 Entered as second-class matter May ton, North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3 1879.

And history records the pedigree of Mr. Underwood as being a son of a Yankee soldier. What about that, Mr. Southerner.

Can the Republicans of Alabama County afford to repudiate their national administration.
 Better count the cost, and look at your position before the political step before taking the fatal step. This is only a warning, not made to try to influence your actions. Count the cost, figure the profit, see that you are right, then go ahead, is the Davie Crockett motto.

Press Favors Taft.

The following is a report given by The New York Evening Post showing how a number of the small Republican newspapers stand as to Taft and Roosevelt:

Warned Again.

We again warn our Republican friends, that instead of wrangling about who shall be the Republican nominee for President, you had better qualify yourself to vote. Those of you who are talking the loudest, about what you will do, and what you won't do, and predicting all sorts of dire calamities unless the man you want is nominated, will be the ones who cannot vote even should you get your man nominated. It is less now than thirty days in which to pay your poll tax, so that you can vote, and what will it profit you to get your man, and then cannot help him with your ballot. Stop your bickerings and get busy. There is something just as important to you as to who shall receive the nomination for President, and that is who shall administer your county and state affairs here at home. If you fall by the wayside and fail to qualify yourself by paying your tax, you cannot blame any one but yourself.
 See your neighbor, and ask him to pay his poll tax. After this is done you can have it out as to who shall be the Republican nominee for President.

Seven Day Paper

The Greensboro Daily News has recently changed and is now getting out this news sheet seven days in the week. The News is not only improving its service by coming out on Monday but has improved its news service and editorials until it is now one of the best dailies in the state.

 We are proud to have such an excellent daily so near.

Are There Others

Every once and a while, some of our subscribers take offense at some article appearing in the columns of The Dispatch. Ring us up and request us to stop their paper when the time is out. They seem to think that we are running a news paper for their especial benefit, and that we must not print anything except what pleases them. Some take exceptions at our political news, others because we fail to learn of their visits to their friends, or their friends visits to them, and because we fail to make mention of it they get miffed so to speak and try to get even by stopping their paper. We are running a news paper to give the news, especially the political news. The State Dispatch is a political news paper republican to the manner born.
 This is known or should be to all our subscribers, and if you have subscribed for the paper not knowing this and our politics are objectionable to you, if you will kindly call us up, and if you cannot call us up, please write us or send us word by some friend to stop your paper, while we will regret to lose you, and your support, yet we will gladly stop your paper, not that we do not need the money oh don't think that we have not made a fortune running a news paper, and we need every cent that our patrons pay us.
 But we need our independence more, and rather than surrender our principles and independence, let us die for the want of patronage rather than for the want of principle. This is a political year.

 We are going to print the political news as long as we are able to get out an issue, if there are any others who do not like, or cannot tolerate our political principles, let them request that their paper stop at its expiration, so that we may know whether there are enough broad and liberal minded people in this country, to justify us to continue in the news paper business, if not, we will get out and try to dispose of our junk to some one who cares not for principle, so long as they rake in the shekels, and who are willing to print all the dope that they think will interest the ear of their poor deluded readers. If there are others now is the time to speak out, if we receive no notice to discontinue, we will take it for granted that you are satisfied with the policy and high standard practiced by this paper, and we will continue to give you the news regardless of the opinion expressed by our critics. Who will be the first to tell us we are persona nongrata, and to stop their paper.

A Roosevelt Club.

A strong Roosevelt Club was organized here last Friday night.
 Mr. James N. Williamson, Jr. is President, and W. W. Brown Secretary. Another meeting was held Saturday night and quite a number enrolled as members. They are going to meet again this week, on Wednesday and Saturday nights for the purpose considering who shall go to the county convention as Roosevelt delegates. The Roosevelt followers seem to have a little the best of the Taft, or administration people, and it looks now as if the Progressives will control the delegates to the convention. But the stand patters or administration people are not making much noise and may be heard from later. Anyway it is a pretty fight for position and will be watched with interest by all concerned.

It begins to look as if the South Pole had been overdiscovered.

 feedstuff than it has ever been. Having just added lectors that money can buy.

 without hereafter. Order one today and you will have better luck with your baking than ever before. Those who try our flour once always use it regularly afterwards. We believe you will too.

WHY A WILL?

An Educational Advertisement by the Alamance Loan & Trust Company.

People often ask the question:

"Why should I make a will?"

"Do not the courts give ample protection in the distribution of one's property at his death?"

Here is an answer which covers just one small portion of the provisions made by the laws of North Carolina in such matters:

When one dies without leaving a will the laws of North Carolina give a husband no interest whatever in the real estate of his wife unless a child was born to them; on the other hand, in such cases, the wife gets only one-third for her life time of the real estate of the husband and only one-half of his personal property.

This is the law unless a will has been executed the distribution made in such cases will be as above stated. We will be glad to make clear any other point on the subject.

When this company is appointed as Executor, we allow you to select any lawyer you wish and we pay all the expenses and also allow you to store the will under seal in our vaults for safe keeping, free of charge.

Come in and talk it over with us today.

MEETS DEATH AT HANDS OF HIS SON

Richmond, Va., March 28.—James Currie, aged fifty-seven years, a well known engineer, employed for some time at the Richmond Cedar Works, lies dead at the undertaking establishment of Arthur C. Nelsen, in Fulton, and his fifteen-year-old son, Robert is a prisoner at the first police station charged with the slaying of his father.

Just at that time the boy, Robert, arrived upon the scene. He had just left his place of employment, too, and was ready for his supper. He worked as an apprentice at the printing office of John W. Fergusson, and was considered a mild mannered youth.

Upon going into the room where his father was belaboring his mother, the boy grew frantic. He ran to an adjoining room, seized a big Swiss rifle, which had been in the family for years, raised it and fired. The bullet, a forty-one, struck the elder Currie in the right side of his neck, piercing the jugular vein.

The youngster made no resistance. He accompanied the officer to the station, where he was lodged in one of the upper rooms, where later he declined to talk to any one, expressing the wish to be left alone.

Mr. Currie was not considered a man of bad habits, nor had any of his acquaintances credited him with a taint of heartlessness. He was not a drinking man, nor, so far as the outside world knew, had he made it a habit of assaulting his wife.

THE CIRCUS How many of our old can remember back when all the circus sides overlaid, or in one of getting up in the ing hours and walking town one, two or three meet the show coming if perchance you have yourself how eagerly along the road for the tracks.

THE CIRCUS

How many of our older readers can remember back to the days when all the circus shows traveled overland, or in other words, by wagons.

Circuses have changed greatly in the past last twenty-five years. They have become much larger and more elaborate, travel altogether nowadays by rail and do not stop at the small towns they used to make, but the old saw just small remains the same.

The John H. Sparks World's Famous shows are billed to exhibit here on Saturday April 13 and they are coming heralded by the most favorable newspaper criticisms from many cities and towns where they have already exulted.

THE FEDERALS LOST HEAVILY

Jimenez, Mexico, March 29.—The rumor that General Tracy Aubert was killed in yesterday's battle between federals whom he commanded and rebels under Generals Sa'azar and Fernandez was unfounded.

Benjamin Vasquez, correspondent of El Correo, a daily newspaper of Chihuahua city, lost his life as he was about to enter an aoebe house. Four federals were hidden inside and they fired as he entered the door.

General Pascual Orozco, rebel commander-in-chief, issued an order to General Campa today to occupy Parral. There may be fighting at that place as it is rumored General Pancho Villa now holds the town.

General Orozco figured that the federal loss in the six days fight was 450 killed, wounded and taken prisoners. His own loss was about half of that.

Overman Presents Astounding Figures.

Washington, March 29.—Senator Overman today astounded the senate when, in opposing the Sheerwood pension bill and the amendment offered by Senator Cummins, he produced figures to show that North Carolina contributes annually in taxes to the federal government to help pay pensions to old soldiers $3,800,000 while in return only $600,000 is returned to the state.

IT WAS NECESSARY for the Attorney to have a personal talk with a client in a distant city. The journey would seriously interfere with several important engagements made for that day.

He used the Long Distance Bell Telephone, had a satisfactory talk with his distant client and was able to keep all his engagements at home.

The Long Distance Bell Telephone increases the efficiency of business men who adapt it to their needs. It can serve you with equal satisfaction and economy.

By the way, have you a Bell Telephone?
