

The Last Service

The Farewell service was held in the Front Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South Sunday night beginning at 7:30. Instead of the regular preaching service the service was thrown open to the members of the church which proved to be a very enjoyable occasion. Mr. G. W. Anthony, one of the oldest members of the church told about how the members worshiped before the erection of the church and the building of the present house. It was found that only eight members were present who were the first members to worship in what is now the old Methodist church, these worshipping in the Union church before the erection of this edifice. Mr. J. A. Isley told about the first Sunday School Mr. C. W. Hunt being superintendent Mrs. G. W. Anthony assistant superintendent and Mr. J. A. Isley Secretary and Treasurer. The pastor of this church at its first services was Rev. L. L. Johnson. Mr. Isley gave quite a number of statistics which proved very interesting to the members at present. Editor O. F. Crowson who had been assigned the subject "Early struggles of Methodism in Burlington" was absent. Mrs. J. W. Lasley held the attention of the audience spell bound as she told of her early religious experiences, how she was converted and consecrated to the work of the Lord when but a girl, and how she at all times stood ready to testify how pleasant and sweet her religious experience had been. After her brief remarks the entire audience joined the pastor in the old familiar song of Happy Day, which was sung without organ or having been announced. Mr. W. E. Sharpe told about the present Sunday school how it had increased in numbers until the present attendance of 447, and how he looked forward with great longing to reach one thousand in the future. Mr. Sharpe pointed out that a large attendance was not the chief aim of the school, but the consecration of souls to the master. And was sure this great aim had been accomplished. Hon. E. S. W. Dameron in his figurative language paid many beautiful tributes of respect to the old walls which had lamented the sound of the death moan and rejoiced to see souls brought to the feet of the cross on special religious occasions. He pointed out how the members of that church should "Look forward to the Mark of the High Calling which is in Christ Jesus" as they pass out from beneath the shelter of the old walls and pass into the new. The "Last Words" were uttered by Rev. R. M. Andrews and the sound of the voice of the speakers passed away in oblivion, and a very pleasant religious occasion had been witnessed, not only by the members but the visitors as well who were present to take part in the last and farewell service of Front Street Methodist Church. The first services in the new church will be held Sunday morning in the Sunday School apartment.

Death of Little Page

God in his all wise wisdom has seen proper to take from our midst the beloved little son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sellars at twenty minutes past ten Feb. 17, 1912. Death was caused from blood poison started from a tooth. He was born May 25 1906 age five years, eight months and twenty-four days. The burial services were conducted at three o'clock with quite a number of relatives and friends present. The services were conducted by Rev. A. B. Kendall pastor of the Christian Church and was very sweet and impressive. This little boy has passed over the river the first of the family to be taken. We wonder who will be the next? He leaves one little Brother and two little sisters. Thomas, Basil and Martha they have our deepest sympathy, but we must remember that God knows best as he takes us one by one.

By the way, who is Colonel Harvey's second choice for President?

A Great Banquet

The Banquet given by the Chamber of Commerce at the Ward Hotel Friday night proved to be a great event in the history of our town. Burlington. Mr. W. E. Sharpe, President of the organization was Toastmaster. At nine o'clock, the hour set, the crowd had arrived, and forty-four strong, marched two by two into the dining room of the hotel. Rev. R. M. Andrews was asked to return thanks after which the goodly number were seated and served to a minute three course dinner, which was very pleasing and very cheerfully accepted. While the guest were being served music was furnished by Wilson's Orchestra which filled the entire spacious hall with sweet strains of melodies. However much the music was appreciated few cheers were given as the recipients were all apparently busy, removing the delicacies. After all had been served the hall was thrown into an outburst of speaking, in which the history of our town was refreshed to the minds of those who are older and given anew to the younger set. The industrial developments of our town was largely discussed, and ways and means suggested to make Great Burlington a Greater Burlington. Our friend Hon. Ned Parker of Graham was present and gave us a slight compliment by telling us how hospitable we were considered in the eyes of the stranger. Many great speeches were spoken all of which we cannot enumerate. The one great determination of every speaker appeared to be to push, pull and boost for Burlington. After a two hours scene of speech making and the rendering of several selections by the orchestra the crowd dispersed. An invitation card was placed before each one present on which they were asked to become a member, if not already one, of the Chamber of Commerce.

Senior Entertainment

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Montgomery on Mebane and Morehead streets was all aglow Friday night when their daughter, Miss Sadie, delightfully entertained the Senior class of 1912 of the Graded School, of which she is a member.

The guest were met at the door by the hostess, Miss Sadie Montgomery, and escorted to the parlor by Miss Mamie Holt where they were met by Miss Flora Garrett. All were entertained with games and music, after which the hostess brought in a bow and arrow together with strings of Hearts numbered 1-10-15-20-25. After a very interesting game it was found that Mr. Earl Dameron had averaged the greatest number of Hearts, was awarded the prize, a book. Each guest was awarded a letter of the alphabet and asked to make as many words as possible pertaining to Valentine, which was a tie between Miss Flora Garrett and Mr. Chas. Story, the latter readily granting the honors to Miss Garrett. The prize a lovely Heart Shaped Box of candy was presented. Having proved a charming hostess in amusement the guest were ushered to the dining room where heart shaped cream in class colors together with cake and place cards, also mints was enjoyed. As the guest were leaving each one gave the hostess a toast after which all departed with great sorrow.

Trolinwood Mills Sold

The Trolinwood Mills of Haw River which have been standing for the past year having been declared bankrupt last March were sold a few days ago by Mr. Fry of Greensboro their owner and purchased by Mr. J. Harvey White of Graham, owner of the Travoria Cotton Mills and other mills of the county. We understand it is the intention of the present owner to change the mills from the manufacture of cloth to a spinning room and begin operation at an early date. This will give new life to our progressive town of Haw River.

However, the straw vote has no standing with the committee on credentials.

Lent Begins Next Wednesday

Next Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, the most solemn and penitential season of the church calendar. Observed by all Catholic, Protestant Episcopal and some Protestant churches, Ash Wednesday, significant of the sackcloth and ashes of repentance, starts the 40 days of Lent, with the beginning of which comes the end of the gayeties of the social season, Lent begins somewhat earlier than usual this year and Easter comes on April 7.

Ash Wednesday, February 21, is among the most sacred days of the Catholic Calendar. It is not observed widely in the Protestant churches, with the exception of those of the Episcopal and Lutheran denominations. Many Episcopal churches will hold vesper services afternoons during Lent, and noonday service which are held annually during Lent by the Protestant Episcopal Church the Messiah will be continued this year. Striner's beautiful oratorio, The Crucifixion, will be sung in many churches during Holy week.

Mr. Lewallen Dies Suddenly

Mr. Lewallen, a progressive farmer who lived on the L. Banks Holt place just beyond Alamance Mill, died suddenly last Wednesday evening while going to a fire which had been caused by some negro children playing in the fireplace in a tenant house on Mr. Lewallen's farm. It is supposed heart failure was the cause of his death. He was seventy years old, and was carried to Asheboro for burial, he having come to this county from Randolph. The house was completely destroyed by the flames.

Keep Off Sidewalks

During the extremely muddy weather many of the sidewalks of the town have been used to drive across. And not only across but taken entirely at some places. As the weather clears away and the streets get better the town officials have decided to put a stop to this and allow the people to drive only where they should. If you have been trespassing, beware lest you are indicted. As is generally known it is contrary to the law and the law should be enforced.

Death of Maggie Phillips

Maggie Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips, died in the home of her parents at Carolina Mills Feb. 5th, 1912, aged 13 years and 5 days. She had been a constant sufferer since eleven months old, being afflicted with epileptic fits. Her funeral was conducted in the home by Rev. J. D. Andrew Feb. 6th, and her body laid to rest in Pine Hill cemetery at Carolina.

Death of Vance Shepard

Rufus Vance Shepard after suffering since last September with tuberculosis died in his home two miles south of town Feb. 8th, 1912, aged a little more than 33 years. Just one week passed between the death of young Mr. Shepard and his mother whose death was reported last week.

On Dec. 16, 1906, he and Miss Lillie Coble were united in marriage. They had one son. The funeral was conducted in the home by Rev. J. D. Andrew, the family pastor, and the body was laid to rest in Pine Hill cemetery in the family plot with his mother.

A large concourse of people gathered to mingle tears of sympathy in this sore bereavement.

Base Ball

Valentine day was a great day for the Cross Road boys. Highland boys went to Cross Roads to play ball that day the Highland boys couldn't hit Uncle Bob Holt's balls. The ladies sang nice songs for the boys still the game stands 9 to 4 in favor of Cross Roads.

A reformed cannibal informs a New York ship news reporter that man tastes like pork. Must have stocked his larder with Chicago samples.

Mr. Nicholson's Opinion

Graham, N. C., Feb. 8, 1912. Mr. Editor:—

As the time approaches for the holding of the primaries for the selection of Delegates to the State and Judicial Conventions, it is well to consider who we will have for our choice as the standard bearer for the next President.

I wish to state here that I am for Col. Theodore Roosevelt, first, last and all the time. I cannot see how a true Republican, who is North Carolina bred, can conscientiously support William Howard Taft for the Presidency, after calmly, and coolly, considering his conduct, actions and attitude towards them during his present administration.

In his memorial speech at Greensboro he stated that "If the offices were all that the Republicans of North Carolina wanted, that then it would be better that the Democrats should have all the offices." Now there was no Republican objected to the sentiment above expressed, for all true Republicans of North Carolina know that the masses of the Republican Party in this State are honest, and are not after the offices regardless of principle, even the Democrats know that there are tried and true Republicans in North Carolina, and they can testify to the fact that there were Republicans who stood by the principles of the Republican party through the trying ordeal of the reconstruction days, without any hope of office.

Now what does Mr. Taft do, soon after he was elected, gives the best and most responsible office in his power to a DEMOCRAT, thus humiliating every Republican who supported him in the State.

It is true that he has appointed and reappointed a lot of little Postmasters all over the State, but everybody knows no different how ignorant they may be, that this is done in order that they will be on hand to whoop up the nomination of Mr. Taft.

No, fellow citizens, we need a strong and able man to grasp the reins of government, one who has truly proved his fitness and is fully able to guide and direct the ship of State successfully, such a man is Theodore Roosevelt who I sincerely trust will be our next President.

A. B. Nicholson.

Box Social a Success

The Valentine party and box social given at the Elmira Graded School last Wednesday night was a success. This function was tinged with a Leap Year Party which gave amusement in leaps and bounds to the large crowds assembled. The object of the occasion was to raise money for the establishment of a library. The boxes, twenty-two in number, were as pretty as you ever see, these auctioneered by Mr. C. M. Coble in connection with a voting contest for the prettiest young lady and several other contests brought in a nice gross return. The cake for the best looking girl was awarded to Miss A. M.ie Truitt. While Prof. Rumbley was conducting the box social in the main auditorium, Miss Montgomery, teacher of the primary department, was entertaining the youths with games.

Pronouncing Bee

The Pronouncing Bee conducted Tuesday night in the Masonic Hall by Mrs. J. L. Scott assisted by Rev. Morgan was quite a success. The line ups would remind you of the old time spelling match but the difference was the teachers consisting of Mrs. J. L. Scott and Rev. Morgan spelled the words and the students or those who participated pronounced them. If the pronunciation was not correct, sit down was the command. Miss Sadie Smith won first laurels with Misses McFayden, Annie Bennett, and Mr. Jno M. Cook in rapid pursuit.

France, fresh from "stood up" to Germany and getting away with it, is not disposed to put up with any indignities, real or fancied, from any of the other neighbors.

What Is Lent?

The name Lent is derived from the old English word Lencten, meaning Spring, and so may be called the Spring fast, and is kept in commemoration of the forty days spent by the dear Lord in the wilderness.

The Lenten fast has been observed and kept by the Church from a very early date. Traces of its observance are found in the writings of the Anti-Nicene Writers Irenaeus and Origen. So it runs all through the Christian Centuries back through Jewish history to the days when Israel was delivered from Egyptian bondage. In all the generations, with deviation only as to details, there have been days of preparation for the great Paschal Feast known in our day as Easter. Its antiquity proves its value. Think of the saintly lives it has fostered and developed; of the careless aimless lives to which it has given direction and force; of the good resolutions of millions of souls it has watered with prayers and self denial; think of the multitudes who enjoy the bliss of Paradise because of its inspirations. Its memories are sacred. It is Holy Ground, representing God's presence among His people. As Moses drew near to the burning bush with reference because God was manifested there; so this sacred season is approached. Who dare speak lightly of it? Who dare treat it with unconcern?

Life is a way, the Christian life is the pathway towards Heaven, and Lent is the rest by the way. As Christ said to the Apostles, "Come ye apart into a desert place and rest awhile," so the Church would bid her faithful children to come apart for a while from the enjoyment of pleasure in its many forms, as we count pleasure, and rest, rest the soul and feed it, strengthening the Christian life by prayer and more frequent attendance at God's house.

Lent is the special season for drawing nearer to God. For special acts of charity and devotion, for giving up certain things that might tend to draw the heart away from God, for the deepening of the religious life, for placing the heart in a purifying process to cleanse it from sin, for the uniting us with, and drawing us nearer to the Christ."

Death of Mr. Dickey

Mr. Jas. A. Dickey of Pleasant Grove Township near Dickey's Mill died February 19th 1912 at the age of 71 years. He was united in marriage to Miss Pernelia Maynard February 19, 1883. To this union was born one son and one daughter. He united with Long's Chapel Christian Church as a charter member and was elected deacon at the same time. He leaves a wife, son and a brother.

He was a soldier in the Civil war, being a volunteer of company E 13th regiment, was wounded at Gettysburg Pa. losing his arm, was a prisoner as Davis Island, N. Y. for sometime.

He was Treasurer for the county of Alamance for two consecutive terms.

A worthy citizen highly esteemed by all in the community, and all who knew him. Funeral services were conducted at the home by Revs. J. O. Atkinson and J. W. Holt, burial at Union Ridge.

A New Experiment

The Merchants Supply Co. which recently organized for the purpose of taking over the business and good will of the Burlington Grocery Co. is going to try a new experiment in their mode of selling goods. They have until recently employed two traveling salesmen. But they have reduced the number to one and have added what is known as a phone salesman and collector. They have put a lady in charge of this branch of the business, whose duty is to call all customers of the firm, or prospective customers, that can be reached by phone at least once per day for those who do business in the towns, and twice per week for those whose business is located in the country. The one salesman retained will visit those customers who are not fortunately situated so as to have the use of a phone, until such time as the phone system is extended to all enterprising merchants. The Merchants Supply Co. expect to be able to save considerably in the way of traveling expenses formerly paid to traveling salesmen, which will mean that they can sell goods at a closer margin of profit than heretofore. It will be the duty of this lady salesman and collector to not only call you and insist that you give her an order, but she is to insist that you remit for past purchases, so if you get a dunn over the phone, instead of getting insulted, and refusing to comply with the lady's request, you must remember, that it is a new and progressive firm. It cannot longer be truthfully said that there is nothing new under the sun, in these days of insurgency, progressiveness, the Initiative referendum and the recall.

Warning to The Fray.

President Taft has got his fighting clothes on at. "It has been impossible," says the Washington correspondent of The New York Tribune, "to arouse the President to assert his own rights or to resentment against the machinations which have been employed to prevent his re-nomination." That is so long as it was a personal matter. But, continues this writer, there are two developments which have stirred the combative spirit in him at last. Every suggestion toward undermining the power of and respect due to the judiciary arouses all the President's patriotism to a white heat, and, in the second place, the indisputable evidence that a committee headed by Frank A. Munsey's collecting an enormous anti-Taft fund from those who regard the Sherman anti-trust law with hatred has exercised upon him the same effect. This is undoubtedly why Mr. Taft's recent utterance are characterized by a vigor, a ring and a quality of popular leadership he had never shown before. This is why word has gone out from the White House to deal the Roosevelt boomers as hard blows as any coming from them. Mr. Taft has entered fully into the spirit of the fray. He can not roll up his sleeves and his voice to whoop along merely any issue or fad as Colonel Roosevelt, Senator LaFollette and the other whoopers can, whooping for the love of it and whooping for effect are equally uncongenial to him. He has not that facile comedian-like gift of riding with more or less conviction whatever wave of popular sentiment might bear him to the fore. But where he is weak as an actor-agitator and as a practical politician he is strong as a man. For the very reason that does not confuse his convictions of public duty with his political interests, does not confuse them either consciously or unconsciously, he holds those convictions dear. He will fight for what he deems a vital principle, totally regardless of whether it is popular or otherwise. He will fight hard when it becomes gravely endangered and he is stirred. Lately moral indignation has heightened the combativeness which devotion to endangered principle aroused: he is showing the formidable anger of the patient man. Hence the revived spirit of the Taft supporters everywhere. The President has begun to be a fighting leader, and fortunately for the country, these principles which he upholds against the so-called Progressives retain their hold upon the great majority of the people in both parties yet.

The Trials Of A Traveler.

"I am a traveling salesman," writes E. E. Youngs, E. For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles they are unequalled. Only 25 cents at Freeman Drug Co.

MURDERER FREED RETURNS TO CELL

Salem, Ore., Feb. 6.—Won't you let Will come and make a living for us, Gov. West? I know he is a 'lifer,' that he has only served two years, but he isn't a bad man. Why governor, there never was a kinder man than Will. I know he will be good. I am without money, my baby is hungry and needs food and clothes. There's a mortgage to be paid off and I don't know what to do." The woman who wrote the above was the wife of Will Mack, a life termner in the Oregon penitentiary. The man from whom she besought her husband's freedom was Gov. West of Oregon. Perhaps every other governor in the United States would have said "no." But Gov. West said "yes," and on June 4, 1911, Convict No. 5863 left the Oregon penitentiary. But Will Mack didn't get permanent freedom. Gov. West was at the penitentiary when Mack left.

"There is one promise I want you to make," he said. "Give me your word of honor that you will return after you have paid off that mortgage. Report to the superintendent on Dec. 31, 1911, and start serving time again."

The promise was made and Will Mack went away. The hardened police officials laughed at the governor.

"Catch a man coming back to serve the rest of his life?" they asked. "Not much." Why he shot and killed a man in Granta Pass.

"A man who will do that isn't coming back. We have seen the last of Mack. The governor is crazy."

They didn't say, however, that Mack killed a bartender in a dry town, who had sold him cheap whisky, and they didn't add, these skeptical ones, that Mack was temporarily insane with drink when he committed the deed.

On Dec. 29 just two days before his time, Will Mack returned to the penitentiary.

He walked up the gravel path to the warden's office with his pack on his back. He didn't falter. He didn't look back. At the superintendent's desk he dropped his bundle.

"We'll, I'm here, Mr. James," he said.

Supt. James glared angrily at Mack and shouted: "You back? Do you, sir, know the rules and regulations of this prison? Do you know that we are not accustomed to being disobeyed? You have violated the rules of this institution. Your time is not up. You are not supposed to return here for two days. Get a gun and stand on guard tonight and don't let me see you again until tomorrow." When he left Supt. James, who has a heart as big as an ox, wiped tears from his eyes. That night Convict No. 5863 became a guard.

But that isn't all the story. During Mack's seven months of freedom he worked as an engineer of a street paving company. He payed off all the debts of his wife. Also he paid a mortgage of $110 on his father-in-laws property. This amount was raised as funds to defend him when tried. He also left his wife and baby with a little cash.

Since Mack's return, Gov. West has received hundreds of letters, asking that he be paroled. So far he has taken no action, but Oregon's big chief executive has a heart that is big, and perhaps Mack may not have to spend his life behind the bars. And if he is freed it will be because he showed Oregon's human governor that he was a man.

Split Log Drag Again.

"Line upon line, precept upon precept." It is not too often to preach the gospel of road repairs every day, especially at this season of the year. You who are skeptical about the efficacy of the split log drag, take this testimony from the Troy Montgomorian:

All of us thought the roads were ruined when the freezes, snow, sleet and rain put in their work recently. Not so, D. W. Saunders, who lives three miles southwest of Troy, put his mules to a split log drag and in half a day converted what was an almost impassable road between his place and town into the same admirable turnpike that it was before the bad weather set in. We had begun to despair of good roads, thinking them a failure, but since Mr. Saunders has demonstrated that the most trying weather cannot deprive us of good roads long at a time, we are stronger than ever in favor of good roads.

No dirt road can stand up well under sleet, snow, freezes and constant rain, but since these last but a short time during the year, there can be no reason to oppose good roads because of the few days they are not good. Better have 11 months of good roads than 12 months of bad ones.

That is the note. Pass it along among the unbelievers. Stick it under the noses of road superintendents who are wasting the people's money hauling dirt and shaping up roads in the summer and then not touching it again, leaving it to be worn down by the fall travel and washed away by the winter rains, with the result that what might easily have been a firm road bed, is turned into soft mud almost impassable. If the supervisors can't see it, then let some live, sensible man in the neighborhood raise such a rumpus that others will join him and make the officials take notice. Or what might be better in some instances, let him make a drag and donate a half a day now and then as an object lesson. Every community must have a leader, anyway, or the progress is apt to be backward.

HAW RIVER ITEMS.

From the numerous visits one of our town merchants makes to the country, we think the wedding bells should soon be ringing and if youth and spring figure in the matter, methinks more than "our milliner" will look to their interests. Your Money Back if You Are Not Satisfied With the Medicine We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxative or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate, and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons, and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store FREEMAN DRUG CO.

Have you joined the Hustlers? There is time enough yet join today.

Now that the chamber of commerce has really waked up, we may expect something doing all along the line? Are you really awake gentlemen, are you really awake.

Stop your kicking and your knocking, and join the boosters and the hustlers, you can hustle if you will only try. And if you really hustle, you can ride bye and bye.

After this week we promise our readers to give more space to National politics and less to the contest. Everything will be in smooth running order by that time, and we will try to interest those of you who do not care anything about the contest. As the political situation stands now the contest between the republicans for the presidential nomination lies between Ex-President Roosevelt and President Taft, with chances slightly favoring the re-nomination of President Taft. But Mr. Roosevelt has many warm admirers who are anxious to cast their ballots for him again, and they may become more numerous as the days go by. Subscribe for the Dispatch and we will try to keep you posted.

Splendidly Received.

The contest is being splendidly received. Everywhere people are talking about the magnitude of the undertaking, and wondering how we are going to go through with it all. To one and all we desire to say: No one knows the magnitude of the undertaking better than ourselves. But we assure you that we have counted the cost beforehand and that we are prepared to bring the contest to a successful conclusion. It is true that a contest where the value of the premiums to be given away run into the hundreds, in fact nearly reaches the two thousand dollar mark is quite an adventure. We know that a deserving public will not let premiums of such value be won without a contest worthy of the name, hence our unlimited confidence in the undertaking. New Hustlers are entering every day. Others are giving the matter much serious thought. It is only a question of a few weeks until there will be fifty or more active hustling contestants and the contest will be in full swing. Don't be timid, don't be afraid, remember that the more that enters the easier it will be to win the prizes. Do not let others discourage you. They are only seekin to get you out of the race. Go in to win, and once in let nothing but sickness and death get you out. Just shuffle and hustle until you are the victor. Remember there are twelve winners, as there are twelve prizes, any one is worth the best effort there is in you. Telephone your friends, write to them, go to see them, send them word, send others to see them, do anything to land them. You will more than be well paid for every moment you spare to the contest. Some one is going to win these magnificent prizes, why not you? You may say that you do not want the Automobile, well suppose you don't, you can sell it for a good price, and you will want the money that it will bring you. Read over the list of premiums again, and again. Anilize them all, if you do not care for one, what about the other. Are you going to miss them just because you were not willing to spare a little time and make a little effort. Don't say that some one else is ahead of me and I will not enter. Get in now. A few days makes no difference, to the hustler. Start now, do it today.

Will Make the Fight Alone.

The Furniture Manufacturers of North Carolina are up in arms because of the refusal of the State Corporation Commission to aid them in their fight for lower rates upon their product into the Western states. Our home manufacturers have always been discriminated against in regard to rates and have been waging a fight for years for a reduction to meet the existing rates enjoyed by our Virginia Cities, but having appealed so often to the railroads and in vain. They now seek to have the Interstate Commerce Commission, and the State Corporation Commission to aid them to obtain justice. But the state commission gets its back up like a little boy, and says we will not aid you because you did not ask us before you did the Interstate Commerce Commission. In other words you went to play with Willie Jones first, and now you come to play with us and we are not going to play. Was there ever anything so funny, or anything so ridiculous. A corporation commission composed of men who are so narrow, so bigoted, so selfish, as to refuse to aid the manufacturers of their own state against unjust discriminations, and because these manufacturers laid their complaint before the Interstate Commerce Commission, before they filed their complaint with them? Is it possible that the Great State of North Carolina has such men as officials and under a democratic administration at that. Where is Hon. William Walton Kitchin, the people's Governor, that he does not have this set of play babies removed from office, and men appointed to fill these important positions that will safeguard our manufacturers interests. If the contention of the furniture manufacturers is false and not based upon proven facts, let this commission investigate their charges and render a decision based upon the facts disclosed from the investigation. But to plead the baby act, by saying because you did not ask us first, we will not play, is working the baby act to perfection, and is at least disgusting and humiliating not only to the manufacturers whose very existence is at stake, but it is equally so to labor and capital engaged in other pursuits. Because they do not know what minute this same baby act is going to be played upon them. Here are the resolutions of condemnation passed by the committee representing the furniture manufacturers association, read it and ask yourself the question, are you not ashamed that the men composing the commission are democratic officials, serving under a democratic state administration.

At a regular meeting of the Southern Furniture Manufacturers' Association at High Point this week, a committee composed of A. E. Tate, High Point; W. E. White, Melbane, and B. F. Huntley, Winston-Salem, was appointed to draft and submit a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, which follows herewith:

"That whereas, we, the members of the Southern Furniture Manufacturers' Association, in regular meeting assembled at High Point, N. C., February 14, 1912, have learned through the chairman of our traffic and transportation committee that the North Carolina Corporation Commission, through its secretary, Mr. A. J. Maxwell, has positively declined to assist, either in a financial way or otherwise, in the prosecution of our complaint filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission regarding the iniquitous and discriminatory freight rates now threatening the very existence of the furniture industry in North Carolina; and, whereas, it is the unanimous opinion of the members of our association that the Corporation Commission was created for no other purpose than the safeguarding of the life and growth of the industrial development of our State from oppression and discrimination and to see that the citizens of North Carolina are given freight rates on an equitable basis with those in effect in other sections of our country. Now, therefore, be it resolved that we do most emphatically condemn the very unusual attitude assumed by our Corporation Commission in their refusal to co-operate with us, and call upon all patriotic and loyal citizens of North Carolina, who wish to see this State given as favorable freight rates as other States receive, to join us in filing our protest against the position taken by our Corporation Commission."

"Resolved further, that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Corporation Commission and also a copy be given the press for publication. Respectfully submitted, (Signed) A. E. Tate, (Signed) W. E. White, (Signed) B. F. Huntley, Committee."

It is hoped that the newspapers of the State generally will copy the above and begin with their home organizations and agitation which will not cease until the question of freight rate discrimination against the State of North Carolina has been abolished.

New York World.
 The World enthusiastically welcomes this old-fashioned revival of Democratic activities. With Woodrow Wilson clashing Colonel Harvey out of the front yard; with Colonel Watterson denouncing Governor Wilson as an ingrate; with Mr. Hearst sobbing hysterically over Governor Wilson's historical references to Chinese labor; with Mayor Gaynor having fits over the wickedness of Mr. Hearst; with Colonel Harvey tearfully turning Woodrow Wilson's picture to the wall; with Mr. Bryan alternately bumping Judson Harmon and reading Oscar Underwood out of the party; with Champ Clark clawing Joe Folk and Joe Folk clawing Champ Clark; with Martin Littleton weeping over the atrocities which the House Democrats are about to commit on Wall Street; with Roger Sullivan trying to steal Carter Harrison from the newly converted Mr. Hearst; with Mr. Bryan acting as a House of Representatives, and with Mr. Underwood defying Mr. Bryan to do his worst—it has been years since we had a Democratic party so full of vigor and action and the joy of living.

Have you a tooth to pull? Have you tried my method? If not, ask someone who has.

Losses Savings of Years.

Greensboro, Feb. 3—Mr. Lewis B. Pate of Patetown came to this city to do some trading and bring the money which represented the savings of himself and wife for several years, and after going the rounds of the city discovered that he had lost, or someone had stolen, $180 from his coat pocket. Mr. Pate is a one-armed man and though industry and economic living had saved this money for a "rainy day," and the loss falls heavily upon him indeed.—Charlotte Observer.

LOOKS bad, doesn't it?
It would have looked much worse, though, if it had been you instead of Mr. Pate wouldn't it?
If Mr. Pate had taken the precaution to put his money in the bank and a check book in his pocket this notice would never have been in the paper.
When he found his check book gone the bank would gladly have given him another.
Don't be like Mr. Pate. Deposit your money in us and pay your bills by check the business

NOTHING TO LOSE! ALL TO GAIN.

Your name in connection with a notice like the above would look bad in the paper.

Do Not Wait Until You Are On Your Death Bed To Make Your Will.

Some people have the mistaken idea that the making of a will should be one's last act on earth.

The greatest mistake in the world?
Here's an illustration of one reason why:

Rock Hill, S. C., Feb. 13.—William J. Caveny, a prominent and greatly beloved citizen of Rock Hill was found dead in bed this morning.

"Mr. Caveny was on the street yesterday as usual and had not been at all sick."

Here's another reason why:

No document requires more care in its preparation than a will; a good lawyer should be consulted and every detail made clear. Then your will should be stored in the safest place possible.

The safest place in the county is in our vaults.

This is the strongest banking and trust company in Alamance County and we can help you prepare your will as it should be done without cost to you.

This is an important matter, come in and talk it over with us to-day.

---Lower Than Ever in Price

There have been no mistakes to correct---no experiments to try out---but conveniences have been added and a marked reduction in price made possible through larger production and added factory facilities.

Some of the original and exclusive features which have made FORD Model T the most popular and serviceable car in the world:

Marvelous Simplicity in Design—Few parts, but every part in harmony with scientific principle. There is nothing superfluous in Ford design, every part has its specific place, making a chassis compact, clean cut, neat, with great strength.

A Car of Vanadium Steel (scientifically heat-treated), the strongest of all steels, under tensile stress and against vibration and shock.

Ford Magneto built into the motor. No wearing surfaces, no moving wires, no ignition troubles.

Ford Planetary Transmission. Motor always connected with car. Transmission always in gear; when the car is running on high speed the gears are quiet. No crunching or stripping of gears.

No Weight on Moving parts. This assures durability, economy and long service.

Ford Spring Suspension. The axles are attached to the car at the extreme point of the springs, thus giving the utmost flexibility, smoothness in riding, and least wear on tires.

Ford Rear Axle. No truss rods. Look at it, no weight but its own to carry; think of the saving in wear this means to the rear tires.

Simplicity in Operation. The movement of the car may be controlled by the feet, the hands need never be taken from the steering wheel.

Light Weight. Ford Model T is the lightest in weight of any four cylinder car in the world, size, power and capacity considered. It has 60 pounds to the horsepower. It costs money to move weight. If weight is an advantage in a motor car, why don't the makers of heavy weight cars advertise the fact?

Accessibility. Every part of the mechanism of Ford Model T is easily accessible. There is nothing intricate—nothing confusing. It is as simple as A B C.

Cheapest to Maintain. Ford Model T is an exceedingly economical car to keep. It goes from 20 to 28 miles on one gallon of gasoline. It is equally economical with oil, and gives from 5,000 to 8,000 miles on one set of tires.

Ford Service for Ford Owners is a feature which must not be forgotten. No matter where you are, with your Ford car, if accident or trouble occurs, you are sure to find immediate service right at hand. Over four thousand individual dealers, each one carrying a supply of Ford parts in stock all the time, each one anxious and prompt to assist Ford owners. Ford service for Ford owners is an exclusive advantage. It is a worldwide advantage. No matter where you go, the Ford dealer is there waiting for you.

No Ford Cars Are Sold Unequipped. When you buy a Model T, you get a whole car.

We would like to have you write for our series of books, illustrated and fully descriptive of the various features of Ford Model T cars. Send for the series. It won't cost you anything.

Business men are solving the problem of delivering all kinds of merchandise with the Ford Model T delivery Car---It is proving the Quickest and Most Economical for all general purposes.
