The following resolutions were adopted.

Whereas, there is a wide-spread movement throughout the country on the part of the great rank and file of the Republican Party for the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for President of the United States, and

Whereas, this sentiment overwhelmingly prevails in the Republican Party of this county as shown by the result of the Primaries held in the several Precincts, and also by the expression from the great majority of the Republicans who failed to attend the Primaries:

Now, therefore, be it resolved: That this Convention, representing as it does the mass and body of the Republicans of Alamance County, and desiring to carry out and execute the wishes of the members of the Party in our county so emphatically expressed do hereby instruct our Delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions to cast their votes for an instructed delegation to the Republican National Convention in favor of Theodore Roosevelt as the next Nominee of the Republican Party for President of the United States.

The Republican Party of Alamance County, in Convention assembled, hereby extends to Hon. Joseph M. Dixon its especial commendation for his magnificent fight to secure the nomination of Col. Roosevelt, whom we have this day endorsed for the Presidency of the United States and we bid him Godspeed in his efforts.

We are in full accord with him in this fight and we believe he will also be endorsed by the Party throughout the Nation and given the fullest credit for the exceptional ability he is displaying in the management and direction of the campaign.

That the delegates to the Congressional Convention are instructed to vote for James N. Williamson, Jr., as a delegate from this district to the National Convention in Chicago and use every honorable means to bring his election.

Resolved that we commend and heartily approve the action of President Taft in vetoing the Democratic Tariff bill enacted at the special session of Congress, and we renew our allegiance to the party of protection sound money and the full dinner pail as conclusive proof of the prosperous condition of the country. And we invite our erring democratic brethren to join with us in helping to maintain present conditions and against a repetition of democratic hard times and free soup houses.

Resolved: That we, the Republican Convention of Alamance County do hereby commend the management of the State Dispatch upon the publication of a strong Republican paper in this County and recommend that all Republicans subscribe for and support said paper.

The State Dispatch appreciates the resolution endorsing and recommending it. It is through your loyal support and the support of members of the other political parties that gives us our existence. While we in return are endeavoring to be an important educational factor for the upbuilding of our country and the advancement of the Republican Party.

Don't Miss "Cherry Blossom," the Charming Japanese Play.

The Charming Japanese play "Cherry Blossom," by Van Tassel Sutphen, will be given at the Graded School Auditorium on Monday, April 22, at 8:30 p. m. This play will be impersonated by Miss Florence Davis, of the faculty of St. Mary's School, Raleigh.

Also by special request Miss Davis will repeat the most interesting parts of "Merely Mary Ann" for the benefit of those who were not so fortunate as to hear her when she was in Burlington before. There will be music between the acts.

Under the auspices of ladies of the Presbyterian Church.

Orange Presbytery in Session.

The Orange Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church is in session in the Presbyterian Church at this place. Services are being held each night, beginning Tuesday night and will last during the week. Quite a large number of ministers are here and many visitors. Our homes and town give you a cordial welcome.

New Southern Record.

Chapel Hill, April 12—What is claimed to be a new southern record was established here today when Patterson, the star mile runner of the University of North Carolina sprinted a mile in four minutes and 32 seconds. The event was the feature of the track and field meet between the University of North Carolina and Wake Forest.

(Mr. Patterson is the son of Mr. Euseub Patterson of Burlington, R. F. D. 1, this county. We are glad to note that he has made a new record in running and give him a place in the list with the many other distinguished sons of Alamance. Among the various occasions at which Mr. Patterson has won fame as a runner was the fourth of last July when he won first prize in a foot race here.)

Roosevelt at Greensboro.

Washington, April 14.—Senator Dixon late tonight expressed the opinion that Colonel Roosevelt would speak in Little Rock next Saturday, and that this would enable the Colonel to be in Greensboro Monday week, April 22. His car would be run on a siding, and Colonel Roosevelt would probably be in Greensboro an hour or more.

The senator said he himself would endeavor to attend this meeting, which, it is believed, will prove one of the largest political gatherings ever held in the state. The senator no longer entertains any doubt of Colonel Roosevelt's nomination.

(An effort is being made by members of the Roosevelt Club to get Col. Roosevelt to stop at this place as he goes from Greensboro to Durham. He will probably pass through here Monday, April 22.)

How The Count Stands

There will be 1,076 delegates at the Republican Convention at Chicago. It will take 539 of these delegates to nominate. Of the delegates elected up to Friday, 321 were claimed for Taft and 298 were instructed for Taft; 140 were claimed for Roosevelt and 85 were instructed for Roosevelt; 36 were instructed for LaFollette and 4 were instructed for Cummins. Mr. Taft needs only about 200 more delegates to give him the number required for his nomination. There does not appear to be the least doubt that he will have more delegates than he needs. There is just as little doubt that Mr. Roosevelt is as near the nomination and the Presidency now as he will ever be. The American people have taken his measure. Crowds of them flock to hear him just as crowds of them would go to a Wild West show, if it were free, or to a lynch ing, if they knew it was to be held.

The Colonel was beaten before he started. His only hope has been to defeat his friend and so far as his efforts will have any effect at all it will simply be to weaken the political organization which has twice given him its most loyal support, and to make the chances a little better for the Democracy. For this latter promise we are duly thankful. The opinion expressed by The Baltimore Sun that "the tremendous revolt against machine methods and reactionary policies make sapient Republican leaders doubt the wisdom of renominating Taft and "alarmed, they are inclined to turn in the bitterness and chaos of the Taft-Roosevelt contest and another candidate." But who are these "sapient Republicans" and where is the bitterness and chaos of which our contemporary speak? There is bitterness but it is only on the side of Colonel Roosevelt and the lame ducks and dishonest politicians who are supporting him. There is no chaos in the Republican ranks except among the people who are backing. The Colonel in his mad enterprise and for their own benefit We must not mistake the fury of the political misfits for the will of the people.—Charlotte Observer.

Died.

Robert S. Garrison, son of John G. and Lucinda Garrison, departed this life at his home near McCray, N. C., April 13 1912 at the age of 66 years 10 mts. and 5 days.

He was married Feb. 20 1868 to Mary J. King. Born to them were six children four of which are living who, with their mother, are left in sorrow at the loss of husband and father.

One brother, two sisters and many relatives survive the deceased.

Bro. Garrison had been a member of Union Christian Church since 1869. He was in the civil war Company C. 4th Regiment and was captured at Bentonville, N. C. and imprisoned at Point Lookout.

He was a good, kind and peaceable citizen, and had many friends. Funeral at the home, burial at Long's Chapel, attended by a large concourse of people.

J. W. Holt.

Death of a Good Woman.

The Great Archer who garners for the skies has again poised his wings over the Baptist Church at Haw River. To this unbidden guest we must however yield time and place to his dreaded presence all earthly concerns must retire.

The latest sister to pay the great debt, the last to cross the dark mystic river from our church was sister Edith Williamson. We wish to say a word about her life and character. She had a christian courage, a christian charity, a christian grace. Her piety was liberal, just, beneficent, it shone in her daily life, in her kind words and kinder deeds, her regard, her compassion for and her duty to mankind was great. She was always happy when she saw others happy. She was a noble and devoted wife and a loving mother and inestimable neighbor. It was only to know her then to love her.

Sister Edith Williamson was born in Sampson County, Nov. 27, 1814. Died Feb. 6th, 1912. Aged 97 years, two months and nine days. Mother of 11 children, 80 grandchildren, 79 great-grandchildren, two great, great-grandchildren and furnished 3 sons to the Confederate Army. Burial on the same plantation she was raised. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church for fifty years. Surely with long life did the Lord satisfy her, then took her to Himself.

She is survived by 4 daughters and two sons: Mrs. Nancy Sykes, Mrs. Elizabeth Lassiter, Mrs. Caroline Carter, Mrs. Henrietta Crumpley, and Mr. J. R. Williamson and Mr. J. J. Williamson. Her husband having preceded her to the glory land some years ago.

A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is still; A place is vacant in the home Which never can be filled.

Resolved, 1st. That we as a church bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all well, realizing that our loss is her eternal gain.

2nd. That the sincere sympathy of the church be extended to the bereaved family.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to The State Dispatch and one to the family and that they be spread on our Church Book.

By order of Church, in conference Feb. 8th, 1912.

G. W. P. Cates, Miss Nellie Cole, Miss Jewel Clark, Committee.

Freedom's Hill.

There will be preaching at Freedom Hill Wesleyan Methodist Church next Saturday night at 7:30, and Sunday at 11 o'clock 3 and 7 p. m.

Rev. and Mrs. G. R. Mines who have just returned from a successful evangelistic campaign in the western part of this state, where a great number of people have been converted, will be in attendance and preach at all of these services.

Good services are expected, and all are welcome.

Pennsylvania For Roosevelt.

Colonel Roosevelt won in the Pennsylvania primary last Saturday save a dozen delegates. Governor Wilson who had no opposition won 74 of the 76 delegates. In the city of Philadelphia President Taft captured three of the six districts and split the delegation in another.

Died.

Miss Annie Hoffman, daughter of the late Daniel Hoffman, died in the old Hoffman homestead between St. Marks and Brick Church, April 8th, 1912, aged about 38 years. For about 25 years Miss Hoffman had been seriously afflicted with rheumatism, and for about 20 years she was a confirmed invalid. In early life she professed faith in Christ and united with St. Marks Reformed Church. During her continued suffering she maintained a most cheerful christian spirit. She loved to read and kept herself well posted on current events. While she could not attend public services, she was always interested in the welfare of her church. She leaves two brothers, Thos. L. Hoffman still residing on the old homestead, and Peter P. Hoffman in Burlington, and two sisters, Miss Laura Hoffman and Mrs. Mary E. Clapp. Her funeral was conducted in the St. Marks Church at 11 a. m., April 10th, by her pastor, Rev. J. D. Andrew.

Whitt-Hoffman.

Mr. Samuel Paul Whitt, the popular Superintendent of the St. Mark's Reformed Sunday School and Miss Ossie Irene Hoffman, a member of the Burlington Reformed Church, but living near St. Marks, were united in the bonds of holy wedlock in the home of the bride's brother, Mr. L. A. Hoffman at Elon College, last Sunday, April 7th, at 10 a. m., by their pastor, Rev. J. D. Andrew. After receiving congratulations they boarded No. 21 on the Southern for a trip down into South Carolina. In a few days they will return and locate at Whitsett where Mr. Whitt holds the position of Carrier on R. F. D. No. 1 out from Whitsett.

These are young people of exemplary character and begin life together with the hearty good wishes of a host of friends.

RANDELL REPEATS CHARGES THAT MEMBERS ARE BOUGHT

Washington, April 13.—Representative Randell of Texas repeated in the House today his former charge that "great financial interests were in close touch with legislators, both State and national."

Mr. Randell's former charge to the same effect a week ago set the House by the ears and precipitated a bitter debate. In speaking today he was advocating his bill to prohibit members of Congress from accepting fees from corporations in interstate commerce.

Representative Clayton of Alabama had criticized Mr. Clayton and declared he had "violated the decorum of the House" and had been guilty of "undignified behavior."

About four weeks ago Mrs. Phillips gave birth to twins. These died very soon after birth. On the 5th of Feb. a 13 year old daughter died. Before death Mrs. Phillips told her friends she was ready to go. Her funeral was conducted in the home by Rev. J. D. Andrew on Easter Monday.

Whitsett Defeats Bingham.
A fair crowd witnessed the game between Whitsett and Bingham at Harden's Park Saturday. The game began with Barnes in the box for Bingham who was not equal to the occasion and supplemented by Bland who pitched a good game. The batteries for Whitsett, Ray and Vernon did work superior to what is generally seen by high school teams. Bland and Flood for Bingham out-classed the other members of the team.

Virginia People Streaming West.

No. 12 yesterday afternoon had a special car attached to it containing a number of parties starting for the West to try their fortune. There were not so many in the car when it reached this point, but the number was being gradually increased from station to station. The pictures as painted to these emigrants by agents of the western country and the western rail roads are doubtless vivid ones of the golden opportunities in the golden west, where one is almost led to believe that all he has to do is to furrow the ground and the shining shekels buried beneath western soil turn up, and all that is to gather them in baskets as one gathers his potato crop in old Virginia.

In fact there scarcely passes a day on which some one or more families are passing through, either from the surrounding community or coming from off Cripple Creek division. The most of these are large families with small children, and from the general appearance one is led to believe that everything which the family might at one time have had, had been sacrificed to get the wherewithal to pay for their fares save the few possessions they have on their backs. Many of the mothers in these migrating parties have not head covering save an old scarf or shawl, betraying a pitiful picture of apparent abject poverty. The children are thin and poorly clad while the father in his blue jeans and old slouch hat shows a determination to drag his family into the western country among strangers and those prompted to gain every foothold possible in the scramble for life regardless of the condition of his fellow laborers. The pictures of a country flowing with milk and honey has naturally appealed to him. It remains for him to experience the hardships which await him in making a success there.

True there have been some who have gone West and prospered to a large degree in scratching in Virginia soil. The man who has from indifference never been able to eke out a living from the rich soil in the Old Dominion had better take the advice of The Times and stay where he is for he will starve to death in the West. They will find no friends there who will respond to their wants in time of need. Now The Times knows that many of those who have been caught by an epidemic of this western fever are longing to get back in this section. This is almost brought daily to its attention by requests from westerners, who are seeking location right here in Southwest Virginia, for copies of the Industrial edition of The Times.

Allens Change Their Mind

Bristol, Va., April 12.—Although a petition for change of venue was filed some weeks ago by members of the Allen gang, now in jail for shooting up the courthouse at Hillsville, they have all decided that they wish to be tried at Hillsville, according to Judge N. P. Olgesby, of this city, former judge of the Circuit Court of Carroll county, and now attorney for the members of the clan in the Roanoke jail. Judge Olgesby says that he advised them to be tried in their home county and that they decided that it would be best. Judge Staples has not yet acted on the petition for change of venue. Judge Olgesby estimates that the trial, which begins April 23, will last 30 days.

"Hopeless Tasks."

When we reach a place where so far as we can we are making no progress in what we are doing; when life seems a monotonous gring of the same things over and over, then is the time when discouragement threatens, and with it comes the strong temptation to surrender and say: "It is a hopeless task." But we are mistaken. No task which is necessary or is prompted by good intentions is entirely hopeless, or barren of profit. We grow impatient because we do not see that we are accomplishing anything, because we do not meet with the rewards of sympathy and appreciation; and so we get weary and faint-hearted, counting our tasks as hopeless, and ourselves of no importance.

Good endeavor is never wasted. Example is a strong force in the world, and our earnestness and courage in performing the tasks that fall to our hands, oftener than we have knowledge, proves an inspiration to others.

It does not fall to everyone to do great tasks, but is by the small tasks that the great ones are supported and perfected. Whatever we do never for ourselves alone. Its influence falls upon those by whom we are surrounded. Because things do not come out as we planned is no excuse for ceasing to make an effort. Because our tasks are commonplace and humble is no cause for thinking them of no value it is the commonplaces which make life comfortable. There are no hopeless tasks where effort is rightly directed. True we may never realize that which we longed for and expected but we may be building better than we know, even while our tasks, when in our hands do not seem to reach completion. There is always someone to take up our work where we leave off. This is not consoling to those who crave honors and recognition while they are living—but do you know some dropped from the ranks for you?

Good endeavor is never wasted let us cling to that thought in performing our tasks whether great or small, whether we fail or are successful to hold fast to this thought will help us when discouragement threatens and we seem to be living in vain.

E. P. Wharton Calls For Aid for Boy Scouts.

E. P. Wharton tells of the work of the Boy Scouts in the following communication and urges the aid of every one in the cause:

"The Boy Scouts have undertaken the task of fighting the flies in Greensboro.

"If every person that has a horse-stable will clean it now and bed with pine sawdust or pine shavings, we will have very few flies to contend with this summer. You can get pine shavings from the South Atlantic Lumber Co. at 10c. for one-horse load, if you send for it.

"When you clean out the stable be certain to have the manure hauled away or spread on the land at once, for if it is thrown out in a pile the flies will breed more rapidly than if it remain in the stable.

"If this request is complied with within the next week great things will be accomplished; if delayed longer than this we will have flies by the millions again."

Admits Killing Seventeen.

La Fayette, La., April 4.—Clementine E. Bernabet, the self confessed slayer of 17 negroes in this and other towns, was indicted by the grand jury, the true bill returned charging her with the murder of Robert Randall and his family of five here last November. The negroess recieved the news of her indictment with no other emotion than a shrug of the shoulders. To-day the girl sang "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Lead Kindly Light," over and over in her cell while the parish grand jury was hearing the concluding testimony in one of the series of bloody axe murders whose toll was a total of more than 30 lives in the towns of southwest Louisiana.

She talked freely with newspaper men and gleefully puffed a cigar which one of them gave her. She smiled while retelling the ghastly details of her confession and got added gratification out of the thought of her photograph appearing in the newspapers. She attributed her desire to unbosom herself to the loss of her "candjah" bag.

Two other negroesses, whose names she gave as Mary Oonshon and "Irene" helped Clementine in a part of the 17 murders, which she has confessed, according to her story.

Joe Thibodeaux, the "voodoo doctor" whom Clementine declares sold her and her accomplices the "candjah" bags, is not alarmed at the prospect of being involved in the axe murders. He acknowledges the distinction of being a "verb doctor" but insists that he is devoid of criminal intentions. He says that Clementine is "hazy" and unbelievable.

Trying to Seduce Hughes.

Associate Justice Hughes of the United States Supreme Court is much talked of these days as a compromise Republican candidate for President. We have not the least doubt that he will refuse to be used by the Adullamites of his party and that he will stay where he is, because the office he holds is equally as important as the office of President of the United States, and no one knows better than Judge Hughes himself that nominated for President in existing conditions he would simply be nominated for defeat. His sense of propriety, and his integrity of conduct he will not disregard we feel sure.

Says the Baltimore Sun: "Loyalty might not compel Justice Hughes to refuse the nomination if the party leaders feel that Taft could not be elected. The Presidency is too good an office to reject." So it is, but the Republican nomination for President this year could not by any means be regarded as equivalent to election. Nobody knows this better than Justice Hughes. The Sunpaper says: "A comparatively young man would hardly hesitate to leave the bench when he found almost within his grasp the highest political office on earth." Why should our Baltimore contemporary talk such nonsense, and especially when it pretends to think that the Democrats are sure of winning the Presidency this year.

Mr. Taft will get at least one-third of the delegates from North Carolina in spite of the carefully engineered fight against him by our own pie brigade. The Taft people at Washington, it is said, had given up the hope of any reinforcements from this State.

Pains All Over!

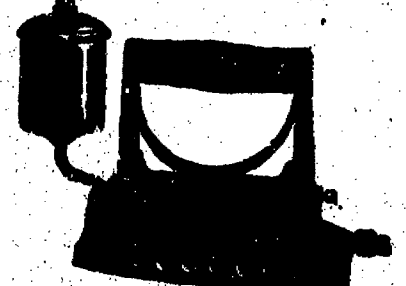

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment. You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

Wednesday, April 17, 1912.

The two best out of three:
Once the score is four to nothing.
Then it is ten to three.

Many of the good friends of Colonel Roosevelt feel that the victory in Illinois and Pennsylvania point toward a certain nomination for the Colonel. But it should be remembered that four years ago Mr. Taft was nominated without the votes of either of these states and also without the assistance of Indiana, New York or Wisconsin.

One of the greatest disasters in the annals of navigation occurred Monday night when more than fifteen hundred lives sank into a watery grave, and the magnificent Titanic which had been built by enormous sums was made a complete wreck by coming in contact with monster iceberg while on her first voyage. The following lines tell the story: "Carpathia reached Titanic position at daybreak. Found boats and wreckage only. Titanic sank about 2:20 a. m. in 45.15 north, 50.14 west. All her boats accounted for, containing about 675 souls saved, crew and passengers included. Nearly all saved women and children. Leyland line Californian remained and searching exact position of disaster. Loss likely total 1,800 souls."

Court Room Unsanitary.

Our attention was directed to the condition in which our court house is kept and giving proof to this we do not necessarily have to call the attention of our readers who were present at the convention Saturday. Cleanliness is next to Godliness and in the corners and on the floors of a court room improperly cared for are thousand of deadly and most poisonous germs of disease. The spital of one consumptive in a room uncared for which is allowed to dry and form into dust may mean the spreading of this much dreaded disease which is taking thousands and thousands of people to their graves every year.

If the proper attention is given our court room there is no reason why it may not be kept sanitary without any great exertion on the part of any one.

Its up to the county officials to look after the property of the county in a better manner. And unless this and many other affairs are looked after differently a change which is pending must certainly take place.

The Democratic Race.

The boom of Governor Woodrow Wilson, which was looking decidedly droopy after the returns from Illinois were in, has picked up wonderfully since the Pennsylvania primary. The Governor is still trailing far in the rear of Speaker Clark, however. At the close of last week the Democratic score stood as follows: Clark, 130; Wilson, 81; Marshall, 30; Burke, 10; uncommitted, 111. In the "uncommitted" is the New York State delegation of 90.

The New York delegation is believed to be controlled by Tammany influences. It is supposed to favor the the nomination of Mayor and it is generally believed that it will not be cast for Governor Wilson unless he is assured of enough votes from other sources to make his nomination sure. It is believed that if the contest finally levels down to a race between Clark and Wilson, the New York 90 will swing to Clark. Thus far there have been no delegates instructed for Harmon and none for Underwood. But only ten states and the Territory of Alaska have thus far chosen delegates to Baltimore.

Missouri is the only Southern state that has elected delegates to the Democratic National Convention. Delegations from the Southern area will not be elected until May, except that Florida holds primaries on the last day of April, and in eight states, the conventions will be delayed into June. The only good guess concerning the probable doings at the Baltimore convention at this stage of developments, is that a dark horse is just as likely to pull the prize as otherwise. And quite likely the dark horse may be one who will not be represented at the convention by a single instructed delegate.

HOME ENTERPRISE.

There are between one and two thousand dozen cans of tomatoes together with a great number of beans and other vegetables sold in Burlington each year. Our soil in and around Burlington is well adapted to vegetables and Prof. H. C. Stout runs a good cannery, puts out only first class work at reasonable prices. If our tuckers would raise and have canned for the Burlington market these vegetables, we could have purer and better goods for less money, encourage home enterprise and still keep our money at home.

Respectfully,
Chamber of Commerce.

Roosevelt Vastly Pleased

Oyster Bay, N. Y., April 14. — "We hit them midding hard," said Col. Roosevelt today of his victory in the Pennsylvania primaries.

The colonel was greatly elated and exhibited a heap of telegrams sent him giving him details of the result and extending congratulations.

Colonel Roosevelt was asked whether in his opinion his nomination was now probable.

"I would not say that," he responded. The result in Pennsylvania, he said, pleased him particularly, because he considered it an expression of popular opposition to the "bosses."

They have heard a good deal from me on the stump," he added, "and they will hear more."

Colonel Roosevelt said some of his opponents were misrepresenting the number of delegates elected for President Taft and himself. He said he had been considering preparing a formal statement in regard to this matter.

"At the present time," he continued, "I think that the delegates really instructed are about evenly divided. I think it is about 150 each."

The Col. gave Mississippi as an example of what he had in mind. He said he believed that the entire Mississippi delegation was for him, and yet his opponents claimed it all for the President.

"The contest in that case," he added, "is on the Taft side." He asserted that he had 22 delegates from Missouri, although some of his opponents conceded him none. In New York, he continued, he already had ten delegates, with ten others ready to vote for him, and he expressed the belief that at the national convention he would have 20 more New York votes, provided it was apparent to these 20 delegates that he could have half of the delegates to the convention.

At 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Colonel Roosevelt will start on what probably will be one of the most extensive trips of the campaign. According to the program he will spend Wednesday and Thursday in Nebraska. Beyond that no definite arrangements have been made. The Colonel said that he expected to speak in Sioux Falls, S. D., and in Little Rock, Ark. On the way back, he said, he hoped to go to North Carolina.

Monument To Jackson.

The Jackson Memorial Association, of Richmond, Virginia, has asked that next Memorial Day, Fifth of May, be set apart in the schools of the South as "Jackson Statue Monument Day" and that every child in these schools be asked to contribute ten cents for the erection of an appropriate equestrian statue of the immortal Stonewall Jackson at Richmond. In furtherance of this most laudable undertaking North Carolinians are requested to do their part as fully as our North Carolina Soldiers did their part in winning those battles that immortalized Jackson's Name and fame. Every school child in this State, every Daughter of the Confederacy, every Confederate Veteran and every other patriotic citizen of North Carolina is hereby urged to contribute ten cents for the purpose thus honoring the name of one whose name and fame will ever be fondly cherished by all who admire and revere the military genius and matchless exploits of Stonewall Jackson.

While there are magnificent statues and monuments erected at Richmond to Davis, Lee, Stuart and other Confederate heroes, yet the only memorial there of Jackson is a bronze bust in the Capitol Square, and that was erected by admiring Englishmen. No adequate statue of him has been erected by his own people, for whom he sacrificed his life. Let this no longer be said, but let North Carolinians, young and old, gladly respond to the appeal of the Jackson Memorial Association and aid in this good work.

Send all remittances to Mr. W. J. Holloway, Cashier First National Bank, Durham, N. C.

By order of Major-General J. S. Carr,
H. A. London,
Adjutant General and Chief of Staff.

PUBLIC OPINION

(Portland Oregonian).

The President's tariff policy is developed from his experience. He has lived and learned. In 1908 he defined the principle on which revision should be based. In 1909, apparently failed, he laid the groundwork for getting at the bottom facts. In 1910, undaunted by defeat, he advanced the plan by which revision might actually be based on these facts instead of on a deal among the interests. In 1911, when the Democrats adopted his plan of schedule revision, but refused to await tariff board reports, he courageously vetoed their bills. He was convinced that his plan was the only sound one, and he stood by it, though he knew he would be charged with opposing revision of any kind. He still stands by it and is prepared to fight out the campaign on that line.

Had Taft been a mere politician instead of a sincerely patriotic statesman striving to make law conform to justice as the people see it, he would by some spectacular trick have tried to divert public attention from the tariff to some new issue. But he had set to work to bring about a settlement of the tariff question, and he stuck to his task, learning from his mistakes how best to accomplish that task. He knew he had hit upon the right method and, confident that the common sense of the people would approve it, he went to them and gave them his reasons for recommending that method and for vetoing the bills which ignored it. Though the tariff has been the cause of his sorest defeats, he keeps it to the front as one of the main issues of the campaign, determined that, if the people will give him the power and the backing in Congress, he will settle that question and settle it right.

The Allen fugitives have at last come to realize how the people they were after used to feel.

WHAT A WILL IS.

An Educational Advertisement by the Alamance Loan & Trust Company.

A Will is the declaration in proper form, of what a man wills to be performed after his death; it is for the purpose of disposing of one's property, after his death, specifically as he directs.

The custom of executing Wills is of very high antiquity, being in use at least as early as the time of the patriarchs; for we are told that Jacob bequeathed to his son Joseph a portion of his inheritance doubly that of his brethren.

In England the power of bequeathing is coeval with the first rudiments of the law, for we have no traces of a time when it did not exist.

When one dies without leaving a will the distribution of all his possessions will be made according to the laws of the State in which his property is situated.

The distribution in such cases, however, is very seldom satisfactory to all the heirs.

When this Company is appointed as Executor, we allow you to select any lawyer you wish and we pay all the expenses and also allow you to store the will under seal in our vaults for safe keeping, free of charge.

Come in and let's talk it over.

They say E. C. Bason is hauling such large logs to the mill that he broke his wagon down one day last week. Better luck next time Earnest.

Lonnie Johnson moved his family back on No. 5 again last week. Glad to have them back again.

Mrs. Will Garrison of No. 3 and Miss Mary Anderson spent Easter at their Uncle Will Mebane's near Hawfields.

Lawrence and Walter Huffman spent Sunday in Burlington.

Leroy King spent Saturday night and Sunday in the city. Must be some attraction.

Miss Lizzie Fields visited her sister Mrs. Dolph Evans Easter. Master Freddie Blanchard spent Easter with Master Frank King. They went fishing but did not have much luck.

Misses Eunice, Clara and Lorena Thompson of Burlington visited Miss Lula Huffman Monday.

Robert Coble and sister Miss Vance visited Miss Corinna Smith Monday. Robert Squires visited there also.

Easter passed off very quietly on No. 5 nothing of any special interest to write about.

Mrs. R. L. Warren of Prospect Hill who has been visiting her mother Mrs. R. G. Allred for the past two or three weeks her husband visiting them a few days Easter has returned home. Mr. Warren is one of our best farmers and Mrs. Warren is always gladly received.

Mr. J. P. Faucett of Durham has been the guest of his sister Mrs. Mansfield.

A. O. Huffman is remodeling his beautiful country home.

Mrs. Mary Watson.

At her home on Elmira St. in West Burlington last Wednesday occurred the death of Mrs. Maay Frances Watson, in the fifty-sixth year of her life. She was the widow of Mr. James Y. Watson who died twenty two years ago at Liberty N. C. For the last dozen years Mrs. Watson's home has been in the vicinity of Burlington. During the last year or two she had been in feeble health and during recent months she had been a great sufferer. Her two married daughters with whom she made her home, Mrs. J. O. Ellington and Mrs. G. W. Trull, performed admirably the part of devoted nurses during her long illness, but could not stay the hand of death.

Mrs. Watson was esteemed by all who knew her. For many years she had been an earnest Christian. Having lived at Glencoe her membership was with the Baptist Church there. Some who had known her for years were heard to say at the funeral: "She was always a good woman." The funeral was conducted from the home last Thursday by Rev. S. L. Morgan and Rev. J. D. Andrew, and the burial was at Bethlehem Church, Altamahaw.

Mrs. Watson is survived by one sister, Mrs. Frank Clark of Greensboro, and by three sons and two daughters, as follows: Mr. John H. Watson of Concord, James Y. Watson of Glencoe, C. Y. Watson now stationed with the army in the Philippines, and Mrs. J. O. Ellington and Mrs. G. W. Trull of Burlington.

Good Friday

No more solemn day has ever been observed in the rituals of the religions of the world than that which is named Good Friday by Christian communions. From end to end of the world, wherever the cross has become the symbol of the faith of any part of the population, the day will be observed with much the same forms and in the same spirit that has attended its observation through the centuries. The sacrifice of Calvary looms before the gaze of the meditative soul, and whether with the symbols of the symbols of gloom in the places of worship, or in the quiet reflections of their own souls, Christians who come under the potency of the day that sets forth the world's greatest tragedy will hear in spiritual contemplation the vivid incidents that arise from the mists of the historical past as clear as the light of the morning sun.

Much of mysticism enters into the meditations of Good Friday because much of mysticism enters into the spirit of the Christian faith, and mysticism is an element in the spiritual nature of mankind. But without the tremendous underflow of spiritual responsiveness that comes to the contemplative spirit where would there be any offset for the gross and material appeals of the ordinary life? As the caterpillar undergoes the crysalis stage to emerge a radiant butterfly, so the spirits of many men and women that have become freighted with the follies and vanities of life come forth from the reflections of Passion Week made radiant by the only thing that can cleanse the human soul—the potency of pure thought and idealized aspirations.

Good Friday is the great day of the churches anticipatory of the glorious outburst of Easter when sunshine and melody mingle to uplift the souls that have been cast down and to break the fast, that has been observed and to give fresh zest, hope and power to the teachings of the One whose life tragedies are being observed. The participation more or less of all churches in Good Friday services, the administrations of the communion even in many churches that have little of ritualistic observance, shows how profoundly the spirit of Christianity is affected by the symbols of Calvary.

Baby In Floating Barrel.

Glasgow, Ky., April 3.—A baby boy 1 year old was intercepted on his voyage in a barrel down Cumberland river by raftsmen. The child was well dressed and had a cozy little bed in the barrel and was seemingly enjoying the trip.

The barrel was fastened to two ordinary sized sawlogs and was arranged so that the child could not in any way fall out. Pinned to its dress were the words, "Goodby, Willie."

The child was carried to a farm house near the river, where kind persons are taking care of it until its mother can be located.

Caught In A Rain.

Douglasville, Tex. — "Five years ago I was caught in the rain at the wrong time," writes Edna Rutherford, of Douglasville, "and from that time, was taken with dumb chills and fevers, and suffered more than I can tell. I tried everything that I thought would help, and had four doctors, but got no relief. I took Cardui, the woman's tonic. Now, I feel better than in many months." Cardui does one thing and does it well. That's the secret of its 50 years of success. Try Cardui.

Terrible Picture of Suffering

Clinton, Ky.—Mrs. M. C. McElroy, in a letter from Clinton, writes: "For six years, I was a sufferer from female troubles. I could not eat, and could not stand on my feet, without suffering great pain. I had lost hope. After using Cardui a week, I began to improve. Now I feel better than in six years." Fifty years of success in actual practice, its positive proof, furnished by those who have used it, that Cardui can always be relied on for relieving female weakness and disease. Try Cardui, today, now!

PERUNA SAVED MY LIFE.

"I Recommend It Wherever I Am."

Mrs. John M. Stabler, Millersburg, Ind., writes: "I have been cured of a very bad case of catarrh of the stomach and constipation, and a complication of ailments that I have had for several years. I doctored with three doctors, who did me not much good, so I quit doctoring. I bought a bottle of Peruna and commenced taking it. I found I was getting some better, but thought I was not doing as well as I might. So I wrote The Peruna Medical Department, to see what they thought about me. They gave me special directions and medical advice. To our astonishment I improved and am to-day a well woman and weigh as much as I ever did in my life. 'I tell my friends that Peruna saved my life. I recommend it wherever I am, and when any of our folks are sick, I give them Peruna with success.'"

Saves Leg Of Boy.

"It seemed that my 14 year old boy would have to lose his leg, or even more of a ugly ulcer, caused by a bad bruise," wrote D. E. Howard, Aquine, N. C. "After ten days and doctors' treatment failed till we tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruptions, piles. 25c at Freeman Drug Co.

Composed of gentle-acting, herb ingredients, it has been found to safely relieve headache, backache and similar female troubles. Try it for your troubles.

HAW RIVER ITEMS.

Rev. G. L. Curry preached two most excellent sermons Sunday morning and night.

Owing to sickness, Rev. Curry did not continue his meetings last week but will continue this week, Providence permitting. Everyone invited.

Mrs. John Vowell was carried to the hospital at Greensboro last week for treatment. After a few days the Death Angel touched her spirit and bade it leave all that was mortal and enter the Mansion her Savior had prepared for her. She leaves a husband and one child to mourn their loss. The child is very small, not old enough to realize the death of her mother. Mrs. Vowell was a christian lady and to know her was to love her. We truly believe that He who she loved and served while living took care of her in death. She had no dark forebodings in crossing the dark mystic river.

Dearest mother tho has left us here, thy loss we deeply feel, weep not fond husband. She is so happy with her Savior while you are fighting the battles of life.

Our esteemed milliner went to her home Saturday evening. We think she drove the bay horse. We think there is a contract forming for the future.

Quite a gloom settled over our town about eleven o'clock Monday when it was learned that Mr. Pinkney Parish was dead. His death was not unexpected as he had been standing for some time between two unbounded seas. The Lord said to him, it is enough, come up higher and enter the joys of eternal peace. Surely a good man has gone to his reward.

We regret that Mrs. J. H. McClure continues very ill. They have the sympathy of a host of friends.

Someone broke into S. C. Madlin's store Saturday night and it is supposed they got about $12 worth of tobacco, apples and other things. He got part of it back. No clue to the thief.

We regret to learn that Mrs. J. H. Blackmon, Jr., is still confined to her room very sick. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Rev. A. C. Hamby, pastor of the Baptist Church of Clayton, will aid Rev. J. C. Hocutt in a series of meetings at Haw River beginning the first Sunday. Rev. Hamby is one among the best preachers. Come all who can.

We notice that Albert Iseley is making an addition to his home of a new building which will improve the looks of his home to a great extent.

Mr. Cheek is painting his house which will add a lustre to his home.

The stone crusher still keeps up its noise with every now and then a clap of home made thunder which shakes things around us telling us in thunder tones that business is progressing.

Well done for Burlington. She has been faithful in a few things but oh! the road along this route a buggy is a good load for one horse to pull. Will not the road supervisor look after this road so we can get our mail in due time. Oh! Hasten the day while everything else is progressing that we may have good roads along the route of No. 9.

People are busy turning the sod and planting and planting gardens. Winter is past and Spring is here, birds are singing our friend the turtle dove is here with his familiar coo. We see everything in-mature smiling. Hurrah! for Theo. Roosevelt. Count the eggs and they will hatch. And publish this in the State Dispatch.

Bitter Debate Is Expected Over Parcels Post System

Washington, April 13.—General debate on the postoffice appropriation bill, the greatest supply measure ever considered by Congress, closed today, and when it is taken up for amendment the real assault on its provisions will begin. It is expected the fight on the proposed inauguration of a parcels post system over the rural free delivery routes will mark the beginning of a bitter debate to amend many of the provisions in the measure. Throughout the general debate this phase of the bill almost continuously was under discussion.

The measure probably will not be brought up until Tuesday. Chairman Moon who has the bill in charge declared his intention of pressing it to a vote as quickly as possible but this may not be accomplished until late in the coming week or early in the next.
