Nothing Can Undermine It in Burlington.

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been hum-bugged in the past.

Mrs. Sarah Andrews, Webb Ave., Burlington, N. C., says: "I am always willing to give Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement, knowing from personal experience that they are a good remedy for kidney trouble."

LASTING EFFECT.

On January 14, 1911, Mrs. Andrews was interviewed and she said: "I am glad to make the fact known that the cure effected by Doan's Kidney Pills three years ago has been permanent."

"True To Poll."

Alluding to our social-betterment program Mr. Wilson asked: "With that program who can differ in his heart, who can divorce himself in sympathy with the great object of advancing the interests of human beings wherever it is possible?"

Our sympathy for the program of social betterment is not alone with our hearts—it is with our heads and with our hands as well. There is no use whatever in harboring sympathy in one's heart for a movement, unless one is prepared actively to help that movement along.

Now, I do not value such purely platonic fidelity as is implied in having a heart "true to Poll" and a conscience that does not interfere with all of the other marriages; and in just the same way I am interested in, but not convinced by the statement that the hearts of our opponents are "true to Poll"—with our principles, though at the same time with head and hand they oppose the only platform that deals with these principles and the only party that can realize them.—Theodore Roosevelt, in Saturday Evening Post, October 24.

RURAL CARRIER EXAMINATION

at Graham and Burlington for Alamance county Saturday Nov. 16, 1912.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination on the date and at the places named above, as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a vacancy in the position of rural carrier at Mebane and other vacancies as they may occur on rural routes at post offices in the above-named county, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill the vacancy by reinstatement, transfer, or promotion.

Age limit, 18 to 55, on the date of the examination. The maximum age limit is waived in cases of persons honorably discharged from the United States military or naval service.

An applicant must have his actual domicile in the territory supplied by a post office in the county for which the examination is announced.

The examination is open to all male citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

Application Form 1341, and full information concerning the requirements of the examination, can be secured from the secretary of the local examining board or the postmaster at any of the places named above, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington. As examination papers direct from the Commission to the places of examination, it is necessary that applications be received in ample time to arrange for the examination desired at the place indicated by the applicant.

An eligible register for the position of rural letter carrier for each county will be maintained. A person must be examined in the county in which the post office that supplies his home is situated. As a result of such examination he may become eligible to appointment as rural carrier at any post office in such county. A rural letter carrier after one year's satisfactory service may be transferred to the position of clerk or carrier in a first or second class post office, to the position of railway mail clerk, or to the other position in the classified service, subject to such examination as may be required by the civil service rules.

JOHN C. BLACK, President.

Eligibles on registers established prior to March 1, 1912, can be considered for appointment only at the office for which they were examined. Such eligibles may be examined within one year from the date of their former examinations upon failing applications showing that they meet the requirements of the new examination, their old eligibility for their home offices not being canceled.

Pe-ru-na and Ka-tar-na

I have received a letter from a young lady, who asks me: "Is the old Pe-ru-na (Ka-tar-na) better than the revised Pe-ru-na?" Either medicine has its place. One is adapted for one condition, another for another.

There is a difference, however, in the two remedies. Whenever catarrh is associated with constipation then the revised Pe-ru-na is the best. Indeed, this is exactly why the revision was made, to meet such cases. But where no laxative is needed, where the bowels are regular or inclined to be loose, then the old Pe-ru-na (Ka-tar-na) is the better remedy.

Washington Gladden Supports Roosevelt.

Columbus, O., Oct. 23.—In a public statement today the Dr. Washington Gladden, of Columbus, preacher, editor and publicist of national reputation, aligned himself with the Progressive party, and announced his decision to vote for Col Roosevelt for president.

When Woodrow Wilson was nominated by the Democrats, he was strongly inclined to support him, says Dr Gladden. Since then, however the Progressive party was born and the inadequacy of the Wilson trust program has become so apparent that he has decided to cast his lot with the Progressives, who he believes, presents a rational and effective method of controlling monopolies.

"The Democratic party proposes to maintain and enforce competition by judicial process," he says. "The Progressive party proposes to supervise and control combinations of capital by administrative commission. The one looks toward dissolution of trusts. The other toward their regulation by executive commission."

Commenting on the Wilson argument that competition is necessary to stimulate industry, Doctor Cladden says significantly: "Competition has its stimulating uses, but its enormous waists must also be taken into account the waists of discarded machinery. How much does this subtract from the product of industry? The scrap heap is useful, but it seems to me that it has become a great mountain, under which uncounted utilities are hidden every year."

"Has any one tried to figure up how much the scrap heap adds to the cost of living?"

Ten Wives Lay Claim To Man Held For Theft.

An astonishing story of bigamy and crime was told today when Addison F. Elsworth was arraigned before Magistrate Beaton on a charge of embezzlement. It was testified by city detectives that Elsworth had at least ten wives in different parts of the country, including several in this city. He was held in $500 bail for court.

Since the man's arrest a week ago on a warrant sworn out by the Home Insurance Company with offices in the Drexel building who charge him with embezzling about $200, the detectives have received numerous letters from women living in Maryland, New York and all parts of Pennsylvania, who claim they are married to Elsworth. In most cases the women charge they were swindled of what ever money they possessed.

Magistrate Beaton held the man under $500 bail for court, and as he was unable to furnish bond was remanded to the county prison.

In the meantime detectives are investigating his past.

Earlier in the day Elsworth was held in $2000 bail for court by Magistrate Cornan, in the central police station on serious charges preferred by Miss Anna Stockea, of 1631 North Clarion street, and Elsworth's 17-year-old daughter, Eva who lives at 1611 Mount Vernon street. Elsworth is wanted in Allentown, Easton, Pitsburg and other Pennsylvania towns, where he is alleged to have swindled women out of sums of money.

POLLS POINT TO T.R. VICTORY AS THEY DID IN STATE PRIMARIES

Straw votes taken throughout Pennsylvania show an overwhelming sentiment for Theodore Roosevelt, as they do in many other states. On trains, in factories on the street, in theaters and other places where people congregate the polls almost invariably give the Colonel a lead. Wilson is generally second and Taft third, but in some instances Debs leads the president.

Similar votes taken during the primary campaign gave Roosevelt a long lead over Taft in this state, but the significance of the polls was not realized until, in the primary election, Roosevelt swept the state. Now the polls are regarded as real "straws" that show the direction of the political breeze.

The Post Office Department demands that you pay your subscription to The State Dispatch or that we stop sending the paper.

CANDIDATES FOR THE SENATE MAKE PUBLIC CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

Raleigh, Oct. 25.—Senator F. M. Simmons, Governor W. W. Kitchin and Chief Justice Walter Clark candidates for the United States senate in the strenuous campaign now pending, made public tonight their campaign expenses to date as required by the United States statute and Senator Simmons gave out an additional statement showing his total expenses that include stationary, telegrams, telephones, postage, letter writing, printing, other than newspapers and personal traveling expenses, none of which are required to be reported under the statute.

Senator Simmons' total expenses, required to be reported under the statute amounted to $5,788.

Governor Kitchin's total expenses, reported under the statute, amounting to $5,452.

Judge Clark's expenses under the statute amounted to $1,420. Senator Simmons is the only candidate who reports all additional expenses not required to be reported, the other two candidates saying that the agreement did not include publishing expenses other than those reported to Washington and they, therefore, made no effort to gather these items.

These additional expenses of Senator Simmons for postage, printing, other than newspapers, traveling expenses and other items amounted to 6,037, bringing his entire expenses for the entire campaign up to $11,825. Senator Simmons paid for newspaper advertising, $5,341, of this the News and Observer received $1,572; Charlotte Observer, $245; Greensboro News and Asheville Gazette News, $39.

Governor Kitchin's report shows $1,600 paid for newspaper advertising, of which the News and Observer received $751; Charlotte Observer, $466, and Greensboro News, $18.

Judge Clark's statement shows $571 paid for newspaper advertising, the News and Observer receiving $113; Charlotte Observer, $93, the Charlotte News, $40 and the Greensboro News $3. Bruce Craven received $375 salary and expenses. Others receiving much smaller amounts for campaign work expenses are F. D. Hackett, W. A. Nicholson, J. M. Sharp, C. O. McMichael, H. S. Ward, D. M. Clark, P. W. Glidewell, E. R. Pace.

Senator Simmons reports $2,416 contributed by friends toward his campaign expenses, giving the names of the contributors.

Governor Kitchin reports $592 contributed by friends toward his campaign.

Judge Clark reports that no contribution has been made toward his campaign expenses.

Hints to Progressive Workers.

In the confusion incident to the formation of a new party and the placing of a new party column on the official ballot. It is none too early to consider plans to make effective every possible atom of Progressive strength. We have not the well oiled and well financed machine of the older parties. We have the cause, the candidates, the zeal and the energy. Let us see to it that that zeal and energy is properly used.

It frequently happens that to the registration lists are added the names of voters who falsely make affidavit of illness or absence from the city on regular registration days. These men are useful in the hands of corrupt politicians and are used only by such. Let Progressives be on guard that none such names are sworn on to the rolls this year.

Another very important is to secure plenty of competent watchers for the polls on election day. Let the Washington party committeeman arrange so that these watchers can be on duty from the time the polls open until the result is posted.

 The Greensboro News must be getting shy of encouraging Wilson dope.
 In its issue of the 29th it carried a story of Mr. Zeb Vance Waiser going to Washington and on to New York to National Progressive Headquarters to get money to send out the state ticket. Well brother you had better get a little closer to the Progressive line of march.
 The state ticket was delivered to the various county chairmen a week ago, and you are sadly behind the times, with your gossip. But we are not surprised at your Wilson dope but it must be getting low in the can, or you might get a better quality.
 In a personal letter from the Farm Journal, Philadelphia, to Wilmer Atkinson Editor.
 In referring to the Outlook he says as follows:
 It looks to me as if T. R. was going to win with a rush, but if he does it will surprise the Taft and Wilson men immensely.

Will Vote For Roosevelt.

I am very much interested in reading the different comments of your subscribers, and would like to add my experience. Having cast my first vote for Abraham Lincoln's second administration, I have never failed to vote the Republican ticket since except that I did not vote for Taft and voted for William J. Bryan instead. I always believed the Republican principles were for the interest of the people, and I cannot think otherwise than that Roosevelt is the real Republican that the party men should stand for and sustain, since he is earnest and honest to proclaim liberty throughout the land.
 We have been led long enough by the nose. The people should weigh well the issue and vote for the man that is going to break up the trusts and combinations in business. I, for one, am ashamed of the kind of convention at Chicago that forced the nomination of Taft, and my vote, if God spares me, will be cast for Roosevelt, as the man strong and able to manage this government and give the people a square deal.
 We are blessed to have a paper like The North American, that is fearless to proclaim the truth, and its editorials are the best of any other paper in the land.
 LIFELONG REPUBLICAN.
 Philadelphia, Oct. 21.

Our Leaders Few.

Many papers speak of Roosevelt as being necessary to the Progressive cause and ridicule the idea, but when in our history did we do anything else but depend on one man in a crisis?
 George Washington, our leader, won the fight for human liberty that changed the history of the world.
 Abraham Lincoln issued the emancipation proclamation that freed the slaves and sounded the deathknell to human slavery.
 Unfortunately, but too true, we have to generally depend upon one man. One would think in this age of progression, with means of education so rosy, men of original ideas in statesmanship would be common; but such is not the case, and where theoretically we should have plenty of men to deal with great questions in practice we have few.
 The qualifications that few possess to fit them for real leaders or statesmen can only come through having the spirit to understand and a conception of conception of conditions in line with the rights of man as opposed to the rights of capital.
 B. L.
 Paulsboro, N. J., Oct. 21.

Proud of Roosevelt.

"God bless Theodore Roosevelt!" This expression, though unuttered by the human lips, is in thousands of hearts today, and especially among the "men and women most oppressed," whose lives this modern Moses aims "to make a little easier."
 The writer represents the women toilers, those who are bearing the burden and heat of the day toiling early and late, conscientious, earnest, faithful, loyal in each detail. Sometimes the burden seems almost too heavy to be borne. What, with the high cost of living, such a fearful reality, and the wage scale failing to correspond, the burden is indeed great. But suddenly, in the seeming hopelessness, God sends forth another Moses to deliver his "oppressed" "common people," and hope arises in our hearts.
 Theodore Roosevelt scorned to rest and take life easy, and with his life hanging in the balance, said, "I have altogether too many important things to think of to pay any heed, or feel any concern over my own death." Yes, the cause must go on with Theodore Roosevelt at the head.
A WOMAN WAGE-EARNER.
 Reading, Pa., Oct. 17.

The Tariff.

We have been reading about the Democrats low Tariff or rather putting the necessities of life on the free list. Now it is not generally known that hides are on the free list but they are and what has been the result since then. Let us see about it before they were put on the free list the Mfg. said put them on the free list and leather would be lower than when they were under the tariff, leather (shoe) sold for 30 cents and 40 cents per pound now you can not buy a lb. for less than 50 cents (when you can get it.)
 Harness and leather was 25 cents per lb, now 60 cents per lb, now does that sound like lower price. Now take shoes (for which you can not get any such substitute, that everybody has to wear and how are the prices everybody knows are high a shoe that sold 10 years ago $1.50 are sold now for $3.00 or more and are not half as good. Now if everything makes that much change we want nothing put on the free list. We want everybody to inquire in to this and other matters and if the Democrats are right vote for them and if the Progressive is right vote for them take your choice, gentlemen.

MONEY IN ELECTIONS.
 Notwithstanding the conditions it REVEALS, the investigation of the campaign contributions to the fund of the different candidates now going on, shows that public sentiment is CHANGING and that POLITICS IS BEING PURIFIED. In the LIME-LIGHT OF PUBLIC EXPOSURE the influence of the money power is seen, and from this time on, they will at least have to adopt different methods of influencing candidates and would-be candidates. The investigation shows that it takes money to run campaigns, even legitimately, and shows that the money interests do not mind coming across with the "FILTHYLUCREY" in order to elect their favorite.
 Take the graft and money out of POLITICS and you will have fewer party BOSSES and PROFESSIONAL POLITICIANS. The man who has never undertaken to conduct a political campaign can have no conception of the demands that are made upon the treasury. Men who should be ABOVE SUCH THINGS are the first that make a break for the CAMPAIGN FUND.
 WE NOTICE that in many COUNTIES and STATES, campaign managers of all parties are making AGREEMENTS to CUT ON THE USE OF MONEY in the conduct of the campaigns.
 WE CONGRATULATE THE COUNTIES AND THE STATES THAT ADOPT these AGREEMENTS. LET US FIGHT the thing out on PRINCIPLE and not let MONEY have the POWERFUL INFLUENCE that it has had during the PAST QUARTER of a CENTURY.

Oakdale Notes.

Our county candidates came around to see us a few days ago following the sheriff Mr. Cook. The crowd was very small farmers being very busy and also it not being generally known but we will be at out in full blown the 5th of November and elect T. R. if they will all do their part with us. We expect to carry Old Patterson by a large majority.
 The Patterson T. R. Sunday School convention met at Pleasant Union the 3rd sabbath in October and had a fine convention under the leadership of Mr. Charley Moser it was pronounced the best in its history well we know why because it was all home made. There was nothing but home talent those that deserves mention were Prof. Kimes of Rock Creek, Mr. Carter of Pleasant Hill, Miss Eula Dixon Prof. J. A. Hornaday and Mr. W. L. Hudson. The singing was also fine led by Prof. Carter in the A. M. and by F. L. Spoon in the P. M.
 Mr. Sam Linens has moved from among us. We are sorry to lose him.
 The school at Oakdale will open Nov. 11 with Miss Rowley of Mt. Airy, N. C. as principal and Miss Stalling of Forshee assistant.
 If your bread has not been good, try Melrose, Dan Valley, and Gold Medal Flour.

Vote Your Conviction.
 A few years ago a number of hosiery manufacturers of Burlington not being satisfied with the hosiery trade, and with the fear that Congress would reduce the duty of hosiery, prepared petitions and had all of their employees to sign same thereby asking for a higher duty on hosiery. Their wishes were granted by the increase of the duty, but the following November, these same gentlemen with one exception, voted boldly for a free trade Congressman, Maj. Steadman. That's a fair sample of Democracy, want a thing but go in the opposite course.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, but Cardui relieved me."

Popularity, Not Money.

As the senate investigation proceeds it begins to be very apparent that Roosevelt carried the vast majority of Republican states in the presidential nomination fight by reason of his popularity and not because of the money spent in his campaign. Wherever figures have been given showing amounts spent by both sides, it is shown that the anti-Roosevelt forces spent three, four and sometimes ten times as much money to secure delegates as did the Roosevelt forces.

It is also known that the anti-Roosevelt forces were well organized, having all the federal machinery and the old-time politicians back of them, and a good organization of experienced politicians can make one dollar go farther than a lot of raw recruits can make five.

Plus all this actual cash was the federal patronage thrown into the balance against Roosevelt. Yet in face of all this Roosevelt carried the states having primaries and had an overwhelming majority of the delegates from Republican states.

The more facts the senate investigation brings out the more apparent it becomes that Roosevelt's strength was the faith the people had in him.—Evening Times.

ROOSEVELT LEAD IN TEST VOTES GROWS; TAFT IS OUT OF RACE

Almost unanimously the straw votes taken in New York give Theodore Roosevelt a lead over Wilson and Taft, often a majority over both. The Progressive nominee's lead is growing. His showing is tremendously impressive.

In Pittsburgh a newspaper supporting Taft announces results of its poll, giving the colonel a majority over Taft and Wilson. Taft runs fourths, Debs being third.

Polls outside New York show Roosevelt's great strength. A Taft newspaper polled fourteen Brooklyn theaters. Roosevelt led for president and Straus for Governor.

T. R., 2857; Wilson, 1631, in Pittsburgh Poll.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 24.—The Pittsburgh Press, which is supporting President Taft, continues its postcard poll, the total to date being:

Pittsburgh—Wilson, 1631; Taft 848; Roosevelt, 2857; Debs, 1165; Chafin, 110.
Boroughs in Allegheny county—Roosevelt, 80; Taft, 27; Wilson, 66; Debs, 26.
Beaver county—Roosevelt, 270; Taft, 146; Wilson, 149; Debs, 108; Chafin, 15.
Westmoreland county—Wilson, 344; Roosevelt, 329; Taft, 136; Debs, 83; Chafin, 9.
In the total Roosevelt has a majority of 378 over Taft and Wilson.

WOMAN'S ACCUSATION STOPS SUICIDE VERDICT

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 24.—It was supposed that Joseph Waitkus had committed suicide when his body was found in a rooming house to day. A revolver, said by his landlady to have belonged to Waitkus, was found beside the body.

An inquest was being held this afternoon when Mrs. Asna Rober rushed into the room and shouted: "Stop! Stop! He did not kill himself! He was murdered! There stands the man who killed him!" The man indicated was Joseph Brudas, husband of the woman from whom Waitkus rented his room. The jury was just about to return a verdict of suicide.

Mrs. Robert declared the revolver found beside the dead man had been purchased by Brudas. He was held.

TO PROGRESSIVE WORKERS

This will be the last issue of the Dispatch that will reach you before election day. We salute you as worthy soldiers in the greatest battle for the unity that this nation has yet seen. The past one hundred days have witnessed a political revolution that has actually taken place. The old party leaders stand paralyzed in the presence of the Champion of human rights—The National Progressive Party. The old political bosses with their machines are in the scrap heap. A new day has dawned in American politics. New hope and inspiration have been given to the great masses of the common people of this nation. It now looks certain that on November 5th we will poll six million votes for our great, virile, fighting leaders, Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson.

At this writing the greatest living American, will have sufficiently recovered to deliver his great message to the American people at Madison Square Garden to-day.

Telegraphic advice from every State received this morning shows a tremendous movement everywhere to the Progressive Party. All the big industrial centres it looks like a veritable landslide Tuesday to Col. Roosevelt.

Great electoral States like Illinois and Pennsylvania are coming by pluralities of more than one hundred thousand.

This morning one of the New York Daily Democratic Newspapers bitterly antagonistic to our leader and to our cause, prints the biggest test vote poll yet taken in New York City, which shows Roosevelt in the lead—Wilson second, with Taft and Debs running a hot race for fourth place.

It is generally conceded by the impartial observers, who had opportunity to know that in States like New York, Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas, New Jersey, Indiana, Washington, Maine, Connecticut, California the contest is absolutely between Roosevelt and Wilson—with nearly every test vote favoring the success of our candidate.

Throughout the Southland the reports are coming of the dawn of a new day. Georgia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Florida and Kentucky will each show a big vote for the Progressive ticket. The final result is now hanging in the balance.

Five additional votes to the precinct on November 5th will assure the triumphant election of Roosevelt and Johnson.

Just before the opening guns at Trafalgar that great Sea Captain Admiral Nelson, hung out the signal to the fleet, "England expects every man to his duty." Each individual "man behind the gun" his full duty, and the map of Europe was changed that day.

If every individual soldier in our great Progressive Army of the Commonwealth will do his or her full duty from now on until the polls close on November 5th, we will hang our Progressive banners upon the dome of the Capitol at Washington on March 4th, 1913.

Following the "14 Important Improvements" of 1912, the Hendee Mfg. Co. announce no less than a dozen additional features in their 1913 model of the Indian Motorcycle.

By far the most significant feature of the new machine is the Cradle Spring Frame. It is something entirely new, a radical departure from the conventional bicycle and recent motorcycle systems of "springing." Briefly, the new device consists of the application to the rear wheel of the Indian Cradle Spring device as used on the front fork for the past three years.

Extending back horizontally from the frame joint cluster under the saddle, flanking the rear mud guard, are two 7-leaf Chrome Vanadium steel springs. The "C" shaped curls at the rear end of these springs are connected by stays to bell-cranks on which the rear axle is hung. The forward end of the rear fork has a hinge joint which enables the rear wheel to yield to imperfections of road surface. All shocks are completely absorbed by the leaf springs. The rear wheel can go through almost any vertical motion without affecting the body of the machine. There is no "bottom" to this spring device. The life of the machine is greatly increased.

The Engineering Department of the Hendee Mfg. Co. devoted 18 months of exhaustive test to the Cradle Spring Frame before finally deciding on its adoption for all models of the 1913 Indian Motorcycle.

In addition to the Cradle Spring Frame, the 1913 Indian embodies 10 other important improvements which will be appreciated by motorcycle riders in general. Prices remain the same as last year.

New style, single link rear larger tires, wider mud guards; casing for upper stretch transmission chain and curved sprocket; larger luggage carrier in rear, fitted to all models; rests, as well as pedals, fitted regular 4 h. p. and 7 h. p. models now operates band brake as well as the pedal action; larger multiple disc clutch now fitted all models alike; improved Indian type saddle.

All 1913 Indians will be hand driven and finished in Indian style.

Governor Wilson's Words About Trusts and His Deeds - His New Jersey Record

Governor Wilson is now making his campaign chiefly upon the issue, or rather upon his own misrepresentation of one phase of the trust issue. He distorts the Progressive programme regarding trusts and then assails that programme as mistated by him. What his own policy is the public does not know. If he has a definite policy, his speeches have not disclosed its details. One he has made clear, and that is his insistence upon the theory that the trust question must be dealt with by the States. He has said: "Of necessity, the States are the chief battlegrounds of economic reform. It is the States that incorporate the great business undertakings that threaten to bulk larger than the States themselves in the power which they exercise. The big corporations owe their license to the inadequacy of State laws or their non-enforcement." Holding this conviction, how has he lived up to it? He has been Governor of New Jersey for nearly two years—chief executive of the State responsible for the creation of more trusts than all others combined. Colonel Roosevelt has cited Governor Wilson's record as the trust problem in that office. In pursuance of his advocacy of States' rights, he officially assumed the task of correcting trust evils within his reach; that he had power to accomplish the object; that he deliberately ignored his duty and obligation; and that by his refusal to act he has extended protection to trusts legally convicted of crimes. Governor Wilson apply the parable of the talents to our several States in office on the trust question," says Colonel Roosevelt. "President, I had ten talents intrusted to me, and I used them all. As Governor, Mr. Wilson had at least one talent intrusted to him. He buried it in a napkin, and as yet has not even dug it out." Governor Wilson's responsibility faced him from the very moment he took office, in the fact that the most odious, the most flagrant, the most critical of the trusts—whether formed before or during Governor Wilson's term—have had their birth in the Governor's own State and operate to-day under protection of the laws of New Jersey. This is a mild statement of the case. New Jersey has been in fact a breeding ground for trusts. Its laws have been deliberately framed and doctored so as to invite incorporation under them of predatory interests operating in every part of the country. It is Governor Wilson's State which has won a shabby notoriety by lawfully entreating these freebooters of commerce, giving them safe harbor, and sending the piratical craft forth to prey upon the people under the flag of New Jersey. Among the most notorious may be mentioned— The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey $98,000,000 of stock, found guilty by the Supreme Court of the United States of flagrant violations of the law. The shoe machinery trust, $38,000,000, the heinousness of whose practices Mr. Wilson may learn from one of his chief supporters, Louis D. Brandeis. The glucose trust, $88,000,000, some officers of which are also officers of the oil trust. The sugar trust, $90,000,000, convicted of cheating the United States government. The powder trust, $61,000,000, under prosecution by the Federal authorities, and significantly incorporated in New Jersey by interests which saw there better opportunities than they could find even in their property, the State of Delaware. The tobacco trust, $100,000,000, found guilty by the United States Supreme Court of criminal acts. The distillery trust, $48,000,000. Not to carry iteration too far, we shall summarize the situation by citing the fact that the laws of New Jersey, now administered by Governor Wilson have created during the last few years 7,900 trusts and combinations, with a total authorized capitalization of nearly seven billion dollars. "Fast and numerous," indeed, has been the production of his State. Governor Wilson will not raise the objection that this scandalous and menacing condition is outside the bounds of his official province. He himself has barred such a plea. He himself officially and formally assumed the obligation of meeting the emergency not only the evil, but his duty to combat it, and pledged the authority of his office to that cause. The greater part of his inaugural address on January 17, 1911, consisted of an exposition of the public wrongs due to New Jersey's trust-stimulating laws and to his demand that prompt measures be taken to eradicate the abuses. Among other things he said: "We are much too free with grants of charters to corporations in New Jersey. A corporation exists only by license of law, and the law is responsible for what it creates. It can never rightly authorize any kind of fraud or imposition. The law cannot give its license to things of that kind. It thereby authenticates what it ought of right to forbid. "I would urge, thereby, the imperative obligation we are under to effect such changes in the law of the State as will henceforth effectually prevent the abuse of the privilege of incorporation, which has in recent years brought so much discredit upon our State." Governor Wilson recognized his "imperative obligation" to invoke the power of the State, not only as regards new trusts but the old ones; for, specifying the kind of changes he demanded, he said: "And such scrutiny and regulation ought not to be confined to corporations seeking charters. They ought also to be extended to corporations already operating under the license and authority of the State. For the right to undertake such regulation is susceptible of easy justification." There was a great deal more to his statement than we have quoted all of it admirable, almost Rooseveltian in energy. But the mere presentation of the case exhausted his zeal, even his interest. As the year 1911 passed the resounding call of duty fell on ears that grew steadily duller. Not a paragraph, not a sentence, and trust evils appeared in Governor Wilson's first annual message, and neither before time nor since has any further recommendation on the subject come from him, nor has any bill whatsoever aiming at the enforcement of his stirring demands been presented in the Legislature or outlined by the Executive. On May 15, four months after the Governor had committed himself to fighting trust evils under States' rights the Supreme Court of the United States found New Jersey's premier trust guilty of flagrant crimes. It was of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey that the decree held. "The acts and dealings established by the proof operated to destroy the potentiality of completion. The control which resulted was a combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade in violation of the first section of the act, but also an attempt to monopolize, and a monopolization bringing about a perennial violation of the second section. . . . The acts and dealings necessarily involved the intent to drive others from the field and to exclude them from their right to trade, and thus accomplish the mastery which was the end in view." Two weeks later the same court convicted another combination created by the laws of Governor Wilson's State. It was of the Tobacco Trust that the formal ruling said: "The history of the combination is replete with the doing of acts which it was the obvious purpose of the statute to forbid, demonstrative of the existence of a purpose to acquire dominion and control of the tobacco trade by methods devised in order to monopolize the trade by driving competitors out of business, which were ruthlessly carried out upon the assumption that to work upon the fears or play upon the cupidity of competitors would make success possible. . . . We decree the combination to be a restraint of trade and an attempt to monopolize and a monopolization, within the first and second sections of the act." Here, as a result of prosecutions instituted by Theodore Roosevelt were two peculiarly odious trusts certified to Governor Wilson as proven and convicted violations of the law, as guilty of that kind of "imposition" and "abuse of the privilege of incorporation" which he had pledged himself to eradicate. He was not called upon to undertake long and costly litigation; that had been done for him upon the initiative of Roosevelt. Governor Wilson fears the "extension of federal power" over such combinations. The States, he holds have the rights and duty to deal with them. Yet as Governor of a State, with two of the most dangerous combinations delivered to his authority, indicated prosecuted and convicted by the nation's highest tribunal, he did not lift a finger to indicate the law, to punish the criminal combines or to protect the public. Was it his duty to act? He proclaimed his sense of the "imperative obligation." Had he the power to act? Beyond question or doubt. The laws of New Jersey, bad as they are, explicitly provide for the most drastic and effective action in such case. These trusts depend upon the government of New Jersey for their powers, for their very life and both may be cut off for proved defiance of law. If the Oil Trust and the Tobacco Trust have been guilty of monopolization or have worked unwholesome mergers or stock issues—and they have been convicted of these crimes—their charters can be readily amended, altered or repealed. Governor Wilson had at his command Section 4 of the Corporation Act, as follows: "The charter of every corporation or any supplement thereto or amendment thereof, shall be subject to alteration, suspensive and appeal in the discretion of the Legislature, and the Legislature may at pleasure dissolve any corporation." Moreover there is a criminal statute in New Jersey which put into Governor Wilson's grasp a remedy which he has repealed, stated would be the most effective that could be devised. Chapter 287 of the laws of 1895 provides: "Any person or persons who shall organize or incorporate, or procure to be organized or incorporated, any corporation or body corporate under the laws of this State, with intent thereby to further, promote or conduct any fraudulent or unlawful object, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor." "Any person or persons who, being officers, directors, managers or employees of any corporation or body incorporated under the laws of the State, shall willfully use, operate or control said corporation or body corporate for the furtherance or promotion of any fraudulent or unlawful object, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor." The fate of two trusts was in Governor Wilson's hands. They were guilty of flagrant crimes. They had been convicted of "conspiracy in restraint of trade," of "attempt to monopolize" and of "monopolization," their offenses being characterized in the act as misdemeanors, punishable by fine or imprisonment or both. He was committed to regulation by the State which created these trusts, under the laws he was sworn to administer. And he has ready to be invoked statutes which would destroy the evil power by canceling the trusts' license to prey. Governor Wilson met his duty by doing exactly nothing at all. The trusts legally condemned through prosecution begun by Theodore Roosevelt have had not the slightest interference from Woodrow Wilson. They still operate from behind the shelter of the laws which created them, and in defiance of the criminal statutes which Governor Wilson is supposed to enforce.

Serious Kidney Disease Treated By an Old-Fashioned Doctor

In 1880 I was practicing medicine in Millersville, Pennsylvania, a thriving farming community. A prominent citizen of that locality called at my office one day in a very feeble condition. So much so he had to be assisted in alighting from his wagon. I found on questioning him that he had been afflicted for about two years. He had consulted various doctors, among them a specialist from Philadelphia. They pronounced his disease to be Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was gradually falling in strength, losing flesh rapidly, and altogether presented a very pitiable spectacle, the remnant of a once strong and happy man. I had been treating a neighbor of his successfully. This neighbor had highly recommended me and thus it was he had come to me. He told me that the doctors had practically given up his case as hopeless and he felt free to consult any other physician. I hesitated to take the case, as I felt sure I could not do anything more than the other physicians had done. I told him so, yet he insisted upon my prescribing. I was a graduate of the Jefferson Medical Col-

Why Bosses Hate T. R. Did you ever stop to think that it takes a pretty strong man to inspire such hatred as is bestowed on Colonel Roosevelt? You may ask, why should they hate a strong man? Because he has power which they themselves would have, or which may be directed against them to their disadvantage. Again you ask, Whence comes this power? It arises from the confidence of his fellow-men. Without this no man can succeed in public life. To carry the analysis still further, you may ask what inspires faith and confidence in a public man? and I answer, honest purposes, kept promises, unselfish devotion to a principle, capacity for action, broad understanding, foresight, indomitable courage, ability to understand and sympathize with the people. These and other high qualities Roosevelt possesses, and then, too, he has been tried and proven. So you see, by the simple rules of logic their very hatred proves Roosevelt's greatness. In his case the people not only have confidence in his leadership but they love him, because he is a man, human and understandable, and because he is a fighter. If he lives until election day, the people will express their approval of him in a way that will surprise a lot of folks. An Ex-Republican. Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 17.

Roosevelt Magnanimous. "Father forgive; for they know not what they do." That can never have been the utterance of a self-seeking man. A man who is working for selfish advantage must, in the nature of things, resent an injury done directly to himself. Self-preservation is the only logic of selfish ambition. Many are willing to endure heavy trials to attain at last a coveted goal; but it is only that, in the end, they may be there to enjoy the things for which they have striven. A pet terrier of mine once had his foot caught in a steel trap set to catch rats. I tried to release him, but in his pain and terror he turned upon and bit me. No feeling of resentment was excited in me against him on that account; I felt only greater sympathy for the suffering that could so blind him as to the meaning of an act directed only to his own good. When a passion-crazed assassin aimed his murderous shot at the devoted breast of Theodore Roosevelt, it was no merely ambitious demagogue who spoke in him when he instantly said: "The poor creature. Don't hurt the man. Don't let any one hurt him." Recently a man said to me, "Roosevelt will get many votes from people who sympathize with him because he was shot." I replied, "My sympathy goes out to the poor deluded fool who will do himself the inimitable injury of destroying his true benefactor by not voting for him." A Point Of View Philadelphia, Oct. 21.

Colonel Out; Will Make N. Y. Trip In Special Car

Oyster Bay N. Y., Oct. 28. — For the second time since his return from Chicago, Colonel Roosevelt today ventured outdoors. He found that, while he was gaining strength he is far weaker than he had expected.

He still suffers occasional pains from the bullet wound and tires quickly. Only by mustering all the strength at his command will he be able to pull through the speech at Madison Square Garden on Wednesday night.

The colonel it was announced today, will be at the Garden without fail. But the doctors reiterated that they would permit him to speak only half an hour.

Roosevelt wants to ride to New York on Wednesday in his automobile, so he can get the advantage of the open air, but his doctors have decided otherwise. They insist that the jolting of the automobile would be likely to hurt the wound.

So a special car has been hired and Roosevelt will ride in that to the Pennsylvania terminal in New York. From where he will be taken to the Garden in an automobile.

The colonel walked around for nearly an hour visiting his stables. No political visitors went to the hill today. The colonel dictated letters to his stenographer after his morning ramble.

Hon Irdell Mears Spoke Saturday Night to Large Crowd.

Hon. Irdell Mears, Progressive nominee for Governor spoke Saturday night to a large crowd at the Brick Warehouse Mr Mears was introduced by Jar. N. Willimanson, Jr. one of the foremost Progressive leaders of the state.

His speech was two hours in length and every word told of glad tiding and great joy of the progressive party.

After expressing his pleasure of speaking to the audience he made a brief summary of the Chicago steal and the birth of the new party the principles of which have been livein' for ages.

He placed much stress on the wage earner showing how the Corporation which paid large Dividends often hired its employees at a compensation not sufficient to meet the requirements of living. The protection of the many who suffer death each year by the large corporations who employ hundreds of employees emphasized as a part of the Progressive plan and platform.

The moderation of the tariff as proposed by the progressives was made plain.

The pretty hobble in which the senatorial contest is being waged was amusingly discussed and caused trickling laughter which burst into an overflow of applause. Proving the inconsistency of a Democratic wrangle.

In a few words the speech was very good and was heard by a packed house.
