The Alamance Fair.

The Alamance Fair has numerous attractions this week and considered by many that have visited one of the best fairs that have been pulled off in this county for a number of years. The exhibits are exceptionally fine. The Midway has better attractions than usual. The racing is considered by all equal to what is seen many times at State Fairs. If you are interested in the productions raised on the farm, you should visit the fair. If you are a dead game sport and your blood runs at a 2:40 gate through your veins as the race-horse being pulled off you should visit the fair. If you do not know that you know all there is to be learned and would like to visit the museum of education have a day off and go to the fair.

The colored teachers association of the county holds its first meeting of the year in Graham on Saturday Oct. 11th at 11:00 a. m. Prof. N. C. Newbold, State supervisor of Colored Schools, will address the meeting. Every colored teacher is expected to be present.

Letter From Joe Frazier.

Mr. Editor:
Please allow me space in your paper to report my visit as representative of your paper to one of the most progressive and up to date communities of our country. I refer to Saxapahaw R. F. D. I find that these people are keeping abreast with the times, as most of them have nice homes to live in, and those who have not are contemplating building in the near future. Mr. W. H. Sebane has a nice two story house which is nearing completion. Your representative spent a couple of hours with Mr. W. J. Kiddie who is an up to date farmer. The work of ginning cotton seems to require most of the time of Mr. J. C. Thompson. Mr. J. C. McBane paid up his sin of omission by subscribing for The State Dispatch, he runs a cotton gin and saw mill and is also going to install a roller mill which is needed to make the community complete. I spent a most enjoyable night with Mr. S. M. Lewis. Mr. Lewis is a man with a large family of children who have the appearance of being well raised. He too is trying to educate his children. One of his daughters is teaching school in Wake county. Mr. Lewis is a progressive farmer, he reports a good wheat crop, and is counting on from eight to eleven bales of cotton. He is also planning to build a nice residence in the near future. His home abounds in the old time hospitality. After my trip through this fine territory I stopped over at Swepsonville and spent Sunday, attending Sabbath school at the Baptist church which was largely attended. After Sunday School I attended the old time revival meeting which is in progress at the M. E. Church. The Lord is greatly blessing all who attend. Mr. A. L. Baker is planning to send his employees to the Barnum Bally Circus at Greensboro October 10th, of which I will give a full account next week.

Vote Unanimously To Accept Proposal.

Raleigh, Oct. 6.—House and senate Democrats in caucus tonight voted unanimously to accept the proposition submitted by the carriers for a settlement of the western rates, voted 40 to 37 against creating two new members to the corporation commission and voted unanimously to provide the commission with a rate expert. This action was taken after the governor, specially invited to address the caucus advocated the addition of two new members as a great achievement, but not as a reflection on the commission, whose members he gave full credit for their work in a great achievement. The action of the caucus is not binding, but it probably represents the sentiment of the legislature.

Is Craig After Overman's Job?

Raleigh, N. C.—That Governor Craig will be a candidate for United States senator to succeed Senator Lee S. Overman many politicians hereabouts say there is no doubt. The probate settlement of the freight rate situation with satisfaction to the governor what the politicians call "position." First he is a western man, and the west is entitled to the senator, the east having one in Senator Simmons. Second, Governor Craig has many strong friends who did not approve of the way Senator Overman stood off in the last contest and allowed Congressman Claud Kitchen to use his name in an effort to injure the senior senator. Third, Governor Craig will emerge from the rate fight a great big man, or he will not.

If he gets through the fight with credit to himself and his administration—and his friends say there is no doubt of this—he will be in the position to reap most from the field. The Governor was the first state executive ever to start something really looking to a settlement of freight rates. None of the other governors made a beginning in that line.

Representative E. J. Justice of Guilford has been a fighter, too, but it is apparent on its face that he would not have the position occupied by Governor Craig.

The governor in his message beat Mr. Justice to freight rates, and through the corporation commission, Mr. Craig has secured a proposition that he believes is a start in the right direction. The other commission failed.

"The Little Millionaire"

"The Little Millionaire" presented at the Casino Friday night without question was one of the best theatrical shows that has visited this town for quite a while. This show presented to the people good clean amusement which would come as near satisfying the persons who are looking for amusement as is generally found. In connection with the play quite a number of songs were used, each making a hit by being used at the proper time.

Romanizing America.

We hear a great deal being said these days to the effect that the Roman Catholic church is seeking to supplant Protestantism in America and bring the United States under the power of the pope. Without stopping here to argue the merits or demerits of either Romanism or Protestantism, The Yellow Jacket declares, without fear of successful contradiction, that if these allegations are true, that we have in the Presidential chair just created the sort of a man

Roman Catholic. He may not wear a crucifix and he may not attend mass, but he is the avowed champion of a policy more conducive to the spread of the Catholic religion than a southeast Georgia swamp is to the propagation of mosquitoes.

"By their fruits ye shall know them." "By throwing down the tariff bars and inviting the nations of the earth to come into the United States with their cheap wares and merchandise, he in like manner, invites the cheap emigrant, because it is an invariable rule that emigration follows the tide of trade, and three-fourths of the emigrants to this country are Roman Catholics. And again, we are bound to admit that Free Trade means that the American manufacturer, to hold his own, will resort to cheaper labor, thus driving out the higher priced workman and filling their places with cheaper labor from the old countries, thus will the mills, mines and factories gradually be filled with immigrant labor while the American workman will be driven into other lines of employment. We have noted how railroad and coal companies during the times of high wages, resort to the method of importing foreigners because they will work cheaper than Americans. Thus, Free Trade, in less than five years, will add at least a half million Catholics to our population. And no one doubts for a minute that President Wilson is the strongest antagonist of the Protective Tariff idea in the known world. We have no doubt but that Woodrow Wilson would get down on his allfours and kiss the pope's growing toe nail if he thought that would permanently establish Free Trade in the United States. At any rate, we know he was so determined to show partiality to Rome that he selected and appointed a Roman Catholic as his private secretary, thus ignoring over twenty million communicants of the Protestant churches and singled out a man from an organization that cast less than a million votes.

Thus summed up, we see that Free Trade Roman and Catholicism go hand in hand. Protection is a patriotic protest of American people against the industrial slavery and low wages of other countries, just as a Protestantism was a protest against the domination of the Church of Rome. No intelligent man will dare dispute this proposition.

So, Mr. Protestant Democrat, if there is to be an "Romanizing" of the United States, and we hear it on every side that there is, then just remember if you please, that Woodrow Wilson is "the greatest Roman of them all." He is preparing the biggest dose of Free Trade that was ever stuffed down the throats of a majority of the people of this country and he is the first President of the United States to place a Roman Catholic in his private office in the White House to open and read his mail and answer his letters.

SCHOOL NEWS

The first teachers meeting of the year which was held last Saturday was a complete success. Miss Reinhardt, the county Supervisor for white schools read a paper on "Some things a Rural teacher may do" that was full of practical instruction for the improvement of the various phases of school life.

Dr. Harper, Pres. of Elon College, made a most excellent address on "Teaching the Lesson." It was clear pointed and practical. The kind of address the teacher could take home with her and use.

Many plans for the years work was given out by the Supt. and discussed.

The interest manifested by the large number of teachers present 72 in number was very gratifying. It indicates promising hopes for a successful school year.

The Glenco school is adding a new room to their house. This will make for that place a conveniently arranged two room house which they expect to paint and equip properly through out.

The Friendship school will have on the 25 of October, a district fair on the school grounds. A complete premium list has been issued for the occasion. This list comprises the following departments: Farm crops, Live, Stock, Poultry, Orchard, Cooking, pantry, sewing, Flowers and Miscellaneous Directors have been appointed for each department and a complete program for the day arranged. Gov. Locke Craig will be the orator of the day.

Sulzer Wanted To Negotiate Bargain With Boss Murphy.

Albany, Oct. 7.—Governor Sulzer recently attempted to negotiate a bargain with Charles F. Murphy, Tammany Hall leader, to have his impeachment trial "called off"—so Allan A. Ryan, son of the New York, financier and traction magnate, testified at the trial today.

If Murphy was willing to "get his following to vote that the assembly had no right to impeach him," the governor according to Ryan, "was willing to do whatever was right."

The testimony preceded the calling by the defense of Louis A. Sarecky, the governor's campaign secretary, and other witnesses.

Sarecky, a youth of 27, shouldered the blame for the commission of unreported contributions from the governor's campaign that he, an alien, born in Russia and never naturalized had been promoted from the position of the governor's stenographer to the head of the deportation bureau of the state hospital commission.

Ryan's story of the governor's alleged effort to make peace with the leader of Tammany Hall was his second recital of an attempt on the part of the governor to obtain political influence to stop the trial. Ryan testified Monday that Sulzer had asked him to persuade United States Senator Elihu Root to get the New York Republican state chairman, William Barnes, Jr. to influence the Republican members of the court of impeachment to vote the impeachment trial illegal.

The latter testimony was stricken out by a vote of the court, 32 to 18 but today on motion of Elon R. Brown, the senate Republican leader, the court in executive session reconsidered its action and by a vote of 41 to 14 decided to admit the testimony and open the door for the remainder of the young financiers story.

Ryan took the stand immediately after the secret session. He said that Sulzer had asked him to obtain the offices of Delancey Nicoll, attorney for the elder Ryan, as a "go-between" in the proposed negotiations with the Tammany leader. This request, he said the governor made a week before the impeachment trial began and in the governor's New York office. Ryan said he made no effort to see Mr. Nicoll.

Ryan, did however, make an effort of his own, he said, to "sound the Republican sentiment." This, he said, he testified, through a friend.

It appeared from his testimony that his friend had seen Chairman Barnes and obtained from him a statement "that the Republican organization would do nothing."

Sarecky, much heralded as the governor's star witness, took the stand amid a craning of necks and a buzz of interest. He spoke in a light piping voice and his answers came without hesitation.

"We received either from armmany Hall or from the secretary of State," began Sarecky, "a blank form in which a statement was to be made out of receipts and expenditures of campaign funds."

The question came up as to whether the committee of the governor's friends, of which I was treasurer, had the right to file a statement, inasmuch as it had neglected, or some one had neglected on behalf of the committee, to file with the secretary of state a notice to the effect that such a committee had been formed. So some one suggested that I take the matter up with Mr. Sulzer. I went into his room and told him of the quandary we were in and he said: "Well make up the statement anyway, it does not matter very much who signs it as long as we comply with the spirit of the law." So I went outside and then work on the statement.

Burlington Tobacco Market.

Good lively sales continue from day to day at the three tobacco warehouses in the city that the farmers get better prices and better accommodations when selling tobacco on the Burlington market is evident by the fact that such a large number have been on the market for the last week or ten days although many of the farmers are busy preparing ground and sowing wheat and have not begun stripping tobacco. Enough are selling to make sales lively each day. That much interest is manifested in the Burlington tobacco market can easily be understood when the list of premiums to be given away by the committee which is published in this paper is noticed. Every farmer who raises tobacco should compete for these beautiful prizes which will be given away absolutely free. Come bring your next load of tobacco to Burlington. Sell as

The passage of the bill in the Senate is hailed by Democrats all over the country as the fulfillment of their platform and campaign pledges. There is no question that in one respect that is true. The Democrats pledged themselves in their national platform and on the stump all over the country to revise the tariff downward and to make a substantial reduction in the existing rates of duty. They surely have done that. Their bill as it stands, effects a reduction of about 25 percent. The average ad valorem duty under the Payne-Aldrich law is something over 50 percent. Under the Wilson-Underwood law it will be less than 25 percent. The cut is made all down the line. It affects every schedule except those dealing with pure luxuries. It is a genuine far-reaching and effective reduction, and that part of the Democratic promise is fulfilled.

But the country is much more interested in seeing whether or not the measure will prove an equal fulfillment of the other part of the Democratic tariff pledges. By the most important part of their tariff promise to the country was the constant and widely made pledge by the Democrats that through this reduction in tariff rates they would bring down the cost of living, which now burdens so tremendously the great wage-working population of the country. The real test of the Wilson-Underwood law will be found in its effect or lack of effect on the high cost of living. The bill has found its popularity in the country almost wholly because of the Democratic promise to cut the cost of living. This is the chief issue in the country today. The demand is well-high universal for relief from this burden. The Democrats assured the country that the tariff exactions of the standpat Republicans were the chief cause of the high cost of living. They reiterated their promise of relief on every platform throughout the campaign. Within the last ten days no less a Democratic authority than Speaker Clark has repeated the promise, making it specifically for this bill. Now, the time has come for fulfillment. The new bill will go into effect in all its provisions within a short time. If the Democratic promise was true, if makes understood the problem they professed to know how to solve if they were statement and economists and not mere blatant demagogues blathering for office, prices for food and clothing and the necessities of life are about the fall and relief is at hand for the ultimate consumer.

If these things come to pass then the Democrats will have earned and be entitled to their reward.

If they do not come to pass also the Democrats will have earned and be entitled to their reward. But it will be a different reward.

YOU CAN'T EAT APPETITE POOR

Multitudes of people lose their appetite. Simply don't care for anything to eat. The dinner bell has no interest to them. They loathe their breakfast. They may nibble a little of this and a little of that, but they do not care for it.

Lunch has lost all of its charms, although they try to eat something. Dinner about the same.

There is something positively wrong, of course, but no disease that can be named. Just out of sorts. That is all.

It is in this kind of a condition that Peruna acts very beneficially.

After using Peruna, interest in food is revived. Beginning with a teaspoonful of Peruna before each meal will generally quickly improve the appetite and help the digestion.

Thousands of people can testify to this. Liberated from a slavery that is almost unbearable. The slavery of having no interest in life. All used up. Yet one does not know exactly why. Take Peruna before each meal. Skies will get blue again. Fields will look green once more and life will be pleasant. You will feel that you are good for something and the world is a good place to live in. Peruna will do it. Not as an artificial stimulant. Simply a tonic that stimulates appetite in a natural way.

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. It stops the Cough and Headache and works off the Cold. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature on each box. 25c.

Whole Family Benefited By Wonderful Remedy

There are many little things to annoy us, under present conditions of life. The hurry, hard work, noise and strain all tell on us and tend to provoke nervousness and irritability. We are frequently so worn out we can neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. We are out of line with ourselves and others as well.

A good thing to do under such circumstances is to take something like to relieve the strain on the nerves. Mrs. J. B. Hartsfield, 82 Plum St., Atlanta Ga., writes:

"I have on several occasions been greatly relieved by the use of your medicines, especially the Anti-Pain Pills which I keep constantly on hand for the use of myself, husband and two sons. Nothing in the world equals them as a headache remedy. Often I am enabled by the use of one or two of the Pills to continue my housework when otherwise I would be in bed. My husband joins me in my praise of the Anti-Pain Pills and Nerveine."

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

are relied upon to relieve pain, nervousness and irritability in thousands of households. Of proven merit after twenty years' use, you can have no reason for being longer without them.

Landmarks of Typewriter Progress

Such are all the recent developments of the

Remington

(Visible Models 10 and 11)

Among these developments are:

The Built-in Decimal Tabulator—which makes the decimal tabulating mechanism an integral part of the typewriter.
The Tabulator Set Key—which eliminates all hand setting of the tabulator stops.
The Column Selector—which determines, by the stroke of a single key, the exact point on each line where the writing is to begin.
The Adding and Subtracting Remington (Wahl Mechanism)—which combines in one typewriter, and in one operation, the functions of the adding machine and the adding machine.

Every one of these new developments is an evidence of the perpetual leadership of the Remington Typewriter. Illustrated booklet descriptive of all recent Remington improvements, sent on request.

His chief interest probably lies in the proposed penetration of the interior of Brazil with a party of fellow naturalist under auspices of the American museum of natural history, but the earlier part of the six months which he will spend in South America will be devoted to addresses upon American democracy, which has been invited to deliver before universities and other bodies.

A trip into Patagonia to visit an out of the way mission and two crossing of the continent to Santiago de Chile and back to Buenos Ayres will be other features of his journey.

Those who are in the colonels' party include Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Margaret Roosevelt, who will make the round trip on the Van Dyck; Anthony Fiela, the Polar explorer, who has charge of the expedition's equipment; C. K. Cherry and Leo L. Miller, naturalists of the American museum of natural history; Frank Harper, Colonel Roosevelt's secretary and the Rev. Father John Augustine Zahn, provincial of the order of the Holy Cross, a former field companion of the colonel.

The naturalist will start into the interior shortly after their arrival in Brazil, to be joined by the colonel after he has finished his lectures, which will be in December. It will probably be April before the party returns to civilization.

The steamer Van Dyck on board which Col. Roosevelt and party sailed Saturday for South America carries 300 tons of choice New England and Canadian apples to be sold in Buenos Ayres. Although the colonel could buy the same apples at Broadway fruit stands at five cents or less apiece he will find that the apples will cost him 20 cents in the Argentine capital where select North American apples are highly valued. The apple shipment is carried in the same compartment from which the first shipment of Argentine beef to this country was unloaded here recently.

Ten Million Lost.

It is estimated that ten million dollars was lost to the government in tariff duties the first day the new democratic tariff bill became a law, there were more than a hundred million dollars worth of merchandise waiting for the bill to become a law so that it could be bought in under the new law, if this vast sum of merchandise would have come in under the republican tariff law, the importers would have had to pay ten million dollars more import duty than they did pay, our democratic friends contend that this sum means a saving to the consumer, but the republican party contends that it only means a greater profit to the importer and a corresponding loss to the American workingman in time and wages, the more goods the foreigner sells to this country, the less demand for American products and in the end the workingman will be the loser, because the mill or factory where he works cannot find a sale for the goods the workman makes and therefore cannot run full time or if full time at reduced wages, we cannot get away from the facts that if you buy a hundred million dollars worth of foreign made goods we have the goods and the foreigner has the money, buy if we buy a hundred million dollars worth of American made goods, we have both the goods and the money.

Now A Law.

The democratic tariff bill has now become a law, and the country will watch the effect of its operations with interest, if it proves to be a good measure the country will applaud, but if it proves disastrous to the present era of prosperity woe to the party who passed it.

A Hundred Million.

A hundred million dollars of foreign made goods was dumped upon the American people last Friday Oct. 3rd, following the passage of the democratic tariff bill, when this hundred million has been distributed it will take the place of a hundred million dollars worth of American made goods, and yet there are those who say, the passage of this bill will not injure the American workingman, tell it not in Gath, for are from Missouri and will have to be shown.

More Paved Streets.

The City Aldermen at their meeting Monday night, passed an order to pave Rail Road Avenue from South Burlington, Methodist Protestant chapel on East side to Aurora Mills, and from Aurora Mills upon the west side to John Q. Gants corner this work was badly needed and the board are to be commended for ordering this work done immediately. Dr. Fawcette the Progressive member of the board also secured an order from the board to have Main Street from the passenger station to the Alamance Loan & Trust Co, Macadamized with Tarvie or some other standard material. Work to begin in the early spring or not later than April 1st. The Dr. insisted that this work ought to be done right away, but some of the others thought that it was now too late to get good results and this sentiment finally prevailed. The matter of widening Worth street was debated thoroughly but the board was so badly divided that they were unable to agree, but the former action of the board was reversed and the matter now stands as before. There are many who think that the boards action in rescinding the former order to widen was a grave mistake, the board may later realize this and again order the work done. It is a matter for serious thought and they should weigh the matter carefully before it is to late.

Mitchel Attacks Chas. F. Murphy.

New York.—John Purroy Mitchel, fusion candidate for mayor, and other fusion candidates tonight were formally notified of their nomination. Mr. Mitchel opening the campaign with an attack on Chas. F. Murphy in connection with the Sulzer impeachment proceedings, told the audience that packed Cooper Union that Tammany is the issue the city faces.
Henry L. Stimson, formerly secretary of war, presided and Timothy Woodruff, Norman Hapwood, chairman of the fusion committee, and others spoke. A sensational episode of the meeting was the sudden serious illness of Mr. Woodruff stricken with paralysis and was removed to his home.
"Never in its long and sordid history," Mr. Mitchel said, discussing Tammany, has there been an attempt by Tammany that equalled in audacity the effort that is under way. At Albany we have the spectacle of the boss reaching into the State House to thrust a governor from his chair in order that Tammany and Tammany's ring may lay plundering hands upon the government and contracts the State."
Mr. Mitchel also said the police situation is an issue, declaring Tammany is in partnership with the "system."

ROOSEVELT DEPARTS FOR SOUTH AMERICA

New York, Oct. 4.—Theodore Roosevelt set out today for the second time since he left the White House, upon a long journey into the South American hemisphere.

The sailing of the Lamport and Holt line steamship Van Dyck upon which he booked passage for South America was timed 1 o'clock but the former President and members of his party were astir early with final preparations for embarking. Like his East African trip the South American journey is undertaken with the Colonel proposing to make it one of many aspects aside from the pleasure of it.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting articles from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Theford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Theford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

Reveille.

It has come at last! We knew it was about due, for the next campaign is a scant year away, and it is time for the legions to rise and arm themselves for the combat. Therefore we are not surprised that one of our political bards, the trumpeters of the battle of ballots, last week set his buglehorn to his lips and blew a mighty blast, whose echoes we are confident will ring from the cloud-capped peaks of Murphy to the white-caps of far Manteo, from this earthly paradise that men call Greensboro to that other place, that they dare not describe, but simply name Charlotte.

Reveille has sounded. Now listen for the answering notes from every eminence where some musician, of the various corps may have waiting for its ringing challenge.

It was from the tent of Brother Howard Banks that the call came. True that hero no longer lies within, but his bugle is still on the job. Like the modest inspiritor of the fighters that he is, he forbore to give name or address, but plunged into the heart of the call at once. Hear ye him: Where, where will William Bryan

When Woodrow's term shall end? We will wait and watch and see, Great things on him depend.

He'll lecture on the government, His salary to supplement, Then he'll cross-purpose Wilson's plan

Before the term shall end? Where, where will be our dear Bob Glenn

When Woodrow's term shall end? Standard of combination men, Great things on him depend. He galavants from state to state, With oily tongue, of love he prats Of love for all from east to west He sure will love Bob Glenn the best

When Woodrow's term shall end.

Our dear old South is in it some, Our state is growing fine, Producing much great men, by gum,

Tar pitch and turpentine. We'll have our Overman and Simmons,

Frank Houston, Webb and Daniels Joe, And many very worthy sons, When Woodrow's term shall end.

Where'll be the dear old solid South, When Woodrow's term expires? Consumed and eat by its own mouth

And its internal fires, But we will have the Hupmobile, Baseball and moving picture reel.

The laymen's movement will reveal All things. By by! this is my spiel

When Woodrow's term shall end. Greensboro News.

Woman Gets Divorce From Ninth Husband.

Oregon City, Ore., Oct. 4.—Woman's rights asserted themselves in a new way when Mrs. Ellen Deering Grangrow of Pendleton obtained a divorce from her ninth husband, Grant Nichols Grangrow, and voluntarily settled $2,000 on him as "alimony."

In receiving the decree Mrs. Grangrow was successfully only after four attempts. She had sought the degree twice in Multnomah and once at Marion and Clackamas counties. She charged willful desertion.

Both she and her divorced husband are Indians. Mrs. Grangrow has about $8,000 in her own name and is sixty three years old. Mr. Grangrow is fifty nine years old.

In her eventful embarkments on the sea of matrimony for nine different voyages Mrs. Grangrow has lost four mates through the stormy divorce court passages and five have been taken through death.
