ELECTROCUTION OF HENRY CLAY BEATTIE, JR.

Confesses His Guilt Before Going to Death.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24—Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., went to his death at dawn today, the self-confessed murderer of his young wife, although the confession was not made public until four hours after he had paid the toll exacted by the law. He maintained to the end the remarkable nerve he had exhibited since first he was accused of killing his wife on the lonely Midlothian turnpike last July. His last expression was a smiling sneer when he observed the chair that was to launch him into eternity. The confession was made public in the rotunda of a downtown hotel, by the Rev. Benjamin Dennis, one of the ministers who had labored with Beattie to repent. As a matter of fact, it was acknowledged by the minister, Beattie first admitted his guilt November 9, the day after he entered the death cell and before the fruitless appeal for a commutation of sentence was made to Governor Mann. It was not until yesterday that he would agree to its being put in writing for his signature. Then all hope that the governor would interfere was gone. The extraordinary document follows:

"I, Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., desirous of standing right before God and man, do on this, the 23rd day of November, 1911, confess my guilt of the crime charged against me. Much that was published concerning the details was not true, but the awful fact, without the harrowing circumstances, remains. For this action I am truly sorry, and believing that I am at peace with God, and am soon to pass into His presence, this statement is made."

The shock that killed Beattie was given at exactly 7:19 o'clock this morning. Three distinct and separate times the current was turned on, and at 7:23 o'clock it was shut off. Drs. W. T. and St. Julien Oppenheimer a minute later announced that death had been instantaneous. The 22 persons in the death chamber thereupon filed out, and the end of a lengthy and costly battle for justice had ended.

In addition to the two physicians there were gathered in the death house when Beattie appeared, the 12 witnesses to the electrocution, as required by law, the Revs. John J. Fix and Benjamin Dennis, Major James B. Woods, superintendent of the penitentiary, the electrician and four deputy wardens. The room was flooded with light from a group of incandescent lamps set in a low ceiling and a light that swung on its cord immediately above the chair.

There was no conversation. The witnesses labored under too great a strain, all, even the hardened prison attendants, seemed ill at ease and anxious to be done. The electrician brought a board studded with electric bulbs and laid it across the arms of the chair. The lamps blazed brightly. Then in other ways the instrument of death was tested and finally, at a signal, attendants went over the apparatus, attaching the deadly electrodes and testing every strap and clamp.

When the preliminaries were over, Superintendent Woods, accompanied by two deputies, threw back an iron-studded door and started for the death cell. Instantly the death chamber was plunged into blackness with the exception of a vivid circle of light from the hooded and powerful lamp above the chair. The chair, an oaken bit of furniture, which, except for its straps and steel bands, might grace any library, was on a rubber mat. Alt but it was obscured, the dazzling rays from the low swing lamp throwing everything else into darkness so dense as almost to be felt.

The little party in the chamber heard the superintendent a few feet away knocking out the death warrant. Beattie listened to it with intensity, but did not flinch. He stood during the reading, as is the custom, and when it was ended, he swayed just a trifle, but quickly recovered. Then without assistance, he took his place between the guards and began his march to the unknown. His entrance to the death chamber was as dramatic as anything he had done since first he commanded the public eye. He halted for a brief moment on the threshold, looked at the chair with an inscrutable smile that had in it the hint of a sneer and then walked briskly forward. Nor did he deign to strive to pierce the darkness outside his circle of glowing light.

It had been feared that the prisoner would flinch when the dread moment came to seat himself in the chair. There was no trepidation and not a hint of hesitation in Beattie's attitude. Still wearing his peculiar smile, half amused and half cynical, he stepped lightly into the seat, settled himself as though he had been looking forward to the rest and assisted the attendants in adjusting the straps and clamps by placing his arms and hands in the proper positions. The only indication that he was under a nervous strain was disclosed by his tightly clenched left hand.

During the few brief seconds preceding the turning on of the current, Beattie moved once. While the attendants were stepping back out of the light he squeezed himself back as though to seek a still more comfortable position. At the same time he raised his head, now almost completely hidden by the leather helmet that covered the upper part of his head and face. The next second the shock came.

When the law was avenged and the witnesses were gone, the prison attendants removed the body from the death chamber. There it lay for four hours until an undertaker, authorized by the Beattie family to prepare it for burial, removed it to his morgue. Later it was taken to the Beattie home where funeral services, attended only by the family, will be held. Interment in Maury cemetery will follow Sunday.

When the funeral cortege moves to the cemetery Sunday afternoon the morbid will not find places near the grave to satisfy their curiosity.

The police have received orders to clear the cemetery during the service there, and to permit no one to enter the burial ground save the Beattie's and their dead.

Tonight the Beattie family is alone with its grief. The window shades in the residence are drawn tight and no movement is seen about the place. Respecting their sorrow, neighbors and townspeople who would like to offer a word of consolation and sympathy are remaining away from the home. The idly curious did not share in this feeling, however, for the same general crowd that stood in the down pour before dawn at the penitentiary gates was on hand throughout the afternoon hoping to catch a glimpse of some member of the stricken family. They maintained their vigil until darkness drove them away.

Events moved so rapidly during the day that Richmond still is gasping. The sudden production of the murderer's confession caused a profound sensation. There had been rumors of the existence of such a document, but the rumors were based on nothing tangible. Emphatically and persistently they were denied by the family of the slayer, by the attorneys who had taken part in the celebrated case and by the prison authorities. The ministers refused to discuss the reports, putting off all interrogators with the simple statement that "they hoped for a confession."

The acknowledgement of his crime by Beattie was nowhere received with more quiet joy than in the executive mansion. Governor Mann, who resisted all pressure brought to bear upon him to commute the sentence or to issue a reprieve, has worried himself into a state bordering on nervous breakdown through entertaining the fear that he might be permitting an innocent man to go to his doom.

WHO WILL BE FIRST?

We have a large number of subscribers who are in arrears on subscription. We need the money and will appreciate it if you will come forward with the goods. The label on your paper will tell how much you are behind. If you are paid up this does not mean you; if not send us a dollar or two and we will continue to dish out the news. We mean business.

The same deep satisfaction is shared by the jurors who convicted Beattie, the attorneys who prosecuted him and by the witnesses whose evidence, sent him to the chair.

Beattie was convicted solely on circumstantial evidence. There could be found no one who had seen the fatal shot fired, nor any person who could deny emphatically Beattie's illogical story of the tall, bearded stranger, the mythical person whom he charged with the murder. This doubt, in the face of damning circumstantial evidence, so linked as to be practically conclusive, is cleared away by the slayer's posthumous acknowledgement of a murder that has held the interest of the whole country.

The crime for which Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., was executed today was one of the most sensational in the criminal history of Virginia. Interest in the murder was country-wide, owing to its unusual features and the swift movement of justice.

On the night of July 18 last, Beattie drove his automobile into Richmond carrying with him the body of his wife which had a gaping shotgun wound in the head. He declared that a tall bearded man had accosted him on the Midlothian turnpike, five miles from Richmond, and when he had requested the man to make room for him in the road, the stranger without warning fired the shot which killed Mrs. Beattie. He added that he had grappled with the man, but was overpowered, and that the murderer had fled, leaving the gun behind. This story of the crime was maintained by Beattie to the end.

For a brief time Beattie's story was given some degree of credence, but within a day or two suspicion began to point to him, and he was kept under the closest surveillance. Bloodhounds, taken to the scene of the crime, refused to leave the place, circling around the bloodspot on the road.

Beattie, it eventually transpired, had thrown the shotgun into the tonneau of his automobile after the shooting, but in passing over some railroad tracks not far from the scene it had been jolted out and was picked up later by a negro. This gun, which Beattie alleged had belonged to the mysterious highwayman, proved the means of sending the young man to the electric chair.

At the coroner's inquest the weapon was identified by Paul Beattie, a second cousin of young Henry, as the weapon he had purchased for young Henry with money furnished by the latter. Beattie was arrested immediately after the inquest. This was on July 21, and on August 19, one month and one day after the day of the murder, the trial was begun before Judge Walter A. Watson, in the picturesque little court house, 16 miles from here.

The jury was made up almost entirely of farmers, and on this fact Beattie based his claim that he had been convicted, not for the murder of his wife, but because of his relations with Beulah Binford, a notorious young woman. He insisted to the last that a jury composed of city men would have freed him. Beattie was defended by H. M. Smith, Jr., and Hill Carter. The prosecution was conducted by L. C. Wendenburg and L. M. Gregory.

The trial moved swiftly, though many witnesses testified, and on September 8, after 58 minutes of consideration and prayer, the jury, in chorus, instead of through its foreman, declared Beattie to be guilty of the murder of his wife. Motion for a new trial was denied, and November 24 set as the day for the execution.

On November 13th the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals refused to grant an appeal on a writ of error, and two days later Governor Mann, who had been appealed to for commutation or reprieve, issued a statement declaring that the interest of the people of Virginia demanded that Beattie should die in the electric chair.

THOMASVILLE MAN IS FOUND DEAD IN WOODS

Thomasville, Nov. 25.—The body of Charles Lee Everhart, who mysteriously disappeared so suddenly Saturday morning, was found late this evening nearly three miles south of this place in a patch of woodland by two boys while out rabbit hunting, the dogs spreading the alarm as they ran. Soon a number of people gathered and guarded the body and waited until Coroner Peacock, with a jury, arrived.

The following facts were found: Two bloody places were found, one about 40 feet from the body, one about 30. His gun was lying 25 feet from the body. The body was lying on its face. Upon examination of the body a number of things were found in his pockets, but no money was found. It was reported that the deceased had more than one hundred dollars with him when last seen, and that he was on his way to a shooting match. It was found that he had been shot just below and back of the right ear, and the load coming out through the face, tearing away his teeth and terribly disfiguring the face. The body was turned over to Undertaker Green until 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, when the coroner's jury will render their verdict.

Robert C. Leonard, who was last seen with Everhart, was arrested on suspicion and hurried to Lexington by automobile and placed in jail for safe keeping.

The preliminary hearing will be held tomorrow at 1 o'clock and interest centers on the hearing. Leonard claims to have left Everhart about noon at Frank Workman's store, and it was just at that time and place that all trace of the dead man was wiped out until today, when his dead body was found.

DEATH OF MR. W. M. CATES

Mr. W. M. Cates was seized with an attack of appendicitis while at Graham, Friday, Nov. 17th.

He grew worse in his home and on Tuesday was taken to St. Leo's Hospital, Greensboro, where he was operated on and thought to be improving. Saturday about 2 o'clock a message was received by his wife, stating he could not live through the night. While preparing to go to his bed side another message was received, announcing his death. The body was carried to Grey's Chapel Sunday, where funeral and burial was conducted by Rev. J. D. Andrew Modnay. Mr. Cates was 39 years old and a member of a very large family, there being sixteen children. For the past several years he has been engaged in the furniture business, being connected with the M. B. Smith furniture house at the time of his death.

He was a man of an excellent character, being a deacon in the Burlington Reformed Church, and a very active Sunday School worker. He leaves a wife and two sons, one six weeks old and the other three or four years.

He was a native of Durham county, and was married to Miss Ednora Routh of Randolph county several years ago.

His story is remade slowly. Forty years after the Chicago fire Mrs. O'Leary's cow is acquitted of that kick.

Death of Mrs. Mebane.

Mrs. Margaret Foust Mebane, wife of J. Robert Mebane, died in her home in Burlington Nov. 27, 1911, aged a little more than 54 years. She had suffered for six or eight weeks with cancer of the liver. She leaves a husband, two sons and six daughters, also one brother and four sisters, she being the first of her father's children to be called to the spirit land. In early life she professed faith in Christ and united with Mt. Hope Reformed Church in Guilford county. Recently she removed by certificate to the Reformed church in Burlington. Her religious training was under the late Rev. Dr. G. W. Welker together with the following four laymen, viz: her father S. E. Foust, her husband's father W. M. Mebane, John Corbie and Daniel Welker. Under the devout training of these God fearing men a blessing came to the congregation in which she was reared. The Hon. C. H. Mebane, now of Raleigh, Dr. C. Banks McNairy, proprietor of Foot Hills Sanatorium, of Lenoir, Rev. W. H. McNairy, pastor of the new Heidelberg Reformed Mission in Lincolnton, the late Rev. C. A. Starr and the writer came in the next class and now when they get together always recall with great pleasure the childhood days when they heard the voice of these departed saints in exhortation and prayer. She came of devout religious parentage. Her funeral was conducted in the home at 11 a. m. Nov. 28 by her pastor, and her body was laid to rest beside her son in Pine Hill Cemetery. It will be recalled that her son Robert met his death by jumping from a train in Virginia in July 1910. The sadness of this event is deepened by the fact that just one week ago the wife of Wm. B. Mebane, her oldest son, who resides in Rome, Ga., died, being sick only 24 hours.

The husband and children have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends in this sore bereavement.

By her pastor,
J. D. Andrew.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors who have been so kind and sympathetic during the serious illness of our wife and mother. May the kind Heavenly Father repay each one for these kind deeds.

J. R. Mebane and Children.

For Sale.

We, the undersigned, have a few articles more or less useful we would like to dispose of between this and the 7th of December. Among other things we have a "Sunny South" cook stove, a "Perfection" oil stove, both almost new, one of those wonderful "Kitchen Cabinets," 2 porch rockers, two parlor rockers, four split bottom chairs, one cheap bureau, one cot, one refrigerator, a lot of brown leghorn chickens etc.

Rev. J. A. Hornaday.

Hasting-Mebane.

Mr. Ernest Hasting and Miss Jessie Mebane were married Sunday evening by Rev. A. B. Kendall at the Christian Parsonage. Only a few friends being present. They left on train No. 22 for Chapel Hill to visit his sister.

From Santa Claus.

As I have not decided what day I can meet the children at The 5, 10 & 25c. Store, will have to write you later.

The installation of Pastor C. I. Morgan at the Lutheran church last Sunday was interesting and well attended. Rev. Dr. M. M. Kinard, President of the N. C. Synod delivered the charge to the pastor. In pointed remarks he showed what the true minister should be, do, and teach. At 3:30 Rev. V. Y. Boozer, president of the northern Conference delivered a very interesting and practical address to the congregation in which he set forth in excellent terms the duties of church members.

Native of Alamance.

Rev. W. S. Clapp, who is a native Alamance county boy now residing at Landford, Pa., writes that he has recently been called to the pastorate of Trinity Reformed church, Collegeville, Pa. This church is attended by the Faculty and students of Ursinus College and is one of the charges in the Philadelphia Class of the Reformed church. This is quite an honor to Rev. Clapp to be elected to such an important field and especially so early in his ministry. Rev. Clapp has many friends throughout the State who will read of his success with pleasure. He having served as a supply in our sister county, Guilford, while but a ministerial student. He is a man of great force and our only hope is some day we may have him return to the land of sunshine and flowers and reside in Alamance.

Death of Mrs. Huffman.

Mrs. Edna Huffman, widow of the late Daniel Huffman, died in her home between St. Marks and the Brick Church Tuesday evening, Nov. 28th, aged nearly 80 years. She leaves two sons, P. Huffman of Burlington and Thomas L. Huffman who resides with the mother and three sisters, Mrs. Mollie Clapp and Misses Annie and Laura Huffman. Her funeral will be held in the home at 10 o'clock a. m. Thursday the 30th by her pastor and her body will be laid to rest in the graveyard at St. Marks Reformed church where for a long time she has been a member. Her health has been bad for a long time and her hearing almost gone. The writer has been her pastor for eighteen years and no member of his congregation appreciated a visit to her home more than "Grandma Huffman. She was a very kind-hearted mother and a good neighbor.

SO DECEPTIVE

Many Burlington People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing.

Learn the cause—then cure it. Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

Here's a Burlington case to prove their merits: Mrs. Bertha A. Stanfield, 1015 Dixie St., Burlington, N. C., says: "I suffered from severe attacks of backache for four years. I was stiff and sore all through my body and pains extended from my kidneys into my head. After these attacks, which usually lasted for a week or ten days, I was extremely weak and miserable. The doctors could do nothing for me and the various remedies I took did me no good until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. The contents of three boxes cured me and in the past year I have not had any recurrence of my former complaint. I am bound to look upon my cure as a permanent one."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Precise.

The proof-reader on a small Middle-Western daily was a woman of great precision and extreme propriety. One day a reporter succeeded in getting into type an item about "Willie Brown the boy who was burned in the West End by a live wire."

On the following day the reporter found on his desk a frigid note asking "Which is the west end of a boy?"

It took only an instant to reply—"The end the son sets on, of course."—Ladies Home Journal.

The tariff on raw sugar is 78.87 per cent. The tariff on diamonds is ten per cent. This may encourage some home industry, but it doesn't help much with lowering the cost of home eating.

Saved Many From Death.

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, lagrippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove 'e' right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by Freeman Drug Co.

CHILDREN INJURED.

Ordinary Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physic Cause Distressing Complaints.

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given, except in emergency cases. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are apt to do more harm than good. They may cause griping, nausea and other distressing after-effects that are frequently health-destroying.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as the safest and most dependable remedy, which we know, for constipation and associated bowel disorders. We have such absolute faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies commonly completely relieve constipation, except of course when of a surgical character. They also tend to overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition. Three sizes of packages, 10 cents, 25 cents, and 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store.

CHICAGO MERCHANT MAKES STATEMENT.

After Spending Thousands of Dollars and Consulting the Most Eminent Physicians, He Was Desperate.

CHICAGO, ILLS.—Mr. J. G. Becker, of 134 Van Buren St., a well-known wholesale dry goods dealer, states as follows:

"I have had catarrh for more than thirty years. Have tried everything on earth and spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and with physicians, without getting any lasting relief, and can say to you that I have found Peruna the only remedy that has cured me permanently.

"Peruna has also cured my wife of catarrh. She always keeps it in the house for an attack of cold, which it invariably cures in a very short time."

Be Happy!

Happy the girl, or woman, who has never suffered from any of the diseases of womanhood! Or, if she has been a sufferer, happy is she if she has learned of the wonderful benefits of Cardui, the woman's tonic!

Cardui is a gentle, tonic remedy, for women's ailments. It is a natural medicine—safe, harmless, purely vegetable. It has been in successful use for more than 50 years. It has cured thousands. It should do the same for you.

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Mary Neely, of Denver, Tenn., says, "I think there is no tonic on earth, as good as Cardui. I used it with the very best results. I had backache and nearly everything a woman could suffer with, until I took Cardui. Now, I feel better than I have for two years. I shall always recommend Cardui to other suffering women. I can't praise it too highly. As a medicine for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui is safe and reliable. Try it, today."

Entered as second-class matter May 20, 1908, at the post office at Burlington, North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3 1879.

Wednesday, Nov. 29, 1911.

In the death of J. P. Caldwell, Wednesday, the state and nation has lost one of its best citizens and gifted editors. For nineteen years he has made The Charlotte Observer one of the best papers of the state. He built it by his untiring efforts, from a small beginning.

According to the custom of our pilgrim fathers who landed on that desolate land and after wandering in the wilderness returned thanks to their Heavenly Father for their supply of food, although scanty, we make tomorrow sacred. We have become a rich people, but ever remember the Thanksgiving example given us several hundred years ago, by those who were not so fortunate as we.

With almost a year intervening between the present time and the time of the next presidential election predictions are like the four winds and likely to be changed. At present one would think Taft, who has made a very able President and is rapidly gaining ground to be the man of the choice of his great party and the probable nominee. To the contrary, some of the best thinkers of our nation have been discussing a recent issue of the outlook and debating if the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt would accept the nomination if tendered him. There is another channel which leads people to think that perhaps Roosevelt will be a Hughes supporter. Neither should we in passing over the names of those who could wield the mighty stick of our nation wisely and well, forget La Follette with his mighty band of followers. It remains only a matter of choice which of these great leaders is chosen for the nomination. As either has the ability to continue our growth as a nation of prosperity and commercial activities. But to say that Taft will be nominated and elected would not be looking through a glass darkly in our estimation.

The End of a Thrilling Story.

Like the conclusion of a thrilling ghostly tale, the story of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr. has gone down into history, and the number of columns in the newspapers which have been set aside to its telling are filled with something anew. That Beattie is dead his record is recorded, but there remains thousands who have watched the proceeding from day to day with an eager eye. To these may this be an instructive lesson. Instructive because of the great truths it teaches. His confession removed every doubt, it takes a great responsibility from the shoulders of those whose unpleasant task it was to be his prosecutors. And to even think for a moment of taking the life of an innocent man would be baffling.

That the law is cold and stern is readily seen, but it is fair and necessary, and should be enforced.

We Raise the Question.

We clip the following from the Charlotte Observer:
 "The only thing in the world we have against Mr. Underwood is a fear that he can not be elected and we most cordially desire that one of the several Democrats who can be elected shall be chosen for the nomination."

What we most cordially would like to know is who those several Democrats are our honorable contemporary is speaking of when he says "who can be elected. Is it Bryan, he who has thrice been defeated and recently placed his word of honor that he will not accept the nomination if tendered him. Certainly not Bryan. Is it Wilson, the man who plunged into the thickest of the fight in his own beloved state and was overwhelmingly defeated, certainly not Wilson. Is it Champ Clark, the man whom the Nebraskan with his lash the Commoner is fighting, and who will not subdue to his rule? Again we say, certainly it is not Clark. But, for the sake of argument let us fancy it to be Harmony they seek.

We Wait to See.

William Jennings Bryan and Champ Clark are no longer pulling together in the harness. For these many years Clark has been a Bryan supporter, a Bryan follower and a Bryan standpatter. But that Clark has become speaker of the house and is putting his ideas into force. Bryan points out to him his errors and folly. His ideas are to build up harmony which has not existed for many years in the Democratic ranks. Bryan reasons in the Commoner this way: If Speaker Clark conceives his highest duty to be to preserve harmony he will exert his influence to prevent the consideration of any measure upon which the Democrats are decided, the trust question, for instance. In the opinion of the Nebraskan the people need a champion in the house, and he raises the question to whom will the honor go.

If Mr. Clark has the welfare of the Democratic party at heart and believes more in building up the party and keeping it in harmony he is not the man for speaker, neither should he be considered as a probable Democratic nominee for the presidency. Can not the leaders of their party place a man with broader ideals before the people or, has the Commoner brought false acquisitions against Mr. Clark?

We wait to see.

Is Human Life Cheaper Now?

Just a few short years have passed since we voters were told that "Crime stalked the earth like a pestilence," and that the crack of the pistol was more frequent than the song of the mocking bird. The pessimists were in power then, and we voters of North Carolina were told then that the Republicans were the cause of the frequent crack of the pistol and all the crime that was being committed. I was a Democrat in those days and like thousands of others, believed it. Were the laws slack then? If they were, they are slacker now. Was human life cheap then? If it was, it is cheaper now.

How we sat on our "honkers" and shouted when Mr. Aycock made the above charge and swore he was right. Every crime and homicide that was committed back in those days was charged up to the (as Joe Daniels would say) "dirty, incompetent rascals."

How is it today? The Democrats have been in power for about thirteen years, and you cannot pick up a daily or weekly paper but what some dreadful crime has been committed. If the Republicans were to blame then, are not the Democrats to blame now? Everything happened in those days was charged up to the Republicans and Joe Daniels swore to it every morning in his News and Observer. Have you ever heard anything said about the wholesale crime that has been committed since the Democrats have been in and is being committed at this very hour? Not one word. Josephus is as dumb as an oyster and Aycock is pail behind the gills.

I was prompted to write this article from reading an Editorial which appeared in Josephus' News and Observer of Nov. 18. I will give in full. The News and Observer says:

"The Lumberton correspondent of the Wilmington Star quotes Judge Carter as having said to the grand jury of Robeson county that during the past five years there had been a greater number of homicides and murders in Robeson county, with its population of fifty thousand, than in the dominion of Canada, with its population of six million.

"This statement is one that should cause pause and shows there is need of a crusade to make people have a greater regard for human life. Somebody said not long ago that in parts of this country human life was the cheapest product. It ought to be the most precious and conserved more than any other. The responsibility cannot be said to rest alone anywhere. The courts and juries are not responsible, but they could perhaps lessen it if the convictions for crime are more general and punishment more certain. It is not that punishment should be severe, but that it should be certain."

Now, dear readers, what do you think of the above? More homicides and murders committed in one county in North Carolina in the past five years than the whole dominion of Canada. I have no apologies to make, for the Populist party are the pessimists, except they were not as slick as the Democrats. But readers, what do you think of the court that is in power today? Think it over, and ask yourself the question: "Whither are we drifting?"

I'll have more to say later.

-Ex-Democrat.

Coming to Burlington, N. C. On Tuesday, Dec. 12th, 1911. To Stay at Hotel Ward.

Dr. Francis S. Packard
 of Greensboro, N. C.
 One Day Only
 Consultation and Examination Confidential, Invited and FREE.

ONE DAY ONLY.

From a Late Snapshot

To see all of this regular Patients and such new Cases, as may wish to consult him. Dr. Packard enjoys a wide reputation, among the profession and the Public of North Carolina, where for more than 25 years he has devoted his entire time to the Study, Treatment and Cure of Chronic Diseases. The Doctor has had wonderful success in his chosen work, that of curing chronic sufferers, Men, Women and Children. The Patients he has restored to Health after they had given up all hope of being Cured are numbered by the Thousands. He is a kind, generous, democratic gentleman to meet, of high scholarly attainments, and dignified personality. Coupled with a Brotherly interest, in all who seek his advice. He does not take a Patient for Treatment unless he can foresee a Cure of the Case. The most commendable feature of his work, and one that appeals to the ordinary sick person, is the fact of his charges being so reasonable and moderate as to make it within the reach of even the very poor. At no time do the charges amount to more than $7.00 a month or about $1.50 a week. He gives his own medicines, and there are no extra charges. It takes him never more than from four to six Months to Cure a Case under Treatment. All Cases, even those who have been given up as Incurable or Hopeless, have been Cured and restored to perfect health by this Brilliant Physician and the wonderful methods he employs. If you want to meet him and have him examine you, go to see him, and talk the matter over with him. It will cost you nothing, if he does not put you under treatment. If he takes your case, it will cost you a very small sum to get well. Remember the Date and come early.

IF WE knew of a better line of hosiery than BLACK CAT you would find them here.
 Most every person has trouble with their hose wearing out too soon, especially the children's hose. If you are one of these we want you to come here and try a pair of our BLACK CAT stockings and avoid this trouble. BLACK CAT stockings are the heaviest and toughest stockings ever made and if you will get your boy or girl a pair of these hose you will know that the name "leather stocking," as BLACK CAT are commonly and appropriately called, will wear almost as well as leather. The prices are mostly 25 cents the pair. We also have some extra values in boys' and girls' heavy ribbed hose at 10 & 15 cents the pair. A trial is all we ask.

Carolina Dog Wins.

Waynesboro, Ga., Nov. 27. The annual field trial of the Continental Field Trial Club began here today with the membership state, in which there were twelve starters. One of the features of this stake is that owners must handle their own dogs or have an amateur handle them. The stake was won by Pinehurst, N. C., and handled by Leonard Tufts, of Pinehurst, N. C., and handled by U. M. Fleischmann, of New York. Upton Archie, a setter owned and handled by Russell Perkins, of Poffet, Conn. was second and Lady Idol, a setter owned and handled by G. C. Parsons, of New York, was 3rd. The open derby, which probably will have eighteen starters, will begin tomorrow. The grounds are in good condition and birds were found in good numbers today. The judges were W. G. Hurdley, of Callands, Va., and G. I. Walker, Brunswick, Ga.

THE HOLT - GATES COMPANY

On the Corner Burlington, N. C.

Miss Iris Holt, of the State Normal, Greensboro, spent Sunday the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Holt.

Miss Verna Cates, of Oxford, was a welcome visitor in our city Sunday. She is getting along nicely with her work as teacher.

Mr. W. J. Kroy of Raleigh spent Sunday night the guest of Mr. W. D. Bowman. Mr. Kroy is a dealer in live stock.

Mr. James B. Casey, Editor of The Boylermaker, of Kansas City Mo., has been the guest of his friend, Mr. J. W. Cates, and visiting his many friends here. He is an old Burlington citizen. Two years ago he was a representative from Virginia, and is now en route for Richmond to be the guest of his sister.

Early Morning Robbery.

Greensboro, Nov. 27.—Special. Just at daybreak this morning a burglar entered the home of Mrs. I. F. West, on West Sycamore street, and stole a hand bag with a sum of money of more than $100, probably as much as $150. Mrs. West had carried the money home from her millinery store Saturday night. This morning she desired a quarter to use in the gas meter, and took out the bag to get that amount, leaving the money lying on a table in the room. In a minute or two she came back and saw the burglar about to leave through the window, carrying her money with him. Mrs. West says that the shade to the window was raised about three inches from the sill, evidently the burglar saw her looking through the bag for the quarter. When she left the room he entered and when she returned he was getting out the window, which he had raised. The officers have a theory, but there is little in the way of a clue upon which they can work.

United States Deputy Marshall T. W. Vincent was in town part of the week. His many friends were glad to see him, but someone said they hoped he would not bother our good liquor.

BE READY For The Winter Of Life Have Money In Our Bank

Copyright 1909, by C. E. Zimmerman Co.—No. 49

IT is not as easy to get a foothold in business or to own real estate as it was a generation or two ago. The easiest and surest way to be prepared for the winter of life is to put money in the bank. Money in the bank goes a long way towards insuring a happy Christmas and it always enables Santa Claus to visit your home. You can see examples every year at this time of unhappy families who have no bank account. Start your bank account at once and you will always be prepared for this event in the future.

BEULAH BINFORD PROCLAIMS HENRY BEATTIE'S INNOCENCE

New York, Nov. 23.—Special. "Henry Beattie is innocent," said Beulah Binford today. "If he is electrocuted, everyone concerned in his electrocution will be a murderer."

The "affinity" of Beattie, whose relations with her are supposed to have furnished a motive for the murder of his wife, made this statement in this city. She is living with the family of Isadore Bernstein in the Colonial apartments, 859 Hunts Point avenue, the Bronx.

When she made the statement she was leaving the house to go to a moving picture concern, with whom she had a contract. She was fashionably dressed in a gray checked suit and a blue velvet hat, trimmed with fur, which was pulled down well over her face. In a buttonhole she carried a silver fob engraved with the initials "B."

"Why, I haven't heard from Henry Beattie or sent him a line since his trial," she declared. "I am very sorry for Henry—sorry from the bottom of my heart. He is an innocent man, but the time when I could have helped him has passed."

"If I had been called as a witness at the trial, Henry would have been a free man today, instead of condemned to die in the death chair tomorrow. I would have told the truth, and that would have proved his innocence. I am sure he would have been acquitted."

"You think his conviction was wrong, then?"

"I know it," she replied. "Henry didn't kill his wife."

"Who, then was the murderer?"

"Why, the man behind the gun," was the reply.

"And who was the man behind the gun?"

"For a few seconds she paused, as if deliberating. Then she answered slowly: "Why is it that they took Paul Beattie's word at the trial and would take it now? His testimony never should have been accepted."
"Paul is actually half-witted and no importance should have been attached to the testimony he gave."

"Do you expect to communicate with Beattie before he dies in the chair?" was the final question.

"No," she replied "I haven't heard from him and I won't send him a word."

TELLS OF THE TARRING Young Farmer Relates How He Heaped Insult On School Teacher.

Lincoln Center, Kan., Nov. 20.—While the young victim listened calmly, Chester Anderson, a laborer, today related to a jury the story of how ten men, including himself, dragged Miss Mary Chamberlain, a school teacher, from a buggy and poured warm tar on her naked body. Anderson said that he had never heard any gossip besmirching the character of Miss Chamberlain. He told how the tarring was planned and of the masks various men wore. Anderson said he arranged with Edward Ricord, a barber, to take the girl for a buggy ride so that she might be captured by the men and of going back to Clarks Mill to notify the "gang."

The night of the tarring Anderson and Delbert Kindelsparger drove to the scene in a buggy, while other men went on motorcycles.

When Miss Chamberlain and Ricord came along Anderson said that he and Kindelsparger stepped out into the road and pointed toy pistols at them and halted the pair. Two other men, wearing masks, took the school teacher out of the buggy and Ricord got out and hid. Another man held the tar can. Anderson said two of the men were Everett Clard and Pitwater. The third one he did not know. He said tar was smeared on Miss Chamberlain's legs as near as he could tell from a distance. After the tar had been rubbed on Miss Chamberlain was helped into her clothes. With tar dripping from her she got into the buggy and drove away with Ricord.

Alfa Lindermoth, one of Anderson's companions, corroborated the testimony. He said he took no part in the tarring, merely hiding behind a fence to "see the fun."

A huge crowd filled Judge Grover's courtroom almost to suffocation. The judge told the deputies to be careful that no minors were admitted.

Miss Chamberlain, it was said tonight, would tell her story to the jury tomorrow.

Caught in a Rain.

Douglasville, Tex. — "Five years ago I was caught in the rain at the wrong time," writes Edna Rutherford, of Douglasville, "and from that time, was taken with dumb chills and fevers, and suffered more than I can tell. I tried everything that I thought would help, and had four doctors, but got no relief. I took Cardui, the woman's tonic. Now, I feel better than in many months." Cardui does one thing and does it well. That's the secret of its 50 years of success. Try Cardui.

Paint Lick Sick Lady.

Paint Lick, Ky. — Mrs. Mary Freeman, of this place, says: "Before I commenced to take Cardui, I suffered so much from womanly trouble, I was so weak that I was down on my back nearly all the time. Cardui has done me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life." You need not be afraid to take Cardui. It is no new experiment. Composed of gentle-acting, herb ingredients, it has been found to safely relieve headache, backache and similar female troubles. Try it for your troubles.

INDIAN ELECTRO-CUTED AT RALEIGH

Ross French, the Cherokee Indian, who murdered Ethel Shuler in Swain county, met death in the electric chair at Raleigh last Friday. He never lost his nerve and was said to have been the coolest man in the little party that was present for the execution. When the Indian was placed in the chair, he watched the guards strap his ankles; then his wrists, and did not cease looking until the cap was placed over his face. He then chanted a prayer that had been taught him by his spiritual advisers. He confessed the crime shortly after the murder. The body was forwarded to Swain county and there it will be buried in the same cemetery, it is said, where was buried the remains of his victim. John Talala, his grandfather, and Mrs. Sallie Thompson, his cousin, waited in the city until after the execution.

EAT SUGAR FOR BEAUTY

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 19.—If one would but be good looking and at the same time well nourished he has but to follow the rules laid down by Dr. Alphonso G. Woodman, assistant professor of food analysis at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and eat sugar.

"It is the food of civilization," states Dr. Woodman, thus upholding the opinion vouchsafed recently by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the government's chemistry bureau. "Persons who have enough sugar in their food," he continued, "are better nourished and better looking as well as more energetic than those who neglect carbohydrates in their dietary. This, of course, is true when other things are equal, for there are evils from a diet of too much sugar.

"In a properly balanced diet carbohydrates produce heat and energy, and the quantity of sugar or starch to be taken in proportion to other foods is a matter of the individual. To lay down a general rule that could be applied to all persons would be impossible.

"Carbohydrates as contained in sugars, particularly in honey or fruit sugar, are very quickly assimilated. Thus, as much energy is now expended in the process of digestion as in other foods. This fact is widely recognized. For example, in the selection of a stimulant to give an athlete just before he enters a race, there is nothing better than a few lumps of sugar. He can transform it into energy almost without losing strength or becoming tired before the effort of assimilating it."

KANSAS MOB TARRED WOMAN SCHOOL TEACHER

Lincoln Center, Kan. Nov. 16.—A flood of affidavits was let loose in court at the beginning of the hearing of the application of Everett G. Clark, a wealthy miller of Shady Bend, for a change of venue in the case in which he and eight other men, are charged with "assault and battery" in connection with the tarring of Miss Mary Chamberlain last August. Miss Chamberlain was in court, accompanied by mother and brother.

Since Miss Chamberlain was decoyed to a lonely spot on a country road and seized by a dozen men, her clothing torn off and her body coated with tar she has remained in close confinement in the community where she taught school, and where it is said her popularity with the men caused the jealous wives and sweethearts to urge husbands and lovers to inflict on her, torture which caused a storm of indignation throughout the state.

At the court's opening this morning, Prosecutor McCannless stated he had over three hundred affidavits to offer the court to prove there is no reason why a fair trial should not be given all the accused men in this country. The "tar party" is the principal topic discussed.

Pleas of guilty were suddenly announced by three men accused: Everett G. Clark, a miller, Watson Seranton, a farmer and Jay Fitzwater, a farmer. Judge Grover reserved sentence.

Beattie Baby Yet Unnamed.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Owen, of Dover, Del., parents of Louise Owen Beattie, for the murder of whom Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., will be electrocuted at Richmond, Va. tomorrow, will not ask for clemency.

Their attitude now is the same as it has been all through the case, that the judgement of the law must be accepted.

The infant son of the murderer, now six months old, is with the grandparents in Dover, and is reported as doing well. Because of the notoriety of the case, the child has not yet been named. Prior to the murder of its mother, it was intended to call it after its father. This, however, will not be done. When the maternal grandfather was asked what he and his wife called the child, he replied: "We merely call the little fellow 'baby.'" He would not say when the christening will take place. The grandfather said:

"We have often discussed the future of the little one, the child of our daughter. The possibility of some one telling him about his father has given us no little concern. However, there is no remedy. My wife is caring for him as only a loving grandmother can, and she will continue to do so, of course."

HACKS OFF HEAD OF SON WITH RAZOR

Reading, Pa., Nov. 19.—Becoming suddenly insane, Charles H. Melcher, aged 36, a well-known boss machinist, early today killed his 10-year-old son, attempted to kill his wife, and then ended his own life by cutting his throat with a razor.

During the night Mrs. Melcher was awakened by hearing her husband exclaim, "Oh God, have mercy on my soul."

When she opened her eyes she saw Melcher with a razor in his hand, which was dripping with blood.

"Have you killed him?" she asked her husband, who without replying, advanced toward her.

The terror-stricken woman, dragged the body of her son with her, dashed out of the room. She left the boy's body on the first floor and then, clothed only in her night robe, ran seven blocks to her mother's home.

When the police who had been notified reached Melcher's home they found the boy with his head entirely severed from his body, lying in the hall, while Melcher, with his throat cut, from ear to ear, was lying in an upstairs room. He died while being removed to a hospital.

BOLD TRAIN HOLD UP

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 24.—A masked white man late tonight robbed the mail car of Atlanta Coast Line railroad train No. 55 between Royster and this city, took the registered letters, stopped the train and jumped off just before the train reached the city limits.

The value of the registered mail stolen is not known, but the letters are said to have contained several thousand dollars. There is no clue to the identity of the robber.

The train, westbound from Wilmington, N. C., reached the Royster blockhouse, two miles from Columbia, at 11:20 o'clock. It stopped there a moment, then proceeded toward the city. The robber is supposed to have boarded the train at Royster.

Within a few moments after the train started he made his appearance in the mail car, held up the two mail clerks at the point of a pistol and took the registered letters. He then pulled the bell-cord and leaped off as the train stopped.

In the darkness there was no use to pursue him and the train continued on its way to this city, where the robbery was reported. Detectives are on the hunt for the robber, but have absolutely no trace of him.

Crowded out last week.

Miss Hettie Robertson and C. C. Stroud were married Tuesday Nov. 14, Rev. Stickley officiating. Miss Robertson is one of No. 1's most popular young ladies while Mr. Stroud is one of Liberty's best business men. We join their many friends in extending congratulations.

Miss Swana Patterson, our popular postoffice clerk, is at home on No. 1 for a few days. The new church at Friendship will soon be completed.

On account of being unable to secure a principal for the High School at Friendship, the opening of same has been deferred till a later date.

Bob May's little girl who was carried to the hospital at Greensboro several days ago, is reported to be getting on as well as could be expected.

Percy Homewood is moving to his new home on No. 10 this week. Mr. and Mrs. Lewallen will now take charge of their beautiful home at Oak Grove which is being vacated by Mr. Homewood.

J. A. Moser, better known as "Daddy," has been confined to his room for quite awhile with a sore leg.

Our townsman J. R. Hoffman and Bro. D. S. Hall went out on No. 1 last Wednesday for a bird hunt. As to luck killing birds we think the two together with the aid of the dog got one bird. However, they got a good dinner at G. W. Patterson's, which we are sure paid them for the trip.

"But for the Grace of God—There Go I."

In the December Woman's Home Companion there is a most interesting talk on charity. Following is an extract:

"One anecdote especially, I reckon to have increased my charity tenfold. It was that one told of a great man who, seeing a poor and drunken wretch reeling along the street, said with keen wit and still keener charity to his companion, 'There, but for the grace of God, go I.'

"Perhaps that does not seem to you so striking an anecdote. It did not seem so to me when I first read it, but it came back to me again and again, and each time it enriched me. For again and again, when I saw someone doing what I would have considered beneath me to do; when I saw someone a prey to some weakness not mine, the gentle tolerance of that great man would point out to me that but for the grace of God, but for the better advantages, the greater blessings, the lesser temptations in my own life, I, too, might be even as this person was. Over and over it came to me to remember, 'But for the grace of God—there go I.'

"I have heard a good many sermons on Charity, but this little incident in a great man's life seems to me a better sermon than them all."

It is good for the preservation and purification of the skin, scalp, hair and hands for the prevention of the clogging of the pores the usual cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness and also the treatment of burns, scalds, wounds, sores, chapping as well as the toilette and nursery.

Starts Much Trouble. If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. It's the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, children and debility. 25c at Freeman Drug Co.

Terrible Picture of Suffering Clinton, Ky.—Mrs. M. C. Mc Elroy, in a letter from Clinton, writes: "For six years, I was a sufferer from female troubles. I could not eat, and could not stand on my feet, without suffering great pain. I had lost hope. After using Cardui a week, I began to improve. Now I feel better than in six years." Fifty years of success in actual practice, is positive proof, furnished by those who have used it, that Cardui can always be relied on for relieving female weakness and disease. Oh! give thanks unto the Lord for He is good for His mercy endureth forever. Psalms 104-1.
 Something near three hundred years ago the Puritans landed at Plymouth Rock and started thanks giving day in this country. We as a people should observe it very close with reverence.

W. J. Crutchfield who has been off collecting for a Stove company has finished his work and has returned home for the winter.

M. L. Cates of Orange Grove went to Greensboro Monday to stay with his father L. M. Cates who has been in the hospital for a while.

There was no preaching at Haw River Sunday 26 the ministers being off at Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Handerson of Graham spent Sunday with Mrs. Henderson parents Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Simpson.

The Graded School seems to be moving on nicely under the Leadership of Prof. Wright and his core of teachers, the attendance keeps up well.

We take off our hat and make a polite bow to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Williamson for some nice sweet potatoes they gave us. Long may they live to aid humanity.

Many old Gobblers will yield their neck to the chopping block for Thanksgiving dinner the 30th.

We learn from some of the farmers that a fairly good crop of wheat has been planted but not what would have been if rain had not prevented.

Mr. George Minis of near Orange Grove was in town last week he purchased some school books and returned home we wish every one would educate their children.

Mr. G. W. Franklin was in town Monday Mrs. Vest and of Burlington and Miss Ruth Franklin accompanied him home on the 11 o'clock train.

We are in receipt of the Baptist hand book for 1912 which is a book full of valuable information and should be in every Baptist family in the State. It is gotten up by Rev. T. C. Moore Editor of the Biblical Recorder and that is recommendation enough. The price is twenty-five cents a copy, and is worth four times that.

Mr. A. G. Simmones of Burlington spent Sunday with his uncle, J. W. Simmons very pleasantly.

The supper at the Y. M. C. A. for the benefit of the Christian church Saturday night was a success.

On last Tuesday, as the last rays of sunset, tinged the eastern sky, and darkness was preparing her mantle to cover the great Archor who garners for the skies, poised his wings over the home of Mr. J. H. Woods and wife, and touched the spirit of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Fogleman and bid enter the church triumphant. She was a faithful member of the M. P. Church. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. A sweeter girl never graced the home. Weep not fond husband she is not dead but gone before, waiting and watching. She cannot come to you but you can go to her.

Misses Martha, Fannie, and Pearl Smith spent Sunday afternoon with Misses Espa and Lilla Bullard. The grey horse was in its usual place Sunday, you may listen for the wedding bells soon.

Mr. J. W. Simmons made a flying trip to Durham Monday.

Mr. George Brown of Rosemary visited his aunt Mrs. T. Lashley last week.

Our esteemed operator made a flying trip home Saturday to see his parents and spent Sunday very pleasantly judging from the number of pilgrimages he makes there must be some valuable attraction near Browns Summit we won't tell who she is this time.

Miss Carry Lashley and Espar Bullard made us a pleasant call Monday evening.

Liberty Notes.

If you will allow me a little space in your valuable paper, I will try and write a few hints. My mama is a subscriber to your paper and we all like it fine. Health is not very good around here. Jacob Foust is right sick, he is one among the oldest.

 Mr. Cardial Whitt of Siler City visited his son, Lucian Whitt Sunday.

Miss Beulah Turner of Rt. 1, visited at Mr. W. P. McMasters Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Isaac visited Mrs. Mauris Stewart Sunday.

Miss Altha Pipe has gone to Baltimore for an operation for appendicitis. Also Miss Lister Frazier.

Mr. James Brown and Mrs. Florence Lane were married last Thursday. It was a quiet marriage. They went to Virginia and were married and came quietly back and nothing was said.

Mr. Claud Hinshaw and wife visited at Mr. Dennis Hodgins Sunday.

Mr. King McMasters has his new house about completed King is alright girls only he is a little bald headed.

I hope Mr. George Pike is out of his troubles. Miss Lizzie which one are you going to take. I believe if I was you I would turn them both off and hire them over.

Their will be an entertainment and a box party at the Graded School building next Thursday night everybody is invited.

Hurrah girls what are you going to do for Thanksgiving come to see me we will knock a keg of nails in the head and fry the dish rag and eat sausage.

Now if I don't see this in print I will know it is in the waste-basket. Hurry up girls and lets make the Dispatch a lively little paper. With much success to the Ed. and its readers.

R. F. D. No. 5.

Some of our farmers have not finished sowing wheat yet, owing to so much rain, indications are that they will not get through this year. However this is not the fate of our "hustling farmers," for they have been done some time.

Mrs. Annie Aldridge and daughter Miss Bettie, and grandson Master Allen Graves visited at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Anderson's last Saturday to use Allen's words, "we had a fine time."

Mr. Ralph Rogers and Miss

Cornelia Allen attended Conference at Bethlehem church last week, they report a fine time.

Mrs. James Anderson who has been right sick for the last few days is some what improved. Her daughter, Mrs. Henry Roney is with her, we are glad to have Carrie back if only for a little while.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Anderson, Miss Alice and Master William and Miss Branner Garrison visited at the home of Miss Annie Aldridge last Svtday p. m.

R. F. D. No. 4.

Mrs. Daniel Huffman is very low, we hope she will recover soon.

J. B. Rumbly left Sunday for Spencer where he will take up his duties of railroading.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Huffman of Burlington spent Sunday with his mother who is very low.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Greeson were to see her aunt Mrs. Eddie Huffman who is very low.

Miss Maud Rumbly of Burlington spent Sunday with her parents.

Burt Huffman was a pleasant caller at Miss Anna Loy's Sunday. You bet chickens had a hard time about twelve o'clock. Burt, you are mighty hard on chickens.

Miss Minnie Crouse was in town Saturday shopping.

 BURLINGTON, : : N. C.

Tobacco Growers:

We know that Warehousemen on the small markets promise you "highest prices." They mean, their markets, but they do not, and cannot mean "highest prices," because they know and we know, and we want you to know, that without keen competition, "highest prices" cannot be obtained. The more people there are wanting a thing, the more that that thing will be in demand.

Now, our buyers want tobacco, they want it because the other fellow wants it, and wants it bad. Our market is not limited to the buyers of the Big Companies, we have from five to ten times as many Independent Buyers as any other market, and they buy several million pounds annually. To do this, they BID HIGHER than the Big Buyer, and in the meantime they are making the Big Buyer bid up to the "top notch," on their purchases. That is the effect of competition, and that is why Danville stands pre-eminent as the "Leading Loose Leaf Tobacco Market."

Now, don't take any chances on doing "as well" on some other market, but sell in Danville, and KNOW that you are doing the BEST.

The Danville Co-Operative Warehouse Company is the best agency in the business today for the sale of "Loose Leaf Tobacco."

Operating six large warehouses, known as Acree's, Banner, Central, Holland's, Planters and Union, which are unexcelled as to location, lights, floor space, and accommodations, and conducted by the ablest corps of men ever engaged in the business, with ample capital, and every known facility, we offer you not only "highest market prices, but a CERTAINTY of "higher prices" than can be obtained elsewhere at any time.

Every assistance, courtesy and accommodation is personally extended to our patrons and friends, both at selling time and crop growing time.

We solicit your patronage on these grounds, and can, and will verify our claims.

Your friends truly,

Danville Co-Operative Warehouse Co.
 Danville, Virginia.
