

THE STATE DISPATCH.

A PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE UPBUILDING OF AMERICAN HOMES AND AMERICAN INDUSTRIES.

BURLINGTON, N. C., JULY 16 1913.

NO 8

Children's Day at Reformed Church.

Children's Day was observed Sunday night at the Reformed church. The exercise rendered by the children was under the care of Misses Ethie Garrett, Carrie Hornaday, Fannie Clapp and Bertha Huffman. The program of the church was artistically decorated with wreaths of evergreens. After the service by the children Mr. John R. Hoffman discussed at some length the law of interest, the boys are taking in work of the nature, the message very emphatically upon the boys and parents that when the boy fails to grasp every opportunity presented, he is cheating himself. His remarks were warmly received by the large audience.

Notice To The Public.

Whereas W. P. Ireland has sold his stock in the Hico Milling Company.

Park Picnic.

Thursday afternoon the seven o'clock car was loaded down with young people pleasure bent, going to Piedmont Park for an evening of rest and pleasure. In honor of Miss Bessie Bennette, of Asheville, sister and guest of Mrs. Paul E. Morrow, the picnic-makers met, and the evening spent was of rare and genuine pleasure. Baskets that groined with the dainties they held were uncovered in the cold draught and the supper seemed ever decreasing because of the attack made upon it, yet ever increasing because of the abundance of it. The theatre was drawn open, and music and the dance followed awhile.

The participants of this pleasure were Misses Onie Thurston, Lina and Lula Zachary, Margarette and Ann'e Till of Durham, Bessie Bennette, Annie Morrow, Bessie Bennette, Lola Lashley, Berde and Nettie Dailey, Marie Barnwell, Mesdames Chester Smith, E. Y. Speed, of Kinston, Dr. W. A. Walker, P. E. Morrow, J. M. Browning, Jno. Barnwell, and Messrs. John Barnwell, Chester Smith, Dr. R. A. Freeman, E. S. W. Dameron, J. K. Browning, Clarence Freeman, George Isley, John Lashley, Backhaus, Paul Morrow and Chas. Sellers.

Died.

Near McCray, N. C., July 12 1913 Mrs. Fannie Turner, widow of Epitaph Turner who was killed in the Civil War. Mrs. Turner spent the last years of her life in the home of her son, W. J. Turner, where she died at the age of about 70 years. She was a consistent member of Protestant Methodist Episcopal church in McCray at the home and interment at Union church conducted by Rev. J. W. Holt.

At Augusta, Ga., July 11 1913 Mrs. Augusta Bailey, infant daughter of E. L. and Fannie Bailey was born August 15th 1912 and died July 11 1913. Funeral and burial at Long's Chapel near the comfort the bereaved.

Church Conference At Front Street M. E. Church.

On account of the absence of the pastor, there will be no conference at Front Street M. E. Church next Sunday, but immediately after the Sunday service will be held a church conference and every member is urged to be present.

Mr. Buchanan Entertains.

Mr. J. C. Buchanan gave a very pleasant afternoon to his help one day the past week, going to the Piedmont Park where dainties and refreshments were served. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Buchanan and two children, Mrs. Ada Patterson, Misses Grace Patterson, Una Mae and Katherine Elder, Sallie and Lala Patterson and Addie Lynch.

All appreciated the outing and extend kindest regards to the 5-10 & 25 cent store and its clever Proprietor Mr. Buchanan.

Mrs. J. A. Isley at Home.

In response to an invitation the friends and neighbors of Mrs. Jos. A. Isley met at her lovely home on Davis Street Wednesday evening and enjoyed the occasion very much. The hours were spent in discussing the topics of the hour and each were busily engaged with their sewing. The daughter of Mrs. Isley Miss Mabel assisted her in serving a solid course, ice-cream, sandwiches, ice-cream and cake. Those present were: Mesdames Walter Mebane, J. W. Murray, L. A. Walker, R. F. Durrant, J. W. Lashley, Chris Isley, Luther Atwater, Walter Sharpe.

Reunion of Former Students.

There will be a dedicatory service and a reunion of the former and present teachers and students and friends of Sylvan academy in the new academy building August 22 nd 23 rd, to which all present and former students and the public generally are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. Bryan May Return.

Asheville, July 14.—Dr. L. E. McBryer, who was appointed to invite Secretary of State Bryan to speak here during the Western North Carolina fair this fall, had a conversation with Mr. Bryan while he was here in which the statesman expressed the opinion that it might be possible to be here at the time mentioned. Mr. Bryan told Dr. McBryer that he had to go to Florida about the time that he is invited to speak here and that he might be able to arrange it so that he could stop here either on the way to or on his return from Florida. Mr. Bryan was invited to deliver an address on Brotherhood day and if he speaks he will probably deliver the address on "The Brotherhood of Man."

Mr. R. F. White Opens A Moving Picture Show.

Mr. R. F. White of High Point was in town a few days ago and rented the Hay Building on Front Street for the purpose of opening a moving picture show. Mr. White has had vast experience in this business, and proposes to put on the latest and most up to date improvements. It is reported that he will also carry vaudeville in connection with the show.

Land Sale a Great Success.

The land sale pulled off Friday by the Interstate Realty and Auction Company under the care of Messrs. E. W. and J. E. Lasley was a great success. All the sixty-three lots offered were sold at a fair price. The sale was witnessed by a large crowd. The free lot was received by Mr. W. C. Hunley and the five dollars in gold won by Mr. Will Daily. The auctioneering by the two men at the same time was a feature which was quite a novelty to those who attended.

To Prevent Blood Poisoning.

Apply at once the wonderful old reliable DR. FORTNER'S ANTISEPTIC HEALING OIL, a surgical dressing that relieves pain and heals at the same time. Not a liniment. 25c. Box $1.00.

Automobile Club to Meet.

The Alamance Automobile Club will meet in the office of the Alamance Insurance & Real Estate Co., at 8.00 o'clock July 21st. A full attendance is requested as matters of importance will come before this meeting. W. E. Sharpe, Sec. & Treas.

Birthday Dinner.

Mr. Atlas Thompson celebrated his fiftieth birthday last Thursday at his home when he and his wife served an elaborate birthday dinner to a number of his friends. The good things to eat were numerous and his friends who have lived with him for a number of years were delighted to be served in such a royal manner and to such a loyal feast. Mr. Thompson is one of our best citizens and although his hair is becoming silvery caused by the many years he witnessed come and go he is apparently one of our boys and he is as jovial as a lad of sixteen summers. Among those present were: Col. J. H. Holt, Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Faucett, A. F. Barrett, Clarence Freeman, J. G. King, Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Brown, W. W. Brown, Mr. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Fogleman of Gibsonville; Mr. Jim Fogleman of Blacksburg, Va.; Mr. Martin Murray and mother and Miss Mary Spoon of Friendship; Mr. Webb Fogleman and family of Kimeville; Mrs. Ed. Shoffner and family of this city; Misses Nora and Laura Fogleman, Mara Black and Paul Black.

State Forester Survey in Alamance.

Mr. J. S. Holmes who is making a survey of the forestry of the state has come to Alamance County. The survey began in the western part of the state. After spending some time in the western part of the state making addresses on forestry in connection with the Farmers Institute Meetings, Mr. Holmes will return and resume his work in this county. The object of this survey is to find out how timber and woodland there is in the state and how much is being cut each year. While surveying in this county Mr. Holmes will make Burlington headquarters.

New Grocery Store.

Messrs. J. A. Pettigrew and E. M. King have rented the Lasley Building on Front Street and have opened a Grocery Store. Mr. Pettigrew for the past several year has been connected with Jos. A. Isley and Bros. Co., and has resigned to go into business for himself. He has had lots of experience in this kind of business and it is without hesitation that we predict the new store will be a success. Mr. King has also had experience in the grocery business. Both will be glad to have their many friends give them a call. That Mr. Pettigrew is a hustler cannot be denied when it is remembered what a nice and prosperous business he as manager of the grocery department has built for Mr. Isley.

Bryant Must Lecture to Make Ends Meet.

Asheville, July 12.—During the delivery of a stock lecture at Hendersonville near here today Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan paused in the course of his lecture to state that he is compelled to deliver chautauqua lectures in order to supplement his government salary which he declares is not sufficient to meet his expenses. "As this is my first chautauqua lecture since becoming a member of the cabinet," said Secretary Bryan, "It may be out of place to say that I find it necessary to lecture in order to supplement the salary which I receive from the government. As I lectured for 18 years, this method of adding to my income is the most natural one to which to turn and I regard it as extremely legitimate. I did not think it proper to go from the chautauqua platform into a presidential race, and if I had been elected, I would have thought it no stepping down to return to the lecture platform. Thousands of people were present to hear the Secretary of state.

Misses Iris Holt and Ethie Garrett spent Tuesday in Greensboro on business.

And breathe! Use Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets; they are excellent for a sluggish liver. [Advertisement.]

Oakdale Items.

The corn crops are looking very sick on the account of the hot weather and no rain.

Threshing will soon be over and then the farmers will rest in the shade, and also attend the protracted meetings which will soon come. The meeting beings at Mt. Zion the 2nd Sunday in next month. Rev. Walker of Greensboro will assist the pastor W. H. Eller in the meeting.

The services at Mt. Zion Sunday were very good. After the pastor finished the talk, Dr. J. D. Gregg made an interesting speech on "Foreign Missions." Then at 2 P. M. the children's day services were held. It was short but very good.

Mr. Lloyd Spoon is at home again. We are glad to know that his spell of sickness was not so very serious.

Several of the young people attended the singing Sunday night at Mr. Jesse Alexander's. The next will be held at Mr. Willie Isleys next Sunday evening. All are invited to come and sing.

Mr. A. R. Spoon and family visited Mr. F. L. Spoon Sunday evening.

Mr. Dolphus Kimreys little daughter fell and broke it's arm last week. We hope it will not be a very serious injury to it.

The black places under the trees are the most enjoyable places that can be found during this hot weather.

LIST OF UNCLAIMED LETTERS.

Remaining in Post office at Burlington, N. C., July 12, 1913. GENTLEMEN:

W. D. Aldrige, H. M. Burke, Bright F. Garrett, T. A. Thompson, W. H. Welch, Burlington Produce Co., G. A. Stafford & Co.

LADIES:

Miss Mamie Harper, Mrs. J. C. Hamlett.

Persons calling for any of these letters will please say "Advertised," and give date of advertised list.

J. Zeb. Waller, P. M.

Miss Ollie Kemp will leave next week for Charlotte and Statesville to visit.

Just received car No. 1 sap shingles. See J. W. Cates.

Mr. Everett Brown of Taylorsville is the guest of Mr. Thos. S. Moser this week.

Miss Lora Whitsett of Missouri who is living with her uncle near here has accepted a position as clerk with L. J. Mazur.

Miss Jennie Conn of Baltimore who visits in our midst each summer is the guest of her sister Mrs. I. J. Mazur.

Mr. Leonard Ready of Richmond, Va., spent the past week the guest of Mr. K. K. Lively and family.

Miss Francis Cheatham of Henderson is spending the week the guest of Miss Trixie Ward.

Ice cream supper Thursday evening from seven to eleven at office lot.

The Philatheas of the M. P. Church will give an ice cream supper on the office lot Thursday evening. You are invited to attend.

Mrs. Henry Allen of Memphis Tenn. is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fowler.

Miss Susie Stafford who has been taking the teachers course at Chapel Hill returned home the first of the week.

Miss Sallie Foster left Tuesday for Prospect Hill to be the guest of her grandmother. She will also visit Virgilina while away.

Mr. W. A. Lovett of Asheboro is in town spending the week with relatives. Mr. Lovett formerly lived here and our people always welcome him back.

Messrs. Graham Harden and Claud Holt spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday at Chapel Hill with friends.

Penmanship at Carolina Business College.

The faculty of Carolina Business College have arranged to give penmanship for the benefit of all students who may care to improve their hand writing. This is an excellent opportunity for any one who may care to learn to write an excellent hand. This penmanship course will be given on Tuesday and Thursday nights of each week and the price of course is very moderate. Few people write a good plain business hand, and with this opportunity there can certainly be no excuse for not doing so. This school should have a large number of students especially on these two nights. If you desire to write a nice hand call at the office of the school and investigate the merits and we believe you will enroll and become a student.

A LEGEND OF WILDWOOD.

She sat beneath the slant-roof shed.

The fisherman's pale daughter, Alone she sat, her father dead Beneath the deep blue water.

He left her but a paltry sum To live on shores of Wildwood. What would she do when winter comes On the wandy beach of Wildwood?

Joyful she was, this little girl Of only fourteen summers, Happy and pleasant,—a story to tell

To all the strange new comers, The loving kindness she displayed Made one man to take a notion, To take her to the town he made Away from the breezy ocean.

Many a playmate's heart was grieved When they heard the news with sadness, To think the one they loved would leave.

So full of joy and gladness, Her favorite friend was Capt'n Dan Who rowed the seining dories, And plied hewas a fisherman And told her quaint old stories.

This little girl came to Alamance A County in North Carolina, Where Real Estate is in advance And still keeps going higher

And so it came about, this man Who took her to our city, Made rich this girl who once was poor

And looked upon with pity, When summer comes with piercing heat This maiden goes to Wildwood,

Her incomes' large enough to fleet A month back into childhood.

Now those of you who want to make Good interest on your earning, You must invest in Burlington To stem the tide when turning.

And keep in mind the little maid Whose destiny was lurking, Each one of her investments paid For shes' living without working.

ELMER ALBERT RILEY.

Mr. Luther Atwater went to St. Leo's Hospital Monday for examination it was first thought an operation would be necessary but it is now believed that Mr. Atwater may be treated and avoid an operation. The family of Mr. Atwater went to Greensboro to visit him Wednesday.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will serve refreshments on the church lawn Tuesday evening from seven to ten. A number of girls will carry beautiful baskets of flowers which will be sold. The lucky buyers to have an escort for the evening. Everybody is most cordially invited.

Mr. J. R. Foster left Tuesday for Waverly, Va., and other points. He will be gone ten days or two weeks.

Whitsett.

There were no religious services here Sunday except the usual Sunday Schools. The pastor of the Methodist Church is away on a vacation at Macon Springs; the pastor of the Presbyterian Church is at Mount Airy assisting in a revival meeting, and the Reformed Church is without a pastor.

Numbers of our people spent last Friday in Greensboro shopping among them Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Joyner, Mrs. Lizzie W. Smith, Mr. J. W. Summers and others.

Prof. C. C. Wimbish returned from Wilkesboro last week and after a day here left for Hurdle's Mills, N. C. and Soudan, Va. where he will visit relatives for a few days.

Lacy Summers of R. F. D. 1, Jamestown was in the community last week. He is thinking of moving back to this community where he once lived some years ago.

Miss Pearl Johnson has returned from a visit to Greensboro where she spent some days with Mrs. Wm. Forbis and other relatives.

Mrs. Lucian Moore whose home is near here has not been well this summer. Some years ago she had an operation at St. Leo's Hospital and has never fully recovered her health.

S. P. Whitt, the mail carrier R. F. D. 1, Whitsett, has been enjoying a part of his vacation the last few days.

Sentiment seems to be generally united that the proposed Presbyterian manse shall be located here and that work upon same shall begin at some early date. It is proposed to build a home with about eight rooms and one or two desirable locations have been looked over with a view to an early selection.

J. Frank Swift who is handling the Ford automobile for this section has sold to one or two parties during the past week, and has others in view for early sales. The cars that he has already placed are giving good satisfaction, and the purchasers are much pleased.

Last week was a very busy one for the mails here. Hundreds of copies of the new catalogue were sent out with the mails, and the office force of the Institute was kept quite busy all the week.

W. J. Thompson was a purchaser some weeks ago of the shares of the lands of the late Joseph W. Foust. It is supposed that he will be allotted his portion on this north side of the tract, although the final division has not as yet been made.

The recent speech of our young friend Chas. C. Barnhardt of High Point at Mt. Pleasant at the Convention has been highly complimented. He is a clear thinker, and usually pleases his hearers.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davenport write that they are greatly enjoying their stay in western North Carolina. They are expected home the latter part of this month.

Kissed By "Loony-Faced."

(Chicago, Ill., Dispatch to The New York World.)

Miss Alice Walsh, whose saucy retorts to the guests patronizing the news desk at the Auditorium Hotel have won her the sobriquet of "Breezy Alice," was arranging her papers and magazines when she noticed what she calls a "loony-faced" man staring at her. She said it was the funniest face she ever saw, and she stared back in amazement.

She crossed the lobby to get change from the cashier. Midway she was seized by two strong arms. Then a kiss was planted firmly on her lips. She yelled and tore away. The "loony-faced" man sprinted down the corridor, with Miss Walsh, the cashier, a porter and two bell-boys in full cry behind. He escaped by bounding through the bar room into Congress street.

"The first time, and that is true," Miss Walsh indignantly declared. "The very first, and by a man with a face like that!"

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Calton, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bette Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains to my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without it tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Of Interest to Burlington Readers

For months Burlington citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills by Burlington residents. Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement? The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Burlington reader.

Mrs. Lettie Loy, 1018 Dixie St., Burlington, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the finest remedy that I ever used. All I have said about them in other statements, holds good. I was rheumatic. My back and limbs were stiff and lame and the action of my kidneys was irregular. I didn't sleep soundly. I finally got Doan's Kidney Pills from the Freeman Drug Co. and they made me well."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole Agents for the United States. Remember name—Doan's—And take no other.

The Health of The American Girl.

The many girls do not dress sensibly and healthfully is patent to all. Visit the high schools on a zero morning and face the facts. In a room which the janitor finds it difficult to bring above sixty degrees Fahrenheit, there are dozens of girls clad in lingerie waist, low neck, and elbow-sleeves, minus any under-vest except and apology for one made of the thinnest gauze. Their feet are arrayed in low shoes, with embroidered silk stockings. When they leave the school room for home, a thin jacket to match the skirt is donned, and, in some cases, no covering for the head.

The practice of going without suitable headgear is, according to the physician's verdict, causing catarrh and even deafness among our young girls. Consider for a moment the style of skirt which these girls affect. There is the tight skirt which ties the knees together permitting no freedom of action. Where, I say, are the mothers of these girls, that they are allowed to dress in so unsuitable a manner? It seems to me that our women's clubs, which talk so loudly about reform, could do society a great and lasting benefit by arraying themselves against the styles of dress for women which have been in vogue for so long. If the American mother is a slave of fashion, what can be expected of her daughter.—Margaret Woodward, in Suburban Life.

A Nervous Woman Finds Relief From Suffering.

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief. Mrs. Joseph Snyder, of Tiffin, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says:

"Six months I was bedfast with nervous prostration. I had sinking spells, a cold, clammy feeling, could not stand the slightest noise. At times I would almost fly to pieces, stomach very weak. My husband insisted on my taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I began to improve before I had finished the first bottle until I was entirely cured."

MRS. JOSEPH SNYDER, 212 Hudson St., Tiffin, Ohio.

Many remedies are recommended for diseases of the nervous system that fail to produce results because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine has proven its value in such cases so many times that it is unnecessary to make claims for it. You can prove its merits for yourself by getting a bottle of your druggist, who will return the price if you receive no benefit.

Motorcyclist Killed.

Macon, Ga., July 10.—Martin A. O'Brien, a local motorcyclist, who was instantly killed here today when the machine he rode in an amateur motorcycle race skidded from a slippery track and plunged through a fence into the wall of a building. His neck was broken and his skull fractured by the impact.

The accident which caused O'Brien's death was the second which marked his effort to win today's race. Several minutes before, at the same place in the course, he was thrown from his motorcycle, but escaped with minor injuries. He immediately demanded another machine, declaring: "I'll win this race or break my neck."

O'Brien has been employed several years as a hatter here.

Woman Confesses She Drowned Step-Children.

Union City, Tenn., July 10.—Attorney General D. J. Caldwell tonight announced that Mrs. James Yates, arrested today with her 15-year-old daughter, Florence Farris, on charge of murder, had confessed to drowning her two step-children, Ligon Yates, aged 12, and Ida May Yates, aged 10. In the alleged confession Mrs. Yates is said to have stated that her husband and step-children had mistreated her and that her act was in a spirit of retaliation. According to the woman's story she lured the children away under a pretense of going blackberry picking and led them to a small pool, some 18 inches deep. The elder boy struggled to escape, and clung to a bush. In the meantime the girl ran for liberty, but was caught and brought back by Florence Farris.

1913 Cotton Acreage.

Washington, July.—An increase of 856,000 acres in the acres in the area planted to cotton this year and an improvement of 2.7 per cent in the condition of the crop over May 25th, were the fetures of the department issued Thursday which gave the first official estimate of the acreage this year and the condition on June 25th.

A total area of 36,622,000 acres of cotton is in cultivation in the United States according to the preliminary estimate of the United States department of agriculture's bureau of statistics. This compared with 34,766,000 acres, the revised estimate of acreage in cultivation a year ago, 36,045,000 acres in 1911 and 32,403,000 acres in 1910, 30,938,000 in 1909 and 32,444,000 acres in 1908.

The condition of the growing cotton crop on June 25th was 81.8 per cent of a normal condition as compared with 79.1 per cent on May 25th, 1913, 80.4 per cent on June 25, 1912 and 80.2 per cent, the average condition on June 25 for the past 10 years.

Fined Him by Telephone

A practical sort of a person is Squire Stanley, of Corning. A young man was tried for disturbing a worshipping congregation. He was busy in a cornfield when the constable arrived to summon him into court. He was willing to plead guilty, and his employer was anxious that he keep busy and so the trial was held by telephone. The young fellow paid his $10.00 and cost and kept at work, having lost less than half an hour.—Burlington Hawkeye.

Jilted Girl as "Man" Gets Sweet Revenge.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 10.—Miss Dessie McIntyre, 18 was jilted two weeks ago by Harry Pendleton, a well known young business man, with whom she had kept company for two years. He simply told her he had become engaged to another girl. This other girl proved to be Miss Henriett Aiken, of Bridgeport, Ohio just across the river from the city.

Although failing to understand her request Miss McIntyre parents gave their permission to have her hair cut off she then donned a suit of her brother's clothing visited Bridgeport and by a friend met Miss Aiken;

It was a case of love at first sight on the part of the Bridgeport girl, Miss McIntyre who was misquering as "Lawrence Densing" was a devoted lover and every night found "Lawrence at the Aiken home. Last Sunday night while "Lawrence and Miss Aiken were sitting on the front porch of the latter's home, Pendleton appeared and demanded to know why another had usurped his place. Spurred on by her new fond suitor Miss Aiken angrily dismissed Pendleton and ordered him never to come to see her again. She then confessed her love for "Lawrence."

Last night Miss McIntyre dressed in a gown of the latest mode, met Miss Aiken on Market street the recognition was mutual. Before Miss Aiken could speak, Miss McIntyre gloating told her how she had revenged herself. In a moment the pair were at one another and were only separated by the police. Both were discharged in court today with a reprimand.

News of the Hookworm Campaign.

The report for the quarter ending June 30, 1913 of the campaign against hookworm disease in North Carolina shows splendid progress. Up to this time eighty-five (85) counties have provided for the free dispensaries for the examination and the treatment of the hookworm disease. Eighty-one counties have had what is known as sanitary surveys made, which are based on the sanitary homes of people in the rural districts. Seventy-two (72) counties have had infection surveys made which are intended to determine the degree to which hookworm infection exists.

During the past three months 24,906 persons have been microscopically examined and 6,258 persons treated. This gives a total by including the work previously reported of 242,000 persons examined and 132,000 persons treated. In other words up to this time every ninth person of the state has been microscopically examined and every seventeenth person treated.

The work is progressing in Rockingham, Davie, Carrurus, Caswell and Transylvania counties. The following counties have made the appropriation this month to have hookworm campaign conducted: Durham, Alamance, Stanley, Rowan and Jackson counties.

Dr. Jno. A. Farrell, who has been State Director of the hookworm campaign in North Carolina since its beginning has been promoted so that he will take charge of the work in the South with headquarters at Washington, D. C. Dr. C. L. Prigen the senior member of the field staff of physicians, has succeeded him as State Director for North Carolina. Announcement of Dr. Prigen's successor will be made at an early date.

The Law Enforced.

Last Sunday some person from near by town took passage on one of the cars of the Piedmont & Electric Company, and while thereupon on his way to another town became rather boisterous and began to use some language that was wholly uncalled for and as a result of all this he was arrested by one of the street car authorities and Monday morning appeared in Court, and pled guilty to the charge, admitting that he had drunk too freely of the juice of the forbidden fruit; and that he had talked entirely too loud. The court said pay $12.00 and you may go for this time. The street car company is to be commended for their strenuous efforts in enforcing the law of the land.

The Graded School.

The crisis is always reached at some time in every man's life. The same is true in the life and business career of every institution. Such is the case of our City Graded School. The last legislature saw fit to pass an act making compulsory attendance under certain conditions, very wise indeed was this act and it will add to the enrollment and attendance of our school from two to three hundred children. Where we shall place them and who shall teach them is the question. From time to time the citizenship of Burlington have failed to make permanent preparation for the care and training of the children, rather they have permitted and approved temporary arrangement for this all important matter. The time has come when we must have larger, safer, and more sanitary buildings for the accommodation of the children. This cannot be secured without a sacrifice on the part of some one. We regret to observe that there is a feeling in the minds of many people who live in Burlington, that concrete sidewalks and macadam streets are of more importance than properly trained and educated children. When you fail to train and educate the child you have destroyed hope and possibility of growing a man. Train the boys and girls for the duties of life and they will be capable of solving the problems that we are not able to solve at the present time. The reason of the bad conditions of our town is a result of poor management conducted by incompetent and uneducated men. If you would save to the people of Burlington their just heritage you must preserve, train, educate and develop its boys and girls. You can have a city without the best of streets and sidewalks, but you cannot even have a community without children that are developed into men and women. Add no more shanties for school accomodation, but build some strong, permanent, and plain magnificent structure not for present needs, but ample to meet future requirements.

Spanked by Mama, Girl Shoots Herself.

New York, July 13. — So popular was 15-year-old Mary de Martino with the youths of her acquaintance that every afternoon they would gather on the roof of her home at No. 337 East Forty-seventh street to converse with her. These meetings were not at all to the liking of Miss Mary's mother and a week ago old-fashioned punishment was administered by the parent much to the girl's pain and humiliation. Following the first chastisement the girl in some way got possession of a revolver. To her youthful admirers she confided several days ago she proposed killing herself if her mother ever spanked her again. Miss Mary and her chums were on the roof Saturday afternoon when suddenly Mrs. de Martino's head appeared above the scuttle. The girl was taken to her home down the stairs and the mother used a strap. Shortly before 5 o'clock when she returned to the roof the boys laughed at her. She said: "I'd make her sorry if she did it again." Then Miss Mary drew the revolver from the folds of her skirt and the boys scattered. Some fled down the scuttle others hid behind chimneys. The girl with a cry placed the revolver's muzzle against her right breast and fired. Some one notified Mrs. de Martino. She ran screaming to the street. Patrolman Lang, of the Last Fifty-first street station found the girl on the roof weak from loss of blood. Dr. Waltmarsh hurried her to flower hospital where it was found the bullet had passed through the right lung. Her condition was said to be critical. Questioned by the police, the girl's parents said they had never seen the revolver in the house and suggested that it had been given her by one of her boy admirers. The weapon could not be found in the street, where the girl is said to have thrown it. Mrs. de Martino said last night to a reporter for the World: "Mary had become unruly and I did whip her this afternoon with a strap after I found her on the roof with those boys."

Mother and Daughter Saved From Drowning.

Providence, R. I., July 13. — Picked up last night from the sinking yacht, William Jennings Bryan off Stratford shoals, Conn., Mrs. Mary and her daughter, Mrs. Louis Lewis, of Jacksonville, Fla., were brought into this port today aboard the Colonial liner Lexington. Their husbands, Robert Stewart and James Lewis, Jacksonville millionaires and a sailor, remained with the yacht in the hope of beaching her off port Jefferson, N. Y. The party had been cruising along the coast from Florida for three or four weeks. They left Bridgeport late yesterday for Oyster Bay when their boat sprung a leak, disabling the engine. When the Colonial liner came along they signalled her with a lantern and the women, scantily clad were taken aboard. They left for New York on the Lexington this afternoon.

DAVIS ASKS FOR NEW TRIAL

Raleigh July 12. — Attorneys for Rev. R. L. Davis, superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League convicted of assault & Wiley Strangh with a liquor appealed to Judge Cook in Superior court this morning to grant the minister a new trial. In asking that the verdict be set aside the defense assured the prosecution that they would neither ask nor expect consideration the next time this famous case is staged in court. The solicitor and representatives of the private prosecution opposed the granting of a new trial and Judge Cook announced that the court would take the matter under consideration and render its decision later. As today is the last day of this term of court it is believed that Judge Cook will make known his decision some time this afternoon.

Girl Gets $400 From Telephone Co.

Danville, Va., July 9. — Kate Ellis, a nineteen-year-old girl, was awarded $400 damages against the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company by a jury in the Corporation court yesterday afternoon after an hour's deliberation. The case was started early in the morning and occupied practically the entire day's business of the court. No motion for a new trial was made. Miss Ellis instituted the suit through Mr. L. L. Hudson several weeks ago asking for 2,000 damages as result of injuries she claimed that she sustained when a stone hurled some seventy yards away by force of a dynamite explosion struck her in the side as she was seated upon the porch of her home on Peach street. The telephone company men were engaged in blasting holes for the erecting of poles when a charge was fired, blowing the portion of a rock considerable distance.

Fighting Boll Weevil.

Atlanta, Ga., July 13. — Farmers in Western Alabama and Mississippi are making a determined and winning fight against the boll weevil and are being given loyal support by business men, declares Mr. T. O. Plunkett, Manager of the Department of Farm Improvement work of the Southern Railway and affiliated lines, who in company with Mr. J. C. Williams, Assistant to President Finley, has just completed an inspection of farm conditions along the Southern Railway, the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, and the Alabama Great Railroad in this territory. "We did not find a community," says Mr. Plunkett, "where there is any excitement or the slightest sign of panic but every one is in line determined to produce cotton under boll weevil conditions. Thousands of adult weevils were destroyed while the cotton was small and where they escaped farmers are destroying infected squares. On every hand we found appreciation of the agents of our department and farmers are generally heeding their advice in fighting the weevil. I have been in close touch with the boll weevil since 1900 and I believe that farmers in this territory have heeded the warning given them and will not suffer as did farmers further west." Farmers who have adopted the methods advocated by our agents are expecting increased yields in spite of the weevil, and with the determined fight now being waged, I see no reason why the general yield in this great section should not be normal, though individual farmers who have refused to take the advice of experts are sure to lose heavily."

Arthur L. England Attempts Suicide.

Greensboro, July 12. — Brooding over financial obligations he was unable to meet, Arthur L. England attempted suicide in the Hallway of the Eagle Hose Company, for which he was driver, here Friday morning. His attempt will no doubt prove successful, as he is lying in the hospital in a precarious condition. His wife and small child are with him. The wound is near the heart and was inflicted with a .32 calibre pistol. No one was in sight when the shot was fired. Notes to other firemen disclosed the reason for the act.

Wilson Goes Exploring.

Cornish, N. H., July 11. — President Wilson went exploring in his automobile today. He took an unfrequented road and his big car picked its way slowly and cautiously over a mountain ridge. The trip was made without mishap and the view of the surrounding hills amply repaid the President for the bumping he got. On one occasion the Presidents machine came to a natural stop moved off the road entirely into a front yard. Half of the road had just been covered with oil and the other half was blocked by a team. In order to avoid getting out of the machine the President suggested that his car driver over a little knoll into a front yard near a farm house until the team had passed. It was this incident which led to a report the President had plunged over an embankment narrowly escaping injury.

Sentenced to Have His Ears Cut Off.

Winston-Salem, July 15. — District Attorney Holton, while in Jefferson, looking over some records in Ashe county courthouse the past week, found one that was truly unique. It showed that at the March term of Ashe court in the year 1809, a white man was convicted of burglary, Judge Francis Locke presided over that term, and his case reads as follows: "That the said Carter be fined ten pounds that he stand in the pillory for one hour, at the expiration of which time both ears are to be cut off—entirely severed from his head—and that the ears so cut off be nailed to the pillory by the officers, and there remain in the setting of the sun."

Sayre a Descendent of Williamson.

We were thinking that it was about time some famous one came along who was descended from North Carolina ancestry. And this time it only helps to bind President Wilson and family closer to North Carolina than before. Miss Jessie Wilson's finance, Francis Sayre, comes from a North Carolina family. The press dispatches read: "His mother was Martha Finley Nevin, a daughter of John Williamson Nevin, theologian and president of Franklin and Marshall college at Lancaster, Pa. She is descended from Hugh Williamson, of North Carolina, one of the framers of the Constitution." Now watch the South Carolinas rave. —Gaston Gazette.

Religious Services For Soldier Boys in Camp.

Camp Glenn, Morehead City, July 13. — Religious service was held at this post at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. N. Harding, the aged chaplain of the Second Infantry. Chaplain Harding, who ranks as captain is the oldest officer in the North Carolina state troops, and wears a medal showing service of the longest term recognized by the state. For 51 weeks in the year he is the rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church at Washington and has been so for forty years, but during encampment periods, Mr. Harding is an enthusiastic soldier—the best loved of all in his regiment. He is a veteran of the Confederacy also. The service today was short, simple and well attended by officers and men. An improvised orchestra from the band played "What a Friend we Have in Jesus," and "Nearer, My God to Thee," while the knaki-clad congregation sang the old hymns with rare spirit. The venerable chaplain dressed in the blue uniform of his rank, led in prayer and made the soldiers a little talk.

Brother Shoots Brother.

Wilmington, July 14. — Something of a sensation was created on Wrightsville Sound Monday night when it became known that Louis Hanby had shot his brother Archie Hanby, at the home of the former following a general distribute, it is alleged by the latter. Three shots were fired, but only one took effect, and it passed through the calf of the leg inflicting only a flesh wound. Louis Hanby surrendered to justice George Harris and was recognized for appearance. The Hanbys are prominent, and it is claimed that there has been some controversy between them with reference to division of their father's estate, which is large.

Mrs. Ada Patterson will leave to-day Wednesday for Beverly Ohio her former home, where she will spend a month the guest of friends and relatives. Miss Lalah Patterson will accept her position with the Buchanan Co., during her absence. Her many friends wish for Mrs. Patterson a very pleasant trip.

"Christian Education" was the subject used by Rev. J. D. Andrew in a sermon to a very large congregation at Mt. Hope Reformed church in Guilford county last Sabbath at 11. A. M. At the close of the discourse he presented the claims of Catawba College and the outlook is that a number of young people will enter that college from that community in September. At 8 P. M. Rev. Andrew addressed a large audience in the New Sunday-School building in Lexington, N. C., on the subject "Progressive S. S. Work."

Most Children Have Worms.

Many mothers think their children are suffering from indigestion, headache, nervousness, weakness, costiveness, when they are victims of that most common of all children's ailments—worms. Peevish, ill-tempered, fretful children, who toss and grind their teeth, with bad breath and colicky pains have all the symptoms of having worms and should be given Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, which expels worms, regulates the bowels, tones up the system and makes children well and happy. Kickapoo Worm Killer is guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail. Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

For Cuts, Burns and Bruises.

In every home there should be a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, ready to apply in every case of burns, cuts, wounds or scalds. J. H. Polanco, Delvalle, Tex., R. No. 2, writes: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve saved my little girl's cut foot. No one believed it could be cured." The world's best salve. Only 25c. Recommended by

A Shingle Gets A Wife.

One year and six days after she received a shingle on which was written: "I want a wife before 1915." Miss May Matterson, of East Warren, Street, Dunmore, Pa., married in Port Angeles, Washington, Royal M. LaFlower, the shingle correspondent. Miss Matterson's parents, of Dunmore, received word of their daughter's marriage. The girl's father is a carpenter, and while shingling a roof, in May, 1912, he came upon the shingle containing name and address of LaFlower and the words: "I want a wife before 1915."

Matterson took the shingle home for a curio, and it falling into his daughter's hands, she opened correspondence with LaFlower, with the result that he arranged for her going to him in the West.

Postmaster White Fails To Make Bond And Loses His Job.

Washington, July 11.—Postmaster General Burleson last Friday issued an order removing Postmaster S. Arthur White, of Mebane from office and requested Major Charles M. Stedman, of the fifth congressional district to recommend a man as soon as possible to take Mr. White's place.

The order removing Mr. White was issued, the postoffice department officials say because the postmaster had failed to furnish a satisfactory bond. They claim that White has been requested repeatedly to furnish bond required by the postoffice officials here and his failure to do so has caused him to lose his job.

Major Stedman said Friday that he would name a man for the Mebane postmastership promptly. He has no one in mind for the place, but acting upon the advice of the postmaster general, he will see to it that the office is filled by a Democrat within a very short time.

The removal of Mr. White was a great surprise to North Carolinians here. Mr. White, it will be remembered, was one of the few republicans to be confirmed by the senate last fall. Because of strong pressure brought to bear upon Senators Simmons and Overman by patrons of the office, both Democrats and Republicans, the two Tar Heel senators allowed Mr. White's confirmation to be made. There were a dozen or more other nominations pending at the time which never saw daylight, among them that of Thomas S. Wallace, at Wilmington. Mr. White's commission expires in 1916.

It is not quite clear why Mr. White has not furnished the required bond. He is a man of considerable standing in his community and the postoffice department is at a loss to account for the delay on his part. So far as is known no other charge has been brought against the Mebane postmaster.

Munsey Building, Washington, D. C. July 3, 1913.

Behind the ostensible govern- ment sits enthroned an Invisible Government, owing no allegiance to the people, acknowledging no responsibility to the people," declares the Progressive national plat- form. The trial of this Invisible Government in and out of the House of Congress and elsewhere throughout the national Capital and throughout the country seems at this time to have been uncovered part- ly, at least, through the astounding confession of "Colonel" Mulhall, who was for years one of its members in Washington and elsewhere. Colonel Mulhall's confession has revealed the names of many men who have been prominent in Congress in recent years and of some who are still members of the House or the Senate. Both Democrats and Republicans are named. Of course Republican names greatly outnumber those of Democrats, for, during the past few years, the Republicans were in power in the House of Congress and the Senate. The Invisible Govern- ment impartially entrusted its interests to Democrats and Rep- ublicans alike, it naturally dealt with those who were in power and had the power to effect to its legislative desires. Republicans, Colonel Mulhall, the late Vice Presi- dent, who was for years a stand- ard member in the House and the Senate with Speaker Cannon and the late Senator of Pennsylvania, Mr. Duffel, of New York, Mr. Mann, of New York, Mr. Mann, of Illinois and Mr. Mann, of New York who were the most important cogs in the Invisible Government. Special emphasis is placed upon the activity and influence of former Congress- men E. Watson, of Indiana and the late Senator Cannon, of Illinois and the leader of the Taft forces at the Republican conven- tion in Chicago last week. Form- er Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, eminent distinguished Republican, machinist, is also favorably mentioned along with George and Bates, of Pennsylv- ania; Denby and Diekmann, of Michigan; Fassett, Fairchild, Mandy and Southwick, of New Jersey; Gardner, of New Jersey, who was at first in opposition but was afterward "converted"; Speaker of New Jersey, the em- inent standpatter who headed the Judiciary Committee after the other eminent standpatter, Jenkins, of Wisconsin, was de- feated; Overman, of Indiana a once valuable member of the Cannon machine; Fordney, of Michigan, the great standpatter of the Saginaw district; Burleigh of Maine, promoted to the Senate as a characteristic Republican member; Foster and Haskins, of Vermont; Cooper, Moon and Moore, of Pennsylvania; Bartholomew, of Missouri, cheerfully de- scribed as "all right, all the time" and the late Sidney Mudd, of Maryland, memory. Former Senator Foraker, of Ohio, prominently mentioned and the late Viking of Minnesota, Mr. Nelson, does in for a while. Senator Lodge is referred to pleasantly for friendly assist- ance and former Senator Aldrich, the late Republican boss of the Senate, the late Senator Car- ter, of Montana and former Sen- ator Hemenway, of Indiana. The Democrats fare materially better as befits the situation of a majority party. McDermott and Shaw, of Illinois receive the most comment although Swager, of Kentucky, is also mentioned. Mr. Sharley has taken advantage of his own inclusion in the affair by demanding a special investigation by the House supplemental to the investiga- tion which the Senate, through its Lobby Committee is now making. Another distinguished Democrat, Speaker Clark, of the House is also mentioned, but in a way entirely complimentary, the lobbyist reporting his com- plete inability to influence the eminent Missourian, Mr. Clark has promptly confirmed that part of the lobbyist's confession refer- ring to him as to the desperate efforts made by the Invisible Government to defeat him in 1912 and 1910. Two Progressives come in for comment similar to that about Speaker Clark, for Senator Ber- ninger, of Indiana, and former Congressman Perre, of Mary- land. The lobby having failed to influence them, devoted itself vigorously to attempt to defeat them. Other Democrats fought by the lobby were Senator Hughes of New Jersey former Congress- man Collier and Connolly, of Massachusetts; Wilson, of Illinois Nichols, of Pennsylvania and Burnett, of Alabama. The publication of this confes- sion has vitalized the theretofore rather languid investigation being conducted by the Senate Committee. There is an immediate demand for a thorough probe which with the lead furnished by the confession of the lobbyist and the mass of correspondence which is reported to be in his possession ought to result in a definite uncovering of the Invis- ible Government. What is already disclosed bears out of the charge so long made by the Progressive that the Rep- ublican party was under the control of the Special Interest and was dominated by the Invis- ible Government. Representative Victor Murdock, floor leader of the Progressive in the House and one of those whom the Invisible Government hated because he constantly fought it, is urging upon the House the necessity of an immediate and thorough in- vestigation. "Mere denials will not serve to brush aside these charges," he said. "They must be sifted to the bottom and either sustain- ed or proved false by the pre- ponderance of the evidence. Congressmen cannot afford to equivocate. The investigators must probe to the very root of the matter. The thing for every Congressman to be asking him- self while these charges are being probed is how are we going to purge this body of corrup- tionists? How can we make it impossible for such a state of things to continue? How can we keep such men out of Con- gress?" The more the Diggs-Caminetti white slave case develops, the worse it becomes for President Wilson and the cabinet members involved indeed, another cabinet member, none other than Wil- liam J. Bryan himself, has now involved himself in it by coming voluntarily to the defense of Attorney-General McReynolds Secretary of Labor Wilson as well as of the Commissioner General of Immigration, Mr. Caminetti, father of one of the defendants. Mr. Bryan's reputation has not been that of a defender of false- hood, but if there is anything but falsehood to be made out of the statement of Secretary of Labor Wilson and Attorney-Gen- eral McReynolds in this case, it has not yet appeared. In his letter to the President in explana- tion and defense of his course, Mr. McReynolds refers to Dis- trict Attorney McNab's telegram of resignation and says, "I desire to lay before you the note to which he refers." Mr. McReynolds obviously seeks to create the impression by this language that Mr. McNab had made but one protest against the Attorney General's interference with the orderly procedure of the case. The insubstantial fact is, however, that Mr. McNab did as he said he did repeatedly by letter and by telegram protest- ing at the postponement of the case and he gave reasons for his protest which nothing but blind political pull could ignore. Mr. McReynolds is corrected by the record not only of interfering for political reasons to prevent the immediate trial of a flagrant case when he had been warned that delay threatened seriously to hamper the cause of justice, but also of deliberately attempting to deceive the American public as to his course in the matter. Secretary Wilson, in his letter to Mr. Reynolds, distinctly de- clared that he himself was the author of the suggestion for a postponement and he distinctly creates the impression that Com- missioner Caminetti did not sug- gest the delaying of the trial. The full record shows, however, that Mr. Caminetti repeatedly and importunately communicated with District Attorney McNab begging for delay. He repeated his communications to Mr. Mc Nab after the District Attorney had plainly warned him that it was already charged in California that political influence was being exerted to prevent the imme- diate trial of the case. Thus, the record convicts Secretary Wilson as it does Attorney-Gen- eral McReynolds of a deliberate attempt to deceive the American people. It is the record of falsehood and deception which Mr. Bryan comes forward gaily and volun- tarily to defend. Another trust, that of the so- called "Pacific mergers", has come to an end through the ac- ceptance by the court of the plan for dissolution agreed upon by Attorney-General McReynolds and President Wilson. In this plan, the Democrats have adopted a new corporation policy differ- ent from any of those which has previously had their sanction. The Pacific is required by the decree to divest itself of its large holdings of Southern Pacific stock. The Pennsylvania Com- pany owned a considerable amount of stock in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. Under the plan accepted by the Government and court, the Union Pacific is to trade a large amount of its stock in the Southern Pacific, a line which completes with it to the Pennsylvania, and the Pennsylvania is to give in return its holdings in the Baltimore and Ohio. Thus the Union Pacific acquires a large interest in a line which may ultimately be con- nected with it to form a trans- continental system and the Penn- sylvania has open to it the ulti- mate possibility of establishing a transcontinental system. This is a direct reversal of the attitude of Attorney-General McReynolds in proposing a tax on a size, as he did in his tobacco trust plan, and is another indication of the way the Democrats are floundering on the corporation problem. The incontrovertible facts as to the development and growth of the Progressive Party having confounded its reactionary op- ponents among the Democrats and Republicans, they are now resorting chiefly to the well known weapons of abuse, ridicule and falsehood. This is the situa- tion foreseen by Senator Beveridge, Chairman of the Pro- gressive National Convention of last year, and it recalls vividly the following striking paragraph from the great speech with which he opened that convention. "The Progressive Party comes from the root. It has grown from the soil of the people's hard necessities. It has the vitality of the people's strong convictions. The people have work to be done and our party is here to do that work. Abuse will only streng- then it, ridicule only hasten its growth, falsehood only speed its victory."

I. J. MAZUR
