A Resident of Burlington Shows the Way.

Only one way to cure a bad back.

Liniment and plasters may relieve it; They won't cure it. Backache means sick kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are for bad kidneys.

Burlington people back them up.

Read a case of it: Mrs. R. L. Wheeler, Lakeside Ave., Burlington, N. C., says: "I am a strong believer in Doan's Kidney Pills as they cured me of backache and other annoying symptoms of kidney complaint after other had failed. My back was certainly in a wretched condition. I could hardly climb a flight of stairs and it was impossible to stoop. I was also bothered by dizzy spells and headaches. A relative finally advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I did so with satisfactory results. My health began to mend at once and I now feel like a different woman."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The woods continue as full of suckers as the ocean is of fish. The Asheville Gazette-News says: "Each day another victim comes forward and tells the investigating committee how fond that Mme. Nina Lester the palmist who recently left this city for parts unknown was raising the latest run something like this: A man in this city who considered by all who know him to be a conservative business man wanted to engage in a new line of business so he consulted the madam and she advised him to get five $100 bills and put them into a bag then tie said bag over his heart and sleep with it thus and to report to her the next day. He did so, and she then told him that she would have to sleep with the bag tied over her heart in order to work the conjure." He readily agreed to this and was told to call the next day and she would give him the advice he asked and return the money. He has called at the house, No. 18 Merrimon avenue, every morning since, but of course the madam has failed to show up.

Lifesaving Medal Awarded.

Washington, July 29.—Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh has awarded a life saving medal to John T. ### Beware of Ointments for Catarrah That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

THREW SAND IN MAN'S EYE

Reidsville, July 29.—A dangerous and dastardly deed was perpetrated by some one on the Reids-ville-Wentworth road when Mr. William Nissen's chauffeur, was hit in the face with a sand bag as he was motoring over the road. The sack burst and Honeycutt's eyes were filled with the sand. With a rare presence of mind he brought his machine to a standstill within three feet of a telephone pole. He was completely blinded and it is considered marvelous that the machine was not upset when it ran into a ditch. The chauffeur was carried into a farm house and his eyes washed. The car was occupied by Mrs. Noosen and several other ladies. It is thought that the party who threw the sand-bag was in waiting for a negro driver of T. B. McGehee's car, but this is only surmise. It was dark, and it is supposed the party made a mistake, as Honeycutt's car had been on this particular road only once before.

Messrs. Jesse C. Young, Glenn East and John Burton farmers of the Ruffin neighbors were waylaid just this side of Danville a few evenings ago. Two negroes without warning struck young a violent blow with a stick across the forehead and felled him to the ground. Though stunned he drew from his pocket a pistol, fired twice at the fleeing assailants, who broke and ran immediately on seeing his hand to his hip Young, who fled freely from a savage cut, believed the object of the attack was robbery.

A shooting scrape occurred at Mayodan Friday afternoon late, when Lid Dalton shot Sam
Brown in the thigh with a pistol.
The two men had some words, it is said, Dalton threw a large knife at Brown, who ran out of the door of the market and threw a bottle back at Dalton.
The latter then drew a pistol and fired twice at Brown. Only one shot took effect and that is only a flesh wound.

Ten Things To Do In August

- Keep up the cultivation of late crops and of the garden; chances are that all the moisture in the soil will be needed.
- Make hay—cut the peavines as fast as the pods begin to turn and take care of everything that will make good feed.
- Refrain from pulling fodder, and arrange to save the corn crop in a more economical manner.
- Begin preparations for the fall seeding; work all land to go into wheat or oats into fine tilth just as soon as present crops come off.
- In the cooler parts of our territory sow crimson clover; in all sections get seed or clover, rye, the vetches, etc., and be ready to sow them for winter cover.
- Plant an alfalfa patch the last of the month; also rape and turnips for late fall and early winter pasture.
- If the pasture turn dry, give the cows some extra green stuff; keep the hogs growing adding a little grain to the pasture if early fattening is desired.
- Cleans up inside and out—keep the flies out; drain the mosquito-breeding place whitewash and disinfect the poultry houses and pig pens.
- Get the briars, bushes, etc., out of the fields: cut weeds before they seed.
- Begin now to prepare for the permanent improvements needed on the place—new fences, tile drainage, the doing away with ditches and banks, repairs to buildings, and so on.

GIRLS ARE CRUSHED; THEY GO ON STRIKE

New York, July 31.—Four hundred girls, members of the dressmakers' union employed at a Brooklyn factory, are on strike today against the use of profanity by the foremen and other male employees of the shop. The strikers hope to bring about a series of walkouts in other factories to enforce the demand for a rule that foremen and others be instructed that no profanity work rooms at any time, no matter what the provocation.

Food prices are coming down.
Naturally. There was no other directions left.

7 SHOT AND 20 WOUNDED IN ROUT OF STRIKES

London, July 31.—Seven strikers were shot and twenty other men were seriously wounded by flying bricks during rioting around the docks in London today.

The chief encounter occurred at the Victoria docks, where 2,000 laborers who had been on strike for over ten weeks, appeared in compliance with the manifesto of the Dock Workers Federation ordering a resumption of work. They found, however, that their places were occupied by men-unionist or "free" laborers who had been taken on during the strike and who were determined to continue at work. They defied the union men to eject them. A severe fight ensued.

Bullets, bricks and stones flew in all directions. The police were powerless to suppress the disturbance.

Another fight centered around the steamer City of Columbia which was being loaded at one of the wharves. Unionist workmen tried to board her but were repelled by the non-unionists.
Many men were injured here, some of them with bulletets.

Sidetracking James.

My sister's got a feller, and a hit I've made with him.
My sister calls me "James," but he "most always calls me "Jim,"
An' say we're friends. He asts about bird nests and swimmin' holes,
An' tells me about breathin' deep,
an' about vaultin' poles,
But sister she looks at the clock.
One night she yawned and said, "How time has flown! I think it's time for James to go to bed."
But I just wouldnt go to bed: I wanted to stay there,
An' she was mad as all git out,
But gee! I didn't care.

Her feller pulled two bended nails out of his pocket and He said, "This here's a puzzle.
Jim," an' put 'em in my hand.
"I'll bet you can't get them apart," An' I said "Bet I do!"
He said: "We'll sit on the porch an' leave the room to you, An' when you've got them things apart just give the door a knock I'll bet a nickel you can't get it done by 10 o'clock!"
An' it was sure some puzzle! I tried an' tried an' tried, An' I was still a-tryin' when they come in from outside,
An' then he showed me how it was an' it was slick as pie, An' every night when he has come he's had something that I Could work on, an' he says that I am most industrious:
An' sister's interested, too an'
she don't make no fuss, But jest gits up and goes with him outside the room, so she Won't git my mind off my work or interfere with me.
She ast him once; "When James has got them done, where shall we be?"
An' he said "There are other tricks: jest leave this thing to me."
An' it's jest heaps of fun to work on them the way I do.
An' everytime he comes around he brings me something new,
An' they go 'way and let me be,
don't bother me at all;
They sit together on the porch or out there in the hall To wait till I learn how to do the thing I'm workin' on.
An' almost fore I know it all the evenin' will be gone.
I'm glad she's got him for a beau
I'm kinder stuck on him—When sister calls me "James" he always says my name is "Jim."

Owing to the disruption of commercial relations between Italy and Turkey consequent upon the outbreak of war, the latter country is now looking to other sources to supply the merchandise formerly furnished by Italy.
During the last few years Italian cotton goods manufacturers in particular have had much success in the Turkish field but the comparatively large volume of trade they had acquired is now going largely to other countries. This condition of affairs makes very timely a report just issued by the bureau of manufactures Department of Commerce and Labor, in which Commercial Agent Ralph M. Odell of Cocod who for over a year has been investigating the cotton goods trade of various European countries gives the result of his study of the Turkish market. The report is eminently practical.

WILSON AGAIN AT SEA GIRT

Sea Girt, N. J. July 29.—Governor Wilson returned to the summer capitol at Sea Girt ton-night after a five days' cruise at sea, tanned and healthful. The weariness which the governor's features had taken on during the weeks of hard work following his nomination has disappeared and he announced himself ton-night as in vigorous condition as ever. The governor brought with him a shorthand draft of the speech of acceptance of the presidential nomination. It is about 6,000 words long and represents a whole week's labor.
Tomorrow night, after the conclusion of the usual Tuesday visit to the capitol at Trenton, he will dictate the speech in full to a stenographer in preparation for the press.
The secret made of the governor's movements during the past few days was cleared when he returned tonight. He had spent the past five days on Cleveland H. Doge's yacht Corona, a sailing craft of less than 130 tons burden.

Returns for Kiss after Fifty Years.

Bristol, Va., July 31.—Colonel John S. Mosby, the noted Confederate guerilla, came here today just to hold Mrs. Wirt J. Carrington to a promise she made him fifty years ago—that if he distinguished himself in the war she would kiss him on his return.
Mosby never returned to Bristol until today. Mrs. Carrington told him that the statue of limitations barred the promised kiss.

A man knows more at twenty-one than he can unlearn between that and sixty.

Is an illustrated National Farm Magazine for progressive farmers in all agricultural communities. It is authority on fruit culture and should be read by every farmer and gardener in America. If you expect to make a success of raising fruit it is necessary to have the best ideas of those who have succeeded. These will be found in every issue of The Fruit Grower.

OUR TICKET.

For President: William Howard Taft. For Vice President: James S. Sherman.

Most people are glad to learn that Mr. Wilson will not indulge in personalities. We will wait and see.

Looks like most of the campaigning this fall will be done by Teddy, since Wilson has decided not to "stump" the country. Taft having made the statement soon after his nomination that he would reserve the dignity of remaining at the white house during the campaign.

Civilized and Christianized America, who boasts of her enlightened citizenship, pomp, pride, and chivalry is hushed and enshrined in shame when Governor Bleas and Judge Jones of South Carolina take the stage of action. After breathing bloody murder for weeks the men meet at Aiken. Everybody trembles in fear and rush for the double purpose of getting out of the way of gun fire, while at the same time in their imagination they are witnessing a scene of slaughter. There was no slaughter of anything except the English language.

"That's the foulest lie," cried the "Judge" "that ever passed the lips of a human being"

"When you stick the gaffs into a dunghill," yelled Bleas, "the dunghill will be sure to cry out!"

These are but a few of the foul and vulgar expressions which passed, the others we dare not publish lest our scruples for decency be lost to sight.

When men who have been entrusted with the honor of the governorship of a great state fall so low, what may we expect from those whom we are supposed to lead. When our leaders step so low, how much better is man than the animals of the field who fight for their prey?

Is not man created with a reasoning power capable of governing his passion which should make him more Godlike.

Certainly no official of this type will be re-elected to succeed himself.

Where Is the Silver Dollar?

What has become of the silver dollars? Their disappearance from circulation has been gradual, but so effective that now people rarely carry the sinkers around in their pockets. It is rarely that the banks pass out silver dollars since clean money has become generally available and the paper bills are much preferred. Money is easier to carry these days than when Populism was in flower and the sixteen-to-one dollar was threatening to tear holes in the pockets of the country. And another step that will be possibly in the way of adding convenience to the currency, is a proposition to cut down the size of paper bills. The Nashville Democrat says the Treasury notes and bills now in circulation measure about eight and a quarter inches in length and three inches in width and it is proposed to cut them down to measure six inches in length and two and one-half in width. The two reasons for suggesting this change are: First, that the smaller bills will be much more convenient to handle and, second, the reduction in size will save an expense in the Government in producing them of an estimated amount of over $600,000 a year. This is an item worth saving, especially when the change in size would prove of public convenience.—Charlotte Observer.

La Follette Repudiates Roosevelt.

Senator La Follette, first and boldest of the Republican progressives, issues this warning against the party-seekers now promoting a third term: It seems to me that the highest obligation of real progressive Republicans in every State is to maintain their organization and continue to fight within the lines of the Republican party for progressive principles, policies and candidates. No aid or encouragement should be given to a third-party plan to divide the progressive vote and destroy the progressive Republican movement. No break should be permitted in the progressive ranks which will endanger the election of any true progressive Republican anywhere. The champion of a cause, Mr. La Follette subordinates everything to the cause. The champion of a person, Mr. Roosevelt subordinates everything to the person. La Follette's successes have always meant progressive Republican successes. Roosevelt's success can mean nothing more than the success of Roosevelt and the incens-burners who surrounded him. Senator La Follette speaks advisedly when he refers to the third party as a menace to the progressive movement. Progress ive Republicanism have been unselfish and courageous. Being wholly time-serving. It is devoted to the most unstable of men. It the nature of things it cannot have fixed principles. It cannot govern others because it does not even govern itself. In most of the fractious "State Conventions" now being held to elect delegates to the third-term National Convention there is to pretend to independence. Everything is ordered from Outer Bay. These "delegates" do not represent States and districts. They represent Oyster Bay. Their candidate are already nominated; their platform is already written. Against this spurious and destructive progressivism Mr. La Follette protests with reason. It has no motive higher than a grudge and a grievance. A party in ruins will have as little need of progressives as of stand-patters.

Declares He Shot Himself

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 1—Outlining Daisy Opp's Grace's defense in her trial for attempting to kill her husband, Eugene, the woman's counsel today told the jury that Grace received a bullet wound during a scuffle with his wife, after a quarrel over the sale of the woman's property. The attorney declared Grace tried to shoot his wife, after choking her and during the scuffle, which followed, the weapon was discharged. The attorney declared that Grace made his wife leave her home because he did not think he was badly hurt and he feared he would be disgraced if it became known he was shot in a "nigger row" with his wife. "The state's theory that Grace was shot during the night or early in the morning is utterly untrue," said Attorney Branch. We will prove he was shot after 11 o'clock in the morning; that he got up that morning, wrote a check, and talked over the phone as late as 10 o'clock. It was ridiculous to say she married Grace and tried to get rid of him for his money. She had given him between fifteen and twenty thousand dollars in one year and he was going to Philadelphia to sell her property to get money for himself when the shooting occurred. We are going to show the whole miserable facts. The truth is, Grace wanted to get his wife out of town first. Mrs. Grace suspected he had an engagement with another woman. She so accused him, and said she would take back the power of attorney she gave him to sell her property. He cursed her, threatening to kill her, and grabbed his revolver. In the scuffle, the revolver was discharged. Grace was shot. Grace made his wife leave the house, without summoning a physician, and made his wife promise she would say nothing about it. The lawyer charged that the alibi letters were written by Grace himself.

Elon College Items

Work has begun in earnest on the changes necessary to make the first floor of the annex of the West Dormitory into a Dining Hall and Culinary Department and to turn the second floor of it into the Young Ladies' Gymnasium and the Art Studio. It is felt that these changes will greatly add to the convenience of the building.

The new six thousand dollar, eight room, two-story, brick Graded School building is well under way, under the supervision of Prof. W. P. Lawrence of the College Faculty. The building will be ready for occupancy by the first of October when the Graded School is scheduled to open this fall.

Considerable interest is being manifested on the part of the citizens here and of the surrounding rural communities in the third annual session of the Farmer's Institute, which will meet here on Saturday, August 17, 1912. As usual their will be held in connection with the Farmer's a woman's Institute as well. Soil improvement, crops live stock, marketing will be discussed for the farmers, while their wives will hear addresses on such wholesome themes as household economies, home conveniences, cooking health in the home, education of children, etc. Several prizes will be offered and many have already signified their intention to enter the lists for them.

Mrs. Wilson and Miss Florence Wilson have returned from a month's visit to Blowing Rock and report themselves very much refreshed by their trip.

Dr. J. O. Atkinson, of the Chair of Political and Social Science, is this week engaged in series of revivalistic services at Union Ridge Church, Northern Alamance. A great revival is there in progress, from all reports.

From every indication the opening in September is to be a record breaker. More applications than ever have already been received. The entering class will in all probability according to advice from the Presidents office, reach the hundred mark.

Fayetteville Bride Elopes.

Fayetteville, Aug. 2—D. W. Woodall ran away with his brother's pretty wife yesterday and the brother, Frank Woodall today published a legal notice that he has applied for a divorce. Woodall and his wife had been married but four months. Mrs. Woodall is a daughter of J. B. Matthews, a butcher, of this place. The elopement, which leaked out to-day was partly by buggy and partly by train, it is alleged. The couple drove from here to Lakewood, a flag station, a few miles from Fayetteville and there caught an Atlantic Coast Line train. Nothing has been heard of them since. The train they caught was going towards Greensboro. The divorce action is returnable at the October term of Cumberland court.

WHICH?

Two men died about three years ago, both leaving considerable property. One had a will and the other had not.

Today, the family of the man who left no will is in needy circumstances, having lost their property by bad investment and unwise management.

On the other hand, the widow and young son of the man who made the will have more property than ever, because of the safe and expert service of the Trust Company which was named as Executor of the will.

This comparison tells its own story.

It is typical of conditions today everywhere.

It is of such common occurrence that people cease to be impressed by it.

HOW ABOUT YOU?

If you love your wife and children you should, by all means, throw around them that strong safeguard, that staunch friend of widow and orphan, —THE WILL— and think! it will not cost you a penny!

When you appoint us as your executor, you may select any lawyer you wish to draw your will and we will pay his fees.

Better be safe than sorry.

JUSTICE CLARK IN GREENSBORO

Greensboro, July 20.—In opening campaign for the senatorial nomination, Chief Justice Clark addressed a Greensboro audience last night. He spoke, in part, as follows:

"I wish to state unequivocally that I shall say nothing in this canvass that will reflect upon the personal character of either of my competitors. They have lived clean lives. They have been and I hope still are, my personal friends. It is no reflection upon them that I aspire to the same office which they desire. Their characters are not in question and will not be an issue in this campaign. Their public acts are public property, and we have a right to scrutinize closely any measures which they have advocated and for which they will stand if elected to the senate."

Senator Simmons was chairman of the Democratic executive committee back in the nineties and he retained that position long after he became senator and indeed, I believe until his second election to that high position. He has a large acquaintance and indeed I may say, organization among those who organize voters in the different townships and counties in behalf of the candidates.

Governor Kitchen for 12 years represented the Fifth congressional district in Congress, and of course, had an organization to aid him. In his canvass for governor he extended this through the state and since he has been governor he has added to this the natural gratitude of the men whom he has appointed to office and their friends and also without reflecting upon his exercise of the pardoning power in any way, he has in many causes and good will of men at whose instance he has granted pardons.

For many years it was understood that these two gentlemen were as pirants for the office of senator and that these strong battalions, well organized by their friends expected to face other in this contest. When a Governor Aycock and myself announced ourselves candidates, a cause intense astonishment to both sides. They considered it as rash and inconsiderate on our part.

"The road to the United States senate is open to any man whom the people wish to send there. I do not need to have any hat chucked by any set of men. In the language of Mr. Roosevelt, it is in the ring and will be there when the sun goes down on November 5."

LOGICAL.

"How old is your baby brother?" asked little Tommy of a play mate.

"One year old," replied Johnny. "Huh!" exclaimed Tommy. "I've got a dog a year old and he can walk twice as well as that kid can."

"Well, he ought to," replied Johnny: "he's got twice as many legs."—Judy

HER DEATH CAUSED BY GRIEF FOR SON

Arabian, Ga., July 29.—Grief over untimely death of her son, Jacques Futrelle, the well known writer, who went down in the Titanic disaster, is believed to be the direct cause of the death of his mother, Mrs. Linnie Futrelle; who died here yesterday.

Futrelle visited his mother just before leaving for Europe. Mrs. Futrelle had grieved incessantly since the death of her son. She kept up bravely as long as there was hope that he might have been rescued. For the last several weeks her decline has been steady, and her thought had reverted constantly to the tragic fate of her boy.

Woodrow Wilson Object of Attack.

Washington July 26.—Representative Rodenberg, Republican, of Illinois, made a political speech in the House today attacking Governor Woodrow Wilson. Mr. Rodenberg quoted long extracts from Governor Wilson's history of the American people in which the writer referred to Thomas Jefferson as "an aristocrat who deliberately practiced the arts of a politician" and said that "Washington found him a guide who needed watching."

Governor Wilson's writings on the immigration question Mr. Rodenberg reviewed at length. Mr. Rodenberg quoted Governor Wilson's praise of Chinese and declared "that there must have been rejoicing in every Chinese laundry in the United States" when the Governor was nominated at Baltimore.

Governor Wilson's view of William J. Bryan as expressed in the much talked of "Joline letter" and his references to Mr. Bryan's participation in the Democratic convention of 1896, Mr. Rodenberg reviewed at length.

Mr. Rodenberg concluded his speech with praise for President Taft.

"His administration needs no defense," said Mr. Rodenberg. "In him they recognize the dignity and the majesty of an honest man who has faithfully upheld the best traditions of the Republican party."

Mr. Rodenberg closed with the quotation "We stand at Aramagaddon and we battle for the Lord."

L. M. Clymer and family are enjoying a vacation this week by camping out. They have established themselves near the Masonic and Eastern Star home, west of the city, and are very comfortably situated. They have as their guests Mr. J. H. Isley and family, of Burlington, and Mr. H. D. Huffines and family, of Reidsville.

"You have been a very naughty boy today Harold," said his mother and, "I shall tell your father when he comes home."

"Oh, of course!" You never could keep a secret."

STRANGER KILLED AT SPENCER

Spencer, July 31.—Lee Harrison of Spencer, a fireman on the Southern railway between this place and Greenville, was dangerously injured near Gastonia last night. It is stated that when his train stopped for some length of time for orders he sat down on the main line to rest and a fast train speeding by struck him a terrific blow. The extent of his injuries have not been learned in Spencer though his condition is said to be critical. He was engaged to be married to a young lady in Spencer in about two weeks. He is a son of a well known citizen in Rowan.

John Edwards, the stranger who was knocked down an embankment near Spencer late last evening sustaining fatal injuries, died at the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium last night before an operation was performed. It was seen from the first that his injuries were serious both legs horribly broken and mashed one arm broken besides internal injuries sustained when struck by the rear end of a caboose car. No clue was gained as to who the man was other than to a newspaper correspondent shortly before he died that his name was John Edwards and his home in England. He said he was 76 years old and claimed to be walking on a wager from New York to New Orleans. He made the appearance of having seen better days, but said he had no people. The remains were taken in charge by the railroad officials and prepared for a decent burial.

Southern Democrat To Run With Colonel.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 31.—A movement is on foot within the National Progressive party to name a Democrat from the South as Colonel Roosevelt's running mate, Colonel Roosevelt said today, if an available man can be agreed upon.

Statements made by Colonel Roosevelt and Senator Dixon yesterday that John M. Parker of New Orleans probably would be permanent chairman of the Progressive convention were erroneous, the Colonel said today. He said they overlooked the fact that Mr. Parker was to make one of the speeches seconding his nomination and therefore could not serve as permanent chairman. Another Southern Democrat probably will be chosen.

Murdered Her Sixty-Year-Old Husband.

Charlotte, N. C., July 26.—Mrs V. J. Hartzell of Mecklenburg county, killed her 60-year-old husband near here today. She explained she was enraged at the conduct of her husband and her daughter by a former marriage. The Hartzells had been married twenty-five years.

Teacher—"If you were getting dinner for six people and had five potatoes, how would you divide them to give each an equal share?"
Small Sadie—"I'd mash 'em."

To Pumpkin Pie

It is not in North Carolina alone that there abounds either fondness for good food or poetic outpouring relative thereto. In South Carolina, harking back to the period when the two commonwealths were one and long before the hand primary had appeared below the dividing line, similar aptitudes may be seen. We have just come into possession of a fine tribute to pumpkin pie which Dr. T. S. Blake of Ninety-Six, S. C., delivered on Thanksgiving Day of last year;

Rah! Rah! for "punkin pie;"
New-fangled stuff may please the eye,
But to tickle the plate you can't try Anything better than "punkin pie."

Good for folks, good for dogs,
The very thing for cows and hogs
Hungry cats will mew and cry
When you are eating "punkin pie"

Horses and mules, sheep and goats
Will leave off eating corn and oats
And join the universal cry,
Rah! Rah! for "punkin pie!"

LONG LOST RING FOUND

IN OLD PIGEON NEST

PITTSBURG, Aug. 1.—Fifteen years ago Joseph C. Baird, now cashier of the First National bank of Washington, Pa., lost a gold band ring while out driving. Yesterday J. J. Davin a retired manufacturer, brought the ring to Mr. Baird after having found it in his pigeon loft. The only explanation advance is that a pigeon owned by Mr. Davin found and carried the ring to the loft.
