Sheppard Veteran Runner, Retires.

New York, March 5.—Melville W. Sheppard, the veteran champion runner of the Irish-American Athletic club, has notified the Amateur Athletic union that he probably will be unable to compete in the senior indoor championships tomorrow morning. Sheppard was slightly injured in a train wreck in Canada on Monday.

Many Congressmen Favor Women Suffrage.

Washington, March 7.—That congress contains enough members favorable to woman's suffrage to make possible the passage at the first regular session of an equal suffrage amendment to the federal constitution was the belief expressed today by Senator Poindexter.

Letter from Mr. White.

To the Editor, Dispatch.

Dear Sir:—

In my letter addressed to Hon. J. Elmer Long, dated Feb. 21st in regard to the salary of the sheriff of Alamance County, I stated, which appeared in this week's Leader, "I am informed that the bill was drawn fixing the salary of the County officers with the provision that it would not affect his commissions on the taxes during this term."

I want to correct this as I am in error, and should have stated, "During this year or for the taxes of 1912."

I ask you to please publish this letter as I have through an error misquoted Mr. Charles F. Cates in this matter. However, this does not change my contention that it was understood and agreed with all the parties who were responsible for this bill that the sheriff was not to be paid any commissions after his salary went into effect, and I still content that it is an injustice to the tax payers of Alamance County.

I am informed that the fees turned into the County Treasury for the month of December from the sheriff's office amount to only about $10.00, and the County paid to the sheriff and his deputy salary of $250.00 for December.

I still content that the sheriff and his deputy should not be paid the commissions in addition to his salary.

Yours very truly,

W. E. White.

Mr. Buchanan Back From New York.

Mr. J. C. Buchanan, has returned from New York City, where he attended the 4th annual convention of the Associated Southern 5-10 & 25 Cent Store, of which he is a member. At this time The Associated Southern is operating over 300 Stores in the south, which gives them a buying power equal to that of any of the big Syndicates operating in the larger cities. Mr. Buchanan says they are doing great things, especially are they reducing the high cost of living. He also reports having purchased the best showing of Easter novelties, candies, and neckwear that has ever been their pleasure to present for your inspection, all at popular prices. New goods arriving daily at THE BUCHANAN 5-10 & 25 Cent Store, Burlington, N. C.

Dox Supper.

There will be a Box Supper and Declaration contest at Friendship High School Saturday night March 15. Everybody Come.

The Bible Wilson Kissed When he Took the Oath.

Washington, March 7.—On a leaf of the Bible which President Wilson kissed in taking the oath, has just been engrossed the complete presidential oath. It will bear the signature of the President and Chief Justice White of the Supreme court, and be returned to the White House.

The Bible was the same used by Wilson when he took the oath as governor of New Jersey, Jan. 17, 1911. It was sent here by the President for the ceremonies on March 4, and here an inscription of the gubernatorial ceremonies.

At the Christian Church.

A sermon studies on the books of Daniel, and The Revelation will be started in the Christian Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, by the pastor.

Theme for the evening service The Divine Provision for Human Need. All are welcome.

Hillsboro Trial Four Students.

The overshadowing event of this week's term of Orange county criminal court will be the trial of the four young University students for the causing of the death of "Billy" Rand during a hazing bee in the early morning of the 13th of last September. This case will be watched with interest not only in Orange county, but all over the state, and will attract more attention than any case that has been tried in recent years in North Carolina. The four defendants are A. C. Hatch, of Mt. Olive; Ralph W. Oldham of Raleigh; and A. H. Styron and W. L. Merrimon, of Wilmington. The young men, who are indicted for manslaughter, have engaged able counsel and will make a hard fight. Among the attorneys interested in the case are Judge J. S. Manning and Senator V. S. Bryant of Durham. Owing to the fact that Senator Bryant will be detained in Raleigh by the legislature until Wednesday, the case will hardly be called Wednesday afternoon or Thursday morning. Judge Peebles is president and Solicitor Gattis will look after the state's interests.

A Waffle Supper.

The Junior Philathea class of the M. P. Sunday school will give a waffle supper next Saturday night March 15, 1913, for the benefit of their new class room. They will also serve hot coffee, hot chocolate, ham sandwiches, and cream and cake. The public is cordially invited to go out and help these young ladies in a good cause. It will be held in the old Grotto Building, from 7:00 to 10:00 P. M.

Tuesday, March 12th.

Dr. N. Rosenstein, of Durham will make his call to Burlington next Tuesday March 12th, stopping at the Burlington Drug Co., for the purpose of examining the eyes and fitting glasses. If your eyes need any glasses don't fail to see him his charges are very reasonable.

School News.

Mrs. McKimmon of Raleigh was in the County last week in the interest of the Tomato Club Work. Mrs. McKimmon is the state coordinator for growing and canning tomatoes. She with Miss Margaret Scott, our County Coordinator visited a few places in Alamance. This work was started by Miss Scott last year. The clubs last year in this county produced 9000 cans and these solidly packed to weigh 40 ounces each. No other county in the state produced as many tomatoes per member as did Alamance. It is our desire that the work grow into larger proportions this year.

A report from the state office a few days ago brings the news that Alamance has been by to participate in the Corn Club members. There are other counties in the state that numbered more than ours. Last year our club numbered 50.

Schools continue to make material improvements. The Glenwood school gave an entertainment a few evenings past and made a nice little sum. This school has bought lamps and pictures for the school room and also painted shade trees on the school ground. The painters will begin work on High Land school building in a few days.

Church Social.

The members of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday night at the church and held a social meeting for the purpose of getting better acquainted with each other and enjoying a few hours together sociable. One of the features of the contest in which twenty of the counties of the state were represented and each one presented ask to guess and see how many they could get right. One duet and one quartet was rendered by voices of the choir. Refreshments consisting of chicken salad sandwiches and coffee was served.

Clean up the Town.

A day will be set in the near future for the purpose of hauling off all the old rubbish from the different parts of the town. Get busy and clean up, place the trash where the wagon can get it and make our town present a better appearance for cleanliness. Not only clean up but stay cleaned up.

Now is the time to help your friend in the contest.

Woman In Chair Is Burned To Death.

Winston-Salem, March 10.—Still sitting in a chair, although burned to a crisp, Lillie Osborne a middle aged white woman, was found in her little home just north west of the city about noon today. She had been dead for some time, judging from the general appearance of the corpse. Neighbors say the woman has not been seen since Saturday. The coroner is making a thorough investigation, there being a supposition that the woman was murdered before her clothing was set on fire.

Guilford Man Will Get A Berth.

Washington, D. C. March 10 Thomas M. Robertson, formerly of Liberty, N. C., but for the past few years an expert in the bureau of corporation, is being seriously considered by Secretary of Commerce Redfield for first assistant secretary of that department. If Mr. Robertson is not given this berth he will be offered the place as commissioner of corporations. He has made a good and efficient official in his present position and the promotion will come as a reward for meritorious service more than for political reasons.

Mr. Robertson is the father of Miss Pearl Robertson of the Graded School faculty and is a native of Alamance County, being closely related to our County Superintendent, Prof. J. B. Robertson.

Revival Services At M. P. Church.

On next Sunday morning a series of Revival Services will begin at the Methodist Protestant Church in this city. The pastor Rev. T. E. Davis, will be assisted in this meeting by Rev. G. R. Millaway of Greensboro, a former pastor who is well and favorably known to nearly all our citizens. The public is cordially invited to attend all these services, take a part in them, and help to make them a success.

Whitsett, 16; Bingham, 0.

Whitsett, March 8.—Whitsett and Bingham school met here today on the home diamond and the Whitsett team had a complete walkover to the score of Whitsett, 16; Bingham 0.

The seeming one-sided score does not represent the interest in the game, as Bingham played manfully, but at every important time was checked by the Whitsett team. Ray for Whitsett did superb work, while Blaneard and McConnell did valiant service for Bingham, but lacked in support at critical moments.

Score finalings:

R. H. E. Whitsett..... 400 308 312 18 16 1 Bingham..... 1 000 000 000 0 2 5

About The P. O. Applicants.

Monday Mr. O. P. Crowson and a delegation of friends went to Greensboro to give Congressman Steadman a call relative to Mr. Crowson's application for the Post Office. On Tuesday Mr. P. L. Williamson made the same trip to visit the same man for the same purpose. Tuesday's News and Observer gave the names of Messers Williamson and Crowson as having made application for this position, not saying anything about the number of other applicants who are supposed to be in the ring. As this was written from Washington we suppose the other applicants are not so well known to the reporters of this city of fame.

The City Water Situation.

Monday Mr. W. W. Brown a member of the Water Light and Power Commission went to Greensboro to see Mr. A. D. Sheldon of the Southern Railway about furnishing water for the boilers of this commission known in a very few days, thinking the need can be supplied. The Commission is at present negotiating with the Piedmont Electric Company with a view of securing water from the Graham well. It is thought this transaction can be closed and the water furnished in twenty or thirty days.

—She: "Are you sure that you've never been engaged to any one before?" He—"Certain. Why do you ask?" —She: "Because you kiss as though you had a lot of practice."

Oakdale Item.

Mrs. Ann Simmons wife of Mr. J. O. Simmons was buried at Mt. Zion Feb. 21 after an illness for several days with a stroke of paralysis. She was born and raised near the old church was a consistent member of the old church. For several years about 4 years ago she and her husband moved to Greensboro where she died. The funeral was conducted by her pastor Rev. Walker of Ashboro Street Baptist Church. She leaves a husband 2 daughter 2 son 2 sisters 3 brothers to mourn her gain. A place in the home is vacant that can never be filled. Her grave was covered with flowers showing the love and respect of these left behind.

The Pleasant Hill school closed March 8 with a ball game and contest at night.

The school at Oakdale we understand will close about April 4 or 5.

Our old friend Spoon Tine says he is doing something better than sawing tooth picks he has got up to sawing pick handles.

Hello No. 7 what have you got to say about the ground hog now? It appears to us winter has just beg. We did not get to make a say last week but I guess Mr. Wilson is out of the now we can have our say.

Living is getting cheaper since one of our neighbors went to Burlington a few days ago and took a load of wood and turnip greens and got 5 cts for his load purty good for him. I guess he will go again soon. Hum.

Dr. L. D. Crawford In Jail At Graham Charged With Assaulting A Woman.

Dr. L. D. Crawford of Oklahoma, who, with his wife, has been in this city for several days selling land in that state, was arrested here Saturday night upon the serious charge of assaulting a boarding house on Front St. this city. The complaint as filed and upon which the doctor was arrested, is in the nature of a civil action and is for damages in the sum of $1,999 for herself and a like amount for her husband. It is understood that criminal will also be instituted against him. Dr. Crawford is now in Graham, refusing to try to make a $4,000 bond fixed by the clerk of the court.

Sporting News.

The first game of the season for the Burlington High School boys will be Friday evening at The Piedmont Park when they will try their hand with the Graham High School team. The game will be called at 8:00 o'clock. Both teams report to be in fine practice and a good game is expected. The batteries for Graham will be Browning and Hardin, for Burlington Evans and Andrews. Our home team is unusually strong this season as only a few changes have been made since last year when the boys won the championship.

On Saturday evening Oak Ridge and Bingham will be at the Piedmont Park, this promises also to be a good game.

Post Office Building Appropriation

Congress has recently made an appropriation of $65,000.00 to be used in Burlington for the purpose of erecting a building on the lot purchased near the Chinese Laundry for the home of the Post Office. Although the lot has been purchased and appropriation made it will be some time before the building will be erected.

Haw River Items.

The play at the graded school Saturday night was a success and the enjoyment was great.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Blackman and family of Sampson County are visiting relatives here. Mr. Blackman will attend the W. O. W. Convention at Asheville this week after which they will return to the land of "huckle berries."

Mr. George Thorton, of Smithfield, N. C., spent a town Sunday at the State Library friends.

J. H. Blackman Jr, of High Point, N. C., is on the sick list. Hope he will soon be out.

W. J. Hill was called by telegram the bad side of his mother, Mrs. Harnah Baseman at Durham who is very low. We wish he may find her better.

Miss Myrtle and Elizabeth Purcell went to Greensboro Saturday to visit their mother who is sick in the Hospital.

Little Elizabeth Vaughan is on the sick list this week.

Some of the members of Alamance Council No. 10 D. of L. visited Purity Council No. 22 of Burlington Saturday night. They report a good time.

We regret that Mr. W. H. Trollinger is very feeble. He has lived his four score with long life has the good Lord satisfied him and he is just abiding the time.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher upon the arrival of a beautiful little daughter.

Mrs. D. R. Purcell went to St. Leo's Hospital last week for treatment is getting along nicely. Hope she will soon be well and at home.

Mrs. G. T. Pendergast and Master Tighe, of High Point, N. C. visited her sister last week Mrs. T. Lasley. She returned home Sunday, accompanied to Greensboro by Misses Carrie Lashley, Espan and Lilla Bullard where they visited Mrs. J. C. Morris. They report a delightful time.

Mr. T. Lashley who has been ill for some time, is improving. Hope he will soon be out again.

The plays given by the Aethian Literary Society of the Aycock Graded School on Saturday night were well rendered.

There was some disturbance on the part of some of the boys of the town. They were prosecuted by Prof. Smith and dealt with by a severe punishment of the law. While Prof. Smith is a congenial friend of the boys, he has the nerve and backbone to "stand up" for the right regardless of "who it is." Boys will find the way of the transgressor is hard.

Girls Beg for Babies Without Authority.

Raleigh, N. C. March 7.—For the past several days two little girls have been soliciting money from the more generous people of this city for the babies of the First Baptist Sunday school, but it is probable that the babies, or any one except the girls, will see any of the cash. Mr. Talbot Brewer, says the little girls plan is a fake. If every one approached by the girls gave money, and such is not probable, they reaped a rich harvest. They were wise in executing their scheme only to North Blount street, one of the most fashionable in the city. Mr. Brewer or the police do not know the names of the little girls. The announcement given out by the superintendent is as follows: "It has come to me from several sources in the last few days that some little girls have been promiscuously soliciting contributions for the Cradle Roll department of the First Baptist Sunday school. We feel it due ourselves and the public to announce that no such canvass is now being made or ever has been made by the authority of the school for any department connected with it."

County School News.

In the recent triangular debates any school that wins both sides of the questions has the privilege to go to the University to take part in a final debate for the Aycock loving cup. Graham and Hawthfield have met these conditions and will go to Chapel Hill to contest for the cup next Friday night. The box party given by the Bethel school Saturday Feb. 22 was a financial success. The proceeds amounted to $18 and will be used to supplement the library and for other school improvements. New Hope school gave on Feb. 22 a box party and guessing contest. The proceeds amounted to $17.05 Garlan Graves was awarded a Webster Pocket Dictionary for making the closest guess. The proceeds of the evening will be used to lengthen the school term. The Supt. has just had made bench bases for elevating library cases and can furnish one to any school that has an unelevated book case. Several schools have secured exhibit paper for school products from the office during the past week and a number of schools have received examination questions. Any student that passes the examination and sends in his or her name to the office before April 15 may contest in recognition on commencement day, April 28.

Remember the contest will close April 15.

ENDS HUNT FOR RICH GMRL.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, back-ache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If they weak or ailing try them. 50 cents at Freeman Drug Store.

NOTICE!

Road Tax For 1913, Due.

The special road poll tax for the year 1913 is now due and payable until the first day of April. Under the old the Treasurer was paid a small commission for collecting and handling this fund. And heretofore I have given that commission to those who looked after it in the different Townships. But now under the Salary law there is no provision made for any one to be paid anything out of this fund. Therefore, unless some one will volunteer to collect without charge in the townships, I cannot put the books out, as has been my custom. According to instruction from the County Commissioners, the books will be at my office in the court house in Graham, and all persons desiring to pay will pay to me, unless they find some one else with the books.

Respectfully,
Albert J. Thompson,
Treasurer Alamance County

OLD NORTH STATE FINLEY'S THEME

RELATION OF SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY TO NORTH CAROLINA.

FREIGHT RATES DISCUSSED

President of Southern Railway Company Guest of Goldsboro Chamber of Commerce at First Annual Banquet.

Goldsboro, N. C.—President Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, who was one of the speakers at a banquet given Friday evening by the Goldsboro Chamber of Commerce, spoke on "The State of North Carolina," with special reference to the relations of the Southern Railway Company to the State and what the management of that Company is endeavoring to do for the State.

Mr. Finley said that he proposed to speak in the profound conviction that the interests of the State will best be promoted by policies that are best for the interests of the people and for the interests of the railways. He said:

"A great deal has recently been said on the subject of the Virginia Cities rates from the West. It is most important to have a clear understanding regarding the conditions that have led to the establishment of the Virginia Cities rates. I shall refer to this matter only so far as may be necessary to make clear the responsibility for the establishment of those rates."

Mr. Finley pointed out that, prior to the time when the roads operating through North Carolina began to compete for Virginia Cities business, the rates on that business had been established by lines which did not touch North Carolina. He showed that the roads making these rates traversed more densely populated regions and have a greater density of traffic than the lines in the South, and said:

"The fact that some of the lines operating through North Carolina have competed for the Virginia Cities business at the rates established by these other companies, but at a margin of profit at which they could not afford to carry all of their business, does not, in any way, make them responsible for the Virginia Cities rates."

"It is now well known, however, that conferences have been in progress between representatives of the State of North Carolina and the railways in an effort to reach an understanding on questions as to the effect of the Virginia Cities rates on points in North Carolina. The railways, in deference to the sentiment of the people of the State on the subject and not because they consider the carrying of such business at present tariff rates economically unsound, have offered, in connection with a proposed adjustment, now in process of being worked out between the State and the railways, to withdraw from the business from the West to the Virginia Cities through North Carolina. It is also proposed that the effect of the Virginia Cities rates on points in North Carolina shall be considered in conference in an effort to reach an agreement as to reasonable adjustments which may be put into effect through an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission. I will not burden you this evening with other features of the conferences between the State and the railways. It is my most earnest hope that the negotiations, thus entered upon, may result in removing every ground of controversy between the people of North Carolina and the railways on this subject."

"It would, I believe, be most unfortunate if the people of any State and the railways, which are so important to their progress and development, should become involved in controversy on questions of railway charges. Much the better plan, in my opinion, is that of meeting in conference. In such a conference, all matters at issue should, in a spirit of fairness on both sides, be discussed in all their economic relations and every effort should be made to arrive at an amicable agreement that will work substantial justice. I believe that, if after full and free conference in which all facts and arguments presented shall have been considered in a spirit of reciprocal fairness, any questions remain as to which agreements can not be reached, they should be submitted to those tribunals which have been constituted by the laws of the land for their adjudication."

States Great Progress.
Referring to the dependence of production upon highways to market, Mr. Finley said it was not a mere accident that the progress of North Carolina in recent years had been coincident with the development of more efficient transportation agencies. Reviewing the splendid achievements of the people of North Carolina as shown by United States Census figures, he summed up the agricultural progress of the State by showing that the total value of farm prosperity in the State increased from $233,834,693 in 1900 to $537,716,219 in 1910; an increase of $303,881,517, or 130 per cent, as compared with an increase of 100.1 per cent for all of the other States. Even more noteworthy were the statistics of manufacturing showing a gain in the value of manufactured products in North Carolina from $85,274,083 in 1899 to $216,656,055 in 1909, an increase of $131,381,972, or 154 per cent, as compared with 80.7 per cent for all of the other States, every manufacturing industry in the State, with the single exception of turpentine and rosin, showing increases ranging from 56 per cent for men's clothing to 459 per cent for boots and shoes and 463 per cent for mattresses and spring beds.

He drew the conclusion from the statistics of agriculture and manufacturing that economic conditions in North Carolina are exceptionally favorable to progress and development. As showing that the progress of those parts of the State served by Southern Railway lines compares most favorably with other parts of the State, Mr. Finley pointed out that, in the twenty-year census period from 1890 to 1910, covering the first sixteen years of the corporate existence of the Southern Railway Company, eighteen North Carolina cities with a population of 2,500 or more in 1910 had shown a growth of more than 80 per cent, these cities being Asheville with 83.3 per cent increase; Hickory, 83.6 per cent; Statesville, 98.4 per cent; Concord, 100.8 per cent; Winston-Salem, 111.6 per cent; Mount Airy, 117.4 per cent; Shelby, 124.3 per cent; Hendersonville, 131.7 per cent; Graham, 151.7 per cent; Burlington, 180.2 per cent; Lexington, 189 per cent; Charlotte, 194.3 per cent; Mooresville, 283.7 per cent; Greensboro, 379.2 per cent; Gastonia, 457.5 per cent; Thomasville, 557.1 per cent; High Point, where the increase could not be expressed in percentage for the reason that the population which had grown to 9,525 in 1910, was so small in 1890 that it was not returned separately, by the census; and Salisbury, combined with Spencer and East Spencer, suburbs which owe their existence to the shops of the Southern Railway, showed an increase of 144.4 per cent.

Speaking of the helpfulness of the Southern Railway Company to the territory traversed by its lines, Mr. Finley pointed out that one of the ways in which it is contributing to the development of North Carolina is through its large expenditures in the State, its payments within North Carolina, on account of wages and taxes alone being each year in excess of the total amount of freight revenue collected within the State.

Mr. Finley said that the Company's helpful co-operation is available for every community in the State. He told of the organization and activities of the Greater Western North Carolina Association, and said the Company would be glad to participate in a State-wide movement of the same sort if carried on under the auspices of the State or through a responsible organization similar to that in Western North Carolina. He said that, in addition to an agent of the Land and Industrial Department located in the State and the representation of the Department of Farm Improvement Work by an Assistant Manager at Charlotte and Field Agents at Greensboro and Asheville, North Carolina shares with the other States traversed by its lines in the services of the Company's Dairy Agents and Live Stock Agents. Under a scholarship provision made by the Company, three North Carolina boys are receiving the benefits of the full four-year agricultural course in the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College. Telling of the recent appointment by the Southern Railway and associated companies of four Market Agents to assist in the successful marketing of agricultural and horticultural products from territory along their lines, Mr. Finley said that one of the first concrete propositions undertaken by these agents was that of adding in the effort to find the most advantageous markets for 50,000 cases of tomatoes put up by the Girls' Tomato Clubs of North Carolina.

Southern (Not in Politics).

In conclusion, Mr. Finley said: "The Southern Railway Company does not participate in the politics of North Carolina or of any other State traversed by its lines. There was a time when support by the railways of policies deemed essential to the preservation of our civilization was urged upon them as a patriotic duty. I think we may all rejoice in the awakening of public conscience and the elevation of public standards that would condemn any return to those conditions. In abstaining from political activity in the State, the Company has not surrendered any of the fundamental political rights to which it is entitled in as full measure as any other business enterprise or any individual citizens. These rights include the sacred right of petition—the right to be heard in argument and protest before legislative bodies, the courts of the land and administrative tribunals. They include the right to make such a presentation of facts before the bar of public opinion as I am endeavoring to make this evening. In availing myself of this right, all that I ask from ton, North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Wednesday, Mar. 5, 1913.

One Buyer.

Our fight for a commission government was directly a failure but indirectly a success, because we made it so warm for the finance committee of the city that they passed an order on the night following the mass meeting in the mayor's hall restricting the purchasing power of the city to the clerk of the Water, Light and Power Commission. A wise act indeed, and we claim the honor.

There are many, many other little things that could be done if our citizens would only demand these progressive steps that are essential to our municipal life. Therefore, we expect from time to time to suggest to this board to time and to incoming board, such measures that we think would benefit the town regardless of whether they are accepted or rejected. We have come to the conclusion that he who fights not for a cause is surely against it.

There are many in Burlington and Alamance County who would like to win the laurel of victory and wear the jewels that are fit to grace the bosom of an Eastern potentate and would love even the robes of honor that fair America bestows, upon its honored sons but they lack in such great measure the courage of labor valiantly for any great cause.

We are for a commission government for Burlington and we shall approve it, regardless of who oppose it, personally, if no other way, we will support the measure regardless of the party that champions the movement, even if it should fall so low as to reach partisan lines.

The Legislature.

The present legislature has done the most talk and writing to do the least for the benefit and relief of North Carolina of any legislature that history records. They have given as a little bond issue of $1,000,000.00 to cover the deficits of the government for the past two years and have increased the tax rate for the state so that it will bring in an additional income of $400,000.00 annually and have placed an excessive privilege tax of every vocation and calling in life. The important things that were presented to the legislature were left undone.

The tax commission being the most important was side tracked entirely. The average tax rate for land in Alamance County is $12 an acre and land can be bought at any price from $3 an acre. We know a county only a few miles west of here in which the land can be bought for less than $5 an acre and the same land is listed to the state at $23 an acre. This is a grave injustice and must be remedied.

The judgment of the freight rates between this legislature and railroad systems will have the same effect upon North Carolina that the dissolution of the American Tobacco Company and similar trust dissolutions. Another great trouble of our system in N. C. is that of the legislature has consumed in the past local frivolous bills that affect only a practical locality and are worth nothing to the state at large, the things that should be done by the state and town is being given over as a work for the legislature.

The six months school term passed by the legislature was a wise thing that has been done by this body and among the members of the upper and lower house was summoned very strong in and labored arduously for the best interest of the state, but the great majority were nothing more than parasites bleeding body politic.

The Heritage

The Republicans has turned this country over to the democrats in the best condition known in many years. It is a heritage of prosperity. The hope of people is that the Democrat may hold the condition to the present standard.

There is some improvement possible in a judicious tariff revision and if the Administration does not go too far in the direction all will be well. If the Democrats do not undertake too much in that direction there will be less danger of disturbance of the present prosperous situation. The Democrats had better attempt too few radical change than too many.

The safety of the new Administration is in holding the Ship of State steady and going slow. The party has entered into a house that is not in need of any very radical overhauling.

The following interesting reading is taken from the Charlotte Observer in the issue of March 8th 1913 under the title, The Heritage. It will be well for you to preserve this copy of The Dispatch for ere the time that history shall close its records for the succeeding four years. This as well as many other brilliant exponents of democracy will forget as well as deny this statement. It is the ring of an honest confession and its facts well and wisely stated.

Good Morning.

Is it you? Yes.

Have you heard of? Yes.

How many heard it? Seven or more.

Who are they? All men.

Where did they get it? Don't know.

How did they get it? Won't tell.

Any Democrats? Yes. Five.

Any Republicans? Yes. One.

Any Bull Moose? No.

Did a Bull Moose want it? No.

Any more? Yes one.

Do you know him? Yes. But can't tell.

Do you like it? Yes says one. No says six.

Can you get it again? Not in four years, says five. The others may get it any time.

Does it pay? No.

Will it pay? It may.

Who pays? Uncle Sam.

Do Democrats like a pone? Yes.

They all want it.

Is every body getting? It No only one.

Whitsett, 3; Horner, 2.

In the first game of the season Whitsett defeated Horner at Oxford Tuesday by the score of 3 to 2. The teams were both in fine condition, and it was a spirited battle from start to finish. These two teams rank this year with the finest of the school teams of the state, and they put ginger and snap into every moment of the battle.

the people of the State of North Carolina is and have no doubt that it will be accorded, but consideration of all questions affecting the relations of the Southern Railway Company to the State as economic questions.

"I have spoken to you tonight not as an adviser, but as one who is enough sympathetic to the ideals and aspirations of the people of North Carolina to feel that as one who has been in the management of an agency of the State, the development of the State, by attitude toward the people of North Carolina is that of one whose earnest desire it is to be useful and co-operatively helpful, and who, though he may have made errors of judgment, has always been sincere.

"The Old North State has a history of which her sons may well be proud. She was the first formally to declare her independence of the British Crown and has ever been among the foremost of the States in thought and action. She is, as the census figures show, among the first of the States in present-day progress and I have no fear that, with her splendid natural advantages and through the co-operation of her enterprising citizens and her railways, she will continue to hold that proud position."

SILLO REDUCES FEED COST

How to Build a Good One With Ordinary Farm Tools Told in Southern Railway Folder.

How the average farmer, using ordinary farm tools, at an expense of only $65.00 can construct a silo with a capacity of 55 tons—enough silage to feed 20 cows 40 pounds per day for four months—is told in a booklet just gotten out by the Live Stock Department of the Southern Railway, a copy of which will be mailed free to any farmer addressing request for same to Mr. F. L. Word, Live Stock Agent, Southern Railway Building, Atlanta, Ga.

"Where there is Live Stock on the Farm There Should be a Silo" is the title of this booklet which tells of the advantage to the farmer of having a silo and the great saving which it enables him to make in the cost of winter feeding for his live stock. The figures given are taken from the practical experience of a Tennessee farmer who built a silo on the farm indicated twenty years ago, who finds it has paid for itself many times over.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has recently declared that the Southern States constitute the ideal section of the United States for live stock raising and must be looked to in future years for the nation's food supply. To stimulate interest in the live stock industry and to aid farmers to successfully follow this line, the Southern Railway has established its live stock department which is giving undivided attention to this work.

ECONOMY IN DAIRY.

The problems of dairying are not at all mysterious or difficult of solution. It is a question of obtaining a cow that will give the most milk for the feed consumed, and in supplying that cow with the feed which will make milk. These, together with good care as care is ordinarily understood by the man who is successful in handling live stock, will make the dairy herd profitable and highly successful.

GOOD DAIRY FARMER.

A good dairy farmer has been described as "a good general farmer plus the love of cows." This is a good definition, because the man who does not have a fondness for satisfaction in caring for them seldom turns out to be a very capable and prosperous dairy farmer.

SILAGE FOR CALVES.

Calves at the age of three or four months will consume some silage if care is taken to pick out the leafy portions for them. It does not take them long after this before they will consume a considerable quantity of silage.

SHREDDED FOODER AND CLOVER.

Shredded corn-feeder combined with clover hay makes an excellent and most valuable food for dairy cows, as it contains the needed protein and supplies the muscle-making material for growing animals.

SILAGE FOR ONE ACRE.

A field of 12 tons of silage may easily be obtained from one acre of corn. Allowing 30 pounds of silage as a daily ration, one acre of corn will furnish four cows with silage for 20 days.

SHED FOR SUNNY DAYS.

A good covered shed well loaded with straw, will make a fine place for the cows to lie in on days when they can not go out to the fields. It will also help you to get a nice lot of manure.

FEEDING JUST ENOUGH.

In feeding cows do not give them more than they can use readily. Any feed that is left in the mangers after the cows are through will naturally represent a certain amount of waste.

Chas. Cramer and Wife Found Guilty Of Murder.

Chicago, March 8.—Charles Cramer and wife Beatrice Ryal Cramer were found guilty today of the murder of Miss Sophia Singer of Baltimore. Cramer was sentenced to life imprisonment and his wife to fourteen years in the penitentiary.

The jury recommended that clemency be shown to the woman. A motion for a new trial was entered, and the prisoners were taken to their cells.

The verdict apparently affected Cramer more than it did his wife.

"I love my husband and I wanted to save him," said Mrs. Cramer after the verdict had been returned. "I figured that if I told the truth I might save myself, but if I had done that my conscience would have bothered the rest of my life. If I had told the truth my husband would have gone to the gallows. I couldn't do it, not even to save myself."

Miss Singer, a wealthy young woman was beaten to death in a south side apartment house where she and the Cramers lived.

Cramer also known as Conway a circus clown, and his wife left the city the night of the murder. They were caught two days later at Lima, Ohio.

Death of Miss Mollie Crisp.

Miss Mollie Crisp died Sunday morning at three o'clock at her home on Morehead street. About three weeks ago Miss Crisp was seized with an attack of pneumonia but by the careful attention of Dr. Stafford and Miss Jordan, trained nurse, assisted by relatives it was thought she was much improved and was able to be up part of the time. Early Sunday morning she was stricken with paralysis of the heart and died within a very short time. Funeral services were conducted Monday evening by Rev. A. B. Kendall assisted by Rev. D. McIver, and her body was laid to rest at Pine Hill Cemetery.

Since her illness her sisters
Mrs. Anderson of this place and
Mrs. W. B. Sellars of near Mebane have been with her. She leaves a number of relatives and friends and will be greatly missed by her aunt Miss Healen
Bolton with whom she resided.
She was about 55 years of age.
Thus a good christian woman has

Charred Body Found.

Winston-Salem, March 10.
—Still sitting in a chair, although burned to a crisp, Lillie Osborn, a middle-aged white woman was found in her little home in the rear of the old Oakland furniture plant about noon today. She had been dead for some time, judging from the condition of the corpse.

William J. Bryan Talks in Riddles.

Washington, Mar. 5.—William Jennings Bryan, in addressing the assistant secretaries and heads of the various bureaus of the state department today: "I'm not prepared to discuss tenure in office. My own tenure is, as I was about to say brief but my tenure is not even begun. I am sure your tenure is therefore not more uncertain than mine. I have not had time to learn from the president the general policy that will be impressed on the various department, but it is not necessary for us to discuss the length of service. It is sufficient at this time to make each others acquaintance and I hope when the time comes for me to assemble you to introduce you to my successor, I can look back upon as delightful occasion as the retiring secretary does."
 Mr. Bryan's words caused surprise, but he followed them with no explanation.

Two Suicide Attempts in Fifteen Hours.

Durham, March 7.—Two attempts at suicide within fifteen hours is the unusual record of Durham, a young girl Nellie Ross of Edgemont, trying to take her life Wednesday night and Baxter Stansfield, of the same section, attempting suicide Thursday morning. Both will recover. Miss Ross drank about a half ounce of carbolic acid and for many hours following was in an unconscious condition. The physicians summoned gave her stimulants and this probably saved her life until she was able to wear off the effects of the poison. No cause could be found for her act.
 The Standfield boy drank laudanum getting it from the drug store and telling the druggist that he wanted it for his mother. He left a note telling his people he was tired of living. The quick work of the physicians revived the body by noon Thursday and he was apparently in good spirit over missing his trip into the other land. So far as we could learn the two attempts on their lives had no connection whatever.

 Lots of men who think that there are twelve commandments can't remember one of them.
 I don't believe this stuff that George Washington never telling a lie. What did he do when Martha asked him if a strange girl was pretty? If he wasn't a liar his married life must have been one long battle.
 If husband would play as fair with wives as wives do with husbands it would help some.
 A real motherly woman can put her hand on any part of her dress and pull out a pin.

 Old-fashioned girls and boys used to court a girl for six months before they could hold hands. Nowada's they start in making the first time they meet.
 It is just as well that there are no more married families about these days. If there were the picture of mother sitting in a chair with father standing beside her would be replaced by a post card showing mother sitting on fathers lap in a stuffy arm-chair and a big sign: "O. Nobody Wants Pie.

Asheville, March 6.—If civil service examinations give any indication of the manner in which the men of Asheville are spending their time, it is safe to presume that everyone here is satisfied with his present position or doesn't desire to work for Uncle Sam. Within the past two weeks, the bulletin boards of the Federal building have carried the information that civil service examinations would be held. However, many have been postponed on account of the failure of applicants to appear, in spite of the fact that positions of various characters have been open.

Parliament Will Have Short Recess

London, March 7.—The British Parliament was prorogued today for one of the shortest recesses in its history. It is to reassemble on Monday, March 10, for another of the sessions, for which the Liberal Government has become famous.
 The king's speech from the throne today was probably the briefest on such an occasion, merely expressing regret that the members of the two house would have only a nominal period of release from their labors.
 Last session was a long one but almost every day was marked by a determined fight between the two front benches in which the private member had but little opportunity of doing any thing but vote. This session will be humdrum in comparison and the Government whips will have hard work to keep the mark.

Develop Farming.

Only sixteen per cent of the land of the U. S. is actually cultivated. Germany supports sixty million people on an area smaller than that of Texas. Is there not something wrong?
 Seven hundred thousand farmers have crossed the line into Canada in the last ten years. That fact does not do us credit. One reason for this is that our government has been too largely in the hands of the Special Interest, and there has been too little legislation for the benefit of the farming classes.
 The farmers of this country should hold their congressman and other representatives to account. They should insist that the government do something for them. They should insist that tariff schedules be not made to enable the manufacturer to get more than he is naturally entitled to. Insist upon the Square Deal.
 Something can be expected from the Wilson administration, for it certainly is not owned by the men who have financed the campaign in their interest. It is now well-authenticated history that the rich men of the East have put vast sums into presidential campaigns and assumed ownership of the men they elected to office.—Louisville (Ky.) Post.

Lawyer And Clients Faint In Courtroom.

Chicago, Ill., March 7.—The case of Charles Cramer, circus clown and high diver, who with his wife is charged with the murder of Miss Sophia Singer, of Baltimore, was given to the jury by Judge Kersten this afternoon and the jury retired to consider its verdict.
 In his closing argument Attorney Remus declared that the state had offered no evidence connecting Mrs. Cramer with the crime. He said the woman, repudiated her confession made to the police against his advice, and that she disregard his counsel through love and loyalty for her husband.
 Attorney Remus, who left a sick bed to make a plea for the life of his client, collapsed as he finished speaking, and had to be carried to an ante chamber to be revived.
 A few minutes later both Cramer and his wife fainted. Assistant State Attorney Remus made no closing argument for the prosecution and demanded the execution of the death penalty for both Cramer and his wife.

Wilson's Inauguration Cost About $72,000.

Washington, D. C., March 6.—Woodrow Wilson's inauguration as president of the United States cost approximately $72,000. The expenditure of the city's inaugural committee was about $48,000, while the receipts from all sources were approximately $34,000. The deficit of $14,000 will be made up from the guarantee fund of $35,000, which was subscribed in Washington. The joint congressional inaugural committee spent about $25,000 appropriated by Congress.

A Boast That a Sensible Girl Doesn't Make.

The sensible girl no longer boasts that she never cooked a meal in all her life. It is an acknowledgment that she knows nothing about what is now a branch of science. The empress of Germany boasts that she is the best cook in the empire.

Daniel C. Roper Of South Carolina Is Named For Office.

Washington, March 7.—President Wilson had settled deep in office today to indicate pretty clearly some of the things that may be expected of him in the future. He made no public announcements of policy, but there were a few developments that seemed to show the trend of the first days of his administration.
 The President told visitors he was inclined to favor the plan of house leaders to continue the special session of Congress to tariff revision.
 He indicated that while he did not at this time look forward to the passage of a currency reform measure at the special session, such a bill might be whittled into shape in the house while the senate was wrestling with the tariff.

Rube Eldridge Traded To Columbus Team.

Greensboro, N. C., March 6.—"Rube" Eldridge, the eccentric southpaw, who won fame during three year's work for the local club of the Carolina league, and who in some circles was regarded as the league's premier southpaw, has been traded to the Columbus, Ga., club for Al Jones, a young left-hander, who Jim Fox declares to have great promise. The trade was consummated this morning.
 "Rube's" habits, which last year became exceedingly loose, were the prime factor in moving the local people to the trade, it being a belief that he had too many "friends" here and that a change of associates or environments might work to his good. Doyle is expected to arrive tomorrow and it is said he would make another strong effort to get Jim Fox to transfer Charles Sisson to the local club.

This is my final notice. All taxes that are now unpaid are long past due and should be paid at once. Besides a number of special appointments, I have made one more regular round than the law requires. The Law provides April the first as the time for advertising all unpaid taxes. Do not think because I may have indulged you in the past that I can always continue to do so.

This is not idle talk, the taxes, must be collected and if you have not gotten your receipt by April the first you will have only yourself to blame for being advertised and the costs to pay.

If you will not do your duty, then I must do mine.

Respectfully,
R. N. Cook.

Gave Up Hope

"I suffered five years, with awful pains, due to womanly troubles," writes Mrs. M. D. McPherson, from Chadbourn, N. C. "They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, and I had an awful hurting in my side; also a headache and a backache.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, but Cardui relieved me."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and making weak women strong and well. During this time, thousands of women have written, like Mrs. McPherson, to tell of the really surprising results they obtained by the use of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

Cardui strengthens, builds, restores, and relieves or prevents unnecessary pain and suffering from womanly troubles. If you are a woman, begin taking Cardui, today.

CONTRACT AWARDED BY ALUMINUM COMPANY.

Spencer, March 7.—A contract was awarded last night to H. B. Hardaway & Co., of Atlanta, to erect a mammoth dam across the Yadkin river near Whitney for the Southern Aluminum company, which recently acquired the Whitney property. The dam will be of concrete instead of stone as formerly planned, will be located seven miles below the old Whitney stone dam. It will be about 1,000 feet long and 145 feet high. It will back water two feet over the top of the old dam seven miles up the river, and will produce nine square miles of water reaching a depth of 145 feet. More than 45,000 horse-power will be developed at the plant now being constructed by the Southern Aluminum company. The old dam and other works at Whitney, built four years ago at a great cost, will be discarded, and the power will be generated seven miles below. An immense canal or spillway, constructed at a cost of seven hundred thousand dollars, will also be discarded and will be submerged in water from the new dam below. The power developed at the plant will, it is said, all be used by the new aluminum mills. Recently the present owners took up options on several thousand acres of valuable lands adjacent to the property, and this is said to be the largest hydro-electric plant in the south. It is learned the contract price for the new concrete dam is more than two million dollars.

Carolians Snowbound

Kinston, N. C., March 7.—Capt. and Mrs. W. L. Kennedy, two prominent people of Falling Creek, this county, were among a number of tourists snowbound at Williams, Ariz., last week while en route to the Grand Canyon of Arizona. The train became stalled in a drifted snow several feet deep, and when the conductor was notified by telegraph that it would be hours before another locomotive could be sent to their relief the passengers faced a long stay in the wild Arizona canyon country without food. An effort to move the locomotive out of the drift without the cars proved fruitless, and serious inconvenience was saved those on the train by the timely arrival of a horseman, who loaned his steed to the conductor. The latter rode to the canyon for help, and ten stage coaches were sent to carry the passengers to a more comfortable place. Capt. and Mrs. Kennedy recently donated their famous country place at Falling Creek, "Cedar Dell," to the Thomas-branch, and are now making an extended tour in the western and Pacific states.

The well kept lawns of a public square in Detroit, Mich., are said to be preserved from injury by placards bearing the single word "Please!"

Charles D. Daly is Reinstated.

Washington, March 5.—Charles D. Daly, a noted football coach, was ordered reinstated in the army in a bill passed in the last hours of the Sixty-second Congress. Daly was captain of the Harvard football team, was appointed to West Point academy and became captain of its football eleven, graduating and was commissioned as a lieutenant in the army, resigned to coach the Harvard eleven, then sought reinstatement.

Another Aviator Killed.

Salisbury, England, March 5.—Geoffrey England, an aviator, was instantly killed today when the mechanism of his aeroplane failed him causing him to plunge 600 feet to the earth.

Now is the time to help your friend in the contest.

The President indorced the policy of the Democratic economy favored by Chairman Fitzgerald, of the house appro-

His attention was called to the bill at the special session. This bill was introduced by Mr. Taft because of his provision practically exempting labor unions and farmers organizations from prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law. Friends familiar with the President's attitude toward kindred questions declare that unless it could be shown that the paragraph to which the former President objected was not "class legislation" he would use his influence to prevent such a provision being inserted in the new bill.

Senators found that Mr. Wilson is observing the courtesies usually extended them. He called in several senators and asked if they would object to several appointments he expected to make. It was pointed out on authority that President Wilson does not intend to turn over to his department chiefs the appointments of office federal holders, particular important posts.

His order of Wednesday was made for the purpose of allowing department heads to shift out applications and present him with one or more suitable candidates. Appointments in practically every case, eventually will reach the White House, even if the appointees themselves are barred in the preliminary stages. Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany hall, met the President today for the first time in many months. The visit was one of the White House secretaries who said Mr. Murphy wished to pay his respects to the new President. Mrs. Murphy and daughters, congressman Fitzgerald and Riordan, Phillip J. Donahue.

ALLENS ARE RESPECTED UNTIL MARCH 28.

Richmond, Va., March 5.—Governor Mann tonight granted respite until March 28 to Floyd Allen and his son, Claude Swanson Allen, under sentence to die in the electric chair at the State penitentiary on Friday next for their part in the Hillsville court murder on March 14, 1912. The governor announced that he would issue a formal statement tomorrow, although he did not indicate what action he would take on the pending petition for a commutation.

Postmaster Under Nine Presidents.

Salisbury, March 6.—It is said that Postmaster James H. Ramsey, of Salisbury, enjoys a distinction not attained by any other postmaster in the south, or perhaps in the United States, by reason of the fact that he has served under nine different presidents. He first began as postmaster at South River, Rowan county, under President Hayes, and since that time has served under every president as postmaster at Salisbury, to which place he removed when Garfield was president. He is universally liked and is one of the most efficient postmasters in the entire service.

Diplomatic Wheel Turns Slowly.

London, March 6.—The diplomatic wheel is turning slowly in the near east settlement. Only yesterday were the formalities of communicating Turkey's request for European mediation completed at the capitals of the Balkan league and the allied governments gave an identical reply, that they must first consult with each other. Meanwhile, although more than a month has passed since the armistice was ended, military operations practically are in abeyance and Turkey's besieged fortress, which were expected to fall in a few days, still hold out. The financial and economic results of this delay must be disastrous to the allies.

Boston, Mass., March 5.—The cause of woman suffrage received a setback in two New England legislatures today.

A committee in the Massachusetts legislature voted to report "on leave to withdraw" on a bill providing for a referendum on a constitutional amendment providing for woman suffrage.

A similar bill was killed in the Maine house by a vote of 89 to 53 after it had been passed by the senate.
