DEATH OF AGED LADY.

Miss Nancy B. Clark, who has made her home with her niece, Mrs. J. E. Forshee, near the Fairgrounds, died early last Friday morning. She had been confined to her room for several weeks. Her death was said to have been due to old age, she being about 80 years old.

The funeral service was conducted at the home on Saturday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. J. F. Morgan, pastor of New Providence Christian church, and interment in New Providence cemetery.

The deceased was a member of the Christian church for many years, and was truly a good woman. The nearest relatives that survive her are: two nephews, Mr. W. H. A. Nance of this city, Mr. J. T. Nance of Durham, and one niece, Mrs. J. E. Forshee, of this place.

MASS MEETING.

The Progressive Republicans and their friends, that is those who believe that the policies of the Republican party are the best for this country, are requested to meet in the Mayor's hall Friday night, April 30th, for the purpose of re-organizing the party and discussing measures for the good of the party. It has been quite some time since we have met together, and our fellow republicans in other states bids us get busy. Every person who intends to act and vote with us in the future are invited. Come and bring your neighbor.

JR. ORDER WILL PRESENT FLAG.

The local council of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will present the Burlington Graded School with a flag on Saturday afternoon, May 8th, 1915. The State Councilor, Mr. Paul Jones, of Tarboro, is expected to be present and deliver the presentation speech. This promises to be a great fraternal as well as educational gathering. A program of the event will appear in a later issue of the Dispatch.

FREE HEALTH EXHIBIT MAY 4TH.

Recently there appeared in the column of our local publications an article enumerating the many ways in which Alamance county excelled. We are confident that each citizen of the county experienced a keen sense of pride and satisfaction on reading the article.

There is, however, at least one respect in which Burlington and the surrounding country does not excel—indeed we are well in the rear. It would almost appear that we have attained this leadership at the expense of our greatest asset—health.

Great headway has been made in the prevention of disease. Sixteen years ago typhoid fever visited our soldiers in the Spanish-American war and literally played havoc. Since that time a means of preventing typhoid has been discovered, and today there is not a single case of typhoid in the American army. Practically the same tremendous advancement has been made in the prevention of all other diseased conditions.

Why then with this great modern improvement should Alamance fall so far short in the pursuit of good health? For every condition there is a cause, and we see the situation the above question must be answered: We are not conserving our greatest natural asset—the lives and health of our people, because we do not employ the modern methods of sanitation, hygiene and infant feeding—the scientific feeding and care of infants is one of the primary topics on which this community should receive enlightenment. Tuberculosis, typhoid and a marked extent all the acute and chronic diseases could be greatly decreased by proper hygiene and sanitation.

We can better appreciate where our county stands when we remember that during the year of 1914, we had 55 deaths from tuberculosis and 12 deaths from typhoid. These figures are simply appalling in our present day methods of disease prevention.

Plans and definite arrangement for a free health exhibit for Burlington have been terminated. We are more than confident that if the people will attend this exhibit, it will do much toward bringing this community to a higher health standard.

The exhibit consists of six cabinets and deals with three general subjects. One cabinet on patent medicines, two on tuberculosis and three on care and feeding infants.

Those towns in the State that have been so fortunate and progressive as to have this exhibit speak very enthusiastically of the ingenious arrangement and the utter completeness of the whole exhibit. It has done much to promote the cause of good health in many parts of the State.

Remember this exhibit will be absolutely free to every one. One day, Tuesday, May 11, will be set aside for colored people only.

The exhibit comes to us under the auspices of the local Red Cross Committee and Dr. C. Eugene Holt. It will be open to the public Tuesday morning, May 4th, and will remain open until Tuesday night, April 11th.

The exhibit will be open from 9:30 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. and from 8:00 P. M. to 10:00 P. M. during the week. It will be Open Sunday, May 9, from 2:00 to 6:00 P. M.

The exhibit will be held in the store building formerly occupied by the J. B. Jones Co., next to the Grotto.

Lecture at Graded School Auditorium Tuesday Night, May 4th at 8 P. M.

Dr. James B. Bullett of the University faculty at Chapel Hill, N. C. will lecture at the Graded School Auditorium Tuesday night, May 4th on the medical inspection of schools. This is a subject that is agitating the minds of the medical profession and body educators throughout the country and Dr. Bullett comes to us under the direction of the American medical association which is of itself a guarantee that he is well able to handle the subject. Every one who is interested in the childhood of community, should hear him.

STATE MEETING OF THE DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY.

The annual State Meeting of the Daughters of Liberty convened in the city of Wilmington this morning at 10 o'clock, and will continue through tomorrow. The following members of the local council left yesterday for Wilmington to attend the meeting: Messrs. A. W. Cole, State Secretary, T. T. Stafford, member of State Finance Committee, Miss Vina Workman, Mrs. C. W. Isley, Messrs. J. T. Wilch and H. B. Cole, as representatives of the local council.

Mr. A. W. Cole, the State Secretary for the past year, has made such a splendid record that there is a probability of his reelection to that office for another term.

THE TWO CROSSINGS.

In the Bible account of the journeying of the children of Israel from Egypt to the "Land of Promise," we read of the two crossings. First, to the Red Sea; second, of Jordan at Kadesh Barnea. Both crossings were on dry ground, the waters being divided and rolled back on either side. These two crossings will be the subject of Rev. D. H. Tuttle's prayer meeting talk at the Front Street M. E. Church tomorrow (Wednesday) at 7:45 P. M. It is interesting to know what these crossings symbolize in our christian life and experience.

U. S. REFUSES TO STOP EXPORTS OF MUNITIONS.

Tells of Our Rights. Washington, April 21.—The United States Government replied today to the recent memorandum in which Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, declared that "if the American people desire to observe true neutrality, they will find means to stop the exclusive importation of arms to one side, or at least to use this export trade as a means to uphold the legitimate trade with Germany, especially the trade in food-stuffs."

LIFE IMPRISONMENT IS ASKED FOR FRANK.

Attorneys For Condemned Man File Petition With Governor Slaton.

CLAIM FRANK IS INNOCENT.

Atlanta, Ga., April 22.—Attorneys for Leo. M. Frank today filed a petition with Governor Slaton and the Georgia prison commission, asking that the sentence of death imposed upon Frank for the murder of Mary Phagan be commuted to life imprisonment.

Among the grounds set forth by Frank in his appeal for executive clemency are the allegations that he is innocent of the crime and that the principal evidence upon which he was convicted was of "a questionable and unreliable character." His application contains about 250 words and he stated that it does not undertake to set out in full the reasons for his appeal, but he asks permission to do so at the hearing before the prison commission.

The text of Frank's application follows in part:

"On August 26, 1913, I was convicted in the Superior court of Fulton county of murder and I am now under sentence of death pronounced on said verdict. I ask that this sentence be commuted to life imprisonment upon the following grounds:

"I am absolutely innocent of the crime of which I was convicted. My death would neither avenge it, nor punish the real perpetrator. I have no personal knowledge of the crime other than facts related by me in my statement at the trial.

"The main evidence on which I was convicted was of a questionable and unreliable character. My alleged guilt has not been established beyond a reasonable doubt, but on the contrary, conflict of testimony, uncertainty and doubt still exist as to every material feature of the case made against me."

The attorneys presented with the application copies of the brief of evidence introduced at Frank's trial, and requested the prison commission to make a personal inspection of the pencil factory where the Phagan girl was murdered before beginning an examination of the record.

Members of the prison commission stated that a hearing on the application would not be given before the next regular monthly meeting, which will be May 3, and that it was not unlikely that the hearing might then be deferred until the meeting beginning the first Monday in June. According to the procedure in such cases, the prison commission first acts upon applications for executive clemency and transmits its recommendations to the governor for final action. It is considered probable that the commission may not be able to finish its consideration of the case before Governor Slaton's term expires July 1, next and the final decision on the application will rest with Governor-elect N. E. Harris.

The guests were: Misses Ava Heritage, Mary Kerr Hall, Elizabeth Faucett, Agnes Curtis, Nina Ingle, Kathleen Elder, Lyda Spoon, Annie Dare Elder, Miriam Williams, Grace Isley, Miriam Spoon; Messrs. The Winston-Salem High School team lost to the Burlington High School team in a lively game at Piedmont Park last Friday afternoon, the score being 10 to 3 in favor of the Burlington team. The batteries were: for Winston, Fogieman and Spear; for Burlington, Love, Bason and Martin.

Burlington Defeats Sylvan.

The closest and most interesting game of the week was played Saturday afternoon on the local diamond between the Burlington High School team and the Sylvan High School team. It will be remembered that Sylvan holds the honors of the State championship, but notwithstanding this fact, the Burlington High maintained their usual record—that of winning the game. The game proved a warm and lively contest, resulting in a score of 4 to 3 in favor of Burlington.

Elmira Mill 23; Glenn Raven Mill 2.

The Elmira Mill team played Glenn Raven Mill team Saturday afternoon at Glenn Raven, the score being 23 to 2 in favor of Elmira. The features of the game were the pitching of Knox for Elmira and the base running of the Elmira players.

Burlington to Play Winston and Mountaineers.

The Burlington High School team will leave Thursday morning for Winston-Salem where they will play Winston High School, and from there they will go to Western North Carolina to play Weaversville and Asheville. They will return about Monday. The team is in a splendid condition and every player will carry with him high hopes of winning each one of these games.

NORTH CAROLINA IS REMARKABLE STATE.

Has Greater Per Cent of Native Born People Than Any Other --More People Abroad.

(Charlotte Observer Bureau.) Washington, April 20, 1915. North Carolina, according to the abstract of the thirteenth census of the United States, taken in 1910, is a most remarkable State. She has more native born people--a greater percentage--than any other State in the Union. At the same time she has sent abroad more of her sons and daughters than most other States.

Other States of the Union have drawn from the North Carolina population as follows: Maine, 160; New Hampshire, 107; Vermont, 91; Massachusetts, 3,832; Rhode Island, 541; Connecticut, 1,742; New York, 11,150; New Jersey, 7,720; Pennsylvania, 12,577; Ohio, 5,841; Indiana, 8,184; Illinois, 5,417; Michigan, 3,671; Wisconsin, 280; Minnesota, 524; Iowa, 2,081; Missouri, 7,258; North Dakota, 630; South Dakota, 400; Nebraska, 1,360; Kansas, 1,128; Delaware, 320; Maryland, 1,257; District of Columbia, 1,324; Virginia, 5,034; West Virginia, 1,041; Kentucky, 1,121; Tennessee, 1,064; Alabama, 1,222; Mississippi, 10,531; Arkansas, 15,150; Louisiana, 5,769; Oklahoma, 2,483; Texas, 18,839; Montana, 1,100; Idaho, 1,481; Wyoming, 321; Colorado, 2,746; New Mexico, 768; Arizona, 161; Utah, 588; Nevada, 156; Washington, 5,502; Oregon, 2,547; and California, 4,358.

The last census gives North Carolina a total population of 2,206,287, of this number 2,089,278 or 94.7 per cent were born in the State, and 108,605 or 4.9 per cent in other States, while 6,092 or 0.3 were born in foreign countries.

North Carolina has the smallest foreign born population of any State in the Union. Her foreigners come as follows: From Austria, 139; Bulgaria, Serva and Montenegro, 2; Belgium, 5; Canada (French), 29 and (all others), 514; China, 61; Cuba and other West Indies, 43; Denmark, 36; England, 940; Finland, 18; France, 114; Germany, 1,074; Greece, 174; Hungary, 37; Ireland, 306; Italy, 521; Japan, 2; Mexico, 10; Netherlands, 28; Norway, 39; Portugal, 20; Roumania, 7; Russia, 711;

LETTERS TO JESS WILLARD.

Columbus paddled the briny deep Until a new land was found; Doc Newton proved that an apple dropped Quite frequently hit the ground; But they were pikers incarnate --ess, Bush-leaguers out on a blight, Compared to you who have gone and proved That a White Hope knew how to fight. Shakespeare proved that the drama's ways Were broader than most men knew; The Wrights well proved that a man can fly And hammered the dope askew; But they were Bushers and Pikers, Jess, Far blown from the crowning height, Compared to you who have gone and proved That a White Hope knew how to fight.

QUAINT TALES FROM GREAT BRITAIN.

"I saw Mary, that in our city there is to be one policeman for every 512 inhabitants," said the lady of the house. "Don't know and don't care about other people," was the maid's reply. "cos I've got mine already." Her mistress believed her, for she had seen a bluecoat in the kitchen after dinner several evenings lately. A middle-aged farmer accosted a serious faced youth outside the Grand Central Station in New York the other day. "Young man," he said, plucking his sleeves, "I want to go to Central Park." The young seemed lost in consideration for a moment. "Well," he said finally, "you may just this once. But I don't want you ever, ever to ask me again." Corn, Cotton Seed, and All Kinds of Hay. EXTRACTS FROM BILLY SUNDAY'S SERMON.

It was Sunday who declared with his usual artistry of speech, that little can be said in justification of the women of the smart set. He went on to say "they are silly, frivolous, extravagant; they have thrown to the winds all modesty, prudence, religion and the virtues that are so attractive in women, and have allowed themselves to be flattered, cajoled and bamboozled by a lot of jilted jays with cracked characters, and turn their homes into third-rate gambling dens and booze joints. "The average society woman of today," he went on with dramatic climax, "is more familiar with poker chips and the names of fancy wines and champagnes than she is with the relics of classic literature. She couldn't quote a verse of the Scriptures from God's holy word to save her good-for-nothing hide." "God has marked out the same path for men and for women to follow," he said. "Away with the hellish doctrine of a double standard of living in this twentieth century! It makes no difference whether the one who sins wears a plug hat or a petticoat. Young fellow, your sister has as good a right to live as you have. Your wife has as good a right to walk up the street smoking a cigarette as you have. Your wife has as good a right to line up before a bar and fill up her skin with liquor as you have. "She has as good a right to go to the corner grocery in the evening and sit around and put her feet upon the stove and tell stories as you have. Don't you think because you wear whiskers and breeches that you're privileged by God. She has as good a right as you have to walk down street with half a plug of tobacco sticking out of her mouth and spitting enough to draw a jackrabbit as you have. I wouldn't clean out your old spittoon for you; I'd throw it at your old head."

HOW TO FISH.

The man who's fond of fishing Now lays in notes of junk For which he'd long been wishing— Enough to fill a trunk, O'er jointed rods and tackle And boots and rubber coat He makes a joyous cackle— With these he'll fill his boat.

To fish makes people foolish; Behold the clumsy gear With which in weather foolish About this time of year The fat man thinks of camping And hopes to catch a mess Of trout while bravely tramping Through some far wilderness.

When fishing frenzy gets you Buy artificial frogs, Spoon hooks and landing nets you Can wear with striking togs; Then with some flies and hooks you May have a lot of fun While some one goes and cooks you A codfish ball, well done.

AS FOR SURFACE.
If their minds are made up fully, If they're pointed for a spin, What's the good of pushing things into a curdle? Did they ever lose an argument They started out to win With only masculinity to hurdle? If they want it—let 'em have it— Turn it over as a gift; Send it up as if apologies were due; Why not be polite about it Without straining for a lift

HIS BIG TASK.

A boy the other day applied for work at a factory where his three brothers had worked before they had enlisted. The manager, a thorough patriot, told the lad he could find him work at once, and then asked: "How is your brother Frank going on?" "He's out at the front, sir fighting." "Is Albert out in France as well?" "Yes, sir. He's wid our Frank—same regiment." "Your eldest brother, Jack, will be there also, I reckon?" "No," said the lad, with a proud shake of the head, "our Jack hasn't gone to France yet. E's mindin' India." And here is the cast-off cleft, Pushed to the edge of the yawning edge, What is the next shift left?

Finds Cure for Epilepsy After Years of Suffering

"My daughter was afflicted with epileptic fits for three years, the attacks coming every few weeks. We employed several doctors but they did her no good. About a year ago we heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine, and it certainly has proved a blessing to our little girl. She is now apparently cured and is enjoying the best of health. It is over a year since she has had a fit. We cannot speak too highly of Dr. Miles' Nervine."

MRS. FRANK ANDERSON, Comfrey, Minn.

Thousands of children in the United States who are suffering from attacks of epilepsy are a burden and sorrow to their parents, who would give anything to restore health to the sufferers.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is one of the best remedies known for this affliction. It has proven beneficial in thousands of cases and those who have used it have the greatest faith in it. It is not a "cure-all," but a reliable remedy for nervous diseases. You need not hesitate to give it a trial. Sold by all Druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit your money is returned. EVOLUTION.

(Somewhat in the manner of Langdon Smith.)
When you were a Busher and I was the same, Back in a Class D League. And side by side in the battle's side We fought through a year's fatigue. Or hammered many a three-base hit. Or whirled to a double play, Our hearts were filled with the game that thrilled And beckoned us on our way.
Careless we lived and careless we played, And careless at last we came To the blazing glow of the Game's Big Show And the glare and the flare of France; And loud they cheered as we ruled the field, Young gods of a golden age, Who were born to dwell through a kindly spell And rule on the Printed Page

And that seems a million years ago In a time we know not when And here today, in the same old way, We toil in the Bush again; Our eyes are bright and our chests are thick, Our hair is sable as jet, Our years are few—our life is new— Our souls untried—and yet— Our trail extends from the Fort Wayne field To the sod of the Polo Grounds; We have heard the cheers of a thousand years That came as a dream rebounds; But our arms are gone and our legs are bad,

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. DON'T STAY BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

"Dodson's Liver Tonic" Will Clean Your Sluggish Liver Better Than Calomel and Can Not Salivate.

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quicksilver and it salivates; calomel injures your liver. If you are bilious; feel lazy, sluggish and all knocked out, if your bowels are constipated and your head aches or stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tonic instead of using sickening, salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tonic is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine and your bowels will be working regular. You will feel like working. You'll be cheerful; full of energy, vigor and ambition.

Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than nasty calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want without being salivated. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning or you get your money back. Children gladly take Dodson's Liver Tonic because it is pleasant tasting and doesn't gripe or cramp or make them sick. I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tonic to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable, liver medicine takes the place of dangerous calomel. Buy one bottle on my sound, reliable guarantee. Ask your druggist about me.

PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN HAVE A SCRAP.

C. C. McDonald And John A. Mills, of Raleigh, Engage in Street Fight.

NO SERIOUS DAMAGE DONE.

Raleigh, April 22.—Robbers were busy in this section, judging by reports received today. Zebulon merchants were raided and their goods taken off and the Seaboard Air Line freight office in Raleigh was broken into and $50 carried away. The robbers did not dynamite the safe, but broke the lock after entering through a front window. By some it is thought that the persons who operated at Zebulon were the same who made the raid there. C. C. McDonald and John A. Mills, two of Raleigh's most prominent business men, attempted to settle a difference between them in a Jack Johnson-Jess Willard fashion on the street here today. Both men agreed as to the main fact, and all the police justice will have to do tomorrow is to pass on the case. Mr. McDonald a few days ago printed an advertisement in which he made reference to Mr. Mills, and this the latter did not like. He told Mr. McDonald that if the thing were repeated he would whip him. "Repeated you do it now," Mr. McDonald replied. The two waded in, but were parted before any damage was done, though Mr. Mills had secured a neck-hold on his antagonist and Mr. McDonald had made couple of scratches on Mr. Mills before the ministration of friends averted further breach of the peace.

MAKING LIQUOR.

A truthfull negro man, who is not addicted to drink, was asked the other day where the boys were getting their liquor now. He replied that they were making it; that stale bread and sugar, properly handled, made a very good substitute; also that it would make one drunk, but that it had to be strained real well to get the crumbs out of it. One thing is sure, liquor is being used around town to a considerable extent, but not as bad as formerly, but enough to be noticed.—Greensboro Record.

Sing a song of six pence, a pocket full of rye, aw cut it out, it's only a quart.

Our Democratic friends say that times continue to improve and yet the war is still raging fiercer than ever. During the campaign they said the hard times were the result of the war, wonder what they say now.

When our people learn that the tariff is the salvation of the workingman in times of peace, more of them will vote a protective tariff. The war is acting as a high tariff wall just now and do you note the difference, Josiah er buddy?

Since the county assessors must assess all property at its full value, some property that has been upon the market at a high figure has already taken a decided drop and it is still dropping, such is Democratic good government, Josiah er buddy.

It is said that the last legislature passed a law that the county assessors are to assess all property including real estate at its full value. This will more than double every man's taxes in this county. Well Democratic good government comes high, but it seems that we must have it, so let the dance go on.

Since the foreign countries cannot send any hosiery into this country, our hosiery mills are enjoying a little prosperity. Well if the tariff was put back where it was when the Republican party was in power, they would be prosperous all the time. Don't you think this good doctrine, Josiah-Er bully?

Cotton is selling around ten cents per pound, and yet the war is still on. Wonder what made cotton go up anyway. It must have been because the war shut out foreign made goods and our factories started up which created a demand for cotton, hence the rise in price. Think about this cotton and see if you can arrive at any other conclusion.

We hope our Democratic friends are correct when they say times are improving but we cannot understand how they reconcile this with their statement during the campaign that the war caused the dull times. The war seems to be just started and yet they say times are getting better all the time. Why don't they tell the truth and say that since the war started that no foreign made goods are coming to this country and this fact is causing a demand for American made products. This is the truth and our friends could afford to tell it just one time, but we believe that the people are catching on and know why times are improving.

What we say in this issue about bond-elections for railroads and schools must not be taken to mean that we are against them, but that we want to see the right thing done. It seems to us that we are not considerate enough of those who are not in position to make their views known and influence felt. We act as though we did not care just so we are satisfied and are getting what we want. This is not a community spirit and we hope all of us will be more considerate of our fellowmen in the future than we have in the past. Let's take the people into our confidence and talk these matters over with them and if we can't show them that it is to their interest to support these measures, there must not be much merit in them. What do you think of the school bond issue? What do you think of the railroad bond issue? The columns of the Dispatch are open to you. Give us your views, but be as brief as possible.

Let's have unity of action in all these matters that are now coming before us for consideration. What this town wants to do, is to do what is best for all, or at least a great majority of its citizens. We are going to be called upon to vote several large bond issues in the near future, in fact the elections have already been called. Now voting bonds is an easy matter, but we should be careful about voting them just the same. Before voting them, we should discuss the merits for which they are to be issued and decide if it will benefit us as much, or more than it will cost us. We are called upon to vote school bonds and railroad bonds and now it may be that all these things are necessary to the life and growth of our community, but let's go into the merits of each case and decide what is best for all of us and then let's go about it just like we would any other business proposition. We want these new enterprises and we want to educate our children, but there is a wrong and right way to do all these things, then let us decide which is the right way and go at it with the spirit of determination to do the right thing by those who are behind the enterprises and also the school building. Do not let mere sentiment sway you from what you believe to be for the best interest of those who are not so fortunate as to be able to employ lawyers to have things fixed as they want them. The Dispatch is going to stand upon the side of those who are the least able to make known their wants and who are not in a position to enforce their demands after they have made their wants known. Mr. Taxpayer, Mr. Voter, upon whose side are you going to stand? Choose this day whom you will serve. The issue is upon you and immediate consideration is required.

FOOD PRICES HIGH.

It looks now like food prices will remain high. Flour, meal, oats and corn are about the highest they have been and we believe they will go higher. There is no relief in sight from the high cost of living and another Democratic promise is shattered, well promises are made to be broken by the Democratic politicians. The rank and file are all right, but they put too much blind faith in some of their leaders. Think and act for yourselves and be men.

PAY YOUR POLL TAX.

Next Saturday is the last day in which you can pay your roll tax and vote in the city election for Burlington, or any other city in this State or county, also in the school bond election, and either one or both of the Railroad bond elections. Poll taxes must be paid on or before May 1st for the year previous in which you offer to vote. Better pay your poll tax so that you can exercise the full privilege of citizenship. Your taxes have to be paid anyway, therefore pay them now.

THINK WELL.

We want to warn our citizens to think well before they act upon the proposed bond issue for schools. It is all right to stand for education, but we ought to be fair with ourselves. The proposition is to put forty thousand dollars in a school building upon the present site. Forty thousand dollars is quite a sum of money to spend on one spot in as big a town as Burlington. This town is badly scattered and in our opinion, it would be nothing short of a crime to burden our taxpayers with another bond issue for forty thousand dollars, and to continue to make the little year old tots from the different parts of the town go all the way to the present graded school site. If we are really anxious about the education of the children, why not put them close to it, so that they can get to school in all kinds of weather. We believe that it would be the part of wisdom to expend a part of this vast sum of forty thousand dollars some where else, the old Union Church property for the benefit of the little children six years old and up and not require them to go nearly a mile in all kinds of weather to get to a forty thousand dollar school building. Why not expend six or eight thousand dollars of this money upon a good comfortable school house, located in a good convenient place for the small children in West Burlington or in other words North and West of Main street and then expend the remainder for a nice building at the present site? This matter should receive the attention of the citizens of Burlington immediately before it is too late to make the necessary changes. Our city fathers should consider this matter and let the citizens know their view. With our assessed valuation doubled and an additional forty thousand upon us with what we already have is loading us some. What say you Citizens? What say you City Fathers? If you want to carry this bond issue, this matter will require some consideration.

When Democrats stole votes and committed election frauds in North Carolina, they were patted on the backs and looked up to as good fellows and rewarded with office of some kind, but up in Terre Haute, they put stripes on their backs, and they were looked down on as common thieves and sent to the penitentiary. That's the difference in North Carolina and Indiana.

FRAUD PAINT.

The worst mistake one is likely to make in painting is wrong paint; it is easy to make.

We all say "Ours is the best," and there are 1000 of us. One is best; but a dozen are so near on a level that no one knows, for sure, that his is the one.

The worst paints are worst hars; they know what they are, put-on a bold face, and brazen it out.

Their one true argument is low price; but low-price paint is always, must be a fraud; it is made to cheat cheatable people.

THE SIDETRACKING OF MR. McCOMBS. IF YOU HAVE A FRIEND WORTH LOVING.

The white dove of peace seems at present to be taking a vacation from the councils of the Democratic party. Instead of the harmony and the energetic co-operation of all concerned which is supposed to follow political victory in the nation, there is dissension and discord. Even the feeling of gratitude for things accomplished and for the gringing about results, seems to me in the inner circles of Democracy.

There is a sturdy movement on foot to dislodge the chairman of the Democratic National Committee from his position, and it is openly stated by men who should know wereof they speak that this has the acquiescence of President Wilson. The President certainly could stop such a movement if he so desired. One word from him and the planning and scheming would end at once. By his own confession and boast he is the leader of his party, and therefore, his wish is law, especially to the National Committee of his party. The fact that this scheme has at last come out in the open, and without any rebuke from the White House, shows that no steps have been taken by Mr. Wilson to halt its progress.

If Chairman McCombs is put out of the chairmanship of the national organization of the Democracy, it will reveal a great sense of ingratitude on the part of Mr. Wilson. At the request of Mr. Wilson he was made chairman of the Democratic National Committee. After the election, and after the inauguration, the Wilson enthusiasm for him faded. It has been known for some time that his visits to the White House are not hailed with glee by the President. Now comes the movement to have another put at the head of the National Committee of the party of which Mr. Wilson is the leader.

If you have a friend worth loving,
Love him. Yes, and let him know
That you love him ere life's evening
Tinge his brow with sunset glow.
Why should good words ne'er be said
Of a friend—till he is dead?

If you hear a song that thrills you,
Sing by any child of song.
Praise it. Do not let the singer
Wait deserved praises long.
Why should one who thrills your heart
Lack the joy you may impart?

If you hear a prayer that moves you,
By its humble, pleading tone,
Join it. Do not let the seeker
Bow before his God alone.
Why should not your brother share
The strength of "two or three" in prayer?

If you see the hot tears falling
From a brother's weeping eyes
Share them. And by kindly sharing
Own your kinship in the skies.
Why should any one be glad
When a brother's heart is sad?

If a silvery laugh goes rippling
Through the sunshine on his face,
Share it. 'Tis the wise man's saying—
For both grief and joy a place.
There's health and goodness in the mirth
In which an honest laugh has birth.

If your work is made more easy
By a friendly, helping hand,
Say so. Speak out brave and truly
Ere the darkness veil the land.
Should a brother workman dear
Falter for a word of cheer?

Scatter thus your seeds of kindness,
All enriching as you go—
Leave them. Trust the Harvest Giver.
He will make each seed grow.
So, until the happy end,
Your life shall never lack a friend.

WHY WILSON IS NEUTRAL IN WAR.
No Petty Desire.

"My interest in the neutrality of the United States is not the petty desire to keep out of trouble. I have never looked for it, but I have always found it. I do not want to walk around trouble. If any man wants a scrap that is an interesting scrap and worth while, I am his man. I warn him that he is not going to draw me into the scrap for his advertisement, but if he is looking for trouble and that is the trouble of men in general and I can help a little, why then I am in for it. But I am interested in neutrality because there is something so much greater to do than fight, because there is something, there is a distinction waiting for this nation that no nation has ever got. That is the distinction of absolute self-control and self-mastery. Whom do you admire most among your friends? The irritable man? The man out of whom you can get a "rise" without trying? The man who will fight at the drop of the hat whether he knows what the hat is dropped for, or not?"

"Don't you admire and don't you fear if you have to contest with him, the self-mastered man who watches you with eagle eye and comes in only when you have carried the thing so far that you must be disposed? That is the man you must respect. That is the man you know has at the bottom more fundamental and terrible courage than the irritable fighting man."

SAYS WORSHIPERS SIT IN CHURCH "LIKE A LOT OF OYSTERS."

Rev. J. J. D. Hall Illustrates Average Churchgoers Way Of Worshipping.

Kinston, N. C., April 20.—"You sit in church like a lot of oysters."

It was a select and large congregation of Episcopalians in St. Mary's church here that Rev. J. J. D. Hall, the greatest rescue worker of that denomination in the country made the remark to the effect was instantaneous.

Then Dr. Hall leaped back upon the pulpit which he had left to "get closer" to his hearers sat upon a chair half recliningly and illustrated to them the average church goer's way of worshipping. He sang a few lines of a hymn in an indifferent manner to give them an idea about the lack of fervor of the congregation.

"You won't care a snap of your finger more for your Bill or John or your Mary or Maggie in heaven than you do for little black Hottentots," the Philadelphian asserted. "That isn't the plan of things in heaven." He dynamited a lot of private philosophies.

Most of his hearers caught Dr. Hall's spirit, but there was hardly a sprinter among them who could have caught him, so ubiquitous is he. He took a rap at the circus, at card-playing, and deplored the way women dress. "Last year there was a tendency to dress so that they could barely walk; now they are just the opposite" he said. He told about how he "bawled out" the son of a very prominent New York minister because he smelled whiskey on his breath. An assistant suggested that possibly he was too severe with the youth who went away highly offended. "Nothing doing; he swallowed the hook down to his belt." Dr. Hall said, and sure enough, the next evening the minister's son came back and was converted. He illustrated the case of David, "a real man," and Goliath, "the toughest mutt in town."

"Some of you came here to hear me say something unusual; some of you came to criticize my grammar, and some of you came to get religion" Dr. Hall said, "and I hope you will all be satisfied."

The famous mission worker is today enroute back to his Galilee mission in Philadelphia, where he last year preached to 200,000 people. "This crowd is tame," Dr. Hall told the congregation here. "You should see ones I have to deal with at home. I might be murdered any minute."

MILLS PREPARE TO SUPPLY DYESTUFF.

Score of American Firms Establish Color Works or Enlarge Outputs.

Washington, April 20.—More than a score of American firms are establishing new color works or enlarging the output of existing plants to meet the demands of the textile industries and other allied branches of manufacture for dyestuffs, the supply of which formerly came almost exclusively from Germany and which has been cut off since Great Britain's embargo against German commerce. The Department of Commerce today announced it was devoting much attention to the progress in American dyestuff manufacture, and had found a noteworthy advance.

One company has provided for additional by-product ovens at an outlay of $1,000,000. Plants at Johnstown, Pa., Gary, Ind., Youngstown, Ohio, Inland Harbor, Ind., Buffalo, Woodward, Ala., and others in the South, all are increasing or establishing facilities for benzol production. A plant at Marcus Hook, Pa., is nearly completed for the manufacture of intermediates on a large scale.

Will Produce Aniline Oil. It is hoped, a report from Commercial Agent Thomas H. Norton says, those works will produce most of the aniline oil and salts required by American color works.

Among existing dyestuff works, a large plant at Buffalo has greatly widened the scope of its manufacture; one at Brooklyn has increased its capital to $1,000,000 and equipped a spacious new plant; a new company has leased a large plant at Stamford, Conn., which had not been in operation for two years; a New York firm has established the manufacture of sulphur colors, the consumption of which class of coal tar dyes is very large, especially in the dye manufacture, and a big steel company is planning a dyestuff plant to use its benzol, intending to concentrate manufacture at the outset upon a few of the staple dyes in greatest demand.

In addition, several firms commanding ample capital are planning to establish new plants for the production of artificial dyestuff, and a few large consumers of coal tar dyes have constructed emergency plants and are making for themselves the colors most essential to the maintenance of their normal output. American coal tar dye factories are making every effort to increase their output. These include factories at Albany, N. Y., and three at Newark, N. J. Extensions also are being made by manufacturers of vegetable dyestuffs, including firms at New York, Stamford, Conn., and Hanover, Pa.

THE SCRIBE'S REBUTTAL. Don't ask me what this cheering is,

The jeering that is nearing is, The vocalistic patter and the chatter of the day;

Don't ask me what the shout's about, The rabble-tinted rout's about, Nor all the hectic frenzy at the zenith of its play;

Don't ask me, pal, I haven't time To even tell you in this rhyme To break the news, though gently,

From my busy working shelf; I'd like to put you next to it— To furnish you the text of it, But something's bound to happen And I'm headed there myself.

Don't ask me what this howling is, This smear of growling, scowling is, The volcanistic, cataclystic tumult in the air;

Nor what the bally frenzy is, The thorax-strained cadency is, Nor why a nation suddenly is caring out its hair;

Don't ask me, pal, I'm busy now The ooze has reeked my calmy brow, And space today is precious So I cannot tip the sign;

I'd like to, in the grist of it, At least slip you the gist of it, But something's bound to happen, And I think it's in my line.

THE WRECKAGE. I knew him when his smile was keen,

A merry pal to all around him; I knew him when he stayed serene No matter in what luck you found him;

Back when he hurried trouble's store With cheering laughter, all enticing; But that was several weeks before He started sicing.

I knew him when he never biffed His loving spouse upon the syllab; I knew him when he'd never drift

By drawing sorrow with a highball; But when his laughter was a gear

Of joyant gleam, all smiling; He was as warm as me before He started sicing.

"Very good," commended the pastor, "And now, tell me, who said those beautiful words?" No response. Pause.

"Can no little boy or little girl tell me who said those beautiful words?" "Any one can tell me." One little hand waving in the rear.

"Ah, Willie, I'm glad to see your hand up. Tell me, who said those beautiful words?"

NOTICE.

The citizens and qualified voters in the city of Burlington will take notice of the new registration and election in the city of Burlington.

You are hereby notified that pursuant to the provisions of an act of the General Assembly entitled "AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE AND EMPOWER THE CITY OF BURLINGTON TO ISSUE BONDS TO OBTAIN FUNDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF ERECTING AND EQUIPPING PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDINGS IN SAID CITY," an election will be held at the several voting places in the above named city on the 8th day of June, 1915 upon the proposition of the adoption of said act and determining whether said act shall become law applicable to said city. You will further take notice that an application in writing of sixty qualified voters of said city has been made to the Mayor and Board of Alderman, the said application requesting the order of a special election in said city upon the question of issuing bond of said city in the sum of $40,000.00 for the purpose of erecting and equipping public school buildings in said city. That pursuant to said act and petition a special election has been ordered to be held on said 8th day of June, 1915 upon the question of the issuance of $40,000.00 in bonds for the purpose of erecting and equipping public school buildings in said city, the said bonds, (provided the majority of the qualified voters of the said city shall have voted for the public school building bonds), shall be issued in the denominations of $1,000.00 each carrying interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, all of which bonds shall run for a term of thirty years. When said bonds shall have been issued they shall be sold by the Board of Alderman at the best price which they can obtain, not to be sold for less, however, than the par value of said bonds, and they shall use the proceeds of said bonds for the sole and only purpose of erecting and equipping buildings to be used as public school buildings in said city of Burlington, and said Board of Alderman shall keep accurate account showing the amount received for said bonds and the manner in which the same is expended.

This the 22nd day of April, 1915.

JAS. P. MONTGOMERY,
Secretary & Treasurer.

Whereas, the General Assembly of North Carolina of the year of our Lord One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Thirteen enacted "AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE AND EMPOWER THE CITY OF BURLINGTON TO ISSUE BONDS TO OBTAIN FUNDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF ERECTING AND EQUIPPING PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDINGS IN SAID CITY," and whereas, said act thereof provides that an election shall be held for the purpose of determining whether said act shall become law; and whereas, on the 22nd day of April, 1915, a petition was presented to the Mayor and Board of Alderman, at a regular meeting of said Board, by sixty and a great many more than sixty, qualified citizens, taxpayers and free holders of the city of Burlington, asking that the said Mayor and Board of Alderman order an election on the question of issuance of bonds for forty thousand ($40,000.00) dollars for the purpose of erecting and equipping public school buildings in said city.

Now, therefore, it is ordered that on the 8th day of June, 1915, there shall be held in the city of Burlington an election which shall be held in all respects as provided by law for the holding of elections for Mayor and Alderman of said city and at which time all the voters who are then registered and qualified to vote, shall be entitled to vote for the purpose of determining whether it is the will of such voters that the aforesaid act shall become law and applicable to the said city of Burlington. Voters desiring to vote for the adoption of said act favoring the issuing of said bonds shall vote a ballot of white paper on which shall be written or printed the words "For School Bonds" and those opposed to issuing said bonds shall vote a ballot of white paper on which shall be written or printed the words "Against School bonds."

It is further ordered that a new registration of the qualified voters of said city be had and to this end the registrars herein-after named shall open registration books for this purpose in their respective wards on the 3rd day of May, 1915, the same to remain open for the registration of voters on each day in the week, Sundays excepted, from 9 o'clock A. M. to 6 o'clock P. M., until 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, the 5th day of June, 1915.

It is further ordered that notice of said new registration and election be published thirty days prior to the holding of said election and once a week thereafter until said election is held, and that said notice be published in some newspaper of general circulation in the city of which notice shall state the date on which said election shall be held, the amount for which it is proposed to issue bonds, how long said bonds shall run, the rate of interest to carry and the purpose to which the proceeds of bonds shall be applied.

It is further ordered that the said bonds shall be issued in denominations of $1,000.00 each and shall carry interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, all of which bonds shall run for thirty years.

It is further ordered that B. M. WALKER be, and he is hereby appointed registrar for the First Ward, and that S. C. MOORE and H. K. HALL, be and are hereby appointed inspectors for the First Ward; that L. J. FONVILLE be, and he is hereby appointed registrar for the Second Ward, and that GEO. SMITH and F. W. WAY be, and they are hereby appointed inspectors for the Fourth Ward.

This the 22nd day of April, 1915.

Secretary & Treasurer.

MORE ECONOMICAL COUNTY GOVERNMENT NEEDED.

The abolition of the office of county treasurer is a straw that shows which way the wind is blowing. It marks the beginning of economic reforms in governmental administration. And there are other wastes that will, in the course of time, be eliminated. For instance, practically all the work of the clerk's office, the register of deeds' office, and the sheriff's office is done by clerks and deputies, and usually one clerk or deputy handles the work of each office, and they usually become efficient in their work. Therefore in the office of clerk of court there is one overseer and one hand. In the register of deeds' office you will find another overseer and another hand, and in the sheriff's office another hand is working under another overseer.

Now, the question is; why divide this business up into three departments? In our business and industrial enterprises one overseer supervises the work of half a hundred or more men. In the administration of the business affairs of the county, why do we want to employ a five or ten-dollar overseer for each three-dollar clerk? If overseers in well organized and systematized business enterprises can successfully supervise and direct the work of half a hundred men, couldn't one efficient overseer look after less than a half dozen deputies and clerks in the three county offices mentioned? It is true that an overseer of this kind would not have so much time to engage in social conversation with his constituents, but after the economies were realized the constituent wouldn't kick on that feature of it. An auditor who had just finished with the books at a courthouse in a small county, where the expenses of maintaining the offices amounted to $9,000, was asked what it would cost to run these offices if ordinary business methods were employed under consolidation, and he answered, $4,500.—J. Z. Green in Marshville Home.

EARLIEST SWEET POTATOES.

From North Carolina: "What are the earliest varieties of sweet potatoes? Some farmers here plant Southern Queen, and sell them in Asheville in August, and a few have begun to plant Nancy Hall. Is there an earlier variety than either?"

Southern Queen is a name given years ago by a New York seedman to the old Hayman, commonly known in eastern North Carolina and Virginia. It is the earliest sweet potato I know of. I have seen claims made for a variety called the Early Triumph in the South, but have never seen the potato. The Nancy Hall is fairly early, but hardly as early as Hayman. As you know the Hayman under the name of Southern Queen I do not know that you can find an earlier one. Nancy Hall is a better potato.

FARMERS SHOULD CO-OPERATE WITH THEIR COUNTY PAPERS.

The Record-Advertiser, published at Houston, Va., is urging its rural subscribers to do what we should like for our farmers to do—give us the news from their farms—to make our paper a sort of clearing house of ideas for farmers of this vicinity.

Farmers do not use their local papers enough, and yet the papers afford the best and quickest ways to build up their farms and communities. Every farmer should tell his local paper about his success on the farm and how they were achieved. We are always glad to get a "farming story," for it enables us to spread the news of progress in our vicinity. And no one needs a flow of eloquence to tell of his success. The facts of a farming success are eloquent in themselves. So write us. The editor can re-arrange the wording if need be done.

No farmer should be too indifferent or too engrossed in his own work to pass a good idea along to his fellowmen, thus giving them the benefit of his experience. Such articles are always an inspiration to others. We well know the true and lasting advancement of our community can come in no other way than through the upbuilding of our farms, and it is not political and social news we want any more than it is news from the farms.—Walterboro Press and Banner.

A St. Louis woman killed her brother to save him from drink. She saved him.

PUT ALL OFFICERS ON SALARY BASIS.

The following dispatch from Greensboro, N. C., will interest readers who believe officers in all stronger counties should be paid salaries instead of fees:

"During 1914 the Gordon act, which placed Guilford county officers on salaries, saved to the county $18,186.69, which goes to the road fund. Until eight years ago the county officers were on fees, and the act has saved in the eight years something like $90,000 to the county."

Listen also to this from the Memphis Commercial-Appeal:

"Some of our able officials in Shelby County draw $15,000 net after paying deputies, most of whom are political or blood allies. Our courthouse is filled with cousins, nephews, uncles and aunts. If the men holding the various fee offices were paid a decent salary and the surplus in fees was collected and administered for the benefit of the county, we could add another month to our school term, or we could add 20 miles of pike every year to our system, or we could repair 50 miles of pike every year with the funds."

Moreover, we not only ought to know how much we are paying officers we do need, but we ought not to be paying anything for officers we don't need at all. The people of Florida, for example, voted almost overwhelmingly at the recent election to abolish the office of county treasurer, the decision taking effect two years hence. Other states would do well to follow Florida's progressive example.

For our own part we are just about convinced, however, that in simply proposing to abolish one useless office we are not going far enough. It begins to look as if in county as well as in city we must come to the commission form of government. And if you wish to read a very effective presentation of this case, "A More Economical County Government is Needed."—Progressive Farmer.

On April 21, Dora Evans, an old colored woman of Orange county who had been missed for 5 weeks, was found by a small colored boy, partially devoured by dogs. The evidence in the case pointed to show that she had been killed and later moved to the place where she was found. There were two wounds in her chest which is supposed to have been done with knives. There is no clue as to the guilty ones.

Now that President Wilson has been licensed as a "newsy," the way is open to him to rise to almost any old height in this world.
