Suffragettes On Rampage.

Manchester, England, March 24.—Suffragettes today bolted, barred and chained the doors of the hall where the annual conference of the labor party is proceeding after the delegates had taken their seats. The practical joke was not discovered until the hungry delegates attempted to go out to lunch, when they found themselves prisoners. The padlocked chains had to be filed through before they could leave the hall.

London, March 24.—Suffragette incendiaries invaded Beckenham, a southeastern suburb of London before dawn today, setting fire to a house under construction.

The championship golf links at Sandwick, Kent, were the scene of another early morning raid by militant suffragettes, who wrecked the greens.

Wholesale Vaccination.

Everybody at the White House including President Wilson, members of his family, aides, clerks servants and domestics, about 150 in all are to be vaccinated as a precaution against smallpox. White House physicians began the work today, vaccinating Mrs. Wilson and the three daughters, and tomorrow the President and Secretary Tumulty are to submit to the operation.

Though there have been a few cases of smallpox discovered in the public buildings of the national capital it did not become known until today that the parents of a domestic employed at the White House had become afflicted with the disease. Dr. Cary Grayson, one of the naval aides, immediately began an investigation, and by nightfall most of the people living in and about the White House had been innoculated.

Mr. J. Hocutt Way of Ramoth, N. C., returned to his home Tuesday after spending the Easter holidays in the city the guest

The Editor Of Appeal To Reason A Suicide.

The Editor of Appeal to Reason of Oklahoma City gives a detailed story of the leading facts in the life and suicide of J. A. Wayland, editor and owner of the Appeal to Reason the leading socialist organ in America, and tells why he committed suicide. The facts are these:

J. A. Wayland was a man fifty seven years old and in his office was a stenographer seventeen years old with all the hope that life could offer to a girl so fair and young.

Year after year Wayland preached the doctrine of free love and the abolishing of the marriage vows and the relation of men and women should be free under all circumstances.

After hearing years of reasoning like this, this young lady grew into womanhood and was deluded by the deception of this vile wretch and his confederates. A few months ago the fact was learned that she was soon to be a mother and, J. A. Wayland the father of an illegitimate child. In his effort to conceal the crime he sent her to Aurora, Missouri to a supposed sanitarium where she was taken in charge by his companions, and in stead of letting nature take its course a criminal operation was performed that carried this once fair woman to an untimely grave without hope.

In his desire to conceal his acts his confederates attempted to convey the body to Canada for burial. The officers learned of the attempt and the crime committed and J. A. Wayland rather than be exposed wrapped the drapery of his couch about him and took his own life with a pistol shot.

Eugene Debs in words of misrepresentation says that he died a martyr to socialism. If this is a fair sample of socialism its doctrines and its harvest we are fully satisfied that time has arrived when man must fight desperately to ward off and overcome if possible such vile beliefs, teachings and acts. It may be best that J. A. Wayland is dead and gone but the price for his departure is too great.

Mr. Barnett has had ample experience in electric work and is a good steady sober man.

Saved Baby's Life.

Spartanburg, S. C., March 24.—From near Campobello there came tonight a story of the rare presence of mind shown by a three year old girl, the daughter of Mrs. Samuel Petty, when her mother, holding a nine-month-old baby in her arms, fell into an open fire place. As Mrs. Petty was nursing the baby she was overcome with vertigo and pitched forward. The little girl the only other occupant of the house at the time caught the baby, who was not severely burned.

Mrs. Petty's head struck an andiron. When she recovered consciousness her eyes were both burned out. Carrying the baby in one arm, the little girl with her other hand led her blind and staggering mother to the home of the nearest neighbor, who lived about a quarter of a mile distant. Little hope is entertained for Mrs. Petty's recovery.

Old Rye Dead.

A serious accident occurred on Front Street Saturday. A glass jug containing one gallon of mean rye liquor slipped from the hands of its thirsty owner and broke its neck on the pavement. Many anxious friends stood around trying to save it, but it was impossible.

The R. F. D. carriers on No. 7 and 8 spent so much time in an effort to raise the body that it was early Sunday morning before they reached home.

The total loss was $5 in cash, twentyfive drunks and 125 headaches and an Easter drink.

Church where another short service was held by Rev. J. D. Andrew and the body was then laid to rest near his parents who died when he was an infant. This death leaves Mrs. Shepard with no relations closer than first cousins except one aunt. The floral design presented by the Baptist Baracca Class of which he was a member was beautiful.

Story of Eye Witness

Kansas City, Mo., March 24.—C. C. Davis of this city, who was in Omaha when the tornado struck, today told of the desolation wrought. "I was crossing through the storm zone" he said, "and saw bodies being carried out of the ruins. Frame houses were wrecked and porches of stone and brick dwellings were torn away. "The worst thing about it all, except for the dead, was the helplessness of the sufferers. Hospital and ambulance services was far below the requirements and doctors had more than they could do. The motor car companies carried dozens of injured to doctors home. No one could hire a motor car unless it were wanted for some one injured. "Many private motor cars helped in the work".

Cures Old Sores, Other Remedies Won't Cure The worst cases, no matter of how long standing, are cured by the wonderful and reliable Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It relieves Pain and Heals at the same time. 2c, 5c, 10c.

Manager The Gould Estate Desperately Shot By Dog Trainer.

Greensboro, March 25.—At 2 o'clock this morning a large posse of officers, including the High Point night force and two bloodhounds, a number of Randolph county deputies and sworn citizens who had volunteered their services, were reported still to be in Randolph county searching for Lert English, who shot and desperately wounded John Armstrong, manager of the hunting preserves of George Gould, yesterday afternoon at Archdale.

The posse, who went on the search at nightfall, were thrown off the track by John Lee Lowe, a brother-in-law of English, who told them the man they wanted had gone to his (Lowe's) home near Archdale and would give himself up. The officers immediately went there and learned that their man had not been there. They lost no time in securing a warrant for Lowe, whom they placed, under arrest as an accessory after the fact.

English, who is a dog trainer and hunter, and who knows almost every inch of ground in the section where he is hiding, is supposed to be attempting to make his escape through Randolph county to some railway line. From High Point were Chief of Police Ridge and Officers Stone, Welch and McGhee the entire night force.

At 2 o'clock this morning Mr. Armstrong was reported to be speedily sinking, and little hopes were entertained for his recovery. Apparently he could not survive the delicate operation required and for which Dr. Stokes from Salisbury was rushed through the country by automobile.

The shooting of John or "Jack" Armstrong, was reported as a cold blooded affair, and occurred at Archdale at 5 o'clock, a little village three miles south of High Point. The contents of a pistol were emptied at Armstrong, who tried to escape behind a tree. One bullet struck him in the small of the back.

Mr. Armstrong, with one of his men, was at Archdale in an automobile, when they met English near the little store in the central part of the village. Armstrong got out of the automobile and the two talked for a few minutes, supposedly about a lease. Apparently nothing unusual was between them.

The report was that English suddenly, and without any warning, whipped out his gun and began firing. Mr. Armstrong made a futile effort to escape, but one of the bullets struck him before he could find cover. English then made his escape. The wounded man was hurried to High Point, where he was given medical attention. The physician attending him stated that he was in a desperate condition. The wound was of such a nature that Dr. Stoke of Salisbury, was called to perform the difficult operation by which it was hoped the man's life could be saved.

So far as is known no effort was made to prevent English from escaping after the affair. Officers from High Point got on his track with Randolph county officers after night. The High Point bloodhounds were reported at 11 o'clock last night to be on the trail of English in Randolph county.

The shooting occurred just about a quarter of a mile from the Guilford county line.

O Ye Tears!

During a Bible lesson the teacher was trying to explain the parable of the tares. "Can any of you tell me any person who is like the tares?" She asked. A little hand shot up from the foot of the class. "Well, Tommy," She said, "what person is like the Evil One?" "Please, ma'am," replied Tommy, "my mother." "Why?" asked the teacher, in astonishment. "Because," answered the boy, "my mother's patched trousers, 'she sews tears."

Death of Mrs. Grover Moore.

At eleven forty Thursday March 20th the death angel entered the home of Mr. Grover Moore and claimed as its reward his beloved wife. The summons came as great surprise to her many friends as Mrs. Moore had not been sick. Before her marriage Mrs. Moore was Miss Maymie Day Davenport daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davenport well known and highly esteemed citizens of our town. She was married six or seven years ago to Mr. Moore and since their marriage have made their home with her parents, she being the only daughter of the family. Mrs. Moore was a refined and cultured lady, graduating at Whitsett Institute 1906. She was a devoted wife and patient mother, one who believed in making home an ideal place to live. She was a consecrated christian being a member of the Presbyterian church. Besides a heart stricken husband, father and mother she leaves one brother Mr. Kelly Davenport a photographer located at Durham. Besides these one bright little boy of only two summers and an infant girl of only a few days of are left motherless. The infant has been taken by Mrs. Matthews a sister of Mr. Moore who lives at High Point who will care for it and give it the tender care of a mother.

Funeral services were conducted Friday from the home by Rev. D. McIver, and the body laid at its sacred resting place in Pine Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Moore was twenty-four years of age and will be sadly missed by many relatives and friends. The large number of floral designs and many friends who attended the funeral prove the high esteem in which Mrs. Moore was held in this town and community.

Glassboro, N. J., March 23.—Lying in the cellar of their ruined home, the bodies of Lee Wharton, 38 years old, his wife Mary, 32, and their 6-year-old daughter Lillian, were discovered following a mysterious fire early today which destroyed the little farm house about two miles from here. The body of Johnson Hemphill, 42, a farm hand on a neighboring farm, was in a shed behind the house with a load of shot through his heart. Mystery surrounds the four deaths.

Sporting News.

Easter Monday the street cars were kept busy during the hours just before the game carrying the numerous visitors to The Piedmont Park where Oak Ridge and Trinity Park played a rather slow and uninteresting game. Oak Ridge far out classing Trinity on this occasion. The score was 13 to 1.

On last Friday the Burlington highs and Mebane played an old-time game, considering it from the point of runs the score being twenty to nothing in favor of the home team.

Saturday was the scene of an interesting game between Haw River and Graham highs at The Piedmont Park. Both teams being about evenly matched, the score was 5 to 4 in favor of Haw River.

The special series of revival services at the M. P. church are continued through this week. Rev. Mr. Millaway, a former pastor, is doing the preaching, and much interest is shown by the large attendance of unsaved people. The Rev. Millaway is a splendid evangelist and his sermons are plain, simple and far-reaching in effects.

President May Spend Today's Holiday

Washington, Mar. 23.—President Wilson spent today's holiday with the children on the White House lawn. He went to sit up today's holiday and he can easily find the path of the champion necessary to get a more grown person by the watchful policemen. It all came about because the President decided today to avoid the fashionable Churches of Washington and motored out beyond the Capitol to the Eastern Presbyterian Church.

In a pew near that occupied by the President and Mrs. Wilson and their three daughters was Margaret Gundaker, 6 years old, who brought to Church a gloriously-colored Easter egg, which would have made almost any famous rainbow jealous. Margaret watched the President while he took his seat. Just before the service she whispered to her mother and then shyly reached over to the presidential pew and handed Miss Elinor Wilson a gaily decorated paper napkin with the precious egg inside. Miss Eleanor received it with a smile and handed it to the President, who looked at the name written in a child's hand on the napkin, glanced across to where Miss Gundaker sat and bowed his thanks with a smile which made her blush with happiness and confusion. The President gave no intimation today as to where he expected to worship and his appearance at the Eastern Presbyterian church was unexpected. He missed the Connecticut avenue Easter parade, but avoided also the crowds about the better known Churches. The Easter parades enjoyed almost perfect weather. Members of the Diplomatic Corps and their wives most of the high Government officials who are in the city and scores of men and women well-known in society turned out to join the Spring display of fashion.

Aged Editor Dies.

Lexington, Ky. Mar. 23.—Samuel Jubson Roberts owner and editor of The Lexington Leader in Ky., died at his home today from blood poison following an operation for ingrowing toenail. Mr. Roberts was for many years collector of internal revenue, for the seventh district. He was born in Canton, O., Feb. 11 1858.

The Confederate Monument.

To the friends of the old Confederate soldier:

The organization known as THE DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY have been, for several years, engaged in Alamance county in the patriotic labor of love of trying to raise enough money to erect a Monument to the memory of the gallant boys of 1861-5, who went to the war between the states, and laid down their lives in that titanic struggle for the rights of the state.

They have now in hand from their work something over five hundred dollars, and they made a contract to have the monument erected on the court house square sometime this year. They need much more money, and it will require about two thousand and two hundred dollars to pay for the monument. The legislature just adjourned passed a Bill authorizing the county Commissioners of Alamance county, to subscribe as much as ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS to help to pay for this monument. A Petition is now being circulated in the county asking the Commissioners to make that appropriation. Every friend of the old soldiers, whether that old soldier is now living, or whether he died on the field of battle, or in the hospital, or in a northern prison, is requested to sign that Petition, and you can do so by seeing Capt James A. Turrentine, Ex. Mayor William A. Hall, at Burlington, or Mr. Albert J. Thompson, at Graham. The Petition will be presented to the Board of Commissioners at their regular meeting on the first Monday in April next at three o'clock, P. M. by a Committee of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Be sure to sign this Petition, and if possible, be in Graham on the first Monday in April next to aid by your presence these ladies in their labor of love to the memory of the gallant sons of Alamance who made the history of Alamance glorious by their devotion to duty. No county in the whole south did more than Alamance county did in that great struggle. Her sons were in every fight that took place in Virginia, and in many of those that took place in the great western army. This monument will be a perpetual reminder to all the present generation, and to all succeeding generations, of the fact that patriotism and love of country is a virtue all ought to cherish and that DUTY WELL PERFORMED is a noble trait of character.

He refused to make any statement.

Jailed Suffragets Starve Self to Obtain Freedom.

London, England., March 21.—The problem of what to do with the militant suffragets is becoming daily a more serious one for the government. When jailed for destroying property or attacking individuals, these women almost always go on a "huger strike." Then the government must either let them starve, feed them forcibly, or give them their freedom. No matter which course it pursues the government is headed straight for trouble.

Miss Lillian Lenton, 22, is one of the militant suffragets who has lately given the magistrates and jail-keepers trouble. She was last month convicted for setting fire to the tea pavilion in Kew Gardens. At her trial she caused considerable excitement by hurling hugs books at the dignified magistrates. When she was taken to prison she adopted the hunger strike, and was forcibly fed. This resulted in her illness, and finally in exasperation Mr. McKenna, a member of parliament caused her to be released.

Miss Lenton is now confined to her bed with septic pneumonia. She blames the government.

IS THE WEBB LAW CONSTITUTIONAL?

Washington, March 21.—Representative Webb called upon Attorney General McReynolds to consult him with regard to the enforcement of the Webb liquor law and ask his opinion of the measure which President Taft vetoed because he and Attorney General Wickersham considered it unconstitutional.

Attorney General McReynolds told Mr. Webb that while he had not personally considered the bill with a view to determining its constitutionality, several of the Assistant Attorneys General had and their decision was opposite to that held by President Taft.

Mr. McReynolds told Mr. Webb that he was doing his best to uphold the Webb law and see that it is enforced to the utmost. He said he had detailed Assistant Attorney General Dension to take up the Government's interests in the case now pending at Richmond before Judge Waddill's Court in which the whiskey interests sought to force the express companies to accept shipments of whiskey from Virginia to destinations in South Carolina in violation of the Webb law.

The news received from Kentucky of the issuance of 70 warrants delivering whiskey in violation Webb law was a source of great gratification to Mr. Webb, as it contradicts the arguments made by the enemies of the bill in the House of Representatives that it was adding unless machinery to the statute books. The great number of warrants issued in Kentucky and Kansas is ample evidence that the former laws were not sufficient and the Webb law was badly needed to make effective laws already passed by the States.

Allens Play Their Last Card.

Washington, March 21.—Attorneys for Claud Swason Allen made a last attempt tonight to save him from the electric chair, where he is to pay penalty on March 28 for his part in the Hillsville, Va., courthouse murders. They applied to Chief Justice White, of the Supreme Court of the United States for a writ of error by which Allen's conviction in Virginia would be reviewed.

They also asked for a super-seedeas to delay the execution until the Supreme court disposes of the case. Chief Justice White took the matter under consideration with a promise to communicate his decision to the attorneys later.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia yesterday refused to grant a similar application. The identical plea was made that Allen had twice been placed in jeopardy for the same offense.

Fire At Wilmington

Wilmington, March 21.—The plant of the Wilmington Handle works, in south Wilmington was destroyed by fire origination in the dry kiln. The loss is estimated at $35,000 to $40,000, with something more than $25,000 insurance. The handle works is one of Wilmington's youngest and thriving industries. It is announced that the company will rebuild.

STATE CHEMIST CALLS ATTENTION TO LIME

Raleigh, N. C., March 21.—Dr. B. W. Kilgore, State Chemist, is issuing a letter to the farmers of the State, calling their attention to the great concessions in freight rates made by the Southern Railroad to be concurred in by the other railroads of the State, it is said, for shipments of lime for agriculture purposes. The main drawback in the past to the extensive application of agricultural limes to the soils of the State, he says, has been the high cost to the farmer, due to high transportation charge.

Effective today in North Carolina a very greatly reduced rate goes into effect, cutting the freight charges practically in half. Based on 30 tons to the carload, the new rate is 30 cents a ton for 10 miles 65 cents for 50 miles, 85 cents for 100 miles, $1.15 for 200 miles, with proportional increase for longer distances. The Norfolk Southern has announced new rates about the same as the Southern rate and the other roads are to issue schedules on lime very soon.

Doctor Kilgore and the Department of Agriculture have been working on this matter for more than a year, aided materially by the president of the Southern Railway, who now takes the initiative in promulgating the reduced rate, it having been shown that there are large numbers of farmers sufficiently alive to the value of the use of this ground limestone. The State Chemist, who is an expert on agricultural chemistry, says this lime can be used with good results, in many cases better than the burnt lime. It should be applied at the rate of something like one half ton to the acre just after the ground has been broken so that the lime will be worked into the soil by cultivation. It can be obtained at the mines at from $1 to $2 a ton in bulk. The black soils of eastern Carolina and soils in other sections of the State rich in vegetable matter are especially improved, it is said by applications of the agricultural lime.

Roy Wilkerson in Precarious Condition—Blind Tiger Confesses—Three in Jail.

Durham, March 21.—With a bullet in his head and one through his body, Roy Wilkerson, an employee of the Erwin Cotton Mills, lies more dead than a live in Watts hospital, and his assailants Joe Jackson, of Dunn and John McLean and Butler Spivey, of Sanford, are in jail.

The worse charge is against Jackson. He used the gun and did the swearing that provoked the fight in which he was coming out a poor second. The officers declare the three men ranging in ages from seventeen to twenty-one passed Wilkerson house tonight and threw rocks at it. Wilkerson came out, rebuked them for it, and Jackson cursed him. Mr. Wilkerson went out and knocked him down. While he had the young man on the ground Jackson shot. Wilkerson was again shot in the head and disabled completely. The fellow fled but were caught later.

It came out incidentally that Will Steward of Duke who has lately come to the mill, sold the whiskey and has been arrested. The boys told on him and he has admitted the charge, the officer says. All are now in jail.

But little is known of the men here. They have not been in Durham long. Wilkerson is a young married fellow involved with the three in the protection of his home. His condition is very critical, with all chances against him. The shooting occurred in what is known as Dixtown a locality policed with difficulty at some distance from the headquarters. The shooting incidentally brought out the source of trouble.

Pardons Man Whom He Defended

Raleigh, N. C.—Governor Craig pardoned F. C. Watkins, the Black Mountain constable, whom he defended for killing John Hill Bunting, a prominent traveling man, in a hotel. Craig relates the testimony, declaring Bunting and a banker, Paul Collins had terrorized the hotel guests and Watkins was called after midnight to restore order. The governor says they attacked Watkins, and he shot them in self-defense. "I defended Watkins, do not believe he is guilty, he ought not to have been convicted."

A mistake in the recent State Revenue Act will cost the corporations of North Carolina in excess of $25,000,000, if the act is permitted to stand.

The News and Observers Washington correspondent says there is thirteen applicants for each postoffice in the United States. A few hungry.

The unusual large number of semi-drunks on Easter Monday was an evidence of the little regard that many pay to the risen Saviour.

Burlington needs and must have a city hall for the housing of the city officers, the fire department and the establishment of a fire alarm system. This is the first duty of the new board.

Easter tide passed in the usual manner with children enjoying the egg hunts, boys and girls men and women attending the various picnics and ball games, and old sots spent their usual past time by taking a mean drink of supposed corn.

The Board of Aldermen.

In a short time, time will close the pages of history as far as the present board of aldermen is concerned upon a record of nothing of value done. We are of the opinion that the people of Burlington had never witnessed a board of Aldermen and mayor that have operated under such strained relations. It seems that whatever the mayor wanted to do the board opposed it, because the mayor proposed it and the board refused to propose or do anything for fear that the mayor might get some credit for it. This may be an ever dream statement but we verily believe it is true.

However, we have heard that the present board is now boasting of its good qualities. Be that as it may, good is as good does and we would have had a far better opinion of the board if they would have pressed forward along progressive and economic lines, although laboring under great difficulties, but this they have not even attempted. However, they have permitted the spending of forty of fifty thousand dollars of the peoples money in the most careless haphazard, most unbusiness like manner of the board or set of men that we have ever observed acting in a similar capacity. Of course the board and many others will vigorously deny this charge, but every act of the board has been along the same line and performed in the same manner as the administration of the town was handled fifteen years ago. In other words they have not even applied modern business methods to modern business. This may also be denied but it can not be done so by a truthful method. We here and now warn the people of Burlington against the continuation of such an administration of government as we have experienced for the past four years or even more. Because Burlington's future success is dependent entirely upon the the young, stalwart, progressive, business spirit of our town in the hands of conscientious young men. If the same old ring is to continue to administer the town government we need not have any hope for any improvement, and the expenditures of our town will continue to be in excess of its income as it has been doing for the past four years or more.

If it is not time for the manhood of Burlington to exercise its rights as a free, we would like to know the reason why. It is useless for us to stay in our places of business to cuss and abuse the town, and for preachers to preach strong and stinging sermons to an unheeding people, and when the time comes to select town officers, full down at the shrine of the same old ring and worship a political demagogue as you have heretofore done. You need not expect or look for any improvements as a result of such inconsistent acts. This is our view of the situation and if we are in the dark we wish light.

FLOODS COVER VAST AREAS OF MIDDLE WESTERN STATES

Chicago, Ill., March 25.—Swept by wind and rainstorms of terrific violence for three days vast areas of the Middle West, from the Missouri river to the Alleghany mountains, tonight are inundated, many persons have been drowned, and there has been enormous property losses.

Ohio, Indiana, and parts of Illinois and Missouri suffered most severely. Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Dayton, Columbus and Youngstown, in Ohio, present particularly pitiful spectacles. In all of these cities there was some loss of life, according to reports available and in each city the property loss was heavy.

In Delaware Ohio, nineteen persons are known to have lost their lives and thirty to fifty others are missing. Terre Haute, swept by a disastrous tornado last Sunday, today partly inundated, interfering with the removing of stricken families. The death list still remained at twenty, while the list of injured aggregates 250.

At Dayton where two revives, the Miami, Stillwater and Mad, and another stream, known as Wolf creek, conjoin, there was loss of life, according to some reports and destruction of property. For the most part, the city lies on a level flat with the four streams meeting almost in the heart of the city. The streams are protected by levees twenty-five feet high. The levee protecting the Miami river broke about six o'clock this morning and the flood was augmented by the rapidly rising waters of other streams. The situation was made worse by the breaking of the Laramie reservoir fifty miles above Dayton.

At 3 p. m., a young woman telephone operator at Dayton was in direct communication with Governor Cox at Columbus. She said she was the last person remaining in the exchange building and that there was seven feet of water in the main street. As she was talking she said, the Leonard building across the street collapsed. Many persons were believed to have been in the building at the time.

Columbus also suffered enormous damage from the flood. Railroad traffic was paralyzed early in the day. Fires in three large factories raged for many hours and for a time threatened a considerable portion of the district. Because of the flood firemen were handicapped.

From every part of the State there were reported disastrous inundations. At LaFayette two spans of a bridge went out. Two are reported dead. West LaFayette where Perdue University is located, was cut off late in the afternoon when the levees were broken by the waters of the Wabash river. The river is two miles wide and rising rapidly.

At Indianapolis 1,500 families had been driven from their homes and four deaths were said to have resulted from drowning during the day. The bumping plant was forced to suspend operations and the city is withdrawing fire protection.

Many are seeking honor and fame. If some of our wealthy citizens would open the doors of a hospital to the people of Alamance County they would not only build a good name for the present, but for eternity.

Feny Murry Arrested Charged With Serious Offense and Bound Over.

Feny Murry, a young man of West Burlington, was arrested Wednesday, charged with having committed the assault upon Miss Mary Walton last Saturday night and was given a hearing Wednesday night before a justice of the peace and was bound over to the next term of Alamance Superior court. The young lady did not fully identify the young man, and one witness who saw the young man running after being frightened away said the clothes worn by the man he saw and the young man Murry wore Saturday did not match. There is much doubt in the minds of many as to the guilt of the young man.

Mrs Eaton Denied Guilt.

Plymouth, Mass., March 21.—Another arrest in the mysterious poisoning of Rear Admiral Eaton if expected today. Mrs. Eaton who is confined in jail, strongly denies guilt saying: "The idea of accusing me and sustenance depended upon the lous. They have nothing to base the accusation upon. My whole income and sustenance depended upon the admiral's living, and this ceased with his death. The most I can ever hope to get to live on is not more than $50 a month, and as a widows pension."

It has not been determined whether the inquest into the sudden death of the admiral will be resumed. It was intimated last night that Mrs. Eaton might not be brought to trial. The possible appointment of a commission to pass upon her sanity was suggested.

Admiral Eaton died in his bed at the home in Norwell where he lived with his wife, her mother, Mrs. Geo. Harrison, and his step-daughter. The death was unexpected and due, the other members of the family said to an attack of indigestion which followed a too hearty meal of roast pork.

No Other Arrest

Brockton, Mass., March 21.—District Attorney Parker today denied the report that a second arrest was likely in the Eaton case. He said there would be no second arrest unless there are developments not now known.

After a night of sound slumber Mrs. Eaton had a hearty meal. Later she wrote a letter to her daughter telling her, "Don't worry, I will be home in a few days. She appeared unconcerned as to her fate. Mrs. Eaton is not confined to a cell but is in a small room in the upper part of the building."

Chapel Hill Items.

Engaging the attention of the high school pupils of the State and of particular interest to budding young athletes in all the schools for the next three weeks is the first annual State Championship Interscholastic Track and Field Meet at Chapel Hill on April 11. Definite plans have been outlined by the Greater Council of the University, the Athletic Association and the alumni of the institution for the gathering together of the young athletes from all sections of the State on the above mentioned date. Entry blanks and letters of information bearing on the meet have been mailed the principals of the high schools and preparatory schools of the State inviting their enlistment in this the first athletic contest of State-wide significance and report to the high school lads. The purpose of the meet is to add stimulus to the training of young athletes in North Carolina and give additional stress to the importance of the development of the physique of the future citizens of the State. Just to the same degree as the "Debating Union of North Carolina", in its recent successful contest, aimed at the training of the intellect in the tactics of debating, so this meet propose to strengthen the body of the high school pupils, thus rounding up the whole make up of the individual. This contest is open to all the preparatory and secondary schools of the State. The events of the meet will ten in number: 100 yards dash, 220 yard run, 880 yard run, mile, 120 yard low hurdle, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, 12 pound shot put, 12 pound hammer throw, Individual as well as school prizes will be awarded for the best exhibitions in this meet. The State championship will be decided in an open relay race, and the team winning will be awarded an engraved cup. The young visiting athletes during their sojourn in Chapel

Hill will be entertained by the Greater University Council.

Roosevelt To Squad "Keynote" At Rally.

New York, March 22.—Theodore Roosevelt will be the head of a Progressive conference to be held at Albany on March 28. The Colonel will give his ideas on the Progressive program as the legislators of the party have been able to present it in the senate and Assembly, and perhaps will touch on the question of fusion a member which Progressives and in the up-state cities have been discussing since election last fall.

With the new campaign in prospect the rank and file of the Progressives consulting with one another and with the leaders to find out exactly what the best policy is. As a leader of the party described Col. Roosevelt's attitude yesterday, it is precisely this: Accept a citizen ticket if it is untainted; if it is not, start up your own. But don't make a political dicker with anybody.

That statement was described as Col. Roosevelt's own personal advice to the Progressives. It is the advice also of William H. Hotchkiss, chairman of the State committee in the campaign and still one of its leaders. As for the other leaders there is an honest difference of opinion as to the best way of conducting the fight next fall for local officers. Some of them say the party would be better off if it forgot about officers entirely and set itself to crystalizing its principles for the campaign of 1914. Others think that such a program would throw the cities and villages of the state into full Democratic control, thereby giving the Democrats a grip upon the machinery of local government for use in the state campaign eighteen months hence.

The Albany conference was decided upon when the Holland House meeting of the state committee broke up last November. The ideas then was that there should be a great Progressive gathering in Albany just as the legislative session was getting under way. It was supposed that the presence of a great body of Progressive would serve the purpose of a naval demonstration and give the enemy a show of strength.

The meeting was postponed until March 28. William H. Hotchkiss, who is still chairman of the executive committee of the state committee and of the directors of the corporative has called a meeting for March 27 in Albany. These two bodies will meet with the state committee, the county chairman and other influential members of the party on the following day.

There was little doubt yesterday that the question of fusion would be one of the chief matters of discussing among the committeemen. The county chairman want to know how the campaign is to be fought.

There are many Progressives in New York who would be glad to see an out and out Progressive ticket in the municipal election here next fall. Some of them have imputed such an intention to Col. Roosevelt, saying with a show of authority that his personal choice for Mayor is District Attorney Whitman. The expectation would be that the other anti-Tammy organization would be forced into line as indorsers of the Progressive ticket. In this way the Progressive might hope to capture the field and take credit to themselves for the fight against Tammy Hall.

Such a raid upon the municipal situation would have the support of a large number of Progressive who feel that the party did not get a fair representation among the signers of the call for the fusion meeting to be held Wednesday night at the Fifth Avenue Building. They argue that the Progressives control more votes than the Republicans and the independent Democrats who ask to combine with them in the anti-Tammy fight. In view of their voting strength this branch of the Progressive party think they have been slighted. Despite this feeling the leaders of the party are disposed to wait until the fusionists have shown their hand.

As for the candidacy of Charles S. Whitman for Mayor the leaders declare that he must break his old Republican association before the Progressives will support any citizens ticket which he heads. They maintain that his record as District Attorney is not enough of itself to justify his candidacy on a nonpartisan ticket. If, as they say, he goes in the blot of Republican upon him they will put a ticket of their own in the field and do their best to win in a three cornered fight.

The direct warning has gone forth to Samuel S. Koeing, president of the Republican county committee, that he must keep his hands off the whole agitation for fusion.

Claude Allen Seems Doomed To Die Friday

Washington, March 24. — Attorneys for Claude Swanson Allen, under sentence to die next Friday for his part in the Hillsville, Va., court house murders, left Washington tonight for Richmond. This sudden step is regarded as ending the endeavors of the attorneys to procure a writ of error by which young Allen's conviction would be reviewed by the Supreme Court of the United States.

All day today the attorneys were conferring in regard to their course. They acknowledged that the refusal of Chief Justice White and Justice Hughes to grant the writ made their case practically hopeless. Telephonic communications during the night supposedly with other members of the court are said to have increased their despair of saving Allen by this means. They said that they had not called upon all of the Justices of the court.

Progressives In House To Form Organization.

Washington, D. C., March 25. — The movement to bring all Progressives in the House into a compact third party organizations has stirred up Republican, Progressive-Republican and Independent circles of the House to an unexpected degree. Up to tonight, eighteen members of the House had notified Representative William H. Hinebaugh, of Illinois, the active leader in the organization plan that they would attend the proposed conference, at which Representative Victor Murdock is to be made the Progressive choice for speaker.

The attitude of many of those Progressive-Republicans, denominated "near-progressives" by Colonel Roosevelt has not yet been determined. A partial canvass of many of these who have been prominent in the ranks of the inaugural Republican forces for the last two Congresses, but who are not officially members of the new Progressive party, showed today that the majority of them had not decided whether they would take part in the Progressive conference.

While the Progressives, as represented by Mr. Hinebaugh, have applied direct to Democratic Leader Underwood for recognition as a separate party in the distribution of committee places, the Progressive-Republicans are still dependent upon the regular Republican organization of which Representative Mann, of Illinois, is the leader. Some strength was added to the Progressive organization plans today by the rumor that the Republican leaders were inclined to withdraw some of the committee places from the Progressive-Republican members.

The date for the conference or "open caucus" of Progressives, originally set for April 2, was changed today to April 4. Representative Hinebaugh will go to New York within a few days for a conference with Colonel Roosevelt. The latter is expected to send a personal message to the Progressive gathering. A portion of his recent letter to Representative Hinebaugh, made public today, follows:

"My Dear Judge Hinebaugh: Good for you I am more than pleased with what you have done.

It would be an admirable thing to run Victor Murdock as our candidate for the speakership, and I hope that, as you have suggested to him, he will announce himself as willing to accept the nomination of the Progressives for the position.
