Gov. Mann's prompt action in sending a negro prisoner from a Va. mob at any price indicates that the Rev. Cole didn't make any converts at Richmond.

They say that Harvard students pay more for cigarettes than for books! To remedy this statistical blemish it may become necessary to charge more for the books.

Dixie Roller Mill Improved.

The Dixie Roller Mill a home industry situated where we hear the whistle blow has resumed operation in full after being remodeled, on the interior and all modern and most convenient machinery added. The present output of this manufacturing industry is 165 barrels each 24 hours or the immense sum of 990 barrels per week. The new machinery takes the wheat from car standing on siding and by elevator carries it to the various departments coming out the staff of life when baked. That cleanliness is next to Godliness was the first thought which entered the minds of the owners of this progressive enterprise so machinery which thoroughly scours and cleans the wheat was purchased. This cleaning machinery and in fact all their machinery, does the same work as is done in any of the large mills of the south or west. As the same process is used. The aim of the proprietors is first quality knowing well quantity will follow. A glance at the names of the officers of this mill will at once suggest business. President Dr. J. L. Kernodle, V. President L. D. Ripplly, Sec. A. H. Fogleman, Treas. and Mgr. C. R. Love and Miller J. T. Leadwell. The last of these Mr. Leadwell is a man of wide mill experience having been connected with a mill at Lynchburg, Carolina Mills, Durham and the local mills.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal, at Raleigh, this 26 day of November, A. D. 1912. J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State. filed Dec. 4, 1912. J. D. Kernodle C. S. C. Alamance County, North Carolina.

Mr. Wilson is said to have a fine flow language. He also must have an immense reservoir of it.

Mr. Bryan, we assume has invested in a Maxim silencer.

Those 15,748 mail sacks which have just reached New York from Europe were probably empties coming back for another load Christmas money.

Birthday Entertainment.

Snow Camp, N. C. Dec. 28th, 1912. Ed. Dispatch: We have been having a gala time down on Cane Creek today and perhaps some of your readers would like to hear about it. It was this way.

The neighbors somehow learned that the 50th anniversary of the marriage of our Postmaster, Malon Dixon and his wife Lydia was approaching so they formed a conspiracy to surprise them by celebrating their Golden Wedding. At first it was proposed to keep the whole thing a profound secret until the time arrived, but knowing the antipathy of the venerable couple to any kind of display it was decided to give a short notice for necessary preparation and to try to gain their consent by well considered arguments. Insistent persuasion finally won their consent and today the wedding jubilee came off.

About 75 guests, friends and relatives were present and it was fortunate that the committee of arrangements had wisely restricted invitations chiefly to elderly persons. After prayer by Rev. Malon Dixon, the simple marriage ceremony of the Friend's church was gone through. The bride and groom standing with clasped hands under a holly decorated wedding bell, declared to the assembled guests to their acceptance of each other as husband and wife, pledging fealty and love until death.

A well timed congratulatory address by Rev. Dixon followed after which an old friend read a poem of the Quaker poet, Whittier, entitled The Golden Wedding.

With fifty years between you and your well-kept wedding vow.

The Golden Age, old friends of mine, is not a fable now.

And, sweet as has life's vintage been through all your pleasant past,

Still, as at Cana's marriage-fast, the best wine is the last!

And lo! from all the country-side come neighbors, kith and kin;

From city, hamlet, farm house old, the wedding guest, come in.

Older and slower, yet the same, files in the long array,

And hearts are light, and eyes are glad, though heads are badger-gray.

And haply with them, all unseen, old comrades, gone before.

Pass, silently as shades pass, within your open door.

We thank you for the lessons your fifty years are teaching.

For honest lives that louder speak than half our noisy preaching.

May many more of quiet years be added to your seem.

And, late at last, in tendered love the beckoning angel come.

Dear hearts are here, dear hearts are there, alike below above;

Our friends are now in either world, and love is sure of love.

Next came a concerted attack on a heavily laden table, then congratulations, good wishes and good-bye and the guests departed for their homes feeling that the day had been well spent.

School News.

The school news of the County will be given in this column each week till the schools close in the spring. The teachers of the County are asked to send an account of the progress made in their respective schools along any line of school work, to the Supt. so he may report it to the paper not later than Monday of each week.

There is now a campaign on against dust in the school-rooms. The Supt. is furnishing to the schools floor oil at 20c a gallon. It requires from two to four gallons to the rooms. This is a cheap method of doing away with most of the dust which is both dirty and dangerous. The schools that have already used the oil are Green Glenwood, Brown's chapel, Highland and others will use it soon.

$30 libraries were ordered just before the holidays for Glenwood and the Fairground schools. For each of these schools, the district contributed $10, the County $10, and the State $10 as the library law provides. Union Ridge and Woodlawn recently ordered $15 supplemental libraries.

Nearly all the schools of the County celebrated "N. C. Day" on the 6th of Dec. and took a collection for the Aycock monument. The proceeds are not all in but Alamance will give several dollars to this worthy cause. The program for the day this year was based on the life of Gov. Aycock.

The Supt. has put into the hands of the principal of each every school a blank statement for showing what is donated to each school in any way, from what source it comes, and for what purpose it is spent. This is done to stimulate each school and each community to build up its school and also to see at the end of the year what has been done by each and by the entire county. A member of schools are busy along this line now—some have done special work on school grounds, some have planted trees, other have bought black boards and other interior equipment. Several schools have given entertainments recently to raise money for this kind of endeavor. Kings school raised $23.00 at a box party. McCray raised $24.00 at a box party and a friend of the school gave $20 more on that occasion. So this made $44 for McCray on one effort and the season not half gone yet. We shall report the results next week of efforts of others along this line.

The next Teachers meeting will be Saturday, Feb. 1st, at 11 A. M. The program will be published in next weeks paper. The colored Teachers will meet in Graham, N. C. Saturday, Jan. 25th at 11 A. M.

Coble-Williams.

On last Wednesday morning, Dec. 25th at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hargrove, on Means St., Mr. E. H. Coble and Miss. Retta Williams were happily married. Rev. T. E. Davis, pastor of the M. P. Church, was the officiating minister. The bride and groom are very popular among a circle of friends who wish for them a long and happy life.

M. P. Christmas Exercises.

The Christmas exercises given by the Methodist Protestant Sunday school last Sunday night made a very interesting program. Each scene of the program was performed in a splendid manner. The church interior was very beautifully decorated with holly and evergreen. A large audience attended the exercises, the main auditorium of the church and a part of the annex being occupied.

The exercise were rather late in the season but were just as interesting as if they had been given sooner.

New Hotel.

The new hotel erected to the rear of the Piedmont Trust Co. building will be opened at night with abanquet. Full details of the opening and banquet will be given next week.

Remember only three and a half months more and the great prize will be given.

Peculiar Turnip.

The State Dispatch is in receipt of a very peculiar turnip left in our office during the Christmas Holidays. The turnip resembles the growth of three turnips all together with a separate root from each all three joining together. The turnip is about the size of a half gallon tin. We have been looking at the turnip and expect to soon put it to safe keeping.

Roosevelt Addresses Six Large Conventions.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 27—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, speaking on the "History of Literature," in Symphony hall tonight, addressed members of six national associations holding convention here. He is president of one of these societies, the American Historical association. The other organizations are: the American association for Labor Legislation; the American Sociological society the American Statistical association, the American Economic association and the American Political Science association.

Colonel Roosevelt discussed the art of the historian from the standpoints of science, poetry, mythology, and literature. He argued that history should welcome the entrance upon its domain of every science and that future historians should make use of material from every possible source to convey vivid and life like pictures to others, of the past whose secrets they lay bare.

The great historian of the future, he declared, would be the man who had the genius to reconstruct for his readers the immense panorama of the past. He must possess knowledge and wisdom. He must use his material with such potent wizardry "that we shall see the life that was not the death that is. Whether it be Egypt, or Mesopotamia, or Scandinavia with which he deals, the great historian, if the facts permit him, will put before us the men and women as they actually lived so that we shall recognize them from what they were, living beings."

The M. P. Baraca Class.

The Baraca Class of the Methodist Protestant Sunday School elected officers last Sunday morning. They are as follows: Dr. W. A. Horraday, President; J. H. Boon, Vice President; T. T. Stafford, Secretary; Paul Davis, Assistant Secretary; C. B. Way, Treasurer; and press reporter; L. W. Holt Teacher; Rev. T. E. Davis, Assistant Teacher.

This class extends a cordial invitation to all young men of the town who do not attend any Sunday school to pay it a visit and become members. A hearty welcome awaits all new comers.

WOODROW WILSON OFF TO STAUNTON.

Princeton, Dec. 27.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson shook off his attack of the grippe and started away today to Staunton, Va., his birthplace. Mrs. Wilson accompanied the Governor. He was bundled up warmly in an automobile which took them to the station. A drizzling rain was falling and the streets were full of slush.

Dr. James Carnochan called early to see if the Governor was physically fit to make the trip and pronounced him "about himself again."

He said he did not think it particularly risky for Mr. Wilson to go, but advised him to take good care of himself. The Governor's train left here at 10:30 due to connect with a fast train which was stopped especially for him at Princeton junction at 10:43. National Chairman William F. McCombs and a party of Virginians living in New York were aboard the train.

Governor Wilson will participate in a celebration given by the town people tomorrow and will attend a banquet in his honor tomorrow night. He will reach Staunton at 10:05 Sunday morning and will reach Princeton Sunday night.

Philadelphia, Dec. 27.—President-elect Wilson and party passed through here at 11:59 o'clock on route to Staunton, Va.

"I feel a little bit husky," said the Governor, "but otherwise I am all right."

The Governor said the weakness in his voice probably was due to the relaxation of the last few days rather than to the possibility that his cold had settled in the throat.

The Governor's face appeared drawn, but he said he probably would be back to normal health in a day or so.

The President-elect had a great many things to tell National Chairman McCombs, who was on the train. To Mr. McCombs alone, it is believed, Governor Wilson is confiding his thoughts about the Cabinet.

The National chairman admitted today that he knew many things but was not at liberty to tell. He believed however he said that important announcements would not be made until March 1.

Washington, Dec. 27.—President-elect Wilson passed through here late this afternoon for Staunton, Va. Senators Swanson of Virginia, Martin of N. Jersey, Representatives Jones and Carlin of Virginia and other members of both houses of Congress joined the party.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 27.—A large party left Richmond today in private cars for Staunton, Va. to join in the Woodrow Wilson celebration. Among them were Governor and Mrs. Mann, Lieutenant Governor Ellyson, A. J. Montague, former Governor and now Congressman-elect, former Lieutenant Governor Willard, Richard Evelyn Byrd, speaker of the Virginia House and Mr. Wilson's campaign manager in Virginia; John Stewart Bryan, Charles V. Meredith, C. B. Smith, and Robert L. Montague.

Calmly And Boldly Blair Faces Twelve Men Who Are To Determine His Future

Greensboro, Dec. 17.—Ten Guilford farmers, a butcher and a traveling man will decide between the life and death of William Finley Blair, former chief clerk in the office of the division freight offices of the Southern railway, and who yesterday was placed on trial for the murder of his office chief, George C. Thompson. The jury was selected during the morning session, the twelfth man, R. N. Carrier, being accepted by state and prisoner without a question after 146 men had been examined as to their fitness for jury service. In the afternoon the state laid the foundation of its case in the examination of D. F. Causey, C. E. Hoffman, John Nowell, Miss Pearl Wilkins, C. Will Armfield, Chief Ira B. Isley, Katie Mendenhall and Dr. W. P. Beall. The defense by the character of questions propounded in cross examination, indicated that Blair's hope for acquittal or an escape from the electric chair would be placed absolutely in an effort to show that a quarrel occurred between Thompson and Blair and that Blair was struck by Thompson before he fired. The evidence offered by the state was substantially the same as brought out by Coroner Wood on the day of the tragedy and carried in the Daily News on the day following the shooting.

The jurors chosen and in order of their selection for service are: W. A. Shields, R. W. Lane, W. G. Phipps, W. T. Hanner, J. W. Peggam, M. M. Lee, W. A. Aydelett, Z. A. Wall, A. W. Willard, T. D. Hardin, W. L. Guyer, R. N. Carrier. All of these save Harden, who is a butcher, and Carrier, who is a traveling man, are farmers. Carrier is the only man on the jury who makes Greensboro his home. Four of the jurors were selected from the regular panel of 16 while the remaining eight were selected after 130 of the special venire of 150 men had been called.

William Finley Blair, the defendant by his demeanor yesterday, completely exploded any impressions to the effect that he was a weakling; a high strung, nervous wreck or a person who could not face an ordeal which meant life and death as a man faces such situations. Not a trace of nervousness was shown by the prisoner, throughout the trying ordeal of yesterday and into the face of each man who was being examined for jury duty he peered with a directness which was searching. In the afternoon when the testimony was begun he was always on the alert and at critical moments would lean eagerly forward, intent upon catching every word. There were times when he would frown and times when he would smile but at no time was there any act by the prisoner which might tend to create a prejudice for or against him.

Mr. Hobs Honored

New York, Dec. 16.—By a process of elimination, which included three spiritists and keenly contested preliminary debates, Richard J. Hobbs, a law student in Columbia University, has been chosen one of the six debaters for the Columbia team, which will contest forensic honors in the triangular debaters with Cornell and Pennsylvania University. There were nearly 50 entries on the debating team, and only those who displayed the very form, talent and ability survived to the successful finish. Mr. Hobbs, is a son of President Hobbs of Guilford College, N. C., is one of the bright members of Columbia Law School, where he distinguished himself in class work as well as in debate.

MAN COUGHS AND BREAKS RIB.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonfuls a late cough, while persistent use routed obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure it's a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo. "for I believe I

Dr. Hartman's Plain Talk to Young Men

My plain talk to young men in my last article certainly brought out many responses from young men. I take this means of answering them briefly, for the benefit of other young men who did not write me. One writer says: "I was greatly interested in your talk to young men. I wish I was strong and well as you describe yourself to be. I am going to begin at once and follow your advice and take care of myself as I ought to. I will quit the use of all stimulants, tea and coffee, go to bed early. I will take the cold water towel bath every morning. I want to live to be old and useful, like you. And I shall also keep Peruna at hand, in case of slight ailments as they may arise. I thank you in the name of thousands of other young men, like myself."

To this letter I replied:

My dear Boy:—I cannot tell you how much good your letter has done me. To know that I am arousing the young men in matters of right living fills me with gratitude and enthusiasm. I want to help you. Write me any time you wish and I will consider your letter strictly confidential and give you prompt reply. Follow the advice I gave in my article. Whenever you have occasion to consult me further do not hesitate. Let us be friends. If you will be obedient to me as a son ought to be I will be faithful and true to you as a father ought to be. Yours Sincerely, B. B. Hartman, M. D., Columbus, Ohio. PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of K-TAR-NO, manufactured by K-TAR-NO Company, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

Ten Dollars

Opens the Way to a Better Day

THE owners of that magnificent property lying on both sides of the Car Line between Haw River Junction and Burlington have had the same subdivided into building lots and have placed the same in our hands to be sold for cash or on easy payment plan. The first lots sold will go at a price that will surprise you. As other lots are sold the price will, from time to time, be advanced. Do not miss your opportunity. Begin now to lay the foundation for your comfort and good fortune. Ten Dollars down and Five Dollars a month buys your choice lot.

No Interest, No Taxes, and a 5c car fare to either Burlington, Graham or Haw River. The Piedmont Railway and Electric Company is now prepared to furnish at a low rate, current for lighting residences on this property.

When lot is paid for, we will furnish plans and material and build your choice of house on lot and give you five years to pay for it. Under this plan, monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual payments may be made.

Washington Notes.

WILSON'S CABINET.

President-elect Wilson is one of the most reticent men ever chosen president of the United States. When reporters try to get some news out of him about his cabinet his mouth and tongue seem to be held fast by a pad lock.

It has however leaked out from sources close to Mr. Wilson that it is very likely that A. Mitchell Palmer, Pa., will be attorney general. A. S. Burleson, of Texas, will be Secretary of Agriculture and Josephus Daniels of North Carolina will be Post Master General. These names were obtained from what are considered by newspapers as "inspired sources" and while they are not affirmed or denied by Mr. Wilson himself they are no doubt the names he has in mind at the present time.

HEARINGS ON THE TARIFF BILL.

The hearings on the tariff bill which the Democrats will introduce will commence before the Ways and Means Committee on January 6th, and it is expected that unusual interest will attach itself to these proceedings.

THE SOUTH AND PROTECTION.

The South which has been sending Democratic Delegations to congress for years and years is now an important manufacturing community and it is thought that they will show more interest in maintaining a protective tariff than they have ever done since the war. The South is now literally covered with manufacturing establishments and feels the need of protection same as the manufacturing industries of the Central and New England states do.

FINANCIAL LEGISLATION.

Serious attention will be given to financial legislation also in the near future!

It is clearly evident that the finances of this country while good and sound are not on a scientific basis and the fact of it is that the country does not possess an adequate supply of money, with which to conduct the vast business we carry on. In the days of Clay, Calhoun and Webster the leading financiers as well as those great Senators reached the conclusion that there should be about one dollar ($1) for every thirty dollars ($30) worth of property and as this country now possesses about one hundred and fifty billion dollars worth of property there should be five billion dollars ($5,000,000) circulating medium, while we only have a tariff over three billion dollars in circulation, and consequently only thirty-five dollars per capita, when we should have $50 per capita.

We have had a great deal of talk about there being an abundance of money in the country, and it is true that there is a large aggregate amount of money in a few hands, but there is not enough money for the transacting of the business of the country to keep it up to that flourishing state of prosperity which is within our reach. Every autumn when the time of "moving the crops" arrives the demands for money with which to move them is so great and the tension so strenuous that it almost snaps at times, (and did in 1907) so this one fact alone proves that there should be an enlargement of the volume of the country's money.

FRANCE AN EXAMPLE.

France is the most prosperous of any country in Europe or any one in the world except the United States and France has a larger circulation per capita than any country in the world. France has a circulation of over forty dollars per capita and France has never been known to have a panic in times of peace. The subject of finance presents a great opportunity for ambitious statesmen in Washington as they have given very meagre attention to this great subject.

Two Handcuffed Men taken At Morganton.

Morganton, Dec. 15.—Two unknown men with handcuffs on their wrists, and who had evidently escaped from officers somewhere, were arrested here last night, on the arrival of train number 35. They had been handcuffed together but had succeeded in breaking the chain and each had one cuff on each wrist. The conductor of the train noticed the handcuff and telegraphed to the officers here, who made the arrest. Both men are young and fairly well dressed, one being tall and the other about average size. Nothing can be learned from them as they will not talk further than state they were handcuffed together and robbed in Raleigh, by a policeman and who became frightened and ran leaving them handcuffed together after which they broke the chain with a railroad iron.

No credit is given their story seem to know but little of each other, one claiming to be from Memphis, the other Atlanta, but telegrams to these places discredited their story. They are being held in Morganton jail until further information is received.

Resolutions.

At the November meeting of the W. C. T. U. the following resolutions were adopted.

Whereas our beloved President Mrs. S. L. Morgan, who since the beginning of our organization has served so faithfully, has been called to a different field of labor and whereas we realize that in her going we are losing a most efficient helper, one who by her faithfulness and interest in the work has greatly endeared herself to each member, the we recognize the influence of a higher power in the circumstances which induced her to sever the ties binding her to our union. Therefore resolved that we her collaborators in the work extend to her our sincere regret upon losing her also our thanks and appreciation for her help and interest in every department of our work.

That our tenderest love and best wishes follow her and that we bid her God speed in the new work to which she has gone.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent Mrs. Morgan, that they be placed on record in the minutes of the W. C. T. U. Also sent to the White Ribbon and our town papers for publication.

Entered as second-class matter May 10, 1908, at the post office at Burlington, North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Wednesday, Jan. 1, 1913.

Our Christmas dinner was not special—we took ours at home.

Santa Clause fetched a lot of drinkers but only a few full fledged drunkards.

Good morning, Nineteen and Thirteen, a happy and successful
journey to you.

We helped to ring out the old and ring in the new. We are trying to help ring out the bad
and ring in the good.

Hello, parcel post bill! Here is hoping that our friends may yet send us those Christmas presents, that they bought, but are waiting for a more convenient
day to mail them.

Hold on there! When you mail
your parcels under the new law,
you must have your name on them or the postal employees will not receive them. Also be sure to use the special parcel post stamp or your stamp will be wasted.

This is certainly the age of specialist. The daily papers annoy us that an artist who makes a specialty of painting
eggs has just come from Europe
to make pictures of the bird dogs
belonging to a great bird preserve
in this state.

Christmas Day was fittingly observed, in a quiet way, in Burlington. Nearly all the merchants closed their stores, and people spent the day at home or visiting. How grand it would be, if we could have Christmas and the stores remain closed all day.

We cannot refrain, even at this late hour, from a passing comment on the recent tragedy in Guilford, and the miraculous miscarriage of justice. The gossip is current that the defendant got a far better verdict than he expected. We believe the gossipers. Many a time has it been charged by the popular that it was impossible to punish a man of wealth, and it seems there is ground for the belief. The judge was watched at the verdict. And the foreman's explanation of the verdict was another one of those explanations that does not explain.

Economy.

It is a popular saying that a fool can make money, but it takes a wise guy to save it.
Well, that may be so but we have seen some that had plenty of cash that did not appear over brilliant. The truth is wealth of cash soul or body is the direct result of a well laid plan closely followed. However we are conscious of the tendency of the hour for some men to support an automobile wife on a wheel borrow salary. And the harvest of such is divorce separation, suicide and in some cases murder? A large number of boys think that the first essential in a successful life career is a diamond ring, (bought with knocked down money), to hire a livery team every Sunday evening and drive several times over the most conspicuous streets of the town to show their income?

Those same boys sometimes go to church at night, to spend the time in talking over important matters, writing their decisions on the backs of the pews, or in the Sunday School song book or church hymns. This same fellow or some of his pals are the ones that stult into telephone cables, knock out electric lights
cut off or break down the other fellows shade trees and then cusses because the town is a little behind Washington City and adds to its business appearance by loafing on the streets or at some one of the barber shops or drug stores. There it is he ex-pounds a solution of the great problems of the hour. Of course if you will follow him a little farther you will see him following some negro boy around the corner and down a back alley waiting for a pint and off he goes with a loud speech and offensive odor on his breath seeking a crap game, with the leadings of savagery or slipping into the presence of some woman of questionable character. After ten years of such a chase he awakes wonderfully wrecked
if he is living at all and grumbles
because he has few associates
and fewer friends, health gone,
no resources of any kind, and yet can't understand why it is just so.

He has not practiced economy of any kind. We hope you will see the reverse side of this cut-line.

That's the one to follow.

1913

The record of the New Year is before you, what will you record upon its three hundred and sixty-five leaves of pleasure or happiness, success or failure, life or death? That is the question
every one of us will answer day
by day, and hour by hour in the New Year. Cast no lingering look behind, for the books are closed and the account of every life is balanced for the past, and no bitter tears of regret and sorrow can erase the account, but grasp the future as it hourly passes to you with strong hands
and as it takes its place in the tape of time, be able to say that you have wrenched from its hands,
however hard they may be victory
for the present—for eternity.
To do this it will be necessary for you to choose as you consume
the time, the good and not the bad, the uplifting and not the degrading, the inspiring, not the discouraging, for we all get just what we order. In after years, men and women in old age, growing old, their gray hairs in regretting grief and are to explain why this thing and that thing should come upon them,
and not upon the other fellow.
Don't forget that what sever a man sows, that shall he also reap. It never has failed it never will. The boy that spends his best days woeing and whining,
the hand a girl gambler for a wife, has won a gam worse than for life. Go young man to a house of prostitution, if you will
for a wife and you will in after years learn, that you have a prostitute for a companion for life. With this and much more that could be added be careful what you choose, for from the right choice, it may be that in coming years upon your brow shall rest the laurel leave of victory and your breast support
the choicest diadems of life.
Remember brother that life is only a transformer of your own acts and that the world owes you nothing and pays a lot less and all that you get out of the mill
of life is what you put in less the toll of error and wilful transgression.

So may it be with you during this year and all they ears of coming life to select the things that build a physical, moral christian man, so that you will be able to live the clean moral, economical,
social, industrious and christian life. And if such is your life, you will have no regrets in after years.

That Little "Squib" Was Forgotten.

I would not deign to reply to the puerile defence of the retiring editor of the Burlington News relative to his editorial concerning the expenses of political candidates, but for the fact that some of his language makes him speak lightly, even contemptuously of one of the most important issues that has ever been brought before the people of Alamance County. Words properly grouped, become vehicles of thought, and by the proper use of words our thoughts are communicated. No man has license to interpret the meaning of words to serve his own interest or in a manner to comply with the request of a friend. Now the retiring editor with a seeming air of nonchalance, refers to the editorial in the Daily Sun, "Money In Elections," which occupied one third of a page, on one of the most serious problems that ever confronted the American people, as "friend Crowson's LITTLE SQUIB." Would he presume to say that the use of that word would do justice either to the merits of that article or to the ability of its author? The inference is that in his estimation it was small in size and so insignificant in importance, that he forgot to publish it. Too many men, both priests and people, have short memories with reference to anything adverse to their own political party. They are perfectly willing to render to Caesar the things that are Caesars but the other clause of the Scriptural sentence is studiously left out. Words have a sacred office and are not to be sacrificed to personal whims. Now comes the strangest interpretation we have ever seen given to plain English words. The following language requires a special interpreter to enable the English speaking man to understand it:

"It is no secret that there can be NO MAN elected to ANY OFFICE that pays enough to support his family without being COMPELLED to SPEND MORE than he can possibly realize from it the FIRST YEAR. The author of the above says when I wrote that article I had in mind the candidates for the United States Senate. According to his explanation the words "NO MAN" mean candidates for the United States Senate, and the words ANY OFFICE mean the upper house of the United States Congress. Would it not have been just as easy to write Simmons and Kitchen as NO MAN; and just as easy to write United States Senate as ANY OFFICE? O, consistency thou art a jewel, but where canst thou be found when politicians attempt to defend one another and try to justify their strange meanings. Alas! still in the hole and the hole already caved in. Now he needs to call upon his friend by whose request he gives the above explanation, to pray a LONG PRAYER for his deliverance, no time now for singing hymn No. 365, for this kind can be gotten out only by prayer and fasting. None but an ungrateful wretch would suggest singing a song of popular applause and taking up a collection for personal use when duty calls him to aid those in dire distress. Now with reference to charges against my recent opponent or any one else, I have none to prefer. If in possession of all necessary evidence, such a course would not be expedient. When judgment is laid to the line and righteousness to the plummet, a man is just as good in politics as he is out, and no better out than he is in. I am opposing conditions as they exist, and as they are known to exist, and with reference to them I shall not shut up, though as many demons oppose as there are stars in the firmament. It is not only my duty, but the duty of every good man and woman in Alamance County to do everything in his or her power to purify politics. Now is the time to work, after men have come to themselves and see truth in an unselfish and an unprejudiced light. It is no credit to any man to wait until another political fight is on and then say I am opposed to evils in politics as much as you are. And then after the election is over some fellow in trying to ease his conscience, says it is no secret that these evils exist. It is not enough for a man to SAY he is opposed to a thing. He must do something in a practical way to show his opposition. Simply saying so amounts to nothing. His statement is not worth a row of rusty pins. The scripture makes it plain on that point. St. James says if you say to a person who is cold and hungry and naked friend, be ye warmed and fed and clothed and do nothing more you have not helped him any at all. Prove your sympathy for him by giving him food and clothing, not simply utter words that amount to nothing. Neither can the retiring editor nor his friend justly claim to be as much opposed to political corruption in Alamance County as this humble servant, because they have done nothing but SAY they are opposed and that only when put on the defensive.

Movement Spreads.

New York, Dec. 17.--A movement to reduce the price of eggs in every city in the country to 25 cents or less a dozen was started today by the National executive committee of the Housewives' League of America. An appeal was addressed to every State chairman and local city president of the league, urging them to join in the movement in an effort to make the campaign general.

Leaders all over the country were urged to begin their crusade by appealing to dealers in their immediate locality.

Leaders in the movement claim many local dealers have cut the price of eggs to 25 cents a dozen.

With the price of eggs uniformly lower the league leaders here propose to extend their campaign to include other food products. The next campaign probably will be for cheaper butter.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.

ENDS HUNT FOR RICH GIRL.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. ## Railroad Strike.

Laredo, Texas, Dec. 26.—Two thousand shop employees of the National railways of Mexico went on strike today because of the refusal of the managements of the railroads to grant an eight-hour day for workmen and an increase in wages. The strike was called simultaneously at Neuvo, Laredo, San Luis Potosi, Mexico City and Aguas Calientes. At Neuvo Laredo, 100 skilled mechanics and 100 other employees walked out. The shops were closed.

Because of the already demoralized conditions along the line of the railway, as the result of rebel activity, the strike has caused the greatest concern. Railroad officials refuse to discuss the situation beyond stating that the strike will not cause a tie up of the lines and that they believe regular train service can be maintained.

At a number of points bridges and stations have been burned by the revolutionists and long stretches of roadbed destroyed. The employees expressed the demands some weeks ago with an ultimatum that if they were not acceded a strike would be called before the end of the year. No intimation had been given, however, that today was selected as the date of the walk-out.

Peculiar Turnip.

The State Dispatch is in receipt of a very peculiar turnip left in our office during the Christmas Holidays. The turnip resembles the growth of three turnips all together with a separate root from each all three joining together. The turnip is about the size of a half gallon tin. We have been looking at the turnip and expect to soon put it to safe keeping.

—An attendant at a certain institute for the deaf and dumb was undergoing a pointless rapid-fire inquisition at the hands of a female visitor.

"But how do you summon these poor mutes to church?" she asked finally with what was meant to be a pitying glance at the inmates nearby.

"By ringing the dumb bells, madam" restored the exasperated attendant.—Tid Bits.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys. If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are common symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is recommended for the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. It has cured many stubborn cases this winter.

Can Burlington residents demand further proof than the following testimonial?

Mrs. John Fogleman, Graham N. C., says: "I am sorry I did not begin the use of Doan's Kidney Pills sooner, for if I had I would have been spared a great deal of suffering and expense. I had been ailing for a long time before I exactly what was the matter. There was a constant pain in my back and I slept poorly that I was all tired out in the morning.

The kidney secretions bothered me and though I took various home remedies and medicines, did not seem to get any better one day I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and getting a supply, began their use. After I had finished the contents of three boxes, I had no further cause for complaint."
