

THE STATE DISPATCH.

A PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE UPBUILDING OF AMERICAN HOMES AND AMERICAN INDUSTRIES.

VOL. V.

BURLINGTON, N. C., NOV. 13, 1912.

NO. 27

TAFT PROCLAIMS THANK-GIVING DAY.

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Taft today issued the Thanksgiving proclamation, setting aside November 28 for the observance of that day. The proclamation follows:

By the President of the United States of America:

"A God-fearing Nation like ours owes it to its inborn and sincere sense of moral duty to testify its devout gratitude to the All-giver for the countless benefits it has enjoyed. For many years it has been customary at the close of the year of the National Executive to call upon his fellow countrymen to offer praise and thanks to God for the manifold blessings vouchsafed to them in the past and to unite in earnest supplicant for their continuance.

The year now drawing to a close has been notably favorable to our fortunate land. At peace within and without free from the perturbations and calamities that have afflicted other peoples; rich in harvests so abundant and in industries so productive that the overflow of our prosperity has advantaged the whole world; strong in the steadfast conservation of the heritage of self-government bequeathed to us by the wisdom of our fathers and firm in the resolve to transmit that heritage unimpaired but rather improved by good use, to our children and our children's children for all time to come, the people of this country have abounding cause for contented gratitude.

Wherefore, I William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America in pursuance of the established usage and in answer to the wish of the American people, invite my fellow citizens, wherever they may be, to join on Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of this month of November, in appropriate expressions of praise and thanksgiving to God for the good gifts which have been our portion and in humble prayer that His great mercies toward us may endure.

In witness whereof I have caused to be set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed at the City of Washington, this seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-seventh.

"WILLIAM H. TAFT.
By the President: Alvey A. Adee, Acting Secretary of State."

Colt, Rhode Island Senator.
Providence, R. I., Nov. 6th.—The next general assembly will contain 85 Republicans and 51 Democrats and Progressives, giving Judge LeBarren D. Colt, Republican candidate for United States senate, majority of 34 on joint ballot. The Republicans control both houses.

Roosevelt Extends Congratulations to Progressive Party.

New York, Nov. 11.—Theodore Roosevelt made a formal statement tonight bearing upon election and the future of the Progressive party. In line with previous expression of his own, and of his colleagues, he reiterates that "that Progressive party has come to stay," and "so far from being over, the battle has just begun."

"I congratulate the progressive of the country—that is, I congratulate these good men and women who, with sincerity and purpose for the common good, had the vision to look into the coming years and see what the future demands from us.

"What the Progressive party has done since the theft of the Republican organization by the Republican bosses at Chicago last June is literally unparalleled in the history of the free government, worked under representative institutions.

"Three months have gone by since the new Progressive party was founded. Without much money, without any organization against the wealth of the country against the entire organized political ability of the country, against the bitter hostility of 90 per cent of the press of the country against the furious opposition of every upholder of special privileges, whether in politics or in business and with the channels of information to the public largely closed, the Progressive party has polled between 4,000,000 and 4,500,000 votes has hopelessly beaten one of the old parties, both in the electoral college and in the popular vote has taken second place in the nation and either first or second place in some 37 of the 48 states.

"No task in any way approaching this has ever before been performed by any party in our country. Such a feat, performed by volunteers hastily brought together and without any previous cooperation with each other, against the trained veterans of the political anathema trained mercenary forces of politics—should be a source of pride not only to those who performed the task but to the all soldiers in good citizenship and in the capacity of Americans for self-government.

"During the campaign, I said repeatedly that this was in no shape or may a one-man movement, but a movement for great principles—a movement which has sprung, as all healthy movements in our democracy must spring, from the heart and conscience of the people themselves. This truth must be kept steadily before the minds of all of us. This Progressive party has come to stay. If either of the old parties will endeavor to put into legislation any one of our planks it can count upon our hearty support in so doing; but we will not rest contented until the entire platform is enacted into law, and becomes part of our political system, national and state.

"I am proud, indeed, that the great good fortune has been mine to fight shoulder with the men and women, who, in the ranks, and in various positions of leadership have waged this great battle for ## social and industrial justice. So far from being over, the battle has just begun.

"We will not rest content until every feature of the Progressive program has been put into effect; and when this has been done, unquestionably there will have opened to us new avenues along which it will still be a duty to work for the moral and economic betterment of our people."
(Signed)
"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Foust Family Holds Reunion in Old Home

A happy and genuine surprise was given Saturday to Thomas C. Foust, who lives one mile south of Graham, when all his sons and daughters and their families joined him in a celebration of his birthday. His children had planned the reunion without informing either Mr. Foust or his wife and came with well filled baskets. It was the first time in many years the entire family had gathered in the old home.

Mr. Foust who is hearty and strong and who enjoys the best of health, early Saturday morning he left the dwelling for a large corn pile, remarking that he must get it shucked as soon as possible. The shucks were flying when a messenger from the house told him some company had arrived.

"Oh, well," said he I reckon the company can get along without me" and he pulled the shucks from another ear.

The company continued to arrive, however, and in a few minutes as one of his sons expressed it, "he got on to the racket" and went to see for himself. He found the house filled with his descendants.

Those present were: Dr. J. I. Foust, president of the State Normal and Industrial college, and wife and children, Mary and Henry; Prof. T. R. Foust, superintendent of public instruction of Guilford county, and wife and children; Roswell, Elizabeth, Eugene and Sarah; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Henley and child of Greensboro; F. L. Foust, principal of Pleasant Garden high school, and wife; Prof. and Mrs. L. Lee White and child of Winston-Salem; J. A. Foust, farmer, wife and child of Graham; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith, of Eion College; Miss Mamie Foust, of Graham; Miss Marian Foust, of Greensboro sister of T. C. Foust.

Finding the nature of the company Mr. Foust would not resume his corn shucking, but set himself to an entertainment of his children and grandchildren assisted by his wife, who herself is 75 years of age, but who like him, is blessed with rugged health. When some of the children suggested that they go to the corn pile and get the job done he would not hear to it, foreboding the custom that prevailed perhaps when the children were children in size. For that day he himself was contented to let the corn wait.

Mr. and Mrs. Foust have and their entire family have always enjoyed the best of health and prosperity. But one child an infant was lost.

PROCLAIM HOLY WAR IN TURKEY TO AID DEFENSE OF CAPITAL

Constantinople, Nov. 8.—The Sheik-Ul-Islam, head of the hierarchy in Turkey, to-day issued the following appeal for a holy war in a manifesto addressed to the Ulemas and Hodjas:

"With a view to exciting and encouraging the soldiers and enemies who surround us; their priests cross in hand are working in the ranks of the army. It is not fitting that our Ulemas should neglect the accomplishment of a similar duty.

"In order that the victory and glory promised by the Almighty may be granted without delay to the Ottoman army it is necessary that the venerable Ulemas organize a Jihad.

"Such a holy war has, moreover, become an obligation if the condition of the Ottoman soldiers who are heroes, is to be strengthened.

"Ulemas who feel that they possess the aptitude and strength to participate in this important task are invited to present themselves immediately at the Sheik-Ul-Islamat, which will send those selected to the army?"

There have been rumors for a day or two that the ministry was unstable, owing to its request for mediation by the European powers, but the newspapers say this situation has given way before the demand of the army and of public opinion that the war be continued.

The common danger seems to have united all parties. This is shown by the pervaded outburst of the newspapers of all political shades urging a fight to a finish. The explanation of this new-born unanimity may be found in the suggestion of one of the high government officials that even if it is found impossible to hold the lines at Tchatalja other defenses are possible before the enemy can reach this city. Every male who has reached the age of 19 years will be expected to be ready to perform his share in the duty of protecting the capital.

Mahmoud Shekret Pasha, ex-minister of war, saw Kiamil Pasha, the grand vizier, today. It is reported that Shekret will be appointed inspector general of the army.

According to Turkish official reports, Mussulman villages in the Palass and Kirdjare districts have been burned by Bulgarian troops and Daoud and Topuklu and surrounding villages also were destroyed.

An official dispatch received from the wali of Salonki, dated today, says that two squadrons of Bulgarian cavalry Thursday attacked the troops guarding the railway station at Orlu, three hours' journey from Adrianople, but that three Bulgarians were repulsed, losing thirty men killed.

There has been no developed in the direction of mediation by the powers in the war in the Balkans, according to information here. France, Great Britain and Russia are endeavoring to ## obtain the adherence of the triple alliance—Germany, Austria and Italy—to a policy of "disinterestedness" before undertaking mediation; but their success is doubtful.

It appears that France, Russia and Great Britain side with the Balkan allies, while Germany, Austria and Italy lean toward Turkey. The upshot of this situation is awaited here with some concern.

A dispatch from Hademkeui states that the Ottoman troops occupied Visa, south of Tirnovo, and have advanced as far as Kavakly. The Bulgarians have not occupied Chorul. Reconnaissances in that direction have resulted in finding thousands of Bulgarians dead.

Tcherkesskeul is in wireless communication with Adrianople where the situation is declared to be favorable. It is asserted that the city may hold out for several months.

Fresh troops are reaching Chorlu from Makrikeui, and reinforcements landed at Midia, on the Black sea, continue to join the right wing of the Turkish army. The reservists from Constantinople have proved themselves excellent soldiers and are fighting with great courage. Abdullah Pasha is in command of the Turkish forces at Tcherkesskeui and Mukhtar Pasha at Visa.

"Yes" he mused the thoughtful thinker "it's a sure sign."

"What's a sure sign?" he was asked.

"That when a young man begins to know that he doesn't know as much as he thinks he knows, then he begins to know something."

More Than 2,000 Laborers Idle by order of Grand Trunk Railway.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 10.—Construction work on the lines of the Southern New England Railway Company, the proposed extension of the Grand Trunk Railway system in Rhode Island and Massachusetts, has been ordered stopped at once by President Edson J. Chamberlain, of the Grand Trunk, throwing more than 2,000 laborers out of work. The suspension is announced as being for an "indefinite period."

President Chamberlain said in a telegram from Montreal, answering a message of inquiry from this city:

"Temporary stoppage of work on the Southern New England is a precautionary measure brought about by an unsettled money market."

The Election is Over, The Country is Saved.

But your eyes are not saved unless you see Dr. N. Rosenstein, the eye specialist, next Tuesday, Nov. 19th, at Burlington Drug Co. Dr. Rosenstein will be in Burlington that day for the purpose of examining eyes and fitting glasses. If you have really been unable to secure perfect eyeglass comfort, he designs each pair of glasses for each individual case. Call and inspect his new eyeglasses, without incurring any obligations.

Don't forget when you come to town and pay us that dollar

WINNERS APPRAISE PATRONAGE LIST.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Upwards of thirty millions of dollars will be the money value of the patronage that will be at the disposal of President-elect Wilson when he comes into the White House. This represents an army of office-seekers that will aggregate about 12,000. These two facts more than any other thing indicate the terrific pressure that will be brought to bear upon the White House and the unceasing hours of toil and labor that is before the new chief executive without regard to questions of public policy, and legislation along the lines of the party pledges and the public utterance of the candidate.

The offices named in the accompanying table are not protected by the civic service. They are at the disposal of the president and the demand for their immediate transfer from Republican incumbents to Democratic aspirants may be insistent. By a stroke of the pen many more could be removed from the shelter of the civic services.

President McKinley, who succeeded Cleveland, found so many Republicans clamoring for the offices from which for four years they had been ejected, that he made many exceptions and in great measure, under pressure, negated the force of the civil service law.

When Cleveland succeeded Harrison he went to the other extreme and declined to violate either the letter or the spirit of that law, and but few Democratic officials were appointed except administrative heads who were responsible either as chief or subordinate officials for the policy of the administration. How Mr. Wilson will act upon the return to power of his party, and the long absence from the public crib is a question that remains to be answered.

Socialists Polled Big Vote.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7.—Fourteen hundred and fifty precincts out of 1,903 in the state give for Governor Lister, Democrats, 78,187.

Hay, Republican, 77,527. For President, 1,238 precincts give: Roosevelt 70,162; Wilson 57,169; Taft 44,182.

The socialist vote in the state probably was three times that of 1908. In Snohomish county, Debs polled nearly 3,000 votes and Anna Maley, the candidate for governor, received more votes than either Hay or Lister.

WILSON CERTAIN TO CALL

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS EARLY.

Session Will Be Called Between March 15 and April 15.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—As forecast exclusively in the Daily News Thursday morning, President-elect Wilson will convene an extra session of Congress soon after he takes his seat in the White House March 4. The day of meeting will be between March 15 and April 15. The shortest tariff session on record is predicted. The backbone of the intended revision is available in the steel, wool, cotton, chemicals and sugar bills passed by the Democratic house and forced through the senate under the leadership of Senator Simmons of North Carolina.

The new Congress providing only that the senate is Democratic and this is as certain as anything can be, is expected to put through substantially the same measures passed last summer and vetoed by President Taft. The sole difference is that the Democratic legislators will now do their work with the knowledge that the reformed bills will be approved by the President.

Incoming members of Congress who have fought Wilson's battle both before and after his nomination to-day poohpoohed the rumor that the President-elect may wait until the regular session, a year from December, before undertaking to carry out the party's platform pledge of downward tariff revision; also the statement of Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, floor leader of the house and chairman of the ways and means committee, given out at Birmingham, is viewed as dissipating all doubt about this subject. Mr. Underwood regards the calling of an extra session a matter of course.

The dire prediction of business depression as to the result of Democratic tariff legislation is not taken seriously here. As one house leader today put it, President Wilson is too astute a man to "fall for such luff." In fine, the congressional leaders are confident new legislative, revising the tariff schedule by schedule, can quickly be put through Congress; as quickly put on the statutes and immediately proven a stimulus to rather than a drag upon business.

Geographical conditions absolutely prevent any protest on the part of Great Britain to the effect the Panama Canal ought to be moved so that it will be handier to London.

Colored Teachers to Meet

The colored Teachers Association of Alamance will meet in the Court House in Graham Saturday Nov. 16th, 1912, at 11 o'clock A.M.

Every teacher is asked to be present if possible. It is impossible to do the work in our school rooms without these meetings.

The subject, "How to secure and Hold Attention," will be discussed by members of the Association, led by Prof. J.F. Gunn. All come prepared to take part in the discussion.

Other topics will also be discussed. Prof. J. B. Robertson will be present and give a talk.

Dr. Hartman Answers Questions About The Revised Pe-ru-na

In response to a great many queries I wish to make public statement concerning the sale of Pe-ru-na. We are not selling as much Pe-ru-na as we used to. The reason for this is the change in the formula of Pe-ru-na. The patent medicine business is very peculiar and particular. A person who has been in the habit of taking patent medicine will notice very quickly the slightest alteration in color, taste or effect. It does not look as it used to, or smell as it used to, or have exactly the same taste as it used to. It does not feel exactly the same in the stomach as before. The medicine will be promptly returned to the drug store and a new bottle demanded.

After a year of explanation the formula of Pe-ru-na was changed. The other Pe-ru-na had been equipped with a new formula. It was a new thing to do now-a-days. Pe-ru-na as it is made today is very excellent remedy for catarrh of the bladder, an extremely distressing thing to do now-a-days. Pe-ru-na as it is made today is very excellent remedy for catarrh of the bladder, an extremely distressing thing to do now-a-days. Pe-ru-na as it is made today is very excellent remedy for catarrh of the bladder, an extremely distressing thing to do now-a-days.

I have authorized the formation of a company to manufacture it under the trade name of Ka-tar-no. The Ka-tar-no Co. is located in Columbus, Ohio and stands ready to supply the world with the old-time formula of Pe-ru-na under the name of Ka-tar-no. Send for free booklet. "Thou Shalt Not Steal."

To William H. Taft the verdict of the country is that theft will never be condoned by the American people. A stolen nomination for the presidency leads but to rebuke and humiliation.

The power of this high office great enough, when uncrupulys used, to defy the will of the most recently elected delegates to a republican national convention was not great enough to save Mr. Taft from a defeat unparalleled in the history of popular government. The man who when given power, betrayed the policies of the party that had so greatly honored him, and who preferred to dominate by fraud rather than obey his party's mandate, is now slated to return to the practice of law in Cincinnati.

May he never have to defend so poor a record as his own!

Carries Illinois

Chicago, Nov. 7.—With all but 130 precinct of 4,288 in Illinois reported Gov. Wilson tonight has a plurality of 9,437 over Col. Roosevelt and it is generally conceded that he has carried the state. All of the precincts to be heard are outside of them in the southern part of the State where further plurality for Wilson were anticipated.

The popular vote now stands: Wilson 339,428, Roosevelt 339,991 Taft 250,297.

The vote for Cook County was: Roosevelt 179,480; Wilson 138,223; Taft 79,924. In the 2,658 precincts out of 2,788 outside of Cook, the result stood: Wilson 291,205; Roosevelt 213,511; and Taft 170,363.

It became apparently today that Wilson soon would pass Roosevelt's vote. Through the day Wilson's gain was gradual.

Then when he was approximately 9,000 ahead of Roosevelt. It was discovered that the President-elect had been credited erroneously with 3,000 to many votes from Livingston County. This decreased plurality gave hope to the Progressives, but it was short-lived for almost every precinct reported from them on increased Wilson's lead.

Age of "Joy" Living

A group of fashionable women, acknowledged arbiters in the social life of this city, will meet some afternoon this week to discuss the "turkey trot." As pataions of numerous "affairs" given by the younger social set they hold themselves responsible for the good behavior of their fashionable proteges.

Certain dances, which have degenerated—rumor has it—in to saturnalia as the hours grew small and the music struck up a faster measure, have impelled these mothers to take counsel with one another. They are not sure that it is wise are safe even decent to countance dances which are at best vulgar, and at worst lascivious.

—As a precaution, if for no other reason, these mothers should take the action they contemplate.

But the "turkey trot" and kindred dances are only the expression of a tendency which has taken hold of the young people of the day, in and out of what is termed "society."

It is the same tendency that prompts extreme and freakish dress; that demands a Newport villa, a home in the Berkshires and motor trip abroad all crammed into a summer vacation; that makes girls in their teens ambitious to achieve fashionable marriages, with a divorce as soon thereafter as may prove convenient. It is the spirit of unrest, dissatisfaction, love for change, hatred of all that is monotonously respectable.

It is a spirit that goes far deeper than the "turkey trot," a spirit that cannot be dealt with as summarily as the dance which the mothers have found offensive. Let them eliminate the "turkey trot" none the less, and then turn to the harder task of straightening out their children's perspective.—Phila Times.

THE BATTLE STILL ON

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Colonel Roosevelt surveyed the field of battle to-day and gathered as much of the story of yesterday's defeat as he could piece together. His lieutenants in each State wired to him their reports, in many cases incomplete, and to-night Colonel Roosevelt still was in doubt as to just what the Progressive party had been able to accomplish in its first campaign.

There was nothing of the aspect of a beaten general and no hint of defeat in his manner. Colonel Roosevelt said he wants to tell his supporters everywhere what he thinks of the outcome and the outlook. The only reason that he didn't do so to-night was that he had not the facts at hand. "I want to find out just where we stand first," he exclaimed. "There returns are far from complete. When I have all the facts accurately, I shall make a statement."

The only thing which was accepted as a settled fact at Sagamore Hill to-day was that the fight was to go on. What methods Colonel Roosevelt will adopt are unknown, even to himself. "Of course, the fight will go on," he said, with an air of finality. "In the end the cause must triumph."

Close friends of Colonel Roosevelt said he was not surprised at Governor Wilson's election, because he was at no time confident, they asserted, that the new party would be able to win its first fight. The showing which the party made, his friends said, had pleased rather displeased its leader.

Colonel Roosevelt expects to drop back for the winter into the quiet life at home which he led before the campaign with trips to New York once or twice a week. He probably will be called upon once a month or oftener to make speeches, although he desires to avoid any long trips for many months to come.

 Entered as second-class matter May 30, 1908, at the post office at Burlington, North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3 1879.

Wednesday, Nov. 13, 1912.

One safe bet, that there are surprises awaiting the Post office aspirants.

Either a republican or a Simmons Democrat will get the post office, and it is our opinion that no Kitchin men need apply.

It would seem that the Kitchin men failed to land their man, but this does not deter them from trying to land the jobs.

It would seem to be one of the cardinal principles of the Kitchin men to try to get some one else's job and there are eighty five of them.

Eighty five candidates for the postmastership, and all of them Kitchin men truly they have the same spirit as their leader for pie, just plain old political pie.

Candidates for the Post Office, have a care gentlemen the Simmons men will have to be reckoned with before this large juicy piece of pie is distributed.

Can Senators Simmons and Overman be induced to play cheap politics in order to secure a small piece of pie for a Kitchin henchman? We shall see.

Twenty-one active aspirants for the post office and not one is a Simmons man, are the Simmons men content with their big victory that they do not want any pie.

There are a great many aspirants for the Post Mastership springing up, some of whom are clever gentlemen, and would make a clever and accomplished official, here's hoping that the best man may win.

The Dispatch being a progressive paper, we have no choice as to which henchman in either of the two old two parties get the post office if you want a good official take a progressive, however none of us are hungry enough to become candidates.

Why This Scramble?

Why all this scramble, for the Burlington Post Office? The applicant even if successful has no patronage to hand out, the assistant Post Master and all the clerks are under civil service and cannot be removed except for cause, and besides Post Master Waller's term expires under this the Republican administration, and if he does not succeed himself some other Republican no doubt will be appointed. Of course if the Democrats want to play politics with the post office department and withhold confirmation, they may be able to accomplish the defeat of the successful appointee, but surely our Democratic brethren will not be guilty of following in the footsteps of our Republican friends, and make a dumping ground of the post office department for democratic politicians, for this has been their hue and cry ever since we could remember. Would it not be the better part of decency to wait until after March the 4th., when the administration will be demoralized and then take whatever is in sight. We believe that to the victors belong the spoils, but wait gentlemen until the spoils are yours, and then go for them bald headed, but we say again, why all this scramble so early in the game.

Echoes of the Election.

While our Democratic friends are exulting over what they call a sweeping Democratic victory and reveling in the hope and anticipation of office and the spoils of office, they should not forget that their victory is not due to their own strength, but to division and dissension in the ranks of their opponents. Upon the whole, the result of the election nowhere shows any increase in Democratic sentiment.

As to the county election, we have every cause for encouragement except victory itself. Notwithstanding the division in the ranks, the disadvantage on the scores of unpaid poll tax, and the bitter senatorial contest, the Progressive held their opponents down to former majorities, and in some instances, reduced their majorities and members of all parties admit that the senatorial box was all that defeated our legislative candidate. No one can now deny that the Progressive Party has well high absorbed the Republican Party in this county.

The vote in the state is not without encouraging features; and the Charlotte Observer is reading the signs of the times correctly when it says that the recent election presages danger to the Democratic Party in this state in the future. The vote polled by the Progressives and the Republicans was remarkable under the circumstances. The overwhelming vote received in the primary by Senator Simmons shows the warning popularity of anti-protective tariff doctrines in North Carolina. The tariff record of Senator Simmons seems to have been a source of strength to him; and Governor Kitchin now says that he was misled by his friends when as a matter of fact, his free-trade arguments and denunciations of the tariff record of Senator Simmons combined to defeat him.

Many Democrats and Democratic papers of the state are now openly opposing an immediate revision of the tariff and the convening of an extra session of Congress for that purpose. Besides some counties like Cabarrus have turned over into the anti-Democratic column; and upon the whole Progressives have ample reason for gratification and encouragement from the election returns in this state.

But the Progressive won their greatest victory in the nation. When we take into consideration the age of the party and the time it was organized and the tremendous odds against which it had to fight, we have to admit that the achievements of the Progressive Party are without parallel in this or any other nation. No one can now doubt that it will absorb the remnants of the Republican Party and present a united front in the battles of the future. The result shows clearly that Col. Roosevelt was not properly treated at the first Chicago convention and that the Progressive Party is the only formable for to Democracy.

Everybody knows that the Democratic victory was largely an accident the result, not of the growth in Democratic sentiment but of division and dissension in the opposition and nothing is more certain that the Democrats will be defeated when the American people have another chance. If they carry out their platform they will wreck the business of the country as experience has abundantly shown and if they do not carry out their platform of course they will be defeated. History shows that this nation will not endure more than one Democratic administration for each generation. One object lesson has been enough for each generation and we are not looking for an exception to the rule.

Already the Democrats are hopelessly divided on the tariff. The Tariff-for-Revenue-Only Democrats are clamoring for an extra session of Congress to revise the "robber tariff" down to a revenue basis, while others who dare to call themselves Democrats in spite of Gov. Kitchin's denunciations, are insisting that there should be no extra session and no revision down to a revenue basis. Between these two classes stands Gov. Woodrow Wilson, claiming that the tariff should be lowered gradually and continuously so as not to hurt business. Thus the show has already begun and we fear the seeds of 94-97 are to be reproduced.

Dr. Wilson is "up against it" much as Cleveland was in the early nineties and the country will await developments with fear and trembling.

"Truth Though Crushed To Earth Will Rise Again."

I take this opportunity to thank my friends for the liberal support they gave me in the last election. Some good democrats and republicans were loyal to their convictions and supported me; not perhaps on account of personal preference, but on account of the reform measures I advocated. To these I tender my sincerest thanks. To the Progressive party whose cause I espoused, I owe my sincere gratitude and lasting obligations, not only for their faithful service and loyal support; but for endorsing the reform measures that I brought before the people of Alamance County. This in itself should commend the new party to the consideration of good men of all political creeds, and together with its many other virtues the new party deserves the confidence and respect of the best people in the county. I am truly glad I made the race. I have no longer to rely upon hearsay in regard to "corrupt practices" in Alamance County politics, for I have seen and now I know. It is awful beyond description. In the language of the Queen of Sheba upon her visit to king Solomon, "The half was not told." So far as my defeat for office is concerned that is a very small matter. I have no tires to shed either real or crocodile, I am in the fight to stay. No flag of truce need be offered. No compromise will be accepted.
 J. A. W. Thompson.

Grown-Up Boys.

Young people rarely realize, when criticising their elders, that the traits or habits that seem to them obnoxious were formed in early life. If their manners are rude if they lack tact, if they are not well informed it is because they have not made use of their opportunities. Manners are the truest indications of character. A discourteous person is both careless and selfish for the best manners are but the expression of the golden rule; they are the card of introduction to strangers. A friend can introduce you to good society but he cannot keep you there; that depends on yourself.

A boy of kindly nature is rarely rude. A boy selfish nature is polite only when his own desires are not interfered with. Every man is the result of his own boy-hard and youth. If he has read good books, kept himself informed on passing events he becomes what the world terms a well informed intelligent man. If he has wasted his time in trifling conversation read only sensationed books and papers neglected to develop the talent which he surely possesses, he becomes a superficial, a tiresome, if not a wicked man.

If a boy he has not cultivated the graces and amenities of life, he cannot expect to become that most delightful of men, a polished gentleman. If as a boy he has not studied to avoid collisions with those about him, he has not recognized the rights of others, has not cultivated a desire to lead men to higher motives, to give to others the benefit of his own opportunities, he becomes that most unfortunate person, a tactless man; a nuisance wherever people are brought together. One of the lessons everybody can learn is to watch those men who arouse adverse criticism, and carefully avoid their habits, both of mind and body.

Remember the old adage: "By others faults correct your own."

I AM THE PRINTING PRESS.

I am the printing press, born of the mother earth. My heart is of steel my limbs are of iron, and my fingers are of brass. I sing the song of the world, the oratories of history; the symphonies of all time. I am the voice of today, the herald of tomorrow. I weave into the warp of the past the woof of the future. I tell the stories of peace and war alike. I make the human heart beat with passion or tenderness. I still the pulse of nations, and make brave men do brave deeds, and soldiers die. I inspire the midnight toiler, weary at his loom, to lift his head again and gaze, with fearlessness into the vast beyond, seeking the consolation of a hope eternal. When I speak a myriad of people listen to my voice. The Anglo-Saxon, the Celt, the Hun, the Slav, the Hindu, all comprehend me. I am the tireless clarion of the news. I cry your joys and sorrows every hour. I fill the dullards' mind with thoughts uplifting. I am light, knowledge, and power. I epitomize the conquest of mind over matter. I am the record of all things mankind has achieved. My offspring comes to you in the candle's glow, amid the dim lights of poverty, the splendor of riches; at sunrise, at high noon, and in the waning evening. I am the laughter and tears of the world, and I shall never die until all things return to the immutable dust. I am the printing press.—Exchange.

Wilson's Message.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 5.—Responding to a telegram from the Democratic National chairman, asserting that Governor Wilson unquestionably was elected, the Democratic candidate sent a dispatch to Mr. McCombs as follows:
"I deeply appreciate your telegram and wish to express to you and the members of the campaign committee my warm congratulations on the part you have played in the organization and conduct of a campaign fought upon essential issues.
"A great cause has triumphed. Every Democrat, every true progressive of whatever alliance must now lend his full force and enthusiasm to the fulfillment of the people's hope—the establishment of the people's right so that justice and progress may go hand in hand."
This was Governor Wilson's first utterances of a public character after the acceptance of the reports that he had been elected.

HADLEY MAY SUCCEED SHERMAN ON TICKET

New York, Nov. 7.—Comment on the approaching election of a Republican vice president nominee to receive the 13 electoral votes of Idaho, Vermont and Utah, has brought out the fact that several members and officers of the Republican National Committee favor the designation of the nominee from one of these States. The results of Tuesday's election have made the filling of Vice President Sherman's place on the ticket an appointment of purely an honorary character and suggestions have been made here that the honor should go to some Republican from one of the three States carried by Taft. In this connection Senator Borah of Idaho and former Governor Mead of Vermont are both favored.

While the National Committee meets in Chicago November 12 to select the candidate it is not bound to select any person if a majority of the committee members favor leaving the nomination to the electors themselves. Such action would make it possible for each group of four Republican electors to cast their votes for men from their respective States. If the National Committee makes the designation, Governor Hadley of Missouri will have the support of a large number of the members.
No light was thrown on the second place question by the visit of Governor Hadley of Missouri to Washington today. The Governor, who came this morning on the train to which President Taft's car was attached, left tonight for Chicago. On arriving he told a questioner he had not been asked to take second place on the ticket, and later he said the subject was not discussed at an interview with President Taft during the day.

Governor Hadley said he had come to Washington on private business and that his call on the President was purely a personal one. He said, though, he did discuss the future of the Republican party with the President and intimated that he proposed to remain loyal to the party and aid in rehabilitating their fortunes.

DEMOCRATS ELECT JUST 17 GOVERNORS

Of the twenty-nine governors elected in the recent election, 17 are Democrats, 11 Republicans and 1 Progressive. The States electing Republicans are: Kansas, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, South Dakota and Wisconsin. The Progressives elected their candidate in Washington.

Halloween Party at Glenco.

The faculty and pupils of the Glenco School gave an enjoyable party to a select number their friends in the school building. The guests were met at the door by two ghosts (Misses Bessie Howard and Neta Murray) who relentlessly turned a jump rope behind them stood two witches (Misses Jessie Murry and Corina Fonville who held a broomstick between them. But when the guests had run the gauntlets or rather jumped the rope and broom, they felt repaid for it. The room was lighted only by candles placed inside, hobboblins made of pumpkins and boxes, draped in sheets. A gayly dressed gipsy fortune teller (Miss Alma Graves) sat in her tent while the Goddess of mystery (Miss Ethel Marshall) presided over the three magic boxes. Ralph Wilson made things interesting at the tub of chance while the sentinels (Thomas Dickey and Floyd McCaully) jealously guarded the Magic Row.

All kinds of innocent and old time games were played and the guests all voted a merry good time.

Major Smith's Flag

Maj. Orren Randolph Smith of Henderson, designer of the Stars and Bars of the Confederacy has designed a flag which will be presented to the 19th annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy to meet here next week. The flag has two red and one white stripes with seven white stars on a blue field. Miniature flags of the same design will provide admission to all the meetings of the convention. The flag will be presented to the convention at the welcome meeting Tuesday night. Mrs. Frank Williams, a daughter of Gen. Robert Ransom, and niece of former Senator Mathew Ransom, who has three times been president of the North Carolina division of the Daughters will make the speech of presentation. Mrs. Alexander B. White of Tennessee president general will accept the flag in the name of the organization. Maj. Smith, veteran of the Mexican war, Indian wars and of the Civil war, is 85 years old. He lies ill at his home in Henderson and will be unable to attend the convention. Mrs. Marion Butler, formerly of North Carolina, president of the Washington division, will have charge of the ceremonies of the day of the laying of the cornerstone to the Confederate monument at Arlington cemetery. On this day William J. Bryan will deliver the principle address. Mrs. Butler will entertain the delegates at a reception at her home Wednesday.

The Demons of the Swamp?

are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the joy chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50c at Freeman Drug Co.

Spit, Quit, Fit.

Hines, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Eula Mae Bradley says: "I used to spit up all I ate. I was tired and sleepy all the time. My head ached, and I could hardly drag around. Since taking Cardui, this has entirely quit, and now I feel quite fit." Mrs. Bradley suffered from nervous indigestion. Cardui builds up the nervous system, and strengthens the womanly constitution. That's why Cardui helped Mrs. Bradley and why it will help you. Try it.

THE TONGUE.

"The boneless tongue, so small and weak, Can crush and kill," declared the Greek.
 "The Persian proverb wisely saith,
 "A lengthy tongue—an easy death."
 Or sometimes takes this form instead.
 "Don't let your tongue cut off your head."
 "The tongue can speak a word whose speed, Says the Chinese, "outstrips the steed."
 While Arab sage doth this impart:
 "The Tongue's great storehouse is the heart."
 From Hebrew wit the maxim sprung,
 "Though feet should slip, ne'er let the tongue."
 The sacred writer crowns the whole,
 "Who keeps his tongue keeps his soul."
 —Rev. Philip Burrows Strong.

Bear Tried to Save Friend.

Jim and Alice, the polar bears in the Central Park menagerie, were suffering much from the heat. Alice, whose coat is unusually heavy, seemed to feel the high temperature more than her mate, and as she lay panting on the cement flooring of the enclosure a visitor thought she was sunstruck and running down the hill told Keeper Kiernan that the white bear was dying.
 Kiernan turned the hose on Alice and kept a stream of water on her until she was quite relieved. The animal got upon her feet and turned an apparently grateful eye on the keeper as he continued to squirt the cooling water upon her. Then Kiernan went into the den to fill up the pool and turned to see Alice almost upon him. He was so startled that he lost his footing and fell into the pool.
 The bear reached and got a mouthful of Kiernan's trousers at the seat. Visitors set up a shout and Keepers Hunton and Cunningham went to Kiernan's assistance and drove off the bear with iron rods.
 Cunningham told Kiernan he needn't have been afraid, that the polar bear appreciated the keeper's relief work with hose so much that she was trying to show her gratitude by rescuing him when he fell into the water.
 Kiernan said he could have got along without the show of gratitude, as the bear's teeth gripped more than the trousers and there could be no comfort in sitting down for some time.—New York Sun.

CONTINUE COMMITTEE AS PERMANENT BODY

New York, Nov. 7.—Chairman William F. McCombs of the Democratic National Committee said today he was not prepared to discuss plans which he had laid before President-elect Wilson yesterday, but intimated that within a few days he would make an announcement concerning the future activity of the National Committee and himself.
 A meeting of the committee probably will be called within the next two weeks and resolutions in favor of continuing the committee as a working institution throughout the Wilson Administration will be presented. The idea is that of conducting a continual campaign for the education of the people in Democratic doctrines.
 Chairman McCombs announced tonight that he would start soon on a two month's vacation probably at Hot Springs, Va.
 "Until I return," he said, "I would prefer to say nothing of what I shall do. I have not even given it a thought except to suggest that the National Committee be made a permanent working institution."
 Some one asked whether he might accept a place in the Wilson Cabinet. The chairman said he did not know anything about that matter. "Governor Wilson is the man who selects his Cabinet," he said, "and how do I know what he intends to do?"
 He intimated, however, that he might prefer to remain at the head of the National Committee.

THE DAWN OF THE NEW ERA

The negative side of yesterday's election is deeply impressive, as the decrees of justice ought to be. But it is not so impressive as the positive side of the case, which is the amazing and most heartening moral triumph of the Progressive cause led by Theodore Roosevelt. This great cause, which three months ago looked so desperate that even many of the senators, representatives and state governors who had sympathized with its general purposes feared to espouse it, has advanced to the second place in the popular and electoral vote, and has demonstrated a mighty strength North, South, East and West. It has proved its tremendous hold upon the hearts of the people, and has put itself on a vantage ground for the future. For Governor Wilson, though chosen by so large an electoral majority, but a minority of the popular vote. The demonstration of the strength of Progressive principles shown in the enormous popular vote for Col. Roosevelt, and in his splendid showing in the electoral college, leaves no clear light whatever in the sky of the future except that of Progressivism.

Of this most significant triumph, Col. Roosevelt and those men and women who have stood by his cause have reason to be most heartily proud to-day. It has been a fight against tremendous odds, and in principle the victory has been won. The vote of the great liberal states of the West, and of the millions in the East and South who have recorded their suffrages for Roosevelt and Johnson, is a final answer to all the calumnies that have been raised against the great leader of the Progressive cause. The splendid fight has made the names not only of the presidential candidates, but of the standard bearers in the states—Straus, Johnson, Churchill, Bird, and the rest—illustrious and loved. They will come to the front again.
 This splendid fight, with its inspiration, its vigor, its high sense of brotherhood, its great hope of the future, fully justifies what one of our greatest poets has said: "Our American days, our own stage, afford kings of men for our democracy prouder than Agamemnon." It points to a new day of national solidarity—a new era of full popular expression and of political and social regeneration.—The Mail.

Chapel Hill Items.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 12.—As to what occupations college men engage in after graduating has long since been a subject of speculative interest and thought to the people out in the state. This interest, perhaps comes from the variety of occupations that college graduates pursue on leaving the schools of higher education. The statistics as recently compiled as to the pursuits engaged in by the 1912 graduating class of the University of North Carolina furnishes interesting reading matter. Of 82 members of their present occupations is as follows: 30 are teaching, 23 of the number teaching in the public schools of the state; 11 are studying law; four are studying medicine; ten are in business; three are electrical work; two are engaged in public road engineering; four are pursuing graduate studies; two are farming; one engaged in Y. M. C. A. work; two are studying for the ministry, and two are engaged in national government service.

Professors N. W. Walker, state inspector of secondary schools, and E. K. Graham, dean of the school of liberal arts of the University, will represent the University at the sessions of the Southern Association of Colleges and Preparing Schools, which convenes at Greensboro, S. C., on November 14 and 15.

The Chamber of Commerce is erecting a church at Chapel Hill. Dr. J. C. Jones, former pastor of the First Baptist Church, is the architect in charge. The church will be a Gothic Revival style, and will be a fine example of the work of the Chamber of Commerce.

Albert C. Jones, who attempted to qualify as one of the pugilist bondsmen, was held on $10,000 bail on a charge of perjury after it had been shown that he had scheduled property which under the name of "A. Charles," Jones had previously had deeded to his wife. Jones was remanded to the custody of the United States marshal along with Johnson.

Catherin Dorsey at whose home the young white girl Lucille Cameron, for several weeks, was arrested this afternoon. She had hiding in a barn for three weeks. She was held under $5,000 bond as a witness in the Johnson case, and also was remanded to the marshal's custody.

At the jail door Edward F. Weigle, a newspaper photographer attempted to take a flash light picture of Johnson and the pugilist knocked him down with a heavy cane.

"I want a dozed condole, so I can have more light. A box of cigars and a case of champagne," Johnson demanded. This was refused and finally he was given a bottle of milk.

Reward Offered

I will pay a reward of $5.00 for information that will enable me to get possession of a black bicycle, make Genron, steel rims, clycher tires, frame bent near the handlebars, small seat, kelly handlebars without grips and also information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person who stole the bicycle. (signed) W. C. Thurston.

WHY WHO'S WHO

By Howard L. Rann.

One of the most interesting pieces of architecture in this country is Colonel J. Ham Lewis, of Chicago, Democracy's candidate for senator from the state of Illinois. Any way you look at him, J. Ham is a classic. Originally cast in the mold of a Greek goddess, upon entering politics he adopted the severe, Gothic style of front elevation which Chief Justice Hughes did so much to popularize.

The crowning glory of Colonel J. Ham Lewis is his whiskers. The equal of these whiskers has never been seen on man or beast. They are as full of color as a changeable silk petticoat. On a dark day when the colonel is in a quite, plastic mood, they are of a dull ruddiness, like unto the bronzed wing of a turkey gobbler. When perforated by the sun's bright ray, however, in the midst of one of J. Ham's bubbling outbursts on human rights, each whisker stands erect and throws off sparks faster than an emery wheel.

The colonel is proud of his whiskers and never lets them out of his sight. His political enemies charge him with doing them up in curl papers nightly, but this is a base libel. If the colonel could find out who started this story, he would prosecute him to the full extent of the law.

Colonel J. Ham Lewis has two peculiar habits, the other being a collection of spotted vests. The colonel has so many of these vests that he has been classified as a "vest collector." He wears to him as waistcoats and clean as when with light-colored shirts. The two upper buttons of his Chicago residence are never in these vests, which are fastened by a single effect button, usually double-breasted, and usually with a pocket.

Colonel Lewis has an income which allows him to buy pomade for his whiskers in the most recent fashion and also enables him to change vests every fifteen minutes without running out of raw material. With two such handicaps as this, how he ever got by with the plain people at a primary election will forever remain a mystery. It must be that the people overlook his vests and his whiskers and focus their eyes on the main fact that he is square.

Brilliant Triumph for Simmons.

We cordially congratulate the people of North Carolina upon their good judgement and wisdom in renominating for the United States senate its able and faithful son, Hon. F. M. Simmons, who has just been handsomely endorsed by the Democrats in the state primary had on Tuesday, the day of general election. While complete returns from the state are not yet available, it is certain that Mr. Simmons has been renominated by a majority of not less than twenty thousand, and that on the fourth of next March he will enter upon a third consecutive term in the Senate, having been elected in 1900 to succeed Marion Butler and first taken his seat in March 1901. Mr. Simmons is hopeful that his majority—meaning the excess of his vote over that of Governor Kitchin and Chief Justice Clark combined—will reach twenty-five thousand votes.

We are particularly glad of this splendid vindication of the senator by his constituency, in view of charges and assertions questioning his Democracy. The Democratic masses have approved his course, and this is no uncertain way. The re-nomination and re-election of Mr. Simmons was the wisest course the State could have taken, for his ability, reinforced by nearly a dozen years experience in the Senate makes him of peculiar value just as the Democracy is about to secure control of this branch of Congress. Being the ranking Democratic member of the Senate Committee on Finance, Mr. Simmons will become the chairman of that important committee when the Senate is reorganized next March, assuming that the Democrats will be in the majority, as now appears to be assured beyond doubt. It would have been folly to have retired a man of Mr. Simmons' long and successful experience, proved character and ability and splendid equipment for greater service just as his usefulness to his state was about to be given scope for achievement. We have consistently urged the value of experience and the folly of change in senatorships for no other or better reason than that some other man, it matters not how worthy, desired the seat and the salary.

Of Mr. Simmons' opponents in the contest for the nomination, we have nothing to say of a disparaging character. They were merely mistaken in their effort to gauge public sentiment and made a contest on the theory that the people desired a change. The people have spoken for themselves, and their voice will be convincing. Mr. Kitchin is the present governor and prior to his elevation to that office he for several terms in the House of representatives. He is a man of ability and popularity, and would doubtless make a good and useful senator, with some years of experience and the influence in the senate that experience would give. Justice Walter Clark is one of the ablest members of the North Carolina judiciary and is a man of strength and high character. Danville Register.

Baraca Notice.

Every member of the Baraca class of the Methodist Protestant Church is urged to be present next Sunday morning. The class room for the first time, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance of its members.

A Large Painting.

Columbia, S. C., November 9. (Special)—The longest painting ever executed in this country or abroad, according to authentic statements, will form a striking feature of the decorations for the educational building at the Fifth National Corn Exposition here next January. The canvas for this immense painting will be nearly a sixth of a mile in length, by nine feet wide. It will extend entirely around the big steel building which will house the exhibits from the department of agriculture and the thirty or more states which will enter the Exposition. The canvas will cover about 7,500 square feet of space and 533 pounds of dry paints will be necessary in the executive of the work.

The artist who will transform this material into a mammoth work of art is Mr. E. E. Sprague of Columbus, Ohio, who executed a somewhat similar, though smaller, piece of work for the Fourth Exposition. Mr. Sprague is now a resident of Columbia and is beginning upon his huge task. The canvas will be divided into thirty or more spaces, into which will be painted landscape scenes typical of the states whose exhibits will be arranged below.

Exhibits of the highest class are being secured for the Exposition, and it is the purpose to place them in an artistic setting of corresponding high quality. Floral decorations will also contribute to this effect.

O. F. Crowson Retires as Editor of The Durham Sun.

Durham, Nov. 10.—The Durham Daily Sun will say tomorrow. "The stock of the Publishing Company has been purchased by S. J. Flickinger and Walter W. Weaver, who took charge of the paper today. Mr. Flickinger was formerly with the Associated press and later editor of the Dayton (Ohio) Blade." The present Sun force will be retained for a while at least. Mr. W. N. Keener, will be editor temporarily. Mr. Weaver will be business manager, and Mr. Flickinger will be general manager. Fourteen Lives Are Lost Many Hurt in Bad Train Wreck

New Orleans, La., Nov. 11.—Fourteen lives were snuffed out and 90 passengers injured when a through freight crashed into the rear end of a north bound excursion train on the Yazoo and Mississippi valley railroad near Montz, La., at 12:20 this morning.

The appalling disaster is charged by the railroad officials to the negligence of a flagman named Cunningham who disappeared when the two trains crashed together.

Of the dead four are white women, one a white infant, four negro women and five negro men.

Forty one of the injured are white and forty nine negroes. It is expected that all of these except possibly three, will recover.

Although the scene of the wreck is but 27 miles north of New Orleans and relief trains were sent from this city and from Baton Rouge, the railroad officials withheld from the press information of the wreck until a late hour this morning.

An amazing feature of it was that the loss of life was confined almost entirely to the last and fourth from the last coaches of the excursion train. The second from the last coach escaped injury almost completely. The excursion train was made up of 10 coaches.

The rear coach was demolished and the third and fourth cars were telescoped. All three together with the freight engine were burned.

Pathetic stories of the gastly horror were brought to New Orleans today by survivors, many of whom barely escaped death. The confusion confused and excitement accident to the distressing scenes of death and suffering was increased by the cries and exclamations of the hundreds of negroes who ran about in a sanic stricken condition.
