There are many little things to annoy us, under present conditions of life. The hurry, hard work, noise and strain all tell on us and tend to provoke nervousness and irritability. We are frequently so worn out we can neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. We are out of line with ourselves and others as well.

A good thing to do under such circumstances is to take something like

Nothing in the world equals them as a headache remedy. Often I am enabled by the use of one or two of the Pills to continue my housework when otherwise I would be in bed. My husband joins me in my praise of the Anti-Pain Pills and Nerwine."

Munsey Building, Washington, D. C. August 16, 1913

The real measure of Republican enthusiasm for the creation of a permanent tariff commission and for schedule by revision of the tariff is authoritatively disclosed in a little pamphlet recently issued by the American Protective Tariff League. It is "A Roster of the Sixty third Congress" and carries as a sub-heading the legend, "Words of good cheer from prominent Members of Congress." In view of the efforts made by Republicans in Congress many times during this session to have it appear that the Republicans really favor a permanent tariff commission, certain declaration of this pamphlet issued by the American Protective Tariff League together with some of the words of good cheer from prominent members of congress, are peculiarly interesting. On page 11 there appear the resolutions adopted by the American Protective Tariff League in annual meeting assembled declaring that fair and intelligent adjustment of tariff duties is a practical impossibility when dealing with one schedule at a time and that we are unable to discover any valid reason for the existence of a permanent tariff board or commission. The American Protective League earnestly urges "that the responsibility for tariff legislation remains wholly with the Congress of the United States. Then follows on page 14 to 23, a selection from the words of good cheer received by the League earnestly urges that the responsibility for tariff legislation remains wholly with the Congress of the United States." Then follows on pages 14 to 23, a selection from the words of good cheer received by the League in the form of letters from various standpat statesmen. These letters include cheering from Senators Gallinger of New Hampshire; Warren of Wyoming; Smoot of Utah; Penrose of Pennsylvania; Bradley of Kentucky; and Sherman of Illinois; the last of whom has been industriously endeavoring to create the impression that he is a progressive. Mr. Sherman defines the character of his progressivism by saying, "On the issues joined upon the legislation of the tariff now pending, the services of your League are and will be especially valuable. There are also given in this interesting pamphlet letters from such eminent supporters of the Republican death-bed advocacy of a tariff commission as former Speaker Cannon, and Representatives Campbell, of Kansas, Fordney of Michigan;

J. M. C. Smith of Michigan; J. Hampton Moore of Pennsylvania; Austin of Tennessee; Hughes of West Virginia and Mondell of Wyoming.

Thus the truth about the Republican attitude toward a permanent tariff commission is officially set forth with the high sanction of the American Protective Tariff League.

By unanimous vote of the Progressive National Committee taken on referendum, the following elections to membership in the Committee have been made. At large: Mrs. Catherine Hooker of San Francisco, Cal., to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Isabella Blaney.

ARKANSAS: Mr. Harry N. Trieber, of Little Rock to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Henry F. Cochran.

MARYLAND: Col. Joseph R. Baldwin, of Aberdeen, to fill the vacancy caused by the recall of Col. E. C. Carrington, Jr.

MISSOURI: Mr. I. R. Kirkwood of Kansas City, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Will H. Walker. President Wilson is receiving deserved credit generally throughout the country for the skill and determination with which he is forcing congress to action his legislative program, but he would deserve, and get, much more credit if he would extend his line of pressure upon his Democratic followers in the House and the Senate to the point of making them give them somewhere near decent and adequate attention to the absolutely necessary business of the Government.

In one extremely important respect the record of the Democrats from the time they took charge of the House in the 62nd Congress down to date is one of scandalous inefficiency and incompetency. The long session of the 62nd Congress met in December 1911. The fiscal year expired on June 30, 1912. But in those seven months the Democrats had displayed such inefficiency and incompetency that they had not passed the annual appropriation bills absolutely necessary for the maintenance of the Government. Repeatedly charged with this gross inefficiency, the only explanation they have ever made was that they were busy making a political record on the tariff and other things. In other words, their explanation is a confession of guilt of the precise charge.

The United States Government is the greatest corporation in the world. Congress is its finance committee. There is not a corporation, partnership, firm or individual doing business in the world that could exist from one week's end to another with such scandalous inefficiency in its financial management.

And it was not until September that all the appropriation bills were passed. On two or three occasions it had been necessary to pass special resolutions continuing the old appropriations temporarily—a make-shift device of procrastination and inefficiency.

How this special session of the 63rd Congress, with the Democrats in control of the House, the Senate and the Administration, gives another exhibition of the absolute disregard of the Democrats for the financial obligation and honor of the Government. The Democrats did not pass all their appropriation bills during the regular session, and two or three of them have had to be put through at this special session. Now it has been found that even in these belated bills sufficient provision was not made for some of the humblest of the Government employees, who work at the lowest wages. There is no money now to pay the charwomen who scrub out the Capitol and the offices of Members and the page boys are still waiting for the wages they earned last June.

Yet, these Democrats, whose incompetency is thus proved by repeated evidence are cheerfully setting themselves to the business of reforming the currency and banking system of the United States and brag that they know how to control corporations.

President Wilson seems to be standing the long sessions in good shape. At the commencement of his administration there was no little solicitude among his friends as to his physical ability to undergo the hardship and strain of a difficult summer legislative campaign in Washington. It is evident, however, that the President is considerably improved in physical condition, for he is now able to forego the "at least nine hours of sleep" which he explained early in the administration it was necessary for him to have. He takes recreation now in the shape of frequent games of golf and of long automobile rides in the evening—from some of which he does not return until after midnight.

The mellifluous Mulhall is in temporary retirement, but the investigation of his charges concerning the lobbying activities of the National Association of Manufacturers and its unsavory relations with numerous members of Congress, goes on. A more interesting witness has been on the stand in the person of James A. Emery, chief lobbyist for the association. The Senate, having finished with Mulhall, turned him over to the House, but he is reported to be so near physical collapse in consequence of his grilling by the Senate Committee said to be unable to proceed before the House Committee as to be unable to proceed before the House Committee for some time.

Meantime, former Congressman Jim Watson of Indiana, the distinguished Republican statesman, high priest of the old Cannon hierarchy in the House, and floor manager for the Taft-Barnes-Penrose gang in the last Republican National Convention, is preparing to play one of the old-time smooth political tricks that in former days so often won out. Watson is one of the men most seriously smirched by the Mulhall charges. It was confidently expected that he would join the throng of injured and agrieve innocents who clamored at the doors of the Senate Committee for opportunity to purge their reputation of the vile slanders of the blatherskite Mulhall. But not so. Watson knows a trick worth a dozen of that.

It was bruited about that the high minded, unbiased, and non-partisan Democrats who control the House investigating committee had no intention whatever of summoning Watson to the stand and giving him an opportunity to meet the damaging. No siree, Bob! If Watson wanted vindication he could get it somewhere else: they wouldn't give him the chance. The Senate Committee was open to him. He could get all the vindication he wanted there.

Well did he? Not by a jugful. It was no sooner apparent that the House Committee would call him than the honorable Mr. Watson, with an air of injured dignity and righteous indignation, wrote to the Senate Committee that he refused to appear before a biased and partisan tribunal that had already formed an adverse judgement. And there the matter stands. Robbed of the right to vindicate his pure and lofty record before the House investigators, he refuses to submit his unstained career to the vandal hands of the partisan Senate Committee. Even the stoner weep at this awful injustice Watson.

No New Developments in Sulzer Glynn Fight

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 17. — Both Governor Sulzer and Lieutenant Governor Glynn who claims to be Acting Governor, spent a quiet Sabbath. Mr. Sulzer did not go to church as usual, but spent most of the day at the bedside of his stricken wife and was much encouraged at the favorable report of her nurse. A few friends and advisers called during the day and he enjoyed a short automobile ride late in the afternoon.

Mr. Sulzer was informed of the escape of Harry K. Thaw from the Matteawan State Hospital for the criminal insane, but did not discuss the matter.

Mr. Glynn's day was spent quietly at Cedar Hill, his Summer home. He expressed interest in his news of Thaw's escape and inquired eagerly for details, but offered no comment. He, however, sent telegrams to Superintendent Kieb of Matteawan and to Superintendent Riley of the State Prison Department requesting detailed information of the escape.

The following bulletin on Mrs. Sulzer's condition was issued today.

"Mrs. Sulzer is resting comfortably. While her temperature remains high at 102, she feels less nervous and passed a much more restful night."

A sharp break in the holiday armistice is expected when the Trustees of Public Buildings hold a session tomorrow. The members of this board are the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the Assembly. It is understood that Lieutenant Governor Glynn, Senator Wagner and Speaker Smith will hold the meeting without consulting Governor Sulzer who in any event would be unable to hold a meeting of his own for lack of a quorum.

Lawyers who studied carefully the text of Governor Sulzer's final letter to Lieutenant Governor Glynn, express the opinion that it foreshadows an attempt by Mr. Sulzer alone to bring into the courts the question as to whether he or Lieutenant Governor Glynn is the lawful Chief Executive pending the decision of the Courts of Impeachment.

The old report is revived that this will be done through the medium of a pardon. It is said that Governor Sulzer may pardon some convict whose term has nearly expired and that by a mutual understanding Warden Clancy, one of his appointees will decline to recognize the pardon, thus opening the door to court action by means of mandamus or habeas corpus proceedings.

A statement by William Barnes chairman of the Republican State Committee commending the course of Harold J. Himman, minority leader of the Assembly in opposing the impeachment resolution has caused considerable speculation. It is pointed out that Mr. Barnes bases his approval entirely on the inadequacy of the time given the Assembly to study the report of the Frawley Committee.

Some of the Glynn partisans construe the Barnes statement to be tantamount to serving notice that political opinions are not expected to sway to any degree the attitude of the Republican Senators in the trial.

There are 17 Republican Senators and only 19 votes in favor of Governor Sulzer would prevent impeachment. This assumes that all the justices of the Courts of Appeals and the Senators will take part in the trial.

 Everybody Welcome.

CRUSHED WOMAN'S SKULL THEN SET HER BODY ON FIRE.

Hamlet, Aug. 15. — One of the most mysterious murders in the history of this section occurred at the Seaboard hotel at this place about 6:30 tonight, when a man registered at the hotel under the name of George S. Nance, Macon, Ga. killed the woman who was registered as his wife.
 The couple arrived on Seaboard train Number 12 from Atlanta this morning and after breakfast asked for a room, saying they would spend the day here and go to Norfolk tonight. They spent some time this morning on the streets and went to their room, No. 75, about 6:30 tonight.
 J. G. Scott, a guest of the hotel passed the room and met Nance who was going from the closet. Upon opening the door to room 75, Scott saw smoke and getting a fire extinguisher, attempted to enter the room. Nance tried to prevent him from entering, but Scott forced the door open sufficiently to use the extinguisher.

N. Monsarrat, another guest came up at this time and upon facing the door discovered the body of a woman lying near the door and the entire body on fire. When the body was pulled in to the hall the fire extinguished they discovered that the woman's skull was crushed and that she was dead.
 Nance had not attempted to leave and was placed under arrest. From the condition of the room, Nance had killed his wife and had then changed his clothes and poured oil from a lamp in the room over the body and about the room then setting fire to the body.
 After being arrested Nance made a statement saying that they had some words and his wife attempted to cut him with a razor.

It was then he killed her, he said, but that he did not intend to kill her when he struck her. An open razor and an empty beer bottle were lying on the floor beside the woman. She was small and pretty, wearing glasses. She was evidently French. There were found among her effects several French translations. She was handsomely dressed and wore a large diamond ring. Many of the effects were burned but among those saved was a reception bill from S. H. George & Co., Greenville, S. C., addressed to Mrs. George S. Nance, 321 Lauren St., Greenville, S. C. Her shoes have the name of a Knoxville, Tenn., firm.
 Nance is apparently forty years old, medium size, clean shaven and slender. He was well dressed and when arrested had $462.50 in money on his person.

A coroner's jury was impaneled and gave a verdict that the deceased came to her death at the hands of her husband, Geo. S. Nance, and committed him to jail without bond. Chief of Police Braswell immediately hurried him to Rockingham in an automobile.

In addition to the murder the charge of arson is made against him and it was only on account of the timely arrival of some of the guests that the handsome Seaboard hotel was saved from flames.

Effect is being made by the authorities to locate relatives of the deceased and the prisoner, but at midnight answers had not been received.
 The body of the deceased was delivered to J. C. Neimyer, undertaker, who will hold the body pending instruction for shipment.

Fighting in China.

Canta, Aug. 14. — Twelve hundred were killed in the fighting in this city yesterday. Pillage is in progress everywhere today. Hundreds of the Federal troops have joined the rebels and together they looted the principal gold and silversmith's stores. Local officers and army officers are powerless owing to dissensions.

H. Clay Grubb Dead.

Spencer, Aug. 9. — H. Clay Grubb, one of the most prominent businessmen in this section of North Carolina, was shot to death at his home at Churchland, near Spencer, early today by his wife. It is said Mr. Grubb returned last night from Salisbury and while under the influence of liquor severely beat his wife, cutting her ear almost off, stabbing her in the neck and shoulders and inflicting numerous bruises on her body.
 Her life imperiled she grabbed a huge revolver on a table and fired three shots in his body. One entered the breast and two the abdomen. Death came at 2 a. m. one hour after the shooting took place. It is claimed that Mrs. Grubb acted in purely self defense. She was badly beaten and cut up prior to shooting her husband and although treated by several physicians from Spencer and other places her condition is critical.
 Immediately after the tragedy neighbors were summoned but Mr. Grubb died before they reached the scene.

The killing is the culmination it is said of a series of attacks made on Mrs. Grubb during the past few months. A few weeks ago it is said the family were forced away from home by Mr. Grubb and recently the children had to break open a door to stop their father from beating their mother. It is also charged that Mr. Grubb beat his wife unmercifully with the handle of a pitchfork.

Many neighbors soon gathered at the Grubb home. Undertakers Uzzle & Wright of Salisbury were embalming the body in the same room in which it was laid cold. The man looked as natural as in life and gathered about were close friends and neighbors one of whom remarked that the deceased was to have taken dinner at his home today. The three bullet holes were plainly visible in the body one in the left side of the abdomen one almost under the heart and the third at the breast. They had been made with a .32 calibre pistol only three chambers were empty, showing that every shot took effect, and it is said either would have proved fatal. The injured wife was in bed not far from where the corpse of her husband lay and the children were also at the home. Rev. Adam Grubb was there a brother.

It was said at the home that Mr. Grubb had been abusing and beating his wife and had lain across a leather couch in the front room and gone to sleep making some threatening remarks before laying down as to what he would do when he awoke and that when he awoke he again resumed his former tactics and then received the fatal shot.

Had Over Two Hundred Operations, Then Died.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 15. — After undergoing more than 200 operations during three years for the removal of a growth in his throat that interfered with his breathing, George McDowell, 31 years old formerly of Spartanburg, S. C., died at a hospital here yesterday while the surgeons were making a last attempt to save his life.

For the past 18 months McDowell breathed through a tube inserted in his throat. He had been under so many operations that he became immune to cocaine, and the doctors were forced to use other means.
 Freezing was resorted to and chloroform to deaden the pain when they worked on the growth. The doctors said that it was muscular growth, but could not tell what kind. It was such that it contracted the man's windpipe and at times all but closed it.

"Worth More Than it Costs"

Lots of farmers declare their telephone service is worth more than it costs. I. W. Harris, a well-known farmer living near Choccolocco, Ala., writes:

"I had occasion to call our doctor not two hours after my telephone was connected with your exchange. My mother, who is very old, fell down the door steps and broke her arm, and I called the doctor. He was at my house before I could have gone to his residence, as he has an automobile.
"We would not be without our telephone for more than it costs and appreciate the assistance you rendered us."

Our free booklet tells how you may have telephone service on your farm at small cost. Write for it today. A postal will do.

She Disturbed the Peace.

Durham, Aug. 14.—John Brown and Arthur Pickett, two white men of this city, were sent to the road for 30 days each this morning on a charge of assaulting Hattie Jacobs a woman of the streets. The nature of the assault was a novel in the court records of the city.

The woman said that the two men came to her room last night and poured oil of sassafras down her back. The burning drug was so painful that she disturbed the neighborhood and the police force were sent for. Her back was so badly burned and she got some of the stuff in her eyes while the boys were holding their hand over her mouth to prevent her screaming from disturbing the peace of the neighborhood and thus notifying the officers.

The officers also drew a warrant against the girl, charging her with vagrancy, and she was given 30 days on this charge, but will be given an opportunity to leave town.

These Joy Rides.

Because of the injuries of the complainant the case of Mosses Stone 21 years old living at Brambajeton and Reservoir avenue, Norfolk, Va., a few weeks ago charged with felonious assaulting and choking Miss Ethel Hall the 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hall 625 South May avenue in an automobile early in the morning of July 27 today was continued by Police Justice Barron until next Saturday, Stone would make no statement today. It is said that since the alleged assault took place during an automobile ride from Ocean View to Norfolk about 2 o'clock in the morning of July 27th, Miss Hall is suffering from bruises inflicted by Stone. Mrs. Hall mother of the girl said her daughter had at first refused to tell her anything about the occurrence, but later when her condition grew worse she said Stone did it. She says that Miss Hall together with her sister, Stone and another young man was returning from Ocean View in an automobile hired by Stone when the assault occurred.
(Unless a young lady is sure of her company the fewer joy rides she takes the less risk she runs of a blighted life. Social pastimes are enjoyable and young folks must have diversion. But there is a limit and young people are inclined to go beyond it if not safely guarded by proper restraint in this exceptionally rapid age when every one is inclined to "take no dust."

Compulsory Attendance.

An act to Make School attendance Compulsory.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact: All Children Required To Attend School, Age 8 To 12, Term Four Months.

BOARD GIVEN POWER TO MAKE RULES AND REGULATIONS TO SECURE ATTENTION

SEC. 11. The board of education of each county shall have power at their regular meeting held in July of each year, and thereafter at any regular meeting, to make such rules and regulations as they deem best to secure the attendance of all children between the ages of eight and twelve years upon schools of the county, and such rules and regulations, when approved by the county superintendent of public instruction and posted at the courthouse door and at the door of each schoolhouse in the county shall supercede any provision of this act in conflict therewith.

SEC. 12. This act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.
