Excitement Yet In Yadkin County.

Yadkinville, Aug.—One dead negro, four negroes locked in the county jail, and a much battered sheriff and township constable are the results of a near race riot Tuesday night about eight miles southeast of Yadkinville. Following the attempt of eight or ten negroes to take a prisoner, who had been arrested while attending a negro meeting, away from Township Constable J. E. Shugart. The dead negro, William Biting, was shot by Mr. Shugart about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, while he was resisting arrest at the hands of Mr. Shugart and Sheriff C. W. Poindexter, of Yadkin county. The trouble started the night before, when Mr. Shugart, accompanied by his son, Gurney Shugart, and Frank Warren, went to the Tabernacle colored church and arrested Arch Long for the larceny of a coat belonging to Frank Warren. The singing had just begun when the arrest was made and fearing that would be trouble, Mr. Shugart rushed his prisoner up the road some distance and stopped at the home of Pete Cross. Here he was overtaken in a few minutes by several negroes who made a rush for him. Mr. Shugart knocked the first negro down with the side of his pistol, but before he could prevent it all of the other negroes were on top of him, his son and the prisoner fighting, knocking, scratching and trying in every way to release the prisoner who was tied to the officer. In all of the struggle, the constable held to the prisoner and when Mr. Cross got some of the negroes away, the officer started across a pasture with the prisoner. Mr. Shugart was overtaken and knocked down by Tom Hamlin. While still on his knees, Mr. Shugart fired at his escaping prisoner, who has not been recaptured.

Mr. Shugart sent his son to Yadkinville to telephone Sheriff Poindexter for aid. When the sheriff arrived a few hours later, Mr. Shugart had secured warrants for six of the negroes and three of them, Tom Martin, Tom Hamlin and Sarah Long, were arrested during the morning. Leaving the prisoners with Deputy Frank Wishon and Gurney Shugart, Sheriff Poindexter, Constables Shugart and Bob Flowman went to arrest William Biting. When the sheriff took the negro by the shoulder, the negro grabbed both his hands, placing one finger back of the hammer of Sheriff Poindexter's pistol, keeping the hammer from raising and tried to wrest it from his hand. Finally, releasing his hold on the sheriff, the negro made a spring for Constable Shugart, who then fired a load from a shot-gun, into the negro's stomach. He died in a few minutes. When the negro released his hold on the hammer of the sheriff's pistol, it fired, but without effect.

Dr. T. R. Harding was appointed coroner and a coroner's jury composed of Messrs. W. L. Kelley, J. W. P. ss, J. E. Zachary, O. V. Hutchens, C. H. Todd and Arthur Ainshaw, went from Yadkinville to the negro's home Wednesday afternoon, examined him and started the inquest but adjourned before finishing in the courtroom in Yadkinville on Thursday.

While the inquest was being held, Sam Biting, brother of the dead negro, arrived and was arrested by Sheriff Poindexter as one of the crowd who interfered with Constable Shugart in the fight the night before.

Much excitement prevails in Yadkinville over the affair and it is the principal topic for discussion. Practically every white man and many negroes think that Mr. Shugart was justified in shooting the negro and some think that he should have shot before.

Mr. Shugart was a deputy sheriff and jailer for four years and is looked upon as a faithful and trust worthy officer.

Solicitor W. C. Hammer once made the remark that he was the best deputy in his district. Whether or not he will be held for trial depends upon the report of the coroner's jury.

It is understood that the dead negro made a threat some time ago that he would kill Mr. Shugart at the first opportunity and this threat had reached Mr. Shugart's ears.

Starve The Fly Says Dr. Shenick.

Commenting on an editorial in the Virginian-Pilot under the caption, "The Flyless Town," Dr. Pownapan Shenick health commissioner, said yesterday: "Of course, it is alright to swat the fly, and the health department has and will continue to advocate this method of riding the city of the pest, but the real and only solution on the problem is to 'starve the fly.'"

"Eradicate feeding as well as breeding places of flies, and I believe you will have succeeded in eradicating the fly. There seems to be no question regarding this method of extermination."

"Swatting the fly is a mighty good method, but the real thing is to educate the people as to the breeding places and the best means of preventing flies from getting the things they feed on. The health department has conducted fly-swating should not be done spasmodically, however but they warfare should be kept up all through the heated term; in fact, as long as there is a fly in sight."

Furthermore, householders and property owners should make every effort to eliminate from their premises any condition that might tend toward the propagation of the house fly. And after destroying the breeding places, they should see to it that feeding places are also done away with."

Father Follows His Child To The Grave.

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 28.—No. 306 West Blount street in this city became a house of much sorrow when a few days ago an infant son of Benjamin P. Fry succumbed to typhoid fever, and this morning the family mourns anew for the father, who died shortly after midnight of the same disease. Fry, who is 24 years old, suffered for weeks with the fever while his young wife worked and watched alone over him and their baby in the little home until neighbors learned of her predicament. They were strangers in the neighborhood where they lived. Fry was employed in a carriage factory. The body will be taken to Carthage, N. C., for interment.

Beginning in Spring.

What is generally termed harvest time is now upon us. Much fodder will be pulled in the old way and cotton picked ginned and sold as soon as it can be gotten out of the field. This is the old way that has been followed. I don't say how long. Now this custom must be changed before the farmer of the south can prosper.

Harvest time with me begins about the first of May. The most profitable crops come in about this time, such as Irish potatoes, beans, cabbages, early corn etc. Cantaloupes and watermelons are ready during June and July. I harvest my Irish potatoes as fast as they are matured and store them in a dry place. I don't soil during the rush as they will keep during the rush and bring a better price later on in the summer.

Most Children Have Worms.

Many mothers think their children are suffering from indigestion, headache, nervousness, weakness, costiveness, when they are victims of that most common of all children's ailments—worms. Peevish, ill-tempered, fretful children, who toss and grind their teeth, with bad breath and colicky pains have all the symptoms of having worms and should be given Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, which expels worms, regulates the bowels, tones up the system and makes children well and happy. Kickapoo Worm Killer is guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail. Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis

Diggs' Victim was Thrown By Wine Cup in His Office.

San Francisco, Aug. 29—Marsha Warrington today concluded her direct testimony in the Drew-Caminetti white slave case and the defense began cross examination. Her manner was more confident than at the Diggs trial. Caminetti had first given Lola Norris $20 to pay her passage to Reno, the witness said. It was his idea they ought to travel separately, but Diggs had decided otherwise. It was agreed that the party must have a leader and when Diggs nominated himself for the position and Caminetti agreed, Diggs ordered that they keep together.

The witness said she had been pure until she met Diggs. Her fall had taken place in Diggs' offices after champagne had been served there, Caminetti and Miss Norris were in an adjoining room at the time.

Boy's Unusual Sentence.

Asheville, Aug. 29—"I hereby sentence you to be locked in a room at your home every day from now until Sunday." Such was the sentence imposed by Judge Junius G. Adams at yesterday's session of the city police court, on John Blackburn, a thirteen year-old boy, who was charged with assault. The boy stated that he sells papers on the street and was granted a leave of absence each day long enough to cover his "beat" in order that newsboy, might not get his beat.

It was in evidence that the assault consisted of the use of water as a weapon it being alleged that while a party of automobilist was traversing one of the principal residential streets, Blackburn turned a hose on the motorists.

Crash of Meteor Was Heard 20 Miles Away.

Fall River, Mass., Aug. 29—A meteor fell into the Seaconnet river churning up the waters in a spectacular manner, near Tiverton, R. I. last night. Great volumes of smoke arose.

The meteor fell during an electrical storm and its crash as it struck the water was thought by many who did not see it to have been an unusually heavy clap of thunder.

The noise was heard for a distance of twenty miles. In the immediate vicinity windows were broken and crockery shaken from shelves, while at Island Park, nearly two miles away, a merry-go-round was jarred into motion.

Persons who saw the fiery body as it hissed through the sky assert that it was of unusual size and travelling so rapidly as to appear at a short distance almost like a flash of lightning.

The river is of considerable depth where the meteor fell and no effort to locate the mass was made today.

Farmers Leaving For Homes In State.

Raleigh, Aug. 28—This was an especially practical and interesting day for the North Carolina Farmer's Convention at the A. & M. College. The program opened with a demonstration of a model orchard, its care and the preparation of the fruit—Apples and peaches more especially—for the market. This began at 7 o'clock. Planting and training and the general care of trees were demonstrated, including spraying and other treatment and the beneficial results in the finer and higher priced fruit emphasized.

When the convention reassembled in Pullen Hall J. M. Johnson of the United States Department of Agriculture lectured on "Profitable and Unprofitable Farming", and enumerating a long list of causes of unprofitable farming and methods of profitable farming.

Prof. W. A. Withers told most interestingly of his recent discovery of a method of feeding cottonseed meal to hogs and stock without the danger of cottonseed poisoning.

The work of the convention is about over and many of the farmers left today.

The State Convention of Farmers' Wives concluded three-days successful work today with 200 or more women here from many parts of the State. Lectures and demonstrations of practical everyday affairs have met with comprehensive and practical treatment.

GOOD PRINTING

The character of your printed matter makes an indelible impression--good or bad--upon those who see it. More people gauge your standing--the character and quality of product--your up-to-dateness by that than by any other one thing. Therefore, the need for the right kind of printing.

Our hobby is good printing, not fancy, fussy printing, but good printing, with character, quality and finish, the right type, right stock, right illustrations, all blended into a strong, dignified whole, the kind that will make a good impression for you.

Progressive News.

By formal action, taken on August 26th, the House of Representatives has at length done justice to William J. MacDonald, the Progressive who was elected to Congress from the 12th Michigan District last November, but whose seat the Republican Board of Canvassers attempted to steal from him by counting 458 of his votes for a mythical person for whom they were not cast.

The Committee on Elections, which had made an exhaustive investigation of the case, had previously reported unanimously in favor of seating MacDonald. The resolution carrying that report into effect was debated for about two hours in the house and was finally adopted by a vote of 175 to 6. The voting opposition was confined entirely to Democrats, but Representative Mann of Illinois, the Republican standpat leader, joined in the opposition to Mr. MacDonald that was displayed in the debate. No question was raised as to the validity of Mr. MacDonald's election. The only point brought up against him was that he failed to file a supplemental statement of his campaign contributions and expenses, required under the campaign publicity law, within the thirty days allowed by the statute for that purpose.

It appeared that Mr. MacDonald had complied substantially with the law by filing on October 26th just prior to the election, a statement which in fact covered practically the whole of his campaign fund. It also appeared that he was district attorney of his own county, and immediately after the election had devoted himself to court work for a long time, having been engaged in the trial of some fifty separate cases. His final statement was filed on April 13th, of this year, and it appeared that there had been no material additions to the items set forth in the October statement.

The effort of a very small number of Democrats and of Republican leader Mann to make capital out of this incident recalls the vigor with which both the Democrats and the Republicans have fought the efforts of Representative Murdock, the Progressive floor leader of the House to have printed as a public document all the statements of campaign contributions and expenditures filed with the clerk of the House. The law requires that such statements shall be filed by all candidates for Congress, whether successful or unsuccessful. The law also provides a penalty of fine or imprisonment or both, for failure to comply with its provisions. It is a notorious fact however, that a considerable number of candidates at the last session have not yet filed such statements. Yet no attempt has been made to do anything in any of these cases. On the contrary, when Mr. Murdock proposed that the statements which had been filed should be printed as a document so that they might be permanently preserved, he encountered the rigorous opposition of the leaders and the rank and file of both the party parties.

The avowed purpose of the campaign publicity was to secure genuine publicity of these contributions and expenditures. In point of fact it has secured no practical publicity, because the statements are filed with the clerk of the house, and are not only difficult of access in Washington but practically wholly inaccessible so far as the people of the different Congressional districts are concerned. If published as a document in accordance with Mr. Murdock's proposal they would be made readily available all over the country and the people in any district, who are the ones naturally most familiar with the campaign work of their candidate for Congress, would have some means of determining whether or not the statements were complete and trustworthy. But thus far Mr. Murdock has been unable, in the face of the bipartisan Democratic-Republican opposition, to secure action on his proposal.

Under the usual practice, such documents filed with the clerk of the House are kept for only a few months and then destroyed. Unless, therefore, these statements are printed as permanent documents they will cease to have any potential value in a few months, and thus the law will be rendered purely a farce.

Mr. MacDonald was sworn in as a member of the House immediately after the passage of the resolution. He will be assigned to places on committees and is already entering into the work of representing his district.

Thaw Lawyers Are Now More Hopeful.

Sherebrooke, Que., Aug. 31.—Harry K. Thaw's lawyers swept off their feet yesterday by the sudden move of William T. Jerome, in obtaining a writ of habeas corpus requiring Thaw's production in Superior court here Tuesday, spent the day in conferences and tonight gave renewed expression to their belief that the writ would not be sustained.

"If it is sustained," said W. K. McKeown, of the Thaw forces, "there always is recourse to appeal and I am inclined to think that appeal to the court of reviews or to the court of appeals would act as a stay and hold our client in jail safe from deportation. In the face of such circumstances I do not see how New York state can make any move until the King's bench convenes in October."

Thaw spent the day writing letters and dictating to his stenographers. As was the case last Sunday, there was no religious service in the prison. Several women called and gave the prisoner flowers.

W. L. Shurtleff, of Coaticook, the first attorney retained for Thaw after his arrest, said today he had heard that John Boudreau, the Coaticook chief of police, told a number of friends he had signed the petition for the writ of habeas corpus in the Thaw case through a mistake. Some one had told him, so the story ran, that he was affixing his signature to a document that would indemnify him should Thaw decide to sue for false arrest. He was Thaw's captor at Coaticook, and in his petition for the writ set forth that he feared he might be liable for damages. Boudreau denied he had signed the application without knowing what he was doing. Friends might criticize his act, he added, but he had acted with his eyes open.

Thaw's lawyers denied they were trying to coerce Boudreau into asking for discontinuance of the writ.

Mr. McKeown issued this formal statement: "We do not believe Boudreau has any right to make application for a writ of habeas corpus for Harry K. Thaw, but should Judge Hutchinson hold that he is an interested party we will produce the document in which Thaw declares that he does not intend to sue Boudreau. That, in our opinion, should nullify any claim Boudreau may make as to his interest in the matter."

Chief Harter Killed.

Lena, S. C., Aug. 31.—J. B. Harter, chief of police at Allendale, S. C., was shot to death here late today. A. L. Walker tonight is confined in the Hampton county jail, charged with the killing. While the tragedy occurred on the platform of the railway station, there were no witnesses, and as Walker refused to make a statement, it is not known why Harter was killed. An inquest will be held tomorrow morning when an effort will be made to solve the mystery.

Father, Hit By Son.

Rushville, Ind., Aug. 31.—William Price, 90 years old, former sheriff of Rush county and Marshall of this city, is dead as a result of an altercation with his son, Erbie, aged 25 years, in this city today.

Price and his son, who lives at Fort Wayne, and who has been visiting his father for a week, met in front of his father's drug store and became involved in a quarrel. Persons who saw them say the father was the aggressor and pushed his son off the sidewalk. The son at once retaliated, it is declared, by striking his father a blow on the neck. The father was knocked to the sidewalk and the authorities are not certain whether it was the blow or the fall that caused his death.

The coroner is making an investigation and young Price will be held until the coroner's verdict is returned. Price died about 20 minutes after he fell to the sidewalk.

Son's Maid So Pretty Queen Dismisses Her.

Paris, Aug. 31.—Smiles and grins will surely cross the channel from France to Great Britain over the story published here today by the Cri de Paris of the latest puritanical edict of the stern Queen Mary, enforced on the prince of Wales, in which the pretty little French laundress of the royal youngster's establishment became the victim, being summarily dismissed.

The Cri de Paris asserts that the only indictment possible against the little French laundress was her youth and good looks. Her departure is said to have been demure; her ironing of the lingerie of the princeling perfection. But the rose of her cheeks and the light of her eyes were condemned by Queen Mary as being not suitable for the future ruler.

Of course, King George has long since philosophically bowed to Queen Mary's strict sway in regard to a puritanical palace life. A nobleman's bon mot which alluded to "George and the Dragon" rocked all England with laughter.

The prince has not dared flout Queen Mary's order of dismissal, given without his knowledge. But if the Cri de Paris story is right, boy, when he heard of what his queen mother had done, wrote a letter to the girl and inclosed one hundred and fifty pounds ($750) by indemnity.

And then he wrote her a separate letter in an effort to aid her to find new employment. This letter, addressed "To Whom It May Concern," says that the little French girl is a fine little laundress.

The prince was born in 1894 and has not therefore attained his majority, as that is usually understood—twenty-one years. But with royal youths eighteen years is the attainment of the right to ascend the throne, and might serve as a logical demand greater freedom. He certainly has had little of any. Queen Mary has chosen his tutors and held them most rigorously to account for the diversions and associations of Britain's future ruler. It was only after the boy's insistence that a separate establishment was allowed him, and Queen Mary always supervised it.

Angry Woman With Hatpin Attacks Man And Officer.

Asheville, Sept. 1—Following the acquittal of W. L. Leiter on a betrayal charge, in the court of Justice of the Peace B. L. Lyda, Mrs. J. Hawkins, the mother of the girl in the case, attacked Daier with a hatpin. She made a lunge at the dismissed prisoner, it is said, but he avoided her and was not injured. When Sheriff Williams attempted to grasp the woman, the two daughters of the latter it is alleged, attacked the officer and it was necessary for the magistrate to take a hand in the case before the fight could be stopped.

Mrs. Hawkins and one of her daughters were sent to jail for ten days for contempt of court, while the other girl was told to go to her home. She is reported to have declared that she intended returning to the sheriff's office later with a pistol, declaring her intentions of killing every man who had participated in the trial.

Miss Irene Eanes who has been visiting friends and relatives in Virginia for the past month will return Sunday to begin school with the opening of the term.

Bryan Returns From His Trip Optimistic Over Mexican Affair.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Secretary of State Bryan upon his return today from a short lecture trip announced that nothing had been received at the state department from Mexico City to cause any alarm or to change the diplomatic situation that exists between this government and the provisional government in Mexico City.

The secretary remained at his home all day keeping in touch with the state department by telephone and was glad of the opportunity to get a rest. A few messages were received from the embassy at Mexico City relating to routine developing such as supplying American with means to leave Mexico and a brief message came from the special American envoy, John Lind at Vera Cruz.

Mr. Lind, it was reasserted, would remain in Vera Cruz tomorrow at least so far as administration officials here had any knowledge of his plans. That the administration still is content to wait for expected hopper developments that is apparent on every hand, President Wilson planning to remain in Cornish over Labor Day, nothing having arisen to demand his immediate return to Washington.

Reports of new orders for mobilization of troops in Mexico by the provisional authorities caused no excitement in official circles here. At the war and navy department officers were on duty all day, but no reports from the Mexico border were received regarding attempts to smuggle arms into Mexico in violation of the strict neutrality order from President Wilson.

The administration it was reported, is encouraged by statements emanating from Mexico City which gave strong indication that the provisional authorities do not regard negotiations with the United States at an end, and that they are expecting to hear further from the American confidential agent. Whether Mr. Lind has received any further instructions from President Wilson since he went to the summer capitol has not been announced nor is there any official statement as to Mr. Lind's intention to reply to the last note from Senor Gamboa, secretary of foreign affairs of the provisional government.

Tonight it was stated that no representatives of anti-American demonstrations had been received. This generally was regarded as a favorable sign, in view of the fact the exodus of Americans might have aroused some feeling.

Butter in Well Seven Years.

Granite City, Mo., Aug. 31.—A crock of butter was taken from a well on the farm of John McQuigg, a wealthy land owner, twelve miles northeast of this place, a few days ago by Mrs. McQuigg, who died seven years ago. The cloth tied was around the butter, which was firm of bright color and of good eating quality.

Patient Win; On His Life From Doctor.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 31—Of Clem Beachy, the famous turfman, who died here last Wednesday of Cirrhosis of the liver, it is now known that he was a sport to his last breath. Five days before he died John Skein, proprietor of the Phoenix hotel here where Beachy made his home, went to the sick man's room and delivered to him $1,000 in cash. Of this sum $500 was a winning from one of his doctors.

The doctor in diagnosing Beachy's illness told the world-famous horse trainer he did not think he had more than three weeks of life left him. Beachy 63 years old and desperately ill smiled softly and said:

"Doc, I'll bet you $500 I live three months."

The physician to humor his patient, made the bet. Beachy dismissed him and hung on to life till he won.

A Big Fish at Euliss Pond

Last Thursday will be remembered in coming years by the participants of a big fish which was pulled off at Euliss pond. Among the number that was present were Messrs W. A. Loy, W. W. Brown, L. HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Fatron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side. The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

To Paste in One's Bible

When in sorrow, read John 14. When men fail you, read Psalm 27. When you have sinned, read Psalm 51. When you worry, read Mathew 6:16-34. Before church service read Psalm 84. When you are in danger, read Psalm 91. When you have the blues, read Psalm 34. When God seems far away, read Psalm 139. When you are discouraged, read Isaiah 40. If you want to be fruitful, read John 15. When doubts come upon you, cry John 7:17. When you are lonely or fearful read Psalm 23. When you forget your blessing read Psalm 103. For Jesus' idea of a Christian read Mathew 5. For James' idea of religion read James 1:19-37. When your faith needs stirring read Hebrews 11. When you feel down and out read Romans 8:31-39. When you want courage for your task, read Joshua 1. When the world seems bigger than God, read Psalm 90. When you want rest and peace read Mathew 11:28-30. When you want Christian assurance, read Romans 8:1-30. For St. Paul's secret of happiness, read Colossians 3:12-17. When you leave home for labor or travel, read Psalm 121. When you grow bitter or critical read 1 Corinthians 13. When your prayers grow narrow or selfish, read Psalm 67. For Paul's idea of Christianity read 11 Corinthians 5:15-19. For Paul's rules on how to get along with men, read Romans 12. When you think of investments and returns read Mark 10:17-31. For a great invitation, and a great opportunity, read Isaiah 55. For Jesus, idea of prayer, read Luke 11:1-13. Matthew 6:5-15. For a prophet's picture of worship that counts, read Isaiah 58:1-12. For the prophet's idea of religion read Isaiah 1:10-18, Micah 6:6-8. Why not follow Psalm 119:11 and hide some of these in your memory.

WHY IS BURLINGTON FIRM?

Because its Citizens Have Learned The Truth.

After reading this generous and encouraging report from those who have the misfortune to suffer, as he did, will naturally long to get similar relief. But to get the same good as Mr. Ellis had, you should get the same remedy. There are of course, other kidney pills but there are no other kidney pills the same as Dean's. That is why Burlington people demand the genuine.

C. B. Ellis, the well-known merchant, residing on Eront St., Burlington, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to help me. I am glad to confirm the statement I gave some years ago, praising them. I was suffering from a slight attack of kidney complaint when I got Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking them the pain left."

Heart Disease Almost Fatal to Young Girl

"My daughter, when thirteen years old, was stricken with heart trouble. She was so bad we had to place her bed near a window so she could get her breath. One doctor said, 'Poor child, she is likely to fall dead any time.' A friend told me Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy had cured her father, so I tried it, and she began to improve. She took a great many bottles, but she improved to me to-day, a fat, rosy checked girl. No one can imagine the confidence I have in Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy." A. R. CANON, Worth, Mo.

The unbounded confidence Mr. Canon has in Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is shared by thousands of others who know its value from experience. Many heart disorders yield to treatment, if the treatment is right. If you are bothered with short breath, fainting spells, swelling of feet or ankles, pains about the heart and shoulder blades, palpitation, weak and hungry spells, you should begin using Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy at once. Profit by the experience of others while you may. Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is sold and guaranteed by all druggists. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

The Climax of Efficiency

in the billing and tabulating typewriter is attained through the latest Remington development—

the Tabulator Set Key

This single key sets the Decimal Tabulator Stops for every variety of billing, form and tabular work. You simply move the carriage to the desired points on the paper and at each point strike the set key—that is all. Hand settings are avoided; all complications are eliminated. The setting of the stops is as quick and simple as the operation of the Tabulator itself.

The Set Key completes the work of bringing every act in the operation of the Tabulator within the compass of the keyboard. It makes the operation of the Billing and Tabulating Remington as easy and as simple as ordinary typewriting.

The Automobile in Rural Life.

Among the socializing influences in rural life, few have been more potent than that of the automobile. The telephone, the trolley line, the free delivery of mail, the parcel post and, divers other agencies are breaking the spell of isolation that once overhung the farm and are enriching the rural districts with many of the advantages which in years gone by our only towns and cities enjoy. But after all the surest and simplest aid to neighborliness is a good road, and the automobile is undoubtedly the greatest practical force that has as yet appeared for the betterment and extension of highways.

A decade ago this particular service of motor vehicles could scarcely have been foreseen. But as their mechanism was perfected as they were made more secure and more dependable for long distance travel, they began to exert a far-reaching influence on rural conditions. The automobile demand well kept roads. A road along when the teamster might somehow struggle was impassable for the motorist, and so with the increasing use of automobiles there arose a widespread an insistent and organized demand for better roads. This movement once under way gathered momentum for better roads, and today its good works are manifest over the greater part of the entire states. The need for better road has always existed, but it was the automobile that created the occasion for united endeavor in this great cause.

Indirect though it might have been the influence of the automobile as a road builder is incalculable. The comforts and amenities of farm life are rapidly increasing the day will come when a home in the county will have practically all the advantages of the city or town; and then one of the gravest of our economic and social problems the congestion of population in urban centers will be solved. This wholesome change will be brought to pass largely through adequate methods for marketing crops and financing farm need very largely through scientific businesslike method of farm management and chiefly perhaps through a broadened and quickened sense of social kinship among the people themselves. But it is not evident that better schools better marketing facilities and a closer neighborhood all depend upon better roads. Well built and well kept highways furnish the key to the full enjoyment of all these benefits with which rural life is being invested. The Atlanta Journal.

Big Show Comes to Town.

And it's a Good One of Course. Tuesday, Sept. 9th. will be a day of fun, music, excitement and real joy for the children. Sanger's Greater European Shows will pitch their tents in Burlington and will give performance afternoon and evening. The show will arrive by its own special train at daybreak, and the town will be alive with bustle, strangers, elephants, fine horses, gold and glitter. Circus day is very dear to the hearts of the people and is a real boon to the rank and file of humanity. It chases away the clouds from the troubled mind and relieves the strain of this work-a-day world. Let us bid it welcome to our city and entertain and be entertained by this typical American institution. Two performances will be given at 2 and at 8 p. m. There will be a splendid street parade in the morning.

Democrats Charged With Trying To Make New Political Jobs.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Republican attack on the tariff bill in the senate today centered about the provision that would permit civil service laws to be disregarded in employing inspectors, deputy collectors and agents to administer the new income tax laws. The Democratic majority was charged freely with trying to break down the civil service laws and open up new jobs to "political favoritism."

Republicans of all factions united in their efforts to have civil service extended over the new employees, but on the closest vote of the day they were defeated, 37 to 32 on an amendment offered by Senator Lodge. Senator Hoke Smith, who defended the bill for the Democrats, declared it was impossible under the present civil service examinations to get men qualified to administer the income tax law.

"A bright boy out of high school could pass the examination," he said, "but men of 40 or 45 equipped from business experience to do such work probably would fail."

A letter from the chairman of the civil service commission was read by Senator Sterling, saying the commission could readily fill the new positions. Another outburst of Democratic "insurgency" came today when Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, denounced the methods of the party caucus that framed the tariff bill. He declared the binding rule of the caucus had "made a farce of the debates" in the senate. Senator Hitchcock introduced an amendment which caucus had rejected for a penalty tax on trusts. It was defeated, 41 to 30.

The Democratic members of the finance committee began sessions tonight to readjust the income tax to meet the demands of insurgent Democrats who have asked for an increase in the "additional tax" on large incomes. Other contested subjects also will be disposed of.

It is expected that a Democratic senate caucus will be held early next week to settle all questions on the tariff bill. Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, reiterated today his belief that the measure will be passed before the end of next week.

Senator Norris of Nebraska gave notice at the end of today's session that he would offer an amendment later proposing an insurance tax as part of the bill cause.

Upon the suggestion of Senator LaFollette, the bill was amended so as to allow state officials to have access to the income returns of corporations. By a vote of 8 to 38 the senate rejected Senator Jones' amendment to permit Alaska to retain the income tax collected in that territory.

Elephants Run Loose in the Streets. Create Much Excitement.

Four of the enormous elephants belonging to Sanger's Circus took a stroll through the streets of Salt Lake City while the show was being unloaded from the train. They had been left temporarily in charge of the keeper's assistant while the keeper himself was called away for a few minutes. The big brutes seemed to know that they were not in strong hands, and they proceeded towards the produce market, which was only a block away. A wagon load of fresh vegetables which had just been backed up against the curb attracted their attention. The farmer and his wife immediately vacated the vicinity with remarkable suddenness, while the elephants proceeded to regale themselves upon the delicious garden truck. It took only a moment for the load to disappear, when the market policemen appeared upon the scene, only to find that they had urgent business at the tops of some tall telephone poles near at hand. By this time the whole market space was in a uproar, and the way people, horses and wagons disappeared was a caution.

At this juncture the circus men were seen coming on the run, and the elephants decided to give them a run for their money, for they dashed off towards Temple avenue at a rapid rate. Before them, like a drove of wild sheep, people on foot, in buggies, wagons and automobiles dashed at wild haste. Market wagons rattled up the street distributing vegetables, fruit, eggs and other articles at every jump. But not for long. The circus men knew their business and soon closed in upon the truants, and in a few minutes the monster creatures were plodding peacefully towards the circus grounds. And their eyes gleamed with a look that said plainly, "we had a good time while it lasted."

Sanger's Greater European Shows will exhibit at Burlington Tuesday Sept. 9 afternoon and night.

Tammany Still Favorite.

New York, Aug. 29.—Betting commissioners in the financial district reported that Tammany is still the favorite, although they find a strong run. Money at 3 to 1 that Gaynor will not be elected found a few takers. There was one bet of $500 even money that McCall will beat Mitchel, and another of $500 even that Metz will beat Prendergast.

Mrs. Chas. J. Boland and son Buck and Miss Flaurie Willis spent several days the guest of relatives and friends in Sailsbury.

Whitsett.

The opening of school has come and our place is again humming with activity of school life. The weather last week was perfect and the crowds the largest that have ever arrived during the first week. The work for the year has opened under the brightest possible prospects, and additions to the student body arrive by every train. Various counties of this state have splendid delegations here and several other states are represented in the student body. All the boarding houses have opened with goodly numbers and the work is taking fine shape for the year. The picnic at Springwood Church last Saturday was enjoyed by a fine crowd. The picnic was attended by a part of the student body in the afternoon. A very delightful reception to the students and friends was given Saturday evening from 8 to 10. Quite a number of visitors were out for the occasion. Rev. Robert E. Redding preached a strong sermon in the chapel Sunday night from the Life of Daniel as a fine example of well rounded manhood. Misses Eunice Donnell, Greensboro; Maggie Greeson, Danville; Margaret Whitsett, Greensboro; and other young ladies were here for the reception. More parents came with their sons this year than ever they were here last week from different counties, Jones, Randolph, Rockingham, Pitt etc. The boys are beginning to take interest in athletics. They will play a practice game of baseball at 2 P. M. next Saturday, getting a lineup from candidates from the student body. Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Davenport of Durham are visiting here. Robert Fitzgerald passed here this week on his way to the University. He stopped over to see his brother who has entered school here.

Farewell Organ Recital.

The Farewell Organ Recital by Mr. E. Seton Blyth who has been the organistchoirmaster of the Church of the Holy Comforter for the past two years, was given last night assisted by the large vested choir of boys, men and women and was well attended by a large and appreciative audience. His opening number A. L. Peace "Sonata Da Camera" composed in the 17th century for the harpsichord was played with much taste and warm musical expressing. The other pieces by Delbruck, Thomas, Batiste, Dubois, Gound, Spark and Lefebure were rendered with much fluency and excellent technique. Mr. Blyth has perfect control of tone and nuance in religious music and exquisite propriety of registration and dynamics, ever in perfect accord with the character of the composition rendered. He is trained in his profession, an organist of the first rank, and his recitals have always shown him to be a master of the "King of Instruments." The beautiful rendering of the anthem "Like as the Hart," by Constance, and the anthem, "Abide with me," by Barnby, reflected the wonderful training he has given the choir. They were rendered in perfected time and with most pleasing effect. The solo work by Mrs. Blyth, Miss Boland and Miss McClure supported by the whole choir in chorus was a great demonstration of musical knowledge and feeling. The town's people and the Churches he has so faithfully served are very sorry to lose him, yet rejoice in his promotion to a similar position in Grace Church, Sandusky, Ohio. We wish him and his family God-Speed in his new field of work, and will always be glad to welcome him back in our dear old Southland.

"Mutt & Jeff."

"Never put off until to-morrow what you can do today." This is the day—"now is the time." Now! What? Why! "Mutt and Jeff," the biggest musical comedy hit of a quarter of a century. See it! Everybody does, sooner or later. So will you.

Quite a large crowd attended Protracted meeting at Brick Church Sunday. Rev. Mr. Brown preached in the evening and Rev. Paul Barringer who is assisting in the meeting preached in the morning. Both services were very much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Heritage of Chicago are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Heritage.

Death of Miss Beulah Willis.

Miss Beulah Willis daughter of Mrs. Henry Willis died Tuesday at one o'clock at her home in North Burlington. She had been sick for several weeks with that much dreaded malady typhoid fever. Besides a devoted father she leaves two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Albert Malone of Spencer and Miss Berta Willis and Messrs. Ed. Willis of this place and Lawrence Willis of Richmond, Va. She was nineteen years of age. The funeral services will be conducted this evening at three o'clock at her home by Rev. A. B. Kendall pastor of the Christian church and interment at Pine Hill cemetery. Miss Willis was a young lady of sterling christian character and was a favorite among her many friends. She will be sadly missed in the section which she lived.

R. F. D. No. 7.

Mr. C. L. Sharpe is finishing his house. Mr. O. L. Thomas was a pleasant visitor at Mr. L. E. Sharpe's Sunday. Mr. L. P. Sharpe is not very well. Miss Grace Thompson was a visitor at Mr. Lacy Sharpe's last week. Very little visiting on the route. Everybody appears to be busy.

Third Week of the Hookworm Campaign.

Last week was the third Hookworm Campaign in Alamance County. During the week 478 people were examined for intestinal parasites and 82 were found to be infected and were given treatment. The second series of the work is now being conducted and dispensaries are being held at Mebane, Haw River, Saxapahaw, Fogleman's Store, and Graham. During the week public lectures were given at night at Swepsonville and at Haw River. These were largely attended and much interest was shown by those in attendance. In all, nearly 1400 people have been examined since the dispensaries have been conducted in the county.

Miss Ada Grithrie left the first of the week for Reidsville Seminary where she will spend the scholastic year engaged in teaching.

The Way It Goes.

"Well, George," said the president of the company to old George, "how goes it?" "Fair to middlin," sir," George answered. And he continued to curry-comb a bay horse. "Me and this here hoss," George said, suddenly, "has worked for your firm sixteen years." "Well, well," said the president, thinking a little guiltily of George's $7 salary. "And I supposed you are both pretty highly valued, George, eh?" "H'm" said George, "the both of us was took sick last week, and they got a doctor for the hoss, but they just docked my pay."—Woman's Home Companion.
