Mr. John B. Cheek, of Burlington, spent several days last week on a visit to his father, Mr. B. R. Cheek, in Calvander neighborhood. We learn that Mr. Cheek has sold his drug business at Burlington, on account of ill health, and will come back to his old home to spend a year or so on the farm, hoping to regain his health.—Chapel Hill News.

Secretary Bryan must be surprised to see that after all Wall Street has not been wiped out. It has turned up again as sassy as ever.

SOCIETY EVENTS OF BURLINGTON.

Burlington, April 16.—Thursday afternoon of last week Mrs. E. S. W. Damerson entertained the Embroidery Club at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Lasley. Mrs. Damerson, assisted by Mrs. Paul Morgan, served lots of good things to eat. In addition to the club members, Mesdames Ernest Sellers and J. W. Lasley were present.

Mrs. T. S. Faucette was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon Study Club this week. This was the regular monthly meeting scheduled for April and the following program was carried out:

Subject, "Alamance County," roll call. "Interesting Facts About the History of Alamance," and round table. "Plain Truths About Our Country Where It Stands and How It is Moving," Mrs. Barnwell; "Health Suggestions for Alamance," Mrs. Carroll; selected readings from Alamance poet, Henry Jerome Stockard, Mrs. Ernest Sellers. After the program was concluded, Mrs. Faucette served refreshments.

Miss Joliette Isley was at home Friday afternoon to the members of the Broidette Club. Several things had been arranged by the hostess, for the amusement of her guests but the feature of the party was a contest, "the Romance of a Spring Hat." Miss Agnes Faucette was the winner of the prize, a miniature Spring bonnet. A salad course was served, followed by an ice course.

MEBANE ITEMS

Mebane, April 16.—Thursday afternoon the home of Mrs. S. Arthur White was the scene of one of the most brilliant social events of the season, when she announced the approaching marriage of her cousin, Miss Ruth H. Thompson of Orlando, Fla., to Mr. F. N. Mebane of South Boston, Va. The wedding will take place Thursday, April 22. Rook was played during the afternoon. Refreshments were served in three courses. After fruit and a salad course had been served, a messenger boy ran the bell and the telegram he delivered, announcing the wedding, was read. There followed ice cream in the shape of wedding bells with heart-shaped cakes and little white paper baskets filled with mints. Among those present was Miss Myrtle Mebane of South Boston, Va.

PRESIDENT HOLT PREDICTS EARLY REVIVAL OF BUSINESS.

Wilmington, April 15.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Delgado cotton mills yesterday, President E. C. Holt made a most encouraging report and predicted an early revival of business. Notwithstanding the general depression in the textile industry, incident to the European war, it was shown that the Delgado mills have continued to operate practically on full time and with no delays or shut-downs. It has sufficient dyestuffs on hand to last for six months.

THE TEMPERANCE

A large audience gathered at the First Methodist Episcopal church last night to hear George W. Morrow of Michigan and Hon. John C. Wooley of Wisconsin, who are making a tour of the Southern States in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League of America and the nation-wide campaign for a saloonless nation.

The meeting was presided over by Rev. A. B. Kendall, D. D., of the Christian church. Special music was rendered by a union choir and male quartette.

Dr. Morrow was the first speaker of the evening who spoke almost 30 minutes. He began his address by paying tribute to North Carolina for what she has accomplished in the great fight against the liquor traffic, referring to the great work of ex-Governor Glenn in the prohibition movement in the State. The speaker gave some interesting facts and statistics of the operation of the new Anti-Jug law in North Carolina, showing that the law is proving a great success in reducing considerably the shipments of whiskey into the State. He stated that during the last few years there has been a great decline in the brewery business in this country, and expressed the belief that the time will soon come when the stars and stripes will float over a saloonless nation.

At the close of Dr. Morrow's address, pledge cards were passed thru the audience and subscriptions taken for the support of the Anti-Saloon leagues of North Carolina and America. Hon. Wooley was then introduced to the audience, and spoke very interestingly and eloquently for an hour, along the line of the Christian man's duty in politics. He emphasized plainly and forcefully that the Christian man in politics must seize every opportunity to purify politics and create a sentiment for the utter destruction of the liquor business in this country. While he spoke of the great work that the Christian man in politics has to do in bringing about the national prohibition, he said that the womanhood of the country had a part in this great work. He stated that woman suffrage had arrived in this country, and said that when the women were given the power of the ballot the nation would no longer be compelled to tolerate the destructive influence of alcohol. His closing sentences were a masterpiece and a combination of the finest literature and oratory.

Each speaker held the attention of the audience throughout the meeting, which lasted over two hours, and much interest was manifested, as was evidenced by the large number of pledge cards signed and the cash contributions that were made for the support of the national prohibition movement.

Rev. D. I. Clegg of Guilford College filled the pulpit at the Elmira Presbyterian church Sunday night, delivering a very interesting and helpful sermon to a large and appreciative congregation. Rev. Mr. Clegg will probably be employed as pastor of this church.

WANTED TO KILL VINCENT ASTOR.

Youth Who Demanded $500 Admits He would Have Tried To Carry Out Threat.

New York, April 16.—Accused of threatening to kill Vincent Astor if he should refuse a demand for $500, John Mariella, a youth of 19, was arrested at the Grand Central Terminal today on complaint of Mr. Astor's business agent, William A. Dobbryn. Mariella was taken to police headquarters where it was said he admitted having sent two letters to the young millionaire, containing death threats and demands for money. He admitted that if he had not been arrested he would have attempted to carry out his threat.

In addition to a charge violating the law forbidding the carrying of concealed weapons was made against him.

According to Dobbryn the first letter contained the demand for $500 and stated that unless it was forthcoming the young millionaire would be killed. No attention was paid until the second letter was received when Dobbryn notified the police and plans were made to trap the man.

Detectives followed Dobbryn to the Grand Central station where Mariella in response to a pre-arranged signal approached Dobbryn and asked if he had the $500. The police officers then arrested Mariella after a struggle in which the man tried to draw a revolver.

Mariella at police headquarters said that his father was an East Side baker and that two weeks ago he had run away from home with $275 of his father's money. He spent it in seeing sights, he said, and he thought he had found an easy way to get more. No one else, he said, was concerned in the plot.

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Fairground Public School last Friday night was quite a success. A program of unusual interest was rendered. About 250 were present and the net proceeds amounted to about $17.00, which will be used in making improvements on the school building.

HON. NELSON W. ALDRICH DEAD.

Was Republican Leader For Years and Father-in-Law of J. D. Rockefeller, Jr.

New York, April 16.—Nelson W. Aldrich, for thirty years, United States senator from Rhode Island, and a republican leader in national politics died of an apoplectic stroke at his home on Fifth avenue here today. He was in his 74th year. Burial will be Sunday in Swan Point cemetery, Providence, R. I.

Nelson Wilwarth Aldrich held a seat in the United States senate continuously from 1881 to 1911. The influence exerted by him on governmental affairs was best illustrated by the fact that when he was satirically introduced to an audience as "the general manager of the United States," that appellation lived through the administration of McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft.

Probably the greatest parliamentarian that ever served in the senate, Mr. Aldrich had no difficulty in maintaining leadership of his party. Although known among the veterans as a "committee" senator he was quite as much at home on the floor and naturally was more in evidence in the larger arena. While he gave special attention to the tariff and financial legislation in committee, on the senate floor his ear was open for all that was said on any subject of general importance. He seldom failed to participate in the discussion of any measure affecting governmental policies.

Naturally Mr. Aldrich's long continued supremacy in the councils of his party and in directing legislation caused him to become the subject of much adverse criticism. He was charged with bias and with being the tool of the "interests." Whether or not this was true in the main, it can be said in fairness that some of these assertions gained and held currency because it was his policy never to defend himself against published attacks. He rarely permitted himself to be quoted by the press.

BASE BALL

Mebane Defeats Haw River.

In a very close game at Piedmont Park last Thursday afternoon, Mebane defeated Haw River, the score being 8 to 6. Both teams played good ball.

Belmont 14; Hawfields 2.

The Belmont and Hawfields teams met at Piedmont Park Saturday afternoon in a game of ball that resulted in a great victory for the mill team. The mill boys seemed to hit the High Schoolers with great ease and kept the bases busy with runners, as is evidenced by the score, which was 14 to 2 in favor of the textile workers.

Keystone And King Cotton Mill.

The employes of the Keystone Finishing Mill and King Cotton Mill Corporation played a very close game Saturday afternoon which resulted in a score of 8 to 6 in favor of the Keystone.

Eldermont School Defeats Elmira.

This was Elmira's first game this season and they did splendid work in this initial game. The game resulted in a score of 10 to 8 in favor of the school team.

WOUNDS WIFE; ENDS OWN LIFE.

Charlotte Couple Had Been Separated Nearly Two Years.

Charlotte, April 16.—Arthur Thomas, 80 years old, went to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Annie Stevens, at 7:30 o'clock this morning, and going into a bed room where his wife, Mrs. Leonora Thomas, was still in bed, fired two shots at her and then sent a shot through his own brain with a .22 caliber pistol. The two shots fired at his wife lodged in her shoulder and proved not to be serious. She was taken to St. Peter's Hospital, one of the balls removed and later in the day was taken back to her mother's home.

The couple had not lived together more than three weeks since their marriage two years ago, and had gone to a lawyer last week to try to institute separation proceedings by mutual consent.

WORLD'S RECORD IN REACHING SUNKEN F-4

Diver Walks On Top of Ill-fated Craft 288 Feet Below Surface. Honolulu, April 14.—Chief Gunner's Mate Crilley went 288 feet under water here today and walked along the top of the submarine F-4, which disappeared March 25. The depth is said by naval officers to be a world's record.

Crilley found the F-4 lying on a smooth, sandy bottom with no coral growths to impede hoisting operations. She lay on her starboard side, her bow pointing shoreward. Two parted lines were found attached to the craft.

After Crilley reported it was said further observations probably would be made before an attempt is made to raise the F-4.

The diver went down in an ordinary diving suit and the recompression chamber designed to reduce pressure on him was not used.

TO BOOM YOUR TOWN.

The Following Sentences are of Good Sense And Truthfulness to Which We Invite Your Attention Mr. Citizen.

Talk about it. Write about it. Elect good men to office. Be friendly to everybody. Keep your sidewalks in good condition.

Keep your houses well painted. If a poor man starts a project, help him.

If a rich man starts a project, encourage him.

Buying in another town that which you can buy just as well in your own, makes your town that much poorer.

Don't talk your town down to strangers.

If you are rich, invest something; employ somebody.

If a project to improve the town comes up, don't hoot—investigate.

Don't let your personal antipathies get ahead of your business judgment.

Follow the men who have the vim and energy to go ahead—and "saw wood."

Be courteous to strangers who come among you so they will go away with a good impression of your town.

If you don't like your home town well enough to speak well of it, get out of it and make room for better men.

Always cheer on the man who goes for improvements. Your portion of the cost will be nothing but that which is right. Do not kick at any proposed improvements because they are not at your door, or for fear that your tax will be raised FIFTY CENTS.

aid to stick in your pocket a public enter something for being so size you. Don't!! For don't think YOUR only correct ones improvements are id how they should be town whose citizens have public spirit or civic pride in the way to the cemetery. The citizen who will do nothing to boost his town is helping to dig its grave.

The citizen who growls about his town being "the worst ever" is assisting in its burial.

The citizen who is a chronic grumbler and always pulling back in every public improvement is throwing bouquets on the grave.

The citizen who "knocks" and howls "hard times" preaches the funeral.

The small town business or professional man who gives his printing to the "high flier" representative of the city printing house does not deserve the patronage of his town people.

Point to a town whose citizens count every dollar gotten from their neighbor as gain; and every dollar given to a school or college or church or Chautauqua or lecture course as loss, and you point to a town on which there rests a business and social blight, which will be known throughout your state as "a good town to move FROM."

Do YOUR part, then citizens! Count for something in the affairs of your town or city. Pledge your word and honor that so long as you reside in a community it shall be your constant aim to "boost" it in every way you can. That you will not "knock" but that you will do all you can for every public enterprise that has for its object the best interest of the community. That you will submit to the rule of the majority, and not growl if things are not always as you think they should be. That you will keep in mind that if a town is good enough for you to make your money in, it is the legitimate place for you to spend it, and will buy everything you can of your home town merchants. That you will always say something good of your town and people, or keep silent, except in case of public nuisance. That you will not encourage nor contribute to injurious reports about your neighbors or business competitors, but will use the scales of charity in weighing the shortcomings of your fellows.

Practice this teaching and your town will be one into which the best families will come as the children gather around the fire on a winter's night. Be cheerfully optimistic and feel that the best is yet to come.

JUST WHAT IT IS.

The office boy in a law office of this town himself hopes to be a lawyer some day. He has begun his studies already by asking questions of the clerks whenever he hears a legal term about which he desires information.

The other day he approached one of the clerks with this question: "What do they mean by a contingent fee?"

"It's like this," explained the clerk, "If you lose the case your lawyer gets nothing; if you win you get nothing."—New York Times.

WHERE ARE THE ORIGINAL WILSON MEN?

About the time of the glad-some New Year's Day it was announced that the country was to be given a rare mental treat. This was to take the form of a meeting of those favored individuals who listed upon history's roll of honor as the "original Wilson men." There were to be gathered together into one place the men from the various States who early declared for Woodrow Wilson for President in 1912, and then labored early and late to bring their wish to fulfillment. The purpose of this meeting was to raise high the Wilson banner, and to constitute themselves a committee to discover just where were the Wilson sore spots in the country, and then to go about energetically to heal them.

It was to be a meeting that would clear the track for Mr. Wilson for 1916. It was to sound a ringing keynote and to appeal to the citizenship of the nation to keep in the White House the man whom they long ago selected as the one person fitted for Presidential honors. It was to be the opening gun of the Wilson campaign of 1916, and to be uncommonly effective because of the sentimental element that would obtain by reason of the previous work of the men who would take part in the conference.

What has become of that meeting? Since the announcement of it, moons have waxed and waned, but no such conference has been held. Indeed, nothing further has been heard from it or about it. That historic conclave of "original Wilson men" is still a matter of words only. What has become of the idea? Is the country to be deprived of this treat which was so confidently and glowingly promised? This is the building season of the year, and surely, this idea should now bud or forever hold its peace.

Can it be that there has died away much of the enthusiasm of the "original Wilson men," and that there is not now the same zest for the fray? Have they, too, seen the signs of the times, and the cloud of popular disapproval that hangs over the White House? Are they less steadfast in the Wilson faith than before? Have they discovered that their former idol is after all but clay? Can it be that Mr. Wilson as President has failed to appreciate the labor of love that these men performed in the dark days preceding the Baltimore convention of 1912, when the outlook for his nomination was somber-hued and gloomy?

It is unfortunate that this meeting did not take place, if it had, and the "original Wilson men" had expressed their real sentiments concerning Mr. Woodrow Wilson, President, as distinguish from Mr. Woodrow Wilson, candidate, it would, indeed, have been an interesting and an illuminating occasion. It would have been worth going many miles to hear, when Mr. William F. McCombs expressed his opinion of the President that he did so much to make. The true story of his present relations with the Administration could be made as dramatic as any best-seller of the literary year. As a dissertation on the subject of gratitude in high office it would be as forceful as a danger signal at a perilous railroad crossing.

be heard and measured, the result would be as realistic as anything that this theatrical season has put upon the stage. Yet these two men were the genesis of the Wilson candidacy. They started the movement in its behalf, and breathed into it life and strength. They were the simon-pure original Wilson men. If others of that class feel as they do concerning Mr. Wilson, the reason is plain why the meeting was not held as planned. It would have started the 1916 Wilson campaign going in the wrong direction.

JUST WHISTLING.

We've all heard about the boy who whistled to keep up his courage while passing through a grave yard. The nations of Europe are like that boy. They are passing through a graveyard and whistling to keep up courage.

Besides whistling, they are indulging in a lot of big talk about how long they can stand the drain of the war, about the sound state of their finances, and about how little the war has affected their industries. They are all doing it—France, England, Germany and Russia.

But it can all be put down as tommy-rot of the worst kind. The truth is, everybody can see it, they are all ready for peace with the possible exception of Russia. Russia is the only country that stands to gain by a continuance of the war. England is ready for peace and will grant Germany a better term than any Englishman would have granted four months ago. It is the same way with France. Germany knows that she is beaten. Her war on non-combatants is one way of showing the bitterness of her defeat. But that will fall away some day, either from exhaustion from the shock of the loss of a great battle. Then Germany will be ready to treat for the peace she now longs for.

Austria, without a doubt, is already looking for a way out. She may deny it and others may not. But to a nation so harried by hunger, disease and loss, peace is the one thing worth praying for.

So with all the whistling and all the big talk, any week, or almost any day, may bring news of definite steps for peace. They are all nearer whipped than any of them will admit, and the desire for peace is stronger in Europe today than it has been for many months.

A SMALL CITIZEN.

Twenty-Four Ounce Baby is Growing Fat.

Kinston, April 14.—Kinston's tiniest citizen, who about eight weeks ago was giving up as a dead one just after he had been born, but persisted in trying out the climate regardless now promises to become a football player. When the stork chuckled as he brought him he thought probably that it was an awful good joke. The laugh was on the stork, and now it is the tiniest citizen, jolly little fellow who does the laughing. He laughs inordinately at everything nearly, Dr. Ira M. Hardy says. He weighed just a pound and a half. He now weighs nearly four pounds, is finely nourished and certain, barring accidents, to live to a ripe old age. He has a splendid constitution, the doctor says. Baby was cradled in a soap box.

IN COURT LONG TIME.

Greensboro, N. C., April 15.—The case of James A. Zachary, administrator of Herbert H. Burgess, against the Southern Railway company, occupied all of today in superior court. This action is for $25,000 as damages for the killing of Mr. Burgess of Selma on April 29, 1909. The case was first tried here in 1910 and the jury awarded the plaintiff $10,000. Since that time it has been to the supreme court of the United States which decided that the action should have been brought under the federal employers liability act. The complaint has been so amended as to bring it within the federal act.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones, and when it comes into contact with your bile erodes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated, if you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

The Chicago Democrats are not prepared to agree with President Wilson that there are no significant in the Chicago elections. When you have the breath knocked out of you there is an essential feeling that it signifies something. Mr. Wilson knows, too, but it is not his cue to let on.

Democratic newspapers are bewailing the criticism of Josephus Daniels by Republican newspapers. But the criticism is not confined to Republican newspapers. The severest arraignment of the Secretary of the Navy comes from Colonel Harvey, a Democrat and reconciled friend of the President.

The pain which so many of our Democratic contemporaries are suffering because the new Republican Governors in New York and Ohio are dispensing with Democratic officeholders is a different kind of pain from any they have when the Democratic Administration at Washington runs Republicans out of their jobs. But they can't help that.

THE CALL OF A NATION.

There is now going on a very marked change of political sentiment in the West. The recent elections in Chicago, St. Louis, and other cities further towards the Pacific are the outward proof of the movement that is going on. Each time that there is a test of sentiment at the polls, the Republican tide rises higher. The feelings of the voters in the western land are both changed and still changing. They have learned the lesson of what the economic theories of Democracy mean to the country and to them.

It was in these sections of the country that hostility to Republican rule first manifested itself. The states in the valley of the Mississippi and of the Missouri were told by the campaign orator that they were fattening the tariff-protected States of the East, and that for their own interest they should demand a change. Further to the westward were States whose wealth was in the soil. They had their mines and their fruit groves, they had their farms and their peculiar products. To these States came the advice of the orator to vote out of office the Republican party. Then would come an approach of free trade, and with it greater prosperity and lower prices for the manufactured goods that they must buy.

To such voices and to such advice these States listened. They believed the doctrine that was preached, and acted upon it. Now they regret their straying away from the right path. They see now what are the inevitable results of the economic policy to which they turned. On the Pacific coast the people are finding their citrus fruit industry half ruined by foreign competition. The farmer of the middle West is just now securing good prices for his products, but he realizes that it is because of the foreign war and that when that conflict ends he will be the victim of the Democratic free list.

These States have learned that their industries have been jeopardized and with no perceptible advantage to the consumer. They have arrived at an appreciation of the fact that good times and thriving business must be general in the country to have real prosperity, and that these are the qualities that follow only in the wake of Republican national administration. They have learned the lesson that the United States needs a protective tariff if her industries are to thrive in competition with those of other lands which possess industrial conditions which American citizenship will not tolerate in this country.

As the result of a two years' test of Democratic rule and of Democratic policies, the West now joins the East in calling for a change of economic policy. This call is now general in the nation. Even the Democratic South is in sympathy with it mentally, and would so express itself at the ballot box if Republicanism were not still an hereditary specter. The South is seeing its sugar industry swept away by the free trade that is to come with the next year. It is also experiencing financial stringency that results from lack of good business in the whole country.

At election time last November the full result was Democratic rule was not apparent. Its blighting effect had not then reached the more Western States. Consequently, the Republican gains were not as marked in those sections as they were in the East. But now there is no such geographical dividing line of changed political sentiment. The tide of revolt at present conditions has carried it away. People everywhere want to see again the swing of prospering activity. They want a return of profitable and expanding business. And they have made up their minds that only a return of Republicanism to power can bring that result. That feeling now knows no sectional limitation. That is what the elections of this month mean.

CAMPAIGN IN RALEIGH PLEASES REPUBLICANS.

Are Not Disappointed Over Place On Ticket And Enjoy Negro Row of Democrats.

"INS" ARE ALSO CONTENT.

Raleigh, April 16.—The city campaign which has been conducted with fair regard for the newspapers in the allotment of advertising space will end with the first primary April 19, but a second primary must be held to determine the winner.

The life timers among the Republicans had hoped to win a place on the commission, but they had no effort. They are not disappointed and since the Democrats have been charged with registering negroes the Republicans are pleased a plenty to have this as a reply to any future race issue in the city or the county.

The life timers among the Republicans are greatly pleased. One of these who held until a few years ago a prominent place in revenue service said yesterday that he had seen his party get tardy vindication. "It took nerve 20 and 30 years ago to proclaim yourself a Republican," he said, "because we were so much abused to the negro vote which we could not help. Everybody knows why the negro voted the Republican ticket and I see from B. C. Beckwith, a local attorney, that the Republican ticket is the natural ballot for the black man to cast because the negro is the beneficiary of the party which gave him his freedom.

"But your articles in the papers show how unfair and how hollow have been the charges against the Republicans. Here is the negro who naturally votes the Republican ticket being actually dragged from his obscurity and led into a Democratic ticket. I verily believe there are now more Democratic negroes than Republican negroes. While I always knew the Democrats would be glad to have the negro vote. I did not expect to see it on such a grand scale as it is said to have been sought in this primary.

The "ins" are nearly content. They can prove an alibi in the negro registering candidates against the commissioners appearing to be the worst offenders. The sole fear of the administration is a broadside Monday morning too late to answer.

They are contemplating about $100 worth of ammunition in one shot and a discharge that comes without warning. But for that they believe that they would be able to win votes every day between this date and the primary Monday. They expect, if they stand up in the first race to win out in the second.

It brightened the whole day for us. We had read it in one of George Ade's First Aids to Inadequate English, but it did not have the charm of the spoken word. She was well dressed, bright and vivacious. She glanced at her watch and recognized an elderly lady. She pranced up with all the grace possible, and said:

"Good morning, Mrs. Wilson. I don't suppose you know whom I am."

Roosevelt and Jack Johnson thought they could come back. Taft and President Wilson think they can come back.

BANDITS HOLD UP TRAIN;
$50,000 HAUL.*Strip Cars of Bolted Silk Which
They Carry Off in Auto Trucks.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 15.—A dozen bandits held up a New York Central fast freight train at Sanborn, nine miles east of North Tonawanda, early today, stripping several cars of bolted silk, valued at $50,000, and sped away in automobile trucks upon which they had loaded their plunder. The bandits were armed with repeating rifles and automatic pistols and fired several shots at the crew. No one was injured.

A posse of detectives, mounted police and patrolmen from Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Tonawanda reached the scene shortly after the hold-up, but several hours of searching resulted in no arrests.

After forcing the crew to uncouple the locomotive and run it a short distance, the engine and three other members of the train crew lined up against a box car and placed under guard of a single bandit while the others looted the merchandise cars.

Four five-ton automobile trucks were in waiting and were quickly loaded with the booty. Engineer Goss escaped the guard and, running a fusillade of shots, reached his engines and made a record run into Suspension Bridge, eight miles away and gave the alarm.

The robbery was the most daring of its kind ever attempted in this section and the amount of plunder far exceeds in value the proceeds of any other freight train robbery in the history of Eastern railroading.

CLEENING UP.

The dust is out of rugs and drapes
And curtains—not a thing escapes;
It's wiped from table, shelf and chair,
And scattered broadcast in the air.

The smell of soap is prevalent
And winter clothes away are sent;

The home is cheerless; mother fells
No interest in getting meals.

Now father's brought the screens upstairs
To paint them and to make repairs;
He has an air of lassitude,
Save that in speech he's somewhat rude.

Helen, in fear of sultry days,
Was awning up to shut the rays
Of sunlight out, and now her room
Is filled with an unearthly gloom.

Now brother Tom has left the call
To clean things, so he'll overhaul
His cabinet of snakes—for years
The source of mother's wildest fears.

And even Sue, that languid maid,
Has been compelled to lend her aid;
She's rendered service, goodness knows,
By burning pictures of her beaux?

Dr. Frank Crane is advocating
A calendar revision which shall
Give us thirteen months to the year.
We will support the movement
Only on condition that pay-days
Are to be increased in like proportion.

Why shorten our days by Lengthening our night?

Young man, don't try to act
Cute if you are more than ten
Years old.

THE KALAMAZOO DOLLAR.

Did you ever hear the story of the dollar that stayed at home and circulated in the community? It is the story of a dollar which found its way to Kalamazoo Mich. The story, as told by the New York Journal of Commerce, is an interesting one. The Retail Grocers' and Butchers' Association of Kalamazoo had a banquet and one of the things considered was how to keep the dollars at home instead of straying off to the big mail-order houses. Among those who took part in the discussion at the banquet was a bright young fellow who told the "Tale of Kalamazoo Dollar." Since this story is pertinent to this and every other community, we give it here for the benefit of Herald readers:

"I am a dollar! A little age worn perhaps, but still for being in circulation. I am not tomato can dollar—not I. This town is only my adopted home, but I like it and hope to remain permanently. When I came out of the mint I was adopted into a town like this in another State. But, after a time, I was sent off to a big city, many miles away. I turned up in a mail order house. For several years I stayed in that city. Millionaires bought cigars with me. I didn't like that for I believe in the plain people.

"Finally a traveling man brought me to this town and left me here. I was so glad to get back to a smaller town that I was determined to make a desperate effort to stay. One day a citizen of this town was about to send me back to the big city. I caught him looking over a mail order catalogue. Suddenly I found my voice and said to him:

"Look here, if you let me stay in this town I'll circulate around and do you a lot of good. You buy a big beefsteak with me, and the butcher will buy groceries, and the grocer will buy hardware, and the hardware man will pay his doctor bill with me and the doctor will spend me with a farmer for oats to feed his horse with, and the farmer will buy some more from the butcher, who will come around to the dentist to get his teeth mended. In the long run, as you see, I'll be more useful to you here at home than if you'd send me away forever."

"The man said it was mighty stiff argument. He hadn't looked at it in that light before, so he went and bought the beefsteak, and I began to circulate around home again. Now, just suppose all the other dollars that are sent to Chicago or some other big city were kept circulating right here at home, you could see the town grow. Honest now, ain't I right?"—Smithfield Herald.

A BAD GANG.

The men who were sentenced in Indianapolis the other day for political frauds, belonged to no political party. They were freebooters who, under the Democratic flag, had captured a city and a state.

The Terre Haute gang is a branch on the Taggart gang of Indianapolis who are confessed imitators of Tammany Hall of New York. At the head of the gang is Tom Taggart, and under him are such men as Robert Hendron, O'Brien and others.

They have looted the state for years and have corrupted the public service in every way possible. Public offices have been multiplied and filled with fat politicians who do nothing to earn their salaries. The resources of the state have been wasted and debts piled mountain high.

Roberts and his followers have got their just dues. And others will follow them soon—out of power, if not to prison.

HE UNDERSTOOD.

There recently visited the West a young Turk attached to the Turkish embassy at Washington. This youthful Ottoman was much taken by the daughter of a ranch owner in Wyoming.

"You walk and ride and shoot as well as a man," he said to her one day.

"Why, to be sure," exclaimed the girl to whom all these things were a matter of course.

"Can you swim, too?"

"I can, and very well."

"Then you must be quite as strong as a man."

"I think I am—as strong as the average man."

"And you wouldn't let a man beat you—not even if he were your husband?"

"Certainly not," exclaimed the girl in indignation.

The Turk shook his head reflectively. "Now I understand," said he "why the men of the Western world never have more than one wife—they're afraid!"

SONG OF PEACE.

Sweet peace a hundred years
Relieves our lands from fears.
And seals us one;
No more with tearful eyes,
We see the war clouds rise,
Dark'ning the friendly skies,
And sad bemoan.

A noble mother there,
A worthy daughter here--
A royal race;
We stand for peace and right
Against war's wrong and night,
For love opposed to might,
With firmest face.

We laud our rulers true,
And render honors due,
In hearty way;
Here loyal hearts we bring,
Our President we sing,
And pray, "God save the King"
From evil day!

Both love a Washington,
And both a Wellington,
Of noble strain;
So we in peace abide,
In mutual love confide,
Each side the stormy tide,
And one remain.

One song of peace we sing,
With President and King,
With fullest heart;
We hail the tranquil day
When peace, with highest sway,
Shall lead the happy way
In every mart!

Our mighty God, we pray,
Keep us in peaceful way
To final time!
Raise Thou to truer spheres
A people freed from fears,
Exalt in coming years
To heights sublime!

Mrs. Ailsie Ross and Miss Maude Ross have both been on the sick list but we are glad to note that they are about well again.

Maywood school closed last Friday night with a nice entertainment. We used to call it "exhibition" in our young days.

They had a very successful term. Good teachers and well behaved pupils. The teachers, Miss Satterfield and Miss Garrison left for their homes Saturday. Hope they will teach for us some more.

J. C. McCulloch attended church at Shiloh Sunday. Hope the "Sermon" done him some good. Goodness knows he needs it.

Mrs. Sutton is still improving, we are glad to say.

Miss Clara Hughes of Graham, Miss Ruth Whittemore of Burlington and Mrs. W. L. Saul of Route 8, spent last Wednesday at G. E. Faucette's.

Miss Fannie Paschal of Altamahaw, A. O. Geringer, Miss Kate Wagener, Boyd Brannock, Rufus and Pate Sauls and John Fralinger were visitors at W. H. Evans' Sunday. Quite a mob, but they enjoyed visiting at Brother Evans'.

We spent Sunday in Mebane but as we go there so often we guess we had better not say anything about it.

HEALTH PROMOTES HAPPINESS.

Without health genuine joy is impossible; without good digestion and regular bowel movement you cannot have health. Why neglect keeping bowels open and risk being sick and ailing? You don't have to. Take one small Dr. King's New Life Pill at night, in the morning you will have a full, free bowel movement and feel much better. Helps your appetite and digestion. Try one tonight.

HOW A SMALL BOY MAKES LOVE.

In the April American Magazine Ellis Parker Butler writes another small boy story in his new series. This month's story is entitled, "Teacher's Pet," and in the following extract the small talks about his girl:

"Her name is Milly. I haven't said anything about marrying her yet—not to her or anybody—but I've carried her books three or four times and I hit her in the back of the head with a soft snowball, and I guess she likes me too. She threw a snowball back at me when I hit her and then, when I washed her face for her with snow, she just said 'Oh, George! You mean thing!' as if she might be willing to marry me sometime if I got nerve enough to ask her when we're grown up. I wonder how a fellow gets nerve to ask them. I don't think I'll ever have."

YOUNG MAN'S LEG BROKEN BY AUTO.

Roy Brand Struck By Machine Driven By Local Attorney; Accident Occurred on Fifth Avenue.

Roy Brand, a local plumber is at the Emergency hospital suffering from a broken left leg, as the result of an accident which occurred yesterday, shortly before noon.

He was struck by an automobile driven by W. B. Mebane, a Rome lawyer. The later was in the act of turning a corner at Fifth avenue and West First street with his machine, on his way to the courthouse, when Brand, mounted on a bicycle, was riding in the opposite direction. He was knocked down and the automobile passed over his leg, crushing it badly. Mebane says the accident was unavoidable but young Brand expressed a different opinion at the hospital last night. The machine's speed is said by spectators to have been not more than five miles an hour when the accident happened.

Brand was attended by Drs. McCall, Doss and Fishburn and is probably not permanently injured.

Mebane was arrested by the police at his own request and released on bond. He will have a hearing before the city recorder.—Rome (Ga.) Herald.

Mr. Mebane is a former resident of Burlington, having lived here eight or ten years ago, and is the son of Mr. John R. Mebane of this city. Mr. Mebane is well known by many citizens here.

FUNERAL OF COL. ANDREWS

The funeral of Col. Alexander Boyd Andrews, First Vice-President of the Southern Railway, one of the first citizens of Raleigh, North Carolina, and the South, and a prime benefactor of all, will be held in the church of the Good Shepherd this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Dr. L. McK. Fittinger and Bishop Joseph Blount Chesire will conduct the funeral ceremonies.

By that hour a mass of mourning friends from all parts of the South will be in Raleigh to pay their last honors to one of the South's most influential railroad men and citizens. At eleven o'clock this morning a special funeral train will arrive from Washington bringing prominent railroad officials and others who know and respected Col. Andrews.

Mr. Henry W. Miller, Assistant to the President of the Southern arrived on his private car yesterday from Atlanta. With him came Mrs. Miller and Mrs. W. M. Marks, of Montgomery, Alabama, a daughter of Col. Andrews. President Fairfax Harrison, Vice-President J. M. Culp, Alfred P. Thom, general Counsel of Washington; J. W. H. McWhorter, Assistant General Counsel of Athens, Ga., E. H. Coapman, Vice-President and General Manager; and H. B. Spencer, Vice-President. These are among the officials of the Southern who will be here to pay respect of the memory of the man whose work and influence have helped so materially in building up the Southern Railway.

The pallbearers for funeral will be President Fairfax Harrison, Vice-President J. M. Culp, General Counsel Alfred P. Thom, J. W. H. McWhorter, Joseph G. Brown, Dr. E. Everett, Ed Chambers Smith and John C. Drewry.

The people are showing a determination to make the one-term plank of the Democratic national platform so effective that the party can't get away from it.

MRS. ROOSEVELT UNDER KNIFE, NOW RALLYING.

Colonel and Theodore, Jr., Stay Till Ordeal Is Over—Home in Two Weeks.

New York, April 15.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt was reported today by Dr. Alexander Lambert to have rallied well from a surgical operation at the Roosevelt Hospital earlier in the day. Her condition is satisfactory, he said.

The nature of Mrs. Roosevelt's illness was not made public, but it was said that no time was she in immediate danger. Dr. Lambert expects his patient will be able to return to Oyster Bay in two weeks.

Colonel Roosevelt and his son, Theodore, Jr., arrived at the hospital while the operation was being performed and remained until Mrs. Roosevelt had recovered from the anaesthetic. When they left both seemed in excellent spirits and repeated the assurance that Mrs. Roosevelt was in a favorable condition. Mrs. Roosevelt was seriously ill in 1912, after a fall from a horse while out riding with her husband. She apparently recovered after several weeks, and it is now said a recurrence of the trouble caused by the fall made necessary the operation.

NOT PAINT.

With linseed oil at 50c to $1, what sort of oil do you think they use in "paint" at $1.50 and $1.25?

That stuff is counterfeit paint. You can cheat yourself; you can't cheat Time or Weather.

Paint is a rubbery coat over wood and iron to keep-out water. Counterfeit paint may look like it; counterfeit money looks like money.

What are all counterfeits for? They are all alike.

DEVOE.

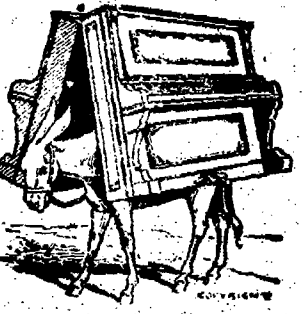

AN ARTIST HERSELF.

"I would like to make a suggestion as to the portrait."

"Madam," said the testy artist, "do you think you can tell me anything about painting your face?"

"Well, I've had considerable experience with this face," responded she, for she had a scene of humor.—Kansas City Journal.
