A REPUBLICAN NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE UPBUILDING OF AMERICAN HOMES AND AMERICAN INDUSTRIES.

VOL. V.

BURLINGTON, N. C., JUNE 26, 1912.

NO. 7

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT

Nominated for President by Republican Party at Chicago, June 22nd.

Taft And Sherman Are Renominated.

Colonel's Followers Did Not Walk Out Of Convention as Was Expected They Might Do, But Instead Were quiet In Their Seats Preferring to Do This Rather Than be Charged with Bolting

Convention Hall, Chicago, June 22.—With nearly 350 of the Roosevelt delegates declining to vote and hastening away at adjournment time to tender to Col. Theodore Roosevelt the nomination of a new party the fifteenth Republican national convention at the end of a long and tumultuous session tonight renominated William Howard Taft of Ohio for President, and James Schoolcraft Sherman of New York, for Vice-President.

President Taft received 561 of the 1,078 votes in the convention, or 21 more than a majority.

The decision of the Roosevelt people, under direction of their leader, to refrain from voting, left no other candidate. The announcement of the Taft victory was greeted with cheering from his adherents and groans and hisses from the opposition.

When it became absolutely certain early today that Mr. Taft would be nominated without great difficulty, the leaders in control of the convention decided to give him as a running mate his companion on the ticket in 1908.

All others dropped from the race and Mr. Sherman was the only candidate regularly placed before the convention. A motion from New Hampshire to make the nomination by acclamation was declared out of order. There were many scattering votes on the roll-call that ensued.

The convention amid much confusion adjourned sine die. At no time was there an indication of a walk-out of the Roosevelt delegates. They expressed their revolt by silence.

In the confusion just before the adjournment, a resolution was adopted giving the national committee power to declare vacant the seat of any man on the committee refusing to support the nominee of the regular convention of 1912.

Sherman's vote was 597.

I have accepted an invitation from the people of Mebane for the confederate veterans of Alabama to be their honored guest and assist in the 4 of July celebration. They propose to make it a day of pleasure. Hope you will all be able to be there. J. A. Tarrentine Commander.

The present contract of the water company which the city expires in 1918 and it is the wish of the Durham Water Company, in asking for a new contract that in consideration of expending an $150,000 in improving the present system, the city extending their contract for a period of 24 years, beyond the limit of the present agreement. #### Notes from Elon

That the work of the members of the faculty in Elon College is being recognized abroad is evidenced by the fact of information which has just been received here of conferring honorary degrees on members of the faculty, Union College, Merom, Ind. has conferred the degree of LL. D. on President W. A. Harper, M. A. and Defiance College, Defiance, Ohio, the degree of Lit. D. Union College also confers the degree of Doctor of Divinity on Prof. W. C. Wicker, Lit. D., of the chair of Mathematics.

These men eminently deserve the honor conferred and will wear the same gracefully. President Harper has done two years post graduate work at Yale University and has pursued independent work in Latin Literature, these lines being favorites with him. He has been a contributor to several northern papers and magazines and is noted as a literary man of ripe scholarship and independent research. Dr. Wicker did post-graduate work at Johns Hopkins University and has persuaded the study of Philosophy and Theology with a great degree of efficiency and is eminent in these lines.

The plans of the new gymnasium are in the hands of the architect and the building modern in all its appointments is to be erected and equipped by the early fall. The trustees at their recent session saw the necessity of this building and provided for its immediate erection. This will be a valuable addition to the equipment of the College.

An additional lot has been purchased for the graded school and a new and greatly enlarged building is to be erected at once. The contract for this is to be let this week and the same is to be ready by the beginning of school in the fall. This building will be two stories modern and up-to-date in every particular. The old building is to be removed.

Request for catalogus and information and application for admission to the college for the fall term, come in daily and are exceedingly hopeful.

Miss Summers A Bride

Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the lovely country home of Mrs Mattie Summers, near Gibsonville her daughter, Mary Annie, became the bride of Harvy Hamilton Belton.

No invitations were issued, only the immediate friends of the family were present. Handsome announcements were sent immediately.

The parlor was darkened for the occasion, and beautifully decorated with ferns and daisies. An altar was made of potted and cut flowers and the ceremony was performed here. Miss Florence Robertson presided at the piano and rendered the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" as the bride and bridegroom entered together and pledged their troth before Rev. William T. Doggett, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Danville, an uncle of the bride. "The Trovator" was played during the ceremony. The bride was attired in a handsome blue traveling gown, hat and gloves to match. After a light luncheon and congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Belton left in an automobile for Greensboro and went direct to New York city. After a visit to northern cities and a short stay with his people in Stuart, Va., they will return to Gibsonville. July 1, and make their home there.

The bride is a most charming young woman, the daughter of the late Maj. Andrew Summers, who won honors in the Civil War. She is of wonderfully sweet disposition and has hosts of friends.

The bridegroom is a native of Stuart, Va., but has resided at Gibsonville more than a year holding a very responsible position with the Southern railway. He is a most excellent young man.

E. D. Summer, a prominent attorney of Chattanooga, a brother of the bride is at home for the occasion.

Death of James E. Stroud.

On May the 30th 1912 at about half past one o'clock the angel of death visited the beautiful and happy home of Brother James E. Stroud of Liberty N. C. and wafted his genial spirit to its eternal home. He was taken sick with typhoid fever while away from home, but was enabled to bear up under it until he reached home where loving hearts and willing hands did everything in their power, but no earthly power could stay the disease and God saw fit in his love to say, "It is enough, Come home."

He had remembered his Creator in the days of his youth, being about ten years of age when he professed faith in Christ and became a member of Mt. Zion church where he remained a member until death. Sad, indeed it seems without him at the church where he used to meet us with a smiling face, but we sorrow not as those who have no hope for we believe from his life and the testimony on his dying bed, he is now with the redeemed loved ones who have gone before and who welcomed him at the pearly gate. Shortly before he was taken sick he had a special revelation of God's love to him which proved to him his acceptance with God and he told his loved ones he was ready and willing to die. When he could speak no longer he clasped the hand of his devoted wife, and pressed a farewell kiss upon her cheek and waved his hand toward heaven. Later he clasped his hands his eyes toward heaven.

An appropriate and beautiful funeral service was held at Liberty Baptist Church by Rev. Willis and his body was laid to rest with Junior Honors, where a host of friends paid their last tribute of respect to one they had learned to love for his upright life and Christian example.

The floral offering was beautiful, covering the grave. When loving hands had done all they could do, we left him to await the Resurrection morn, when all who are in their graves shall come forth. They that have done good unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of condemnation. To the bereaved wife, darling babe brothers and sisters we would say weep not for Jimmie, He still lives in a holier brighter clime, and though there is one less at home and the charmed circle is broken, there is one more saved and perfected by grace in heaven.

By one who loved him

Cincinnati Is Happy Over Taft's Victory

Cincinnati, O., June 23.—The news of the victory of President Taft in the Chicago Republican national convention created no little excitement in this his home city. Early in the evening they began to gather in front of the newspaper offices scanning the bulletins closely. When the nomination was announced, bedlam broke loose in the business section of the town. Those of the relatives of President Taft, who were in town, were eager listeners to the bulletins as they came over the wires into offices of The Times-Star, Charles P. Taft's newspaper, and their pleasure at the announcement of the nomination was not concealed.

A Roosevelt "Dawg" Song

About the Chicago hotel lobbies is being sung a ditty that matches the "dawg" song. The clerks from New York and Washington bureaus of the Roosevelt committee sing it to the tune of "Casey Jones". Here it is:

Teddy's gotta dawg, but he ain't no houn',
He's a square-jawed bull, and his is roun';
His legs is short and he's close to the groun',
And you bet they ain't kickin' Teddy's bull around.

Chorus—

Short-eared bull, and his face is round,
Square-jawed bull, and he ain't no houn',
Short-legged bull, close to the groun',
And you bet they ain't kickin' Teddy's bull around.

The Democratic dawg, the unlucky houn'
That the boys have all been kickin' around
It's the same old dog that has been sticking around
Since old Abe Lincoln came to Washington town.

Josephus Daniels Is Hurt

By Slipping In Bath Tub

Baltimore, Md., June 20—Josephus Daniels, Democratic national committeeman from North Carolina, was painfully injured today by slipping in a bath tub. He bore his pain silently throughout the meeting of the committee on arrangements for the convention and then called in a physician. Examination showed that his side was badly bruised, but by the aid of bandages the committeeman was able to continue his consultations with Democratic leaders.

Taft Is Happy, Having Lassoed Bull Moose

Washington June 25.—Pres. Taft went to church this morning and spent the remainder of the day reading and replying to the deluge of messages received at the White House congratulating him on his nomination. They came from everywhere from political leaders great and small plain citizens, and folk in most all walks of life, who had kind things to say.

Only July 3, the home circle at the white house will be broken and the president will take family to Beverly. After resting there a few days the President will return to Washington July 8, when with his political advisor he will begin to map out his campaign.

There seems little doubt but that he will make an extensive speaking trip.

Among the telegrams which most pleased Mr. Taft was one from the citizens of Augusta, Ga. where he spent a winter vacation one season before he was elected President.

Jesse M. Littleton of Winchester, Tenn., telegraphed as follows:

"Having lassoed the bull moose and made him domestic that he will browse on the lawn, your friend are justified in believing that you have ropes enough left to hobble the Baltimore donkey whether he reacts or progresses."

Firm Foundation

Nothing Can Undermine It in Burlington.

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been humbugged in the past. The experience of hundreds of Burlington residents' expressed publicly through newspapers and other sources, places Doan's Kidney Pills on a firm foundation here.

Mrs. Sarah Andrews, Webb Ave., Burlington, N. C., says: "I am always willing to give Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement, knowing from personal experience that they are a good remedy for kidney trouble. I suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back and I had such bad headaches and dizzy spells that I could not get around. Finally I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills and got a supply from the Freeman Drug Co. They restored me to better health than I have enjoyed for years and not only strengthened my kidneys but drove away the pain." (Statement given December 19, 1907.)

LASTING EFFECT.
On January 14, 1911, Mrs. Andrews was interviewed and she said: "I am glad to make the fact known that the cure effected by Doan's Kidney Pills three years ago has been permanent. My health since that time has been excellent."

Remarriage of Widows in India.

In the higher castes of the Hindus a widow is not allowed to marry. Once a widow always a widow. But a widower can marry as many times as he wishes to, and there is no law to prevent him from marrying. This social custom is not only an injustice done to women, but a poor social economy as well. The great majority of Indian widows are Hindu widows. There were, in 1901, 19,487 widows below the age of five; 95,798 between the age of five and ten; 275,862 between ten and fifteen; 522,867 between fifteen and twenty; 938,725 between twenty and twenty-five; 1,432,698 between twenty-five and thirty; 2,267,361 between thirty and thirty-five; 2,068,401 between thirty-five and forty; 3,770,495 between forty and forty-five; 2,264,038 between forty-five and fifty; 4,112,873 between fifty and fifty-five; 1,521,210 between fifty-five and sixty; and 6,596,929 of sixty and over.

These figures speak for themselves. The social lectures in India make a good deal of the figures and urge remarriage of Hindu widows. The higher castes are moving in the matter. A few examples have been set even in the otherwise orthodox families of high social standing. The most striking example of this is to be found in the remarriage of the daughter, a girl widow of ten or twelve, of Justice Ashutosh Mukerji of the Calcutta High Court. Though he belonged to orthodox Hinduism, still when it came to the remarriage of his little widowed daughter, he did not scruple to marry her again though he was vehemently opposed by some of his own caste people and relatives. Following the lead of men in high positions, others are doing the same. Widow marriage seems to be quite a fashionable thing nowadays. —From "Woman's Part in India's Social Advance," by Basanta Koomar Roy, in the "American Review of Reviews" for July.

Parker Is Named

Baltimore, June 20—Conservatives and progressives will look in the democratic national convention that will begin in Baltimore next Tuesday. William Jennings Bryan is spoiling for a fight and will come to Baltimore with a chip on his shoulder.

The action today of the subcommittee of the national committee in selecting Judge Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman of the convention indicated clearly that the conservative element of the party is not afraid of Mr. Bryan and he can have all the fight he wants. In fact it was the general opinion that such a conflict is inevitable, and the sooner the die is cast the sooner the atmosphere will be cleared.

Of the sixteen votes of the subcommittee, Parker received eight, O'Connell three, O'Gorman one, Henry three, Kern one. Total opposition eight. Later the vote for Parker was unanimous. The votes were distributed thus:

For Parker—Mack (chairman) Howell, Johnston, Sullivan, Talbot, Browne, Saggart, and Wood, of Michigan.

For James—Wade, Woodson, and Hall.

For Henry—Ewing, Osborne and Daniels.

For Kern—Hudspeth.

Judge Parkes's selection will be laid before the whole committee on Monday and as a general rule the committee approves the findings of its subordinate body.

In the event Bryan persists in fighting Parker's selection on the floor of the convention he will look to the Clark and Wilson forces to help him.

The boomers of the respective presidential candidates are strictly on the job and the lobbies of the hotels are alive tonight with hustling democrats.

A report was current tonight that William R. Hurst will eventually support Governor Harmon and will be a candidate for the

Bryan Declines.

Baltimore, June 23.—Senator Eject Vardman of Mississippi after conference with Clark Howell of Georgia and others, tonight unsuccessfully sought to have William J. Bryan assent to the naming of Bryan as permanent chairman of the Democratic convention. Vardman had authoritatively learned from Leader Murphy and Chairman Mack of the national committee that Judge Parker's friends would vote for Bryan for permanent chairman

Be Happy!

Happy the girl, or woman, who has never suffered from any of the diseases of womanhood! Or, if she has been a sufferer, happy is she if she has learned of the wonderful benefits of Cardui, the woman's tonic!

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Mary Neely, of Denver, Tenn., says, "I think there is no tonic on earth, as good as Cardui. I used it with the very best results. I had backache and nearly everything a woman could suffer with, until I took Cardui. Now, I feel better than I have for two years. I shall always recommend Cardui to other suffering women. I can't praise it too highly. As a medicine for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui is safe and reliable. Try it, today."

OUR TICKET.

For President:

William Howard Taft.

For Vice President:

James S. Sherman.

There is such a thing as progressing too far, is this what has happened to the progressives.

If you are a true blue republican abide in the ship, if you are against the republican party join the democrats, but don't be a bolter.

Colonel Roosevelt, who has just bolted the Chicago Republican convention, is prominently spoken of as the Democratic candidate of the Baltimore convention. The Democrats could go farther and do worse. With Roosevelt as their candidate they would at least be sure of carrying North Carolina.

We want to caution our republican friends, especially those who have espoused the cause of Colonel Roosevelt, to think well before following him farther. If you are a republican your duty is to abide in the ship, you had a right to espouse his cause for the nomination, but now that he has turned his back upon the party that has honored him from Street commissioner in the city of New York, to Governor and then to the Vice Presidency and even to the Presidency by the largest electoral vote ever given a candidate, he is no longer entitled to your encouragement and support when he cut loose from the republican party, he severed the tie that binds, it is now the duty of all loyal republicans to stand by the nominee of the republican convention to the end that they may aid in helping to foster and maintain the party in power who has made and executed all the laws for the benefit of the laboring man for the past fifty years, remain in the old ship still and let those bolt who will.

Our Position.

The Dispatch is a Republican paper, and therefore we are for the Republican nominee. This paper did not advocate any candidate. We felt that those who were looking after this part of the program were capable of choosing not only wisely but well. Now that the convention has named its choice, we are for William Howard Taft, for President, and James S. Sherman for Vice President. This ticket has led us to victory once and we believe that it can lead us to victory again. We are going to do our part by giving them our hearty and loyal support, confident in the ultimate wisdom of the American people.

What will it Profit You?

We ask the question what will it profit you Mr. Democrat who apparently is rejoicing over the great split in the Republican party. What will this profit you when you see the same identical ghost rising before your view in the democratic ranks. Can you not plainly see the one whom you call "Peerless" the leader of the progressive element of your party demanding that you nominate a progressive, a man after his own heart, if not he himself. Will you submit to the lash or will you name as your presiding officer in your convention a reactionary and thus demolish the orator who has thrice been trampled in the dust if you do what will the Republican split profit you? If you do not will you not be in a worse condition than if Mr. Bryan and his forces are trampled?

It appears that Mr. Bryan would rather see his chosen few be the select than to see the masses rule. At present we feel that Mr. Bryan is the most valuable asset the Republican party has. When the water is fine he troubles it. With present Democratic conditions we ask the question again What will the great Republican Split profit You?

A Duplicate for Chicago.

Substitute William Jennings Bryan for Theodore Roosevelt and the situation which confronts the Democratic convention at its opening at Baltimore is but a repetition of the Republican situation at Chicago. At both places the irreconcilable conflict is between the radical and the conservative progressive wings of the party. At both places the national committee stands for the conservatives and is determined on the Destruction of the disturbing element. By a curious coincidence the figures are almost the same. In Chicago the national committee stood 32 members against Col. Roosevelt. At Baltimore 31 in favor of the selection of Judge Alton Parker of New York for the temporary chairman of the convention. In Chicago Mr. Roosevelt's hat was in the ring. At Baltimore Mr. Bryan has thrown his hat into the ring and as in Chicago the committee welcome the challenge.

The same violent language is to be heard. Mr. Bryan Tuesday night gave out a statement that recalled Col. Roosevelt at his best.

The majority of the national committee, said Mr. Bryan, is under the control of the "predatory interests." "Talk about harmony," he said, is absurd. The Belmont-Ryan-Murphy crowd, which dictated Mr. Taft's renomination, is as active here as at Chicago, and the same corrupting influences are seeking to control this convention."

If Mr. Parker did not know who is behind his candidacy, declared Mr. Bryan, he was not qualified intellectually to be the temporary chairman; if he did know it, he should not be permitted to sound the keynote in a Democratic convention. All of which brings back to memory the fervent proclamations which Mr. Roosevelt gave out every day at Chicago last week.

It is said that three months ago the national committee offered the temporary chairmanship to Mr. Bryan himself, but that he did not accept it. Then Mr. Parker was chosen solely on the grounds that he was the only other living Democratic presidential candidate, to the charge that he was not a progressive it was pointed out that he had presided in 1910 at the Rochester convention, which adopted a platform than which only one state in the Union, namely, Oklahoma, has adopted a more radical one. The Clark leaders, foreseeing Colonel Bryan's bitter objection to Judge Parker, are said to have suggested Mr. James name to Mr. Bryan about a

Party Facing Crisis Says Mr. Taft.

Washington, June 22.—President Taft tonight made the following statement:

"The national convention of one of the great parties is ordinarily important only as a preliminary to a national campaign for the election of a President. The Chicago convention just ended is much more than this and is in itself the end of a pre-convention campaign presenting a crisis more threatening and issues more important than those of the election campaign which is to follow between the two great national parties. The question here at stake was whether the Republican party was to change its attitude as the chief conservator in the nation of constitutional representative government and was to weaken the constitutional guarantees of life, liberty and property and all other rights declared sacred in the Bill of Rights, by abandoning the principle of the absolute independence of the judiciary, essential to the maintenance of those rights. The campaign carried on to seize the Republican party and make it the instrument of reckless ambition and the unsettling of the fundamental principles of our government was so sudden and unexpected that time was not given closely to show to the people and the party the dangers which confronted them. It was sought to break the wise and valuable tradition against giving more than two terms to any one man in the presidency and the danger from its breach could not be measured. The importance of the great victory which has been achieved can not be over-estimated. All over this country patriotic people tonight are breathing more freely that a most serious menace to our Republic has been averted.

"It is not necessary tonight to speak of the results in November and of the issues which may arise between the Republican and Democratic parties during the presidential campaign.

It will be time enough to do that after the action of the convention at Baltimore. It is enough now to that whatever may happen in November, great victory for the Republican party and the United States has already won. The party remains as a great powerful organization for carrying out its patriotic principles as an agency of real progress in the development of the nation along the constitutional lines upon which it was constructed and has been maintained; and its future opportunity for usefulness is as great as its achievements in the past."

month ago, but without receiving a favorable response. Hence, when the Wilson men first brought forward Mr. James' name Monday as their candidate the latter promptly refused to consider the offer, and he remained steadfast in his determination. Mr. Bryan announced Monday night that he would fight and that he would have a candidate, but he did not publicly name him, so that it will surprise no if Mr. Bryan brings the issue directly before the convention by permitting his own name to be pitted against Judge Parker.

Democratic Member

Joke Republicans.

Washington, June 24—For forty minutes today the House enjoyed itself over the situation in which the Republican party finds itself because of the Chicago convention's results. Representative Phillip Campbell of Kansas started in by having read a letter written by former President Roosevelt in 1908 extolling the virtues of President Taft then a candidate. Republicans applause greeted the phrases containing fulsome praise for President Taft. Democrats laughed uproariously. When the reading was finished, Representative Heflin of Alabama had read one of the Chicago statements by Colonel Roosevelt. The Democrats had a lot of fun by applauding loudly at the numerous references to "fraud" and "rascality".

The state department declines to get into the coffee muddle. It can't see the grounds.

Among our repeated headlines may be classed, "Taft is back in Washington."

N. C. Senatorial Race.

The Greenville Piedmont, a S. C. newspaper aptly sums up the senatorial situation in North Carolina thusly: "There is a family of brothers in North by the name of Kitchin who have for many years looked upon it as the duty of the State to furnish them their living. For years two of them were Congressmen and one a legislator. One of them is still a Congressman one a legislator while the other is now governor. His term as governor is about to expire as the chief executive is not eligible for re-election in North Carolina he has had to look about for another office. He decided upon the United States Senate." "Now the occupant of the seat which Governor Kitchin seeks is a very worthy representative. He has done much for the State not only as senator but as chairman of the Democratic party before he was made senator. He has done far more for his party and for his State than Mr. Kitchin." "But Mr. Kitchin began a very active campaign several months ago. He attacked the tariff record of Senator Simmons thinking this his weakest point. He attempted to read him out of the party because of his votes. Last week the North Carolina Democratic Convention met at Raleigh and endorsed the tariff record of the Senator. Now Mr. Kitchin is without any campaign material whatever. It looks mighty like there is going to be a Kitchin without a public office which will be very unusual both for the family and for the State" Davidsonian.

Convention Proceedings.

Chicago, June 19.—Roosevelt members of the credentials committee acting under the specific orders of Colonel Roosevelt broke out of the committee room at 10:30 tonight after attempting to beat open the doors and bring all newspaper men into the room.

The doors of the committee room were suddenly thrown open by J. J. Sullivan of Ohio, who rushed out with the cry, "All Roosevelt men walk out."

He was followed by Hugh T. Halbert of Minnesota, Francis J. Henry of California, George L. Record of New Jersey, and other Roosevelt men. As they pushed open the swinging doors after Sullivan they cried out to the newspaper men:

"All newspaper men come inside and see what they are trying to do to us."

Colonel Thayer, assistant sergeant-at-arms, shouted to the koorkeeper to admit no one. The Roosevelt forces shouted again for every one to come in. Mr. Thayer called for policemen who pushed their way through and kept the crowd from getting in.

The Roosevelt men rushed out, saying they were acting under orders of Colonel Roosevelt. "Everybody go to the Florentine room at the Congress shouted one man.

They rushed outside, followed by the crowd and in the street outside the Coliseum they were overtaken by Secretary William Hayward.

"Why did you act that way?" he demanded of Heney. "Why did you not wait until some rules had been passed?"

"We are acting under the direct orders of Colonel Roosevelt," retorted Heney.

"We are obeying a better general than you," shouted George L. Record of New Jersey. "He told us to leave that room and we did it."

Hugh T. Halbert declared the brake came as the result of the refusal of the majority in the committee to open up all evidence in the cases. Mr. Halbert presented resolutions asking that the temporary roll of the convention be considered only as prima facie evidence of the right of delegates to sit; and that all evidence, testimony be gone into.

He declared the committee refused to do this and attempted to "gag" the minority by making rules that would have left the action of the national committee as practically decisive in all the contests.

Mr. Heney later came back to the lobby and urged the Roosevelt contestants to go to the Florence room of the Congress where the Roosevelt headquarters are located and be heard by the members of the credentials committee representing Roosevelt.

Mrs. Annie Stebbins of Burlington is in town visiting relatives and friends her little daughter Pauline and Benie were here Sunday evening Mrs. Stebbins is still with us. She once lived here.

The writer in company with his better half joined the Durham Sunday School last Thursday June 20 and visited the Baptist Orphanage at Thomassville. It was our first visit there. We had heard a great deal said about it but the half has not been told. We were told that there was about 405 Orphans there and they were clustered around by two hundred thousand Baptist of the state, and are well cared for in every respect. We were met by Rev. M. L. Kesler the efficient Manager who gave us a most cordial welcome. We heard the Orphans sing which show the work of training and pains with them. The Sunday School of Durham was present headed by their Superintendent and by the pastor. With such men to lead the visit would be and was a success. We visited the different departments and found everything in good order and the appearance of the children was all that could be asked. We did not visit the farm only the garden and truck patches the children all appeared glad to see the people visit the home, we visited Charity and Children and found Brother Johnson at his desk full of love and talk he told us he could make a good report for the past year and that the outlook was hopeful, by this time we turned for home and boarded the train for home of many the children gathered at gate to bid us adieu, we could but drop a tear to see mother and children part with tears intermingled we still think how kind our heavenly father was to put into the hearts of so many Baptist to provide such a good home for the Orphan children of our land. The Lord be praised for such a good work.

There are other Orphanages that are doing a good work, everybody that can ought to visit the Orphanage. Thus while at home they would feel a greater interest in the work than every before. Several of our people went to Oxford last Saturday 22 to visit the Orphanage and returned well pleased. A visit to an Orphanage will inspire any one to a greater work.

A Raleigh Boy Kills Brother

Raleigh, June 24.—Levene Betts, 15-year-old son of Mrs. Calvine J. (Cheek) Betts, killed his brother Clifton Betts, Sunday afternoon at the Betts home on Boyland avenue Clifton was 20 years old.

The boy's statement of the killing, which is true by the officer, is that he was on a couch in the Betts home trimming his fingernails with a knife when the older brother came through the hall and pushed him back on the couch and holding him there in fun and that in some way, in the scuffle, the fatal cutting occurred. The wound was a stab just over the heart and is as small as a lead pencil, a typical stab rather than a gash. The boy insists that he was not mad and had no intention of cutting his brother. On the other hand the officer are of opinion that anger was engendered in the scuffle the boy described and that, while the lad had no idea of killing his brother, he might have stabbed at him in the brish scuffle.

The officers found the father of the two boys right much intoxicated when they reached the house. They had first heard that the older brother was trying to set his intoxicated father to bed, when the younger brother took the father's part and delt the fatal stab. They do not credit this report now. Levene had left home when the officers reached the house, but another brother went to a neighbor's house and brought him back. The Betts family is a large one and is well connected. Levene is a newsboy and has for along while done a thriving business selling newspapers.

Clinton Betts, the young man killed, was a press feeder in the employ of E. M. Uzzle Company, state printers. The father of the boys is employed by Edwards and Broughton Company.

The Platform In A Nutshell.

The republican platform renews allegiance to the principles of the republican party, favors limiting the hours of labors of woman and children and protection of wage earners in dangerous occupation; upholds the authority and integrity of the courts, favors new anti-trust legislation that will make monopoly criminal; reaffirms belief in the protective tariff but promises reduction in some duties; praises the tariff board; condemns the democratic tariff bills the sixty-second congress as injurious to the county; favors a scientific inquiry into the high cost of living and promises to remove the abuses that exist; favors revision of banking system to prevent panic and the need of better insurance facilities, for the removal of crops in the west and south; urges agricultural credit societies to loan money to farmers; laws to prevent contributions to nominations and elections of president, vice-president, senators, and representatives in Congress; favors treaties with Russia and other countries to prevent discrimination against American citizens; favors the parcel post; promises conservation of natural resources, the maintenance of an adequate navy and revival of the merchant marine; believes that the federal government should assume part control of the Mississippi river and help prevent flood disaster; favors reclamation amid land improvement rivers and harbors; pledges to do all it can to relieve the evil of undesirable immigration; favors ample equipment for lifesaving on ships calls on the public to condemn and punish lynching and to strengthen respect for the law; regards the recall of judges as "unnecessary and unwise" believes in settlement of international disputes by international courts of justice.

COL. WATTERSON PLEADS FOR PEACE AT BALTIMORE

Baltimore, June 21.—National Chairman Mack had no statement to make tonight on the temporary chairmanship situation but gave out a telegram he received from Colonel Henry Watterson. The telegram read: "No fair objection to the choice of Judge Parker for temporary chairman can be made by any thoughtful Democrat. As you know, I favored another for that high honor, but what the Democrats of the United States at this time most need and require is the pooling of issues, not the raising of disturbance. I especially hope that Mr. Bryan will see the force of this. Like yourself, I am his friend. We want at Baltimore not a repetition of the disgraceful scene being enacted at Chicago. I fear that if Mr. Bryan, chooses the nominee of the party should begin taking the floor to oppose Judge Parker, once its nominee, he will not only raise the standard of factionism but will run the risk of ending a second Roosevelt, and surely one Roosevelt were enough for all times and both parties. At a turning when the very foundations of our constitutional system are menaced and when upon the wisdom and patriotism of Democracy the future of free government in America may depend it will be criminal to split hairs over a doctrinal difference, if there be any or to dogmatize upon the details of reform. Such words as progressivism and reactionary should have no place in any Democratic lexicon. They belong to the Republicans. They are springs to catch Republican woodcock.

"The Democratic party at Baltimore should present the country a square and solid front, simple, sound, axiomatic platform and a ticket so obvious that no Democrat can find a reason for bolting against it. With such a guaranty of integrity the party cannot fail of the vote of independent and patriotic Americans who are sick alike of double dealing and visionary-empiricism."

"Henry Watterson."

Mr. J. T. Foister who once resided here was in town Friday.
