BATTLES ALONG EASTERN FRONT CONTINUE UNABATED

All Along Line From Riga to Roumanian Frontier Fighting Severe.

ADVANCE IS STEADY

German Making Slow But Steady Headway-- Russians Increasing Activities in Caucasus

Nothing has developed to lessen the tension caused by Germany's note to the United States on the Arabic, but Ambassador Bernstorff has returned to Washington to discuss the situation with Secretary Lansing. The Ambassador is declared to be optimistic over prospects of a satisfactory settlement.

Washington has not yet received Vienna's reply to its request that Doctor Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador, be recalled, because of his attempts to interfere with the manufacture of war munitions in America.

The German memorandum concerning the submarine attack on the British liner Orduna has reached Washington, but its contents have not yet been revealed.

Heavy battles are in progress along the eastern front at various points from Courland to Bukovina. Berlin and Vienna claim progress everywhere but it is admitted by both that the Russians have not given way in the Niemen River district and in Galicia without hard fighting.

Withdrawal of the Russians along the Niemen and to the south has been ordered by the Russian commander, but the Muscovites are keeping up their efforts to retard the Touton advance. Near Tarnopol the Russians penetrated the Austro-German trenches, according to Vienna, but later were driven out.

Except for one minor infantry engagement, fighting in the west has consisted solely of artillery duels, which at several points are described as particularly violent. No advance is claimed by either side.

Paris says relative calm has prevailed on Gallipoli Peninsula for five days, but that on the southern end of the peninsula the Allies' mortars have destroyed two small Turkish forts.

Along the Austro-Italian front the big guns are still operating from both sides. In the Piezzo basin the Italians claim to have defeated an Austrian attack after a violent struggle.

A dispatch from Greece says German aeroplanes, heavily loaded with munitions for the Turks, constantly are flying over Serbian and Bulgarian territory from Orsova, Hungary, to Adrianople.

Zeppelins again have raided the east coast of England, but the bombs dropped did not cause casualties or material damage, according to London.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY PICNIC.

Quite a large crowd of young people enjoyed a picnic and supper at Piedmont Park last Thursday evening. The crowd went on the five o'clock car and returned at eight o'clock. A supper was the feature of the occasion. All enjoyed the evening very much. After the picnic the party visited the Grotto. Those comprising the jovial crowd were: Misses Grace More, Lelia Lamb, Celeste Isley, Bessie Walker, Carrie Fix, Annie Dare Elder, Louise Murray, Louise Blagg, Lucille Page, Elmer Shoffner, Annie Atwater; Messrs. Wiley Russell, Charles Guthrie, Marvin Holt, Joseph Fix, Burton Smith, Henry Atwater, Glen Holt, Raymond Barrett, Robert Blagg, and Robert Hay. Miss Carrie Cox chaperoned the party.

REVIVAL MEETING CONTINUES.

The revival meeting which has been in progress at the Methodist Protestant Church during the past week continues with large crowds present at each service. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Curry, has preached in very forceful and appealing manner, his sermons being directed to both the Christian and non-Christian. There has been considerable interest manifested by the people and a few conversions have resulted so far.

Prof. T. O. Pender of Mebane, has been conducting the singing in a very successful and pleasing manner. He is a graduate of vocal music and is noted for his ability to get the people to sing, not only in the choir but in the entire congregation. He is also an excellent soloist and has delighted the congregations with many of his best selections.

The hour for the services has been changed from eight o'clock to half past seven. The music training for the children by Prof. Pender is given at three o'clock in the afternoon instead of ten o'clock in the morning. The meeting will probably continue through part or all of this week. The public is invited to attend all the services.

Some 2,200 men are on a strike at the Bridgeport (Conn.) corset factories. With the women folks, this may cut quite a figure.

MR. MITCHELL SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Mr. Henry Mitchell was driving into town last Saturday afternoon and when he arrived near the Morrow Hotel the mule which he was driving to a buggy became frightened and ran away, throwing Mr. Mitchell from the buggy. The accident proved serious, as Mr. Mitchell was injured badly about the head. Physicians were quickly summoned & his wounds were dressed. While the injuries were serious, it is believed that they are not fatal, and that Mr. Mitchell will improve very nicely.

GERMANS PERFECTING NEW GIANT BIPLANES.

Copenhagen, Sept. 6.—Via London, Sept. 6, 2:38 P. M.—The new type of giant biplane undergoing tests in Germany is said to have a measurement of 42 1-2 metres across the plane. The motors develop 300 horse-power and each works three propellers.

These biplanes are capable of carrying sufficient fuel for flights of eight hours. They are equipped with wireless and search lights. Each carries twelve bombs weighing 22 pounds apiece and five machine guns.

Biplanes of this type will have crews of eight men and will be able to travel to London and back in five hours. The engineers say the new craft will supersede the Zeppelin.

REDUCTION IN WIRE RATES.

New York, Sept. 13.—Clarence H. Mackay, the President of The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company announces that the Company has made a second reduction in the leased wire rate for the press at night. This second reduction now makes the night rate one-fourth of what it was 60 days ago. Mr. Mackay in making the announcement said: "Our wires are idle at night and so we can afford to transmit news freely and cheaply. We have decided to do so." The whole public will get the benefit.

"I can get you a divorce without publicity for $1,000," said a lawyer to Harry Thaw.

"How much would it cost with publicity?" asked Thaw.

BIG SHOW COMING

The Children Enjoy It.

"Yes, the children wanted to come, and after much persuasion I consented to bring them."

How often has every American heard this remark in the menagerie tent of the circus? Sometimes the speaker was perhaps a crusty old bachelor, who had escorted his little nephews and nieces to see the wild beasts of the jungle. Again, it was the proud parents, whose faces beamed with paternal or maternal love as the case might be, while watching the antics of the future congressmen or future stately matrons of society, as they behold the swaying, ponderous form of the elephants. Of course, the old folks care not for the menagerie. Far be it from the average man or woman to admit that he or she cares to tread the tanbark or sawdust and watch wild animals parading up and down their cages. This form of entertainment does not appeal to the adult. That is why many who are not blessed with children go to the circus. They want to see the show in order to tell the neighbors' children about it, or write to some little ones in another part of the country, in order to delight the sunshine of some household. No, the old folks do not care for the barebacks riders, the clowns and the hundred and one attractions of a thrilling circus. Still they go every time that they have a chance, and usually they remain when the announcement is made: "You can now secure your tickets for the grand concert as our gentlemanly agents pass among you." One American circus has just completed a five years' tour of Europe and the continent. Kings, Emperors, dukes, lords, duchesses and queens drank red lemonade and those of royal birth who had no little ones went simply to enjoy the antics of the children and others.

The Robinson Famous Shows regard the attention and care given to ladies and children as the first consideration.

The circus is distinctly American. Side show wonders never run out. One freak follows another; there is always some extraordinary feature in the annex to interest every one.

The Big Show Will Be Here, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER, 25TH.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. HARPER AT HOME.

The lovely home of President and Mrs. Harper, at Elon College, was the scene yesterday from five till six thirty of a most brilliant and charming reception, given in honor of the new faculty members and their wives. The President's residence had been beautifully decorated for the event with profusion of sun-flowers and roses and presented a picture of rare delight to the eye.

The receiving line was composed of President and Mrs. Harper, Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Randolph, Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Miss Baker, Mr. Edwin M. Betts, Miss Harris, Mr. F. F. Myrick, Mr. W. J. Cotten, Prof. and Mrs. R. C. Cox.

The guests were met at the west entrance of front corridor by Miss Ann Watson, and conducted to a lovely bower of roses in a cosy corner of the spacious veranda, where Mesdames Lawrence and McNally served delicious punch. They were then presented to the receiving line by Prof. and Mr. C. C. Johnson.

From their presentation to the receiving line, the guests were ushered into the sun-flower decorated dining room by Miss Lena Ragedale, where Misses Jennie Willis Atkinson and Annie Simpson served cake and cream, almonds, candied ginger, mints, and other delicacies.

From the dining room they were conducted to the south drawing room where hot chocolate was served by Misses Annie Laurie Wicker and Miss Jones, of New Bern. Mesdames Atkinson and Jones assisted in the serving and a special orchestra throughout the reception softly rendered sweet and tender musical numbers.

It was the most brilliant social event given here in many a day. Every member of the Faculty was present and many invited guests of the College community. The new members of the Faculty expressed themselves as highly gratified at the honor shown them and every one who came left with sincere and merited praise for the agreeable host and his most charming companion, who is known as an expert in the delicate art of entertaining.

MISS WHITLEY HONOREE.

On last Thursday evening Mrs. J. Zeb Waller entertained quite a number of young people at her home on Spring Street in honor of Miss Clara Whitley of Smithfield, who is the guest of her friend, Miss Lois Workman for a few days.

Rook was the principal game of the evening, which was played at several tables in the usual style and pleasant manner.

Miss Swannie Patterson presided at the punch bowl. Refreshments consisting of cream and cake were served also. The time for departure came all too soon and those present enjoyed the pleasures of the evening so thoroughly that there was no hesitancy in declaring Mrs. Waller a most delightful hostess.

SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENT.

Glenhope Public School will open for registration and organization Saturday morning, September 25, at 8:30 o'clock. Our hope is that every boy and girl of the school age in District No. 2, Graham Township, will be on hand promptly.

If your children are busy helping you, let them come and be enrolled anyway. We are going to have a successful school, backed as always by the people of the District. We are counting on all parents to send their children from the first day to the last. Let your motto be: "My child at school, on time, every day in the school year!"

PATTIE J. GROVES,
Principal.

North Carolina has added another to the number of its women practicing attorneys, but the female of the species is not permitted to act as a notary public in Tarheeldom. As we to infer from this that our very good friends, the Down Homers, consider that the taking of acknowledgements requires higher qualifications than the practice of law?

Less politics and more business will make Burlington "The City With a Future."

TO HOLD CAKE SALE.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Protestant Church will conduct a cake sale in the new Isley Building on Front Street next Saturday afternoon, beginning at four o'clock. TO YOUTH.

(Walter Savage Landor.) Where art thou gone, light-ankled youth? With wing at either shoulder, And smile that never left thy mouth, Until the hours grew older, Then somewhat seemed to whisper near, That thou and I must part; I doubted; I felt no fear, No weigh upon the heart: If aught befell it, Love was by And rolled it off again; So, if there ever was a sigh, 'Twas not a sigh of pain, I may not call thee back; but thou Returnest when the hand Of gentle Sleep waves o'er my brow His poppy-created wand, Then smiling eyes bend over mine, Then lips once pressed invite; But sleep hath given a silent sign, And both, alas! take flight.

The voices behind the movement for ankle watches for women are apparently those of the jewelers, but isn't there ground for suspicion that the hands that are engineering it are the hands of the oculists and the opticians?

HILLSBORO HAS WOMAN ATTORNEY.

Chapel Hill, Sept. 8.—An event of some interest took place in the old historic town of Hillsboro today when Miss Margaret Kollock Berry was sworn in as a practicing attorney before the Superior court of Orange county. Miss Berry is the fourth woman lawyer in North Carolina and the first to receive the degree of bachelor of laws. She was graduated in 1913 from the State Normal and Industrial College with the degree of bachelor of science; in 1913 from the University of North Carolina with the degree of bachelor of arts; and received the degree of the bachelor of laws at the recent University commencement.

The university law building (formerly known as the Smith building), in which Miss Berry was a student of law was designed and erected by her father, Captain Berry, of Orange county, in 1848, and this building is generally considered today the most artistic on the campus. The court house at Hillsboro in which she received the oath of office was likewise designed and built by Captain Berry in 1846. He was also the architect and builder of many other public buildings such as Wake Forest College, St. Johns College at Oxford, many court houses in Piedmont North Carolina, etc. Captain Berry was the owner of large plantations and many slaves, a number of whom were trained in some of the builder's arts. He served the State in the convention of 1861 which withdrew the state from the union and in 1866 which reinstated the state. He also served in numerous legislatures, both in the house and senate, and was one of the participants in the famous contested election case of Berry vs. Waddell, which was won by Captain Berry through a very able attorney, Duncan MacRae.

Miss Berry is a young woman of pleasing personality and to quote the Yackety Yack for 1915: "A rare combination of high aspirations, keen intellect and 'just girl.' A suffragette of course, and proves her right to the ballot by standing among the first in the class. But she is too full of the joy of living to sacrifice her girlhood to her theories. She excels in arguing a case, but is more at home in a drawing room."

This is the season of the year when the plants are dug out of the bath tub to make room for the coal.

"WHAT WE DON'T KNOW."

Old Noah, now must bear the blame For wreckin' all the race; 'Scuse us, friend Adam its a shame, This thing you've had to face. Six thousand years have floated by Since men charged up this loot; Now it turns out you're not the guy At all that ate the fruit. Six thousand years; shame on all we. You've borne in silence all This scandal of the apple tree, An' 'bout the human fall, An' you so innocent ole man Through all these long, long years. We've been heapin' the withrin' ban About your sinless ears. You never knew, it would appear, About the apple yarn, Fact is the tning did not occur, 'Til long since you were born. That's what a great man tells us now, Two thousand years had swept Tween Adam's day an' this ole' row, 'Bout which folks long have wept. This highbrow says Noah's the kid, That he's the chap to knock, That he's the guy that raised the lid, An' give the world a shock. It's wondrous ain't it, what we know, An' marvelous our ways; Fact is, I wonder how we show, Up 'fore the ole time Jays? —Exchange.

BIG TOBACCO SALES FOR WEEK AT KINSTON.

More Than 750,000 Pounds Sold on Tuesday and Wednesday. Winston, N. C., Sept. 9.—More than three-quarters of a million pounds of tobacco was sold here Tuesday and Wednesday, according to an estimate of the tobacco board of trade today. Around $60,000 changed hands. Big breaks were the rule at all the warehouses today. The other markets in the bright leaf belt are reporting the heaviest sales of the season so far. Over two million pounds will be sold here in the five sales days of next week, the tobaccoists confidently predict. This week's total will be in excess of 1,250,000 pounds, and a hundred thousand dollars or more will go into the planters' pockets, although Monday's sales were scant and tomorrow's are expected to be smaller than the average. Five counties contributed to the piles here this morning. Quality of the offerings has been good all the week, with the average price gradually improving.

SO CONSIDERATE.

It had been their first separation, and during the one week the young husband had sent his dear little wife ten letters, fifteen post cards and four telegrams, says the Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph. Why, then this touch of coldness in her welcome on his return? "Dearest," he whispered, as he drew her to his many bosom, what is wrong? What have I done to upset my little ducksy-wopsy? "Oh, George," she replied in broken tones, "you didn't send me a kiss in your seventh letter." George thought like lightning for a moment before he replied: "I know I didn't, pety, but I had steak and onions that night for supper and you wouldn't like me to kiss you after eating onions, would you?" We notice that some people are ready to stand behind the President with a Big Stick.

HUSBAND SLAYS WIFE, HER SISTER AND HIMSELF.

Fatal Shooting on Nashville Street Car Follows Separation and Divorce Suit.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 8.—Panic-stricken passengers on a street car here early today witnessed the fatal shooting of Mrs. George Smith and her sister, Mrs. Maud Sloan Hunter, by George Smith. Smith left the car, hurried home and shot himself as officers were entering his gate to arrest him. Smith and the two women are dead. Smith, who was a mechanic, aged thirty-five years, had been separated from his wife, who was suing for divorce. He started to shoot without warning and panic reigned in the car as he continued firing and one after the other of the women fell prostrate to the floor.

UNITED STATES IN NEED OF 1,000 AIRSHIPS, AVIATOR SAYS.

Without Such a Fleet Coast Never Will be Safe, John L. Callan Declares—Has Served in Italy.

A fleet of one thousand aeroplanes and hydroaeroplanes must be put into service before the coast of the United States will become secure from invasion by a foreign power, according to John Lansing Callan, an American aviator, who served as a lieutenant in the Italian Aviation Corps until two weeks ago.

Mr. Callan now is instructing Clarke Thompson, of Merion, how to handle his huge new hydroaeroplane, which took several trial flights at League Island yesterday afternoon. Such machines as Mr. Thompson's are making history in Europe as scouts, Mr. Callan said.

FIFTEEN MISSING WHEN SUBMARINE SINKS SHIP.

La Rochelle, France, Sept. 8.—The British steamer Carony was fired upon and sunk by a German submarine last night. One boat with the captain and 14 of the crew is reported missing. Maritime records do not contain the name Carony. There is a Caroni, 2,652 tons gross, owned by the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company.

HOLDING A BABY.

The proper way to lift a baby is to slip the left hand under the back beneath the shoulders, spreading the fingers out in such a way as to support the neck and head, and lift the feet and legs with the right hand. It is dangerous to life a child without giving its spine proper support in this way.

A baby should never be lifted by the arms. It is quite possible to dislocate the shoulder joint by this and other careless methods of lifting.

POOR

GERMANY BIDS 15 CENTS PER POUND FOR COTTON.

Berlin, Sept. 8.—Via London.—German cotton men are taking up earnestly the plan to purchase American cotton. They sent a wireless to the German consulate in New York Aug. 31 offering to buy 1,000,000 bales at 15 cents per pound on delivery in a German harbor. The message was signed by the Deutsche, Dresdner and Disconto Banks of Berlin, and the National Bank of Bremen.

The intending purchasers, through the President of the Bremen chamber of commerce, have assured the consulate and the embassy at Washington that they were in a position to provide adequate guarantees that the cotton would not be used for military purposes but purely industrially. They added, as substantiation, that the military and naval authorities have on hand cotton enough for over two years, and that cotton for explosives is not included in this, as new processes have enabled the government to dispense with the use of cotton in making explosives.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, announced today that he had received a cablegram from Baumanwall Import Gesellschaft at Berlin stating that guarantees to take a million bales of American cotton at 15 cents a pound, to be used exclusively for civil purposes in Germany, had been deposited with the American consul.

Senator Smith said that he knew nothing of the importers who sent him the cable. Delivery of the cotton to Germany would be impossible so long as the allies continue to enforce their orders in Council against commerce with Germany.

BRITISH STEAMER SUNK.

La Rochelle, France, Sept. 9.—The British steamer Mora, 3,047 tons, was sunk Wednesday by a German submarine off Penmarch. Her crew escaped.

Germany is now charging that the war could and would have been avoided if Great Britain had not refused to enter into a certain treaty with her. In the light of subsequent events, what guaranty is there that the treaty, if entered into, would have had any more restraining force than a "mere scrap of paper?"

Heart Disease Almost Fatal to Young Girl

"My daughter, when thirteen years old, was stricken with heart trouble. She was so bad we had to place her bed near a window so she could get her breath. One doctor said, 'Poor child, she is likely to fall dead any time.' A friend told me Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy had cured her father, so I tried it, and she began to improve. She took a great many bottles, but she is spared to me today, a fat, rosy checked girl. No one can imagine the confidence I have in Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy." A. E. CANON, Worth, Mo.

The unbounded confidence Mr. Canon has in Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is shared by thousands of others who know its value from experience. Many heart disorders yield to treatment, if the treatment is right. If you are bothered with short breath, fainting spells, swelling of feet or ankles, pains about the heart and shoulder blades, palpitation, weak and hungry spells, you should begin using Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy at once. Profit by the experience of others while you may.

It is announced that Hon. William Jennings Bryan is to accept the presidency of a Western college lately sold under a decree of bankruptcy and now to be reorganized by its purchasers. Unless the news owners are prepared to guarantee Mr. Bryan a munificent salary they will have to look elsewhere for a president. He works in no cause, religious, philanthropic or political, except for large wages and money in sight. He regards as an inspired utterance the Scriptural declaration that a laborer is worthy of his hire, but he gives no heed to the Apostolic injunction "Put no sins in thy purse" even when going forth to preach the gospel of peace. Acquisitiveness has grown to be his ruling passion.

New Jersey bandits who held up an automobile filled with woman suffragists were so charmed by the oratory of the occupants of the machine that they not only abandoned their intention of robbery, but promised to vote for the cause. The moral, if the incident has a moral, is, we take it, to carry along, when automobiling in the open country, a woman suffragist as a protection against bandits.

"I believe" said the impatient man as he put aside the telephone, "that I'll go fishing."

"Didn't know you cared for fishing."

"I don't ordinarily. But it's the only chance I have of finding myself at the end of a line that isn't busy."

GERMAN COTTON MEN WANT MILLION BALES.

Berlin, Sept. 8 (via London).—Cerberus Will Guarantee Consumption by Industrial Plants—Offer 15 Cents Per Pound.

German cotton men are taking up earnestly the plan to purchase American cotton. They sent a wireless to the German consulate in New York August 31 offering to buy 1,000,000 bales at 15 cents per pound on delivery in a German harbor. The message was signed by the Deutsche, Dresdner and Disconto Banks of Berlin and the National Bank of Bremen.

The intending purchasers, through the president of the Bremen Chamber of Commerce, have assured the consulate and the embassy at Washington that they were in a position to provide adequate guarantees that the cotton would not be used for military or naval purposes, but purely industrially. They added, as substantiation, that the military and naval authorities have on hand cotton enough for over two years, and that cotton for explosives is not included in this as new processes have enabled the government to dispense with the use of cotton in making explosives.

New Orleans, Sept. 6.—For killing his sister, cutting out her heart and eating it, Jose Aguindo, at Amangua, Nicaragua, will be hanged. The girl violated an edict of a strange code of law regarding her marriage to a cousin and her brother inflicted the penalty. He confessed and will be hanged.

TIME.

(By Dr. Frank Crane.)

Old Father Time knows more than anybody.

He solves more problems than all the brains in the world.

More hard knots are unloosed, more tangled questions are answered, more deadlocks are unfastened by Time than by any other agency.

In the theological disputes that once raged in Christendom neither side routed the other; Time routed them both by showing the whole subject did not matter.

After the contemporaries had had their say, Time crowned Homer, Dante, Wagner, Shakespeare, Whitman and Emerson.

Almost any judgment can be appealed, but from the decision of Time there is no appeal.

Do not force issues with your children. Learn to wait. Be patient. Time will bring things to pass that no immediate power can accomplish.

Do not create a crisis with your husband, your wife. Wait. See what Time will do.

Time has a thousand resources, abounds in unexpected expedients.

Time brings a change in point of view, in temper, in state of mind which no contention can.

When you teach, make allowance for Time. What the child cannot possibly understand now, he can grasp easily a year from now.

When you have a difficult business affair to settle, give it Time, put it away and see how it will ferment. Sleep on it, give it as many days as you can. It will often settle itself.

If you would produce a story, a play, a book, or an essay, write it but, then lay it aside and let it simmer, forget it a while, then take it out and write it over.

Time is the best critic, the shrewdest adviser, the frankest friend.

If you are positive you want to marry a certain person, let Time have his word. Nowhere is Time's advice more needed. Today we may be sure, but listen to a few tomorrows.

You are born and you will die whenever fate decides; you have nothing to do with those fatal two things; but in marriage, the third fatality, you have Time. Take it.

Do not decide your beliefs and convictions suddenly. Hang up the reasons to cure. You come to permanent ideas not only by reasoning but quite as much by growth.

Do not hobble your whole life by the immature certainties of youth. Give yourself room to change, for you must change, if you are to develop.

"Learn to labor and—to wait!"

Whatever you may say in regard to the Colonel, it can't be denied that the four sons are keeping still.

GERMAN U-BOAT SINKS PASSENGER VESSEL.

Paris, Sept. 8.—There were five passengers on the French steamship Bordeaux, whose destruction by a submarine off the western coast of France was announced yesterday. The Bordeaux was on her way from Morocco with a cargo of wheat.

The submarine first fired two shots, then hoisted signals ordering the passengers and crew to leave the Bordeaux. It was 6:20 o'clock in the morning and the captain of the Bordeaux could not distinguish the signals clearly.

The submarine fired eight or ten more shots, some of which struck the Bordeaux. Thereupon the captain ordered that the boats be lowered. Within ten minutes the boats were clear of the vessel. The submarine then discharged a torpedo which struck the ship near the boilers.

SOME MONSTER GUNS.

Uncle Ephram's sympathies were all with the allies, says the Post Saturday Magazine. "Man," he announced, "have you heard about them allies? They have got a gun what kin hit you if it's twenty-three miles off."

MORE AGREEABLE TO EAT HIMSELF.

A California lady employed a Chinaman to do some work on her farm. When everything but board had been arranged, he asked: "You eat me or me eat myself?"

The lady cast one glance at him and then said hastily: "I think it would be more agreeable for both of us if you eat yourself."—Ex.

The Car Conductor in Church.

(From the Boston Globe.)

A veteran car conductor in Boston recently lost his job and was obliged to take the next best thing he could find, the position of sexton in a church.

He presented the collection box to a pillar of the church one Sunday and in fishing for some change from his vest pocket the man brought to light two cigars.

The ex-conductor leaned over him and in the most solemn of tones said: "Smoking" in the three rear seats only."

"Well," said Biggles, "I met a man the other day who still believes in Noah and Methuselah."

SO THEY WAITED.

(From the Newark News.)

The story is told of two Trenton men who hired a horse and trap for a little outing not long ago. Upon reaching their destination the horse was unharnessed and permitted peacefully to graze while the men fished for an hour or two.

When they were ready to go home a difficulty at once presented itself, inasmuch as neither of the Trentonians knew how to re-harness the horse. Every effort in this direction met with dire failure and the worst problem was properly to adjust the bit. The horse himself seemed to resent the idea of going into harness again.

Finally one of the friends in great disgust sat down in the road. "There is only one thing we can do, Bill," he said.

"What is that?" asked Bill. "Wait for the foolish beast to yawn."

School days are at hand, and the truant boy and girl are already planning.

Now is the time for the school children to get busy.

Alamance court for the trial of criminal and civil cases began Monday with His Honor Judge Allen presiding. The docket will be light since all the civil cases against the city have been settled.

There are several back lots that need cleaning up badly. Also Front and Spring Streets. We trust the proper officers will get busy. Cleanliness is next to godliness, and while it is almost impossible to keep all the streets and back lots clean, still we can make some improvement.

CITY SCHOOLS.

A large crowd of visitors including parents, friends and well-wishers were present to see the opening. Everything points to a successful school term the coming season.

J. ED. STAGG.

The announcement of the death of Mr. J. Ed. Stagg comes as a shock to thousands, and will bring grief to many. His life has been suddenly terminated in the prime of his mature manhood when he was apparently at the zenith of life's activities.

Mr. Stagg was a man of quiet life. He was singularly unostentatious, and while he went about doing good, he never made a show of his charities or of his aid in other lines. He never sought popularity, yet he was universally respected, honored and liked. Gifted with fine natural endowments, his abilities commanded recognition in the business world. His personal life was remarkably clean and exemplary. He was always identified with the best interests of Durham. He believed in the city and its future, and his activities had their center here.

The death of Mr. Stagg is a serious loss to the business life of the state and city, and a greater loss to those who numbered him among their friends. His place will be hard to fill. It is some consolation, however, that he lived his life so well that his influence and the results of his life's work will remain among us.

Mr. Stagg was born in the village of Company Shops (now Burlington,) the 27th of June, 1860. His mother was Mrs. Sarah A. Stagg, who died several years ago, and his father was the late Mr. F. A. Stagg, who died and was buried in Durham about four months ago. Mr. F. A. Stagg was at one time president of the old North Carolina railway. Mr. J. Ed. Stagg educated in the academy at Burlington and at Guilford College, and became telegraph operator at High Point after leaving school and was called from that place to be private secretary to the late Col. A. B. Andrews, who was at that time president of the old Lynchburg & Danville railway company. He remained in this position twelve years and left it to engage in the quarry business at Graystone, N. C., with Messrs. John Winder and William Tucker. He moved to Durham in 1893 and became the private secretary of Mr. B. N. Duke, and while acting in this capacity managed the interests of Messrs. J. B. and B. N. Duke throughout the south. When the interests of these gentlemen were largely moved to the north, Mr. Stagg became vice-president of the Durham & Southern railway company and it was in this capacity more than any other he was thought of in business. He was director of the Union Station company and a member of the directorate of the Fidelity bank. It may be truly said of him that he was diligent in business, "fervent in spirit, serving the Lord."—Durham Sun.

CELEBRATING NEW YEAR'S DAY

Jewish Population Are Celebrating One of the Oldest Festivals—It Began Last Night—Interesting Services Will be Held in the Local Synagogues.

The first of the series of holidays that are celebrated by the Hebrew part of the population of the city was started yesterday evening and will continue throughout today. It is the Jewish New Year. The day of Atonement will be celebrated on September 17 and the Feast of the Tabernacles from September 22 to the first of October.

Regarding the Jewish New Year the following information is furnished by the rabbi:

It will begin on Wednesday evening, September 8, with an ornate solemn service in the Temple and Synagogues. The Thursday morning service comprises a more elaborate form of worship and combines some vestiges of antique ritual with expressions of human experiences and feelings true and real for everybody and at all times.

The Jewish New Year's Festival is the oldest of all festivals celebrated in the civilized world. But it is unique for its significance as well as for its antiquity. The secular New Year (on January 1st) is a day of gratifications; men rejoice in what they have achieved; it is a day for sordid inventories. The Jewish New Year's Day, however, is a time for serious thought on the Meaning of Life; it evokes pious contemplation of the difficult and in-evitable problem as to right and wrong and its appeal is not that we should get more out of practical life but value more genuinely, more truthfully, more morally the life God has entrusted to us.

Much of the success and failure of our work depend, not upon our equipment, but upon our motives. The Jewish New Year's Day, accordingly, is placed by a wise tradition at the beginning of Autumn, when men enter upon their enterprises and obligations with zest and zeal. Just then they need a right interpretation of life and a true measure of its values.

The antique features of the ritual of that Day express the aspirations all men feel equally. The Trumpet Calls, constituting the central part in worship of that Day are appeals for the moral stir which men should feel when they contemplate their experiences and seek for re-enforcement of their hopes. The calls are also an appeal to the large sense of life. Our week-day wishes and prayers are self-centered and do not give us a perspective of our relations and obligations to the community and fellow-men, and of their influence upon us. But the New Year's Day offers us an occasion to re-affirm our respect for and trust in Providence which is the organization of all lives into an all-encompassing justice. The Jew comprehends this as a comfort in the face of misfortunes and as motivation in the successes he may have. The function of the New Year's Day is to establish a moral judgment in our life and experiences.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Doddson's Liver Tonic" is Harmless To Clean Your Stagnant Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work. Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Doddson's Liver Tonic tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Doddson's Liver Tonic. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Doddson's Liver Tonic is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Doddson's Liver Tonic will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Doddson's Liver Tonic will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

SOUTHERN TRAINS MAKE GOOD SCHEDULE TIME.

Atlanta, Ga., September 4.—Of the 175,465 regular passenger trains operated by Southern Railway during the fiscal year, ended June 30th, 1925, 536, or 89 per cent, made schedule time and 146,288, or 83 per cent, were on time at all stations.

During the year 149,100 strictly local trains were operated and of these 133,366, or 90 per cent, made schedule time while 127,622, or 89 per cent were on time at all stations.

Of the 26,303 limited trains, nearly all of which cover long distances are handled by other lines in connection with Southern Railway, 21,744 or 83 per cent made schedule time while on the Southern Railway and 18,637 or 71 per cent were on time at all stations.

THE MORTGAGE.

You'd need white paper by the ton, the pen of Oppenheim or Dante, if you'd describe the grief of one who has a mortgage on his shanty. The mortgage is a grievous weight for workingman to stagger under; it bends the back that once was straight and makes the hair as gray as thunder. The toilet says, "To blithely roam the landscape o'er, I've long been wanting; I'll put a mortgage on my home, and buy a car, and do some jaunting." He puts the mortgage on his shack, and buys a motor with the money. "In fourteen months I'll pay it back," he says, "or it will be blamed funny." Alas, an Old Man of the Sea he's placed upon his back and shoulder, and from the weight he won't be free till he's asleep beneath a boulder. The home that once he viewed with pride—a pride that all the world indorses—will soon from his possession slide, while he is paying for dead horses. Debt is the worst and fiercest hell that ever inspired a smoking sonnet; 'twere better 'neath a bridge to dwell than in a hall with mortgage on it.

CARRBORO DEFEATS KEYSTONE MILL.

One of the best and most interesting games of base ball played this season was that of Carrboro and Keystone Finishing Mill at Piedmont Park last Saturday afternoon. The feature of the game was the catching of C. Ivey. It was an all-round good game. The score was as follows:

Carrboro	1 2 0

After the game, the ladies of the Keystone Mill served the crowd that attended the game a bountiful supper, consisting of everything good to eat. Dr. D. A. Long was present and pronounced the blessing. Mr. J. E. Pierson, representing the Carrboro team, made a nice talk, expressing the gratitude of the visiting team, declaring that they had never been treated with more courtesy than they had received at the hands of the Keystoneers.

PAINT.

Every gallon costs a painter's day's work.

Poor paint, more gallons; good paint, less gallons.

Every extra gallon adds to your job its price and the painter's day's work; not far from $5 a gallon.

There are a dozen good paints and hundreds of poor ones. Devoe is one of the dozen. The chances are; there isn't another in this town.

THE SHADE STORY.

Ex-President Taft, since by scientific dieting he brought his weight down to the normal has greatly enjoyed jokes on the fat, relates The Boston Globe. Thus at a dinner party in New Haven he said:

"A fat man was much annoyed on his way to business one scorching morning by a boy who kept very near him—seemed to be following him, in fact.

"At last the fat man halted and said sternly:

"What are you up to boy? What's your little game?"

"Look here, mister," the boy whined, "you don't mind my walkin' to work in the shade, do you?"

COUGHS THAT ARE STOPPED!

Careful people see that they are stopped. Dr. King's New Discovery is a remedy of tried merit. It has held its own on the market for 46 years. Youth and old age testify to its soothing and healing qualities. Pneumonia and lung troubles are often caused by delay of treatment. Dr. King's New Discovery stops those hacking coughs and relieves a grippé tendencies. Money back if it fails. 50c. and $1.00.

General Colorado, Chief of Police and Secretary of State Slain—Remaining Officials Seize Boat and Flee.

Rebel State Making Effort to Join Oaxaca in Maintaining Independence of First Chief; Railroad Communication Between Vera Cruz and Capital Precarious Due to Raids.

Vera Cruz, Sept. 3, via Havana, Sept. 6.—The major portion of the State of Tabasco has revolted against Carranza. Street fighting in San Juan Bautista, capital of the State and in Frontera, on the coast resulted in the killing of General Colorado, the Carranza governor, the chief of police and the Secretary of State.

Many women and children were killed on the streets. The Carranza officials remaining seized a boat at Frontera and escaped to Vera Cruz.

A CLOGGED SYSTEM NEEDS ATTENTION.

Are you bilious, dizzy and listless? Dr. King's New Life Pills taken at once seizes upon constipation and starts the bowels moving naturally and easily. Moreover it acts without griping. Neglect of a clogged system often leads to most serious complications. Poisonous matters and a body poorly functioning need immediate attention. If you wish to wake up tomorrow morning happy in mind and entirely satisfied, start your treatment tonight. 25c. a bottle.

BRYAN SAYS HE HAS NO POLITICAL EXPECTATIONS.

While in Chicago last week William J. Bryan issued a statement declaring that "the work which I have mapped out for my remaining years does not include the occupying of any political position."

"If Roosevelt decides," he said, in talking of the Republican situation, "to maintain an independent organization and is either a candidate himself or supports some other Progressive, the Republican party will remain divided and there will be little chance for the success of either branch as long as it is divided.

"If Mr. Roosevelt goes back to the Republican party he will carry with him those Progressive Republicans who left the party out of personal attachment to him, while the Democratic party can hope to gain the support of the Progressives who are really opposed to Republicanism" as represented by the leadership of the regular Republican party. The Taft branch of the Republican party has made no concessions to the Progressives.

"I have no political expectations whatever, and no plans looking to the holding of any office in the future," he said, referring to his own program. "This answer covers every contingency and ought to be satisfactory to all classes except one. There is one class in this country that has insisted that I should promise never under any circumstances to be a candidate for anything. I have never felt it was necessary to gratify this class by making a promise of that kind."

WHERE SMITH FELL.

Smith attended a fashionable ball. During the evening he met a pretty young woman dressed in soft, filmy white, and wearing the cutest little slippers that ever encased a dainty foot. Instantly the Smith eye dropped in that direction.

"Pardon me, apologized Smith blushfully. "It was very rude of me, I know, but I couldn't help noticing your slippers."

"I see," smiled the young woman, good naturedly. "What do you think of them?"

"What do I think of them?" exclaimed Smith, with large emphasis; "they are simply immense!"

You would naturally expect a Garrison to be strong for the army.

The running expenses of the Russian army are getting higher and higher.

TAKES GIRL TO RIDE AND LEFT HER TO PAY TAXICAB FARE.

The next time Miss Maggie Mitchell is invited to go taxicabbing it would be entirely in order for her to ask her host if he has the price for the ride. Such apparent discourtesy on Miss Mitchell's part is really perfectly proper in view of recent events.

For Miss Mitchell met a young man at the skating rink Monday night, she told Recorder Johnson Tuesday, and was invited to take an automobile ride. She accepted and they got as far as Moreland avenue. Here the young man got out, saying he would be back in a minute. He never did return, and the taxicab driver who wanted his pay, had Miss Mitchell arrested when she refused to give the young man's name.

"I've forgotten his name," said Miss Mitchell, but I'll point him out to the police the next time I see him."

The recorder said Miss Mitchell was an invited guest and had done nothing wrong. The case was dismissed.

AMERICAN EXPORTS SHOW BIG INCREASE.

Output of War Supplies Sent Abroad in July Valued at $50,000,000.

Washington, Sept. 8.—American exports of war supplies are increasing enormously now that converted munitions plants are getting into full swing. Figures made public tonight by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce show that shipments of horses, mules, automobiles, aeroplanes, and explosives, all classed as war supplies, aggregated nearly $50,000,000 in July.

SILLY TALK.

The Observer is not exactly in line with the opinion of the leaders at Raleigh who are "thoroughly satisfied with the outlook," and who "are sure that the Democracy will have no trouble whatever in piling up even greater majorities over the Republicans than ever before." Why do they send out such talk as that? No man at all familiar with political conditions in North Carolina believes any such thing. Talk of that character is no longer profitable. It is not good policy these days to undertake to deceive the people. In times past they were led along willingly enough, but they have come to resent any effort to fool them. There might be some ground for confidence if the Republicans nominate the man now most frequently "mentioned," but even he would give the Democrats a warm race. The "leader" who would undertake to inspire false confidence is doing his party a bad turn. As a matter of fact, the Democratic party in North Carolina is going to be faced next year by the strongest Republican organization it has known since the memorable campaign of 1875, and it might as well gird its loins for a desperate fight to hold the state. This is a fact that admits of no argument. It would be better for the Democrats to drop the boast and pick up the work.—Charlotte Observer.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chilli Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

LIVE ON LOVE.

Papa—Why, hang it, girl, that fellow only earns $9 a week!
Pleading Daughter—Yes; but daddy, dear, a week passes so quickly when you're fond of one another.—Judge.

People who think that Roosevelt is talking too much should remember that he is talking for himself, and also for his four sons.

After all, peace may be near at hand. Missouri has just sent four thousand mules to the allies' front.

TOO TIRED TO TRUST.

"I'm too tired to trust and too tired to pray!"
Said one as the over-taxed strength gave way;
"The one conscious thought by my mind possessed
Is, oh, could I just drop it all and rest!
But will God forgive me do you suppose,
If I go to sleep as a baby goes,
Without even asking Him if I may,
Without even trying to trust or pray?"

Will God forgive you? Why just think, dear heart,
While language to you was an unknown art,
Did a mother deny you needed rest,
Or refuse to pillow you on her breast?
Oh, no but she cradled you in her arms,
Then guarded your slumber against alarms;
And how quick was her mother-love to see
The unconscious yearnings awake in thee!

When you've grown too weary to trust or pray,
When over-wrought nature has given way,
Then just drop it all, and give up to rest,
As you used to do on a mother's breast.
He knows all about it—the dear Lord knows,
So just go to sleep as a baby goes,
Without even asking Him if you may;
God knows when His child is too tired to pray.

He judges not solely by uttered prayer;
He knows when the yearnings of love are there;
He knows you do pray, he knows you do trust,
And He knows the limits of poor weak dust—
Oh, the wonderful sympathy Christ
For His chosen ones in that midnight trust,
When He bade them sleep on and take their rest,
While on Him the guilt of the whole world pressed!
You've given your life up to Him to keep?
Then don't be afraid to go right to sleep.

—Anna J. Grannis.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY INCREASES SUPPLY OF BOX CARS.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 8.—Showing its faith in an early revival of business throughout the South, Southern Railway Company is increasing its supply of high class box cars to be used in the movement of crops and the general distribution of merchandise which is offered for shipment in normal fall seasons.

One thousand old cars have recently been rebuilt and converted into modern steel underframe cars, the work being done at the various Company shops throughout the South and at the Lenoir Car Works, Lenoir City, Tenn., and another thousand will be put through the same process in time to aid in the fall crop movement.

During the past year 3,250 new steel underframe box cars were acquired which with the cars being rebuilt will give Southern Railway over 5,000 new box cars of heavy capacity and modern design, a substantial proportion of the total number of box cars it owns.

TAKES LITTLE GRANDSON WITH HER IN DEATH.

Sick Woman Could Not Bear to Leave Motherless Child Behind—End Life With Gas.

A supreme love for her little grandson, who she did not believe should be called upon to face the world without a woman's care, caused Mrs. Clara B. Leach, aged fifty-seven, of 4732 Tacony Street, to take the boy with her when she ended her life by gas yesterday. The boy had been motherless more than two years and the affection which the grandmother had showed on him before his mother's death had wreathed and twined itself about the child until every waking thought was connected with his welfare.

What we need in this state is a political leader, strong enough, and with force of character enough, to cut through a lot of legislative technicalities and give the people some laws that will help them to help themselves.

The planks in the political platform are generally all right but what is needed is better timber on the tickets.

KILLED A HORNED RABBIT. Still Stranger It is That Little Animal Was a Female. Dallas, Tex., Sept. 10.—A. Ater, of Roscoe, Tex., has found something new under the sun. West Texas is noted for growing horns and thorns. Nearly everything that grows there has a horn, a thorn or a stinger. But never until now did any one hear of a timid, modest little molly cottontail with horns. Mr. Ater killed one of these little animals a few days ago and to his amazement found a nice pair of horns about 2 inches long protruding from the head just above the back of the ears, where all well regulated horns ought to grow. In order to satisfy those who questioned it, he removed the scalp of the rabbit and took it to Roscoe, leaving it at the Roscoe Times office. After close scrutiny it was concluded that these horns were not very formidable weapons either of offense or defense, but if the rabbit didn't use them for either of these purposes those who examined the scalp were unable to figure out what use they could have been to her. At any rate, they warned all rabbit twisters that hereafter they must be careful lest some desperate cottontail should some time turn upon them with her horns and rend them.

SELF-CONSCIOUS. It was a warm Easter Sunday in the South. The red-headed young hopeful of the family donned his first long trousers, says the Indianapolis News. He was wrapped in assurance and pride as he left the parental portal and started to Sunday school and church. But, alas! What he suffered after he got there. Taunts from a few of his boy friends seemed to grow into the bows of a mob. Eyes of a few passersby multiplied into thousands and took on the stare of wild men and he reached home in time for dinner flushed and perspiring, bumptiousness all gone, with the cry of "mother, mother, everybody's looking at me, everybody's looking at me."

HAVE NOTHING TO OFFER. It looks like some of these fellows who have been in office for the past sixteen years might have learned something which could be turned to the benefit of the citizens, the taxpayers. Yet have they? They say down at Raleigh that they are all standing together for renomination and re-election, but all of them put together have nothing to offer for the progress of the state and the equalization of taxes.—Salisbury Post.

41 SHIPS FLYING NORWEGIAN FLAG SUNK DURING WAR. Washington, Sept. 9.—Forty-one ships flying the Norwegian flag have been lost since the beginning of war in Europe, and 76 sailors have perished, according to a report received at the state department today from the American minister at Christiania. Thirteen ships were destroyed by mines, 24 were sunk by torpedoes, three disappeared in the war zone and one was crushed by a German warship the report stated. Another ship was taken as a prize to Hamburg.

The short ballot is a long time coming. Cotton went up seventy-five points when England declared it contraband. Wonder if we couldn't get her to do it again.

FUMES OF LILY BULBS KILL TWO ON A SHIP. New York, Sept. 10.—Two men were sent into the lower hold of hatch lily bulbs aboard the Holland-American liner Randam at Hoboken yesterday morning, and a fireman who went to their rescue was overcome. George Trossit, a steward, 26 years old, and William Leerhoven, a coal passer, 32 years old, both of Holland, were sent into the lower hold of hatch No. 2 to work on the cargo of the ship, which docked in Hoboken a few days ago and brought over large quantities of the lilies. Early yesterday morning other members of the crew looked for them and discovered that they were unconscious. No members of the crew could be got to volunteer to go down into the hold. Police headquarters was notified about 2:30 a. m., and a sergeant and three policemen hurried to the boat. The policemen, aided by Frank Drews, a member of the Hoboken fire department, got the two men out of the hold, Drews going down for them. He was overcome the first time and had to be hauled out to be revived in the fresh air. He went down a second time and succeeded in tying a rope around the steward and coal passer, who were then pulled up on the upper deck. Dr. Vennick, who came in an ambulance from St. Mary's Hospital, had arrived. He pronounced both men dead.

John Kendrick Bangs was one day calling up his wife on the telephone. The maid at the other end did not recognize her "master's voice," and after Bangs had told her whom he wanted, the maid asked: "Do you wish to speak with Mrs. Bangs?" "No, indeed," replied the humorist; "I want to kiss her."

BROWN'S CASE. A man was going through a hospital one day when he came across Brown, who was patched up here and pieced out there, and looking considerably like a veteran of an aviation corps says The New York Times. "Sorry to see you looking like this, old man," remarked the visitor, pausing before the chair in which Brown was recuperating. "What in the world ever happened to you?" "Wasn't watching my feet," answered Brown, "and fell out of a sky-scraper."

ARTILLERY DUEL ON IN FRANCE. Paris, Sept. 8.—The artillery duel along the battle line in France continues, according to the statement given out this afternoon by the French war office. There has been cannonading from Belgium on the north as far south as the Woevre district. German aviators have bombarded towns in France and aviators of the allies have thrown down bombs at Ostend. Weather fails. Or market drops, I'm all right. With many crops. If I buy house tricks. New and stronger. My good wife. Will last longer. Fifty acres. Own and fence. Crop diverse. And live immense. And just to think that the apostle of peace was not there to celebrate one of his greatest victories of peace! Fate is certainly unkind to Bryan.

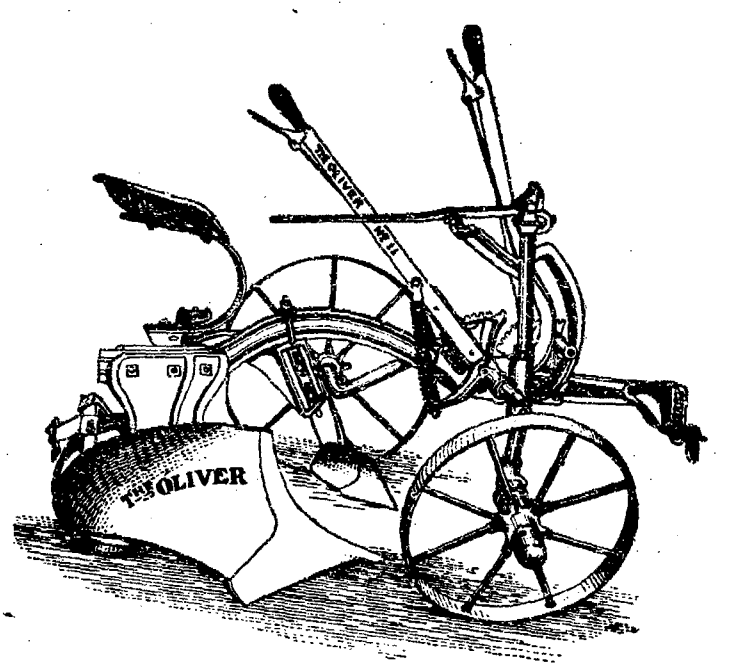

If it wasn't for the fact that a sucker is born every minute there would be more competition for the jobs that mean hard work.

CIRCUMSPECTION. (From Puck.) "My boy," said the editor of The Billsville Bugle to the new reporter, "you lack caution. You must learn not to state things as facts until they are proved facts—otherwise you are very apt to get us into libel suits. Do not say, 'the cashier who stole the funds; say the cashier who is alleged to have stolen the funds.' That's all now, and—ah—turn in a stickful about that Second Ward social last night."

Owing to an influx of visitors it was late in the afternoon before the genial editor of The Bugle caught a glimpse of the great family daily. Half way down the social column his eyes lit on the following cautious paragraph: "It is rumored that a card party was given last evening to a number of reputed ladies of the Second Ward, Mrs. Smith, gossip says, was the hostess, and the festivities are reported to have continued until 10:30 in the evening. It is alleged that the affair was a social function given to the ladies of the Second Ward Cinch Club, and that with the exception of Mrs. James Bilwiger, who says she comes from Leavits Junction, none but members' President.

LOVE LETTERS.

The New York World, commenting upon the "foolish" love letters that are frequently read in court, wonder if men will ever learn to write sensible love letters. "Sensible" was the word used, but the "wondering" was probably a mental slip. Every editor ought to know that there ain't no such animal as a "sensible" love letter.

The more foolish a love letter is the more of a love letter it is. A "sensible" love letter would be no love letter at all. It would be a business letter, or a mere formality. The art of love making, whether it is by letter or in person, is the art of folly, in a sense. At least, if it is reduced to the plain formality of other things it ceases to be love, but becomes a pretense—a stiff, soulless process.

Love itself is unreasonable—in a sense. There is no reason for one man to become so enamored of one woman as to fail to see all the rest of the people in the world. But it is a fact that he does so, just the same. You cannot—or at least you ought not—apply the rule of reason to the affairs of love. There is in the domain of pure reason no reason why this particular man should love that particular woman. But that he does so is true, and so it happens that truth is beyond reason, just as truth is stranger than fiction, which is meant to be strange. There is no use trying to explain love. It can't be put into the retort and separated into its elements, for it and they are intangible. The most expert student of human nature cannot go through a crowd and pick out a certain man and a certain woman and bring them together and be assured they will love each other. There are no rules or laws governing love, and experience doesn't count. The only thing you can know of it is that you can't know anything.

So when love letters are written, they are going to be "silly" and if they are not "silly" they are not love letters. They are going to contain statements that are foolish, absurd, silly, soft and altogether senseless, and which will be approved by nobody but the persons directly concerned. And some day perhaps they will wonder at them; but that is another story. They ought not to be read in court, they ought not to be commented upon, and, above all, editorials should never be written about them.—Durham Sun.

GALLEY THIRTEEN. FILE SUIT AGAINST A BIG LUMBERMAN.

W. L. Edwards Alleges That Mr. Collins Insulted Mrs. Edwards—The Suit in Guilford.

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Edwards, who recently came to Greensboro, have brought suit against Arthur Collins, of Charlotte, for $10,000 for alleged improper conduct towards Mrs. Edwards. The action is in this county and able counsel represent the defendant. Mr. Collins is a well-to-do lumberman. Edwards came to the state selling a patented automobile device.

The answer sets up that this is not the first time that Edwards and his wife have brought such an action, a similar case said to have been brought in Baltimore. Mr. Collins denies all charges and alleges that the plaintiffs are adventurers, and that Edwards had a wife in Virginia when traveling with the woman now with him.

A Chicago woman was turned out of her happy home for making a crazy quilt out of her husband's four-in-hands. She didn't realize she was cutting home ties.

STRANGE INSPECTION OF TOMBSTONE.

"When I come, I'll come whistlin'" That sentence is carved on the marble slab at the head of the grave of an old colored man in a cemetery near Lancaster, S. C. The story of the strange inscription is that the old colored man whose tombstone bears it was a trusted servant in the home of Attorney John T. Green's father in the days of slavery, and was the family carriage driver. When Sherman's army made its raid this servant was told by the Federal soldiers one night that he must go to Lancaster and he went and told his mistress. She told him that he was the only man on the place and that she was sick and needed him to look after the household. The faithful servant replied: "If I don't go dey will kill me, but I'll be back, dis night, I'll git away from 'em dis night and you will know when I get here, for when I come I'll come whistlin'." Mrs. Green says that at 3 o'clock in the morning she heard her faithful old servant coming through the yard and he was whistling as loud and as cheerfully as if peace covered the land and the sun was shining in mid-heaven. Mrs. Green often related the story in years after the war and she said that the whistle of that old colored man was the sweetest music she ever heard. The former owner of the faithful old servant buried him. Attorney J. T. Green delivered an address at his funeral, the headstone at the grave was erected by the Green family and at the suggestion of a member of the family the inscription quoted was carved on it.—Monroe Enquirer.

The more we hear of the war, the more we are convinced that the courts, grand juries and police of Europe are powerless to act.

Ignorance being bliss, the fools in the world have the best of it.

AT STATE NORMAL.

Registration Will Pass the 700 Mark; 315 New Students Expected.

Greensboro, Sept. 12.—The student body of the State Normal and Industrial College will pass the 700 mark during the present session. A conservative prediction places the total registration at 725 students, of whom approximately 315 will be new students.

In passing the 700 mark the increase will be larger than that of any one year within recent years and exceeds last year by an estimated 75.

The 500 mark was passed in 1907-08 with an enrollment of 500. In 1908-09 the enrollment jumped to 568, and since then the growth has been steady until it reached 619 in 1913-14, and 640 in 1914-15.

Eighty-eight counties of North Carolina, three States, and the District of Columbia, will be represented in the student body. Seven are from South Carolina, five from Virginia, one from Tennessee and one from Washington, D. C.

Guilford County has the place of honor in numbers, sending 47, Rowan is second with 26, and Mecklenburg is third with 21. Gaston and Wayne Counties have 20 each.

Germany has liberal ideas. She will pay fifteen cents for cotton if American shippers can manage to dispense with the English navy.

DESPOUNT, BLOWS OUT BRAINS WITH SHOT GUN.

La Grange, Sept. 6.—D. D. Quinn, who lived in the Bucklebury section, about four miles from town, committed suicide this afternoon by blowing out his brains with a shot gun. Mr. Quinn's age was about sixty. The rash act is supposed to have been the result of despondency.
