Boston, Mass., Nov. 13.—The Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson will be placed on trial on the charge of murdering Miss Avis Linnell, on January 12, 1912. This date was called from earth to eternity was set late today when Richeson Be it resolved: was arraigned.

Without emotion and in a clear to the Charles street jail to await the trial.

The date of January 15, proposed by District Attorney Pellitier, was strenuously opposed by W A. Morse, the pastor's council. He declared that the defendant's council had not been able to hold a single meeting and asked a continuance of six months.

Mr. Morse said that John D. Lee, of Lynchburg, Va., who is to be the chief council for the defendant, would be unable to meet the lawyers until the latter part of this month at the earliest. ### Stephenson-Hornaday.

In Front Street Methodist Church on the morning of Wednesday November 8th, at ten o'clock was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Georgy D. Stephenson, of Raleigh, and Miss Dora A. Hornaday, of this place. For this occasion the church had been beautifully and tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and other potted plants. The chancel railing was intertwined with green and the chancel itself was banked with verdure in which yellow and white chrisanthemums blended harmoniously.

During the moments just before the arrival of the bridal party a musical program was rendered by Miss Susannah Linthicum, of Durham, and Miss Myrtle Muse, of Carthage. "Oh Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy," by Cantor, was beautifully sung by Miss Linthicum, while Miss Muse skillfully presided at the organ. Just before the entrance of the bridal party Miss Linthicum sang "Because" and then the strains of the great wedding march announced the bridal party.

Slowly up opposite aisles came Mr. E. S. W. Dameron and Miss Sarah Stephenson, Mr. John A. Hornaday, Jr., and Miss Nettie Dailey, Mr. John W. Lasley, Jr., and Miss Ida Edwards, Mr. Z. V. Judd and Miss Lola Lasley. Preceding the dame of honor, Mrs. C. L. Hornaday, came the little man had been complaining for flower girls, Misses Katherine sometime but to most of his Buchanan and Mildred Sharpe, and then came the bride with her sister Miss Berdice Hornaday, maid of honor, and the groom with Mr. J. ### Death of James E. Coleman.

James E. Coleman died in his home near Elmira public school house Nov. 10th 1911, aged 69 years and 15 days, after a brief illness with pneumonia. Mr Colefriends his death was a great surprise. He was married three times. From the first union he leaves five sons and one daughter, from the 2nd only one child was born and this is dead; from the 3rd he leaves a widow, one son and one daughter. In the late war between the States he belonged to Company 6 of the North Carolina Volunteers and gave four years of the best of his life to his Country's service.

His church preference was the Primitive Baptist. His funeral was conducted from the home ies of the valley and the bridal and in Union Ridge Christian veil was caught back with lilies Revs. J. D. Andrew and Wiley Jones. Thus another of the old soldiers has crossed the river and answered the last roll call.

"Cardui Cured Me"

For nearly ten years, at different times, Mrs. Mary Jinks of Treadway, Tenn., suffered with womanly troubles. She says: "At last, I took down and thought I would die. I could not sleep. I couldn't eat. I had pains all over. The doctors gave me up. I read that Cardui had helped so many, and I began to take it, and it cured me. Cardui saved my life! Now, I can do anything."

If you are weak, tired, worn-out, or suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, dragging-down feelings, pains in arm, side, hip or limbs, and other symptoms of womanly trouble, you should try Cardui, the woman's tonic. Prepared from perfectly harmless, vegetable ingredients, Cardui is the best remedy for you to use, as it can do you nothing but good. It contains no dangerous drugs. It has no bad after-effects. Ask your druggist. He sells and recommends Cardui.

obacco Growers:

We know that Warehousemen on the small markets promise you "highest prices." They mean, their markets; but they do not, and cannot mean "highest prices," because they know and we know, and we want you to know, that without keen competition, "highest prices" cannot be obtained.

The more people there are wanting a thing, the more that that thing will be in bemand.

Now, our buyers want tobacco, they want it because the other fellow wants it, and wants it bad. Our market is not limited to the buyers of the Big Companies, we have from five to ten times as many Independent Buyers as any other market, and they buy several million pounds annually. To do this, they BID HIGHER than the Big Buyer, and in the meantime they are making the Big Buyer bid up to the "top notch," on their purchases. That, is the effect of competition, and that is why Danville stands pre-eminent as the "Leading Loose Leaf Tobacco Market."

Now, don't take any chances on doing "as well" on some other market, but sell in Danville, and KNOW that you are doing the BEST.

The Danville Co-Operative Warehouse Company is the best agency in the business today for the sale of "Loose Leaf
