Vassar Girls Are Willing to Help

Husbands to Earn

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 9.—Scores of Vassar college girls, returning today from vacation, spent all over the United States, laughed in derision at the club formed by the Wellesley college students, the purpose of which is to postpone marriage until three years after graduation, and to pledge its members not to marry a man whose income is less than 5,000. Many of them are secretly exhibiting to their roommates diamonds' solitaires which indicate that they will be brides as soon as their trousseaux are in order.

Not all of them have been voted members of the Daisy Chain, that famous body of "most beautiful" ones, either. And when a few nights before the diplomas are handed out, the seniors gather for their last dinner, and are called to confess whether or not they are engaged many will stand up to be envied by their fellow students far more than ever before in the history of Vassar.

"Indeed we shall not wait three years." Nor does the man who wins a Vassar graduate need to be wealthy. For one would be willing to help my husband earn his first $1,000. We think the average young man would be turned leaving him unfit for matrimony, if he had the income before some sensible girl took him in hand and anchored him to a family tree of his own."

Give the man, a real man we are willing to take a chance with him on the money question. There will be no postponement mutual benefit association if Vassar in the class of 1910 known

Wonders Never Cease

And wonders never cease. Tell it not in Gath, but it a fact that Joseph Daniels secretary of the Navy of the United States, and erstwhile guardian of "White Supremacy" in North Carolina, has actually recommended a "nigger" for a federal job under a democratic administration! That kind of conduct on the part of a republican or progressive would have occasioned no surprise among those who heretofore smell a "nigger", ten miles away (during the campaign) but to think that Josephus—he who has always been subject to fits every time he saw a nigger during a campaign and who has yelled nigger in time past until he was red in the face and who has waved the red flag of anarchy (by no means of pekeberry juice spread all over his paper) to malign and slander Republicans by calling them black and tarfs and all other kinds of vile names—to think that this snow white angle of White Supremacy should get down and wallow with a nigger in the federal swirl trough—well, words cannot describe our utter surprise and humiliation! Indeed we exclaim "How the mighty have fallen!" Brother "Supremacy" Democrats, behold your chief!—Lincoln Times.

Welfare Of Young Girls Was Discussed.

Richmond, Va., April 10.—Problems affecting the welfare of young girls were discussed at the fourth biennial convention of the Young Women's Christian Association here today. How the association hopes to deal with them briefly explained by Miss Mabel Cratty, general secretary of the national board.

"Two things with which we contend," said Miss Cratty, "are conditions and sin, and there is a constant interplay between these two factors. We must make the conditions under which women live safe; we must educate their sense of values and help them to get their bearings among the circumstances of modern life."

Democratic Consistency

By gum. The Democratic spell binders have always handed out volumes of hot air against the dangers of a "ship subsidy." When S. S. McNinch ran for congress and advocated a ship subsidy Yates Webb got red in the face and said it meant building up the shipbuilders trust and a tax on the people. Boys just watch them. If you are fairminded you are going to soon learn that they have been preaching one thing for your votes, but are going to try to practice just the opposite thing because they know it means prosperity for the people. What care they for consistency. They already have your votes.—Lincoln Times.

Her Baby's Fatal Blow.

New York, April 10.—Mrs. Catherine McDonough died today in the Harlem hospital, the victim of a peculiar accident. She was struck over the eye by a nursing bottle in the hands of her infant daughter Mary. The accident occurred over a week ago, and, according to Coroner's physician Schultz, brought on traumatic meningitis.

The injury was not at first regarded as serious, but it became so painful that Mrs. McDonough entered the hospital a few days ago.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If they weak or ailing try them. 50 cents at Freeman Drug Store.

NOTICE!

Road Tax For 1913, Due.

The special road poll tax for the year 1913 is now due and payable until the first day of April. Under the old the Treasurer was paid a small commission for collecting and handling this fund. And heretofore I have given that commission to those who looked after it in the different Townships. But now under the Salary law there is no provision made for any one to be paid anything out of this fund. Therefore, unless some one will vounteer to collect without charge in the townships, I cannot put the books out, as has been my custom. According to instruction from the County Commissioners, the books will be at my office in the court house in Graham, and all persons desiring to pay will pay to me, unless they find some one else with the books.

Respectfully,

Healthy Old Age Is What Dr. Hartman Advocates

See here, young man, I have kept me well and strong as I am if you would do as I do. You may ask, do I never get sick, have I never had occasion to take medicine at all? Yes, I have got sick. Sometimes I feel a little touch of catarrhal trouble, like cold, malaria, slight catarrhal symptoms, but my only medicine is Peruna. I always keep a bottle of Peruna in the house. I keep a bottle of Peruna on my desk in my office. Once in a while I take some. I do not take it habitually. Take it only when I feel a little out of sorts. One swallow will perhaps be all that will be necessary, but it is always handy. It is a sorry sight to see the young men of to-day begin to peter out physically when they ought to be in the glory of their manhood and the height of their vigor. Eat plain food. Live frugally. Give up all weakening habits. Live as God intended you to live. Take Peruna when you do not feel as well as usual. If you want me to I will send you a book which will tell you a great many more things about yourself and about matters that may be of great value to you. Enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and the book will be sent in a plain wrapper and you will not be troubled with any follow-up letters or advertisements. PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TAR-NO, manufactured by KA-TAR-NO COMPANY, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

Look at me. I am eighty-two years old. Sound as a nut. Tough as hickory. Do not know what it is to be tired. While I cannot do as much physical work as I used to when a young man, I can do a great deal. Probably twice as much as the average young man of to-day.

What has kept me so strong and well? I will tell you. I do not use tobacco. I do not use alcoholic stimulants. I do not use tea or coffee habitually. I go to bed early. I get up early. I am always doing something; something that occupies my body and mind. I love to work. I take a cold water towel bath every morning, winter and summer. It is these things

Mississippi On Its Annual Ram-page.
 Memphis, Tenn., April 5.—On its annual flood through the central section of the country, the Mississippi river tonight had made comparatively little progress toward that stage which might spell disaster for residents along more than 1,000 miles of water front.

Some encouragement comes from points along the recently flooded Ohio, where gauge readings show that stream falling. At Cincinnati the stage at seven o'clock tonight was 61 feet, a fall of 2.3 since 7 o'clock this morning. At Louisville the reading was 48.8, a fall of 1, and at Cairo, 54.7, where it has been hovering for hours.

The Cairo situation, however, is complicated by a raise in the Mississippi at St. Louis, where the river at 7 o'clock tonight, stood at 23 1, a raise of 9 since the same hour this morning. Below Cairo the gauge also shows the flood is slowly swelling. At New Madrid, 63.9 feet was shown a rise of one-tenth; at Memphis, 43 feet or six-tenths above the figures this morning, and at Vicksburg, 43.3, or four-tenths higher.

Strike Declared.
 Buffalo, N. Y., April 6.—A strike was declared today on the lines of the International Railway Company which operates the street car service in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Lockport and several smaller nearby towns. Eighty per cent of the motormen and conductors struck, according to the organization officials, although the street railway officials say less than 100 of their 1,700 men responded to the strike call.

The men demanded an increase of from five to seven cents an hour, a rearrangement of working hours and recognition of their union. Several disorderly scenes marked the opening hours of the strike and tonight President Connette of the International called upon the sheriff to take all lawful means to protect the property. Application was made to Justice Pooley of the Supreme Court for an injunction to restrain the men from acts of violence and steps were taken to make a demand for troops if the situation warrants such a move.

Congressman Pou On Rules Committee.
 Washington, D. C., April 5.—The first committees of the sixty-third Congress virtually were chosen today, so far as the Democratic members are concerned, by the majority of the House Committee on Ways and Means. These were selected: Rules—Henry, of Texas, chairman; Pou, of North Carolina; Hardwick, of Georgia; Garrett, of Tennessee; Foster, of Illinois; Cantrill, of Kentucky and Conry, of New York. Accounts—Lloyd, of Missouri; chairman; Smith, of Texas; Hamill, of New Jersey; Underhill, of New York; Kindell, of Colorado; Howard, of Georgia; and Abercrombe, of Alabama. Enrolled bills—Whiteacre, of Ohio, chairman. Mileage—Bailey, of Pennsylvania, chairman.

The papers say more about the school and college ball teams than their work of building character.—Hickory Mercury

Heavy Fine For Car Breaking.
 New York City, April 1913.—(SPECIAL) The Carlin bill which was recently passed by the House of Representatives and Senate has attracted much interest among manufacturers, merchants and shippers along the lines of the Norfolk & Western Railway.

This federal act imposes a fine of $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than ten years, or both as a punishment for the unlawful breaking of seals railroad cars containing interstate or foreign shipments, the unlawful entering of such cars, the stealing of freight and express packages or baggage or articles in process of transportation in interstate shipment, and the felonious asportation of such freight or express package or baggage or articles therefrom into another district of the United States, and the felonious possession or reception of the same.

The jurisdiction of the courts of the various states is not impaired in any way by this national law. The heavy penalties imposed will unquestionably reduce to a minimum the breaking into railway cars and the stealing of freight and express packages. Complaints of this nature have in the past few years been of such frequent occurrence that this new law became a necessity to protect the property rights of those having goods in transportation.

18 MEN DROWNED BY CAPSIZING OF BOAT
 Bay City, Oregon., April 7.—Eighteen men were drowned by the capsizing yesterday of the German bark, Mimi which had just been hauled off the beach at North Spit, Nehalem B.y, where she had been since February 13, when she went ashore. After futile efforts for nearly 24 hours against a heavy wind and sea, the life-saving crew from Garibaldi station succeeded at five o'clock this morning in saving Capt. Charles Fisher of Portland president of the Fisher Engineering Corporation, Capt. J. Westphal, master of the Mimi and two sailors.

Russell Blackman, secretary of the Fisher Engineering Corporation; W. E. Koen, a contracting plumber of Portland and J. E. Holyfield, superintendent of the Brighton Mill at Brighton, Ore., are among those drowned. They were aboard the Mimi directing the efforts to haul her off the spit.

The survivors said that only seven men were left on board the Mimi after she turned turtle. A cabin boy and a sailor lashed themselves to the mast where their bodies now hang.

The Mimi is a total wreck. Little will be saved for her owners or insurers.

Captain Westphal was too weak tonight to make an extended statement but attributed the disaster to a mistake on the part of the man in charge of a dinky engine on shore which was being used in the effort to float the vessel. This engine, he gave a sudden pull on the cable, throwing the Mimi broadside to the sea and the ship was overturned by a wave before those on board had a chance to save themselves.

No bodies have been recovered.

Early Truck Cut Short 50 Per Cent.
 Mount Olive, N. C., April 10.—According to estimate made by those who have made a survey of the situation, the cold weather and accompanying frosts of the past 48 or 60 hours, have cut off early vegetable crops in Mount Olive's territory at least 50 per cent. This means a total loss to the farmers of not less than $50,000; and this is said to be a very conservative estimate.

Practically the entire bean crop was destroyed, with the season pretty well advanced for a second planting, though it is said a number of farmers will make a second attempt to raise a crop.

The damage to the Irish potato crop cannot be so accurately estimated. It is generally believed, however, that whether the ground around potatoes had not recently been broken, the potatoes suffered no very great damage except a considerable setback as they will in mcs; instances come right out again; but where the ground had recently been broke it is believed the potatoes suffered more serious damage, and it is as yet problematical as to whether they are a total loss or not.

It is claimed that the total strawberry yield has been reduced 10,000 or 15,000 crates, if not more, as a large per cent of the berries were covered.

Entered as second-class matter May 10, 1908, at the post office at Burlington, N. C., North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Wednesday, Apr. 10, 1913.

Last week we met our old friend and life long companion Mr. Gimlet Head of Burlington, R. F. D. No. 8, and he has assured us that from time to time he will communicate with our readers upon the various questions of the day as they present themselves for consideration.

In this week's issue he is presenting some very timely remarks in regard to the political career and conduct of Mr. W. A. Erwin of Durham, N. C. It is well to remember in this connection that Mr. Erwin gave out a statement to the democrat dress last fall, that a reduction of the tariff on cotton fabrics would not injure in any way the cotton mill business or mill labor, but just the past week he has used every effort within his power and that of the American Cotton Manufacturers Association to prevent a reduction on this schedule.

We trust that you will enjoy reading the letter referred to and the ones that will appear from time to time.

Commission Government.

The news from Dayton that commission government was adopted for handling of the city within twenty minutes after a small law had been removed. To the proponents of commission government, this news must certainly be very stunning indeed. Dayton had long suffered under the same defect of government that every other town and city is now suffering from. In this crisis it was necessary to appeal to a better system of government than that given by the former municipal organization. Rain, storm, flood, and disaster was necessary to open the eyes and clear the understanding of the political deaf and dumb of Dayton.

The act has been accomplished and the time of harvest is at hand for good results of this recent sowing. We have expended much effort and time with the hope that we may secure for Burlington commission government and we know that in coming years our work will be rewarded.

We certainly hope that our comrades are not sleeping so soundly, but that they may be awakened by some gentler voice than the howl of the hurricane, the rush of the raging tide, and the crash of the many buildings that was necessary in Dayton.

Therefore, we beg again that the friends of good government and the intelligent administration of our town rally to the cause and fight valiantly for victory.

Poll Tax and Registration.

In a few short days you will have the opportunity of assisting in the selection of the next mayor and Board of Aldermen for the city of Burlington, provided you have paid your county poll tax on or before the first day of May and your name properly entered on the registration book of your respective ward on or before April 26th.

This is a very important matter to every citizen of Burlington, in fact it is more important that we see that the $45,000.00 of taxes that are collected every year in Burlington, are properly and intelligently expended. This has not been so done in the past and it is very important that it never occur again. Experiments made by inefficient boards have caused the city of Burlington its present floating indebtedness and it is your duty as a voter, tax payer, and property owner to see that men who are experienced in ever day duties of life be selected for these various duties and if you do not do it, you are untrue to yourself and a traitor to your country.

Acts Vs Facts.

Last fall while the campaign was at fever heat the majority, if not nine out of every ten of the cotton mill men of the South used their efforts personally and publically in behalf of the election of democratic Congressmen, Senators, and President; many of them openly declaring at that time that it meant disaster to the cotton mill business to put into effect the policies of the democratic party.

However, they voted the democrat ticket with, very few exceptions. The result of the election is known the world over. What the result of the present congress will be no body knows, but from the acts and words of the owners of the Textile Industry in the South we fear that some great calamity is now hovering over us. We fought bitterly to ward it off. We have renewed our hope from day to day with the hope that the pinch may not come, but if it should the only consolation we will have is to say to the democrat cotton manufacturers of the South, you are getting just what you asked for and that you were certainly unkind to your neighbor and dishonest with yourself when you used your assistance in electing these men to office and now you annoy them by day and harass them by night and communicate with them by letter and wire to prevent the passage of the present cotton bill now pending.

We have lived from childhood with the hope that the day and generation might come when the lowest reptile of the earth to the highest Seraph in heaven, including, preachers, doctors, S. S. Teachers and all the rest to be honest enough with themselves to not vote for a manora set of men that has pledged himself or themselves to do the ed very thing that you do not want done. The time has not yet arrived and we fear that the snows of many winters shall have beaten you our brow, and still not see this happy medium. "O, that we had honest men in every walk and avenue of life. So we appeal to you in the words of the great poet. Above all to thine own self be true and it must follow as the night the day; Thou canst be false to no man"

Orange Presbytery Holds Spring Meeting.

Graham, April 12.—Orange Presbytery, which convened in the Graham Presbyterian church Tuesday night, adjourned yesterday, after an interesting and profitable session. It will hold its fall meeting at Glade Valley, convening September 16.

Orange Presbytery is the oldest south of the Virginia line. It is about 150 years old and embraces seventyfive churches in fifteen counties, with a membership of 7,500. More than sixty were in attendance. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. R. M. Williams, of Greensboro, who is working in the interest of the Presbyterian orphanage at Barium Springs.

Overtures handed down from the General Assembly provoked considerable debate and were adopted, these being to change the "elect infant clause" so as to positively declare the salvation of all infants, to make the number of communicants instead of number of ministers the basis of representations in the Synod, and to refer cases on appeal in the Synod to a commission rather than have them settled in open session of the General Assembly. Rev. W. T. Thompson preached on foreign missions.

George S. Cooper was presented as a candidate for the ministry, examined and received as a member of the Presbytery, as were also Rev. W. A. Crawford, of Fayetteville, and Rev. R. E. Redding of West Virginia. Calls from vacant fields were placed in their hands. James Murry, of Graham, was examined for license to preach and preached his trial sermon, making a splendid impression upon the able ministers present.

Dr. W. J. Martin, president of Davidson College, spoke on Christian Education, and laid the needs of the institution before the Presbytery.

Will of King George Has Been Made Public.

Athens, April 13.—In his political will, which has just been published, the late King George, after giving directions for the disposition of his belongings, urges his children to remain united. Addressing himself to the new king, Constantine, King George says:

"Love your dear little country. Serve her and your dear people and confidence with them and may your brothers follow the same example."

The will urges King Constantine to be courageous but patient, "for you are reigning over a southern people, whose temper and irritability take fire rapidly, and who, at any moment may say and do things which it is probably will be forgotten the following day. It is preferable that the king should suffer rather than his people and his country. The interests of the people of the country must always be placed before all other interests."

In conclusion King George declares his love for Queen Olga, and urges his son to love and protect her.

Visits Little Girl.

Richmond, Va. April 13.—Although she declined many social invitations extended by society people of Richmond, Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of the President, who came here to attend the biennial convention of the Young Women's Christian Association, departed from her rule yesterday to call upon Josephine Blair, an 8 year old girl who has recently had some correspondence with the President. When Mr. Wilson was nominated the little girl wrote and wished him well, adding that while she could not vote she had a half brother who was a registrar of election and he would do every thing he could. Ten days ago Miss Blair heard that Miss Wilson would attend the convention so she sent this letter to President Wilson:

"Mr. Wilson: I should like so much to see Miss Jessie. Won't you tell her to come to see me?" The President did so and Miss Jessie called.

Holt—Chambers.

The Charlotte Observer gives the following account of the marriage of Mr. Lawrence S. Holt, Jr., formerly of Burlington:

In a ceremony of signal beauty and impressiveness Miss Elizabeth Lacy Chambers and Mr. Lawrence Shackelford Holt, Jr., were wedded last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lenoir Chambers on Tenth ave. Rev. Dr. John L. Caldwell, president of the Presbyterian College was the officiating clergyman. The wedding was of distinct social interest throughout the State and was attended by a brilliant company of relatives and friends. The bride's only attending were her sisters, Mrs. Thomas R. Wright, who was the dame of honor, and Miss Annie Dewey Chambers, maid of honor. The groom was accompanied by his brother, Mr. Eugene Holt of Burlington, who served as best man.

The library, where the wedding took place, was beautifully decorated with Bride roses and trailing vines, and softly lighted with numerous candles. The vows were spoken in front of an effective group of palms and ferns.

As the notes of the Tannhauser March were sounded being artistically rendered by Miss Melva Carr of the music faculty of the Presbyterian College, the bridal party formed. First came Mrs. Thomas H. Wright, who was lovely in a gown of pink crepe meteor on train with mechin lace draperies, and carrying an armful of pink Killarney roses and ferns tied with pink chiffon ribbon. Miss Annie Dewey Chambers, wearing pink crepe meteor trimmed in lace and carrying pink Killarney roses and ferns, preceded the bride, who entered with father, Mr. Joseph Lenoir Chambers.

An elegant reception followed the wedding which was attended by several hundred guests. Among these from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Holt of Durham, Mrs. Rufus W. Clark of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. H. Lowery, of Haverford, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Holt and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Erwin of Burlington, Col. Ernest Erwin of Morganton, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso C. Avery, Jr., and son, Mr. Johnston Avery of Morganton, Mr. W. A. Erwin and daughter, Miss Bessie Erwin of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. J. Locke Erwin of Concord, Mrs. W. J. Martin of Davidson, and Mr. F. W. Van Wagenen of Orange, New Jersey.

The bride of last evening is one of Charlotte's most charming young women. She possesses rare mental attainments and is refined and cultured. She is widely popular and since the announcement of her engagement she has been the center of much social interest. The wedding was preceded by numerous luncheons and dinner parties.

Mr. Holt is a member of one of the State's most prominent families and has been highly successful in his business career. For the past several years he has made his home in Norfolk, Va., where he has large business interests. Mr. Holt is a man of pleasing and genial manners and is held in warm esteem by a host of friends in his native State and Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt left for a bridal trip to Northern cities after which they will be at home in Norfolk.

(The incidentally celebrated the forty-first birthday of Mr. Holt's parents.)

Notice! Notice! Notice!

Cobles and Albright township, will hold their Sunday-School convention, the second Sunday in May, in the Union Church at Alamance Factory. Hope the schools will get busy and get up a good report. Each school will be expected to read its own report. If we want the best results from anything, we must put our best into it. This convention depends on each individual. The kind of convention depends on the kind of material put into it. Now if we want a good convention we must go at it in a business like way. We know it is the tendency to stand back and let the other fellow do the work. We have so many who say "I can't" in our work that it is difficult to get up anything worth while. We hope these "I can't's" will change their motto for "I will". Let us be loyal to our Sunday school convention. Do you know that Alamance County is one of the Banner counties? So it is up to you to help hold the Banner. Shall we take courage and keep the Banner or shall we close our eyes in sleep, while some other country carries it off? Let us sing the following song till we catch the spirit of it: "Onward Christian soldiers, marching as to war with the cross of Jesus going on before; Christ the Royal Master leads against the foe Forward into battle see his banner go.

When we realize what it means to lose or win the banner; methinks we will take courage in the work. May the spirit of love be in every heart in Alamance County, so that this will be the best year in the history of our Sunday School Work.

H. M. Neese, Chairman.

High Point Won First Interscholastic Meet.

Chapel Hill, April 11.—The High Point high school team won out in the first annual interscholastic track meet of the University of North Carolina, held here today, with Friendship school, of Alamance county, second and Horner school third. The annual track meet of the county schools of the east central district held at the same time was won by Friendship; Cary was second and East Durham third.

Nearly 100 young athletes competed and their excellent performances made the meet an unqualified success. High Point's victory was due to the work of Hoffman and Barton, who between them coroled and 21 points. Friendship's 17 points earned second place over Horner with 16 points. Raleigh was close on their heels with 15 and Greensboro with 12. Graham made 7, Huntersville 5, Goldsboro 3, Hillsboro 3, Bingham 2 and Jamestown 1.

In the county school division Friendship won easily with 33 points. Cary, which came second, was represented by only one man, Green, but his work was the most impressive of either meet. He won the 100, the 220, the broad jump and the shotput, and was second in the hammer throw. His broad jump of 20 feet 9 inches ranks along with any college performance in the state.

Other notable performances were the pole vault tied by Mills and Bowen at 9 feet 7 inches; the high jump of B. Isley, at 5 feet 5 one fourth inches, and the half mile run by Ranson, of Huntersville, in 2 minutes 14 seconds.

The relay race for the championship of the state was won by Friendship with Goldsboro second, Horner third and High Point fourth.

Coach Cartmell, Captain Patterson and Manager Stokes of the university track team had charge of the meet, and their excellent management had much to do with its success.

THIRD PARTY MAPS OUT WORK OF LEGISLATION

Washington, April 11.—The Progressive conference of the House today parcelled out the work of preparing the measures that will form a part of the Progressive legislative plan. The House members will work in conjunction with the legislative committee of the National Progressive party, of which Gifford Pinchot, Jane Adams, Dean Lewis of Pennsylvania University, Walter Weyl and other prominent persons are members.

Ten legislative subjects were assigned at today's conference. Bills on those subjects will be prepared after thorough investigation by members assigned to them and these will form the basis for the legislation campaign of the Progressives in the present Congress.
Following is the list of assignments:
Tariff Commission, Representative Murdock, conservation and development of streams, Temple, Pennsylvania; child labor law, Copeley, Illinois; woman's 8-hour law for District of Columbia, Nolan of California; workmen's compensation, Rupley of Pennsylvania; interstate trade commission, Lafferly of Oregon; commission of agricultural co-operation, credits and insurance, Hulings, Pennsylvania; presidential preference primary; Hindebaugh of Illinois; easier method of amending Federal Constitution, Chandler of New York minimum wage for women, Falconer of Washington.

Greenville, S. C., Girl 18 Years Old Has Three Husbands.

Greenville, S. C., April 10.—Three husbands in six years, all living, is the matrimonial record of a pretty 18-year-old girl, who is being held in the woman's ward at the county prison, charged with polygamy. According to the girl's own statement, she was originally married at Newport, Tenn., to a man whom she alleges forced her to marry him. Soon leaving him, she married again in about a year. Husband No. 2 mistreated her, she claims. She accordingly left him without the formality of a divorce.

Several months ago, she came to Greenville, S. C. to "live with her mother's niece," as she expressed it. Becoming enamored of a young man, James D. Scott, she married him March 3, last. Scott soon learned of his two predecessors in his wife's affections, and yesterday reported the matter to the sheriff, who arrested the girl. Scott says he loves the girl and the girl says she loves Scott. The question now is, who will prosecute the charge against the woman and who will furnish the evidence to convict her, provided she refuses to tell her story in court?

The girl's maiden name Zoie Ledford. She is quite intelligent and feels humiliated that her plight should have been discovered.

New Plan Adopted For Speeding Up Games.

Chicago, Ill., April 11.—In the matter of speeding up ball games in the American League, President Ban Johnson has a plan calculated, among other things, to inflate the pride of at least two boys at every game.
Johnson announced the plan upon his return here from Cleveland today with the prophecy that it would shorten the average game by about fifteen minutes. A new ball will be put into play every time a foul is hit, even if it does not go over the fence or into the stands. This is where the boys come in. It is a foul which the fielder cannot catch he will return to his position immediately so that the game may proceed while the small boy retrieves the ball. Whether these assistants shall be in uniform has not been determined.

A Horrible Crime

Later reports of the death of the 3-year-old child in the mountains of Haywood county, for which the child's grandmother, Nancy Kurlee, is held responsible, is that the little girl was left in the mountains to perish from hunger and exposure. Jo and Lizzie Putman, the stepfather and mother of the child were tried as accessories and acquitted but were held as material witnesses. The man gave bond and the woman is in jail. BOTH OFFICERS ORDERED TO SEA

Washington, April 10.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels today took the first step toward carrying out his announced policy of requiring naval officers to have adequate sea experience in their grades before promotion when he assigned to a duty at their presented rank Captain T. M. Potts, who has been aide for personnel, and Commander Philip Andrews, who has been chief of the bureau of navigation. Captain Potts will command the battleship Louisiana and Commander Andrews the cruiser Montana.

Both Captain Potts and Commander Andrews have passed their examinations for promotion, the former of the rank of rear admiral and the latter to the rank of captain.

Secretary Daniels announced that as soon as they had qualified for the next higher grade, they would be promoted to fill the vacancies which occurred on March 6.

Captain Henry T. Mayo, present commander of Mare Island navy yard, succeeds Captain Potts as aide for personnel.

Her Swain Has A Wife and Family She Sees

(Atlanta Journal.)
Miss Alice Hammond, age eighteen years of 164 Echo street vehemently declared her intention of shooting Robert L. Wilson, on sight, when she learned in the recorder's court Monday that he is a married man with several children.

The girl had been arrested at the request of Mrs. Wilson, who also asked the police to arrest her husband. Wilson escaped the officers, and Miss Hammond arraigned alone, faced Mrs. Wilson in the court.

When the wife told her story Miss Hammond denounced Wilson. She declared that he posed to her as a single man.

When the case against her was dismissed by the recorder, Miss Hammond left the court, declaring that never again would she trust a man.

"They are all traitors and brutes," she said.

Churchland Debates Won.

Chapel Hill, N. C., April 11.—In the third annual declaimer's contest of the East Central division of state high schools, A. C. Reid, of Churchland high school, was the winner of the declaimer's medal over eight other competitors. His subject was "The New North." Two Throats Cut.

Spartanburg, S. C., April 7.—Their throats slashed with a pocket knife said to have been wielded by Bennie Fisher, 20 years old, in a midnight affray in the road near Shoaley Creek school house Sunday night, A. Vitis Burnett, 19 years old, son of J. R. Burnett, and Jonah Kimbrell, 20 years old, son of "Dock" Kimbrell, are in bed at their homes in the Boiling Springs section in a serious condition.

Burnett and Kimbrell met Fisher and two other youths in the road by chance. Fisher is said to have made some reference to an old grudge which he had against Burnett because the latter ran into him with a buggy a year ago. Nearly all of the youths became embroiled in the quarrel which followed.

Burnett has been attending the Wofford Fitting School. His father is a prominent country merchant, Kimbrell and Fisher are members of less prominent families.

Sheriff W. J. White sent a deputy this morning to arrest Fisher.

My Doctor Said

Try Cardui," writes Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I was in a very low state of health, and was not able to get up and tend to my duties. I did try Cardui, and soon began to feel better. I got able to be up and help do my housework. I continued to take the medicine, and now I am able to do my housework and to care for my children, and I feel as though I could never praise Cardui enough for the benefits I have received."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Shot His Son

News reached the city yesterday of a serious shooting scrape at a saw mill in Chatham county about eighteen miles from the city, in which Arnel Saunders shot his son through the neck. The young man is now in a Raleigh hospital where he was immediately taken for treatment.

The shooting occurred at the saw mill of W. T. and S. L. Hunt. According to the story that is brought to Durham by Chatham county people, the father and son got into a dispute over some questions and as a result of the quarrel the father levelled the gun and pulled the trigger, emptying a full load of shot into the boy's neck. Just what the trouble started over could not be learned, but it is said that the boy was also armed and that when the man shot him he was advancing on him with a drawn ax.

Robt. M. Phillips Last Copy Is In.

Raleigh, N. C., April 3.—Robt. M. Phillips, one of the best known and most popular newspaper men in North Carolina, died suddenly today at the home in Chatham county of heart disease, age fifty.

Genial "Bob" Phillips, as he was known to the fraternity cut his eye in the newspaper game on a country weekly in Chatham, and when the Raleigh Post was established became its telegraph editor. When the Post suspended he became editor of the Newbern Sun, and later to the Greensboro News, of which he was associate editor at the time of his death. Dating back many years Mr. Phillips has been reading clerk of the State house of representative and had a thorough knowledge of the States public men.

Rotund and jolly his sunny disposition endeared him as closely to statesmen as it did him to his wide circle of newspaper friends. He had just concluded his labors with the legislature and was spending the day at his mothers when he was stricken.

The deceased was a member of the executive committee of the North Carolina Press association and one of its vice presidents, was foremost in its councils and the life of its meetings.

"CROSSING THE BAR."

As Tennyson's nurse was sitting one day at his bedside, sharing to a degree the general anxiety about the patient, she said to him suddenly:

"You have written a great many poems, sir, but I have never heard anybody say that there is a hymn among them all. I wish, sir, while you are lying on your sick bed. It might help and comfort many a poor sufferer."

The next morning, when the nurse had taken her quiet place at the bedside, the poet handed her a scrap of paper, saying: "Here is the hymn you wished me to write."
She took it from his hands with expressions of gratified thanks. It proved to be "Crossing the Bar," the poem that was sung in Westminster Abbey at Tennyson's funeral, and which has touched so many hearts.

Still Fighting in Mexico.

Naco, Ariz., April 7.—General Ojeda's 300 Federal late today again went out from Naco, Sonora and bombarded the State troops' line. The State troops who number nearly 2,000, fell back and Ojeda returned to the city.

Governor Pesquera telegraphed General Obregon to hasten the campaign against Naco so that the movement might be made against Guaymas but Obregon is said to be waiting for artillery from Hermosillo.

In the meantime Ojeda is throwing up strong fortifications about the border town.

The man who starts out by being afraid to speak what he thinks will usually end by being afraid to think what he wishes.

Column Selector

Remington Typewriter

Visible Model 10
The Column Selector of the Model 10 Remington selects the exact point in each line where the writing is to begin—not by a step to step movement of the carriage—not by tedious hand adjustments—but by the automatic response of the carriage to the pressure of a single key.

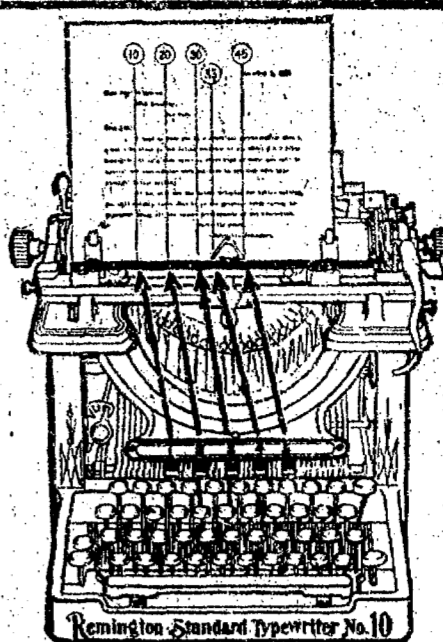

In ordinary letter writing, the position for writing the date, the address, the first line of each paragraph, "Yours truly," and addressing the envelopes is reached instantly, the hands of the operator never leaving the keyboard.

The time saving? Figured on the basis of the operator's wages, it amounts to enough in a short time to pay for the machine.

Coffin Inflames A. and M Students

Raleigh April 15.—Carrying a coffin with A. and M.'s colors streaming from its handles, the Wake Forest students narrowly missed a riot last night in which the police figured handily as a precaution. The Baptists were celebrating their unparalleled victory and with a coffin and army sets of pall-bearers, they marched through Fayetteville street to Blount and then to Meredith. Here they halted while the college girls put appropriate music to the march. They paraphrased John Brown's Body and the rest with A and M's body singing lustily "Pass around the coffin and We'll All Take a Peep," they had the Baptists in martial trim. At 8 o'clock a freight train bore 100 extra students here and they reinforced the rooters in front of the college. Baptist sisters were as the sands by the seashore, innumerable. They waved their pretty pennants, sang stirring songs and made the coffin rise again to the shoulders of the boys. With two hundred intoxicatedly joyful baseballest, they left the college campus for mid-city again when the A and M. rooters got on the track of the coffin. Members of the faculty came up town to see that nothing serious resulted from it. In the middle of Fayetteville street, two formidable companies of other college met. There was no coffin, but considerable cussing. The cadets scoured the city for the vehicle that barred their joy. It could not be found. There was a rush for Meredith. The A. and M. boys had the crowd, and singing to the bare dozen of Juliets who leaned over the steps, they recieved the shouts of the few who were conspicuous by their bravery. By this time there was excitement every where. The A. and M. people did not want to see a row, the men who had the boys under their daily charge did not, but they appreciated the humiliation of those who must stand up and see themselves being buried on the campus of a girls college. If there is a thing on earth that makes a man mad it is being a corpse with several hundred girls trained in singing, furnishing the funeral music with such an unco fined joy. The coffin was finally hidden, and despite a vigilant search, the local collegians never found it. That it was taken from the public view paved a great stroke to peace. Had it been found early in the evening, there is a probability that several real coffins might have been necessary to lay.
