morning on suspicion of hiding a sack of United States Mail. Sunday morning after train No. 112, which arrives here at 1:32, had passed, Geo. Florence, third trick operator, missed one lock pouch of mail and immediately notified night clerk John C. Jones, who with Florence and night policeman, Amick, made a silent search finding the missing sack on the other side of a car near the station. The sack was secretly taken away, the mail taken out and refilled with papers, and placed at the place found, with policeman Amick on duty to watch.

Shortly after everything became quiet these boys who had been in the passenger depot came to the sack and were arrested by Amick, carried to jail and later bonded out, waiting trial Friday morning before Esq. W. A. Hall. The accused have employed able attorneys. Bass is about eighteen and King perhaps two years older. Both are of respectable families.

Glidden Tour.

The most distinguished party making the Glidden tour, which started from New York for Jacksonville, Florida, last Saturday, is undoubtedly that in the Stevens-Duryea team of three cars. It comes more nearly being an official party than any of the others, too, for one Stevens-Duryea is being driven by Vice-president Brooks Morgan of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, who has as his guests two other vice-presidents of that influential organization; another is driven by former Senator Wheatley of Georgia; and the third by C. S. Johnson of Atlanta.

Charles B. Aayward of the Society of Automobile Engineers, of which he was formerly secretary, accompanies the Stevens-Duryea team. Heavy rains, which filled the roads with ruts and holes, and gullied out the waterbreaks made the start of the tour as severe a test as the cars are likely to be put to anywhere in the course of the run. The Stevens-Duryeas made perfect scores, being among the first to reach each control.

Between Lancaster and Gettysburg, in Pennsylvania, rough-going pounded the cars particularly hard, but the Stevens-Duryea team came through the punishment without a sign of having felt it, and in perfect condition for the 182 mile run on Monday, which is considered the most difficult stretch of road on the route.

LA FOLLETTE FOR NEXT PRESIDENT

Chicago, Oct. 16.—An endorsement of Robert Marion La Follette, of Wisconsin, for president of the United States, was the net result of the widely heralded meeting of the National Republican Progressive League held at the LaSalle hotel today. Three hundred progressives from thirty States were present. There were those who rather expected a general platform would be discussed, carefully drawn and adopted. There has been for months and was at the meeting, much talk about progressive principles. The cutting from its moorings of the La Follette boom for presidency, however, was the only action taken.

The resolutions adopted sum up the whole business of the day. They set forth, not a Republican platform, but the personal platform of Senator La Follette. They contain a plan for the control of corporations by the government with an inferential attack upon the president for prosecuting the trusts; a plank (the Bourne suggestion) for a popular vote on the candidates for president, whether compelled by law or not, and the endorsement of Senator La Follette.

OBITUARY.

(Written by request of T. S. Coble).

Miss Elizabeth Soots died at Randleman, Oct. 11th, 1911. She had passed the 82nd mile post in life. She joined the M. P. Church at Mt. Pleasant when she was about twenty years old and lived a consistent christian until her Savior said to her leave the church Militant and enter the church Triumphant. She left three sisters and many friends to mourn their loss. One sister at Randleman, Mrs. J. M. Laughlin, one at Haw River, Mrs. E. M. Coble, and one at Raddin, Ill. Mrs. Sarah Friddle, who will according to Nature be gathered on the sunny banks of Eternal deliverance very soon.

She was a great sufferer for several months before the end came, but she was cheerful under it all and was never heard to complain. The day before her death the family was called to her bedside. Many things she wanted to say, but was so weak she could only speak a few of them. The first thing she said how she had always enjoyed the preaching of the Gospel and how she loved her church. Next she gave directions as to her funeral service. Her dying message as from an Angel's tongue delivered in such a refined and intelligent way. Her death was a beautiful way picture of her christian life. She will be missed, but not forgotten, for all who knew her will cherish her memory. While we know that God makes no mistakes, that her death was for some good purpose. We pray our Heavenly Father to let some of the light of Eternal day break over that sad home and drive away the shadows. Here let us wait till the morn breaks on the golden shore then we will meet our loved ones where parting will be no more. With these fond hopes we commit our friend to mother earth and her soul to God and her virtuous life to her friends.

SAFE AT DANVILLE, VA., IS BLOWN OPEN BY CRACKSMEN

Danville, Va., Oct. 17.—Cracksmen using nitro-glycerine blew off the outer doors of the safe in the offices of the S. Westbrooks Elevator company's plant on Spring street tonight, but were evidently frightened away before forcing the inner door. There was little in the safe at the time. The yeggmen are probably following the agricultural fairs, one being in progress here now.

A Georgia admirer says that Hoke Smith has 250 pounds of pull, but it isn't weighed that way in Washington.

Wood-Holt

Miss Annie Lea Holt, the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Holt gave her many friends quite a pleasant surprise last Tuesday night at eight o'clock when she was married to Mr. H. B. Wood of Monterey, Va. Miss Holt left Tuesday morning accompanied by her sister Miss Mamie as far as Greensboro, telling her friends she was going to Monterey to teach art. She having taught there last year.

Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Wood left for Cuba where they will spend a month in the tropical clime, after which they will return and reside at Monterey. On their return from Cuba they will spend some time the guest of her relatives.

Miss Holt is not only accomplished but an excellent artist having completed her course at Elon College.

Mr. Wood is Editor and Proprietor of the Highland Record of Monterey.

The Dispatch hastens to extend congratulations and wish for them a life of happiness and bliss.

Pollard-Kernodle.

Miss Blonda Kernodle, daughter of Mr. John T. Kernodle of Cassipee, was married Saturday morning in the Guilford Parlor at Greensboro by Rev. J. O. Atkinson of Elon College. No one being present except the contracting parties, officiating minister and wife. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Pollard caught No. 44 for northern cities. They will also visit the home of Mr. Pollard near Richmond while on their honeymoon.

Miss Kernodle is well known in our midst, being the sister of Mrs. Levi Burke. She's very pretty and accomplished.

Mr. Pollard is Manager of Ossee Cotton Mills, where they will reside.

At Staunton, Virginia

Staunton, Va., Oct. 16.—All but one of the eighty cars that entered in the 1911 Glidden tour reached this city for the night's stop late this afternoon.

Near Winchester a car, the occupants of which were seven New York newspaper men, skidded into a telegraph pole and was completely demolished. None of the newspaper men were hurt, however.

The tourists were entertained here by a band concert and smoker. Mayor Whit delivered an address of welcome. Tomorrow night the stop is scheduled for Roanoke, Va.

Negro Doctor Elected

Nashville, Tenn., October 13.—For the first time in 25 years Nashville yesterday elected a negro city councilman, Dr. S. P. Harris. One of the last negro councilmen was J. C. Napier, now register of the United States Treasury.

Harris ran in opposition to the Democratic primary nominee.

KILLED ON STREET AT PILOT MOUNTAIN

Winston-Salem, Oct. 12.—Henry Whitaker was shot down and killed in the street in front of Fulk's hardware store, in Pilot Mountain at 8:30 this morning by Thomas K. Kallam. Both men are lawyers and are numbered among the most prominent citizens of their community. The body of the dead man was removed to his home and prepared for burial. Kallam was arrested and locked up. He claims he shot Whitaker in self defense; that Whitaker was coming at him with an open knife. His statement is that when he saw Whitaker coming towards with the knife, he told him to stand back, and upon Whitaker's refusing to heed the warning, Kallam fired, the ball entering his head—Whitaker fell and died in about three minutes.

Whitaker was about 63 years old and is survived by a wife and several children. He and Kallam studied law at Wake Forest, and at the same time the first named secured his license from the Supreme Court to practice law three years ago, and the latter a year later. Kallam is also editor of the Pilot Mountain News, a weekly newspaper. He is a cripple, unmarried and about 63 years old.

According to the messages received here, Whitaker and Kallam had been at outs for a year or more, and some of their friends have been predicting serious trouble between the two men for some time. One of the causes of the bad blood existing between the two men resulted from Whitaker having Kallam indicted for an alleged offense.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP TAFT'S TRAIN

San Francisco, Oct. 16.—A report received here today, by officials of the Louthern Pacific Railway Company from C. B. Brown, section foreman for the road at Naples, Cal., gave details of the discovery of 36 sticks of dynamite under the Cairtan viaduct, 20 miles north of Santa Barbara, several hours before President Taft's special train passed over the bridge on route to Los Angeles, this morning. The dynamite was found after the watchman engaged in a revolver battle with two men who escaped.

The dynamite was discovered at 2 o'clock this morning. The President's train passed over the bridge at 5:51. The night watch man saw two men on the bridge, shortly before 2 o'clock. They were at the opposite end of the 1,000 foot span, and ran when ordered to halt. The watchman hurried across the bridge, firing several shots, which were returned.

After the pair had escaped in the darkness, the watchman began an investigation. Near the center of the span, lodged on one of the supports of the viaduct he found the 36 sticks of dynamite, with a 10-foot fuse attached to one of the sticks. He left the find untouched, going immediately to Santa Barbara and notifying the officials.

Our cousin, J. M. Workman and widow went visiting at Hillsboro, guests of Mrs. A. H. Rimmer. Now we extend our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Rimmer, knowing the appetite of our cousin J. M., especially away from home. As fruit and vegetables are getting scarce on R. F. D. 7, and rabbits and persimmons are hardly ripe, our esteemed cousin J. M. is looking very thin. Hope he enjoyed his visit and look better if not feeling better after his return.

The perfect wife, as we understand it, is the one who assures her husband that tobacco smoke improves lace curtains.

MR. TAFT'S VOICE HUSKY

Ashland, Ore., Oct. 12.—His voice a bit husky from constant use but strong, President Taft "spoke" his way down the Willamette valley and across the state of Oregon today. For hour after hour his train traveled in a land that blossomed in flowers and fruit and the folk who came to the little towns where his train paused for a minute or two brought tributes of all sorts to the chief executive.

Tonight with the California line only a few miles away the presidential train passed through Ashland. The President's car was loaded with flowers and the steward had accumulated enough fruit to furnish the President's table for days to come.

The scenery today was almost as pleasant to look upon as the fruit and flowers. A few miles out from Salem, the first stop of the day, the President got a look at Mount Hood. For two hours the snow-capped peaks delighted his eyes.

Mr. Taft spoke on many subjects. He declared several times that the old battleship Oregon should be the first vessel through the Panama canal, an announcement that always brought forth cheers. He spoke on peace and arbitration and a half dozen other topics. The strain told a little on his voice, but indications are that by the time San Francisco is reached tomorrow, the President will be speaking again with his full power.

The apparent prosperity of the country through which he traveled gave the President a new text for his plea for arbitration treaties.

Why Bryan Should Vote Republican Ticket.

In an address at Kansas City a few days ago, Mr. W. J. Bryan, in speaking of the Presidency, said:

"In addition to the many other reasons why I should not again run for President, is that one Republican President having used my platform in part and another Republican President having used it entirely, I am afraid if I became a candidate again the Republicans would bring the third term charge against me."

If one Republican President has used Mr. Bryan's platform in part and another Republican President has used his platform entirely, then why shouldn't Mr. Bryan and his friends all come over and vote for a Republican President. Mr. Bryan has never been able to secure the election himself. He has never been able to get just the man he wanted nominated on the Democratic ticket, except when he was the candidate, and even if the Democrats could elect a President Mr. Bryan has no assurance that said Democrat would carry out his platform.

If a Republican President is carrying out Mr. Bryan's platform, as he claims, then it would seem that the most sensible thing for Mr. Bryan and his followers would be to vote for that man's re-election.—Caucasian.

Two Men Killed as Result of Dispute Over a Hog.

Adel, Ga., Oct. 17.—T. I. Hill and J. M. Revels, farmers, living near here, were shot and killed today in a quarrel over a hog belonging to a tenant on Hill's place which had gotten into a field belonging to Revels. When the men met this morning hot words were passed and Hill shot Revels. A son of Revels then shot Hill through the heart.

Be sure to patronize the concert of the children from Oxford. The concert would merit large patronage were it not for a worthy cause. The entertainments are worth more than the small admission fee charged. But by your patronage, you help these children to do a part in maintaining the institution which is giving them care and training.

State Still Far Behind in Education.

That the average child outside North Carolina has a 50 per cent longer school term, a 50 per cent better chance for an education, in spite of our decade of educational progress, than the average boy or girl inside North Carolina; that the Japanese, with one-tenth of our wealth, are giving their children ten months' schools, while North Carolina doesn't give five; in short, that the great educational crusade in which McIver, Aycock and Joyner have been leaders is yet but half won—such was the basis of Mr. Clarence Poe's "Founder's Day" address at the State Normal and Industrial College in Greensboro Thursday.

Average length of school term in days: North Carolina, 101; United States, 155; North Atlantic 169; South Atlantic States 138; South Central States, 123; North Central States 164; Western States 161.

Virginia, 131; South Carolina, 98; Georgia, 132; Florida, 115; Tennessee, 128; Alabama, 115; Mississippi, 123; Louisiana, 130; Texas, 128; Arkansas, 98; Oklahoma, 140.

"These figures show the average term for both city and urban schools," says Mr. Poe. "As for our North Carolina country boys and girls—our white boys and girls on the farms—they are getting only 93 days, whereas when I inquired of the national bureau of education in Japan a year ago this fall, I was told that the average school term furnished the country boys and girls of that so called 'heathen' country, is ten months. More than this, I was told that the attendance is 98 per cent, of the boys and girls between 6 and 14 years of age. And yet it is but fifty years since a North Carolina Secretary of the Navy planned the expedition that opened up this so-called 'heathen' country to the world."—Statesville Land mark.

Ex-Governor made a speech in Wilkesboro on one occasion, during which he referred to North Carolina's unenviable position in point of education compared with the other states of the Union. The then Governor had recently returned from a visit to some of the New England states, where, he declared, the people in the country were prosperous, lived in painted homes with well kept yards, and ranked high educationally among the other states. Not so in North Carolina, he said in substance, we are one of the poorest states in the Union and we rank second in ignorance only one state, South Carolina ranking lower than we; that the negroes of North Carolina are better educated than those of South Carolina, and that that was the reason we were not below South Carolina. Whereas he expressed great joy and exclaimed, "God bless our niggers."

It is claimed by some who have made investigation that only one half of the money that is raised by taxes for public schools in North Carolina goes to the public school teachers, the other half being required to keep the machinery greased. If this is true, and we believe our information is reliable, it is no wonder that our school term is so short, and a reform in our public school system is badly needed. What we need is less partisan politics and more patriotism.—Wilkes Patriot

The above figures show North Carolina in a pretty bad state of affairs, speaking from an educational standpoint. And yet the people of Alamance County refused to put our county officers on the salary basis when submitted to them at the last election and thereby assist the much needed cause.

It is good for the preservation and purification of the skin, scalp, hair and hands for the prevention of the clogging of the pores the usual cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness and also the treatment of burns, scalds, wounds, sores, chapping as well as the toilette and nursery.

Stopped Those Pains.

Timberville, Miss.—Miss Gertrude Gutlin of Timberville writes: "I did not know anything could stop those womanly pains, from which I suffered for two years, until I tried Cardui. I had been troubled with various female ailments, but they were cured in a little while, thanks to Cardui." Cardui is especially adapted for use by ailing women. It relieves headache, backache, dragging feeling, irregularly, nervousness, misery and womanly weakness. It is safe. It is reliable. It does the work. Will you try it? Please do.

FAIR EXCHANGE

A New Back for an Old One—How it is Done in Burlington.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you, weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Burlington citizen.

C. F. Oakley, Davis St., Burlington, N. C., says: "I suffered from kidney complaint for two or three years, brought on by hard work and heavy lifting. The trouble began with sharp twinges in my right side, extending into my limbs and at times I became so lame and sore across my loins that I could not sleep. My kidneys were also disordered and I was miserable in every way. As soon as I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, I felt better and before long this remedy cured me."

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Freeman Drug Co.

A LIBERAL OFFER.

We Guarantee to Relieve Dyspepsia. If We Fail the Medicine Costs Nothing.

To unquestionably prove to the people that indigestion and dyspepsia can be permanently relieved and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will bring about this result, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give satisfaction to any one using it.

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is due to the high degree of scientific skill used in devising their formula as well as to the care exercised in their manufacture, whereby the well-known properties of Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin have been combined with Carminatives and other agents.

Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin are constantly employed and recognized by the entire medical profession as invaluable in the treatment of indigestion and dyspepsia.

The Pepsin used in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is carefully prepared so as to develop its greatest efficiency. Pepsin supplies to the digestive apparatus one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid. Without it the digestion and assimilation of food are impossible.

The Carminatives possess properties which aid in relieving the disturbances and pain caused by undigested food. This combination of these ingredients makes a remedy invaluable for the complete relief of indigestion and dyspepsia.

We are so certain of this that we urge you to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets on our own personal guarantee. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store, Freeman Drug Co.

Advice to the Healthy.

Don't be afraid of the careful consumptive.
Don't hesitate to tell a consumptive that is his duty to protect his fellowman.
Don't, under any circumstances, sleep with a consumptive.
Don't occupy a house where a consumptive has lived without first having the house properly disinfected. When a house is properly disinfected it is no longer dangerous.
Don't spit on floors or sidewalks—Set the consumptive a good example. When you spit, spit into the gutters or into a spittoon.
Don't stay in a room with the windows closed. Keep them open summer and winter, at home and at work. Sleep with the windows open; but be sure that the entire body is warmly clad.
Don't be afraid of night air. Fresh air, whether night or day, moist or dry, warm or cold, is good for you.
Don't drink milk from cows not tuberculin tested without boiling it, for the disease is often contracted in this way.
Don't ever stir up a dust by dry sweeping. Sprinkle water or moist sawdust, or moist bits of paper over the floor before sweeping. Dusting should be done with a moist cloth.
Don't ever neglect a cold or cough, and be especially careful to protect yourself from consumption when convalescing from grippe and pneumonia, and when in a run-down condition from any cause.

Phillips-Hudson.

Married at 6 p. m., October 11, by Rev. Mr. Townsend, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. W. L. Hudson of Alamance county.

ty, Mr. G. Paul Phillips of Chatham county to Miss Minnie Hudson. The wedding was very quiet, only near relatives and friends being present. The number of beautiful and useful presents testified the love of friends. We wish for the happy young couple a long and happy life.

There is nothing worse than a rainy washday except two rainy washdays.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT HERSELF

Winston-Salem, N. C. Oct. 13.—News was received here today that Mrs. Bruce Craven, of North Wilkesboro, accidentally shot herself Wednesday with a pistol and that while the wound is regarded as quite serious, her condition is favorable. The attending physician thinks she will recover.

It appears that Mrs. Craven was making up the bed in her room when her husband's pistol, which was under a pillow, dropped out on the floor, and fired, the ball taking effect in Mrs. Craven's abdomen.

WRIGHTS EXPECT TO FLY LIKE THE BIRDS

New York, Oct. 13.—Wilbur Wright, whose brothers, Orville and Lorin, are about to experiment on the North Carolina coast with a new flying machine said today that he had no doubt in the world that man eventually will fly like the bird flies. He said it might take years to work out plans. When birds start from the ground they go with flapping wings. Once in the air they are able to sustain themselves without effort. The Wrights expect to develop the machine so that after getting away from the ground by means of a motor it will be able to remain in the air without power.

At least it must be admitted that "T. R." is not going around the country explaining anything.

TRUTHFUL ADVERTISING THE BASIS OF SUCCESS.

Since the Ingredients Entering Peruna Are Known, Its Power as a Catarrh Remedy and Tonic is Understood.

COLUMBUS, OHIO.—The active ingredients entering the most popular household remedy in the world have been made known to the public. This means a new era in the advertising of popular family medicines—Peruna leads.

Peruna contains among other things, golden seal, powerful in its effect upon the mucous membranes. Cedron seed, a rare medicine and unsurpassed tonic. Cubebs, valuable in nasal catarrh and affections of the kidneys and bladder. Stone root, valuable for the nerves, mucous membranes as well as in dropsy and indigestion.

A Chicago architect is said to have arrived at the conclusion after careful study of the subject, that the capitol at Washington cannot last more than 500 years. Colonel Bryan would better get a sprint on.

The Dispatch a year for $1.00.

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

Entered as second-class matter May 20, 1908, at the post office at Burlington, N. C., North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Wednesday, Oct. 18, 1911.

Not "Near Beer" but near Republican might be a good slogan if Locke Craige is nominated by the Democrats for Governor.

Hoke Smith Governor of Georgia has announced that he will abdicate the Governor's throne on November 15th. Although the possessor of two we judge its pretty hard for Hoke, holding the political faith he does to give up this good juicy plum.

We are naturally jealous over the suggested name of the traction terminal at Haw River, and it appears to us that instead of calling it Crosonburg that (Dispatch) would be more appropriate. And we pass it up for consideration. Do you catch on.

There are men in this town who visit the blind tigers where strong drink is dispensed contrary to law as many as a half dozen times per day in broad daylight, to quench their thirst with the fiery liquid, with a policeman upon every corner and yet they say, they cannot get the evidence. Are they blind, totally blind.

If you believe in morals and law enforcement, stronger than you do party. Then the Dispatch would be glad to help co-operate with the good citizens of this town to get rid of some very undesirable places right in the heart of the City. There is not only blind tigers here but, blind policemen as well if conditions exist, that has been pictured to us, not only to exist but to thrive as well.

"Hell Is An Awful Place To Go."

These are the words used by William O. Gray teacher of a Sunday School Class in a New York Church. After using these words Mr. Gray was emphasizing the thought that lies back of it, which was making quite an impression on his class. When suddenly one of his scholars shouted "You'll go there if you don't pay me that $10.00 you owe me!"

This caused quite a stir making it necessary to call in a police to command order.

We readily see several great truths back of this, one that a man who preaches great truths should also be a doer lest he fall into the snares of those whom he teachers and thereby degrade and discredit his doctrine in the minds of those who hear his message.

The old saying "practice what you preach" comes home to us so often and how few are clear.

Society is generally so courteous to allow us to express our thought in public gatherings but how we poor sinful mortals do think!

Is It Worth the Price.

If all public offices cost as much in proportion as that of Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin, we would think that a poor man should stay out of the race. The Senator spent $107,793.00 in securing his election. Thousands of dollars were spent for beer; thousands of dollars for personal work. No wonder the whole country is going to the bow-wows when it is run by men who buy their way into the representative offices. The truth of the matter is, all over the country men seek the office, buy the office, steal the office, get the office any old way.

It used to be that the office sought the man, but this is not so, now. The man seeks the office, and he must have a pocket full of money to be successful in his search.—Burlington News.

"An honest confession is good for the soul." But our surprise is that you would confess, when you say, "The truth of the matter is, all over the country men seek the office, buy the office, steal the office, get the office any old way."

We presume you speak from the actual experience of your party, and that this experience happened during our last election, as it has doubtless happened many times before.

But what causes us to stand like a dumb brute, in wonder, amaze and surprise, is, that you confess.

Presidential Possibility.

Governor Judson Harman, of Ohio, will be in Raleigh next Wednesday and make an address at the State Fair. He is one of the nation's foremost citizens and a big Presidential possibility. Lots of people from all over the State will go there that day to see him.—Gleaner

Governor Wilson of New Jersey when in our state last Spring was declared the greatest man in the Democratic party by the leaders of that party. And the man who would receive the nomination for the Presidency. Now that Harmon is coming he is declared to be "one of the nation's foremost citizens and a big Presidential possibility."

We are now waiting for Champ Clark to come and be taffeyed by being declared the biggest fellow in the nation and the man whom they will nominate.

It's funny how they taffy each other.

Our Regrets.

Since Bro. Crowson the able Editor of our esteemed contemporary, The Burlington News, has made public the sale of his paper, and his retirement therefrom, we take this time and occasion to voice our sincere regret. Our relations although antagonistic in business and politics, have been most pleasant personally, of course there have been thrusts and flings but always politically. But where can there be found two business rivals and political antagonist, each striving for advantage and the mastery, whose relations have been more cordial more pleasant, and more appreciated, than that of the News, and Dispatch. There may have been temporary jealousies, and thrusts that singed the heart strings but when the temporary battle for the vantage, and the mastery were over, and they were usually short lived. The genial Gentleman and Editor of the News would meet us smiling, and say, those were pretty hard thrusts you gave us. Our heart would soften up, and we could only reply, well you begun it, and from that moment, our friendship would warm up as strong as ever. We are indeed, and in truth sorry to lose Bro. Crowson from the Journalistic field of Burlington. And we can truthfully say, that we would rather have him get and hold the advantage, carrying with it the mastery, than have him seek pastures new where the fields may not be so fertile, as the little Burg where he staked his all, and made good. And should you ever desire to return to your first love, the Journalistic field. And find that the field is well covered, and that there is no room for a new publication, we agree now to reserve for you, the highest position upon our staff, that of General Optimist, Promoter, Rail Road and Street Car builder and master Booster, and you wont have to change your politics to get it either. In conclusion—We wish for you Bro. Crowson, Success with a big S. health wealth and happiness, and may your fortune grow until your income per minute is greater than old honest John D's. There is only one greater blessing that we can bestow upon you and that is to place your name upon our complimentary mailing list so that a copy of the "Dispatch" may follow you to guide your footsteps in the pathes of rectitude, and to comfort you in your weary and disheartening moments. And to remind you when flushed with success and victory, of the struggling contemporary you left behind.

LIST OF DELINQUENT TAX-PAYERS

Last week I published a notice in the papers of the city that the names of all delinquent tax-payers would appear in the papers this week, in case the tax was not paid on or before Monday, October 16th, and I am publishing the following list by order of the Board of Aldermen, and the property of those who have not paid on November 1st. will be levied upon and advertised for sale. The following is a list of those who owe tax to the City either for 1909 or 1910, and I publish these names by order of the Board for the purpose of notifying the delinquents, and not from any desire to give any publicity to the fact that they have not paid:

Miss Mary Williams of Elon College is spending this week the guest of Miss Annie Morgan Faucett.

Miss Bertha Huffman of Greensboro spent last week at home the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Huffman.

Miss Mable Ellis spent Saturday at Mebane returning and going to Hawfield Monday to teach school.

Major Adrain Nalle and Capt. Spiker of Bingham Mebane spent Monday in town the guest of friends.

Mr. Wm. B. Sharpe of R. F. D 7 has a stray hound pup at his house the owner can secure same by calling.

Mr. C. C. Cates spent Tuesday at the home of his father in Orange County. His father being in ill health.

The stockholders of the Alamance Fair Association are called to meet at eleven o'clock Saturday October 28th at the fair ground.

The Orphan Singing Class of Oxford will be at the Baptist Church Saturday night October 21st at 7:15. Everybody invited Admission 15 cents to all.

Miss Ramie Johnson and Miss Brookbanks of Greensboro have been the guest of the cousin of the first Mrs. R. J. Hall for several days.

Miss Daisy Wilson who has recently finished her course at the Womans Hospital Philadelphia is the guest of her sister Mrs. Jessie Holt.

Dr. J. A. Pickett of No. 1 is in town today shopping.

Rev. Morgan who has been at Spencer for the past ten days will be in his pelpit at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and night.

Miss Flora Mebane of the Juni or Hospital High Point is at home with her mother Mrs. J. R. Mebane who has been sick for the past several days.

Rev. J. D. Andrew and Jnc. B. Hoffman left today on the eleven o'clock train for Hickory, N. C. to attend a meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church.

The concert given by the Oxford Singing Class should have our liberal patronage. The program is indeed attractive. The cause lies near the hearts of the good people of this State.

Chas. Sharpe had the misfortune of fracturing one of the bones in his elbow Monday evening near Mebane by falling over a log. The fractured arm is improving and Chas. is able to be out to-day.

The Bellemont public school opened Monday October 16th with an enrollment of forty-six. This school is under the supervision of Misses Viola Love of Graham and Blanche Harris of Siler City.

Year by year the tours of the Singing Class from the Oxford Orphanage are becoming more popular. The concerts merit liberal patronage because they have reached a high standard of excellence. And the institution justly claims and receives our sympathy and support.

A meeting of the teachers of the county was held Saturday at Graham at which sixty teachers were present. The day was ideal and the occasion very pleasant and profitable. With Prof. Robertson and the Graded School teachers acting as host all took dinner together in the new town hall.

HAW RIVER ITEMS.

Dr. Wickler preached two able sermons and administered the Lords supper. Quite a refreshing season from the presence of the Lord.

Mr. J. W. Simmons one of our merchants took a flying trip to Durham Monday morning on business.

Miss Lillian Brewer went to Whitsett Friday evening we hope she had a pleasant visit, she returned Sunday evening she is one of the popular teachers in the Aycock Graded School.

Prof. and Mrs. Wright the Supt. of the Graded School attended the teachers meeting in Graham last Saturday.

We noticed many visitors from Graham and Burlington Sunday. The car line brings the towns in close touch we are glad that it is so.

W. J. Thompson of Burlington was in town last week and spent a few hours come again Bro.

Rev. J. C. Hocutt was in town last week for awhile he said his health was good we were glad to see him he is remembered kindly as a former pastor of the Baptist church here in other years.

Our town was severely shocked last week when it was learned that J. W. Boswell of Greensboro was dead he once lived here and he thought he could better his condition by moving to Greensboro which place he remained until his death about ten years he was in his 66th year he had many friends at Maw River. He lives to die no more in the presence of his Savior who prepared the Heavenly Mansion for him. He left a wife and two children to mourn their loss he is watching and waiting for you, weep not dear wife and children you can go to him.

The cars did a lot of hauling last Sunday. The greatest need now is a house at the Crosonburg Station and it should be lit up. One is badly needed we hope the company will take steps to erect a house or waiting room at once.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Payne sympathize with them in the loss of their little babe that was tenderly laid away by loving hands at Providence last week. Another flower is plucked from earth and planted in the garden on high. Weep not fond parents the Savior said suffer little children to come unto me.

W. H. Childrey with good judgment and perseverance is fitting up his new building with knitting machines and about 20 at work and putting in more and will soon have 40 at work. Mr. Childrey is a go ahead man.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Bivens of Hillsboro was in town and spent the evening with Mrs. Bivens parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McClure.

C. P. Cates took a flying trip to Durham last week he returned the next day.

BIG WILD WEST SHOW

Remarkable demonstrations of skill with the lariat are promised when California Frank's Wild West spreads its tents here on Friday, Oct. 20th. Without the lariat, the cowboy would be a useless ranch adjunct. It is as necessary to his picturesque avocation as the horse which knows his every move and mood. In round-up and branding, in corral or on range, the spinning rope is called into service.

The proficiency which the cowboys attain in the manipulation of their coils is born of long, stern practice. In the chase of unruly horses and wild cattle, they learn to cast with sure aim and certain result. No four-footed animal is too agile or too swift to escape the hurtling noose.

The cowboy seldom remains content, however, with the accomplishment of the routine duties of the lariat. He becomes fascinated with its manifold possibilities. Thus, far out on the lonesome prairie with only the grazing cattle as his audience, he may be often found practicing tricks to dumfound his companions of the saddle. In his experienced hands, the lariat seems to become a thing of life and reason, as it twists and curls and circles in mid-air.

Recollections of a Southern Bell Lineman.

Stay stranger, do not hasten,
If a tale from me you'd hear;
It is not one of war and strife,
But one of peace and cheer.

'Twas when the winter's chilling
winds
Had stripped both bush and tree,
And February's snows did fall,
That my tale begins, you see.

I left my North Carolina home,
And caught a northbound train
For a town that they call Danville,
Through the beating winter's rain.

My train on time, I landed in Old Danville without a doubt.
The rain oh my! how it did fall,
No one could venture out.

I walked up to the boss's tent
With a suit case in each hand,
While a dozen hikers stood around
And stared to beat the band.
Where is the boss? I gently asked,
"He's out," the young clerk
said.

"Come on in and have a seat."
So I sat down on a bed.

The clerk was kind, but a noisy lad,
Kid Epting was his name.
I told him why I'd come there,
In a manner mild and tame.

I told him that Mr. R. L. Wright
In the Richmond Bell Exchange
Had called me up to work awhile
So I could earn some pocket change.

The boss returned, a kindly man, Rather short with small mustache.

He looked me over, head to foot,
And many questions asked.
"Are you a lineman?" then he
said;

"Or can you climb at all;
Can you set poles or did a hole,
Or string wires on poles so tall?"

I am a lineman sir, I said;
I can climb poles so tall,
When at this moment I then heard
Some one who loudly called.

It was the cook, a tall slim man with manner mild and clear.
He didn't ring a dinner bell,
But shouted "come through here."

The boys then crowded in the tent,
And on my poor toes they did
tread,
One man was yelling, "pass the beans,"

Another, "pass the bread."
I thought a war was going on,
There was such an awful din,
And my! the grub those hikers
ate,

It surely seemed a sin.
One man then asked me, "pass
the sand,"

I said what do you mean?
He said, why we call sugar sand;
Now please pass me the beans.

By twelve o'clock the rain then ceased,
And to work then we must start
And when I saw those great tall poles

It dearly broke my heart.
The foreman took me out on the line

And put me hiking poles,
And I sighed to see the oozing mud

Which poze upon my soles.
Well, time passed on and soon I found

That life was not mere play,
And for our living we must work;
Toiling day by day.

One morning clear and frosty,
We packed up all our tents,
And in a box car Eastward bound
To Williamsburg we went.

We landed there in short time,
And set up camp again,
For the town is old and small you know,

And of historic fame.
Our work moved on there pretty
well

'Till one eve' when to camp we came,
A fearful wind storm raged
around,

And my! how it did rain.
But one man there he volunteered
To save us from the rain

By pushing the tent pole with the wind,
With all his might and main.

It was "old dad," a man of fame
As it will be your conclusion
To see him you must know his name,

Or you'll think it's an optical allusion.

We had some negroes with us,
And they were camping too;
But their tent was weak and poorly set,

And the ridge-pole broke into.
The tent fell down upon them,
For it was a fearful storm.

"Look out for the tent," Big Arthur said,

"For We's all gone,"

But time passed on in Williamsburg,
'Til one evening cold and damp
A man in great haste stopped me
And said, "Are you going to camp?"

'Twas Piedmont, he was out of breath;
Hair ruffled and wild eyed,
And I told him if he'd wait a bit
That I would be his guide.

I said alright just come along,
I'll guide you safely there.
And then "Dad gum if, Piedmont.

You were running some for fair"

We moved again to another town
And Lee Hall was its name.
There were lots of fish and oysters there,
And also lots of rain.

One evening coming in from work
A small pond we espied,
And Elwys there by thousands,
And to catch them all hands tried.

Old Larny Benton, he jumped in
And Pete, Nash, Snort and Bill.

We caught a half a hundred
In the pond beside the mill.

We went to camp and changed our clothes
And cleaned our fish besides,
And gee! the way fish disappeared
For the hikers crammed their sides.

At length we moved to another place
Where we could get beer and
booze,
A town built on the water front
By the name of Newport News.

The men got there and loaded up
Their stomachs like a tank,
And the way they spent their money

Was enough to break a bank.
At last we got the tents all set,
And off to work did start,
But some were there with whiskey heads

And some with whiskey hearts.
George Bowls was feeling pretty sore,
And also Uncle Snort;

They couldn't get enough of
booze,
And also beer and port.

But work got on there fairly
well—
Spring days with a smiling sun,
And by and by we finished up,
And that tall line was done.

Now stranger I have finished
This tale of long ago;
I've imposed upon your patience,
And I know you want to go.

The stranger shook his head and sighed,
And his words came weak and slow;

"Pray tell me your name and where you live,
Tell me ere I go.

I told my name and where I lived
And then to me he spoke,
"Who was the the foreman of the gang

On the telephone line you worked?"

John Higgins was his name I said
He worked us on the line
In the bitter winds of winter
And in the Good Old Summer
Time.

The stranger quickly raised his head
And wiped the tear drops from his eyes;

And then the words he said to me

Did fill me with surprise.

"I was the foreman of the gang
On the Richmond-Old Point
line;

I worked you in the wintery
winds,
And in the Good Old Summer
Time.

And now those days have fled
by;
Again its joys we can never tell
When I was the foreman of the gang

That worked for the Southern Bell.

CONFIDENCE.

We Back Up Our Statements With Our Personal Reputation and Money.

We are so positive that we can relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine free of all cost if we fail.

We think that it is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Cathartics may do much harm. They may cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels, and make constipation more chronic.

Constipation is often accompanied and may be caused by weakness of the nerves, and muscles of the large intestine or colon. To expect a cure you must, therefore, tone up and strengthen those parts and restore them to healthier activity.

The discovery of the active principle of our remedy involved the labor of skilful research chemists. This remedy produces results such as are expected from the best of the best-known intestinal tonics, and it is particularly prompt in its results.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee. They are exceedingly pleasant to take and are ideal for children. They apparently act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels, having, it would seem, a neutral action on other organs or glands. They do not purge or cause inconvenience. If they do not positively cure chronic or habitual constipation and thus relieve the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, your money will be refunded.

Try Rexall Orderlies at our risk.
Three sizes of packages, 10c., 25c., and 50c. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community
only at our store—The Rexall Store, Freeman Drug Co.

R. F. D. No. 8.

Thanks to our good patrons for work on the roads. We appreciate it very much.

B. L. Simpson of No. 8, who is our up-to-date paniter, has finished his work in Gibsonville and will now paint the new hotel in Burlington.

Thanks to our patrons for vegetables and nice new home-made molasses; also pumpkins for pies.

J. F. Taylor, of Durham spent Sunday at our house. He is our wife's brother and a good fellow.

Rev. Neal Roland, who is conducting a protracted meeting at Berea, spent Sunday night at W. S. Sutton's. We had the pleasure of meeting Rev. Roland. They are having a splendid meeting.

The teachers for Maywood High School arrived Saturday and Sunday by installments as it were. They started up the school Monday. They are boarding at C. E. Tapscott's.

Farmers are busy hauling out guano and sowing wheat.

Not much news this week.

A Constant Protection

A telephone on the Farm affords the Farmer's family freedom from isolation as well as protection in the absence of the men.

Mr. S. S. Lee, of Blanch, N. C., writes: "Some time ago one of our friends' husband was compelled to be off until ten o'clock at night. During that time no one was in the house but his wife. She talked to us all up and down the line, and each family was ready to go to her at a minute's notice. She said she was so glad she had a phone, as she would not feel at all lonely."

Write for our free booklet and see how little it costs to have a telephone on your Farm. Address
