BURLINGTON, N. C., MARCH 27, 1912.

ALAMANCE COUNTY HAS BORROWED. SEVENTEEN THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED

DOLLARS.

To pay the running expenses from the first Monday in February to the first Monday in March. All of this gigantic sum within 30 days. At this rate how much more will they have to borrow before the time comes to turn them out. Where are they spending this money. The taxes have been increased, there has been no work done upon the roads, and where has this money officials are honest men, because they are all democrats, and of course no democrat is dishonest. Therefore will not some of our brethern of the county democratic press turn on the light. THERE IS A LEAK SOMEWHERE.

Point it out to the tax payers, and lets take a look at the books Point it out to the tal payers, and lets take a look at the books. ## Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after 1 gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and loke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE Woman's Tonic

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers. They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.

Says Leg Grew In Prayer

Reading, Pa., March 16.—Chas E. Martis, son of Rev. W. F. Martis, says he has been healed in a miraculous manner. He was suffering with diseases which puzzled the best physicians and caused the hospital authorities to gravely shake their heads; but today he is as spry as a rooster.

He says that the pow-wow man did not have a thing to do with his healing, but that the Lord did the work. "I have been in the St. Joseph Hospital thirty one three times and in the Homeopathic Hospital on two occasions,' praying, and after praying for a bout five minutes the Lork spoke to him, he says, and there was a feeling as if his left leg was being pulled. When he got up it was as long as the right leg and Jersey Governor and both stand the old leather was thrown out of the shoe.

l and my son have been locked up here nearly a week now. I want a square deal. In the first, place, my son Victor never fired a single shot. We both expect to be electrocuted. Our murder is as certain as the sun will rise tomorrow. But it will be plain murder, if they put Vic in the chair. Me? Why, sure, I fired. But before God I give you my solemn oath I did not be firing. I did not know the firing. I did not know the firing. start the firing, I did not know when Judge Massie pronounced sentence that there would be any shoot-ing. It came unexpectedy to me. That there was a confense. When our people went into the courtroom they intended to kill nobody, and I at heart was ready to go to jail. I am not afraid of death, and that is what is looking us in the face.

"Both Victor and Floyd Allen have given me their solemn oaths that they did not start the firing that day in the Hillsville Courthouse. I believe them. These are not the ordinary type of mountaineers. These people are men of property and sense. No

Floyd Allen is, comparatively speaking, old, but he is still strong and vizorous. Standing over six feet in his socks his carriage is erect; he is alert and vig orous with a mass of curley gray hair covering his head. His brow is broad; his eyes twinkle and flash as he speaks. He is better educated than the usual moun taineer and he talks with intelligence upon ordinary current topics. Judge Hairston was permitt ek to visit him today only after repeated attempts. A minister also visited him for more than an hour and after he left said:

"Whatever this man's crime may be he has repented and the gates of Heaven will not be closed against him."

In his talk with his lawyer. Allen bent down and wept. Judge he said, "I am not afraid to die, but my wife, I love her today as much as I did when I mar ried her when I was a boy. These people won't let me see her or send her a message."
