The Chicago Sunday Tribune
The World's Greatest Newspaper
(Trade-Mark Registered)

The 1913 All-Star cast employed by The Chicago Sunday Tribune proves that this paper stands SUPREME—at the top of the list of the world's Sunday newspapers.

Never, since the first Sunday newspaper was printed, has there been gathered together so great a staff of star writers and artists.

These world-famous contributors are not, nor can they be, duplicated in prominence and achievement in any ten Sunday papers published on the American continent.

If each copy of The Chicago Sunday Tribune were made in a size to correspond with the standard magazines of today it would require and would be three times the size of the regular standard magazine. Then, remember that The Chicago Sunday Tribune costs less than one-tenth of what you pay for three magazines.

But, never did any ten magazines offer you such a galaxy of headlines. Look through the pages of the leading magazines, compare their authors and artists with those of The Chicago Sunday Tribune, and satisfy yourself on this point.

In addition to the contributions of this all-star cast of writers and artists in every issue of The Chicago Sunday Tribune, you get fifty to sixty feature articles by from fifty to sixty writers whose words are an admitted authority upon the themes on which they write; every item of interest worth printing from every spot on the globe—the cream of the world's doings, both in our own America and foreign lands, furnished by every reliable news-gathering agency known to modern newspaperdom.

For nearly 65 years The Chicago Tribune has been the ideal newspaper of newspaper makers and the discriminating EVERYWHERE.

Buy It Every and Sunday Too!

From the first page to the last The Chicago Sunday Tribune is perfectly printed from large, clear, easily-read type; its color work, of which there are many pages, is a beautiful example of rapid press work and the many striking half-tone and line drawings with which its columns are illustrated are surpassed by no newspaper published in the English language and are equaled by few.

IF YOU VOTED RIGHT YOU ARE RIGHT IN IT.

If Not, They Don't Sell Return-Trip Tickers Out of Washington City.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Everything around Washington is beginning to bear a Democratic mark. The Wilson administration grinds slowly, but like the gods, it grinds exceedingly small. One by one the Republicans go.

There has come a great change about the House and the Senate and the House and Senate office buildings. Four years ago, when the House became Democratic, the Republican elevator men, door-keepers, and other employes took back seats rapidly for the members of the House are so close to the boys in the trenches that they become partisans from necessity.

The Senate Democrats came into their own last Spring, but the process of weeding out Republicans was very slow, lest the country "halloo" "spoils."

Some Senators — especially good Southern Senators, who take their Democracy straight without trimmings—were perfectly willing to have a house-cleaning, but they did not want to offend colleagues from the West and East, who count on all sorts and colors and conditions of voters for election and the President, who would move slowly, distributing patronage. The Southerners did not want to appear in indecent haste.

It has long been foreseen that the Republicans must go. Civil Service regulations protect only those persons who have walked the straight and narrow way without turning to the right or the left. A man or woman cannot be dismissed for being a Republican or a Democrat, but he or she may fall before charges.

Those conversant with the facts in a North Carolina postoffice case will not forget the details. Five men, four Republicans and one Democrat, stood the examination for the postoffice in a village. The Democrat got the job.

After the Civil Service examinations the three highest graded are certified for the job. A kind word from a Congressman would help the poorest of the three (that is, according to examination papers) and get him the job if he is all right generally speaking. In the case of the five candidates for the North Carolina postoffice the Democrat fell fifth. Charges were made against the leading candidates and the Democrat came in after they were eliminated.

The truth is, and those who have watched it for years know it, that the party that is in can always turn the other party out. Democrats naturally feel that the charge of Republicanism is enough to damn a Republican. The Republicans thought and acted that way toward the Democrats for 15 or 16 years. The shoe is on the other foot now.

For more than a decade certain well-kept, fat, slowly-moving Republican men manned elevators, watched doors and kept to the pie counter on the Senate side in various other pleasant jobs. Those fellows have disappeared now, and Democrats, some of them as green as new gourds, but otherwise all right, are in their places.

A negro man who used to serve as clerk and messenger for a new England congressman is now sweeping the walks on the capitol grounds. This man frequently walked home from the office with the Congressman's daughter.

In some of the departments the Republicans cling like sick kittens to hot bricks.

Many senators complain that Secretary Houston will not favor a Democrat over a Republican. For this un-Democrat-like behavior, Mr. Houston is charged with being more of a school teacher than a politician. But before it is over, the men at the Capitol end of the administration will find a way to reach him. No Cabinet member can stand for long against the Senate and House Appropriations Committee.

Not long ago Secretary Redfield, of the Department of Commerce, notified Senator Overman that he was going to move the lightship from Wilmington 30 miles out to sea.

Senator Overman had fought many years for that lightship, and did not propose to have it moved if he could help it. Secretary Redfield announced from amidst his fine set of red whiskers, that he would carry out his original intention. Senator Overman told him to do his utmost. The other day Secretary Redfield notified Mr. Overman that he had changed his mind. So it goes.

Those members of the Cabinet who persist in promoting Republicans and favoring them over Democrats under a Democratic Administration will meet with a great many trials and downfalls.

Southerners are leaders in the fight for "the fodder for the horse that pulled the plow."

Many Westerners think that a Republican looks like a pretty good Democrat. In one or more instances, in the Senate office building, the clerk that formerly served a Republican Senator now serves a Democrat who defeated him.

None of that sort of thing for the men from Dixie.

The Southern influence has made itself felt in the House and the Senate, and it will make itself felt in every department in Washington before the Democrats go out. Nine Republicans to one Democrat was the GALLEY TWO IF YONU VOTED RINE up under the Civil Service when the Democrats came in power. Many who had been faithful Republicans before that time turned into "faithful" Democrats at once.

Daniel Russell, once governor of North Carolina, in a speech at Statesville, said that a man who would be fool enough to buy a home in North Carolina while the Democrats were in power would be fool enough to buy a plot of land in torment for a Summer resort. The Republican who banks on holding a job under a Democratic Administration would undertake to life himself by the straps of his boots.

Is Bryan too Modest to be Called the Next President?

Philadelphia, Dec. 6.—When former Congressman L. Irving Handy, of Delaware introduced Secretary of State William J. Bryan to the guests at the annual dinner of the Sons of Delaware, here tonight as the "next President of the United States," Mr. Bryan told the diners that he hoped they would not treasure up against Mr. Handy the "political indiscretion" he had just committed. "He means Well," said Mr. Bryan, "and it only indicates how a habit he learned 17 years ago becomes fixed."

"I believe the toastmaster is of the opinion of many others," Mr. Bryan continued, "that my highest ambition has been to become President of the United States. That is not so. From my earliest manhood I have held a higher ambition. I have considered that office only as a means to an end. I consider no one worthy of occupy that high office who is not more interested in the things that can be accomplished than in the fame that it brings."

"I am happy, and I want you all to believe me when I say so, to see those things so near my heart being done by another, happier than if I were in that place."

"I am happy to see a nation of people changing its point of view and adopt those things which have always been close to my heart."

The young ladies can help along the boycott on eggs: "Lips that touch eggs shall never touch mine."

The Lay of the Egg.
Little Egg, you've gone so far
That I wonder where you are.
Lately, when I heard of you,
You had just reached thirty-two.
Now, the eggman says to me,
You have soared to forty-three.
Tell me, have you reached the top?
Aintchevergonnastop?

If the eggman spoke the truth
Mine must be an eggless youth.
Eggless hence must be mid sham-
Poo as well as breakfast ham.
Eggless spinach, tartar steak,
Omelette, eggnog, angel-cake;
Eggless even vest and chin.
Little egg, it is a sin.

Has your heart turned into ice
In cold storage? Don't the cries
Of an eggless multitude
Throw you in a pensive mood?
Stop sky-touring, I beseech,
And come back within our reach.
Child and mother of the hen,
Scramble down to earth again!

Hammer's Friends Get Active For Him.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Friends of W. C. Hammer, realizing that the protests lodged against his appointment at the Department of Justice made an impression on the Attorney General, became very active today. Senator Overman filed at the department many letters in support of Mr. Hammer. The brief accompanying the endorsements made of the following claims for the Ashboro candidate for district attorney:

That those for him are—four out of five North Carolina Supreme Court judges, before whom he has practiced; 14 judges and 10 justices of the Superior Court before whom he has practiced; five ex-members of Congress, all prominent lawyers; one ex-Lieutenant Governor; one ex-State Superintendent of Public Instruction; five presidents of leading colleges in the state; 36 editors; 133 lawyers, confined largely to the Western District; 500 or more personal endorsements from solicitors, ex-solicitors, state and county officials, ministers, and physicians, bankers and merchants, farmers mechanics, cotton mill and various other business men. Numerous petitions signed by approximately 4,500 lawyers, farmers, teachers and college professors, min-business men, are also shown.

The politicians in congress, and this includes practically all, will play for party advantage even if they never give the people what they need.

A PERSONAL APPEAL.

The Twice-A-Week Dispatch, formerly The State Dispatch, has assumed obligations of more than four thousand dollars for new and modern machinery, in order to be able to issue the paper twice a week. To wait seven days in this progressive age for the news, is not debateable from any standpoint, and in a few years even a twice a week will be a back number. In this large expenditure for up-to-date equipment, we have counted upon the loyal support of our friends and readers. We want to ask every body of every shade of political opinion, and even those who have no opinions of their own, to help us make this venture a success. Mr. Democrat, we want you. Mr. Progressive, we expect you! Mr. Republican, we must have you as a subscriber and patron. We ask every one who wishes us well to send us one, two, three, four or five dollars upon subscription. If you are not a subscriber, become one, if you are not an advertiser, begin now. We want you and must have you. Do not wait for some one to ask you or beg you to help us. Do not wait for us to hunt you up. Do not wait for us to come to see you. This would be a big job and cost money, see our solicitor, send it by some friend, but best of all call to see us, and give us a cheering word, by pledging your support. We want a large boosting family of well-wishers as readers and advertisers, the grouch and knocker has no standing in our family. If you do not wish us well, if you are not a sympathetic friend and helper, stop your paper and get outside the firing line, there is no room for you in this great, grand and onward march of progressive thought and action; get out of the way or you will get run over by this thunderous rush of friends and sympathizers. Who will be first, show your interest in a substantial way.

NEW MACHINERY.

The News and The Dispatch have both installed new machinery to facilitate the method of getting out the paper. Our esteemed contemporary, The News was already the proud possessor of an up-to-date press and folder, now having added a type-setting machine (The Intertype) of the latest model, The News is in a position to get out their paper as neat and as quickly as any weekly paper in the State. Brother Crowson deserves great credit for the many improvements made in The News since he has taken charge the last time. His paper is a credit to the town, county and state. He has labored in season and out for the upbuilding of this community. He has built more miles of railroads and street car lines, more factories, and other manufacturing plants than forty other editors of the State, if all that he has promoted did not materialize it was not his fault, he furnished the suggestions, gas and enthusiasm without stint, never faltering when the bubbles would burst, only to supply himself with more and larger bubbles for the next enterprise. We want to say here, while there is no heat of a political campaign near, Mr. Crowson deserves patronage and a great bunch of it, for his untiring efforts in behalf of his community, to our way of thinking he has made mistakes, but they were of a political nature, and for which he should not be held accountable, in our opinion he would not say aught of any man except in the heat of a political campaign, and then only for temporary political advantage or expediency, but back to the main argument. This town, this county, this State, these United States, wants to see the newspapers prosper. It is to the nation's interest that they prosper. We want to see The News prosper, and while it prospers, The Dispatch desires to share in the prosperity to the extent of receiving our share of the patronage. We do not want to prosper at the expense of our neighbor, but we want to prosper along with it. We hope to see The News advocate the principles and doctrines some day that The Dispatch advocates. We may never see it, but we shall have hopes to the very end. We are together now in matters of City, County, State and Nation (not political) both stand for the highest moral uplift, then why not, when our neighbor finally sees the complete error of his way come to our rescue, advocating the things we advocate? Standing shoulder to shoulder for the re-instatement of the protective tariff which insures prosperity to this nation and a living wage to the American workingman. But again back to the subject. The Dispatch has consigned its old outfit to the second hand junk dealer, installed the only brand new press ever in Burlington or Company Shops, also a new folder attached to the press, where a blank paper upon one side is fed in the press and comes out printed and folded ready for mailing. All the type is set by a Mergenthaler Linotype machine, where you pour hot metal into it, and there comes a line of type ready for the press. All this cost money, lots of money, and again The Dispatch is now a full-fledged twice-a-week paper, issued every Tuesday and Friday, at the same subscription price of one dollar per year. A great many other weeklies and semi-weeklies have advanced, or are going to advance their subscription price more than fifty per cent. but The Dispatch hopes with the aid of its friends and those who believe in progress, to keep its subscription price the same, but we must have patronage and lots of it. Will not the progressive and public spirited people of this city, county, state and nation rally to the support of The Twice-a-Week Dispatch and help the management make it a success? We have staked our all upon this venture and if disaster comes we will be found upon the firing line. Can we count upon your support?

BOUNCING THE RADICALS.

It seems that the administration is bent upon getting rid of all the Republican office-holders. Those who fail to resign are removed for some cause or other. The latest sacrifice is J. S. Basnight, of Newbern, N. C. The offense for which Post Master Basnight was removed is Discharging an Inefficient Night Clerk who was a Democrat. The postoffice department ordered this democrat reinstated and this Basnight refused to do, whereupon he was given the grand bounce. If this inefficient clerk was not classified Mr. Basnight acted within his rights but if classified then he was guilty of insubordination as charged, anyway they are all slated to go, if not in one way, then some other. The remaining Republican officials will await with interest the final outcome of this controversy. The old slogan "Few Die, None Resign," is changed to read: "Those Who Do Not Die or Resign Are Removed." Great is civil service! great the Democratic pie-dispensing brigade.

FULSOME PRAISE.

The press of the State is just now most fulsome in its praise of Judge Carter for starting the investigation of the higher-up blind tigers in the City of Asheville. Judge Carter may be entitled to some praise for starting this investigation, but from our point of view he has fallen far short of his duty in the matter of fines and penalty. The fines which he imposed upon these higher-ups are not as much to them as a penny and the costs would be to some poor white man or negro who had dispensed a little of the fiery juicy in order to provide for a large family. These people sold liquor purely for profit. The question of providing for a large family did not enter into their calculations at all, but in their eagerness to make money easy and feeling that they would be shielded by their social standing they dispensed the damnable stuff by the thousands of gallons, their sales amounting to more than a million dollars per year, and when detected, prosecuted and found guilty, this moral and upright judge of whom the whole State is praisny says pay a few thousand and I will let you off, but if some poor white man or negro had sold a half-pint, he would have been given a six-months' sentence and everybody would have applauded, Oh, for a judge who will deal out punishment according to the magnitude of the crime and not according to the standing of the offender. May Judge Carter stiffen his backbone until he can administer justice to the rich and the poor alike.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity Is Here Backed by Burlington Testimony. Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Burlington endorsement. Read the statements of Burlington citizens.

And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it:

Mrs. T. A. Amick, Means Street, Burlington, says: "I like Doan's Kidney Pills and I am glad to tell about the good they did me. My back ached and my sides pained me. I was nervous and my kidneys were weak. When someone told me about Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them. They relieved me in every way."

"When your back is lame—Remember the name." Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Amick had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50 cents all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props. Buffalo, N. Y.

 Stomach, liver and kidney troubles, lame back and female troubles disappear when Electric Bitters are used. Thousands of women would be without a bottle in their home. Pool of Depew, Okla., writes: "Electric Bitters raised me from a state of sickness and suffering and has made a world of good. I wish every suffering woman could use this remedy and find out, as I have, just how good it is." As it has done thousands of others, it surely will do the same for you. Croup and Cough Remedy.
 Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c. and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Desperado Who Murderously Beat Surry Sheriff and Deputy Nearly to Death.

Greensboro, Dec. 6.—A. M. Todd and J. C. Mayes, charged with others who have not been caught, with the assault upon Deputy Sheriff Harkrader and Sheriff Davis, of Surry County, was concluded in Federal Court here today.

Judge Boyd instructed the jury to acquit Mayes, and Todd was convicted. Judge Boyd ordered the defendant into custody and sentence will be passed upon him Monday.

The night on which the assault was committed was a very dark and very dreary one. In the afternoon Deputy Harkrader and Sheriff Davis had gone over near the Virginia line to search for a blockade distillery of the Todds. When they reached the still it was dark and raining. Three men were present working in the still. Frank Brooks and another man who was not recognized escaped but Todd was captured. The posse returned with the officers a few miles and then all left but the deputy and sheriff, who had the prisoner.

When they passed in front of the house of "Dick" Mayes, a party of men moved from behind a small apple or potato house, flashed a lantern in the face of the officers, with pistols pointed in the faces of the officers. Harkrader was knocked down and kicked and made to loosen the handcuffs of the prisoner. Sheriff Davis was knocked down as soon as he alighted from his horse. The prisoner Todd, as soon as he was released, handcuffed the officers. The officers were given the key to the handcuffs and then sent on without their prisoner. Todd was arrested sometime afterward. Mayes was arrested and every effort made to get other members of the party, but until now none of the others have been captured.

Famine of Coal and Provisions.
 Denver, Col., Dec. 6.—Drags carrying coal, sleighs filled with milk cans and wagons laden with provisions, drawn by four and five spans of horses, today were breaking what had begun to be a serious coal and provision famine because of the more than three feet of snow which covered the city and blocked traffic for more than three days.

Street cars were manned for a short distance on one line and many men and some women returned to their homes for the first time since the storm began.

Reports from the State tonight indicate that Cripple Creek, high in the mountains, is in a critical condition from the snow storm that struck that gold mining town last night and this morning. The power plant has burned and the town is in darkness, save the light from candles and coal oil lamps. Fifteen feet of snow covers the district. Six business houses were destroyed by the wind and scores of other dwelling and business houses damaged. A train which left Cripple Creek for Colorado Springs on Thursday is snow bound at Summit, one of the highest points in the traveling section of the Rocky Mountains. A relief party left Colorado Springs today on snow shoes and skis carrying provisions, and it is hoped that they will be able to reach the train and get enough food to the crew and passengers to maintain life until they can be rescued.

Many reports of missing men were received in Colorado Springs today from the mountain points and rescue parties led by United States forest rangers have gone in search of the missing.

Railroad traffic in the state was much better today and by tomorrow it is believed the schedules will become much nearer normal in all directions.
