Don't Suffer!

"I had been troubled, a little, for nearly 7 years," writes Mrs. L. Fincher, in a letter from Peavy, Ala., "but I was not taken down, until March, when I went to bed and had to have a doctor. He did all he could for me, but I got no better. I hurt all over, and I could not rest. At last, I tried Cardui, and soon I began to improve. Now I am in very good health, and able to do all my household work."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

You may wonder why Cardui is so successful, after other remedies have failed. The answer is that Cardui is successful, because it is composed of scientific ingredients, that act curatively on the womanly system. It is a medicine for women, and for women only. It builds, strengthens, and restores weak and ailing women, to health and happiness.

If you suffer like Mrs. Fincher did, take Cardui. It will surely do for you, what it did for her. At all druggists.

Straw Vote.

On board a special train carrying visitors to the Pennsylvania State College one day this week a straw vote brought these results:

Roosevelt,	191
Wilson,	121
Taft,	37
Debs,	9
Chafin,	9

A clerk in the state department at Washington has uncovered a record that shows that Colonel Roosevelt has been a friend of the Bull Moose for five years. Some one asked the clerk a few days ago why he supposed the Colonel hit upon the words Bull Moose in a speech at Chicago. Here is the document that was produced as an answer:

"It is hereby ordered Fire Island, located approximately in latitude 61 degrees, 15 minutes north, longitude 150 degrees, 15 minutes west from Greenwich, and near the head of Cook Inlet, south of Alaska, be and the same is hereby reserved and set apart for the use of the Department of Agriculture as a preserve and breeding ground for the Alaska Moose.

"Theodore Roosevelt."

With a record of 65 years as a Democrat, Lieut.-Col. Wm. J. Wallace of Philadelphia, has announced his intention to vote for Colonel Roosevelt.

"I've been voting the Democratic Ticket ever since I was 21 and I am 86 now. Roosevelt is ahead of the two old parties. He is the only real Progressive."

Asa W. Butler of Albany, Missouri, who was until recently a Republican Elector for the second Congressional District in that state, is the fifth of the Republican Electors to step off the ticket since the formation of the Republican Party.

"I have abiding confidence in the ability and stability of the government of, for and by the people which our sturdy old forefathers fondly believed they were founding and I am absolutely opposed to this new scheme of governing by committees to which the Republican Party seems to have become so strongly committed in this year of grace and insufferable political folly, 1912."

A straw vote taken on board the Newark branch train of the Erie Railroad leaving Paterson at 5:30 a. m. one morning this week brought these results which were cheered when they were announced:

Taft,	2
Wilson,	10
Roosevelt,	22

Word comes from Charles H. Hitchborn, for sixteen years treasurer of the Republican State Committee in Maine, that he has resigned and has informed his former colleagues that from now on he is going to be unhampered in his support of Colonel Roosevelt.

Another man who lives at Hastings-on-the-Hudson stated that out of 49 men in the smoking car,

22 were for Roosevelt
20 " Wilson
2 " Taft
5 Undecided.

Here are two straw votes from Illinois:

Illinois Watch Company in Sagamon County, Ill.
Roosevelt	230
Taft	80
Wilson	70
Debs	12

Sagamon Electric Company,

Roosevelt,	66
Wilson,	29
Taft,	9
Debs,	9

A poll of the passengers on board the Spring Valley express of the Erie Railroad was taken a day or two ago. Voting cards were passed around and signed, with the following result:

Theodore Roosevelt	92
William H. Taft	30
Woodrow Wilson	58
Eugene V. Debs	2

A canvass of twenty-three voters in a railroad office at 143 Liberty street New York City, yesterday showed the following result:

Roosevelt	15
Wilson,	2
Taft	4

Jack Johnson Will Not Give Up

White Girl To Her Mother.

Chicago, Oct. 17—Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion puglist, whose white wife committed suicide recently, appeared before Chief of Police McWeeny today to explain his relations with Miss Lucile Cameron, a 19 year old white girl the daughter of Mrs. F. Cameron-Falconet, of Minneapolis, for whom the police had been asked to search by the mother.

In a dramatic appeal, Mrs. Cameron-Falconet told of her failure to get her daughter away from the influence of the negro. She described her anguish when she learned last Friday that her daughter was a frequenter of Johnson's cafe, her hurried trip here to rescue the girl, her interviews with the puglist, who, she declares, insulted her and flouted her plea that he give the girl up.

Johnson, she said told her he could "get" any woman he wanted.

"When I found Lucile I pointed out the wrong she had done. I pleaded with her. I told her I would give up everything I had in life to get her to go back; and I would go anywhere with her and shield her from criticism back home. She refused to come being apparently under Johnson's influence.

"Then I telephoned the puglist. He said he would send an automobile for me." Friends advised me to see if I couldn't personally get him to give up my daughter. When the automobile arrived he was in it himself although he said it would be empty. When I entered the machine I drew down the shades so as not to be seen. This nettled him.

"Oh, some of the best white women in Chicago ride in this car," is what he said to me.

I begged Johnson to give my daughter up. He said he wouldn't and leered in my face.

"We rode to a home on Sheridan road where Lucile was staying. She wept and told me she had gone too far to go back. Every once in a while she would walk out of the room with the negro and talk with him.

I left her undecided. Finally she came to my hotel. We talked of how she could become disengaged. I was convinced at that time that the negro had a hypnotic influence over her.

"She went downstairs to use the telephone, she said, and never returned. Johnson told me he would give every dollar he has to hold her. I have appealed to the police, but they say they can do nothing, as Lucile is 19 years old."

Johnson made an absolute denial of unduly friendly relations with Miss Cameron and that infatuation for the Cameron girl was one of the causes of the suicide of Mrs. Etta Duryea Johnson, his white wife. He declared the girl left her position as cashier in his cafe for another position and his wife had never seen Miss Cameron.

"Johnson denies the whole thing," said Chief McWeeny. "One thing is certain, if I find anything wrong at Johnson's place, he'll be arrested in a hurry."

Miss Cameron was taken into custody by the police tonight after she had refused to leave her companions in Chicago and accompany her mother to Minneapolis. She was questioned by Police Captain Nootbaar and later taken to the South Clark street station for the night. She was arrested on complaint of her mother but not booked.

After leaving Captain Nootbaar's office Johnson appeared before Chief of Police McWeeny. He said that Mrs. Falconet had communicated with him and told "not to pay any attentions to her daughter." Johnson said he assured her "there was no cause for her to worry."

"I learned that would tend to show that Johnson was to blame in any way for the girl's whereabouts," said Captain Nootbaar. "I do not know what the police can do as the matter stands."

THE SENIOR PARTNER was disturbed. The little boy of one of the firm's traveling men was critically ill. The distracted mother begged that her husband be notified.

A Long Distance Bell Telephone call located him, but he had gone to a neighboring town to sell goods.

Would the Telephone people reach him? The Telephone people would try. They found him and he started for home at once.

J. C. McAdams,
R. C. Dickey,

The Bull Moose is mightier than the bullet.

Collier's Weekly declares for Col. Roosevelt, after a thorough investigation of the facts.

The Denver Post, of Denver, Col., a strong Taft organ in the home town of Guggenheim, declares for Roosevelt and Johnson.

We urge all Progressive to get the facts of the campaign as they are. The Southern Press has no Daily paper that is a real organ. Hence it is necessary to go North in order to get the facts through real progressive dailies. This condition is a reflection on the Southern Daily Press, nevertheless it's true.

The County campaign is now on and we understand the discussion by the various candidates is very fine and is worth while for you to hear these gentlemen.

Mr. Williams of Minnesota, Champ Clark Campaign manager and convention leader at Baltimore Convention avices his connector with the Progressive movement and will loyally support Roosevelt and Johnson.

Last week we gave our views on Socialism, and said that the would be assassin of Col. Roosevelt was a Socialist, since then the villian denies the Socialist party as his leader, but it is true that the doctrine of the extremist of the Tory Press like the New York World and the New York Herald are the organs that fired the mind of this villian.

The Democrats have always said they had no money for campaign funds. The truth has been told by one Thos. Fortune Ryan before the Senate Committee. $450,000.00 to Judge Parker in 1904. $30,000. 00 to the Harmon fund this year, and $32,000. 00 to Underwood a total gift of $562,000.00. Not much. No never wrong when its a Democrat act.

This same Parker is the man that eight years ago accused Col. Roosevelt of being elected by Trustfunds. He has more in his jeans than Teddy had in all. Democracy you had better close the Senatorial investigation now or your benefactor will tell more.

That Wonderful Forecast

The Burlington News tried last week to make a real smart comment on the editorial interview that we published in our issue the 6th of October.

It does not question the truthfulness of the interview, but at the close of the first paragraph, he says, "If all he declares is true." Now it's immaterial to us as to its opinion to any question, but the interview was given by a man who contributed one dollar to the Wilson Campaign Fund, and we believe the gentleman told what he believed. If your words are the expressions of your feelings towards manufacturers, we are sure capital appreciates your loyal support. Lots of Tariff dope sounds very much like a memorized speech of the Democratic orator of twenty years ago. Of course the News learned from a younger authority.

Brother if you will explain to the thinking man how American labor can compete with Italian, Japanese, Chinese and all other foreign laborers without a protective tariff, you will be a wise Guy indeed and a benefactor to all your friends by doing it.

Gettysburg—1913.

The Dispatch takes pleasure in announcing that a Reunion Club of Confederate Veterans will be organized in Alamance by Col. Frank C. Mosier of Pennsylvania and that he will personally conduct the Alamance members to Gettysburg next July to attend the Reunion, where everything possible will be at the disposal of the Old Soldiers without price or money.

Col. Roosevelt will be Master of Ceremonies and lead the maneuvers of the Reunion.

Alamance will consider going should notify the Editor of the Dispatch, so that arrangements can be made for your accommodation as the plans are to go in automobile from Burlington.

Tommy, You Are A Dandy

We love your views and explanation of the tariff. Your speech was the best made in Burlington in a long time, although, we differ from him on some questions. But, oh how we longed that the Burlington News might have ears that are capable of hearing both sides of the Tariff question, and especially the appeal that one W. A. Erwin and others made to the Senate Committee to not recommend a reduction of the duty on cotton fabrics until he and others including a cotton manufacturer of our town, could be heard.

The Tariff issue is nothing new. Its a principle of good government. Its an established fact that when you violate the protective tariff principle, with free trade policy (or a tariff for revenue only, which has no meaning to any one) not only does the employee suffer for want of employment, but it also injures the employer. The protective tariff people have pulled the country out of the hole every time the Democrats have pushed it in with a free trade mark plank.

If you want to go in the hole following the Democratic party, go, we may pull you out after four years, and we may not. The cry of the distressed and suffering have been heard in America and we may to our sorrow hear it again.

When Wilson Took Money.

It turns out that Cyrus H. McCormack, the president of the harvester trust, was one of the "Princeton friends," that he gave $12,500 of the $85,000 they raised to get the nomination for Mr. Wilson. This no more proves that the harvester trust is behind Wilson than the support of Roosevelt by George W. Perkins put the harvester trust behind the Progressive nominee.

It does prove that Wilson himself was perfectly able to indorse this idea when the harvester man's money was contributed to promote his personal interest.

Cleveland H. Dodge told the story of the contribution on the stand in the senate committee. Dodge said he feared the government suits to dissolve the harvester company might arouse adverse criticism, and he asked McCormack to take the money back. The question finally was left to Governor Wilson. "The governor said he was perfectly willing to receive the money and was not afraid to take it," said Dodge. "Mr. McCormack gave the money just as he would to Princeton University."

That is a fair and reasonable view. The singular thing is that Wilson now seeks to deny this same standard to an opponent and to endeavor to campaign on that bases. It is wretched dodging and does not deceive the people. It does show the former head of Princeton resorting to unworthy tactics.

Cleveland H. Dodge, who testified to Wilson's theory of gifts to his campaign, is listed as a director of the Luckawanna Iron and Coal Company. But this is no proof that the coal trust is backing Wilson for the presidency in the understanding that he would show the coal trust more consideration than the coal trust did get from Roosevelt. It would be as unfair to charge that the coal trust is behind Wilson as it was for Wilson to charge that the steel corporation is behind Roosevelt.

The case of Jacob H. Schiff, another heavy Wilson contributor another man powerful in great corporation, is a similar instance.

Wilson's cause is injured rather than helped by his resorts to attacks on his presidential rival such as the charge that there is a "hallelujah chorus of big monopolies" behind Roosevelt. It has fallen to me to bare part of the burden and to continue the struggle as we had planned for him to do.

"Reluctantly, therefore, there are many reasons for my return that may be readily understood, I have yealded to the request of the Progressives of the nation, and shall in so far as I am able, continue this battle that means so much for our humanity."

Farm Journal Editor Predicts T. R.'s Election

The prediction that Colonel Roosevelt will sweep the country next month by a large majority is made by Wilmer Atkinson, editor of the Farm Journal. Straw votes taken by Mr. Atkinson show that the colonel leads Taft and Wilson three to one in New England, four to one in the middle west and as high as seven to one west of the Mississippi.

Mr. Atkinson was one of the speakers at a rally of Washington party supporters held at the home of Mrs. Gertrude W. Pennington, 4209 Chester avenue, at which Major Cassius E. Gillette, former chief of the water bureau, also spoke.

Major Gillette said that Colonel Roosevelt offers the only opportunity the people will have to regain the reins of government. He declared that Roosevelt with the courage to fight special privilege.

The Rural Telephone.

The farmer who enjoys a telephone at his home does not see how in the world he got along without one—and so is with his rural delivery in the matter of mail. The other day a farmer told us that he wanted to see about tobacco—he was going to go to a market a day's distance from his home and he happened to think about the telephone—which he didn't have. So he went to a neighbor's a mile distance, used his phone and ascertained a fact that surprised him to the effect that the Greensboro market was paying prices much higher than he expected to secure—so he came to Greensboro and was getting busy to see if he couldn't have the wire run into his home and said that the one trip would pay for what it cost. And all the farmer need do is to wake up—to look around and he can get about as many conveniences as the city chap—and yet escape the exactions of city life. The telephone has made all other things possible for him—he is in touch with the town and with its people, and he can sell on a rising market or escape a falling market by talking three minutes with his merchant. Wonderful what electricity has done for the human race—to say nothing about electrocution.—Greensboro, N. C., Everything.

About Cattle Ticks.

Columbia, S. C. Oct. 21, (Special) "It is conservatively estimated that the cattle tick causes a loss of between fifty and one hundred million dollars annually to the south." This statement is made by Dr. E. M. Neighbert, of the United States bureau of animal industry, who has charge of arrangements for the cattle dipping vat to be installed for demonstration purposes at the Fifth National Corn Exposition here next January. "By cooperative efforts," says Dr. Neighbert, "the tick can be eradicated from any farm, no matter what the conditions, within from six to nine months."

This cattle dipping vat at the exhibition will be used to demonstrate the practical use of this most effective and most certain method of ridding cattle of this pest. This demonstration is one feature of the comprehensive exhibit from the Federal Department of Agriculture, which together with the educational exhibits from main State Agricultural colleges and experiment stations, and competitive exhibits from many states, gives the Exposition its recognized value as a potent factor in the agricultural development of the nation.

"The cattle tick prevents safe breeding, handling and marketing of cattle because it transmits disease to every animal it infests," says Dr. Neighbert, in pointing out the necessity for eradication of the pest. "The cattle tick is easily, permanently and inexpensively eradicated by dipping cattle in a concrete vat containing the standard solutions."

Elon College Items.

Elon College, N. C. Oct. 21, 1912.

The enrollment has now passed 300 mark and others are to come. It is said that no other College in North Carolina has ever had so many pupils in its 22nd year. This is time, if an expectation is made of the special and technical schools maintained by the State itself.

Dr. J. J. Sumerbell, Dayton, Ohio, whose recent book, "Mountains of the Bible" has brought additional lustre for biblical scholarship, has been secured to deliver a course of lectures to the students here early in December. These lectures will in all likelihood begin on the evening of December the fourth and continue for several succeeding days. There will be no charge for these. No lectures or other public exercises given on the campus can be charged for in the future.

The Christian Orphanage of this place has given recently in several cities and towns of the State an entertainment and with great success, Greensboro, Burlington, Gibsonville, Haw River and Graham are among the places visited.

Rev. L. I. Cox, Rev. Jas. L. Eoster, and President Harper left this morning for Wadley, Ala. to attend the session of the Georgia and Alabama Christian Conference which convenes at that place Oct. 22-24. Several students from that section are in College here this year.

The Elon College Weekly has a circulation of about 1500. It is a high grade College publication and is edited by R. A. Campbell and is under the management of C. B. Riddle, a student from Lee County.

Miss Ethel Clements answered a request to give a recital in

COL. ROOSEVELT SHOT IN MILWAUKEE

With in every few seconds after Col. Roosevelt was shot a howl of rage went up. "Lynch him! Kill him!" cried a hundred men.

Col. Roosevelt himself in the prisoners behalf.

He raised his hand and motioned to the crowd to fall back.

"Stop, stop," he cried "stand back, don't hurt him."

The men in the crowd at first were not disposed to heed his words, but at length fell back and permitted Martin and Captain Girard to carry the man into the hotel. "Are you hurt Colonel?" a hundred voices called out.

"Oh no," he responded with a smile. "Missed me that time. I'm not hurt a bit."

"I think we'd better be going on," he said to the other members of his party. "or we will be late."

No one in the party including Col. Roosevelt himself, entertained the slightest notion that the Colonel had been shot. He felt no shock or pain at the time and it was assumed that the bullet went wild. As soon as the Colonel had assured himself the assassin was safe in the hands of the police he gave orders to drive to the auditorium. They had driven hardly one of the four blocks from the hotel the auditorium when John McGrath Col. Roosevelt's secretary uttered a sharpe exclamation and pointed to the Colonels breast.

"Look, Colonel," he said "there is a hole in your overcoat"

Colonel Roosevelt looked down and saw the hole then unbuckled the big army coat which he was wearing and thrust his hand beneath it when he withdrew it his fingers were covered with blood.

Colonel Roosevelt was not dismayed by his discovery.

"It looks as though I had been shot, he said," but I dont think it is anything serious."

Dr. Scurry Terrel of Dallas, Tex Colonel Roosevelt's physician, who had entered the automobile just before it started off, insisted that the Colonel return to the hotel. He paid no attention to the suggestion how ever and the car was driven on to the auditorium.

After the speech an examination showed that it had been made by a bullet of large size. It entered the fleshy part of his right breast half way between the lower rib. The physicians found that they knew no more after their examination than before as to the location of the bullet and it was decided to send for an X-ray machine to determine to what depth the missile had penetrated. While he was waiting for the X-ray machine. Colonel Roosevelt sat upon the operating table and talked politics and joked with the physicians.
