

THE STATE DISPATCH.

A PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE UPBUILDING OF AMERICAN HOMES AND AMERICAN INDUSTRIES.

DL V.

BURLINGTON, N. C., APR. 23, 1913.

NO. 48

From Gimlet Head's Son-in-law.

Mr. Editor—

For many years I have been studying, thinking, searching the Democrat. Paragraphs have been very interesting to its members. I learned, I was a boy, and that has many many years ago, that later we all had to die. The great grand Jordan without earthly companions, brother of a fraternal order to stand up, or walk us out most dreadful dilemma, that the eye of the all seeing God was taking us into account if we had lived well. And I thought mother always taught that there was a good place in the coming world where the folks went to when they died and their toes for the last time and are shuffled off feet, almost towards that new unexplored country to which all good folks need have fear to go, and that there is no bad place to which all bad folks whether they are democrats, republicans, progressives, populists, prohibitionists, socialists, independent, mugwumps or what else, are sure to go unless God is merciful to them. I am sure that he will be merciful to all who have lived well. I have read in the great big good book that it tells me, there, not in so many words, I can't tell it verbatim, but I can tell it like this: And the hearers with great trembling, for liar and thief shall be damned and sent down into everlasting punishment there to be forever. Every time I read this passage of the scriptures, everlasting tears of sorrow flow down my unwashed cheeks, I leave furrows of irremovable grief, that will not be washed away by the flood itself, because I think of so many hundreds and thousands and millions of one-eyed, pig leg, non-prohibition, red shirt democrats, both old and big, old and young, and poor, honest and dishonest, politicians and non-politicians that have already quit this person, but are now being by proxy in the hands of true and lawful attorneys, and have long since gone to the presence of Old St. Peter. I asked him, who is he? They all answered, he is the accuser of a lot of little democrats that starved for want of political pie. Cleveland, McKinley, and Wilson's purifier, all kicked off in the years of 1897 to 1913. St. Peter said what is you a Democrat? They answered with one accord, believe in a protective tariff, money and every body at and a prosperous country, never learned any way to get the way our dady done. Just go up and vote the best ticket from year to year. I don't make any difference how many negroes voted, and how many million dollars worth of bonds Locke and his gang have to every two years so we get our pay now on, that induced you to become a Democrat? That we might stuff ballot box, if necessary or necessary, so that we counted votes in Halifax County. There were registered voters in County, Malays, Hottentot Negroes included, and we were to do anything under heaven, don't make any difference how low we get, promised Woodrow and Willie they said so. In fact we are democrats, just because we never expect to learn any sense. We refuse absolutely to study the questions of the read anything excepting laws & Observer. Graham and the Burlington. Some times we read the County Observer and Asheville Times.

ing because we died, for dead voters in a North Carolina election count just as much as live ones. What are you going to give us they all asked? St. Peter with one accord? Give you H— because that is what you have been hollering for with mental reservation or secret evasion of mind. With tottering steps and trembling forms we were waked off for the last time to that bottomless pit, the top of which is red hot fire, and the bottom of which is covered with ice where all the democrat saints are fastened to the tail end of a he-haw, haw-he jack and when they get real good and hot they are jumped into the ice cold side of the bad place and when they become frozen well enough to put them into a refrigerator they are jerked out of that place as cold as H— and thrown back into the fire and roasted one time more and this the devil and all his lieutenants continue through out eternity, for these subjects that Woodrow and all his followers are now growing in America, in such large quantities.

I certainly am afraid that the bad place is going to get to little and Salt Peter can't take care of them all because I saw in today's News and Observer where Mr. Moore a Cleveland democrat who had held office for twenty years telling the sun when to rise and the stars when to cease to wink, had got too good to be a member of the Wilson democrat Party and Woody made him git right into heaven at once. What do you suppose will become of all these fellows? Do you think that any of them will get to heaven where the good old rads are rejoicing with the fathers of the country in glory? My hair is getting gray, my steps are very slow, my body is almost ready for the grave and I have talked to these erring scoundrel for low these sixty-five years with the only hope that they might be saved, but they are meaner today than ever, because they are bigger liars today than ever. Did you notice how all of them cotton mill fellows said last fall give us free cotton goods, and we will be all right, and now they have almost wore the marble floor out of the capitol, running in to see Woodrow; and the Southern Railway has been operating special train to carry them and the pie brigade to and from the capitol city.

I sure do feel awful sad because the scriptures ask the question, Am I my brother's keeper? and it leaves the inference that we are. I can't. I have tried so faithfully and every time I get one of these little weak kneed stinking democrats almost ready to open his eyes and behold the greatness of the glory land, all of them think of that little pie that Major is giving out over in Washington and they just jump up, cuss, snorts and rare so I have turned them aloose and if they want to break their necks and go to the devil I am not going to say another word.

Most sincerely yours,
Gimlet Heads Son in law.

Burlington News Moved.

Philadelphia Fire Caused Three Deaths.

Philadelphia, April 18. Fire in the Wescott Candy factory was still smouldering at noon today, after a desperate fight by firemen, the result of which three men were killed, two are dying and a score of persons were injured. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss of life was caused by frequent explosions and falling walls. The money loss was $100,000.

Miss Cora May Entertains

Miss Cora May proved a charming hostess last Wednesday evening at the beautiful home of her father Mr. J. J. May who lives near the Graded School. After the arrival of the guests who were received by Miss May and her sister Miss Lula, tables were arranged and the games of finch and rook were in order. After numerous amusing jokes had been passed around heard tables and the lucky winners had been announced a delicious course of refreshments consisting of cream and cake was ushered in. This very pleasingly refreshed the minds of the amusers. After an expression of appreciation to Miss May had been extended the crowd departed. Those who were so fortunate as to be present were: Misses Vivian Walker of near Watson in whose honor the occasion had been planned, Josephine and Jennie Brown, Lizzie and Julia Fogleman, May McAdams, Bertha Burgess, and Cora and Lula May.

Messrs. John Loyd, Lex Patterson, Ben May, James Garrison, Joe Fogleman, J. E. Foust and Eugene May. The last of these named being so unfortunate as to have previous engagements was only permitted to spend a few of the last fleeting moments with the jovial crowd.

Burlington Hosiery Mill Destroyed By Fire

Shortly after six o'clock Friday morning it was seen from the mass of flames which was consuming the roof of the Burlington Hosiery Mill that this building was due to be destroyed by fire. The firemen hastened to the scene and in a few minutes had three streams of water pouring on the flames. This soon did effective work and had the firemen reached the scene before the flames gotten control by burning through the roof they could have saved this terribly loss. The stock and machinery are badly damaged by fire and water. It is learned that insurance to the amount of 15,000 was carried but this will not cover the loss. The mill has been operated very successful by Mr. Geo. W. Fogleman who is president and manager of this corporation, and gave employment to a large number of hands. It is said that an order for more than 1,000 would have been filled on the day of the fire. It is generally understood that the building will be replaced by a modern up to date brick building. The origin of the fire is unknown but may have caught by defective wires.

Democratic Convention Nominated J. Ed. Moore.

In answer to a call signed by several of the prominent citizens of the town any of the democrats met at the Mayors hall Monday night for the purpose of nominating a Mayor to be voted on by the people of Burlington May 6th. As this was the time and place for the regular semi-monthly meeting of the board of Aldermen, the convention was adjourned to the Armory. The convention was called to order by J. H. Vernon, and J. M. Brown named as the temporary chairman, with J. H. Vernon and O. F. Crowson as temporary secretary. The temporary organization was made permanent and nominations for a Mayor was in order Mr. J. M. Cook after a few brief and enthusiastic remarks placed the name of Mr. Leslie Meadors, Mr. W. H. Carroll nominated A. F. Barrett making it clearly understood that his nominee was a straight democrat. Mr. Bason placed the name of Mr. J. M. Browning before the convention, Mr. Lin-sav Fonville nominated Mr. J. H. Vernon Mr. Vernon stated very frankly that he could not or would not accept the nomination so his name was withdrawn. At the moment Mr. Meador seconded the nomination of Mr. Barrett and asked that his name be withdrawn. This request was considered a joke by the convention. A few minutes of silence elapsed and it would appear that all nominations were in. When suddenly Rev. J. D. Andrew addressed the chairman and nominated Mr. J. Ed. Moore. Dr. L. A. Walker nominated Dr. R. A. Freeman, O. F. Crowson nominated J. A. Turrentine some one nominated Mr. Fletcher Williams, R. J. Hall brought the nomination to a close by nominating our distinguished townsman Mr. Kime which brought laughter and applause. Mr. Kime told the convention that he could not give up his work to accept the honor. The nomination closed and voting began. The names of J. W. Montgomery, J. C. Freeman and C. D. Story were announced as tellers. The tally of the first vote stood as follows: Barrett, 33; Moore 23; Meadow 14; Freeman 12; Williams 6; Kime 2; Turrentine 1. The names of the three highest were then placed before the convention which resulted as follows: Barrett 44; Moore 43; Meadows 18. On the third ballot Moore received 72 votes thus declaring J. Ed. Moore the nominee of the democratic convention for Mayor of the city of Burlington. The different wards will meet Thursday night when men will be nominated to run on the democratic ticket for aldermen. Those in the first ward will meet in the Mayors hall, second ward Waddall's store, third ward Graded School, fourth ward, Dorsetts store.

UNCLE SAM NOT PREPARED FOR WAR

Washington, April 10.—Not one of the thirty-one battleships and twenty-four destroyers that constituted the fighting force of 127 vessels which assembled for review in New York harbor last October was ready for war. Captain John Hood, the captain of the dreadnought Delaware, the pennant ship of the fleet, told the Navy League today, at its session here. Captain Hood, now a member of the Navy General Board gave his views on a desirable naval policy.

"Not counting the British fleet, with which no conflict need ever be feared," he said, "in 1920 Germany can put to sea forty-one battleships, of which twenty-five will be dreadnoughts and sixteen battle cruisers; France will have thirty-eight capital ships of which twenty-three will be dreadnoughts; Japan will have thirty-six, of which seventeen will be dreadnoughts or dreadnought cruisers. Nothing short of the General Board's policy of forty-eight battleships for the United States can even approach adequacy and a fleet inadequate is a burden without protection. At our present rate of growth we, in 1920, could put out against those armaments thirty-three ships, all told, of which only sixteen will be dreadnoughts.

As a remedy he made the following suggestions.

"Take as the basis of your naval policy a building program that will give us by 1925 a fleet of forty-eight first-class battleships, with the lesser units and auxiliaries that go with them, since it is hoped to attain that result by 1920 the date originally called for by the General Board policy.

"Cut off ruthlessly and sell and scrap all vessels on the navy list of nominal fighting value and all superfluous yards and stations not needed for the maintenance of the fleet which uselessly absorbs large sums of public money in their care and upkeep. Provide and train enough officers and men on the active list, and in the reserve to fully man this fleet of war. Provide necessary bases and arsenals, and educate the people to the fact that no fleet is adequate for the preservation of peace which has not the readiness and strength to meet the enemy and say 'thou shalt not.' Show them its trifling cost as compared with even the smallest and most successful war."

Perry Belmont urged the creation of a national council of defense as an expert body to advise Congress on military questions and pointed out that one of the blanks of the Democratic convention at Baltimore declared in favor of it.

Twenty People Killed.
 Mexico City, April 10.—Twenty passengers were killed and 40 injured in a wreck today on the Mexican Central railroad near Tula, state of Hidalgo, because the engineer yielded to the importunities of the passengers.

The engine, fearing to run into rebels, was moving cautiously. The passengers were similarly apprehensive, but believing that greater safety lay in greater speed, induced the conductor and engineer to consent to full steam. The train was ditched on a curve.

NOTICE!

Road Tax For 1913. Due.

The special road poll tax for the year 1913 is now due and payable until the first day of April. Under the old the Treasurer was paid a small commission for collecting and handling this fund. And heretofore I have given that commission to those who looked after it in the different Townships. But now under the Salary law there is no provision made for any one to be paid anything out of this fund. Therefore, unless one will volunteer to collect without charge in the townships, I cannot put the books out, as has been my custom. According to instruction from the County Commissioners, the books will be at my office in the court house in Graham, and all persons desiring to pay will pay to me, unless they find some one else with the books.

Respectfully,
 Albert J. Thompson,

 Things are evented up. A big woman cakes up more room in a street car, but a little woman can beat her to a vacant seat.
 One reason why a milliner ages payidly is because every woman who comes in to try on a hat always says: "I washed my hair this morning and I can't do a thing with it."
 What has become of the old-fashioned man who took off his hat when he entered an office.
 The world is so small that we all have to behave ourselves as well as in heaven or we'll be talked about.
 Heredity may fail to work out in the case of baldness, but it never fails when it comes to red hair.
 One thing about a woman is that she doesn't have to visit twenty saloons and spend ten dollars when she wants to get a headache.
 Lots of girls who look like Princesses on the street look that way because their mothers are slaves.
 Mother does not know how dreadfully daughter sometimes suffers from enuni because mother has pains in her back from hustling around the kitchen.
 There may be a few novelties in musical comedy, but tights are still built along the same old lines.

FIGHTERS RESTING.
 Naco, Ariz., April 10.—Failure to crush the small Federal garrison at Naco, Sonora, after two days of fighting in which the defender took the aggressive developed today in a disagreement among the state troop leaders. Colonel Calles moved the larger portion of his group to Augu Prieta opposite Douglas Ariz., Colonel Calles and Bracamente blamed General Obregon for the failure of artillery to arrive. The commander-in-chief laid the delay on Governor Pesquiera, who had promised cannon from Hermosillo, the State Capital.
 General Oieda during today kept his Federals in the border town. There was no resumption of fighting.

Strawberry Crop Prospects Good.
 Wilmington, N. C., April 10.—While reports received here from different points in the trucking belt indicate that some damage was done to strawberries during the cold snap of the past few days, yet it is not thought that the loss to the truckers will be very heavy, because of the fact that the berries in Virginia and Tennessee have already been retarded, and will likely not be placed on the market until most of the crop from this section has gone forward, the result being that high prices will prevail, which would not be if the berries from North Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee were thrown on the market at the same time. Truckers in this section report that blooms on berries not protected by straw have been affected by frost and the cold weather the damage being variously estimated at 10 to 25 per cent; but the growing fruit has not been damaged to any appreciable extent. Already car lots are beginning to move forward.
 Among those who have bought automobiles from Mr. Luther Atwater during the past two or three weeks are Messrs. Ed. Dailey, J. W. Steinback, G. W. Denny, A. W. Norwood, Bud Edwards, T. A. Amick, Dr. Walker, Ode Fogleman, M. B. Smith, Dr. Kernodle, D. W. Kernodle, Clem Summers, A. F. Barber. Mr. Atwater has a car of each the Ford and Studebaker on the road.

Luke M'Luke Says.
 A gold medal to the school boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 15 who writes the best composition, not to exceed 800 words, on the repair and maintenance of earth roads, is to be awarded by Logan Waller Page, Director, Office of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. All compositions must be submitted to Mr. Page before May 15, 1913; and the medal will be awarded as soon thereafter as the composition can be graded. The composition may be based on knowledge gained from books or other sources, but no quotations should be made.
 After many years' experience in dealing with the public road situation of the country, it is Mr. Page's belief that ignorance on the subject of repair and maintenance of roads is as much the cause of their bad condition as any other factor. It is expected that the competition will bring about a better understanding of the subject of repair and maintenance in the rural districts.
 Many children living in the rural districts have experienced the disadvantages of roads made impassable through a lack of proper maintenance and it is expected that their interest in the competition will stimulate greater interest among the parents. Bad roads have prevented many children from obtaining a proper education and have prevented doctors from reaching the side of rural patients in time to save their lives.
 Any child between the ages mentioned, attending a country school, may compete. Only one side of the paper must be written on; each page should be numbered; the name, age, and address of the writer, and the name and location of the school which he or she is attending must be plainly written at the top of the first page. The announcement of the competition has been sent to the superintendents of schools in the rural districts. No further information can be obtained from the Office of Public Roads. This announcement should be plain to everyone, and all children will thus start on a bases of equality.

Day Break.

Mr. Jno. R. Tolar, president of the Tolar, Hart and Holt Knitting Mills of Fayetteville, N. C. in a letter to the Baltimore Sun says he "He is one of hundreds of thousands, he believes, of Southern men who have never voted the Republican ticket because of the stench left in our nostrils the treatment we received at the hands of this party in the years immediately following the Civic War. A large percentage of those who voted the Democrat ticket in the last election would never have done so if they had for a moment supposed that the present threatened radical tariff legislation would be enacted."

He asked "what are Wilson and his Congress going to do? Are they going to restore the gloomy days of '93? If they do our last democratic ticket has been cast. He proposed further the organization of the conservation party with the watchword, "Conservative men of America, let us organize."

We have always known that the Democrat party has never done anything that it has promised instead of has always done the very thing that the people never have needed, but we did not know until this honest confession of Mr. Tolar that the members of the Democrat party believed that they themselves are liars and never do what they promise.

Now, Mr. Tolar, you certainly must have thought very little about the statement you have made, if you were sincere, in this letter you have written to the Sun you certainly must have been in desperate darkness last Fall. You had before you three great parties from which to select from. The first was your own party, a party that has never failed in its entire history to bring gloom, sorrow, disappointment, want, woe, and calamity to all except the ruler, from time the power of execution has been placed in their hands. If you wish the conservation party as you now see to put into execution its theories and principals of government you should have voted for Mr. Taft and the members of Congress on the republican ticket in the various districts of our state.

get and be forever relieved of the hand of hypocrisy that has bound you hand and foot and blinded you intellectually. In the last case you had for your choice the National Progressive party, a party organized and established for the protection of equal rights to every American citizen, they then and now declare for protection between home and foreign products to an amount to equalize the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad, and their product be placed upon the market upon its own merits. The Progressive party was conceived in truth, born of virtue cared by righteous hands and advocated by the wisdom of all ages and is to be the ultimate redeeming power from the hands of radical and unscrupulous, and ignorant politicians.

Mr. Tolar takes the view that the Democrat platform should have been used to go into office on and then cast aside, but we are proud of the fact that Pres Wilson is not only honest with himself but his fellow men, when he says that the pledges made in the platform shall be carried into operation by the present administration. And it can be truthfully said that if the rank and file were as honest with themselves as Mr. Wilson is there would be very few members of the Democrat Party. Because Mr. Tolar says that they are numbered by the hundreds and thousands, who believe in a protective tariff and this is contradictory to the views of Mr. Wilson.

North Carolina will never secure for itself and its citizenship its rightful possession among the states of the nation until its supposed industrial leaders are honest enough, not only with themselves, but with their fellow men to break aloof from party traditions and press forward the light of new born day. We ask you to assist us in teaching truth and honesty to these our brethren.

The Sun in commenting upon Mr. Tolar's letter makes the following statement:

"This is a frank position and one deserving of respect. Mr. Tolar recognizes the fact that he is not a Democrat and wants to break away from that party. Some other advocates of protection in the Democratic party are not so frank and outspoken. They want to stay in the party and they want protection too. They want to eat their cake and have it. These men who are now trying to block the Democratic tariff program are not Democrats. The cause of tariff reform is so identified with the Democratic party, in every way, that a man cannot oppose it and retain his party standing."

The ring that has controlled Charlotte for many years assisted by the grafters, caused Charlotte to retard its progress last Friday for many years by defeating commission government.

Charlotte can no longer say that it is The Queen City or the place in North Carolina because it is proven to the world by its own acts that it is far behind the great progressive march of municipal progress and that it will take a long time for it to overcome this egregious mistake. Arouse yourselves brethren to the importance of the situation.

Fatal Hotel Fire.

Malone, N. Y., April 17.—Seven or more persons were burned to death, several women received injuries from which they may die and a score of persons were rescued in a spectacular fire which today destroyed the De Wilson Hotel, and old three-story wooden structure, on Catherine street. The building burned like paper and the firemen had little time to effect rescues. An explosion caused the fire. More bodies are believed to be in the ruins.

Most of those injured were hurt by jumping from the third story.

"IS DIS A HOTEL?"

Those who saw Charlie Gano, that Prince of black face entertainers with Coburns Greater Minstrels last season, and his Mysterious Hotel will be interested in the announcement of his latest and best vehicle for the coming season with that popular attraction. Gano is the best comedian, the most popular black face man who has been seen in this city in years. He was recognized as an artist, a genuinely funny impersonator, of which there are very few left from the old school. His unassuming manner off the stage, his courteous consideration of others was as refreshing as his clean cut comedy, and the omnis in f o ar. ness from his jokes. The Savannah Morning News said of him "Gano is an artist. He is funny, consistent and refreshing. He never even approaches the ragged edge of suggestive comedy." Saturday night at Casino.

Free-For-All Fight.

High Point, April 22.—A small battle took place here between Carl Hargrave, Joe Metnett and Ira Andrews, the two latter hailing from Winston-Salem, about three o'clock Sunday Morning. They had a free-for-all fight on Main street Browns Cafe.

Some indication of the extent of the injuries can be seen from the fact that it required thirteen stitches for one, thirty-three for another and thirty-five stitches for the third man. Drs. Burns and Grayson dressed the wounds.

Hargrave managed to leave town and his whereabouts are as yet unknown. The two other men returned to their homes Sunday morning.

Gov. Mann Operated On For Appendicitis.

Richmond, Va., April 21.—Gov. William Hodges Mann was today operated on for appendicitis at a Richmond hospital and in spite of his 69 years he rallied like a much younger man. His strong constitution and temperate life have told in his favor. The physicians say tonight that his condition is very satisfactory and this is verified by others who know the situation.

The Governor has been suffering from appendicitis since last Monday night when he attended a dinner. He recovered from the initial attack and the physicians came to the conclusion that an operation would be unnecessary. But a recurrence this morning resulted in a determination to operate at once. The Executive was conveyed in a huge basket from the Executive Mansion to a hospital nearby, where gas and oxygen were administered.

Titanic Memorial Service.

New Haven, Conn., April 13.—At a Titanic memorial service tonight at the Calvary Baptist church the pastor, the Rev. J. W. Hoag, read an appreciation of former President Taft of Major Archibald Butt, his personal aide who went down with the ship.

Mrs. Taft, after paying a high personal tribute to Major Butt, said:

"I very much doubt whether I have ever known a man who had to much self-abnegation, as much self-sacrifice, as much ability, to put himself in the place of another and suffer and enjoy with that other as Archie Butt had."

"He left with us the sweet flavor of his unselfish life and while we mourn for him, we felicitate him on the way he went. His heroism will stand as an example for future generations."

Only those who arrive early witnessed the automobile race which passed through our town before 6 o'clock Tuesday morning. The race was between the Hudson and Ford cars, running from Greensboro to Raleigh. The Hudson won in the race.

The Telephone and Good Roads

The telephone goes hand in hand with good roads.

The telephone overcomes many of the obstacles of bad roads and makes it possible for the farmer and other rural residents to transact business in the city and with neighbors when the roads are impassable.

Progressive farmers are insisting upon good roads and telephones. These two agencies of modern civilization are doing more than all others toward eliminating the isolation of country life. You can have a telephone in your home at very small cost. Send a postal for our free booklet giving complete information.

To Give Heavy Bond.

Spartanburg, S. C., April 17.— In compliance with a recent of the Supreme Court granting Mrs. M. E. Grace temporary injunction against the Greenville, Spartanburg & Anderson Railway, Judge Thomas S. Sease today issued an order requiring Mrs. Grace to give within 10 days a bond for $125,000 as protection for the railway. "If the court shall finally decide that plaintiff was not entitled to the injunction."

The injunction has for some time halted the work on the railway at Duncan and according to affidavits, has caused the railway to sustain heavy damages daily. The railway is restrained from building its line across Mrs. Grace's property, and also from changing the course of the Middle Tyger River, as planned. Mrs. Grace's attorneys said tonight they were undecided as to whether to give the bond, which they deem excessive.

American Cotton Manufacturers' Association Meeting.

Washington, D. C., April 12.— Before leaving Washington for their homes today cotton manufacturers who have been here attending the American Cotton Manufacturers' association meeting were practically unanimous in the adverse criticism of the Underwood tariff bill, which makes a radical reduction in cotton tariffs. Furthermore, such men as S. B. Tanner, of Charlotte, N. C. and Studart Cramer, the newly elected president of the association, made no secret of their determination to try to defeat the Democratic candidates for Congress next year if they allow the Underwood bill to become law.

Some "Leading" Threats.

"Southern manufactures were much surprised when they found that the Democratic tariff measure proposes to reduce the cotton schedule 50 per cent," said S. B. Tanner, of Charlotte, N. C. "President Wilson in his campaign speeches said that there would be a GRADUAL reduction of the tariff. Our cotton people agreed to this and submitted schedules showing what we could stand. If Underwood bill becomes law we will have to close down our mill. We can't compete with cheap foreign labor."

"I as well other cotton men, have told our representatives in Congress. You will put us out of business this year; we will put you out of Congress next year," concluded Mr. Tanner.

May Not Pass, Says Erwin.

Said W. A. Erwin, of Durham, "Fifty per cent, in my opinion, is more than the cotton mill can stand. The Underwood bill has not passed Congress yet, and may not pass."
Mr. Erwin, who has just retired from the presidency of the association, said in addressing that body:

Oppose Reduction of Cotton Bill.

"A downward revision of the tariff, which the party now in power and having a majority in both houses of Congress is committed to, is fraught with hazard not only to the success, but very existence of some of our industrial and commercial enterprises. This revision is contemplated with the gravest apprehensions on the part of some of the members of our association. However, in our opinion, the matter should be considered by the American people from a fair and broad viewpoint, and a great measure of hope be indulged in that the new administration shall deal with this most important matter on progressive and yet wise and conservative lines. This hope, we think, is fully warranted by the confidence expressed in the November election in the present administration by a great majority of the voters of our nation. Especially is general confidence centered in the wisdom and justice of that great statesman, the present head of our republic, whose wisdom would prompt him and whose courage would not fail him in vetoing any measure which would threaten the industries that we have here assembled in annual convention to perpetuate and rejoice in."
L. O. Barnhart, of Concord, said: "The cotton schedules were already as low as we could stand. If this proposed bill goes into effect I will not be responsible for the result either financially or politically."

Talks to President.

Several members of the American Cotton Manufacturer's association called upon President Wilson to talk about the proposed bill before leaving Washington. They were told at the White House that they could not expect any help from that source. Col. LeRoy Springs, one of the wealthiest cotton manufacturers in South Carolina, told friends, after he talked with Mr. Wilson, that he received absolutely no encouragement from the President.
"The President," said Mr. Springs, "told us that it was up to Chairman Underwood, of the ways and means committee."

Simmons Cannot Help.

A North Carolina manufacturer said that Senator Simmons had told him that he could not help the situation. He said even if Senator Simmons was so disposed, his committee would prevent his aiding the cotton mill men.
"The fastest and most furious lobby fight seen in Washington within a quarter of a century ended today when the cotton manufacturers, who had arrived in Washington about the time the tariff bill appeared from the keeping of the ways and means committee, began leaving for their homes. The effects of the mill men to influence the ways and means committee and other members of Congress and to coax the White House has certainly failed.

To Keep Lobbying.

Robert Miller, chairman of the committee on tariff legislation, urged the members of the association to keep "jabbing" on the senators and representatives from their respective states to use their influence to change the proposed rates.

J Pierpont Morgan's Propert Will Yield Large Inheritance.

Chicago, April 3.—J. Pierpont Morgan's property in Cook County is expected to yield an inheritance tax of $10,000, according to estimates made today in the office of the tax collector. County Judge Owens has appointed William Preston Harrison appraiser of the Morgan holdings in Illinois.
Morgan is said to have large holdings in the Pulman Company International Harvester Company, and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad in addition to $17,000,000 worth of stock in the Chicago City Railway.

An Old Bible.

Spencer, April 4.—A Bible purporting to have been published in English in 1321 is in possession of W. H. Walker of Spencer. The book has been in the Walker family for nearly 600 years and was brought to America more than 100 years ago by Mr. John Walker grandfather of W. H. Walker. The book is well preserved and clearly legible. It is prized very highly. So far as is known that is the oldest Bible in North Carolina.

The City Clerk of Raleigh is short $16.00 and has been dispensed awaiting investigation. Mr. Gleen the clerk asks that he may be permitted to replace the amount.

McAdoo Is Not To Wed.

New York, April 10.—A Washington dispatch to the New York Sun says:
When asked tonight concerning a rumor that he was engaged to marry Mrs. Seth Barton French Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo said:
"The report is entirely incorrect. I feel obliged to make this statement in order that Mrs. French may be spared the annoyance which such rumors must cause her."

Why He Couldn't Go In.

A small but very black negro was standing very erect at one side of the door of a house where a colored man had just died. The services were about to begin, when the negro clergyman appeared at the door and said to the little fellow:
"The services are about to begin. Aren't you coming inside?"
"I would if I could," said the little boy, "but you see I's de-craped!"—Ladies' Home Journal.

Dr. Hartman's Plain Talk to Young Men

My plain talk to young men in my last article certainly brought out many responses from young men. I take this means of answering them briefly, for the benefit of other young men who did not write me. One writer says: "I was greatly interested in your talk to young men. I wish I was strong and well as you describe yourself to be. I am going to begin at once and follow your advice and take care of myself as I ought to. I will quit the use of all stimulants, tea and coffee, go to bed early. I will take the cold water towel bath every morning. I want to live to be old and useful, like you. And I shall also keep Peruna at hand, in case of slight ailments as they may arise. I thank you in the name of thousands of other young men, like myself." To this letter I replied:

My dear Boy:—I cannot tell you how much good your letter has done me. To know that I am arousing the young men in matters of right living fills me with gratitude and enthusiasm. I want to help you. Write me any time you wish and I will consider your letter strictly confidential and give you prompt reply. Follow the advice I gave in my article. Whenever you have occasion to consult me further do not hesitate. Let us be friends. If you will be obedient to me as a son ought to be I will be faithful and true to you as a father ought to be. Progressive News From Washington.

Munsey Building, Washington; D.C. April 11, 1913.

In much of the discussion of the new tariff measure, it probably will be described as the "Underwood bill," possibly it would be more exact to describe it as the "Wilson-Underwood bill" for there is no doubt that, if it depended upon Mr. Underwood alone to supply the chief element of driving power, the bill as finally enacted would not bear much resemblance to the measure he introduced on the opening day of the session. The real force behind the bill is the President. Mr. Wilson has done a number of things since his election quite out of the ordinary presidential course, but he has done nothing more extraordinary than his ambitious attempt, before the bill was made public, to effect an agreement upon it between Senate and House leaders, so that it should go practically unchanged. Moreover there are many indications now that he has been largely successful and it will be particularly surprising to find his bill going through both House and senate unamended in any important particular.

There are numerous elements of dissatisfaction in the bill. Many Democrats in both House and Senate are vigorously oppose to several of its provisions. They would be glad to see important changes made. If they dared, they would fight for these changes but they do not dare. Mr. Wilson has been successful in his first move, for the bill is accepted widely as a smashing reduction of rates already there is no little talk that the result is bound to be a substantial decrease in the cost of living. Many articles of daily consumption by all the people either go free list or sustain substantial cuts in duties.

This is really the paramount performance of the Bill. The promise of the Democratic campaign was to reduce the cost of living and the chief method which the Democrats promised to employ in bringing about such a reduction was just the kind of a smashing cut in tariff rates. So the test of fulfillment of that promise will come when the pending reduction becomes law and has had reasonable opportunity to operate.

Both Republicans and Democrats display interest and anxiety over the situation. Many Democrats are desperately afraid that the bill will produce narrow times and possibly panic. Many Republicans are afraid that it will not. The Democrats hope, but do not know, that the bill will fulfill their campaign promises. Republicans hope, but do not know, that it will smash industry as well as rates and afford an opportunity for a renewal of the old standard cry for tariff privilege.

The fact is, nobody knows what the bill will do, just as nobody knows exactly the reason for any particular provision in it. The bill has been made in exactly the same manner and by the same methods that previous Republican bills were made, on secret information rather than on data obtainable by the general public. The Democratic Ways and Means Committee went through the perfunctory farce of holding public hearings just as the Republican Ways and Means Committee did. The same kind of testimony was given on each occasion. Mr. Underwood ostensibly used this testimony to justify one set of rates just as Mr. Payne ostensibly used his testimony to justify his rates. In each case, if there was any positive information on which the rates were based, it was conveyed to the Authors of the bill in secret and has never been made public. The Democratic method of tariff making is exactly as much a sham as was the Republican method. The Democrats talk of the "principle of tariff for revenue only"; the Republicans talk of the "principle of high protection." Neither side has the support of scientifically obtained authentic information. Each writes a tariff bill by guesswork and by "rule of thumb."

The demand of the Progressive party is that all this sham fighting shall cease; that there shall be created, first of all a permanent, independent, nonpartisan, expert Tariff Commission with ample power and means to secure complete reliable information upon all subjects entering into tariff legislation. Thus there would be furnished to everybody, high-tariff low-tariff and no-tariff men alike, the fullest information concerning every item of a tariff bill. With such assistance, Congress could work intelligently in tariff legislation. Midnight meetings with chairman of the Ways and Means Committee or of the Finance Committee would no longer avail special interests, whether these "special interests" were manufacturers demanding high rates or importers asking for low rates. BOLD BANDITS BLOW BANK

Robbers Blast Safe, Fire on Posse Cut Telephone Wires and Get $4,000

Rome, Ga. — Auto bandits dynamited the vault of the Bank of Commerce, at Summerville, Chattooga county, and while loaded down with loot, waged a desperate pistol battle with awakened citizens, who rushed into the public square. The thieves made a successful getaway in the touring car which they had concealed in the woods near town after shooting down two men. They secured more than three thousand dollars in cash, together with valuable negotiable securities and $1,000 worth of stamps kept in the vault by postmaster Neal.

Deafening explosions shortly before one o'clock brought citizens to the scene. First to arrive were Deputy Sheriff William Alexander and Steve Garrett, who opened fire upon the robbers as they appeared from the wrecked bank building.

A pitched battle followed in which Alexander and Garrett were shot twice, but both will recover. Every one of the town's 1,800 people surged around the wrecked building and then made arrangements for a hurried pursuit, while the bandits were making haste to get away over rough roads.

Chapel Hill, April 18.—Many of the State's foremost educators, representing all sections, are on the program for the discussions of the high school topics at the three days' session of the High School Conference and the dedication of the new Peabody Education Building, which events come on the dates of May 1, 2, and 3, in Chapel Hill. The North Carolina High School Bulletin, in the April number, refers to the forthcoming three days' event as one of the most important educational meetings in the State in recent years. High school problems will be discussed and plans will be formulated for the continued growth of secondary education in North Carolina. The following educators will address at the meeting in an index to the import of the Conference. Zebulon Juda, superintendent of Wake county schools; R. J. Tighe, superintendent of Asheville city schools; W. T. Whitsett, principal of Whitsett Institute; E. C. Brooks, of Trinity College; J. E. Turlington, of Mount Airy schools; H. H. Horne, of New York University; R. H. Latham, superintendent Winston city schools; E. O. Pusey, principal of Goldsboro graded schools; Martin L. Wright, of Holly Springs High Schools; J. A. Matheson, of the State Normal and Industrial College; George W. Lay, president of St. Mary's College; F. P. Venable, president of the University; C. W. Massey, superintendent of Durham county schools; John J. Blair, superintendent of Wilmington city schools; J. H. Highsmith, of Wake Forest College; J. Y. Joyner, State superintendent of Public Instruction, and M. C. S. Nolie, of the department in the University.

Professors E. K. Graham, C. S. Raper, N. W. Walker and M. C. S. Nolie represented the State University at the sessions of the Conference on Education in the South in Richmond the past week. Professor Graham delivered an address Wednesday night before the Southern Association of the College Women on the topic of "Some Factors in the Education of Women". Dr. C. L. Raper delivered two lectures before the Conference on Taxation in the South on the respective subject of "Taxation and Efficiency in the Southern States" and "Effective Assessment Systems."

Four more positive dates for baseball games remain to be played by the University of North Carolina team; namely, the University of South Carolina, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, A. & M. and Wake Forest. Also, there is a possibility of a third game with the University of Virginia to break the existing tie. If the game is arranged it will be staged in some leading North Carolina city early in May.

Brunette Season.

Paris, April 18.—The brunette season has struck Paris and women with blond or tawny hair here seldom seen, while hairdressers say they cannot supply the demands for dark eyes.

Danger In Delay.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Burlington People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease may follow as the kidneys get worse. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills which are so strongly recommended right here in Burlington.

C. F. Oakley, Davis St., Burlington, N. C., says: "I suffered from kidney complaint for two or three years, brought on by hard work and heavy lifting. The trouble began with sharp twinges in my right side, extending into my limbs. At times I became so lame and sore across my loins that I could not sleep. My kidneys were also disordered and I was miserable in every way. As soon as I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, I felt better and before long they cured me."

The Sylvan Graded School closed Friday the 13th with an entertainment. In the morning was the 7th grade contest in which Lorraine Green was winner. The prize was a ring. Following the contest was the presenting of prizes for attendance. There were ten boys and girls who had neither been absent nor tardy during the entire year. In the afternoon a very interesting and instructive address on "Conservation" was made by Dr. W. A. Harper of Elon College. After the address the exercises were given by the Primary Grades. An entertainment by the Intermediate Grades was given that night.

Mrs. Kernodle Entertains.

Saturday evening at her residence on Main street at Graham, N. C., Mrs. L. L. Kernodle entertained very delightfully at a birthday party for her granddaughter, Miss Clara Montgomery.

"Sweet 16" that mystic age when "brook and river meet" was, perhaps news more sweetly marked for a young girl, the celebratin coming as an absolute surprise to the recipient of the honor.

The guests were met at the door by Mr. Harrol Montgomery of Durham, brother of the young lady.

The residence was beautifully decorated for the occasions larin der and green being employed to produce a very charming color scheme. The dining room was indeed lovely, the center piece being exceptionally artistic its beauty of arrangement enhanced by the self gloire from sixteen candles. Electric lights Jane brilliance to the scene.

The evening was spent in sweet gaiety at the end of which a delicious ice course was served followed by bon-bons. Those present at this delightfully entertainment were: Miss Mamie Long, Rachel Estlow, Duke McCraekin, Ina Timmin, Frances Moore, Clara Montgomery, Christine Holt, Dewey Ferrell, Mary Walker, Florence Murray, Helen Simmons.

Messrs. Joseph Walker, Williard, Loley, Coy Williams, Rev. R. T. L. Edwards and Howland Montgomery, of Durham.

Miss Montgomery was the recipient of a number of birthday gifts.

Why They Married

Postal cards were sent out to all the married men in a certain town of western New York carrying the question, "Why do you marry?" says the Chicago Record-Herald. The following are some of the answers returned:

"That's what I've been trying for 11 years to find out."

"Married to get even with her mother—but never have."

"Was freckle-faced and thought it my last chance. I've found out however, that freckles aint so bad as henspeck."

"Because I was to lazy to work."

"Because Sarah told me five other young fellows had proposed to her. Lucky dogs!"

"The old man thought eight years courtin' was long enough."

"I was lonesome and wanted some one to make me lively. N. R.—She mages me lively, you bet!"

"I was tiard of buying ice and candies and going to theaters and wanted a rest. Have saved money."

Mebane Politics Warm.

Mebane, N. C., April 22.—An interesting fight is promised for the town election May 6. Already two sets of councilmen have been nominated, and a third is freely spoken of. A mass meeting of citizens Saturday night nominated T. M. Cheek, W. E. White, Woods Patton, John Nicholson and Crockett Fitch; another Monday night nominated John A. Holmes, W. Y. Malone, Jack Smith and indorsed Woods Patton and Crockett Fitch; the third set, it is said, will include a least two new names.

The fight is a three-cornered one from appearance; partly factional, somewhat sectional and even personal to a limited extent. A fourth element may be introduced, in that an effort may be made to make Mebane a "wide open" town, but this will receive only limited support, judging from the past record of the town.

No opposition to Mayor Shaw has developed as yet.

The store of Holmes and Warren was broken into Monday night, and a small amount of money taken from the cash drawer. The combination was worked, leaving the drawer in good condition; so it is supposed that the robbing was done by some one acquainted with the store or having the correct ideas of combination cash drawers. Papers and checks in the drawer were not disturbed.

An entrance was made through a rear window, the glass being cut out. No clue has been found to assist in capturing the guilty party.

The news comes from the Vatican in Rome that the head of the Roman church Pope Pius is improving.
