Excursionists In Raleigh Suffer.

The 1,000 excursionists who came down from Gibsonville and Burlington yesterday, ran into a water famine unknown to the innocent.

They were church people who chose one of the hottest days of the summer to sight-see. They had not been long in town until they found the city plagued with muddy water or watery mud. Nobody can tell which element predominates.

They made a run on the drug stores, ice factories, wells, pumps and every place that had clear water. The city never had worse misfortune as it affected the excursionists view. The country and village visitor to the State capital was unused to short water. The Sunday school people would have been justified in using Sunday school language.

But they didn't. Chief Walters asks that it be said well for them. There was not an arrest. And folks able to drink Raleigh water yesterday without murdering members of their family, are fit folks.

We clip the above from Sunday Raleigh News and Observer.

Mr. Williams A Morrison Seriously Hurt.

Mr. William A. Morrison, son of A. J. Morrison of Graham, N. C., had the misfortune to get his eye badly injured Saturday while employed at Oneida Cotton Mills. He was carried to St. Leo's Hospital at Greensboro, N. C. Saturday by Dr. Barefoot. It is now believed that sight can be saved. Mr. A. J. Morrison desires to thank all his friends who have been so kind to him since the accident of his son. Mr. Morrison passed through town Tuesday on route to Greensboro, N. C. to visit his son.

Rev. J. D. Andrew Preached Farewell Sermon.

Rev. J. D. Andrew preached his last sermon at the Reformed Church Sunday and left Tuesday for Catawba College where he will be located in the future. The services Sunday, were attended by an unusual large crowd. Quite a number of people coming from the country to hear his last discourse. Among those present were the Mayor and quite a number of the Board of Aldermen. It is hoped this charge will not be vacant long, and that supplies may be had during the vacancy. As announced Sunday the pulpit will be filled by someone on the third Sunday in July, and that Rev. Mr. Wright of Pennsylvania who is now spending the summer in Italy will be present and preach a trial sermon on the second Sunday in August.

Rev. Andrew will not move his family to Newton until the last of July. His many friends during his fifteen years work have learn to regard him as a man of high ideals. We regret exceedingly to see him leave.

Death.

Mr. Lonnie K. Carroll died Wednesday June 25th while in the field plowing corn. Mr. Carroll was as well as usual until a few minutes before his death. He was 82 years old and leaves a devoted wife three daughters Mrs. W. M. Foster, Mrs. W. M. Scotts and Mrs. S. M. Linnens by his first marriage and a son and daughter by his second marriage. He was a good old man and made an honest living by hard work. He was buried at Mt. Zion church June 26th.

Boys Job Plant.

Durham, June 27.—F. A. Moore, formerly owner and editor of the Durham Sun, has purchased the job shop of Zeb. P. Council and will take charge of this business the first of July. Mr. Council has accepted a position as manager of the University printing office at Chapel Hill. He will take charge of this work the first of July. Both men are popular in Durham and both are familiar with the business.

Big 4th of July at Burlington.

Friday the 4th of July will be elaborately celebrated at Burlington and especially at the Piedmont Park. Lange's Model Show will be at the park and will give abundant attraction to all who go. Two base ball games will be played one in the morning at 10 o'clock and the other in the afternoon at 4 o'clock. The great prizes as was published in last weeks issue amounting to $100 in gold will attract the attention of many of our citizens. These constitute a prize to be given to the lady who buys the largest amount of goods from any of our merchants before 11 o'clock the prize being 5.00, another prize of $5.00 to the man or boy who buys the largest bill of goods before 11 o'clock, another prize of $5.00 to the man or boy depositing the largest sum of money in either bank before 11 o'clock, another to the person buying the largest sum of mortgage bonds from either of the Real Estate Co's., and another prize to the person who buys the largest number of street car tickets at the office of the Piedmont Trust Co., before 11 o'clock.

Remember you can go to the judges stand early in the morning and buy a ticket for 5 cents the money for the tickets sold goes to the Confederate Monument in Graham. You vote that ticket in the ballot box at the judges stand and the lucky number that is voted in the ballot box before twelve o'clock entitles you to $15.00 in gold which is given by the 4th of July committee.

Free Brass Band music in the square in Burlington and at the park all day. Free ice cold lemonade will be served in the grove to every body. Take off a day and come to Burlington and enjoy your self with your neighbor. We are going to have a big time.

Heaviest in Years.

Siler City, June 28.—This section was visited last night by the most terrific electrical storm, accompanied by the heaviest rainfall in years. Lightning struck the dwelling of E. V. Straughan on route 1, in the Silk Hope neighborhood, and did considerable damage. Fortunately no one was injured. Lightning also struck a barn at the home of Manely Jones on route 4, and other buildings were burned with about 200 bushels of wheat.

Heavy rains have fallen every afternoon this week, doing considerable damage to growing crops. Rainfall has also damaged a portion of the wheat crop which was still in the fields. Lightning has struck in a number of places, but so far no fatalities are reported.

Bull Moose Convention.

The Progressives of Arkansas held a State convention at Little Rock on June 24 and nominated Colonel George W. Murphy for the governorship. A special election is to be held on July 23 for this office, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Governor Robinson upon his election to the United States Senate. Colonel Murphy is a well-known lawyer of Arkansas, who has served four years as Attorney-General of the State, being elected on the Democratic ticket. He earned his title in the Confederate army. He is an enthusiastic Progressive who joined the party upon its formation a year ago. He is a first-class campaigner and is preparing to make a lively fight.

Cow Wrecks Train.

Knoxville, Tenn. June 29.—Two trainmen were killed and one seriously hurt at Keswick, Ky., just across the Tennessee line, when a Louisville & Nashville Railroad passenger train struck a cow on a sharp curve this afternoon. The engine was overturned and four cars derailed. None of the passenger cars however, was overturned and none of the passengers received more than a minor injury.

A New System and Better Telephone Service.

Numerous times we have been reminded of the fact that Burlington should have better telephone service not by our neighboring towns and counties but by our local subscribers these continuous kicks continue to come to us and from personal observation and by using the phones every day we are prompted to bring a bearing that will give us what we need namely first better facilities with which to operate and secondly better service. That the newly proposed common battery system is the thing we should have, is certain. In our mind, and we have used both there is as much difference in the common battery system and the system we are using at present as there is in having a telephone on a country line or not having any at all.

During this present progressive age in which we are living the farmer who has no phone is considered a back-woods number and the same is just as true with the town that will be content with our present telephone system. Will the subscribers of this enormous monopoly sit idle and pay their monthly dues and accept the service now being rendered or will we demand a better system and service at a very slightly increased remuneration. Are we moving forward or standing still? Do we think or allow the other fellow do our thinking? If we want better service, we will demand same if we demand better service and a new system we will get what we demand.

We are of the opinion that the Board of Aldermen will vote upon this important question Monday night, if they set it aside and do nothing with it, it will doubtless be a long time before it is agitated again.

Trade at Home.

We are frequently reminded and must occasionally comment on the idea of "Trade at Home." If we would boost Burlington and make her a bigger and better town do not go to another town to shop but "Trade at Home." There are just as many bargains to be found at home and the goods of our merchants are as good if not a little better than those you secure elsewhere. The merchant with whom you are acquainted will invariably give you better service and besides you save traveling expenses and a trip of worry. We do not intend to be selfish at all, but have a town large enough to satisfy our wants. Stay at home and do your shopping and invited your neighbor to come to do his.

Forty-two Veterans Left for Gettysburg Sunday.

Forty-two veterans left this station Sunday night for Gettysburg where the blue and the gray will unite and spend a week in looking over the scenes of the greatest battle fought during the civil war. Five thousand tents have been erected to house these veterans. The ground on which the tents stand has been baked as hard as brick and dried into dust by the winds.

The formal exercises each day will be held in a big tent near the Emmetsburg road but will last only two hours, the other time the veterans will spend where they please. In the village thousands of sightseers are quartered and every barn is converted into a garage. President Wilson will be at Gettysburg about two hours July 4th and deliver an address. The first accident occurred Sunday when two trolley cars collided and hurt six passengers. August D. Brown of Livemore Falls, Me, was the first veteran to die on the field during the Celebration. He was taken suddenly ill Sunday and heat probably hastened his death.

Negro Killed by Train.

North Wilkesbors, June 26.—Peyton Hoskins, a negro about 21 years old who recently came home from Ohio, was killed near here by the passenger train which left at 4 o'clock.

Jake May at St. Leo's Hospital.

A telephone message was received here Sunday night stating that Jake May was at St. Leo's Hospital, Greensboro, N. C. in an unconscious condition having taken an overdose of morphine.

Mr. May was found in a lumber yard in South Greensboro. Investigation revealed a bottle of morphine from which several tablets appeared to have been taken. He was carried to the hospital and after administering artificial respiration for several hours he regained consciousness.

Mr. May has recently taken treatment for this craving desire for dope. When first carried to the hospital little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Ralph's Place

This is a new business for Burlington. Its a fruit confectionery and fancy grocery store, located upon Spring street near the post office. One of its mottoes is nothing delivered, nothing charged. Ralph Rimmer proprietor, Young Rimmer is a nephew of Mrs. J. Z. Waller, and brother of Miss Hortense Rimmer and Eugene Rimmer whom we all remember so well. Give the young man encouragement that he may make good in his undertaking.

Death of Mrs. Fitch.

Mrs. William Fitch, prior to her marriage was Miss Leliah Curtiss died Tuesday morning at Rex Hospital at Raleigh after suffering some time with typhoid fever. She was 26 years old and had been married a little more than two years. She leaves a husband, one child, two sisters and two brothers. The remains were brought to this place Tuesday evening and carried Wednesday to Hawfields cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. McIver.

Capt. E. S. Parker's Barn Burned.

During the electrical storm Saturday night lightning set fire and burned the barn of Capt. E. S. Parker Sr. of Graham.

Fortunately the barn was not filled with feed and the blaze was extinguished before the lower walls of the barn had been burned. However the walls were too badly burned to be repaired. The loss may be considered total.

A Card of Thanks.

Being unable to see each and every one personally, we wish to take this method of thanking each and every one who was so kind to us during the illness and death of our dear father.

Jesse G. Alexander and sisters.

Death of Miss Mollie E. Harris.

Miss Mollie E. Harris, sister of Mrs. Lelia Moore and the aunt of Dr. H. T. and Messrs S. I. and Frank Moore died Sunday at Hot Springs, Ark., after an illness of several weeks with acute rheumatism. Miss Harris who had been visiting her sister left here about six weeks ago going to Hot Springs with the view of improving her health. The remains were brought here Tuesday evening burial taking place at Pine Hill cemetery. Services being conducted by Revs. D. McIver and T. A. Sikes. Miss Harris was well known in our midst and was a lady of refinement and culture and lived an exemplar life.

The burial was attended by quite a number of our most prominent citizens. Those acting as pallbearers were: Dr. H. M. Montgomery, F. L. Williamson, W. I. J. H. and Ervin Holt and Banks Williamson.

Misses Julia and Lizzie Fogleman entertained the Lutheran Missionary Society at their home Tuesday night quite a large crowd of people were present and enjoyed the short talks made by Rev. Brown and Frank Anderson. After the program had been rendered delicious refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening spent in a social manner. A solo was rendered by Mr. C. J. Boland who sang the "Holy City" another solo was rendered by Miss Lucy Brown. Both were enjoyed exceed.

Board of Aldermen in Session

An extra session of the Board of Aldermen was held Monday night in the Mayor's Hall. A revised copy of the town ordinance was carefully scrutinized by the board and passed. The question of selling ice and cigars on Sunday was disposed of granting the Drug stores and ice houses the privilege. The discussion on this proposition was heated three of the Aldermen Messrs. H. T. Moore, H. C. Stout and Mr. Thomas opposing the sale of the article. A law was passed requiring all automobile chauffeurs to pay a license of $1.00 and making it necessary to be examined in order to have the privilege of driving a car. The age limit for boy is sixteen.

To Our Friends.

The State Dispatch has numerous calls asking if we do job work. So we are merely writing this to inform the public that we do job work. We have been doing this kind of work since the first of the year and have done work for many people both in town and the county. If you are in need of this kind of work we shall be pleased to have you call at our office or call us over telephone, our number is 285. Any information we can furnish along these lines we shall be glad to give.

Hookworm Campaign.

From time to time notices have been published in this and other State papers concerning the State and County campaign for the free examination and free treatment of Hookworm Disease and other diseases due to intestinal parasites. This work has been successfully controlled in about 75 counties of the State with the result that more than 125,000 people in all walks of life have been made healthier stronger, happier, and more useful to themselves and their community. Every tenth person in the State has been examined and every twentieth person treated for the disease.

About one-third of the people of North Carolina are suffering with Hookworm Disease and consider their trouble due to some other disease. Hookworm Disease frequently causes headache, dizziness, shortness of breath, paleness, poor appetite for breakfast, indigestion, heartburn, stunted growth, and poor progress in school work on account of poor memory. The disease is most frequently contracted through the skin, ground itch or dew poison being the first symptom of the disease. At the dispensaries, stress is laid on sanitation and the effect of the work on sanitation and the effect of the work on sanitary conditions and public health is very salutary.

This work has been arranged for in many of the counties near Alamance. Dispensaries are now being conducted in Caswell County and will soon be opened in Rockingham, Person, and Guilford counties. The work is being conducted by a physician from the State Board of Health and is secured for a county by having the County Commissioners appropriate an amount not to exceed $250.00 to be used in paying the cost of advertising, the cost of drugs, and the traveling expenses of a trained laboratory man to assist the physician while the campaign is in progress. The county pays only the actual amount expended for the above items and any remainder is turned back to the treasury. Points are selected in different parts of the county and a dispensary is held at each point on one day of each week of the six or more weeks the dispensary is in operation. The people in the locality of the dispensary bring in specimens, see them examined, and those found infected receive free treatment. An interesting exhibit is made at each dispensary, and literature on various health topics is distributed.

A representative of the State Board of health will appear before the Board of Commissioners of Alamance County on the first Monday in July for the purpose of having an appropriation made in July for the purpose of having an appropriation made for conducting this county. Everyone interested in this great work of sanitation and public health should see their commissioner and use their influence to have this small appropriation made. Let them, as well as any one not thoroughly understanding the nature of the work, come out on the first Monday and meet with the Commissioners and hear the work explained in detail.

Progressive News.

Douglas County, Nebraska, Progressives gave a dinner in Omaha recently at which resolutions were adopted instructing the Executive Committee of the county "to take such measures as may be necessary to secure largest possible registration of Progressives preparatory to the coming county and Congressional elections" and calling attention to the fact that it is of vital importance "for all who believe in the principles of the Progressive party to take an active part in the promotion of good Government."

Uncle Joe Cannon is a stand-patter right. He went over to Richmond, Indiana, the other day and made the prediction that there will be no Bull Moose party in 1916. Richmond is in Wayne County, which elected a full Progressive ticket last fall, which shows how good a political observer the ex-Czar is.

Michigan Progressive have opened permanent headquarters at 327 Broadway Market Building, Detroit, Mich., with Charles F. Hoffman, secretary of the State Central Committee, in charge. They are actively at work organizing every county of the State.

The Progressives of Allegan, the county seat of Allegan County, Michigan, are pluming themselves upon the fact that in the recent municipal election they scored a complete success, electing an entire ticket of Mayor and five councilmen.

The Vermont Progressives are up and doing all the time. In the first six months of this year, county meetings have been held in Washington, Windom, Orange, Chittenden, Caledonia, Franklin and Bennington counties. At each meeting there was at least one speaker from out of the State. They are planning meetings for the next six months in the remaining seven counties of the State. There are over 16,000 Progressives enrolled in Vermont, in addition to which there are 700 party workers, representing each town in the State, who can be dependent upon for active work. Organization work is proceeding all the time.

Butler County, Pennsylvania, Progressives held a largely attended organization meeting at Butler the other day. Nearly every election district in the county was represented. The committee decided on permanent organization for the county, adopted rules for party government and decided to place a complete ticket in the field at the fall election.

The Illinois House of Representatives has finally defeated the theft of the seat of George B. Boardman, who was elected at the special election last spring, by making belated restitution. It will be recalled that immediately after the election at which Mr. Boardman won the Democratic-Republican machine combination in the House seated Michael Henneby, Mr. Boardman's Democratic opponent. Mr. Boardman was thereby forced to contest for the seat which he had rightfully won. The decision was postponed by the House until the last thing. In the end, Mr. Boardman was seated.

At a recent meeting of the Progressive county committee of Wright County, Missouri, funds were raised for the incidental expenses of carrying on the party work. Arrangements were made to have Progressive speakers at the various picnics and county fairs of the season.

Tears For The Gray; Cheers For The Blue

Fare you well, captain, and comrades, too, Farewell messmates in gray and blue. Honor the soldier, the blue and gray, With mother but yesterday, with God today. Prayers for the weak, love for the strong, Glory for the right cause, tears for the wrong. Enemies you fought, now as comrades you meet, Twin grave on earth, on high one sheet. Winds Northern cold and Southern fire. Into pity—one mother, into honor, one sire. Brother against brother, blood for a State; Reverse arms, soldier! Bury section fat.

Yet warrior, heart, raw bleeding and bled, Drop tears for the Union, o'er bivouac of the dead. In rain of bullet and storm of shell, Forgot of heaven, full-measured of hell; Fallen the heroes, still waves the flag, Bullet shrunken standard, honor shredded rag. Only one flag. Long may it wave; One nation for the living, for the dead one grave. Marble for battlefields, record in stone, Full-eroed the trenches, souls for a throne. Heart-broken sweethearts and widows' weeds, Tents and campfire, prancing war steeds; Dreams of home and motherly love, All gone with battle cry—gone above. See who's coming. It's the boys in blue, Bless my eyes, and the gray boys, too; File right, file left, the captain calls, Drops here a comrade, there a veteran falls. Unleash your dogs. Jap nation mad, Pit Island youth 'gainst American lad. Floats high the color, all blue, no gray, Stand from under, there's hell to pay. Didst hear the reveille. The morning sun Calls the last comrade; new day begun; Harkens the lullaby, angel mothers sing, Praise your visitors—salute a new King. Last call for muster, lads. The Master's roll Finds daily recruits in death's sure toll; Cut out the old, close ranks for the new route, God's color, boys—the gray was mustered out. — P. T. Wall. Gallipoli. STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.
Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting address from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes says as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and I had such sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Bedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me." Bedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest. How much time is lost through needless hand adjustments on the ordinary machines? Do you realize, for example, how much time is lost in ordinary letter writing by the hand adjustments of the carriage necessary to write the date, the address, indent the paragraphs, write "yours truly" and address the envelopes?

THE COLUMN SELECTOR of the Model 10 REMINGTON eliminates these hand adjustments—absolutely. A single touch on one of the SELECTOR KEYS brings the carriage instantly to the exact point on every line where the writing is to be done.

The Extension of Rural School Supervision In Johnson County.

Johnston County has not only a capable and progressive county superintendent devoting his entire time to the supervision and administration of his schools but in addition, has a well trained and an efficient woman as Supervisor of Rural Schools. The duties of this Supervisor are (1) To aid the county superintendent in planning and conducting his township and county teachers meetings; (2) To devote the most of her time during the school term to not more than ten rural schools. These ten special schools are to be selected by the county superintendent in representative parts of the county. The Supervisor is to identify herself with these schools and these communities, making them demonstration schools, showing what a real county school can do under efficient teaching and supervision and what it must do if it meets the needs of county life. By having only this small number of schools the supervisor can remain several days in each school and on each community on each visitation. She is enabled to remain long enough in each school to observe carefully the teacher's method of work, the organization and management of the school; and is thereby enabled through private conference to suggest better methods of teaching, better methods of grading and classifying the pupils and better methods of school management. In those subjects in which the teacher seems to be the weakest, the Supervisor takes her classes and shows her how these subjects can be effectively taught. The Supervisor also works to bring about a closer relation between the work in the school and the life in the community by organizing the boys in the upper grammar grades into a Boy's Corn Club and directing their work, and by organizing the girls in the upper grammar grades into a Girls Domestic Club and directing their work in the home in cooking, sewing and home sanitation. In addition to her work with the teacher and the children in the school, the Supervisor work with the men and women in the community, stimulating their interest in, and organizing and directing their efforts for improved school conditions, better buildings, better equip ped, more attractive and more sanitary school yards.

(3) After the close of these special schools, the Supervisor renders the county superintendent whatever clerical assistance he needs in his office; (4) During the months of July and August she directs the Girls Tomato Club Work. Stimulated and organized through this closer and more vital supervision, four communities in Johnston are now planning to employ an expert domestic science teacher to divide her time with these four communities next session. As a further demonstration of the effectiveness of this closer supervision, all the special schools with which Miss Kelly, the Rural Supervisor of Johnston County, worked last session are now either adding an extra room for an extra teacher or building a new building outright.

Following Johnston's lead, the following counties are planning to employ a Rural School Supervisor to do a similar work: Northampton, McDowell, Sampson, Granville and Alamance.

Two weeks ago issue we wrote an editorial under the headline of Present Prosperity. Instead of saying an authorized issue of State bonds of $140,000.00 the printer should have said $1,140,- 000.00 of which bids were received for only $154,000.00. This is one of the many errors that continue to creep into a newspaper regardless of how much care may be exercised.

Uncle Sam's pocket change is a little bit short. The internal revenue receipt for the month of May compared with the month of May a year ago is only $6,000.- 00 short. Of course, this is a very small amount but suppose that it was to continue for four years, the treasury would be $288,000,000.00 shy of the real coin. Of course, this will not happen under a democratic administration, if our memory refreshes our mind and we recall the gladsome days of 1893 when Uncle Sam's pocket book went dry and the White House donkey left his grazing and the GOP elephant forsook entirely his accustomed beats for there was nothing doing in the broad land & rather sad condition existed in those days, but it will never come to pass again?

The Railroads are still side-stepping the issue of adjusting freight rates while their employes are milking the life blood from the consumers of our State. No more time should be given by the Governor in calling the Legislature in extraordinary Session to devise some means, if there is any available whereby we can receive this necessary relief.

The Blue and the Gray.

Many of the boys that wore the blue and the gray fifty years ago are tenting tonight on the old camp ground in the valleys and on the ridges near Gettysburg. With the boys are many sons and friends enjoying the peaceful, tranquil, hours and happy reunion that is taking place, where fifty years ago shot and shell reigned thick and fast outing down many, many of America's noblest fathers and sons in order that questions of State, Church and Morals might be settled right. The boys met to foe to foe fifty years ago, but today they are rehearsing who were there, where they were stationed, and how it all happened. In other words it is a great grand, and glorious family reunion of America's noble sons and daughters. To many this Gettysburg is the second and the last, because ere long another reunion time shall come the trump of eternity shall call and time shall be no more, and a father or son of the blue and the gray shall fold his tent like the Arab and silently pass away.

Why spend money and time in building great stone foundations upon which to erect magnificenmarble shafts to honor these living heroes? Why not make the hours and the days and years so happy while they yet last that they may bless the land the hands that minister unto them in this closing scene of an earth career.

We trust that many reunion days will come to a large majority of the boys who wore the blue and the gray and as they meet from year to year, that the meeting will be sweeter and happier than ever before, to teach coming generations that there is but one people, but one government, and only one Supreme Architect of the Universe.

Progressive At Work.

The Progressives of the 10th Congressional District of Minnesota are already at work preparing for the Congressional election of next year. This district was carried by the Progressive presidential electors in 1912 by 3,200 majority over the Republican electors and by 2,263 over the Democratic electors. A conference of Progressives was held recently at the West Hotel in Minneapolis, attended by representatives from all over the district. Reports were received from all parts of the district showing that Progressives have no idea of abandoning their organization but, instead, are ahead enthusiastically confident of success. William T. Coe, of Wayzata, was made chairman, and Linton B. Swift, of Minneapolis, secretary. Plans were made for the organization of a committee of five in each county of the district and a committee of five in each town, village and voting precinct. Lists of Progressive throughout the district have been made and the campaign work will go on actively.
Resolutions were passed pledging fealty to the Progressive national platform and providing for the party work. Already several candidates for the Progressive nomination for Congress are mentioned among them (Albert O. Stark, of Harris; Julius E. Vandstrum, of Chicago City, and William T. Coe, of Wayzata.

The Executive Committee of the Progressive State Committee of Kentucky held a meeting in Louisville recently devoted largely to the formation of rules for the government of the party during the next campaign. It was decided to establish newspapers in the interest of the Progressive party at various places in Kentucky and it was also decided to put candidates in the field in at least 80 of the counties of the State. The party will have candidates in all legislative districts of Kentucky.

The Progressives of Hagerstown, Indiana, at a city meeting recently, voted unanimously to put a full ticket in the field for the approaching municipal election.

At a recent meeting of women suffrage leaders, in Chicago, the suggestion was made that Miss Jane Addams, one of the members at large of the Progressive National Committee, be nominated for the mayoralty of Chicago on the Progressive ticket in 1915.

A call has been issued for a Progressive convention of the third Congressional District of Maine to meet in Waterville on July 15 for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Forrest Goodwin and also for purpose of perfecting the organization of the party in the district. The Progressives are preparing to contest in each of the Congressional districts where there is now a vacancy.

State Treasurer Robert K. Young, of Pennsylvania, recently announced that he would never again vote the Republican ticket.

The Republican party has served its mission," he said, "a great mission, it is true, well performed—but now the party has outlived its usefulness and has fallen into the hands of thieves who have robbed and murdered it in its own house."

Joshing the Diplomatist

There is a certain youth attacked to one of the foreign missions at Washington whose habit it is shortly after introduction to some fair lady, immediately to turn the conversation into channels favor for the discussion of the tender passion according to The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph. "I observe," said he on one occasion, when he had just been presented to a charming young woman, "that you wear a most attractive locket. Tell me does it contain the token of some past affair of the heart?" "Yes," smiled the lady, who had been warned of the diplomat's weakness, and who thought to have a bit of fun with him. "It does contain a love token—a lock of my husband's hair." "A window!" exclaimed the susceptible foreigner as he edged closer. "Why, some one told me that your husband was alive." "He is," answered the young woman, "but his hair is gone."

Following Orders.

At 11 o'clock her father put his head in the door. "Come young man light out!" he said. The words were pleasant enough but the young man knew that they must be obeyed. So he reached up and turned out the light.—Judge.

Her Share of The Bureau.

"A friend came to visit me last week," said the Girl Flapper, "and as there is only one bureau, I told her I would have to share it with her. So I pushed my things out of the way and she began to unpack. This is what she put out: "A bottle of spirits of camphor, a bottle of camphor water and boracic acid that she uses for her eyes, a bottle of witch hazel, another of benzoin, a box of face powder and a tin of talcum powder, a make-up box, sixteen ivory toilet things, four stevenson texts in frames, an automizer, a bottle of ammonia, another of oil of pennyroyal for mosquitoes, nine hatspins, a sewing-bag, a jewelry box, some perfumery and an alcohol lamp. "Now, I'll unpack my bathroom things," she said, and she took out three sponges large, medium and small; a rubber bath glove, a bottle of liquid soap and four kinds of tooth powders and mouth washes, a patent exerciser, a bath robe and slippers, and antiseptic bath-brush, a rubber spray, a thermometer and a wiskroom. "Then she borrowed my button hook."

Thought She Could.

One day last summer two small boys were playing near the country road. A young woman approached them. "Little boy," said she, "can you tell me if I can get through this gate to the pike?" "Yes'm, I think so. A load of hay went through five minutes ago."

Teacher—What little boy can tell me where the home of the swallow is?
Small Boy—"Is in the stum-mick. Columbia Jester.

Lodger—I can't stay here any longer, Mrs. Blinks Landlady—Why not sir? what is your complaint?
Lodger—Lung complaint, your baby cries to much.

Why He Was Behind.

Teacher—James why are you so behind today?
James—Please teacher Smith's dog got a hold of my pants that's why I am so late.

The Flesh She Lost.

"You are looking well Mrs. Giles you have not lost a bit of flesh." I have that. I lost my husband E weighed 19 stone when he died.

Tramp—Yes'm I once had a good job managing a hand laundry but it failed on me.
Lady—Poor man how did it happen?
Tramp she left me and went home to her mother.

"That lady customer seems embarrassed," said the flower walker.

Call one of the girl clerks to wait on her she evidently wants hose supporters or cigarettes.

To Celebrate August Fifth.

The Progressive party will be one year old on August 5. Plans are under way all over the country for a special celebration of Founders Day. The idea was suggested at the recent Missouri State-wide conference in St.
 Louis, where a proposition was made that each county in Missouri should have a rally on that day. This led to the suggestion that the day's celebration should be turned into basket picnics wherever possible, at points selected by the county chairmen.
 The idea was immensely popular, and Walter Brown, of Ohio head of the organization work of the National Committee, who was at the St. Louis meeting, at once took it up with other States.
 The result will be a nation-wide series of county Progressive picnics or other meetings on August

Lightning Brought An Instant Death.

A bolt of lightning struck and instantly killed W. J. Fausett Saturday night at his home west of Greensboro near South Dairy street. His dead body was discovered by neighbors Sunday morning on the front porch of his home, and in the lock was the door key which it is believed he was just preparing to turn when the bolt came.

Mr. Fausett, who was a man of 65 years of age, lived alone and late Saturday afternoon was visiting at the home of his cousin, W. P. Thompson, who lives half a block away. When the storm came up Mr. Fausett declared he must go home and get his coat and despite the protestations of his cousin, would not stay until the storm was over.

The dead man was laying on his back when found. In the brim of his hat was a hole the size of a hatpin point and on his left temple was a scar half an inch long. His hair was burned and there were burns on his chest.
 Otherwise his body was not injured or marked. Supposedly he was stopping to unlock the door when the bolt came and knocked him backwards. When first discovered it was suspected that foul play had been practiced and County Coroner W. W. Wood and health superintendent Dr. W. M. Jones, were called. It was found that the signs pointed unmistakably to lightning and no investigation by jury was made.

Apparently the lightning came in two main bolts, while a third bolt is supposed to have brought about the death. Signs showed that the lightning had struck the corner of the house on his left, ripped off weather boards along the front, ranged upward to the roof and scattered shingles there, and going to the ground on the other side of the house. A tree was ripped and a post on the porch had been split. Mr. Fausett was standing between two "grounds" and the third small bolt is supposed to have branched off and struck him in the temple.

Mr. Fausett moved to Greensboro six months ago from Mebane, where his wife died two years ago. He had no children and his nearest relatives were W. P. Thompson, at whose home he was visiting before he went to his own home, and J. S. Thompson, of 301 Wainman street.
 He is said to have been worth considerable money.

The body was removed to the undertaker rooms of Huntly-Stockton-Hill company and Sunday afternoon was taken through the country to Long's chapel in Aitance county, six miles north of Haw River, where the funeral was held at 6 o'clock. Relatives from Greensboro accompanied the remains to the resting place.

Deaf and Dumb Wedding At Elon College.

Elon College, June 23, 1913.— A most singular marriage was that performed here tonight by Rev. J. W. Patton in the parlor of Dr. J. O. Atkinson's home when two deaf and dumb mutes were wedded. A large crowd had assembled to observe how the minister would get over the difficulties of his task. He did the thing beautifully. It happened in this manner.

Both the contracting parties could read, having been educated at Morganton, N. C. and of course could talk on their fingers but Rev. Mr. Patton could not so talk. He had a third party stand between them and follow the words of the ceremony while he read, they looking on and also reading when it came time for an answer, they both bowed.

The contracting parties were Mr. Hugh Love Barber and Miss Bertha Ronebud Rich. Their home will be in the City of Greensboro, N. C., where Mr.
 Hugh Barber holds a position with the Cone Printing Co.

Ground was broken today for the Young Ladies Hall which is to be a handsome brick structure on the west side of the campus.

On last Wednesday the contract was let for the construction of the new 50,000 gal. water tank which will supply water to the college and town.

I saw the mother of the bride Adorned with ropes of pearls, I viewed the bridesmaids with much pride.

For they were pretty girls I saw the curate in his gown,

The bishop in his robe, And other folks of great renown Upon this mundane globe

I couldn't see the groom, although

I used to be his pal. Nobody sees the groom; he is infinitesimal.

M. Y. Avert Strike.

Washington June 26.—With a view to averting the threatened strike of 90,000 railway employees east of Chicago, the senate today rushed through the passage of amendments to the Erdman Mediation act sought by the railways and railway employees as affording suitable machinery for settlement of their pending disagreements.

Action came only after determined fighting for unanimous consent to consider the measure by both the Democratic and Republican members of the interstate commerce committee led by Senator Newlands.

The amendment enlarges the board of arbitration provided under the Erdman act from three to six. The railways have declined to submit the present disputes to a board composed of only three members. It also provides for appointment by the President of an official mediator, independent of all government bureaus, at a salary of $7,500.
