BULGARIA TO ENTER WAR ON SIDE OF CENTRAL POWERS ON OCT. 15; ALLIES CONTINUE BIG OFFENSIVE

Plans of Campaign, Says Salonik Dispatch, Now Being Drawn Up At Sofia With Assistance of German Officers; No Attack On Greece Contemplated.

300,000 TEUTONS NOW MARCHING TOWARD SERBIA

British and French Claim Successes On Western Front, But These Are Contradicted By Berlin; German's Third Line Now Being Attacked By Anglo-French Advance; Fierce Battles Rage In East.

Paris, Sept. 29.—"Bulgaria and the central powers have concluded a precise agreement according to authoritative information," says the correspondent at Saloniki, Greece, of the Temps. Under this agreement Bulgaria will enter the war on October 15th.

Plans for the campaign are now being drawn up by the Bulgarian general staff, the correspondent says with the assistance of numerous German officers, who have arrived in Sofia. Bulgarian officers say no attack will be made on Greece.

To Attack Serbia in Fifteen Days.

Paris, Sept. 29.—The Athens correspondent of the Havas News Agency says it is now expected that Bulgaria will begin an attack on Serbia within fifteen days.

300,000 Teutons Move on Serbia.

London, Sept. 29.—"Three hundred thousand Austrian and German troops have been an advance on the Serbian frontier in the direction of Orsora," says the Athens correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Allied Troops Also Are Landed.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—(By wireless to Sayville)—British and French troops intended for service in Serbia have been landed at Porth Kathrin near Saloniki, Greece, according to reports from Buda Pest received by the Frankfurter Zeitung, the Overseas News Agency announces today.

GOVERNMENT PLANS TO PROTECT INDUSTRIES BUILT UP BY WAR

Open Letter By Secretary Redfield, of Department of Commerce, Made Public, Gives Views of Administration Regarding Foreign Competition.

Washington, Sept. 29.—An indication of what the administration is planning to do for the protection of American industries built up as a result of the European war is given in an open letter written by Secretary Redfield, of the Department of Commerce, to Dr. E. E. Pratt, Chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce and made public today.

It is made clear that the government will protect the new American industries from a flood of European competition at the close of the war, but the latter also shows that Mr. Redfield intends to avoid, so far as possible, any proposals for tariff revision.

The letter follows numerous conferences on plans for dealing with the situation expected to follow the war.

The Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, and the Federal Trade Commission have inaugurated a detailed investigation, which will cover the operation of the laws of various countries which prohibit "dumping," or the sale in those countries of any product at a price less than the cost of production.

American manufacturers seeking to enter fields of production occupied by foreign firms prior to the European war, have been clamoring for assurances that they will not be subjected to a flood of foreign made products when peace is restored. Manufacturers preparing to turn out dyestuffs have been especially anxious to assure themselves that the German dye works will not flood American markets with low priced products.

MESSRS. J. C. TEBBETTS AND WALLACE AGEY ARRESTED AT DURHAM.

Messrs. J. C. Tebbetts of this place and Wallace Agey, representing the Southern Orchard Co., of Knoxville, Tenn., were arrested at the instance of the Insurance Department of the State at Durham last week and brought to Graham. The charge against them was representing a foreign corporation without first securing a license from the State Insurance Department. At the preliminary hearing Monday morning Messrs. Tebbetts and Agey waived examination and were bound over to the November term of Superior Court. They readily gave bond and secured their liberty.

Messrs. Tebbetts and Agey were in Burlington prior to going to Durham and sold a lot of the fig orchard stock here. Mr. Tebbetts is well known here where he was connected with the Piedmont Trust Co. prior to going to the Southern Orchard Co. as stock salesman.

We live in a give-and-take kind of a world, and the unfortunate part of our existence appears to be we are all so much better developed in the process of taking than in giving.—Ex-

CITY DELIVERY FOR BURLINGTON.

City delivery of mail will start on Friday, October 1st. The following carriers have been appointed: J. B. Cheek, carrier No. 1, for Fourth Ward; Leslie D. Meador, carrier No. 2, First Ward; Chas. I. Jones, carrier No. 3, Second Ward; Malcolm L. Shepherd, carrier No. 4, Third Ward; Devoc Morgan and E. W. Franklin, substitute carriers.

There seems to be some confusion about mail boxes. While the department requires boxes to be placed at the front door, any kind of a box from a cigar box will do. This is for the patrons protection, as it would not do to throw the mail down on the porch, and the patrons might not be at home to answer door bell.

After beginning of city delivery service all letters must have a two-cent stamp for postage.

There will be an early morning collection of mail from the public boxes. These boxes have not been erected yet, not having arrived.

The first delivery will be in the morning, the carriers leaving office at nine o'clock; the second delivery will be in the afternoon, leaving office at 2:30.

If you have your mail delivered, you cannot get it at office, except in case of important matters. Those having boxes can have mail delivered, and all mail arriving after carriers leave will be put in their boxes at postoffice. There will be no Sunday delivery of mail.

All persons are requested to use their street and residence number in corresponding, so as to have their letters addressed in care of proper street.

There will naturally be much confusion in first starting off and the Postmaster asks that the patrons be patient and co-operate with the carriers and postoffice force in every way possible.

The city delivery is for your convenience and you should help make it easy for the carriers until they get used to the routes.

Any additional information will be gladly given.

NEW DEPARTMENT STORE.

Mr. Chas. A. Switzer of Greenville, S. C., has arrived in the city and is opening up a department store in the Raunet building, formerly occupied by the Twice-A-Week Dispatch. Mr. Switzer is a wide awake business man and will add much to the business life of Burlington. He has a wife and one child and will become a permanent resident of this city a little later. When shrewd business men are hunting a good location for business and they visit Burlington, they invariably come to stay. We have some very, very live wires now, and these looking for bargains, will do well to come to Burlington to do their shopping.

COTTON TO BE 15 CENTS BY CHRISTMAS, FORECAST.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Representative Heflin, of Alabama, issued a statement today in which he predicts that the South's cotton crop this year would not be more than 10,000,000 bales and that the price would reach 15 cents before Christmas. Owing to short crops in India, Egypt and Russia, Mr. Heflin said, and the demand for cotton for war purposes the world supply would be nearly six million bales short of the demand.

Among the things that are frequently taxed is patience.—Ex-

THE CITY SCHOOLS.

The Burlington Public Schools opened very auspiciously. So far there have been enrolled 999 white children and about 125 colored children. This is perhaps the largest enrollment in the history of the school at this season of the year. The first two weeks were spent in organization largely. The crowded conditions have forced several afternoon sections. At present there is an afternoon section at the Union Church but this the superintendent hopes to dispense with and shall if conditions later permit.

To The Patrons of the City Schools:

We solicit the earnest co-operation of the patrons of the school the work we are now trying to do. It is not an easy task to teach school in the midst of our outdoor work such as we have had thus far and such as we shall have during the erection of the new building. The children thus far have shown a beautiful spirit of co-operation. This we very much appreciate. We trust the parents will encourage the children to continue in this spirit and that they will instruct them not to go near where the workmen are at work except when it is absolutely necessary. You can help us. We are trying to help you. We are not expecting anybody to get hurt. We pledge our earnest supervision and ask our loyal co-operation that the unexpected may not happen.

Yours for a larger service,
ALBERT H. KING,
Superintendent.

NEW STORE.

Burlington has a new dry goods store and Mr. George L. Raiff is proprietor and Mr. H. J. Davis is manager. Mr. Raiff is from Belhaven, N. C., and this is just one of a string of stores that he is opening up all over the country. Mr. Raiff does not contemplate coming here himself, but will have Mr. Davis in charge, ably assisted by his wife. They carry a complete line of dry goods, shoes and ladies and gents furnishings, also millinery. Mrs. Homer Moore is assisting Mrs. Davis in the millinery department. Mrs. Davis is a bright intellectual woman of rare taste and refinement, with the assistance of Mrs. Moore they are bound to make good. Those who have met Mrs. Davis is charmed by her genial personality, and Mr. Davis is a live wire that knows how to go after business to get it. Burlington is glad to have these people in her midst and they will receive a warm welcome from our citizens.

MR. PATTERSON MARRIES.

Mr. E. V. Patterson and Miss Annie Sapp were married at Lancaster, S. C., September 14th. There were no invited guests and only members of the family and their immediate friends were present. Mr. Patterson is a son of Mr. Eusebius Patterson of Cobles Township, and is a graduate of the State University. He is now principal of the Friendship Graded School, where he is making good. Mrs. Patterson is a charming young woman with a host of friends. They are residing at home with the groom's parents. The Dispatch wishes them bon voyage upon the matrimonial sea.

The Baraca-Philathea Union of Burlington will meet next Sunday, 4:00 P. M., at the First Baptist Church. Interesting program will be rendered. Public is invited.

PROGRAM OF THE PEOPLES' FAIR.

Many Big Features Make The Program Very Attractive--Balloon Ascension and Big Display of Fireworks Are Special Attractions.

Tuesday, October 5th—The opening day of the fair—Old Soldiers' Day, and the opening parade.

The parade will leave the First National Bank of Burlington, at 10:30 A. M. and will go to the court house square at Graham and from there back to the fair grounds. It will be headed by a god band, in a decorated auto-truck, followed by twenty-five children riding on ponies. Fifty of the county's best looking boys and girls, mounted on decorated horses will follow these children. Behind these will appear fifty or seventy-five automobiles, representing the county's biggest, best and most prosperous business interests. It's Old Soldiers' Day; everything will be decorated in Confederate colors. All Old Soldiers are urged to be present on this day. We want to honor our heroic dead and the loved ones of those who are still among us.

This will be the greatest parade of its kind that the county has ever witnessed. It is intended to mark the beginning of a county wide patriotism, brotherhood and pride. At the fair we will meet, shake hands and have a word with each other, and when we go home we will be glad that we came, shook hands, and became friends.

Educational Day.

A new event is to be added to the program for Educational Day at the County Fair this year. A County School Truck Meet will be held on Thursday afternoon at which every city, county, or secondary school in Alamance County will have the privilege of participating. The athletic idea is fast being developed among the high schools of the State and Alamance County is not one whit behind when it comes to anything along that line.

A suitable prize will be offered to the school scoring the highest number of points by the Fair Association and Mr. Patterson of the Friendship school has offered a loving cup to the school winning the two mile Relay Race, each team to consist of four men and each man to run one-half mile. At least three schools must compete for this prize.

Every school in the county is urged to send a team. Several of the schools have already announced their intention of entering. There is room for all. A more complete announcement will be made later. Any school desiring to enter will notify Mr. J. H. McEwen, principal of the Burlington high school not later than Saturday.

BRITISH TRANSPORT AND CREW SUNK, SAY TURKS.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—By wireless to Sayville—The sinking of a British transport with the loss of all but a few members of the crew is reported in a despatch from Constantinople to the Overseas News Agency.

"A special despatch from Constantinople gives reports about Mohammedan troubles in India," says the news agency. "It says that a British transport was sunk by a Mohammedan engineer, who died with the troops. Only a few members of the crew escaped."

October 2nd;

Fair Parade to be Very Elaborate.

We had a talk yesterday with Mr. J. C. Moser, chief marshal for the People's Fair and he tells us that he is going to pull off the biggest parade Tuesday morning, October 5th, opening day of the fair, that has ever been seen here.

He has selected fifty marshals, gentlemen and ladies, from all parts of the county, trying to include each township, and has written them personal letters. He urges that they let him know this week if they can serve, as he must give orders for their regalia Monday. These marshals will all be here Tuesday morning in time to ride in the parade, and to attend Wednesday and Thursday also, if possible. But to make the parade a success, he wants each marshal present.

There will be a brass band in the parade also. And he asks that every automobile in the county take part. Let every man who owns one decorate it and come and bring his friends and take part in the grand parade, and help make the fair the biggest yet.

Fair Exhibitors, Notice.

On account of the limited space in the Floral Hall, there will be no exhibits of ladies' fancy work at the Fair this year.

The managers have decided to have the Cotton Show and this will fill the entire hall, except for the few premiums offered in the list. This Cotton Show is a new feature and will be one of the greatest attractions of the Fair, as many of our people did not see it last fall. Visitors are promised a rare treat in seeing this.

The following mills are going to exhibit their goods at the People's Fair:

Lawrence S. Holt & Sons, Altamaw Cotton Mills, Virginia Cotton Mills, Jas. N. Williamson & Sons Co., May Hosiery Mills, The Sellers Hosiery Mills, Whitehead Hosiery Mills, Southern Hosiery Mills and Glencoe Mills.

Other mills will exhibit also. Be sure to attend the Fair and see these exhibits.

Hon. A. L. Brooks will speak at the Fair grounds during the People's Fair, Educational Day, Thursday, October 7th, 1 P. M. Mr. Brooks is a polished speaker and this occasion will be a rare treat for those who may be fortunate enough to be present to hear him.

NEW JEWELER.

Burlington has a new jeweler in the person of Mr. T. J. Rouse, formerly of Dover, N. C. Mr. Rouse is located in the New Isley Building where he will be glad to have his friends call to see him. Mr. Rouse has a wife and two children and lives upon Front Street near the Methodist church. He comes well recommended both from his church and bank. Burlington is proud to have Mr. Rouse with us and will give him a hearty welcome.

The war has knocked several ounces out of the English pound.

GRAHAM WOMEN'S CLUB TO FIGHT ILLITERACY.

Graham, Sept. 26.—The education committee of the woman's club of Graham is making an earnest effort to wipe out illiteracy in the town. A moonlight school has been in session about two weeks, with over seventy-five in attendance. Under the skillful supervision of Mrs. J. Dolph Long, chairman of the education committee, a canvass of the town was made, and the results have been very gratifying. Great interest is being taken in the school, and some of the most prominent people of Graham are acting as teachers.

The women's club is but a few months old and has already a membership of sixty, and is filling a long-felt want in the town. A system of inspection of grocery stores and markets has been put in practice, and Graham hopes to soon be able to claim the best-kept grocery stores and markets in the State. The civic committee is planning to have a week in the near future set aside as "town clean-up week."

Two lectures have recently been given under the auspices of the woman's club, one by Dr. W. S. Rankin of the State Health Department, and one by Mrs. Edward Kidder Graham of Chapel Hill, and other lectures will be given later.

Graham citizens are not given to openly boasting of their town, but what with its splendid system of waterworks, electric lights and street cars, excellent schools, asphalt streets and cement sidewalks, over a dozen manufacturing concerns, good stores etc., not to mention the grand old oaks and other natural beauties of the place, comfortable homes and over 3,500 of the best people on earth its citizens really think "there's no place like home," when home is Graham, Alamance county, North Carolina.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

A fashion note has that skin-tight trousers and bob-tailed coats are to be the thing this Winter and yet the men who so garb themselves will no doubt, continue to prate about the freakishness of the styles in female wearing apparel.

SHORT-HANDED.

While traveling through Alabama a young salesman was one day forced to dine at a farmhouse, says The National Magazine. Not being very well satisfied with his meal of cornbread and bacon, he asked if he might have a glass of milk.

"No," replied his host. "Ah don't reckon you'll find any milk around here since the dog died."
"Since the dog died?" echoed the stranger. "What's that got to do with it?"
"Why," replied the farmer, "who do you-all reckon's going to go and fetch the cows?"

The 1912 platform of the Democratic party favored "National aid to state and local authorities in the construction and maintenance of post roads." Instead of endeavoring to fulfill that pledge, the Democratic Congress reduced national revenue and frittered away Federal funds until substantial aid to road improvement was out of the question. The House passed a make-shift, pork barrel bill, which, if enacted into law, would have scattered small sums in a multitude of communities without providing sufficient funds to build any permanent highway. Republican Senators, aided by some of the Democratic members of that body, saved the country from waste that would have resulted from such legislation and recommended, as a substitute, the Bourne plan for co-operation of the nation and states in extensive construction and maintenance of permanent highways. While failure to pass any good roads legislation was better than to have passed the measure to which the House gave its approval, yet a course of action which involved breach of the pledge made in the platform leaves nothing to be said in defense of the party in power. The Democrats had an opportunity to make their promise but they failed.

To Drive Out Malaria And Build Up The System. Take The Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents

The Bicarbonate of soda, which is simply the cooking soda which we use every day, has long been known as a strong antiseptic, and it kills numerous germs in the throat, or prevents them from multiplying. Half a teaspoonful of this in a glass of water gargled several times a day is splendid for a sore throat. If taken in time will often prevent a severe cold. It is also good for indigestion. Dissolve a quarter of a teaspoon of soda in half a glass of cold water, add a few drops of lemon juice and drink slowly.

SOLD AGAIN.

It was a butcher's shop, with a fine display of tongues for sale, according to the Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph. Suddenly a man rushed in. "I say," he gasped, "there's a big black dog running down the street with a tongue in its mouth!"
"Is there? The beast!" shouted the butcher, seizing a chopper and rushing out of the shop after the canine thief. He caught a glimpse of a dog answering the description at the street corner and gave chase, but after rare dodging and twisting he lost sight of the animal.

"Have you seen a big black dog with a tongue in his mouth?" he asked of a group of loiterers.

"With a tongue in its mouth?" said one, laughing. "Did you ever see one without?"

"Sold," muttered the butcher, when he returned and found that all his tongues had gone as well as the two thieves who had taken them.

Very few people cut any ice with the coal fan.

OWE NO MAN ANYTHING.

(By Editor Archibald Johnson in Charity and Children.) This injunction is peculiarly applicable to preachers. It may be asked why apply it to preachers and not to everybody? For this reason: It ruins the preacher's business to get lalled up in debt, and it does not so grievously effect the layman's. Perhaps society is unjust in raising this double standard, but we are not discussing that phase of the question just now. The hard fact is that society does demand more of a preacher than it does of any other man in the community.

Most preachers do pay their debts promptly. The preachers, as a rule, are better financiers than their critics. They can make a dollar count for more than other men and the wonder of the world is how some of them manage to stay within the limits of a meagre income and send their children to school and promptly meet their obligations. However, here and there, a preacher may be found who is careless of his obligations at the grocery store and who loses his credit among the business men. Such a man might as well go down and out, for he is utterly unable to discharge the duties of a pastor.

It is often said by way of excuse that the churches are slow in paying the pastor's salary, but this is only an excuse—it is not a reason, and is no justification whatever. Because a church is unjust to its pastor furnishes no just reason in the world for the pastor to be unjust to his grocer or his clothier. No preacher is obliged to stay with a people who do not think enough of him to pay his salary. But this excuse is not always true. We happen to know a few preachers—a very few we are glad to say—whose salary is promptly paid but who rush heedlessly in debt and thus clip their wings and kill their influence; and one such preacher harms not only himself and his church, but brings reproach upon the ministry in general and gives the scorner the very weapons that he wants.

The writer was asked by a lady, not a great while ago, to give his candid opinion of a preacher her church was considering. Seeing that there was hesitation in the answer, she said, "I see that you do not think he is the man. There is a reason, out with it, please." She was told that the man mentioned had the reputation of not paying his debts.

She made this astonishing answer with a look of relief. "Ah, that's nothing, we never had a pastor that would pay his debts!" To this writer that was an amazing statement, for he never had a pastor who was not scrupulously careful about his financial obligations. And we are sure this lady exaggerated the situation but it shows how painfully common the practice of carelessness about prompt payment of debts has become with a certain class of our preachers. Many a bright man has found himself in disfavor and without a place for this reason, who otherwise is capable and strong. A preacher in debt has a broken wing.

THE BEST DATE TO SOW WHEAT.

As an average of two years results in sowing wheat at different dates at the Iredell Test Farm near Statesville it has been found that seedings made during the latter part of October yielded 52 percent greater yield of grain than did seedings made during the first part of December when other conditions were made the same as nearly as possible. This percentage in yield was equivalent to an average increase of the two years tests of 8.7 bushels per acre. These results certainly emphasize the importance of seeding the wheat in the Piedmont Section during the latter part of October or as soon as possible after a light frost has occurred.

A GIFT TO JAPAN.

The seaman's law passed by the Democratic Congress is hailed by Japanese business men as a deliberate gift of a monopoly of the carrying trade on the Pacific Ocean. This view is set forth by Mr. Gisaku Takikawa, a vice-president of the Kobe Chamber of Commerce, who is now in this country. He comments pungently on the disappearance of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co., from the ocean by reason of the seaman's law; and says that this important concern should be forced out of business by American legislation, which, from a Japanese viewpoint, at least, might be expected to encourage and foster a national project, is something that an Oriental mind cannot comprehend. "You have," adds Mr. Takikawa, "by your own act, made the Pacific carrying trade a Japanese monopoly, and the shipper already is beginning to suffer from the effect which inevitably follows the creation of a monopoly. You have delivered the Pacific into the hands of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, a Japanese steamship line, and there is no competition now with ships of other nations."

Then the justice of the peace comes along and fines you $10 for obstructing the highway and $10 for the use of a team to pull you out. The harness is fixed to break, and that costs $5 more. THE SECRET OF IT.

Germany alone of the great powers now at war, is sufficient within herself. No other nation of those engaged could so well have withstood the commercial isolation enforced upon that empire. She alone has been able to supply all her own needs. Naturally, she has desired opportunity to buy food and ammunition from the outside world, but since it is denied her she is getting along without them. Similarly situated in a measure, but not cut off to such a degree, Russia is crumbling before her advance, largely, it is admitted, for lack of military supplies.

What is it that Germany is so much better able to withstand this isolation, to depend upon herself? The answer is found in a few words; Her Protective Tariff. For near two generations Germany has had a policy of Protection, sufficient and continuous, under that Protection she has fostered and developed to a high degree the manufacture of everything she needs, either in peace or war. Meanwhile, under the same policy, she forged ahead industrially and commercially as no other European nation has. In many respects she surpassed the United States.

If there had been yet needed any argument to prove the wisdom of the Protective policy, it is found in the wonderful ability shown by Germany in the present war to supply her own needs, and supply them with an abundance far beyond the reach of her enemies, who have had the markets of all the world open to them.—Cuba (N. Y.) Patriot.

FALLING LIMB KILLS THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY.

Littleton, Sept. 27.—A distressing accident occurred near Littleton Sunday morning when Mr. N. J. Harris and his two sons were strolling through the woods near their home, a dead limb from a tree falling upon and instantly killing the younger son, who was about thirteen years of age.

Mrs. Timpkins was fond of moving. One day a friend met Timpkins walking quietly after a vanload of his goods and chattels.

"Hello, old chap!" he hailed him. "Moving again? Where are you off to this time?"

Timpkins returned his greeting and then replied: "I'm sure I don't know. I am just following the furniture to find out."

A LIVELY SCRAP.

What was a lively but unfortunate scrap took place yesterday morning between Mr. R. Fletcher Williams and Claud Cates. The argument and fight occurred upon Main Street near the Burke and Williams Undertaking establishment. Mr. Williams and Mr. Cates are engaged in the same line of business and it is presumed that some misunderstanding is the cause of the trouble. Both gentlemen, no doubt, regret the occurrence.

THESE WILL SERVE YOU.

The following parties have been appointed City Carriers, having been recommended by Postmaster Crowson: J. B. Cheek, route 1, fourth ward; L. D. Meadow, route 2, first ward; Chas. L. Jones, route 3, second ward; Malcolm Shepherd, route 4, third ward, with Devoe E. Moran and E. W. Franklin first and second substitute carriers respectively. After today all letters must bear a two cent stamp and to avoid errors, it would be well to name the street and house number when addressing your letters.

HIT HARD.

The Dispatch will be hit hard, or rather hard hit by the establishment of City delivery. Because we are publishing a twice-week paper, we cannot mail those for local delivery through the postoffice as heretofore, unless we put a one-cent stamp upon each paper. This ruling of the post-office department does not affect weekly papers. It would seem that our postal authorities are not in favor of progress when they discriminate between a weekly and twice-a-week paper to this extent, but bear with us, we will try to stand it for some time at least.

WILL BE DELIVERED BY CARRIERS.

After this week the Dispatch will be delivered by carriers to the homes of our subscribers who reside within the city limits. Owing to the establishment of city delivery, we cannot mail our paper through the postoffice unless each paper bears a one-cent stamp, and as we furnish 104 papers a year for the small sum of one dollar, we cannot afford to pay one cent each to get them delivered. This only applies to those who have their mail delivered by the city carriers. We trust our friends and subscribers will bear with us until we get all our arrangements made for this delivery, and we will appreciate it very much if you will assist us any way you can.

NEW YORK LETTER.

THE IMPORTANT TOP COAT

For Dress in Velours or Velvet, For Sports in Leather or Tweed

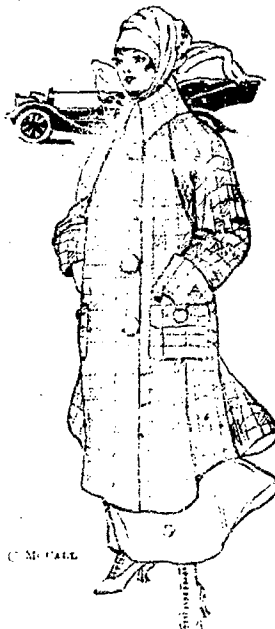

FUR A FAVORED TRIMMING.

Early in the season when Paris placed her stamp of approval on the frock of taffeta, and then a little later adopted the one-piece frock of serge and gabardine, on Princess and semi-Princess lines, for almost every occasion, a demand was straightway created for the separate coat. Designers are now giving much of their attention to this important garment.

A Season of Separate Coats

It is essentially a season of separate coats. At any public gathering the predominance of the one-piece dress with its accompanying coat is very noticeable. Princess and semi-Princess frocks of serge or gabardine, braid trimmed and rather severe, are preferred for mornings; to wear with these frocks Paris has given us an all-enveloping coat, also of serge or gabardine, called the coat dress. Then there are many other models on the Redingote order, with revers extending from collar to hem; one or two designs showing the Louis XVth influence, and the 1870 period, with slender, fitted backs and waists, and full circular, flaring basques.

Frocks of taffeta and faille are accompanied by harmonizing coats of velours de laine, velvet, or plush, cut Redingote fashion, or on short, tight-fitting lines. Velvet is one of the smartest coat materials of the season. On the Avenue, and in the tea rooms every afternoon, one may see any number of smart little frocks of taffeta or faille, with short, full skirts and harmonizing small coats, or basques of velvet or plush. Some of these chic velvet basques, fitting snugly over the bust, curving at the waistline, button from the top of the high choker collar to the pointed lower edge, often forming pannier-like draperies over the hips. There is no material richer or more becoming than velvet.

The Russian Influence

In the more dressy coats, one notices a decided leaning toward the Russian. There is something smart and youthful about the double breasted, high collared Russian coat, with its trimmings of fur which makes it appeal to many. These models are made in various lengths, according to the purpose for which they are intended. One of the smartest coats of the season was developed in Petrograd green velours de laine, on Russian lines, collared, cuffed and banded around the lower edge with beaver. Large crocheted buttons of antique gold cord closed the coat and finished the wide girdle of green velours. A smart little turban of the beaver completed a most attractive ensemble.

The Collar Makes The Coat.

It appears as if all the designers' ingenuity has been centered on the collar of the coat. There are wide cape collars, Chin-Chin collars, Quaker collars, wide crush collars, "A" collars, collars dating from the time of Incroyables, high Directoire collars and many others. Often these are of fur, one of the short haired pelts, preferably, beaver, nutria, seal, or krifmer; and then again they are of the material of the coat, elaborately trimmed with braid embroidery, or a smartly worked-out design in Angora wool. This latter is a very new and effective touch brought out at the early Paris openings. Cuffs, too, come in for their share of attention. Some flare, some are made gauntlet fashion, some are cut to fit the forearm snugly from elbow to wrist, where they flare slightly, and others are merely straight bands of the same, or a contrasting material.

Sleeves on both coats and frocks are varied most attractively, the models being taken from a number of different clothes periods.

YOUR BIG CHANCE TO SEE THE MOGUL 8-16 OIL TRACTOR AT WORK

When you are at the People's Fair at Burlington, N. C. this year, October 5-6-7-8, you will find the Mogul 8-16, the most famous Small-Farm Tractor made, on exhibit and under demonstration.

Be sure to see our plowing demonstration on the grounds. The Mogul 8-16 will prove why it has been causing such a sensation at all public exhibitions and fairs, and on so many farms this Summer.

This is the closest to ideal power for farms of 100 acres and over that has ever been built. The Mogul 8-16 plows deeper and cheaper, pulls binders, disks, harrows, seeders, mowers, rakes and loaders. It will thresh the grain, bale the hay, fill the silo, shred the corn—all with its reliable power. It costs less than horses to buy and to support and does better and more work.

The Mogul 8-16 has a reliable slow-speed engine, handles easily, and burns very cheap kerosene fuel. The price is $675 cash f. o. b. Chicago. Come to the demonstration at the Fair and see the good evidence for yourself. Let us show you how many different kinds of work this popular all-purpose all-year tractor will do. Don't miss the opportunity. We will also have other up-to-date farm machinery on exhibit.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE.
 Seeley, Who Fitted Czar of Russia, Called to Greensboro.

Misses Iris Holt and Ethie Garrett have gone to High Point to teach in the Graded School at that place during the winter.

F. H. Seeley of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will be at the Huffine Hotel and will remain in Greensboro Friday only, October 8th. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield as now used and approved by the United States Government will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, affording immediate and complete relief, but cures the opening in 10 days on the average case. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, harmful injections, medical treatments or prescriptions. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. All charity cases without charge, or if any interested call he will be glad to show same without charge or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.

Dr. J. P. Spoon, who was seriously injured last Saturday morning by being kicked by a horse at his hospital, is improving rapidly and will soon be able to resume his professional work.

The aim of this piece of health work is, as is the aim of all true health work, more to prevent than to cure. It is to stay off diseases that are seriously detrimental to child life even when not fatal. It is to reduce the country's death rate, and from an economic point of view, it is to save needless loss of time and expenditure. Every home in the county will be more or less benefitted by this work—homes in which there are well children as well as homes in which there are sick children. Of the 5,000 or more homes in the county a comparatively few may feel directly the effects of the quarantine rules and regulations while indirectly all will be benefitted from the protection that is thrown around the few. The many are saved at a slight inconvenience to the few.

HARTSHORN ITEMS.
 Farmers are right busy now, pulling cane fodder, getting their molasses ready to sop this winter. A good number of the people in this community attended the show at Burlington last Saturday.

Sheriff D. B. Stafford received notification yesterday of a robbery in Gibsonville between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday morning, when the safe of H. S. Huffines, a general merchant, was entered, the safe blown and $556 in money secured. It was also stated that the robber entered the building occupied by the postoffice, but he found no safe and nothing was bothered. Officers searched diligently yesterday for some clue as to the robber, or robbers, but without success. Greensboro Daily News.

Example.
 Two drug stores in a small North Carolina town are selling cold drinks. One drug store is on one side of the street and one on the other side. Each store sells their drinks at 5 cents each, and each store has two tables to serve the drinks on. Ten men go into each drug store. Five men sit at each table in the East Side drug store. Each man orders a round of drinks for the men at his table. Ten men go in the West Side drug store. Six men sit at the first table, and four men sit at the second table.

 BURLINGTON, N. C.

ALAMANCE ADOPTS QUARANTINE LAWS.
 State Board of Health in Control of Contagious Diseases.
 Alamance County recently entered into contract with the State Board of Health wherein the latter proposes through its own special local agent to handle the problem of contagious diseases in this county for one year. To this end the County Board of Health has adopted special quarantine rules and regulations prepared by the State Board of Health. The board will see that the laws are faithfully enforced. The rules are plain and simple statements setting forth the duties of parents, physicians, teachers and the quarantine officer in dealing with whooping cough, measles, scarlet fever and diphtheria.

This contract to control infectious diseases for one year in Alamance County does not presuppose or include the elimination of infectious diseases this year or for any time to come. But it does presuppose a partial control to the extent that infection is kept from spreading 20, 30 or 40 per cent farther than it would spread without such a system of control. A half a loaf is better than no loaf.

One thing that this contract would eliminate is that superstition which believes that the sooner a child has whooping cough, measles, scarlet fever, etc., the better it is for him. The truth of the matter is the reverse, as the following figures bear testimony. To children under one year of age, whooping cough is fatal in 25 per cent of all cases, while from 5 to 15 years, it is fatal in only 4 per cent. Measles is fatal in 19 per cent of all the cases from 1 to 3 years of age, while it is only 1 per cent fatal from 4 to 5 years. Scarlet fever is fatal in 22 per cent of the cases under 1 year of age, while its fatality drops to 3 per cent for the ages from 5 to 15. It is seen distinctly that these diseases have regard for age. Furthermore, it is clear that if there's a time for all things that babyhood and childhood are not the times for these diseases. The longer they are deferred, the better it will be for all concerned.

SIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED.
 Each man orders a round of drinks for his table. There is ten men in each drug store, and they all use the same price drink. When multiplied out, it is found that the West Side store receives ten cents more from the ten men buying the same number of drinks at the same price than the East Side store receives. We invite our readers to test the correctness of this problem by solving it.

TURKS LOSE 10,000 IN TWO ATTACKS.

Allies Take Strong Line of Trenches and Hold Impregnable Positions.

London, Sept. 19.—A description of the fighting in the Anzac region, on the Gallipoli peninsula during the last week in August and the result achieved during this period is given by the Dardanelles correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company, who says 10,000 Turks were killed in two actions.

The capture of Hill No. 60 was important, says the correspondent, as it is the last crest of the last ridge separating the Anzac zone from the plains to the north, and constitutes a point of union between the British forces in the Anzac position and the line across the Sulva plain.

The Turks, he says, clung to the hill with the utmost determination, accepted terrible losses to regain the ground, and when the trenches finally were captured they were filled with Turkish dead. It took three days to oust the Turks and the ground around, he says, is thickly strewn with their bodies and those of British soldiers who fell in the assaults. It is computed that the Turks lost five thousand men before they surrendered the position.

In a counter attack the Turks succeeded in sweeping two British battalions off a ridge, but when they got across the crest into the ravine below they came under the fire of British machine guns.

"They came down in thousands," said a staff officer of the New Zealand brigade; "they went back in hundreds." The correspondent's story continues. Machine gunners, he says, claim that five thousand were killed.

Danger to this part of the line, the correspondent thinks could only come through physical overstrain of the troops as they have made the position virtually impregnable and even supplies now are taken up through saps which run right down to the beaches.

COULDN'T TELL.

The Boston Herald relates that Saturday afternoon a woman rushed up to one of the gatemen at the South Station and asked: "Will I have time to catch my train if I wait for my husband?" "Where is he?" said the gateman. "I don't know," she replied. "Well, neither do I," said the gateman. She walked away. The incident was closed.

OUR MISTAKEN SENATOR.

It is increasingly apparent that Senator John W. Kern, former running mate of W. J. Bryan, intends to line up with his former partner in opposition to increasing the size of the army and navy when Congress meets again. Senator Kern is now busy giving out reports that Indiana is opposed to improving the national defenses.

If he really believes that Mr. Kern is in line for one of the biggest surprises of his life this coming December. The people of Indiana will not approve a tremendous increase in the army, it is true. Few states will, in our judgment. But the people of Indiana will be found lined up in favor of a reasonable increase in the standing army, creation of a reserve and federal control of the national guard.

When the people begin to be heard from in the public prints we venture the opinion that Mr. Kern is going to find out also that the people of Indiana, like those of other states, are going to be found favoring a considerable development of the navy. If Mr. Kern expects to truly represent the people of this state in the coming congress he needs to put his ear to the ground again and keep it there. Less pork and more army and navy is what the people of Indiana want.—South Bent. (Ind.) Tribune.

Nurse says one of the best things for insomnia is milk. A glass should be taken last thing at night before retiring. To be really effective it must be quite hot, and should be sipped very slowly. To drink milk quickly is almost sure to bring on an attack of indigestion. Often a leaf or two of lettuce eaten without oil or vinegar will help one to sleep the whole night long.

THE NURSE SAYS:

Sleep with the bedroom windows open. The old superstition that night air is unhealthy even for an invalid, is entirely false. On the contrary, night air, especially in large cities, is purer and better than day air, because it contains less dust and fewer microbes.

To get the best ventilation have the window open at both top and bottom. The average healthy person has little fear from drafts, but the aged, feeble, infants and persons especially susceptible must be protected from them.

EXPERIMENTS IN SPRAYING OF PEACHES.

Up-to-date fruit growers spray their peach trees as well as their apples, although it is well understood that good results are not always certain, and there is also a liability to injury if care is not used to have the spray solutions of proper strengths and carefully prepared.

With the advent of the ready-prepared lime-sulphur solutions which are safely used at diluted strengths on apples after the blooming period, there has been a tendency to use these ready-made lime-sulphur washes at diluted strength on peaches after the blooming period also, and many fruit-growers have been asking the Division of Entomology of the State Department of Agriculture whether this can be safely done. Accordingly Mr. Sherman and Mr. Clapp of this Division have been making experiments with this material during the past two seasons in the peach orchard at the Statesville Test Farm. The results so far show that when diluted even at the rate of 1 gallon of the ready-made solution to 50 gallons of water, there is apt to be serious injury to the trees if the treatment, be given continuously, though they have used it successfully on single occasions when not convenient to prepare the standard self-boiled lime-sulphur solution. Trees on which the diluted ready-made solution has been used for two seasons now show a serious lack of new growth, even though they made good yields of fine fruit both years, and the treatment was successful against both insects and rot. They conclude that the self-boiled lime-sulphur solution should still be relied upon for spring and summer spraying of peaches—though the ready-made solution should be used in winter at strength of 1 gallon to 8 gallons water for control of San Jose Scale. But to depend on the ready-made solutions regularly for summer spraying of peaches?—experience says "don't."

MORAL SUASION AND BIG STICK.

Advance notices of the Pan-American vote to Mexico said it would be pacific in phrase, without a hint of forcible measures in case the warring factions failed to get together on a practical program of peace. The full text, now made public, bears out predictions, the only trace of an ultimatum in the milk-and-water document being the mild suggestion of a date when a reply to the communication might reasonably be expected, but the force of even this intimation is lessened by the statement that the time for an answer may be extended if necessary. A wild animal trainer who should rely entirely on moral suasion would not get very far in his profession, and the "tut, tut" tone of his latest appeal to the Mexicans running amuck will probably be about as effective as shaking a finger at an obstreperous tiger. The collaborated authorship of the note, of course, precluded pointed reference to the condition of affairs which must be our administration's immediate and chief concern the desperate lawlessness along our southern border.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

BEFORE THE BATTLE.

Jimmie Jinks, aged seven, was a good little boy, says The Chicago Herald. One afternoon he and two of his schoolmates had a quarrel, and nearly came to blows. Jimmie came home from school looking very thin and worried.

"You're not looking very well, Jimmie," said his mother. "I think you'd better say your prayers and get into bed."

At the word of command Jimmie dropped on his knees and entreated hopefully:

"Oh, Lord, make me as strong as Samson was afore 'e 'ad a 'air-cut and as nimble as a Bengal tiger, 'cos I've got to fight Billy Briggs and Timothy Timkins on 'Ampstead 'Eaf in the mornin'."

DANVILLE, VA., BOY IS KILLED BY MOTOR CAR.

Robert Booth, Son of Prominent Banker, Run Down in Presence of His Mother—Driver is Under Arrest.

Danville, Va., Sept. 25.—Robert Booth, a lad of 10 years of age, and son of B. V. Booth, a prominent banker of this city, was run over and instantly killed by an automobile here shortly after 6 o'clock this afternoon, by Sydney Bateman, a local chauffeur.

The tragedy occurred just after the boy had returned from a ride in another car. Eye witnesses say that he was attempting to cross the street in front of his own home to reach several of his playmates on the other side, when struck by the car, which passed over his head and fractured the skull. Among the several residents of that section who witnessed his death from their front porches, was his mother. Not knowing that it was her son but seeing that it was certain that the boy would be run down, she tried to warn him but was unsuccessful. She reached him after he had been picked up by another, and even then for a few minutes did not realize it was her own son she held. When she found that it was her boy in her arms, and that he was already dead, her ried was heartrending.

Opinion differs greatly as to the speed the car was making, but one who is a competent judge, and who saw the tragedy, states in her opinion, it was around 18 miles an hour.

Bateman is now under arrest, charged with murder and his bail has been placed at $2,500. He claims that it was an unavoidable accident; that when he saw the boy he threw on his emergency brakes but too late. His car skidded exactly 32 feet after running over young Booth, it is said.

THE WAR SITUATION.

The close of the week witnessed a manifest revival of the fortunes of the German armies. Progress in the east had been retarded very nearly to a standstill situation, but the repulse of the Russians and the pursuit have about regained the old-time proportions and pace. The Germans have been successful in getting partial control over the railroad to Petrograd and the movement against the great Russian Capital will be thereby vastly facilitated, though the way will by no means be opened to an unimpeded advance by the invading army. The tremendous toll of life suffered by the British at the Dardanelles is woefully out of proportion to the results gained, the balking of the Allies being a continued story from day to day. To the Allied forces the information that Germany is arranging to send relief to the Turks will not be productive of feelings of encouragement, while the effect on the hard-pressed Russians will not be stimulating, in view of the helplessness of Great Britain to aid them. With the exception of the progress picked up in the east by Germany, the week passed with no material change in the situation for either the Allies or the Teutons.

WHERE FEAR LAY.

Evelyn is very cowardly, and her father decided to have a serious talk with his little daughter. "Father," she said at the close of his lecture, "when you see a cow ain't you 'fraid?" "No, certainly not, Evelyn." "When you see a bumblebee, ain't you 'fraid?" "No!" with scorn. "Ain't you 'fraid when it thunders?" "No," with laughter. "Oh, you silly child!" "Papa," said Evelyn solemnly, "ain't you 'fraid of nothing in the world but mamma?"—Short Stories.

BOYHOOD REFLECTIONS.

When I got your letter, I wasn't feeling well; But now I am better; And I wish to tell; That I've missed the boy, Of my childhood days; And remember our joy, When at mischief and plays.

You know I've not seen, Your face in so long; That I feel that you mean, To do me a wrong— For you don't come about, As you used to do; And it makes me pout, To be slighted by you.

I remember the rock, Where we used to jump; How we'd fight and knock, For a place on the stump; Of the fun we had, In the swimming hole, Though we knew our dad, Was opposed to the role.

Now, it makes me sad, 'Cause the days are gone— Yet I am made glad, That I'm living on; To see the light, Of the present day; With a hope that I might, See you down my way.

Let the fullness of joy, Come again to me; By the same old boy, With the same old glee— With the same old pride, With your girl as of old; When you used to confide, In me, schemes you would mold.

I remember so well, How we used to fight; How we'd run and tell, For we thought it right— How our mothers were mad, When we entered the door; Telling us she had, A whipping in store.

But the lessons learned then, Are remembered today; And they've made us men, Who can see the way; That our children should walk, In their youthful days; For we know our talk, Eventually pays.

Let us profit then, By the lessons of old; When we knew well when, To do a thing when told, Our innocence then, We can understand now; For we've become men, That can realize how. —J. M. FREEMAN.

DEAD MAN DRIVES HORSES.

Reins Between Stiffened Fingers, Team Brings Him Home.

(From New York World.) While John G. Gerritsen sat dead but lax reins hanging between his stiffened bolt upright on the wagon seat, the fingers, his team of horses traveled safely for more than 2 miles on the winding valley road at the foot of Garret mountain from Lodi to Richfield, N. J.

Gerritsen, 67 years old, of 341 Frazier avenue, Lodi, was one of the largest contractors in that vicinity some years ago. He started to drive from his home to Marley stone quarry at Richfield. Often his team has passed over the road to the quarry. At the familiar end of the journey the horses stopped.

Men at the quarry saw Gerritsen seated on the box silent, motionless. Was he asleep? They spoke to him, they shook him, they lifted him from the wagon. County Physician Armstrong said heart failure had been fatal to Gerritsen half an hour before his horses drew up at the quarry.

WHICH, GROUND MARL OR GROUND LIMESTONE?

From letters received at the office of the Division of Agronomy during the past two weeks it would be inferred that there is some doubt in the minds of farmers as to the relative value of ground marls and ground limestones as carriers of lime for agricultural purposes. If marl has been weathered (and this is necessary with many of the marls occurring in the eastern part of this State), the lime or calcium carbonate in it will have the same value per pound for use on the farm as will the lime or calcium carbonate contained in the ground limestones. In other words, the calcium carbonate contained in these two classes of materials have practically the same value if the grinding is the same. The farmer in determining which he should use on his particular farm should ascertain which of these materials will supply calcium carbonate cheapest delivered at his farm. In order to do this it will be necessary to have all quotations based upon delivery and be accompanied by the guaranteed analysis. If these precautions are observed it will be a very simple calculation to determine what will be the cheaper form to use. For instance, if marl guaranteed to contain 80 percent of calcium carbonate was quoted at $3.20 per ton delivered at the farmer's railroad station, and ground limestone was guaranteed to contain 95 percent of calcium carbonate at $3.50 per ton—the ground limestone would be the cheapest form to use because in the case of the marl five pounds of actual calcium carbonate would be secured for one cent, while in the case of ground limestone 5.43 pounds of calcium carbonate would be obtained for this money. In case of marl there would be 1,600 pounds and with the ground limestone 1,900 pounds of calcium carbonate per ton. In order for the farmer to buy intelligently it is necessary for him to understand these facts.

STEALING A MAN'S CROP.

When the Federal Reserve Board prohibited the rediscounting of cotton notes bearing more than 6 per cent interest it hit a colossal abuse straight and hard. How far-reaching the evils of usury have become at the South is now shown by Mr. Harding, one of the members of the board, who cites national banks in the cotton belt which charge from 10 to 30 per cent, as an average for all loans, though in many instances the rates actually run in excess of 100 per cent.

Extortion is found also in Northern and Western States, but not to the same extent; for with more diversified crops and better home markets, farmers do not, as a rule, find themselves so desperately situated as the cotton-planter.

To call this sort of thing banking is to misuse language. It is thievery, and thievery of the most oppressive kind, because it is carried on by men operating under national charters and having governmental sanction. If in the guise of money lenders men may steal a farmer's crop before it is gathered, there is no reason why through the piratical processes of banking the same unconscionable rascals should not be able in a brief period to reduce thousands of hard-working Americans to bondage.—New York World.
